A Yes, so far as I know it did, yes sir.
Q Campbell got so many bad citizenship cases and through the mill, and they finally had him up about it, had a good deal of stir about it? A Yes sir.
Q And some of that stir was sort of occasioned by Mr Melton; Mr Dawson in person, wasn't it? A I don't know, I don't know whether he tried the Dawson.
Q Was not that one of the principal cases that brought Mr into notoriety? A I don't know whether he had that case or not. I know he had a great many cases.
Q That was the principal thing that concerned the Creek Campbell out, was citizenship cases here? A I think that is what got him into the most trouble.
Q I say before that time nobody had talked much about Campbell one way or another, and it became pretty general that Campbell was handling about citizenship cases, and he got a bad reputation from that? A Yes sir, I think that was the impression generally.
Q Was Mr. Melton's connection with the Dawson case sort of been that Bank Deposit matter talked much about it? A I never have, myself, about it, I don't know.
Q You have said that people have a reputation, now what the facts were, that was a notorious thing? A Oh it has been a notorious case, yes sir.
Q Well is that of Mr. Campbell's reputation for truth and honesty been notorious also in the community? A I have so that

Q His reputation for truth and veracity is good, is it not? A I don't know as I could say that very often that is the case.
Q Speaking of his own honesty, he does that very thoroughly?
A No sir, not that I know of.
Q Doesn't he pride a good deal about that sort of thing? A About his reputation?
Q Why is standing off in his integrity? A I don't understand that he does.
Q You were not about the citizenship courts along in '81 and '2 were you? A No sir.
Q Don't remember about the talk that was going on around the Capitol over there about the citizenship cases? A Why no, don't remember anything special as I know of. I knew how the citizenship court going on at different times.
Q How far were you living from Tahlequah in '81? A Well, I lived close to Vinita, I guess it is sixty miles probably.
Q Have you lived any nearer Tahlequah since that time? A No sir, never have.

H. L. BUTLER, both first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:

Q How long have you known him? A I think about 15 years.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and honesty? A Yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Bad so far as I know.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How did Campbell Taylor get a bad reputation? A Why, sir, I don't know how he did.
Q You never knew him until 1935? A Well I never knew him personally, I heard of him before that.
Q He had a bad reputation before '35? A Yes sir.
Q Bad reputation way back yonder? A First I remember I ever heard of him I heard people speaking bad of him, when I was a kid.
Q And everybody that came around the Nation and knew anything at all knew Campbell had a bad reputation? A Yes sir, ever so far back as '79 or '80, that is as far back as I can remember: I think I heard it spoken of in '80, I think that's about the time.
Q And Campbell got a very bad reputation in '80 and '81 when we began to have these citizenship cases? A Yes sir.
Q You heard his reputation of immorality and using the mails for these business? A Yes sir, I heard of him being in the Post Office Jail on that account.
Q Citizens of the Nation talked a good deal about Campbell's being in these bad citizenship cases? A Yes sir.
And I also heard he had a bad reputation for owing his debts, also about the same time.
Q You don't know whether he had the money, he might not have had the money to pay his debts? A No sir.
Q He could have kept out of the citizenship cases? A Yes sir, I am sure he could.
Q You never heard Mr. Duncan's name mentioned before in connection with the Duncan case, citizenship cases? A No sir, I don't think I have, I may have, but I don't remember hearing it.
Q General impression that everybody had done something wrong in that matter, citizenship cases? A I heard there was no one done wrong in connection with the Duncan citizenship cases.
Q What has always been in relation with these citizenship cases? A Yes sir, I have heard it mentioned around over the country that was the case.

Q There A A pretty large voting community of these Indians that was never investigated? A I don't know about that. I don't think it was ever investigated, I never heard of it.

Q Do they never make any endeavor to find out the truth of it?
A No sir.
Q Where did you live in '67? A In '67 I lived out on Dick Creek, about 12 miles southeast of Winslow.
Q How far from Tahlequah was that? A About 65 or 70 miles, I suppose.
Q You never were around before the citizenship courts any thing that time? A No sir.
Q You don't know whether Mr. Campbell had part of the bad check or not, do you? A No sir, I do not, at that time.

BY MR. [illegible]: Applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness as it went in by way of proof, about the claim of the Brown case, because the case is hearsay, immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

A. W. MCKENNON, of Counsel for Applicants, being first duly sworn, makes the following statement:

I became a resident of Carroll County, Arkansas, early in 1886. I was intimately acquainted with Doctor Arthur Baker, for many years. Knew him as well as I did anyone else. He was a gentleman of the highest Christian character, so recognized by everybody who knew him. He was a sober man, and never drank liquor. I make this statement here in vindication of that good man's memory than for any other reason, because any imputation against his character is false.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long did you know him? A I resided in Carroll County until 1887 when I removed to Johnson County, Arkansas; during the war I was away from home, but I knew him intimately every year that I resided in Carroll County.
Q Did you know him since '67? A Yes sir, I have seen him several times. I have relatives living in the town in which he lived; my relations to him were such as to cause me always to inquire about Doctor Baker; I knew his reputation I think as well after I left there as I did when I lived there.
Q Did you know those facts in 1896 when you were a member of this Commission? A Yes sir, I have known them all my life as I know them now.
Q Did you know them when you as a member of this Commission passed on the Irene J. House case? A I knew it every day of my life, in 1896 as well as now.
Q Suppose that Doctor Arthur Baker's statement should appear that he was born in the year 1808, and suppose he said when he was 15 or 16 years of age that Anna Pruett the wife of Samuel Dawson, was a grown up girl going to school, when the other undisputed evidence shows that she had married Sam Dawson prior to that time and had seven children, the youngest of whom was born in '83, how would you harmonize that with a man who was an honest man and knew the facts in the case? A Whatever Dr. Baker stated he honestly believed, whether it was right or wrong; whether it was error or truth, he honestly believed it, and stated it as he believed it.
Q He was capable of being in error? A Every man is.
Q I say he was? A Yes sir, just as you and I and every man, he was; I merely stated as to his high character, which could be proven by every man who knows me I think, I swear it.
Q The Commission rejected Irene J. House in 1896, of which you were a member? A I don't remember anything about that personally.

TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF CHEROKEE NATION.

DAVID MEREDITH, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. MCKENNON:
Q State your name? A David Meredith.
Q Where do you reside? A Vinita.
Q How old are you? A 60 years old.
Q Did you ever know Jesse Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I knew him probably 8 years.
Q Did you ever have any talk with him about his citizenship case.
A Very little.
Q You were at one time an applicant before the Dawes Commission for citizenship were you not? A Yes sir.
Q Tell what did Mr. Dawson tell you with reference to his citizenship, as to the cost of his getting it, if anything? A Well he told me it cost him eleven or twelve hundred dollars to get him on through.
Q Where did that conversation take place? A At Afton.
Q At what time? A It was in '82, spring of '83.
BY MR. MCKENNON:
Q Where were you when he told you that? A I was working on a house in Afton, building the house.
Q Whose house? A S. S. Haines.
Q Who else was present? A Haines was present.
Q Where is he? A At Afton.
Q What aged man was Mr. Dawson at that time? A I don't know, he was very old, probably 75 years old.
Q Was he not a very feeble man? A Yes sir.
Q Hardly able to get around? A No sir.
Q Was he not then regarded as feeble minded old man? A I don't know whether he was so regarded or not.
Q You don't know what he had to do with the case, in fact, himself, do you? A No, I judged it was himself and family that cost that much to get through; attorney's fees, etc. That is the way I took it anyway.
Q You were an applicant yourself were you not? A Yes sir.
Q When? A At that time.
Q Before the Cherokee authorities? A Yes sir.
Q They rejected you? A Yes sir.
Q You were an applicant then before the Dawes Commission were you? A Yes sir, been rejected ever since.
Q Are you still an applicant? A Yes sir.
Q Still trying to get in? A Yes sir.
Q Claiming by blood? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation? A 13 years.
Q Whose did you come from? A Indiana.
Q Claiming to be a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
Q Indian? A Yes sir.
Q Jesse Dawson is dead is he? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A I think he died probably within two years after that.

TESTIMONY TAKEN ON BEHALF OF THE APPLICANTS.

T. M. DAWSON, being recalled and further examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. MCKENNON:
Q. M. Dawson? A Yes sir.

Q. Mr. Dawson, what number of your family came to the Cherokee Nation to file and have made the claim of your father, James Dawson, and the children of his family, to Cherokee citizenship?
A My brother from Texas met me at Tahlequah.
Q Tell his name? A Filbert Dawson, they all know him by nick.
Q When was that? A In '81 as well as I remember, or '82, I don't know which, it was in '81 or '82.
Q Did you file your claim at that time? A My brother was, yes, the application,-my brother had Joel Mayes to make it out and file it. That is my understanding.
Q Joel Mayes, who afterwards was Chief of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Before what court was that filed? A My understanding was as the clerk of the court; Hastings can tell he what court he was clerk of.
Q He was clerk of the Court at that time? A Yes sir, of the citizenship court; that's my understanding.
Q What was done about the case at that time, if you remember? A I went back home and left my brother down there at that time, that trip.
Q Where did you then live? A I lived at Perryville, Ark ansas.
Q When did you next come to the Cherokee Nation? A I believe I come back the next January, that was in September.
Q Was your brother back here then? A I don't think he was, I don't remember.
Q Well had he at any term of the Court or session of the Commission at any time after you first came here and filed the application until after it was decided? A No sir, I never met him any more until that case was decided.
Q You conducted the business then after that did you not? A Yes sir.
Q The case was finally determined in January 1887? A '87, yes sir, the 11th day as I remember.
Q Were you present at that session? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any decision of that case other than the one of record here? A I never heard of it if there was.
Q Was the judgment rendered in that case recorded in the record Book of that Commission now in the custody of the Dawes Commission the only judgment that was rendered in that case so far as you know? A Yes sir, so far as I know, if there was any I never heard of it in that case.
Q You then know of no decision against you in the case? A No sir.
Q Who was your attorney employed at the beginning? A I employed A. H. Norwood.
Q Was he a Cherokee Citizen? A Yes sir, I think so.
Q Where did he live? A At Claremore, my understanding.
Q Was he present at any time before the Commission? A I never saw him, he never met me there before the Commission.
Q Did you pay him any money? A Yes sir.
Q How much? A Fifty dollars.
Q Did he ever render any services? A If he ever did I never knew it.
Q Well then who did you employ? A My brother employed Joel Bryant.
Q Was he a Cherokee citizen?
A That is my understanding.
Q Was he not a prominent Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
Q What service did he render? A Well sir, I don't know whether he rendered any or not, only he met me a time or two at Tahlequah, and he was before the Commission; whether he rendered any services or not I don't know; he was generally always at Washington City during the Term down there.

Q Well what did he do about it? A I don't know, I couldn't say whether he done anything about it. That is Mr. Bryant, he was always gone.
Q What next was done about the employment of an attorney? A Why I got a letter from Joel Bryant that he was going to Washington City and for me to come down in January Term and Campbell Taylor would see to my claim before the court.
Q Did he say that he had engaged the services of Campbell Taylor the attorney, to attend to it in his absence? A Yes sir, in his absence.
Q Have you got that letter? A I don't think I got the letter.
Q Well what did you do then? A Why when the time come I come down on the duty to Muskogee here and I goes over from here to Fort Gibson and I goes down to see Uncle Houston Benge and stays all night with him; it was very cold weather, and I got him to come over and submit my case to the court; I went over one day and the next day Uncle Houston Benge come over and the next morning after he come over the case was submitted.
Q Did he submit the case? A Yes sir, he told me so.
Q For you? A Yes sir.
Q Were you present? A I was present until they went to take the vote on the case and then we was drove out of their room and they had a secret session, actin on the case.
Mr Houston Benge present with you? A Yes sir.
Q Were you in the court when he submitted it to them? A Yes sir, when he made his argument.
Q He made an argument before the Commission? A Yes sir.
Q Was the decision rendered on that day? A Yes sir.
Q How long after he made his argument and submitted the case? A It was not but a little bit when we were drove out of the house the first time before they went into secret session they wanted us to get up the cigars to the court and the crowd in the house; after the decision was rendered I am I was to get up the cigars, and everybody come to me and told me to go and get the cigars and I done so.
Q And you took the cigars there and all? A Yes sir, everybody, the attorneys and all that was in the house, all had a big smoke.
Q Did they then announce their finding in the case? A Yes sir, they told me that I was granted my citizenship right and by the Commission.
Q What did you do about it then? A Why the Clerk wrote me out my certificate.
Q That same day? A That same day.
Q What arrangements did you make with Mr. Benge about his fee, and what was the amount of his fee? A There was no arrangement made until we got up there and he submitted our case; then he stated to me, he charged me fifty dollars, that was his fee.
Q What was the agreement about the matter, the manner in which that fee should be paid? A My brother in Texas was to pay it.
Q Were you to write or was he to write? A He was to write for it.
Q Did your brother in Texas ever pay his fee of fifty dollars?
A Yes sir.
Q Was that all that was to be paid? A All was to have; all he charged me.
Q You heard his statement when he gave his deposition at Fort Gibson the other day did you not? A Yes sir.

Q He there stated that you paid him fifty dollars before you went over to Tahlequah, did you do that? A No sir.
Q He said that you paid him fifty dollars after he got over to Tahlequah, did you do that? A I never paid him a cent in my life.
Q After that judgment was rendred where did you go to? A I went back home to Arkansas.
Q By what route? A I went by Silom Springs and on by Spring Dale and then on to Rogers, took the railroad there and went on by Seligman and by Eureka Springs home.
Q You then did not return to Fort Gibson with Duncan Vann, as he stated? A No sir, I did not.
Q Why did you not return by way of Fort Gibson? A Well I thought maybe the others was the cheapest road and struck a hack going out by Sam Stubbs when I was boarding at, I could go to Silom Springs and I went by that route and then there was a hack going by Spring Dale, that was the most direct route.
Q That was the most direct route from your home was it not? A Yes sir.
Q And the cheaper? A And the cheapest route.
Q Had you been coming back to Fort Gibson you would have been going directly away from home would you not? A Yes sir.
Q Your home was nearly east, due east of Tahlequah was it not? A Yes sir, little north of east, pretty near due east.
Q While Fort Gibson is almost due west is it not? A South west.
Q You heard his statement that you went to Fort Gibson with him, and he says on a you stated to him that the way to reach the court was through Duncan and you reached there through Duncan with five hundred dollars, did you make that statement? A I never did, I didn't have the five hundred dollars to reach him.
Q Did he while at Tahlequah inthe court room or the evening before this judgment was rendered in your favor, tell you that the court had rendered a judgment against you? A No sir.
Q And did you then say to him, you can't fix that? A I had no such conversation with him.
Q Did you pay to D. W. C. Duncan, who was the Clerk of the Court any sum of money, or agree to pay him any sum of money, directly or through any other person for any services he might render you by way of influencing the court to decide in your favor? A No sir.
Q Or for any other purpose? A No sir.
Q Did you pay him any money after that through Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q What amount? A 30 or 35 Dollars, I don't know which it was.
Q State what that money was paid for? A For a claim.
Q What do you mean by a claim? A Claim on the public domain; he had a claim up there close to me; paid him 30 or 35 dollars for his claim he had up there by me, on the Cherokee Public Domain.
Q What did Campbell Taylor have to do with your case?
A He had nothing to do with it.
Q Did you agree to pay him any money for his services as an attorney? A No sir.
Q Did he perform any services in that case foryou as a representative of Mr. Bryant? A No sir.
Q Did you pay him any money? A Yes sir.
Q On what account? A He come to me and said he had the claim against me for Joel Bryant and wanted me to pay him the money and I done so.
Q What amount? A Hundred dollars.

Q [illegible] paid to [illegible] for [illegible] I [illegible], for Joel Bryant, he was entitled to it for Joel Bryant.
Q Did you pay that money to Joel Bryant, or not? A Joel Bryant claimed he didn't, and I had to pay him again, paid Joel Bryant two hundred dollars in cash. For the fee: E. D. Mac., paid Joel Bryant; after that we never could get the money from Campbell Taylor, only this twenty dollars or twenty-five dollars; that is all we ever got back from him.
Q How did you get that 25 dollars out of D. Duncan? A I went after him and telling him to pay that money over to me, he rendered no services to [illegible] all and the money was to go to Joel Bryant, and I finally worked out the twenty or twenty-five dollars, that is all I ever did get back.
Q The amount that he paid to Duncan? A Yes sir.
Q Was this money paid to him, this one hundred dollars, while you were there at the time the judgment was rendered, or was it sent to him afterwards? A I think it was paid then, as well as I recollect about it.
Q You think it was paid then? A Yes sir, that's my recollection now.
Q Did you send him one hundred dollars after you got back from there, subsequent to the rendering of that judgment, after it was rendered I mean, directing him to pay fifty dollars of that or any other sum to D. T. C. Duncan? A No sir.
Q Did you send him a second one hundred dollars with a direction? A No sir.
Q Mr. Dean, do you know what it cost your family in all to obtain this ruling in the Cherokee Nation under this judgment? A Pretty near, it I do.
Q Well about what sum? A About five hundred dollars, maybe near 500 dollars. That is what I considered, I was bent out of some of my money, that I was bent out of and expenses.
Q Now make a statement of what that money was paid for and how, so far as you have been able to do it now? Tell the first fifty dollars Norwood got; the next fifty dollars he got; that was the attorneys fees; I speak of the attorneys fees now; the next money was the hundred that Campbell Taylor got; the next attorney fees was Bryant's one hundred dollars.
Q Was that all the attorney's fees? A I think it was, no, wait, I paid Ross 15 dollars for taking Baker's deposition.

Q Which Ross was that? A The old Chief, Will Ross I think was his name, William P. Ross.
Q He then, this Chief William P. Ross for taking the deposition of Dr. Baker charged you fifteen dollars? A Yes sir.
Q Do you mean by that that he acted as your attorney or examined him? A Yes sir.
He examined him before the Commissioner, took his statements.
Q What other attorneys were there present? A None of this was present.
Q Well now, go on? A For the expenses of taking Dr. Baker and he was a Doctor, as well as I remember he charged me 5 dollars a day and I gave him and his expenses down there; we come through to a hotel [illegible], Kennyville, Arkansas, to Chickasaw, and our board and expenses amounted I think it was about 75 dollars that trip, we stayed over it, maybe a little over that.
Q Did you pay his per diem? A I paid him five dollars a day for his time and then his expenses.

Q Well? A Well I made several trips out here at different times, to Tahlequah before the Commission, and back, three or four times as well as I remember now, cost me 20 or 25 dollars each trip, as I remember about it.

Q Do you remember how many trips aside from the one in which you brought Dr. Baker? A No, I think there was probably three trips I think it was, maybe more, and then I made one trip to Claremore to see A. H. Norwood.

Q What did that trip cost you? A I don't remember what it cost; I went in a wagon down there.

Q You went through and employed Benge, went by railroad; what did that trip cost you? A I don't remember what it was, whether it was 21 dollars or 31 dollars, one or the other, I don't remember which it was: Joe Dawson, my brother, give me the money, it was either 21 or 31 dollars.

Q Now then is there any other expense that you know of that was paid by you or your family, any members of your family, other than that you have mentioned? A I don't remember any other now; I can't tell to my memory right now.

Q What was the condition of the members of your family generally now, financially, at that time? A Well we were considered poor people; I don't know, we didn't have much money, scarcely any.

Q Was there any one of them that was better off than the others, and if so, which one? A I suppose Albert Dawson was better off than the others, Buck Dawson.

Q Do you know how much Buck Dawson paid of these expenses? A I don't think he paid, he paid the Benge debt and the Bryant debt, I think it was.

Q That is one hundred and fifty dollars? A Yes sir, that he owed on one trip and taken some evidence with Joel Bryant when Joel Bryant was Clerk of the Court before this Tehee Court, I don't know what that cost him.

Q Carr up he send took some testimony? A Yes, come up and went back to Texas. Filed his claim and took some testimony and went back to Texas and I didn't see him.

Q Did that testimony include Dr. Baker's testimony? A No sir.

Q You know how many witnesses were examined then? A I only know what he told me.

Q How many? A Four witnesses.

Q You know whether they were residence of the Cherokee Nation or not? A He told me they was.

Q Were you present on that trip in which he came there and took that testimony? A No, I met him there and then I went back home and left him at Tahlequah.

Q He had taken the testimony before you left him or afterwards? A He taken it afterwards; that was my understanding.

Q Did Buck furnish only the one hundred fifty dollars that you now remember? A I think it was.

Q And the expense of taking these witness up there A Yes sir.

Q Who else furnished money now of the members of your family? A My brothers and father lived down in Berryville, me and my brother-in-law, Blassingame, we all chipped in together a few dollars from each family.

Q You heard the statement of C. C. Brought that in June 1903 you told him that it had cost you 700 dollars, did you make any such statement out to him? A I never did.

Q And that you paid one witness 300 dollars? A I never made any such statement.

Q Did you pay any witness any fees? A No sir, I paid Dr. Baker for his time; he said his time was worth 5 dollars a day, and so, and I paid it.
Q Did you pay any other witness any more than that? A No sir, he was the only witness I had up down there in my case.
Q Well the Robert Dawson case? A Yes sir.
Q He says that you told him this in your house there on your place, did you have any house there in June 1883? A I was not living on my farm at that time.
Q Did you have any farm? A Didn't have any.
Q Then did you build a house there? A I built a house on the farm I live in now by Mr. Brought, I moved on the farm the last of July, 1883, and I carried in my wagon.
Q What did you do? A I went to the timber and cut poles and hauled them out and made me a log cabin on the place by a spring near Mr. Brought.
Q About what time did you finish that house? A I was in September.
Q How long after you finished that house until you brought your family out? A I finished it up and got it covered and the floor in it and I went back to Eureka Springs after my wife.
Q What family did you have then? A I had my wife and she had one child; but my oldest children, by my first wife were with me in the Territory, camping with me; three little boys and one girl were with me, and one girl back in Arkansas.
Q Are you and C. G. Brought on good terms? A No sir.
Q What has been the character of the trouble between you? A Trouble over our places first started it.
Q When did it begin? A As soon as I got back from Arkansas he commenced hinder crowding me out to take my farm away from me, and we have been in a racket ever since.
Q Then his statement that you were on friendly terms, is it correct or not? A No sir, it aint correct.
Q He and you have never been friendly as neighbors then since you first came back from Arkansas and settled in the Territory? A I don't remember ever being in his house; I never was in his house.
Q Have you had law suits with each other? A Yes sir.
Q How many? A I don't know that we had any particular law suits, but I have had law suits and he has been a witness against me.
Q What was your last trouble with him, when I mean? A Along last fall.
Q That was when your boys had a little racket and he had your boy arrested? A Yes sir.
Q What was the age of those boys? A Eleven years old.
Q He had him arrested down at Vinita? A Yes sir, had him arrested and carried before the Commissioner at Vinita.
Q He was discharged on account of his age? A Yes sir.
Q Jack Dawson is dead is he? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A Three years, little over three years.
Q And James Dawson is dead? A Yes sir.
Q Is your father, Robert Dawson living? A No sir.
Q When did James Dawson die? A I don't remember, been dead several years, I don't remember how long, 6 or 7 years, I couldn't state.
Q When did your father, Robert Dawson die? A I believe it was in '87 as I remember now, I wont be positive.
Q Had all these moved to the Cherokee Nation before their death?
A No sir, father died in Arkansas.

Q Those that lived here in the Nation they lived here in the Nation but went back to Arkansas and died there? A Tell the rest of my folks all lived here. That was James Dawson and Buck Dawson.
Q Robert Dawson, your father, never did move to the Territory, did he? A No.
Q Did you hear the statement of the witness Beavert this morning, that about the time of hearing of the James Dawson case, at a negro church at night James Dawson came down there with someone else was introduced to him, and he loaned him ten dollars; did you hear that statement this morning? A I heard the statement, yes sir, I heard it.
Q He says that Sam James Dawson was 35 or 40 years old; was there any James Dawson living belonging to your family at that time of any such age? A No sir.
Q How many James Dawson's were there belonging to your family? A There was my uncle James Dawson and a brother James Dawson, the Doctor here.
Q How old was your brother James Dawson then? A He was a tolerable old man, I don't know his age.
Q About what age? A Must have been 60.
Q Between 60 and 70? A Yes sir.
Q That was the age of your brother James? A At that time?
Q Yes sir, in '84? A In '84 I suppose he was about 18, so something like that.
Q Had he anything to do with the James Dawson case? A No sir.
Q Was he present at the time that the James Dawson case was under consideration? A No sir.
Q Was James Dawson, your uncle James Dawson, present at any time during the consideration of his case? A No sir.
Q He never was present? A No sir, if Uncle Jim Dawson was ever in Tahlequah I never knew it.
Q Who conducted the prosecution of the James Dawson case before the Cherokee Citizenship Commission, who conducted it? A The James Dawson case?
Q Yes sir? A I think James Low and Bill Jackson and Campbell Taylor.
Q Were you acting with them? A Yes sir.
Q They employed Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q Then there was no James Dawson present during that session of the Commission? No sir.
Q What was the condition of James Dawson's health at that time? A It was pretty poorly; was not good.
Q Was he at that time able to get about and attend to business? A I don't think he was.
Q Was he not a very feeble minded old man at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Regarded as rather a silly man was he not? A Yes sir.
Q Did he attend to any kind of business of the family at that time? A No sir, didn't.
Q What was his financial condition? A Pretty bad.
Q Did he have any money? A No sir.
Q Did he have any property? A None hardly at all; horse probably, or a cow or two, something that way.
Q Was that about all the property he had? A Yes sir.
Q How about the other members of his family that were admitted at that time; what was their financial condition? A They were in poor circumstances.
Q Now then after these judgments were rendered what members of your family removed to the Territory, Cherokee Nation, I will say? A Robert Dawson and family and James Dawson and family, that is, they and their children.

Q Robert Dawson didn't remove here? A No, I said except Robert Dawson.
Q Did all the members of Robert Dawson family move here? A Yes sir.
Q Except himself? A Yes sir.
Q And all the members of James Dawson family? A No, not all the members, Melvina Low I don't think ever lived here.
Q She has never moved here? A No sir.
Q Well all the members of your family, your father's family included in that judgment of the Committee, rendered January 11th, 1893? A All but one.
Q What was the name of that one? A Mina.
Q A daughter? A Daughter of Robert Dawson.
Q Your sister? A Yes sir.
Q Was she then of age or was she a minor? A I think she was a minor, as well as I can remember.
Q Was she afterwards admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A She was.
Q By a Commission of the Cherokee Council? A She was first admitted by the Spears Court, her and two of my neices.
Q What were their names? A Katie Vernon and Verna Fishback.
Q What became of that? A The certificate papers they got was lost, and they went before the Council in 1894 and they was admitted each by the act of Council.
Q That is in 1894, the Cherokee Council admitted, re-admitted or let it, the three above named? A Yes sir. Mary and Verna Fishback and Katie Verner, they have now the same names as Vincent Vernon, if is not, Bob Robinson married the wife, daughter of mine.
Q Was there any other consideration of the Dawson case by the Cherokee authorities at any time aside from these two payments in '87 and '94 admitting the two families of Robert and James Dawson, and the act of Council of '94 admitting these three who you have just named? A Yes sir.
Q When? A My two of my sons was placed on the roll by the act of Council in 1892 I think it was; left off of the rolls in per capita payment and they was placed on the rolls I think, and Sam Hitchcock member of Council, got their draft or checks for the money.
Q Have you got that copy of the act of Council admitting them? A Yes sir.
Q Where is it? A (Produces papers.)

BY MR. McDERMON: We offer in evidence an act of the Cherokee National Council making an appropriation of 20,000 dollars belonging to the general fund for the payment of certain persons therein named a per capita payment, as per amount set opposite their respective names, provided that the Principal Chief shall draw warrants for such amounts, and further provided "That the names of the persons appearing on the per capita rolls in this act shall be placed (on) the authenticated roll of 1880 by the Principal Chief."
This act was approved December 31, 1891.
Approval signed by Stephen Tenee, Assistant Acting Principal-
In this list appear the names of William R. Dawson for payment of $13.70, and of Marion Dawson, for a like sum. Are these the names of two of your sons? A Yes sir.

(The paper above introduced, is filed and made a part of the records in this case.

Q Was there any other action of the Cherokee authorities relating to members of your family? A Yes sir.

Q Then? A In 1894.
Q What was that? A Allowing them their strip money.
Q Have you a copy of that? A I think I have. (Produces papers.)

BY MR. McKENNON: We offer in evidence a duly certified copy of an act of the Cherokee National Council approved November 24, 1894, signed C. J. Harris, Principal Chief. Senate Bill No. 19, appropriating a sufficient amount of money to make payment per capita of what is known as the strip money to certain persons named therein. Among them are members of the Blassingame family, as follows: Jane, Elbert, Henry, James Ross Lellie, Pearl, Amos, Myrtle, Vinnie and Clifford; this act mentions these persons as Cherokees by blood, and whose names had been left off the pay roll approved May 3, 1894, providing a payment to each one of these a sum of $265.70.

Q Were these members of the Robert Dawson family? A Yes sir.
Q Which one of the members of the family? A Jane.
Q This is Jane who was admitted by the judgment admitting the Robert Dawson family? A Yes sir.
Q And her children? A Her children, was not admitted, she was admitted.
Q I mean this mentions her children here? A Yes, that mentions her children.

(The paper last above introduced is filed and made a part of the record in this case.)

Q Do you know whether the payment of the Cherokee Strip money was to Cherokee citizens by blood only or not? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any other act of the Cherokee authorities passing upon the citizenship of members of your family? A Why the Douthett children, my brother's grand-children. Two grand-children of E. Dawson.
Q When was that? A That, I think it was in '84.
Q Have you got a copy of that act? A No, the record is here.
Q Was that by the Spears Court? A Yes sir, by the Spears Court.

BY MR. McKENNON: We now offere in evidence a judgment of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, 1880 and 1884, found on page 190, case No. 181, dated September 9th, 1884, signed by Ellis Spears, President, John Lee and Andrew Young, Commissioners, admitting to citizenship Lula Dowthett and Dallas Dowthett as Cherokees by blood.

Q These now are the Douthetts to which you refer, are they? Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: Attention is called to the fact that the names of the Commissioners are all signed in the same hand-writing as the record of the judgment.

The said judgment record above introduced, and found on page 190, No. 181, record of 1880 to 1884, is as follows:

"Office of Commission on Citizenship,
Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation, September 14th, 1883.

Lula Dauthhitt,
Dallas Dauthitt,
vs
The Cherokee Nation.

C. H. Taylor, Atty for Claim.

Petition filed September 14th, 1883.

Case submitted by claimants Sept 14th, 1883.
Case submitted by Solicitor, Sept. 14th, 1883.
Continued by Petitioner Jan 22 1884 to September Court 1884.
Re-submitted September 2nd 1884, by Attys Taylor and Benedict

Submitted by defense Sept 9 1884.

And now on this the 17th day of September 1884 comes this case for final hearing and all the evidence in the case having been carefully read, and considered by the Commission on citizenship it has been decided by the Commission that the above named Lula Dauthett and Dallas Dauthett are Cherokees by blood, and that they are entitled to all the rights and privileges of Cherokee citizenship in the Cherokee Nation and that they should be, and are hereby admitted to the full and complete enjoyment of the same in all respects, as native born Cherokees.

Eli Spears, Pr S.
John Lee,
John L. Adair, Andrew Young,
Clk Com'n. Commission on Citizenship."

Q Now were there any other actions of the Cherokee authorities of like character relating to the members of your family?
A I don't remember of any others.
Q I will ask you if when the Cherokee authorities were making the roll of 1896, in compliance with the request of the Dawes Commission for a roll to be prepared by them for the use of the said Commission, the question of the citizenship of the members of your family was not then raised and an investigation had in regard to it? A Before the Dawes Commission?
Q No, before the Cherokee Commission making the roll of 1896, of which John T. Gunter was a member? A Yes sir, yes. I had forgot it, but since you have named it there was some investigation of them at that time; this is what I understood.
Q That roll shows that the members of your family were duly enrolled by the Commission? A Yes.

Q Have you and the other members of your family since your removal to the Territory in 1883 and immediately following been recognized as Cherokee citizens by blood? A Yes sir.

Q Have you been exercising and enjoying all the rights of Cherokee citizens by blood since that time? A Yes sir.
Q You and all the members of your family are living in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q You have all drawn Cherokee moneys whenever payments were made? A Yes sir.
Q And have you all male members been voting at the Cherokee elections or in the Cherokee elections? A Yes sir, I was one of the judges of the elections that was held voting on the treaty.
Q What treaty? A The treaty bill that was sent back here for the Cherokees to vote on; I was one of the judges at Afton.
Q I. What year was that? A I believe it was last spring some time, last April.

Q Have any of you held any offices in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What offices have the members of your family filled? A Deputy Clerk, under Pete Hastings, when he was clerk of Delaware District, I was a candidate once for Council in the Downing Party.

Q [illegible] of deputy clerk be held by any one else except a recognized citizen? A Only [illegible] citizen, you sir.
Q Is that all? A (No reply).
Q [illegible] of [illegible] attend the [illegible] schools, [illegible] schools? A Yes, sir.
Q [illegible] subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q [illegible] against the law? A Yes sir.
Q [illegible] Nation? A Yes sir.
Q [illegible] A Yes sir.
Q [illegible] Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q [illegible]
Q [illegible] I
BY MR. [illegible]:
Q [illegible], I couldn't [illegible].
Q [illegible] A Yes sir, [illegible] to tell [illegible] A No I don't [illegible].
Q [illegible] A [illegible] feeble.
Q Well to state that [illegible] silly [illegible] that [illegible]? A He went to live [illegible] I didn't like him until [illegible] to the Territory.
Q I [illegible] he had gotten so old, [illegible] sign of that?
A I suppose so, the eldest one of these children was Mrs. Betty Peter, that's my understanding.
Q And the oldest boy was John Rogers? A He always called him Jack.
Q Jack Rogers he was the oldest? A Yes sir.
Q And the youngest? A Sam Riley.
Q He was the youngest one of the group? A Yes sir.
Q Your father lived four or five years after he and you were admitted to citizenship? A Yes sir, something about that, it was [illegible]. I think he died in [illegible], I wont be positive; that is as near as I remember it. I have got a headache so bad that I can't remember anything.
Q The roll name of the old man [illegible] family were present at any of these trials of citizenship? A No sir, not any of them.
Q [illegible] any one of them was ever called upon to testify as to the blood of their mother, do you know anything about it? A I don't know if they was.
Q Your old man Riley was through Capt. in John Rogers and that your grandmother was the half sister of Billy Joe Vann, wasn't it? A I don't know, I couldn't answer the question.
Q You were there when they took the testimony? A I was there when Dr. Baker's testimony was taken, that was about 16 years ago.
Q And nobody kin to the Rogers and Vanns ever called to testify in the case? A Not as I know of.
Q They were very well known Cherokee families in the coun try?
A I suppose so, I don't know.
Q And yet nobody on any side of the family connected with it was ever called to testify A Not that I know of, I don't know that my brother down, he taken some of the evidence at Tahlequah when I was not there; he first filed his claim.

Q You've spoken to Dr. Baker since he's been testifying before you brought your case didn't you? A No sir.
Q Must have been a short time afterwards? A It was short time afterwards. I went back after [illegible] and it was too late and I fetched him the next time.
Q You had talked to your brother [illegible] A I would want Dr. Baker? A I told him I thought Dr. Baker, I thought he was one of our folks.
Q You had told him in general why you expected to use Dr. Baker as a witness? A Yes sir.
Q You went off, came to Atlanta and left your brother at [illegible] after you told him that fact? A Yes sir.
Q You didn't see your brother any more until after you were admitted? A No sir.
Q You did go however and try back and forth to Tuskegee [illegible] at different times, but you didn't happen to get to attend? A No. I never met him any more and I don't know what he did there until after we were admitted.
Q But you were there and brought Dr. Baker over? A Yes sir.
Q And took his testimony a year or more before ever we were admitted? A I think so as well as I remember, yes sir.
Q Now the way you came to get Campbell Taylor was on the recommendation of old man Bryant? A I didn't get him, didn't get him.
Q The way he came into your case? A The way he claimed to come in.
Q He did more in your case than Bryant did? A Campbell didn't do anything.
Q What did Bryant do? A I think he told my brother to use evidence [illegible] brother employed him.
Q How did you happen to be sending money by Campbell to Mr. Duncan? A I never sent him any money.
Q Then when he, Mr. Duncan, states that Campbell delivered the money as Campbell said he did, both were wrong? A Oh no, you are mistaken, Mr. Duncan got 20 or 25 dollars, which he stated, from Campbell Taylor, for me.
Q How did you happen to give it to Campbell? A I give the money to Campbell to give to Joel Bryant, and he wouldn't do it, and I tried to get the money back from him, and I finally worked the 20 or 25 dollars he gave to Duncan.
Q Then you didn't tell Duncan as he testified that you sent 20 or 25 dollars by Campbell Taylor? A Campbell Taylor agreed to pay Duncan 20 or 25 dollars for me of the money I give him to give to Joel Bryant.
Q The family kept Campbell Taylor employed though as their attorney after that? A In the James Dawson case I think so.
Q E. Dawson, you remember, had his [illegible] grand-children? A That is my understanding.
Q And your uncle James Dawson had him in the case of his children? A Uncle James had nothing to do with it; James Lo[illegible] and Bill Jackson got him: that was my understanding of who employed him.
Q The record here shows that the case was originally instituted by C. E. Taylor and was finally submitted by him September 3rd, 1[illegible], in the James Dawson case? A I don't deny him being in that case.
Q You say he was employed in the E. Dawson case? A I don't know who was in the Dauthett children's case.
Q The record shows that Campbell Taylor instituted the case, and it was finally submitted by him, and Mr. Beovert, who testified a while ago? A That was in the James Dawson case, wasn't it?
Q That was in the E. Dawson grand-children? A Elbert?
Q No, in the Dauthett children's case? A Oh yes.

Q He was likewise attorney in the Mary Dawson case was he, and before the Adair court, the 4th of October, 1887, in the case of James K. P. Dawson? A I don't know anything about that.
Q And the case likewise of Riley Dawson? A I don't know anything about those.
Q They are relations of yours? A Well I couldn't say.
Q James K. P. Dawson proves to be a son of Riley Dawson? A Well if he is he is by connection then. There are so many Dawsons I don't know them all.
Q You know Andrew J. Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q The Dawsons have so many children their brothers didn't hardly know them did they? A That's it, I don't know them.
Q Well then you don't know who Andrew J. Dawson is? A No sir, I don't know.
Q It appears in his application [illegible] and yourself, who were admitted to citizenship by the Dawes Commission? A He may be, I don't know nothing about it.
Q He resided I believe, at that time at Nevada, Missouri? A I don't know anything about the people.
Q Old Man Riley was an old and paralyzed man at the time he testified wasn't he? A Getting old, but was not paralyzed.
Q Then the statement made that the reason he couldn't write his name and had to make his mark, because he was paralyzed, in his testimony isn't that true? A He didn't have got [illegible].
Q Then he was not paralyzed? A No, I brought him over [illegible] back from Berryville, Arkansas.
Q Well I say he was a very old man? A Yes, getting old.
Q Now didn't you come to this place and then [illegible] work on it some time before you brought your family? A No, I brought my family with me, except my wife.
Q And you subsequently built a log house on it? A Yes sir.
Q And went back and got your wife and moved them to the log house? A Yes sir, went to Eureka and got my wife.
Q You never saw your grandfather at all? A Sam Dawson, yes sir, I saw him.
Q You remember do you of being with him much of any at all? A I was in Texas in time of the war, with my uncle Riley Dawson, and he was there.
Q In '60 sometime? A '62, I reckon, or '63. Somewhere along there, it was in time of the war.
Q How old a man was he at that time? A Pretty old man.
Q You never saw your grandmother, she died before she came? A Yes sir, I never saw her at all.
Q Who first started the citizenship matter, your brother in Texas or you? A Why it was me, and my brother together.
Q I mean who first conceived the idea? A I first conceived talking about it.
Q And sent down for him? A I was in Texas with him and then in Arkansas; I went backwards and forwards a time or two after the war.
Q About that time nearly everybody in Arkansas were trying to get some claim of kinship to Cherokees? A No sir, not at that time.
Q They were getting pretty thick in there in 1880? A Well in 87 and '4 and '5 I think.
Q Been much excitement over there to get yourselves on the rolls? A Just got to be everybody; but it wasn't at the time we were admitted there was not much stir about the rights here.
Q Well the Watts had been admitted before that? A I suppose they had; there was not much excitement over the Watts claim at that time.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q You did locate and board with Sam Shables when you first came to Tahlequah in '81? A I think I did.

Q Your brother Buck Dawson stayed there also? A Yes sir.

Q Sam Shables lived in the north end of town, old German? A Yes sir, old German, lived in the lower part of town.

Q Did you ever hear the names of any other witnesses which you stated perhaps testified in your case? A I have heard them but I have forgot them.

Q You don't recollect any name now? A I dont remember them now sir.

Q In the Irene House case and Joanna Barber case, in which you testified before the Commission, when you were making search for this testimony you couldn't find any other testimony from that of record except the Dr. Baker testimony, could you? A That's all we could find; no we didn't find the testimony, we got a copy.

Q Well it must have been a copy of the original, the certificate shows that? A I don't know; House got a copy of what claimed to be the affidavit of Baker and he told me to give it to him; that is all I know about it.

Q Well the certificate there does not bear my certificate does it? A I don't know about that, I am no scholar.

Q Well you didn't get the testimony of any other witness except that of Dr. Baker, you couldn't find any other over there of record? A I didn't hunt for any; House hunted for them.

Q None of you have ever been able to find any other? A No. Not even find our petition.

Q Samuel R. Dawson applied to what is known as the Adair Court, didn't he? A I don't remember now.

Q He was an uncle of yours wasn't he? A Yes sir, claimed to be.

Q The father of these two parties who testified here this morning? A Well I don't know, they claimed to be, I never met them to know them.

Q He was rejected by the Adair Court, or Hayes Court? A I don't know whether he filed his petition.

Q Did you testify in his case? A I don't remember; I might have dont it.

Q Didn't you testify in the Andrew J. Dawson case before what is known as the Hayes Court? A I don't recollect, if I did I don't remember.

Q Did you testify in the Riley Dawson case? A No sir, no. that I remember.

Q Didn't you know of his being rejected by that court? A I don't remember, sir.

Q You know that the Cherokee Council never authenticated the roll of 1896, don't you? A No sir, I don't know it; I didn't know this was done until I went to Tahlequah after some papers and come back and they told me about it.

Q You never found out that C. W. Taylor was a big rascal up until the present time have you? A (No response)

Q The records here show that he has been in the constant employment of your family from that date up to this time? A Why it shows here from the record. I would rather be excused for my part of it.

Q You are the man that had the most to do with it? A I never employed him, I can say that.

Q You are the man that had most to do with the records? A In my case and in my father's case.

Q Didn't you testify for your uncle Jim Dawson? A Yes sir.

Q Wasn't he attorney for him? A Yes sir.

Q Wasn't he employed by Jim Dawson after you got your citizenship?
A Why not but the grand-children.
Q Jim Dawson's petition was filed in September 1937, after yours?
A Yes sir.
Q C. H. Taylor, attorney of record, filed the petition? A He might have filed it for all I know.
Q Well you hadn't at that time fallen out with C. H. Taylor had you? A Why no, we never did have any trouble, only over [illegible] he never would give it back to me or give it to Bryant.
Q You never discovered that he was not a real man until after your judgment was rendered? A I knew it was not of very long time.
Q Are you and Brought, this man who testified for the Cherokee Nation, on speaking terms? A Hardly speak.
Q Does he refuse to speak to you? A To all of us I guess.
Q Do you refuse to speak to him? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been speaking to him for the last two or three months?
A I have not spoke to him until I met him there at the hotel the other day.
Q First time you spoke to him since he had the boy arrested? A Yes sir.
Q When did he have the boy arrested? A Along in September or October, September I think.
Q When did Dr. Baker die? A I don't remember.
Q You don't remember how much older your father was than you?
A No, I don't know.
Q What is your age? A I will be 70 in May.
Q Then you were born in '42? A Yes sir, '42 according to the record.
Q Was your father as much as 25 years old when you were born?
A I couldn't say.
Q What was your best judgment? A I suppose he was 20 or 25 years old. My understanding he married young.
Q Can't you give any better idea than 4 or 5 years of your father's age? A I say 25.
Q Your father was born say, 25 from 42 would have made him be born in 1817; now had your father any older brothers or sisters? A I think Jack Dawson was the oldest of the family, no, Betty, the girl, was the oldest and Jack next, and then my father as well as I remember about it.
Q There were two girls older? A No, one of the girls I never saw.
Q Then you think there were only 2 older than your father? A Yes, that's my understanding of the family.
Q Dr. Baker gives his age 72 in '52, which would make him be born in '89, now he states that [illegible] was 1 or 2 years old, which added to 1809, will make 1824, that your grandmother Annie Pruett, was a school girl; whereas from your testimony and that of the family history introduced here she is that your grandmother Annie Pruett was the other of seven children, the youngest being born in 1821. How do you reconcile that? A I don't remember about the statement of Dr. Baker; I don't know [illegible] made such statement as that, I don't remember about it.
Q And if he did you don't know how to reconcile it? A (No response.)

Q Did you talk to any of the others of the court that admitted you? A No sir, I was not acquainted with them.
Q You know whether they were old or young men? A They were old men like; Steve Tehee. I got acquainted with him afterwards, and Tom Thompson, at the Council you see I was there [illegible].

Q That was the fellow that was on the Court? A Yes sir..
Q He was afterwards assistant Chief of the Cherokee Nation?
A I think so.
Q Steven Tehee, that's the man you had reference to? A Yes sir,I think it was, I just knew the man; I had no acquaintance with him at all.
Q D. W. C. Duncan boarded when you were down there at the National Hotel? A I think he did, as well as I remember now when we were admitted.
Q Don't you know he did? A I think he did, as well as I remember.
Q Were not you over there to his room?AI think I was.
Q You remember when it was that you brought Dr. Baker down there to make a statement before the Court? A It was in January, Term, was in January Term of 1882 I believe, it was, as well as I remember about it.
Q Well you didn't take any more testimony after Dr. Baker testified?
A No sir, I didn't.
Q But your case was now submitted or passed upon for a year?
A I think it was, yes sir, as well as I remember.
Q I would like to ask you when the Blassingame family came to the Cherokee Nation? A Alex Balsingame came with me when we moved here, and went back and got his family and moved that fall.
Q Did he move his family here that same fall? A Yes sir.
Q What year was that? A In the fall of .83 I believe it was, as well as I remember now.
Q When did the Bulaska family come? A I think the girl and the old lady came in the next spring.
Q How long did they remain that time? A The old lady stayed here, but the girl went back and in a short time her and her husband came back.
Q Did she come back until after her marriage? A No, she was married when she came first.
Q The last time? A She was married I think, she was married when she came out.
Q How long has August Bulaska been a permanent and continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation? A I think he came there in the fall of 1884 or 1885, I wont say which.
Q How long has Robert Pierce been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since he was admitted.
Q When was that? A '85.
Q How long has Martin L. Patterson? A Ever since he married his wife, and he was living here before he married his wife.
Q Who is Arizona Alrey? A That is my daughter.
Q Did you bring her with you? A No not when I moved.
Q When did she come? A She came out in a year or two after I moved here.
Q Was she married when you moved here? A No sir, she was not married.
Q She was not married when you were admitted? A No sir, she was a child.
Q When did Jim Lowe come to this country? A With his grandfather, James Dawson.
Q What was his mother's name? A Melvina Dawson.
Q You know Jim Lowe's age? A No sir.
Q Don't know how old he was in '83? A No sir.
Q Was he grown? A I think he was.
Q Married? A No no.
Q Married in this country? A Yes sir
Q Who is James M. Harmon? A Married one of the Jackson girls.

Q When did they come to this country? A Right away after they was admitted.
Q In what year? A I think the winter of '94, I think it was, spring or winter of '94.
Q You know Gideon Graham? A Yes sir.
Q Who is his mother? A Missouri Ann Graham, formerly Missouri Ann Dawson.
Q Did he come from Texas to Arkansas? A Come from Texas.
Q Did you know them in Texas? A I knew the girl.
Q You never knew them until they come to this country? A I never knew Gid.
Q When did you see him here? A I think they come here in the fall or winter of 1894 or '5.
Q He was married then? A I think he was.
Q Brought his wife? A I think he was, I don't know.
Q Did he have any children when you first saw him? A He come to my house and I never saw his family for-I don't know, for several years.
Q You understood he had a family? A Yes sir.

BY MR. LOCKHART:

Q Did you mean to say '84 or '94? A '84.
Q Did you see Gid Graham in '84? A '04, let me study, maybe '85.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Did you see him in '05, are you positive on that proposition? A I think so.
Q Will you swear it? A No sir, I wont positive swear it, but I think it was, as I remember now it was; I couldn't say positive.
Q All the people Mr. Dawson that have been admitted to citizenship by courts of competent jurisdiction unless they were de-citizenised by courts of acquired jurisdiction, enjoyed the same privileges that you have narrated here about going to school and being tried in the courts? A Yes sir.

Q All that sort of thing that you have been telling here on your direct examination? A Ask me the question again.
Q I say all people who were admitted here by courts of competent jurisdiction, until they were de-citizenised by courts of like jurisdiction, enjoyed the same privileges that you did? A So far as I know they was.
Q They all drawed money and all tried in the courts as long as we had tribunal courts, were they not? A Yes sir, so far as I know.
Q There was no special privilege granted to you in preference to anybody else? A None but recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation.
Q Well you had been recognized since you were admitted? A Yes sir, I enjoyed the same privileges of native born Cherokees.
Q Well I say there is nothing special about it? A No, I don't know as there is.
Q You got acquainted with Mr. Duncan while you were up there during the hearing? A Yes sir, I was acquainted with him, knew him, when I saw him.
Q Mr. Bill Ross did the examination of Dr. Baker? A Yes sir.
Q Did you file any other paper before the Court other than your petition and then Dr. Baker's statement? A I never filed any petition there at all.
Q None whatever? A I don't remember any.
Q Well you never had occasion to file any papers before Mr. Duncan? A I got him to do some writing for me.
Q What? A Letters to my brother in Texas.
Q Buck Dawson? A Yes sir, W. Dawson.

Q That? A Yes sir, Buck Dawson.
Q Well is that all he did for you? A I don't remember now about it.
Q Why didn't you get your attorney to do that letter writing? A There was not any there.
Q Taylor Nor Benge was not there then? A No sir.
Q That is what you paid the 20 or 25 dollars for, was writing this letter back to your brother? A I paid him for that claim.
Q When did you pay that? A I think I paid it, I don't exactly when, Camp Taylor paid it a year or two after I moved out here and settled where I did; might have been 2 years. I don't remember.
Q There was Dawson living then? A I couldn't say where.
Q Was he still clerk of this Court? A No sir, not when that money was paid; that is, when Camp Taylor said he paid it.
Q You did send Camp Taylor some money? A I sent some money to him for Joel Bryant.
Q You knew Joel Bryant's address didn't you? A No, I don't know that I did, No I didn't send Camp Taylor any money, I gave it to him.
Q How much did you give him? A One hundred dollars.
Q When? A Right at that time; he claimed it from me as soon as we got our papers; he came onto me and demanded it for Bryant.
Q You never sent him any then after that? A No sir.
Q Did you ever see Bryant after that? A Yes sir
Q How long after that? A I don't know, a year or two afterwards. a year I believe, my brother wrote, I wrote to my brother about paying Camp Taylor money and he went onto my brother about it and he never paid him until we moved out to this country.
Q After all that you got him to attend to your uncle Jim Dawson's and the other relatives cases? A The other parties did.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Applicants object to all that part of the witness' evidence in response to interrogatories by representatives of the Cherokee Nation which relates to the character of the evidence upon which the judgments admitting members of the James and Robert Dawson families were admitted, and to the history of the members of the Dawson family, because the same is immaterial, incompetent and irrelevant.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q One question I omitted to ask you Mr. Dawson, as to the Court at the time the judgment admitting Robert Dawson's family was rendered, who of the judges were present on that day? A They was all three of them, Wolfe, Tehee and Thompson.
Q Are you positive of that fact? A Yes sir.
Q You do not know this Andrew Dawson family who applied to the Dawes Commission for Cherokee citizenship, and who stated that they are cousins of some members of your family? A Andrew?
Q Andrew J. Dawson, who claims to be from Missouri? A How was the question?
Q You do not know them do you? A I don't know that they are any kin to us.
Q You don't know that they are related to you at all? A No sir.
Q This Mary Dawson case, do you know the members of that family? A No sir, I don't.
Q Don't know who they are? A No sir.
Q The Rebecca Dawson case? A I don't know her either.
Q You don't know whether they are related to you or not? A No sir.
Q If any of these persons are related to you or your family did you have any knowledge of it? A Not as I know of.

Q Jon.e Barber, do you know anything about them? A They claim to be kin to us.
Q Where are they from? A They are from Texas.
Q Do you know they are related to you? A They claim to be kin.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Well you swore for them before the Commission? A Yes, they claim to be kinfolks of mine.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Irene J. House, who is that? A That is a cousin of mine: claims to be.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You testified for her didn't you before the Commission? A I think I did as well as I remember.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Before the Court that admitted James Dawson and family, who were the witnesses there? A Oliver Miller, from Berryville, Arkansas.
Q Who were the others? A Myself and J. Dawson and there were two other witnesses, I don't remember who they are.
Q Were they Cherokee citizens and residents of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You don't remember their names? A Which?
Q Of these other people who claimed to be citizens of the Cherokee Nation and who were witnesses? A I said about me and J. Dawson were citizens of the Cherokee Nation.
Q You only proved that Jim Dawson was a brother of Robert Dawson before the Court? A Yes sir.
Q And then referred back to the decision in the Court before? A We proved that they were citizens, and he had my folks before he ever came here.
Q Was he older than Dr. Baker? A About the same age.
Q Why didn't you get Oliver Miller's testimony in the House case?
Q He was dead.
Q You and no member of your family in the Irene House case or the Joanna Barber case or any of those cases that were tried before the Dawes Commission in your affidavits ever made reference to the fact that Oliver Miller testified in Jim Dawson's case in '84 did you? A I don't remember about that.
Q You did make reference to the fact that Dr. Baker testified there in '83, didn't you? A I don't remember about that now.
Q You never made reference to any other witness having testified other than Dr. Baker didyou? A I don't remember about it now.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Now just one other question: All of these papers in the original application and everything, so far as you know, in the James Dawson case, were filed before the Commission which admitted the James Dawson family, are lost or mislaid are they not? A I suppose they are, I don't know, I never saw them.
Q Have you tried to get copies of them? A Yes sir, I tried to get the original papers.

BY COMMISSION: This case is continued until 8:30 a.m., tomorrow morning, March 20th, 1902, it now being the hour for adjournment.

MARCH 20, 1902,- 8:30 a. m.- T. B. DAWSON again on the stand, testifies as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Where was your brother Rick Dawson raised? A In Arkansas.

Q What County? A Carroll.
Q Near what town? A Berryville.
Q Was Dr. Baker live at Berryville? A Yes sir.
Q Was your brother intimately acquainted with him for many years?
A Yes sir.
Q Did he know his sufficiently to be acquainted with his character and habits of life? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Josephine Pierce? A Yes sir.
Q Whose daughter was she? A Robert Dawson's.
Q Is she the same identical woman who is called Josie Pierce, and Josie Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Is there any other Josie Pierce or Josie Dawson or Josephine Pierce or Josephine Dawson? A I don't know but the one.
Q She was also called Josephine or Josie Kelly? A Yes, after she married; her first husband was Pierce.
Q And her second husband A Was Kelly.
Q There was another Josephine Dawson wasn't there, Bulaski's wife?
A They called her Joe, I suppose that's her name, I could not be positive; that was Riley Dawson's daughter, August Bulaski's wife.
Q She is much younger than your sister, Josephine, above referred to? A Yes sir, oh yes.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Where were you born, Mr. Dawson? A Carroll County, Arkansas.
Q You know how old you are? A 42.
Q 42? A I think so.
Q How many older children were there of your father and mother than yourself? A Three.
Q Which were they? A E. Dawson, Riley Dawson and Jasper Dawson.
Q You are the fourth child and the fourth boy? A Yes sir, fourth boy.
Q Where were your father and mother married, do you know, from family history? A I think it was in Arkansas, I couldn't be positive, I think they was.
Q Do you know how long your grandfather lived in Arkansas? A No sir I don't.
Q Don't know what year he came to Arkansas? A Only from statement.
Q Well what did they say about it? A I think they come there some time in '30.
Q You know whether your father was born in Arkansas? No many of your grandfather's children were born there? A There was none of them born in Arkansas according to history and according to what he always told me, they were born in Tennessee.
Q He come there in '30, and all the other children were born on the Hiwassee River in Tennessee, before he ever came? A That is what I think, yes sir. Now I am not positive about that. They were from Tennessee, but either Dr. Baker lived there or my folks come from there; I don't know as I remember that I ever heard my father say where he was born at.
Q In Tennessee somewhere; he said he was a good big boy when he come to Arkansas? A I don't know as I ever heard him say.
Q Do you know the difference in the ages of yourself and your three older brothers? A No I don't.
Q Don't know the time that comes in between you? A No I don't know that; I think it is about two years though.
Q That would make E. Dawson about eight years older than you, probably? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Did Josephine Pierce have a daughter who married Mr. Bogle?
A Yes sir.
Q What was her name? A I always knowed her by Dade Pierce; I don't know whether that is her right name or not.
Q What is Bogle's name? A John Bogle.
Q She is the child of Josephine Pierce who married John Bogle?
A Yes sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Where did she marry John Bogle? A Near Afton.
Q When? A I couldn't state.
Q About when? A You have got a copy of the marriage license.
Q When did Josephine Pierce come to the Cherokee Nation? A '83.
Q Has she lived here continuously since that time? A Up until her death; she is dead.
Q Any of her children come with her at that time? A Yes sir.
Q And have they lived here continuously since that time? A Yes sir, except Bill Pierce, he went to Colorado and died.

J. C. STARR, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Your name is J. C. Starr is it? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Starr, was that instrument taken by you, or before you? (Showing witness document.)
A Yes sir.
Q Where? A At the residence of S. H. Benge: near Fort Gibson.
Q When? A On the 15th day of this month.
Q What day of the week was that? A On Saturday.
Q Is that the day it was taken? A Yes sir.
Q Did you go there on Saturday to take this? A Yes sir.
Q Then when Judge Benge stated on Tuesday that it was taken "yesterday" meaning Monday, the 17th, he was mistaken, was he?
A It was taken Saturday, the 15th.
Q Was he mistaken or not? A It was not taken then.
Q Then his statement made on Tuesday the 18th that it was taken on "yesterday", meaning Monday, the 17th, was not correct, was it?
A I think not, because I was there, and it was taken on the 15th.
Q And it was taken on the 15th, you are positive it was taken on the 15th? A Yes sir.

Q Then of course his statement could not be correct? A I guess not.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q He was just mistaken about the date, wasn't he? A Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Did you tell Charles T. Moore who is now present, on last Tuesday that they sent you out there on Monday to take that? A No sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q I sent you there last Saturday? A Yes sir.
Q And you went there at my direction, didn't you? A Yes sir, and come back Saturday night.

ROBERT L. DAWSON, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A My name is Robert L. Dawson.
Q What is your age? A My age is something close to 30 years old, I a 29 past.

Q Are you a son of E. Dawson, commonly known as Buck Dawson?
A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if you will take into this letter sent with the enclosure and state whether or not you found that among the papers of your father after his death? (Shows letter to witness who examines it) A Yes sir, I found this among the papers of my father. He always kept all his own papers, and in looking over them I saw this letter.
Q Has that been in your custody ever since you found it? A Yes sir, if that's the letter that was in the envelope.
Q Well that's what it is, you can tell whether it is or not. (Witness further examines letter) Q That purports to be a letter from Samuel H Benge does it not, to your father? A Yes sir.
(Here applicants' attorney hands letter and env lope referred to to attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

BY MR. McKENNON: I want to offer this letter in evidence in this case. It is a letter signed by S. H. Benge, attorney at law, dated Fort Gibson, C. N., Jan. 13, 1883. Addressed to Mr. E. Dawson, Esq., bearing with the envelope, in which it was enclosed, with the word [illegible] upon it, Attorney at law, Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and postmarked Tahlequah, Ind. T., January 16

BY MR. HITCHINGS: The Nation objects to the introduction of this letter for the reason that S. H. Benge is living and has testified in this case and his handwriting should be either proven or denied by himself.

S. W. BENGE, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A S. W. Benge
Q Are you a son of Samuel H. Benge? A Yes sir.
Q Do youknow his handwriting? A I believe so.
Q Is that his handwriting? (Shows witness letter before referred to.) A Yes sir, it is either his or a resemblance of his.
Q To the best of your knowledge and belief is that his letter?
A Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON: Now we offer it in evidence.

BY COMMISSION: (Reads letter)

Fort Gibson, C. N.,
Jan 13th, 1883.

Mr. E. Dawson, Esq.

Dear Sir:- I write this note to inform you that your case came off before the Court on Citizenship on the 11th inst, and was decided in your favor, so you all are citizens of this Nation. T. M. Dawson was furnished with a copy of the decision of the court. He will write to you also. You will please send me fifty dollars as my fee in your case according to contract. Send it to Fort Gibson, Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully yours,
S. H. Benge,
Attorney at law."

Enclosed in envelope, as follows:
And in upper corner, left hand:
"Return in ten days to S. H. Benge,
Attorney at Law,
Tahlequah, Ind. Ter."
Addressed: "Mr. E Dawson.

Henryetta,
Clay Co., Texas.

Post-marked: " Tahlequah, Jan 17 Ind T."

ROBERT L. DAWSON, -re-called and further examined, identified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Now exa ine that and see if that is also a paper which you found among your father's papers after his death? (Hands papers to witness) A That is the same letter that I found.

Q Among the same that you found the Bruce letter? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: This is a letter purporting to have been written by J. M. Bryan, to E. Dawson, dated at Chouteau Station, Cherokee Nation, and not dated, which we offer in evidence. (Applicant's attorney hands said paper to Nation's attorneys.)

Q Mr. Bryan is dead is he not? A I think so.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS: We have no objection.

BY COMMISSION: (reads letter)

"Chouteau Station, Cherokee Nation.
I. T., M. K. & T. R. R.

MR. Dawson:

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your favor of the 30th inst in regard to our contract.

After I had got the claim so there would be little more to do I employed Campbell Taylor to answer for me when the case came up, for which I was to pay him $20-out of my fee.

This all the action I had in the matter with Taylor.

I saw Taylor in Washington last month, and he told me that your brother had made another contract with him, and paid him, or that you was to pay him $100-, and that you had offered him a check on some bank in Texas.

That $100- matter with Taylor, I have nothing to do with, nor couldn't have if I wanted to.

I hope Mr. Dawson this letter will explain the matter fully.

And I am satisfied that you are apprised of the earnest work I done for you. Please write to me.

Very respectfully,
Very truly,
J. M. Bryan."

Q I will ask you if you know of your father having paid Bryan that money? A Yes sir, paid him a horse and some other money.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How old was your father when he died? A No, I don't know whether I know his age or not.

Q If you don't know you can't say? A I wouldn't have no reason to know his age; never asked him his age; of course I guess my mother knows.

Q Never had occasion to talk about his age at all? A Oh I have heard him speaking of his age at different times, but then I never paid enough attention to it.

Gid Graham, being first duly sworn and being exa i ed testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q What is your name? A Gid Graham.

Q How old are you? A Mr. Graham? A I am 36 years old.
Q How long have you been living in the Territory? A I came out here in 1887 or '88.
Q To the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation, what year was that '87 or '8? A Yes sir.
Q Have you resided here continuously from that time ever since in the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you live in the Cherokee Nation? A About 6 years.
Q Where did you go then? A Wagoner.
Q In the Creek Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And been residing there ever since? A Yes sir.
Q In business? A Yes sir.
Q Have you all the while been recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Graham, do you know Judge Samuel H. Benge? A Yes sir.
Q Did you have a conversation with him in Fort Gibson about September of 1900? A Well as to the exact time I couldn't say, it was sometime about the time that the Dawes Commission were at Sallisaw, or possibly a little later, somewhere about there.
Q Taking the census of the Cherokees? A Yes sir.
Q At that time had the question of the validity of the judgment of the Cherokee citizenship corrission admitting Robert Dawson and family been called in question? A Yes sir.
Q Did you talk to him about the facts concerning the obtaining of that judgment? A I did.
Q What did he tell you about it; well I will just ask you, did he then and there tell you that that judgment was regular and all right nothing wrong with it? A He did.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q You were looking around for testimony at that time, Mr. Graham, were you? A How was that?
Q You were looking around for testimony at that time, expecting this case to be questioned? A Since the validity of that judgment had been attacked by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, I thought it was well to look into the matter.
Q And he told you the judgment was all right? A Having known that Mr. Benge was connected with the case, I saw him in Fort Gibson, subsequent to that time and asked him about it, if there was anything wrong about the matter, and also that I might want his affidavit concerning the matter, and I also I think maybe wrote to him; possibly prior to that, I am not sure as to the writing, but I think possibly I did.
Q Did he tell you he would make an affidavit? A I don't think at that time that I asked him for an affidavit. I thought as he lived right near here I would use him in person; he assured me that everything was all right.
Q Your mother was Missouri Dawson was not she? A Yes sir.
Q Her name was Missouri Graham when she was re-admitted to citizenship? A Yes sir.
Q And was not Missouri Dawson as named in that judgment? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether the other ... children named in there had married and changed their names also at the time they were admitted?
A There were not any of them married.
Q Ella Dawson was your aunt? A Yes sir.
Q Was she married at that time? In 1883? A Yes sir.
Q Melvina Dawson, was she married at that time? A Yes sir.
Q And the fourth one you have mentioned, Missouri Dawson, was your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Can you give us the exact date of your birth? A Yes sir.
Q Do so, please? A January 21, 1867.
Q And you came to the Territory when? A In 1887 or 1888.
Q You can't make that any more definite? A Well sir, it has been a good while ago, and I didn't have anything to cause me to.
Q Well I just want to know whether you did have or not? A No sir.
Q When were you married? A 1886.
Q You were married prior to coming here? A Yes sir.
Q Your first child born away from here? A Yes sir.
Q What is its name? A John W.
Q '86 you were married, and he was born about the spring of '87?
A Somewhere in 1887, I don't remember.
Q Prior to your coming here? A Yes sir.
Q That is the only child you had that was born away from here?
A No sir, Julius.
Q Julius was not born in the Territory? A No sir.
Q And prior to the time of your removing to the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q These are the only children born out? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if about February 1901, he came to Wagoner, and sent his son to have you come to the hotel at night where he was, and if he then and there said to you "You people are on the doubtful list, and if you will give me five hundred dollars I will make it all right and see that you are enrolled, and if you don't I will see that you don't get on".? A Well now as to the first part of thatquestion, where you say he sent his son; that is an error; I don't know whether he came to my house or sent some one; when I returned home that evening my wife told me there was some one there to see me, and was at the city hotel at Wagoner, and said come down and see him; I went down there; I never had met Taylor; he introduced himself to me and stated what his business was; asked me if I was on the doubtful list, etc., to which I replied that we were; he asked me if I didn't want to employ him, stating that if we would give him, our family would give him five hundred dollars he would see that we were placed on the rolls all right, but if we refused to give him five hundred dollars that he would use his influence against us and see that we were rejected.
Q You never had met him before, or had any communication with him?
A I never met him before; as to the communication, I may have written him something about his affidavit as to the validity of that judgment, I can't say as to that. He said in his testimony that I did; I don't know whether I did or not now.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q You knew he was the attorney in the case, originally? A After looking at the records I did.
Q I mean you knew it at the time you wrote to him about the affidavit; that was the reason why you thought he would know something? A Certainly.
Q He never told you he was going to swear against you or threatened to tell anything that was not true? A He just simply said unless we gave him that five hundred dollars he would see we were all put off the rolls.
Q Said he would use his influence against you, that is what he said? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You don't deny writing to him then for the affidavit? A I don't say I did or I did not; I neither affirm it or deny the question.
Q You went to Captain Benge and also wrote him with reference to what he knew about the case? A I don't kno whether I wrote him or not, I said I was under the impression I wrote his son.
Q You went to Asa Aaron Butler, who was interpreter before that court that admitted you? A Yes sir.
Q And you went with Anron Butler to see Jir Smith, attorney before that court? A Yes sir.
Q And you either wrote or went t see everybody you knew of that was before that court then? A Yes sir.
Q That shows you used considerable activity? A Yes sir, I used such activity as was to my interest.

BY MR. McKENNON:
Q That was all after the representatives of the Cherokee Nation objected to the enrollment of the Dawson family and by reason thereof such as had appeared before the Commission had been placed upon a doubtful card? A Yes sir.
Q Then you began to look up the evidence and see what there was in it? A Yes sir.
Q As Mr. Hastings has stated? A That's right.

BY MR. McKENNON:
Q You are a grandson of James Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q The old gentleman? A Yes sir.
Q About what was his age when he was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, in 1884, wasn't it? A Yes sir, well I can't be exact as to that.
Q Well as nearly as you can? A He was somewhere about 70 or 72, years of age.
Q Well what other James Dawson did you know belonging to the families, either one of these families, Robert Dawson family or the James Dawson family? A I never knew of but two James Dawsons.
Q Who were the others? A Dr. James R. Dawson, who is present and standing right here; my grandfather, James Dawson.
Q Was there in '84 any James R. Dawson 35 or 40 or 45 years old, that you know of, belonging to either one of these families?
A No sir.
Q Do you know how old Dr. James R. Dawson was that time?
A James Dawson? Q No I am speaking of Dr. James R. Dawson? A Oh, how old he was, no sir, I do not.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q Do you know who was here attending to your mother's citizenship case at that time, at the time they were admitted? A Yes sir, James Low and Bill Jackson, son of Ellen Jackson.
Q Who was W. A. Dawson? A That is Wilburn, my uncle.
Q Was he here? A I don't know sir.
Q You were not here any of the time? A No sir.
Q You knew your grandfather then, you had lived in the same neighborhood with him? A Yes sir, I knew him well.
Q He didn't die for a year or two after that did he? A After when, Mr. Hutchings?
Q After his admission to citizenship? A No sir, he didn't die I think until '91 or '90, several years after.
Q Very old man when he died? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:
Q About what age? A He was approximately 80 years old.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q When he died? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q That about 1891? A I think so, yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Applicants object to the testimony of the witness elicited by interrogatories of Counsel for the Cherokee Nation relating to his family, their history, etc, as being irmaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

James R. Dawson, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Your name is James R. Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Where do you live? A Afton, Indian Territory.
Q What is your age? A 45.
Q You are a physician are you not? A Yes sir.
Q Was James Dawson, whose family was admitted in 1884, an uncle of yours? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know what his age was at that time? A No sir, I do not, only approximately.
Q State as nearly as you can? A At the time of theadmission?
Q Yes sir? A About 70, I don't know exactly.
Q How old was he when he died? A I would suppose he was about 78.
Q What was your age in 1884? A I am 45.
Q What year were you born, Doctor? A I was born in '55.
Q Must have been '84? A Yes sir, that's right.
Q What was your age then? A In '84?
Q Yes sir? A About 28.
Q Were you present at the time that James Dawson family was admitted, or at any time while their case was pending before the Cherokee citizenship commission? A Not while the James Dawson case was, no sir.
Q You were present during your father's case? A I was there at the time.
Q When was that? A The dates I dismember; when the case first come up, I dismember the exact date.
Q How long were you there? A I was there about a week.
Q Was that when it first came up you say? A Yes sir.
Q Nothing was done? A No sir.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q You never saw Dr. Baker? A Yes sir.
Q Did he and your uncle Jimmie used to talk about how they played together when they were boys? A My uncle Jim and Dr. Baker talk?
Q Yes? A I never saw them together.
Q They were about the same age? A Yes sir, I believe Dr. Baker was 15 years older probably.
Q Dr. Baker must have been mistaken about his own age? A Guessing, that's all I know about his age.
Q The Doctor had been paralyzed, rather a decrepit looking man at the time he was over here at this citizenship business? A No sir, not as I know anything about.
Q He was near about 70 then? A I couldn't tell you, he was an old looking man.
Q Your uncle Jimmie was about 70? A Yes sir.

TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF THE CHEROKEE NATION.

W. W. HASTINGS, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A W. W. Hastings.

Q Residence? A Tahlequah, age 35.

Q You are attorney for the Cherokee Nation in the general preparation of these cases? A Yes sir.

Q Just state how it happened that you summoned Mr. Campbell Taylor, and what occurred between you with reference to his testimony?

A Well there had been some talk, as the testimony here indicates, that there was perhaps fraud in the admission of this family, and by agreement with counsel on the other side, and the Commission, this case was set for the 17th day of March, and some short time prior to that, as the attorney for the Nation I began to make some preparation or inquiry into the case, and I wrote a great many letters around to different people and among them I wrote C. H. Taylor to come down here. I don't think in that letter that I told him what I wanted with him. I don't think I told him the case that I wanted him to testify in; that is my recollection now. Mr. Taylor prior to that time, neither directly nor indirectly, so far as I know, ever gave me any information voluntarily against this family, or ever said anything that would lead me to believe that he knew anything of a fraudulent character connected with it. But I summoned him; perhaps the fact that I knew he had been connected with them in some way and that I perhaps also would get some information from him. Well he came in response to a letter that I wrote, and I took him up to my office. I talked to him quite a long while. He was exceedingly reluctant about giving any testimony whatever, he told me first and last that he didn't intend to testify before the Commission. He told me he had been attorney for these people, and he didn't believe he could be compelled to testify, and that is he was put upon the stand he would claim that privilege, and he didn't believe I could force him to testify. I talked to him at some considerable length; I asked him what he knew about it; of course he for a long time declined to tell me; and what information I did get from him was by piecemeal. He was exceedingly reluctant all through the interview to give any information. I asked him finally though that if the Court compelled him to testify when he got before the Commission, if he would tell the facts about it, and he said that he would. I told him then that I would subpoena him.

Well we talked quite a good while and finally after always telling me that he intended to claim that privilege, and never wanting to testify, he detailed to me the facts just as he told them on the stand; I don't believe there is the slightest variation, except that he perhaps was not so full at that time and it was told by piecemeal, but I got all those facts out of him, or very nearly all those facts out of him. He may have elaborated a little more here by examination; but he never voluntarily gave me any information at all, either directly or so far as I know indirectly. I don't think he sent any one to me. I got his name because I heard he was connected with the case, and perhaps knew something about it, like I did a great many other people, some of whom I didn't bring, because they didn't know what I supposed they did know about the case.

With reference to S. H. Benge, I want to state that he never voluntarily gave me any information at all about this case, nor did I know that he knew anything in connection with this case until I sent J. C. Starr over to S. H. Benge's place to take his affidavit on Saturday, March 15, in the W. H. and J. W. Shoemake case, and their descendants. I had heard that Mr. Benge knew some important facts in connection with the Shoemake case and I sent him over there then to take that affidavit; and when Mr. Starr came back he told me that he knew some facts also in connection with these other cases, and I was surprised to find he had instead of one affidavit, in the Shoemake case, that he also had another affidavit in the Dawson case. That is the first information I had that Mr. Benge knew anything whatever in connection with the Dawson case, and therefore he never voluntarily, either directly or indirectly gave any information prior to that time to me.

I impressed upon Mr. Taylor that the Nation only wanted the absolute truth in this matter; that it was not seeking anything else but the truth, and didn't want him to tell anything else but the truth.

I want to say again that after he was on the stand and left that evening, and after Captain McKennon, or counsel for the family, had indicated his willingness for Mr. Taylor to testify, that he went over all of these facts that he testified to on the stand subsequent to that time in the presence of J. C. Starr in my office. I simply wanted to go on the stand for the purpose of showing that Mr. Taylor hadn't voluntarily given me any information, and I make this statement for that purpose.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q You had no power to compel him to give you any information at that time at all did you? A No sir, none other than the persuation that I brought to use.

Q He therefore did it simply upon your persuation? A Yes sir.

Q You knew he had been acting as attorney for these parties?

A Yes sir, I had seen from the record that he did too.

Q And he told you so? A Yes sir.

BY COMMISSION: The attorneys for the applicant and the representatives of the Cherokee Nation will be granted thirty days from the receipt of the transcript in this case in which to file a brief in this case with the Commission.

I, M. D. Green, do hereby certify that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes I correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) M. D. Green.

I, Arthur C. Evans, being duly sworn, state that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes I copied the foregoing, and that the same is a true and complete copy of the original.

Proceedings were had in the matter of F. M. Dawson, et al., before Lewis T. Martin, a Notary Public on October 4, 1900, and further proceedings were had therein before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory on March 17, 1902. All of these proceedings have been made a part of the record herein.

The evidence, and an examination of the records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission show that on January 11, 1883, one Robert Dawson and his adult children, F. M. Dawson, Elbert Dawson, Jasper Dawson, Mollie Dawson, Wilborn Dawson, James Dawson, Rial Dawson, Josephine Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson and John Dawson were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, commonly known as the "Teehee Court", and that on September 9, 1884, one James Dawson, a brother of the Robert Dawson aforesaid, together with his adult children, Ella Dawson, W. A. Dawson, Malvina Dawson and Missouri Dawson were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship commonly known as the "Spears Court." In addition to their tribal enrollment as shown by the evidence herein, it also appears from an examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, in the possession of this Commission, that F. M. Dawson is identified on the Cherokee pay rolls of 1883 and 1894, Elbert Dawson on the Cherokee pay roll of 1886, Mollie Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, Wilborn Dawson on the pay rolls of 1886 and 1894, James Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883 and 1894, Rial Dawson on the pay rolls of 1886 and 1894, Josephine Dawson on the pay roll of 1886, Jane Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, Joseph Dawson and John Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883, 1886 and 1894, Ella Dawson and W.A.

Dawson on the Day roll of 1896, and Missouri Dawson on the Day roll of 1894.

A majority of the above named persons, together with the descendants of the persons admitted as aforesaid and such white persons as may have intermarried with the said Dawsons or their descendants are the applicants herein.

For convenience, the applications are divided into groups:

Group 1, includes the applications of Francis M. Dawson and those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 324, D 530, D 531, D 534, D 588 and D 835.

The evidence shows that Francis M. Dawson is the same person admitted to citizenship as hereinbefore stated under the name of F.M. Dawson. Katie Dawson, his wife, was married to him on November 21, 1880. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since they were married, and the six children included in the application of said Francis M. Dawson, and hereinbefore named are the issue of the marriage aforesaid. All the applicants herein are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

John Dawson, William R. Dawson, Lizzie Atkins, formerly Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, Jr., and Arizona Allred are the children of said Francis M. Dawson by a former wife, Julia Ann. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship. John Dawson, Lizzie Atkins and Francis M. Dawson, Jr., are identified on the Strip Payment roll of 1894, and William R. Dawson and Arizona Allred are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Andrew C. Atkins was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on March 28, 1891, to the above named Lizzie Dawson. He has resided in the Cherokee Nation with his said wife since they were married, and the four children included in his application, and hereinbefore named are the issue of that marriage. The oldest child, Arthur, is identified on the Cherokee pay roll of 1894, and the three younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Arizona Allred, nee Dawson, came from Arkansas to the Cherokee Nation for the first time in 1894, remained there about two years and then returned to Arkansas, where she was married to Lee Allred. Such marriage was not in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. Arizona Allred and her husband came to the Cherokee Nation in 1896, stayed there a month and returned to Arkansas where they remained until September, 1898, at which time they came to the Cherokee Nation, remained there about a year and returned to Arkansas in 1899, where they were living at the date of this application. William C. Allred is the child of said Arizona Allred and possesses no rights not acquired by his mother. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Paragraph 9, Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) provides:

> "No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the Nation in which he claims citizenship."

The evidence further shows that Francis M. Dawson, his wife, Katie and William R. Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, Jr., and Lizzie Atkins have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883, and Andrew C. Atkins, the husband of said Lizzie Atkins, since 1891, and that John Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation for at least fourteen years prior to the date of his application. The residence of the minor children of the above named persons is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group II, includes the applications of Samuel R. Dawson, together with those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 350, D 352, D 358, D 365, D 482 and D 402.

The evidence shows that Samuel R. Dawson is identified as the Rial Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. His wife, Catherine, a white woman, was married to him on July 11, 1866. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since their marriage, and August and Mate Dawson are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. Samuel R. Dawson, his wife and children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Robert Dawson, Albert H. Dawson, Josephine Bulawsky, formerly Josephine Dawson, John W. Dawson, and Katie Newman, formerly Katie Dawson are the children of said Samuel R. Dawson. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Sarah F. Dawson, nee Abbott, was married to the said Albert H. Dawson in October, 1894. She has lived with her said husband, since they were married. Ralph H., Alford and Cecil Dawson are the issue of that marriage. Sarah F. Dawson and her child Ralph H. are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. Alford is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission. The evidence further shows that the youngest child, Cecil Dawson, is dead.

August Bulawsky, was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on May 25, 1893, to the said Josephine Dawson. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. The four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and the Strip Payment roll of 1894. May Bulawsky is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and Oscar Bulawsky is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Mannie Dawson, nee Baugher, was married to the said John W. Dawson on September 8, 1894, and she has lived with her said husband since they were married.

The evidence further shows that Samuel R. Dawson, his wife, Catherine, and Robert Dawson, Albert H. Dawson, John W. Dawson, and Katie Newman have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1886, August Bulawsky and his wife Josephine, since 1892, and Sarah F. and Mannie Dawson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group III, includes the application of John Dawson, and those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 578, D 360 and D 530. The evidence shows that John Dawson is the same person admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated, Sarah J. Dawson, nee Wood, his wife, a white woman, was married to him on October 4, 1871. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since they were married and the nine children included in the application of said John Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. John Dawson, his wife, and his seven older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Thomas P. Dawson and Orle M. Dawson are the children of said John Dawson. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship, and they are both identified on the Cherokee

Census roll of 1896.

Thomas P. Dawson was married on April 24, 1898, to Allen A. Allison, and Marion J. Dawson is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Orle H. Dawson was married on December 28, 1899, to Addie York, and Burr R. and James W. Dawson are the issue of that marriage. The said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said John Dawson and his wife, Sarah J., have resided together in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that said Orle H. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883, and that Thomas P. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888. The residence of the minor children herein is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IV, includes the applications of those claiming through the said Josephine Dawson, now deceased. At the time of her admission she was the wife of one Thomas Pierce, but was admitted to citizenship under maiden name of Dawson. The group embraces cases numbered D 408, D 409, D 431, D 471, D 472 and D 479.

The evidence shows that Robert Pierce, William Pierce, Charles E. Pierce, Oma Gray, formerly Oma Pierce, Effie Pierce (now Effie Akins) and Nancy J. Bogle, formerly Nancy J. Pierce are the children of said Josephine Dawson. They were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Nellie Pierce, a white woman, was married to said Robert Pierce on July 15, 1894. She has lived with her said husband since they were married, and Lyrtle and Arthur Pierce are the issue of that marriage. Nellie Pierce is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and her two children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Ora Gray was married to John B. Gray on April 7, 1898, and Cecil and Velton Gray are the issue of that marriage. Ora Gray is identified on the strip payment roll of 1896 and her children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

John S. Bogle was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 5, 1894, to the above named Nancy J. Pierce. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. John S. Bogle and his two older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his four younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said William Pierce died in January, 1902.

It further appears that Robert Pierce, Charles E. Pierce, Nancy J. Bogle and Ora Gray have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; that John S. Bogle, husband of Nancy J. Bogle, and Nellie Pierce, wife of Robert Pierce, have resided in said Nation ever since they were married, and the residence of the minor children herein is considered to be that of their parents with whom they are living. It appears that Effie Akins was seventeen years old at the date of the application for her enrollment, and it further appears that she resided in the Cherokee Nation from about 1886 up to December, 1900, when she went to Colorado, was married there to Will Akins, and is now living in that state with her said husband.

Group V, includes the application of the said Joseph Dawson, Wilborn Dawson and James Dawson, and embraces cases numbered D 364, D 475 and D 526.

Joseph R. Dawson is identified as the Joseph Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. He was married to Florence Jackson on May 18, 1886, and they have lived together since the date of their marriage. The said Florence Jackson is the daughter of Ellen Dawson, but she was of age at the date of her mother's admission to citizenship. The six children included in the application of said Joseph R. Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the marriage between the said Joseph R. Dawson and Florence Jackson. The applicant, his said wife and his four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

William Dawson is identified as the person of that name admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

James R. Dawson is identified as the James Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as heretofore stated. His wife, Martha A. Dawson was married to him on February 20, 1890. She has lived with her said husband since the date of their marriage, and the four children included in the application of said James R. Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. The applicant, his said wife and his three older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The youngest child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that Joseph R. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that Florence Dawson and Wilborn Dawson have resided in said Nation since 1896, and that James R. Dawson has resided in said Nation since 1883, excepting a temporary absence from 1889 to 1891. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group VI, includes the application of Mollie Dawson and those claiming through her and embraces case numbered D 518.

The evidence shows that Mollie Moore, formerly Dawson, is identified as the Mollie Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. Her husband, Charles T. Moore, was married to her under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on January 17, 1887. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. Charles T. Moore, his wife Lollie, and his four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896; the two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that said Charles T. Moore, his wife Mollie and his oldest child have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; the younger children have resided in said nation all their lives.

Group VII, includes the applications of those claiming through the above named Jane Dawson, who, at the time of her admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, as hereinbefore stated, was the wife of one Alexander Blasingame, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson. Jane Dawson is a resident of Arkansas, and is not an applicant for enrollment. This group embraces cases numbered D 832, D 833 and D 834.

The evidence shows that Henry A. Blasingame, Elbert L. Blasingame, and James R. Blasingame are the children of said Jane Dawson. They were minors at the time of their mother's admission to citizenship and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Henry A. Blasingame was married to his wife Birdie J., on December 6, 1896, and Vinnie C. Blasingame is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Ida Blasingame, a White woman, was married to the said Elbert L. Blasingame on September 5, 1894. She has lived with her said husband ever since they were married and the four minor children included in the application of said Elbert L. Blasingame are the issue of that marriage. The said Ida Blasingame and her two older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Mary A. Blasingame was married to the said James R. Blasingame on August 11, 1895. She has lived with her said husband since they were married and the three minor children included in the application of said James R. Blasingame, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. Mary A. Blasingame and her oldest child are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said Henry A. Blasingame, Elbert L. Blasingame and James R. Blasingame removed to the Cherokee Nation in 1897 and have resided therein with their said wives ever since. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group VIII, includes the applications of those claiming through the said Elbert Dawson, and embraces cases numbered D 435, D 604, D 608, D 605, D 609, D 617, D 626 and D 627.

The evidence shows that Zona Patterson, formerly Dawson, William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Richard W. Dawson, Ella L. Spickerman, formerly Dawson, and Francis M. Dawson are the children of the said Elbert Dawson. All of them, excepting the said Francis M. Dawson, were minors at the time of their father's admission to citizenship. Zona Patterson is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson are identified on the Strip Payment roll of 1894. An examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, in the possession of this Commission, shows that the said Ella L. Spickerman is also identified on the Strip Payment roll of 1894.

Martin L. Patterson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on July 13, 1890, to the said Zona Dawson. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. Martin L. Patterson and his three older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his three younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Alice Dawson, nee Alexander, was married to the said William C. Dawson on November 18, 1886. She has lived with her said husband ever since they were married.

Elbert B. Dawson was married on February 16, 1898, to Cora Bright, a non-citizen, and his child Ralph E. Dawson is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Sarah J. Dawson, nee Jones, was married to the above named Elbert Dawson about 1854, and lived with him as his wife until his death in February, 1899, and has not re-married since his death. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship.

Richard W. Dawson was married to Luella Mason, a white woman, on January 24, 1898. His child Ina B. Dawson is the issue of that marriage, and she is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Ella L. Spickerman was married to John J. Spickerman, a white man on September 7, 1897. Her children Hellen J. and William Glenn are the issue of that marriage. They are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

It further appears from the evidence that Francis M. Dawson, son of Elbert Dawson, at the time of his father's admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation was twenty-two or twenty-three years old. There is no evidence that the said Francis M. Dawson has been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), Provides for the enrollment of,

> "all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents, by reason of their Cherokee blood have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, and who were minors when their parents were so admitted."

The evidence further shows that Zona Patterson, William C. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson, and Ella L. Spiekerman since 1885. Alice Dawson since 1886, and Martin L. Patterson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IX, includes the applications of the said Missouri Dawson, and these claiming through her. The said Missouri Dawson at the time of her admission to citizenship was the wife of one John W. Graham, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson, This group embraces cases numbered D 23, D 35, D 836, D 1124, D 1125, D 1126, D 1127 and D 1128.

The evidence shows that John W. Graham was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on February 18, 1882, to the said Missouri Dawson. He had been formerly married to her in the State of Texas in 1866, and has lived with her since that time. Tempa V. and Robert S. Graham are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. John W. Graham, his wife and two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

ship in the Cherokee Nation was twenty-two or twenty-three years old. There is no evidence that the said Francis M. Dawson has been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides for the enrollment of,

> "all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents, by reason of their Cherokee blood have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, and who were minors when their parents were so admitted."

The evidence further shows that Zona Patterson, William C. Dawson and Richard T. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; Robert L. Dawson, Wilbert B. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson, and Ella L. Spieckerman since 1883; Alice Dawson since 1886, and Martin L. Patterson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IX, includes the applications of the said Missouri Dawson, and those claiming through her. The said Missouri Dawson at the time of her admission to citizenship was the wife of one John V. Graham, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson. This group embraces cases numbered, D 23, D 35, D 836, D 1124, D 1125, D 1126, D 1127 and D 1128.

The evidence shows that John V. Graham was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on February 12, 1888, to the said Missouri Dawson. He had been formerly married to her in the State of Texas in 1886, and has lived with her since that time. Tampa V. and Robert S. Graham are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. John V. Graham, his wife and two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Joe E. Graham was married to Mary Bradshaw, a non-citizen on January 6, 1898. William C. Graham is the issue of that marriage, and he is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

John F. Graham was married on February 11, 1900, to Mattie Lawson, a non-citizen, and Edna M. and Robert Lee are the issue of that marriage. Said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Bessie Graham was married on November 2, 1892, to the said James M. Graham. She has lived with him since the date of their marriage, and the six children included in the application of said James M. Graham, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the said marriage. The oldest child Marion is identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894, and the five younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said John W. Graham, his wife Missouri Graham, Gideon Graham, Mathew A. Painter, and his wife Laverna A. Painter, Florence P. Bradshaw, John F. Graham and Joe Willie Neal have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888, and that Joe E. Graham and James M. Graham have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group X, includes the application of the said Ella Dawson and those claiming through her. The said Ella Dawson, at the time of her admission to citizenship, was the wife of Green W. Jackson, but she was admitted to citizenship under her maiden name of Dawson. This group embraces cases numbered D 395, D 476, D 508, D 830 and D 847.

The evidence shows that Green W. Jackson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on March 24, 1887 to the said Ella Dawson. He had been previously married to her in Texas prior to her admission to citizenship. From an affidavit made a part of this record it appears that Green W. Jackson died subsequent to the date of this application, and prior to September 1, 1902.

The evidence further shows that Flora Harmon, formerly Jackson, Toshio A. Jackson, William Jackson and Fannie Lenox, formerly Jackson are the children of said Ella Dawson, now Ella Jackson. Flora Harmon, Toshio A. Jackson and Fannie Lenox were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

James H. Harmon was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 24, 1887, to the said Flora Jackson. He has lived with his wife since the date of their marriage, and the four minor children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the said marriage. James H. Harmon and his three older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The youngest child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

William C. Lenox was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 1, 1888, to the said Fannie Jackson. He has lived with his wife since the date of their marriage, and the two children Birtie E. and Myrtle Lenox, included in his application, are the issue of the said marriage. William C. Lenox and his two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Lizzie Jackson claims to have been married in 1888 to the said William Jackson, who is now deceased. It appears that William Jackson at the date of his mother's admission to citizenship, was over twenty-one years old. There is no evidence that the said William Jackson was ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). Lizzie Jackson and the five minor children included in her application, and hereinbefore named, are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and they take only such rights as may have been possessed by the said William Jackson. The authority of the Commission herein is defined in Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), heretofore quoted.

The evidence further shows that the said Ella Jackson, the said Flora Harmon and the said Toshie A. Jackson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884, and that William C. Lenox, and his wife Fannie Lenox have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XI, includes the applications of those claiming through Malvina Dawson and embraces case numbered D 839.

The evidence shows that James Lowe is the son of the said Malvina Dawson, and that at the time of her admission to citizenship the said James Lowe was over 21 years old. There is no evidence that the said James Lowe was ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). It further appears that the said James Lowe was married on June 12, 1887, to Mollie Knight, a White woman, and the four minor children included in his application and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. James Lowe and his said children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896 and said children take only the rights which may have been acquired by their father.

The authority of the Commission herein is derived in Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), heretofore quoted

Group XII, includes the applications of those claiming through the said W. A. Dawson and embraces cases numbered D 405, D 406, D 715, R 12 and R 13.

The evidence shows that Millie T. Dawson was married to the said W. A. Dawson in 1892 and lived with him as his wife in the Cherokee Nation until his death in 1899. and that she has not re-married since his death. Texanna Woolley is the daughter of said W. A. Dawson and his former wife Melissa A. Dawson. Texanna Woolley was a minor at the date of her father's admission to citizenship, and she is identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894. She was married on March 27, 1898, to James Woolley, and her children Irene T. and Wilburn R. are the issue of that marriage. They are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Henry T. Richardson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on July 11, 1886, to one Sellar Dawson, who was the daughter of the said W. A. Dawson by his first wife Melissa A. Sellar Dawson was a minor at the date of her father's admission to citizenship. Henry T. Richardson lived in the Cherokee Nation with his said wife Sellar from the date of their marriage until her death in 1892. On September 22, 1898, Henry T. Richardson married one Kitty Flournoy nee Dawson. The said Kitty Flournoy was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. Of the children herein applied for, Delia F. Richardson is the child of the applicant by his first wife, Sellar. Finis T. Richardson and Jasper C. Richardson are children by his wife Kitty. Edgar, Walter, Alice, Laura, Oscar, Claude and Edna Flournoy are the children of his said wife Kitty by a former husband.

The six older children were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on December 1, 1894, with their mother as the members of her family. The youngest child Edna Flournoy was born in 1896 and was living at the date of this application. Delia F. Richardson is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and Finis T. and Jasper C. Richardson are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Etta Brauer is the daughter of said W. A. Dawson, and was a minor at the date of her father's admission. She was married in 1892 to a non-citizen but such marriage was not in accordance with Cherokee laws. She is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Melissa A. Dawson was married to the said W. A. Dawson in the State of Texas on September 28, 1873. The Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in the case of Melissa A. Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson, decided that Melissa A. Dawson, the applicant herein was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of intermarriage with her said husband, W. A. Dawson. She is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and she has not re-married since her divorce from said W. A. Dawson.

The evidence shows that Texanna Woolley has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; that Etta Brauer and Melissa A. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation, with the exception of temporary absences, since 1884; that Millie T. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1892; that Henry T. Richardson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1886, and that Kitty Richardson, his wife, has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XIII, includes the following applications: Miram F. Waddle, et al D 821; William D. Douthitt, D 822; Alonzo M. Pinkbeck, D 843; Florence Morgan, et al D 837; John M. Pinkbeck, D 845 and George A. Mabry, et al D 971. The persons enrolled in these applic-sations are related to the above named Dawsons. They are not claiming the right to enrollment by virtue of such relationship, but rely upon a separate adjudication of their rights.

The evidence shows that Hiram F. Weddle was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on September 13, 1884, to Lula P. Douthitt, who was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the said "Spears Court" on September 13, 1884. Curtis, Morris O. and Roy Weddle are the issue of the said marriage. Hiram F. Weddle and his said wife are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and their three children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

William D. Douthitt is the brother of said Lula P. Weddle, and was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation with his said sister on September 13, 1884. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Alonzo M. Fishback was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on May 17, 1894, to Lavarna A. Dawson. He had been previously married to the same wife in Texas in 1877, and has lived with her ever since. It appears that Lavarna Fishback was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. William A. and Annie B. Fishback are the issue of the said marriage. Alonzo M. Fishback and his said wife and children are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his wife is also identified on the Cherokee pay roll of 1890.

Florence Morgan, the wife of Elbert L. Morgan, is the daughter of the Kitty Richardson heretofore mentioned and was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on December 1, 1894 with the said Kitty Richardson as a member of her family. Clide and Alice A. Morgan are her children by her said husband. The said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

John E. Fishback is the son of Laverna Fishback, who was re-admitted to citizenship on December 1, 1894, as heretofore stated. He was a minor at the date of his mother's admission to citizenship and he is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

George A. Mabry was married to one Edna Dawson in the State of Arkansas in 1884. He claims to have been married under a Cherokee marriage license to his said wife in 1889, but he presents no satisfactory proof of such marriage. Edna Dawson was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. Roby and Charley Mabry are her children by her said husband, George A. Mabry. Edna Mabry is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894, and the two children were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship.

The evidence further shows that Alonzo H. Fishback and his wife Laverna A. Fishback have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that Lula P. Weddle, William D. Douthitt, and John.E. Fishback have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884, and that Florence Morgan and Edna Mabry have resided in said Nation since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

All birth affidavits for the minor children embraced in this decision, and hereinbefore noted, are made a part of this record.

It is contended by the Cherokee Nation that the applicants herein are not entitled to be enrolled by this Commission because they have never been lawfully admitted or enrolled by the Cherokee authorities, and that the judgment of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship admitting Robert Dawson and his family was obtained by fraud on the part of said Dawson.

In considering the question at issue, it is the opinion of this Commission that it has no power, and that it is not the purpose of this proceeding, to review or to set aside the judgment in the Dawson case, or to determine such questions as were necessarily involved in the issues before the Cherokee Commission, and were passed upon by that Commission. In United States vs. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. Page 61, it is stated, "the doctrine is well settled that the Court will not set aside a judgment because it was founded on perjured testimony or for any matter which was actually presented and considered in the judgment assailed." Only such facts therefore, are considered by this Commission, as were not part of the record in the Robert Dawson case before the Teehee Commission, and which tend to show whether the judgment admitting the Dawsons was a bona fide judgment of the Teehee Commission, or whether such judgment is void because of fraud, and upon this proposition the burden of proof is upon those attacking the judgment.

Briefly stated, the circumstances attending the admission of the Dawsons appear to be as follows:

On September 24, 1881, an application was made to the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship known as the "Teehee Court" for admission to Cherokee citizenship of Robert Dawson and the members of his family above mentioned. The members of that Commission were Thomas Teehee, Alex Wolfe and T. F. Thompson. The first two were full blood Cherokee Indians; they could understand, but could not talk English. One D. W. C. Duncan was the Clerk of the Commission. The Dawson case was continued several times before final decision. J. M. Bryan appears to have been an attorney in the case, and after some delay he notified Francis M. Dawson that the case would be taken up by the Commission at its session in January, 1883, and also informed him that C.H.Taylor would look after Dawson's interests as he, Bryan, would be in Washington. On receipt of this notice Francis M. Dawson went to Fort Gibson, Cherokee Nation, and made arrangements with his uncle Samuel H. Benge to go to Tahlequah and conduct the case. Benge who is a witness herein testifies that he was connected with the Dawson case when it was commenced in 1881; that it was continued several times for want of evidence, and that in January, 1885, in company with F. M. Dawson he went to Tahlequah and while there secured the testimony of Tosh Rogers, a negro, who knew the Dawson's ancestors, and that after getting his evidence the case was submitted to the Commission. He further testifies that the Commission rendered a decision against the Dawsons and that next morning the Commission reopened the case, but not upon motion of the witness, and rendered a judgment admitting the Dawsons to citizenship. He further states that on his way home to Fort Gibson with Dawson he remarked to the latter, "it was a pretty hard blow when they rendered a decision against us," to which Dawson is alleged to have replied, "yes, but Duncan was the man to reach and he reached him with five hundred dollars."

Dawson denies ever having had such a conversation and says that he did not return to Fort Gibson with Benge but went home to Arkansas by a different route.

C. H. Taylor testifies that he was an attorney in the case and was present when the case was decided. He says there were only two Commissioners present, Tehee and Wolfe. He further testifies that D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of the Court asked the witness to let him know when any large citizenship cases came up; that he introduced F. M. Dawson to Duncan on the evening of January 10th, heard part of a conversation between them in which Duncan addressing Dawson said, "there is a hitch in your evidence, if that was straightened out it will be all right." Next morning witness says Dawson told him to call up the case, which he did. That there was no additional evidence introduced and no argument made, and that the case was then decided in favor of the Dawsons. Witness further testifies that Dawson gave him twenty dollars and said he would send him the balance in a short time, that in the course of ten days he sent him one hundred dollars with directions to pay over half of it to Duncan; that Dawson soon afterwards sent him another hundred dollars with the same instruction to give Duncan half of it.

Dawson denied the matters testified to by Taylor excepting in the matter of paying Taylor money, which he admits in part, but says that the twenty dollars mentioned was sent to Taylor about a year after the decision, and that he instructed Taylor to pay it over to Duncan to pay him for a land claim, and that the other money was in payment of J. M. Bryan's attorney fees which Taylor represented to Dawson he had for collection against him. Taylor's reputation for truth and veracity has been impeached by various disinterested witnesses.

The evidence which may be considered as tending to support the charge of fraud is the testimony of S. H. Denge, C. H. Taylor, Thomas [illegible]. Babcart, J. L. Clinkenbeard, James W. Lewis, C. G. Draught and David Meredith.

S. H. Denge testifies that a judgment adverse to the Dawsons was rendered by the Commission on the evening of one day and without any additional proceedings in the case that judgment was reversed on the morning of the next day.

Even if this were a material fact, there is no other proof that two judgments in the case were ever rendered. The record of the proceedings and judgment in the Commission's docket is all on one page, the entry of the application in 1881 and the first continuance being entered under authority of a former Commission and by a different clerk, and there is no evidence of erasure on that page. It is not an unusual thing for a Court to change its judgment, and this fact, if it is a fact, is not in itself any evidence of fraud.

Thomas B. Babeart testifies that one James Dawson, a man of forty or fifty years of age, in company with Butler, the Commission's interpreter and Jim Smith, solicitor for the Nation, came to the witness in Tahlequah the evening of January 10, 1883, to borrow some money; that Dawson was vouched for by Butler as a responsible party and that Dawson told the witness that he had to have money that night, that his case was to be submitted the next day if he could get some money, that Smith had agreed to submit the case without evidence, and that witness thereupon let Dawson have ten dollars.

Admitting all this to be true and that the influence of these officials was purchased for the sum of ten dollars, the Commission fails to see how these alleged facts show that the Court was imposed upon or misled. Bribery of officials to use their influence with the Commission would not necessarily vitiate the judgment, but it must appear that the fraud, or corruption reached the members of the Commission and tainted the judgment itself. The case was not submitted without evidence as appears from the record, and it is shown that such evidence was carefully considered by that Commission. Furthermore, the evidence shows that there was no such person then in Tahlequah as the James Dawson described by witness.

Clinkenbeard testifies that he had a talk with Elbert Dawson about 1881; that Dawson told him he had only one witness, Dr. Baker of Arkansas, "an old man 85 or 90 years old who did not know straight up" and that he could give Dr. Baker four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would swear black was white. Witness further testifies that Dawson told him that money was what made the mare go in Texas, and that he had found out that it goes here too.

Assuming that this Commission can go into thequestion of perjury in connection with evidence in that case, the testimony of Clinkenbeard establishes, if anything, only the facts stated and does not prove that Dr. Baker committed perjury in giving his testimony before the Commission. Further, it is not clear that Dr. Baker was the only witness in the case. Benge stated that Tosh Rogers was a witness, Duncan is under that impression also, and T. F. Thompson, one of the Commissioners, states that he thinks there were three witnesses. The testimony of Dr. Baker, seems, however, to be the only testimony preserved of record As to whether Doctor Baker offered perjured testimony by Dawson's procurement, it is proper to state that the evidence of W. H. Curtis and A. S. McClennon, witnesses for applicants, show that Doctor Baker was a man of integrity and was not addicted to drinking.

The testimony of James W. Lewis is to the effect that he had a conversation with F. M. Dawson about 1883, in which Dawson had told the witness that it had cost him seven hundred dollars to get his rights. Draught also testifies that he was an applicant for citizenship about 1881 or 1882, and that while his case was pending he had a talk with F. M. Dawson who told him that if he (the witness) ever got in, it would cost him seven hundred dollars, and that Dawson told him he had paid one witness three hundred dollars, and made arrangements with the Court to get the Dawsons in at one hundred dollars a family. David Meredith testifies that he had a talk with old James Dawson in 1888, and that the latter told the witness it cost him twelve hundred dollars to get his case through.

It can hardly be urged that such evidence is sufficient to show that the members of the Teehee Commission were corrupted by the fraudulent use of money. So far as these witnesses have been able to testify the money spent by the Dawsons might have been for proper and legitimate purposes. F. M. Dawson gives a detailed statement of what the case cost him and his brother in a legitimate way. The presumption can not be indulged that such moneys were used for fraudulent purposes and the proof to the contrary must be very clear before this Commission will deny applicants the right to be enrolled upon that ground.

Admitting the truth of all the testimony in this case as to the actual transfer of money by the Dawsons, it appears that Duncan, Butler and Smith were the only beneficiaries of that money. There is no evidence that the members of the Commission received or were offered any of it.

The judgment entered in the Commission's docket shows the signature of the three members of the Commission appended thereto. There is some conflict as to whether Duncan signed Thompson's name, or whether Thompson affixed his own signature. Duncan testified that all three signatures were made by him as Clerk under authority of the Commissioners present, the two full bloods being unable to sign their names. T. F. Thompson testifies that he signed the original transcript of the judgment, which was made on the day of its rendition. The question, however, is not considered to be very material. The signing of judgments by each Commissioner appears to have been a matter of custom only. T. F. Thompson testifies that he remembers the Dawson case and recognizes the judgment therein as the final judgment of the Commission, and that there was no fraud or corruption in the procurement of that judgment by the Dawsons or by any one else so far as he knew.

Much evidence has been introduced by the Cherokee Nation for the purpose of showing that the ancestor, through whom the Dawsons claim, was not a Cherokee, and that other members of the Dawson family, claiming from the same source, have been denied Cherokee citizenship by subsequent Cherokee tribunals, and also by this Commission and by the United States Court. Such evidence, in the opinion of this Commission, is not competent for any purpose in this proceeding. The only question before this Commission is whether there was fraud in the procurement of the Robert Dawson judgment, and not whether the applicants are Cherokee Indians, or whether they ought to have been admitted to citizenship upon the proof submitted. Those were questions presented, considered and passed upon by the Tehee Commission. If their decision is a valid and regular judgment, it is binding on this Commission. If, on the contrary, the applicants have never been lawfully admitted to citizenship, because the judgment under which they claim is void, for fraud, then the question as to whether they are Cherokees by blood is not material, as this Commission has now no authority to admit them to citizenship.

While it is true, that since 1883, a number of applicants, members of the Dawson family, have been denied admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, no argument derived therefrom is of any force, for it is also true that other members of the same family have been admitted to citizenship, and the action of the Cherokee authorities in admitting them has never been questioned by the Cherokee Nation. Whatever inference, therefore, may be drawn from these facts applies with equal force both for and against the validity of the judgment in question.

The Dawsons have lived in the Cherokee Nation, most of them since 1883; they have exercised the rights of Cherokee citizenship for many years, some of them occupying official positions in the Nation, and no protest seems to have been made against their citizenship until within the last few years. The records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission, show, that since 1883, there have been Commissions on citizenship charged with authority to investigate the judgments of former tribunals alleged to have been secured by fraud, and the Cherokee Legislature has power to order an investigation, and to create a tribunal with authority to set aside a judgment so obtained. No such action appears to have been taken by the Cherokee authorities with reference to the judgment of the Tesnee Commission in the Robert Dawson case.

After a careful consideration of all the facts in this case this Commission is of the opinion that the evidence fails to establish that the Dawsons secured their admission to citizenship by fraud or that the judgment of the Tesnee Commission as rendered January 11, 1883, was fraudulent as the result of corruption, bribery, or deception upon the part of the Dawsons, or their agents, and that such judgment, and also the judgment of the Spears Commission in 1884, and the Act of the Cherokee National Council of December 1, 1894, which have not been attacked by the Cherokee Nation, being regular on their face, must therefore be accepted by this Commission as the valid judgments of the duly constituted Cherokee authorities.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that;

(Group I.) Francis M. Dawson, son of Robert Dawson, Lula Dawson, Ray Dawson, Jessie J. Dawson, Jacob L. Dawson, Hugh A. Dawson, Laura A. Dawson, John Dawson, William R. Dawson, Lizzie Atkins, Arthur Atkins, Edna E. Atkins, Edward C. Atkins, George J. F. Atkins, Francis M. Dawson, Jr., son of Francis M. Dawson and grand-son of Robert Dawson,

(Group XIII) Hiram F. Weddle and Alonzo M. Fishback, should be enrolled as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the provisions of said Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress, and it is so ordered.

It is further the opinion of this Commission that, for the reasons heretofore stated, the applications for the enrollment of Arizona Allred and William C. Allred, (embraced in D 836); Francis M. Dawson, son of Elbert Dawson, (embraced in D 827); Osie Jackson, Lizzie Jackson, Jessie Jackson, Ray Jackson, and Clyde Jackson, the children of William and Lizzie Jackson, (embraced in D 830); James Lowe, May Lowe, Zelma Lowe, Roberta Lowe and Rosa Lowe, (embraced in D 839), as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that the applications of Lizzie Jackson, widow of William Jackson, (embraced in D 830), and George A. Mabry (embraced in D 979), as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, in accordance with the provisions of the law heretofore quoted, and it is so ordered.

As hereinbefore stated William Pierce (D 409) and Cecil Dawson (D 368) and Green W. Jackson (D 395), died prior to September 1, 1902. It further appears from affidavits, made a part of this record that Liddie and Margaret Graham (D 1128) have died since the date of the application for their enrollment and prior to September 1, 1902.

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of said William Pierce, Cecil Dawson, Green W. Jackson, Liddie Graham and Margaret Graham be, and the same are hereby dismissed.

ADDRESS ONLY THE
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February, 1st 1902

Richard V. Dawson,

Talala, Indian Territory,

Sir:-

You are hereby notified that the application of yourself and daughter

for enrollment as citizen of the Cherokee Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 17th day of March, 1902.

On said date, you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission, in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting your application.

You are further notified that the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony tending to disprove your right to enrollment, but said Representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to introduce such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

Cherokee D-617.

The Honorable,
The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to office report of even date transmitting Group I of the consolidated case of Francis M. Dawson, et al., applicants for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, there is enclosed herewith the record relative to the applicants parties to Group VIII,---

D-435, Group VIII, page 1.

Martin L. Patterson applies for the enrollment of himself as an intermarried citizen, and for the enrollment of his wife, Anna, and their minor children, Sarah A., Martha A., Glenda A., Edgar B., Thomas M. and Virgil V. Patterson, as citizens by blood. Virgil V. was born subsequent to the date of his original application and is identified by birth affidavit.

D-436, Group VIII, page 11.

William S. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Alice Dawson, as an intermarried citizens

R.[illegible], Group VIII, page 12.

Albert E. Dawson applied for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ralph E. Dawson, as citizens by blood. The child was born subsequent to the date of his original application, and is identified by birth affidavit.

R.[illegible], Group VIII, page 12.

Sarah J. Dawson applies for the enrollment of herself as an intermarried citizen.

R.[illegible], Group VIII, page 12.

Richard W. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ima E. Dawson, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Luella Dawson, as a citizen by intermarriage. The Commission states that Luella Dawson is differently classed and is not enrolled in its decision.

R.[illegible], Group VIII, page 12.

Ella L. Spickerman applied for the enrollment of herself and her minor child, Helen J. Spickerman, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband, John J. Spickerman, as a citizen by intermarriage. She also applies for the enrollment as a citizen by blood of her child, William S. Spickerman, who was born after her original application. This child is identified by a birth affidavit. The Commission states that John J. Spickerman has been differently classed and is not enrolled in its decision.

R.[illegible], Group VIII, page 12.

Francis M. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood.

The record in this case shows that Martin L. Patterson, (Group VIII, page 1), was married July 13, 1880, to Zona Patterson nee Dawson, daughter of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted by the Tahlo Court, January 11, 1883. The marriage was performed in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. Zona Patterson nee Dawson was a minor when her father was admitted. Zona Patterson's name appears on the 1896 census roll, as does the names of Martin L. Patterson, Sarah A., Martha and Claude (A.) Patterson. Edgar B., Thomas M. and Virgil V. Patterson are identified by birth affidavits.

William C. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 11), is a son of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was a minor when his father was admitted. He was married to Alice Dawson, November 16, 1884. He is identified by the 1894 and 1896 rolls of the Cherokee Nation. From the record it does not seem that the name of his wife is found on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation.

Robert L. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 18), is a son of Hibert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was a minor when his father was admitted.

Hibert B. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 16), is the son of Hibert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was a minor when his father was admitted. February 14, 1894, he was married to Cora Wright, a non-citizen. His name appears on the 1894 roll, but is not on the 1896 roll.

Sarah J. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 19), is the widow of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1883. The applicant's husband is identified by the 1894 pay-roll of the Cherokee Nation. It does not appear from the record that her name is on any roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Richard W. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 34), is the son of Hibert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was a minor when his father was admitted to citizenship. He was married to Luella Mason, a white woman, January 24, 1900.

Nila L. Spickerman, (Group VIII, page 37), is the daughter of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted in 1883. She was a minor when her father was admitted to citizenship. Sept. 7, 1897, she was married to John J. Spickerman, a white man. She is identified by the 1896 roll.

Francis M. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 41), is a son of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was of age when his father was admitted, and it does not appear that he was admitted to citizenship. From the evidence it does not seem that Francis M. Dawson's name is found on any roll of the Cherokee Nation. He claims to have lived in the Cherokee Nation since 1881. It appears that he and the members of his family were refused enrollment by the Cherokee tribal authorities in 1896.

It is known that Rena Patterson, William S. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson, have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884. Robert L. Dawson, Hibert B. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson and Nila L. Spickerman, have resided there since 1881. Alice Dawson has resided in the Nation since 1886 and Martin L. Patterson since 1894.

The Commission in its decision of December 21, 1902, held that all of the parties in this group, except Luella Dawson and J. J. Spickerman, who are differently classed, and Francis M. Dawson (Group VIII, page 41), were entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation--Martin L. Patterson, Alice Dawson and Sarah J. Dawson, as citizens by intermarriage and the others as citizens by blood.

[illegible]

For the reasons set forth in office report of even date, transmitting Group I of this consolidated case, the approval of the Commission's decision is recommended, except in so far as it relates to Martin L. Patterson, Alice Dawson and Sarah J. Dawson, who apply for enrollment as intermarried citizens. The question submitted to the Court of Claims not having been passed upon by the Court, their applications should not be considered at this time. The right of Francis M. Dawson to enrollment as a citizen by blood will be discussed herein.

August 31, 1905, Perry S. Kimball and W. H. White, attorneys for this city, filed a brief on behalf of applicant Francis M. Dawson, for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee nation. In their letter it is said that a copy of this brief has been forwarded to the attorney for the Cherokee Nation, W. W. Hastings, Esq. Kimball & White in their brief state that Francis M. Dawson is the son of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, January 11, 1883, and that he was at that time about 22 years of age. They claim that his father applied for readmission February 24, 1880, and that Francis M. Dawson was at the date of this application less than 21 years of age that he has resided in the Cherokee Nation from the time of his father's admission, and they take the position that the only reason the Commission gives for refusing his enrollment is that he was more than 21 years of age at the time of his father's admission. The statement is made by them "his name appears upon every roll since his father's admission. He drew his share of the Strip money and has resided nowhere except in said Nation." They claim that under Section 8, of the Amendments to Article 3, of the Constitution, and the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General in the James V. Shirley case of June 11, 1903, Francis M. Dawson is entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

From the record it does not appear that the name of Francis M. Dawson is found on any rolls of the Cherokee Nation. The Commission, in what is understood to be its field decision or field note, says: "He is not identified on any roll since that time," meaning the date of his father's admission. In this decision or note it is also said: "The application for admission is shown by the document cited to be dated January 4, 1841, and giving the applicant the benefit of the opinion that the date of admission would date from the application, he was a minor at that time.

In the brief of Kimball & White it is alleged that Hibert Dawson applied "for admission February 24, 1840." There seems to be considerable doubt as to the exact date Hibert Dawson made application for admission for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, but from the records it appears the true date is September 24, 1841. By the supplemental testimony it is shown that the application of Hibert Dawson et al., for admission to citizenship was "filed September 24, 1841."

Francis M. Dawson, October 17, 1900, (Group VIII, page 21), testified among other things that he was 58 years of age "on the last day of December last," meaning December 31, 1899. If this be true, and if the correct date of the application of his father, Hibert Dawson, is September 24, 1841, Francis M. Dawson was 20 years 3 months and 24 days old at the date of his father's application. The office believes that the date of admission should be held to relate back to the date of the application. There is nothing in the record which shows that Hibert Dawson, or any of the other applicants of 1841, were asked in 1843 whether any of their children had arrived at the age of majority.

In view of the foregoing, it is respectfully recommended that the decision of the Commission be to Promote M. Bonsai be not approved, and that the Commission be directed to enroll him as a citizen of the Cherokee nation by blood, unless there be some reason which does not appear in the record why the same should not be done. There seems to be no question but that he is of Cherokee blood.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,
Commissioner.

March 31, 1934.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

February 15, 1934, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application of Francis M. Dawson et al., for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

In your decision of December 11, 1933, you disposed of the applications in the Dawson case by groups. Group VIII, as disposed of by you, includes the applications of those persons who claim enrollment by virtue of their descent from Hibert Dawson, who was admitted to Cherokee citizenship by decree of the Tahee Court dated January 11, 1855. These applications are designated by you as D.433, D.434, D.435, D.436, D.439, D.617, D.438, and D.437.

It appears that the principal applicants in this group, claiming enrollment by blood, viz: Rena Patterson, formerly Dawson, William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Hibert R. Dawson, Richard W. Dawson, Ella L. Spielsman, formerly Dawson, and Francis M. Dawson, are the children of the said Hibert Dawson. All of them except the said Francis M. Dawson were minors at the time of their father's admission to citizenship.

The application of Martha L. Patterson, D.433, was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife, Rena Patterson, and his six minor children, Sarah A., Martha A., Claude A., Edgar P., Thomas M., and Virgil V. Patterson, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The said Martin L. Patterson was married July 12, 1930, in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, to the said Rena Patterson, nee Dawson. He has resided in the nation since his marriage, and the six children named above are the issue of said marriage. His name, and the names of his three elder children, are on the Cherokee census roll of 1896. The three younger children are identified by birth affidavits. Zona Patterson, nee Dawson, is also identified on said roll, and he resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1894.

POOR ORIGINAL -

William C. Dawson, D.604, applied for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Alice Dawson, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. He is identified upon the strip payment roll of 1894, and has resided in the nation since 1894. He was married November 16, 1898, to the said Alice Dawson, nee Alexander. She has resided with him since their marriage.

The application of Robert L. Dawson, D.605, was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. He is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894, and has resided in the nation since 1881.

The application of Hibert E. Dawson, D.606, was for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ralph E. Dawson, as Cherokees by blood. Said Hibert E. Dawson is identified upon the strip payment roll of 1894. His son is identified by a birth affidavit. The father has resided in the nation since 1888. On February 16, 1896, he married Sara Wright, a non-citizen, who is the mother of said child. It appears, however, that no application was made for her enrollment under this title.

The application of Sarah J. Dawson, D.609, was for the enrollment of herself as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation. In 1884 she married the said Hibert Dawson, and lived with him as his wife until his death in February, 1898. Since then she has not married. She has resided in the nation since 1884.

The application of Richard W. Dawson, D.617, was for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ina E. Dawson, as citizens by blood and for the enrollment of his wife, Lucile Dawson, as a citizen of said nation by intermarriage. The latter is differently classified and is not embraced in this decision. Said Richard W. Dawson is identified upon the 1896 strip payment roll, and has resided in the nation since 1884. January 24, 1898, he married Lucile Mason. Ina E. Dawson, who is identified by a birth affidavit, is the issue of that marriage.

The application of Mila L. Spickerman, D.624, was for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Helen J. and William G. Spickerman, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband John J. Spickerman, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. His application is differently classified and will not be considered herein. The said Mila L. Spickerman, nee Dawson, is identified on the strip payment roll of 1896, and has resided in the nation since 1884. Said children are identified by birth affidavits.

The application of Francis M. Dawson, D.627, was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. His case is distinguished from that of the other principal applicants who claim by blood, in that he was not a minor at the date of his father's admission to citizenship. It appears, however, that the petition for the enrollment of his father, Elbert Dawson et al., was filed when he was a minor. The exact date when said petition was filed is uncertain. The Indian Office finds that the date of the petition was September 24, 1881. You find that the petition bears a still earlier date. It is claimed by this applicant and by his attorneys that his name is borne upon various tribal rolls. It does not appear from the record, however, that such is the fact. He states that he has resided in the nation ever since 1884, and that he drew strip money for himself

In his report of October 14, 1905, relative to this group, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs calls attention to that portion of the evidence which shows that the applicant was a minor when the petition for the enrollment of his father was filed, and expresses the opinion that the admission of his father (construed as including his minor children living with him) should be considered as having effect from the date the petition was filed.

In your decision of December 26, 1906, in which you refused to enroll this applicant, you make no reference to this aspect of the case. It is observed, however, from the field notes as they appear in connection with the record in this case, that the examiner was then of the opinion that the date of the father's petition might possibly affect the rights of the applicant.

The attorney for this applicant and for the Nation have filed briefs. The attorneys for neither, however, have discussed the rights of the applicant from this standpoint.

It is considered that both parties should be furnished with a copy of the Commissioner's letter relating to this group, and be allowed to be heard in reference to the matter.

From a letter addressed to the Assistant Attorney General for this Department, from Mitchell & White, attorneys for Francis M. Benson, Jr., dated February 13, 1904, it appears that under date of January 13, 1904, you wrote said attorneys as follows:

> "You are advised that the 1894 pay roll does not contain the name of such a person as Francis M.Thompson. There does appear upon that roll, however, the name of one Marion Benson, and it is possible this is the same person."

Although not addressed to the Department, it was considered that your letter should be received as authentic evidence of the matters stated therein. It is believed, in view of the statement contained in said letter and from the testimony of Jeremiah Morgan Morgan, referred to above, that a consideration of his case upon the record as it now stands would be unfair and inadvisable.

In your decision of December 26, 1906, you held that all of the applicants are entitled to enrollment except Francis M. Dawson. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs concurred in your conclusion in regarding these applicants entitled thereto, except as to Dawson, and also recommended his enrollment. As to these applicants claiming by intermarriage the Commissioner recommended that no action be taken at present.

The Department concurs in the recommendation of the Commissioner as to all of the applicants, except Francis M. Dawson. The record in his case is herewith returned for further investigation in accordance with the suggestions herein contained.

The attorney for the Cherokee Nation protests against the enrollment of these applicants, claiming that their enrollment was obtained through fraud. In this connection see opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of February 15, 1904, relating to the Dawson case, a copy of which was sent you February 24, 1904.

A copy of Indian Office letter of October 16, 1903, relating to this group, is also inclosed.

Respectfully,

(signed) Thos Ryan

Acting Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, I.T., October 17,1900.

In the matter of the application of Ella L. Spickerman for the enrollment of herself and child as Cherokees by blood and her husband as a Cherokee by intermarriage; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, she testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Ella L. Spickerman.
Q How old are you? A 25.
Q What is your post office? A Talala.
Q Do you live in Cooweescoowee District? A Yes, sir.
Q.Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Myself and baby.
Q Have you got a husband? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you want him enrolled? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you want to apply for him? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What is your husband? A He is a white man.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A 15 years.
Q Were you admitted by the Cherokee Commission? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your father? A Elbert Dawson.
Q He is dead, is he? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Sarah Jane Dawson.
Q She is alive, isn't she? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married? A September 7,1897.
Q Were you ever married before? A No,sir.
Q Was your husband ever married before? A No, sir.
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation, you say, for the last fifteen years? A Yes, sir.
(The applicant presents a duly authenticated certificate of admission to Cherokee citizenship showing that on the 11th day of January, 1883, Elbert Dawson was admitted to citizenship.)
Q That was the name of your father? A Yes, sir.
Q And you claim admission through him? A Yes, sir.
Q You were a minor at the time he was admitted? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your husband? A. John J. Spickerman.
Q.How old is he? A 27.
Q Have you his marriage license and certificate? A Yes, sir.
(The applicant presents a license issued by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee district September 7,1896, authorizing marriage between herself and her husband as stated by her, and the certificate shows that the ceremony was performed on the same date by the Clerk of the district. This is filed herewith)
Q Your husband has lived with you ever since he married you and in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your child? A Hellen Julia, 15 months old.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, her husband and one child. She shows by the certificate of admission cited in the testimony and returned to her that her father was admitted to citizenship in 1883. She states that she has lived in the Cherokee Nation for the past fifteen years, her change of name is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith, she is not identified on the roll of 1896, and it has been developed in the case of other applications by the members of this family that the Cherokee representatives refused them enrollment at that time owing to objections arising to the character of their admission. She will be listed now as a Cherokee by blood on a doubtful card for further consideration. When she supplies a certificate of the birth of her child, this child will also be listed for enrollment on a doubtful card for further consideration.

Her husband is shown to have married her in accordance with Cherokee law in 1896, neither of them was ever married before. His marriage is too late to entitle him to enrollment at this time under the Cherokee law, and the application for his enrollment will be rejected.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I. T., SEPTEMBER 17th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Francis Marion Dawson, wife and children for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q What is your full name? A Francis Marion Dawson.
Q What is your age? A I am fifty eight years old.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Oocoma.
Q What District do you live in? A Delaware.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Myself and family.
Q Your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q How many children? A Six.
Q Do you apply for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir: she is a white woman.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Since 1883.
Q Were you admitted by the Cherokee Commission? A Yes, sir.

The applicant presents a duly authenticated certificate of admission to citizenship, showing that on the 11th day of January, 1883, certain persons were admitted by the Commission on citizenship, and among them appears the name of F. M. Dawson.

Q That is your name is it? A Yes, sir.

This is recognized as satisfactory evidence of the facts stated.

Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since your admission?
A Yes, sir; in Delaware District ever since.
Q Give me the name of your wife? A Katie Dawson.
Q How old is she now? A Forty five.
Q Was she admitted with you? A No, sir.
Q Have you married her according to Cherokee law since your admission? A No, sir.
Q You have not remarried since your admission? A No, sir; it was not necessary.

The applicant presents a duly authenticated marriage license and certificate, showing that he was married to his wife, as stated by him, in 1880, by the Reverend H. F. Goudelock, in Carrol County, Arkansas, the license being issued by the Clerk of that County.

These papers are filed herewith.

Q Your wife was not admitted by the Cherokee Commission, when you were? A No, sir.
Q Or at any other time? A No, sir.
Q By act of the Commission or Council? A No, sir: she was placed on the rolls.
Q On the census rolls? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the names of your children, please? A Lula.
Q How old? A Seventeen.
Q Next child? A Roy.
Q How old? A Fifteen.
Q Next child? A Jessie Jane.
Q How old? A Fourteen.
Q Next child? A Jacob Levy.
How old? A Ten.
Q Next child? A Hugh A.
Q How old? A He is eight I believe.

Q Next child? A Laura.
Q How old is that child? A She is four years old.
Q Is that all? A Yes, sir: six of them. I have others, but they are not at home.
Q Are they married? A No, sir.
Q Are they over age? A Yes, sir.

(1896 Roll, Page 461, #908, Laura Albertie Dawson, " "

Q Is this Lula or Luly? A Luly.
The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, wife and six children:
Q Were these children all born since you were admitted into the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

The applicant is shown by the certificate of admission, cited in the testimony, to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship, by the Commission on Citizenship, January 11th, 1883; he is identified on the roll of 1896, but the representative of the Cherokee Nation desires to make inquiry into the methods of that time, and for that reason, the application of the applicant will at present be placed on a "Doubtful Card." He has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since his admission to citizenship. His wife was married to him under United States law, and was married prior to his admission: she has never been remarried according to Cherokee law: She has lived with him ever since his admission to citizenship, and she is identified on the roll of 1896. The application for her enrollment will be placed on a "Doubtful Card".

Their six children, as enumerated in the testimony are identified on the roll of 1896: They are living at this time, all having been born since his admission (Applicant's) . These children will be placed with him on a "Doubtful Card". The applicant's marriageto the mother of these children is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith. If any additional papers, adverse are developed in this case, he will be given timely notice thereof.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

BEFORE THE HONORABLE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the enrollment of F. M. Dawson and others as Cherokee citizens.

Depositions of sundry persons in behalf of the applicants for enrollment mentioned in the title, taken before me, Lewis T. Martin, a Notary Public in and for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, duly appointed, qualified and acting as such, at the office of G. B. Denison in the Gray-Halsell building in the town of Vinita, Indian Territory, on Thursday the fourth day of October 1900, between the hours of one and a half o'clock and six o'clock in the afternoon of said day, in accordance with the agreement to take testimony, entered into between the applicants and the Cherokee Nation, by their respective attorneys, which agreement is hereto attached.

F. F. Thompson, being produced by the applicants, being first duly sworn to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY G. B. DENISON:

Q State your name, age, residence and occupation?
A T. F. Thompson, 53 years old, I live near Vinita, Cherokee Nation, I. T. I am a farmer.
Q How long have resided in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation as now constituted?
A Yes, sir.
Q Upon what is that citizenship based, blood or otherwise?
A Blood.
Q What, if any official position have you held in the Cherokee Nation, and at what time?
A I was elected to the Cherokee Council in 1870 some odd, I don't remember the exact year, I was also on the Commission Court.
Q Do you remember when that was? A Some time in 1880 or 1881, I think, it may have been earlier.
Q Did that Commission or Court have anything to do with admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q State, if you remember, how many members of that Commission or Court, there were, and who they were besides yourself?
A There were three, Tehee, Wolf and myself, Tehee was President of the Court.
Q Where were the sessions of that body held? A Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation.
Q Had you have a Clerk? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember who that was? A D. W. C. Duncan.
Q Do you know whether the members of that Commission beside yourself, are living or dead? A Yes, sir, they are both dead.
Q Can you recollect now what period of time that Commission lasted?
A About two years I think, two, sessions, and there was one session each year.
Q Were the sessions of that body held in Tahlequah, open to the public at all times when it was in session?
A Yes, sir.
Q Were the cases coming before that body heard in open session?
A Yes.
Q Witnesses examined orally? A Yes, sir.

Q Judgments of the Court or Commission pronounced in open session?
A In case of decisions I think they both had secret sessions, yes, the judgments of the Commission were pronounced openly.
Q What you intended to convey by you answer to the former question was that after hearing the proof the Commission or Court deliberated in secret session upon the testimony taken before reaching a decision or announcing it? A After hearing all the testimony we went into secret session.
Q I will present you with a paper which the Notary will mark exhibit "A" and a copy of which he will attach to your deposition, and will ask you if with the exception of the certificate of record by M. L. Bragdon, Clerk, and John L. Adair Asst. Ex. Secretary, you recognize it as a paper you have ever seen before?
A I recognize the signature to it, but don't remember the instrument.
Q Which signature on that paper do you recognize? A My own.
Q That signature is in your own handwriting? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether Th mas Tehee, president of the Commission could write in English or not? A No, I don't think he could.
Q How as to Alexander Wolfe, a member of the Commission?
A I don't think he could write either, I don't think either of them ever wrote except by touching the pen.
Q Were you, and are you familiar with the handwriting of D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of that Commission?
A Tolerably well, but it has been a long time since I saw any of it.
Q Will you look at the paper again and say whether you recognize his signature attached thereto?
A Yes, that is his signature to the best of my knowledge.
Q Do you preserve any personal recollection of the application before that Commission of F. M. Dawson and other members of the Dawson family, to be admitted as citizens of te Cherokee Nation by that Commission?
A I remember F. M. Dawson and his brother, that is about the only ones I remember.
Q The question was not as to the personal recollection of the individuals, but as to the claim being presented by the Dawsons for admission?
A Yes, there was such a claim before the Commission.
Q Can you state as to the citizenship of Thomas Tehee, whether he was a citizen of the Nation by blood or not?
A Yes, sir, he was always recognized as such, full blood besides.
Q What is your knowledge of Alexander Wolfe?
A About the same, he was also a full blood and recognized as a Cherokee.
Q Judge Thompson, if you possessed or had, or have now any knowledge of any corruption or bribery of the court or commission, or any member f it by F. M. Dawson or any of the Dawson family or anybody connected with the presentation of their claim for citizenship, state it fully?
A None whatever as far as I was concerned, and I don't think there was by the balance of the Court.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY W. T. HUTCHINGS:

Q Do you mean to say Mr. Thompson that your name attached to the certificate shown you is in your handwriting?
A Yes, sir.
Q That Mr. Duncan certified that this is a transcript of the decision in [illegible], he is mistaken, that is the original?
A No, I don't know, that may be the original, if that is not the original I did not sign it, if it is the original I signed it.
Q You state that the witnesses were examined orally before the Court, don't you know that in almost every case you took ex parte affidavits of witnesses when these witnesses were not present?

A I think we ruled ex parte evidence out, as well as I remember.
Q Did you have any stenographer or anybody to copy the evidence?
A Mr. Duncan did all of the copying.
Q Was the evidence copied and preserved?
A Yes, sir, I think it was.
Q What was done with that evidence, where was any of it ever put?
A I suppose it is at Tahlequah in the office of the Treasurer or Secretary.
Q When you went into secret session did you have Mr. Duncan read the evidence to you?
A Yes, sir, we went over the evidence thoroughly.
Q Did you allow the applicants or their attorneys admission to any of your secret sessions?
A No.
Q When you got ready to render your decisions did you then send for the applicants or their attorneys?
A No, Sir.
Q And you rendered them in secret also, did you? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any recollection who testified in the Dawson case, as to their claim? A No, sir, I have not.
Q Have you any recollection as to who they claimed their Cherokee ancestors were? A Yes, sir, they claimed the Rogers.
Q Did they claim relationship with any of the present families of Rogers residing in the Cherokee Nation?

The applicant objects to this question as tending to elicit testimony wholly incompetent and irrelevant to the issue, and not cross-examination of this witness.

A I don't know that they did, particularly.
Q Has your court determine when they claimed descent through some Rogers family, that that family was of Cherokee blood?

The applicant objects to the question upon the same grounds as their objection to the previous question.

A By the evidence they produced.
Q Didn't you make them prove that that family was well known at one time to be connected with the Cherokee Nation, and were citizens thereof? A Yes.
Q Who was the attorney for the Dawsons? A Old man Houston Benge.
Q Could either Tehee or Wolfe speak English? A They could understand, but they never spoke English, they had an interpreter.
Q Did you ever talk to either of them as to whether they got anything for deciding this case? A No, sir.
Q How long were you considering the case altogether?
A I could not say as to that, I think we were on it two or three days anyway. I could not say positively now, they were a long time hearing the testimony.
Q There were only two or three witnesses examined all told, were there?
A Two or three I think, they had quite a lot of affidavits, I did not consider them.
Q The Court was a good while arriving at its conclusion after the case was closed?
A Yes, quite a good while, I don't remember the exact time.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION:

Q You were asked who the interpreter the Commission had during the hearing of the Dawson case.
A Thomas Rogers, I forget his given name.

Q Do you know whether he is living or dead?
A I don't know, he commenced to be ill last month at the time we had the case up, I think they sent all about him to me and Mr. Dawson.
Q What was he, a [illegible]?
A He was considered a Cherokee by blood.
Q Do you know where he lived at that time?
A No, sir, he lived in the South part of the Nation though, I think in Sequoyah.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY C. B. DENISON:

Q Please state your name, age, residence and occupation?
A My name is D. F. C. Duncan, my age is 70 years, my residence is Vinita, Indian Territory, my occupation is a farmer.
Q How long has that been your place of residence? A Since 1874.
Q Are you a member of the Cherokee Nation as it is now constituted?
A Yes, sir.
Q Upon what is your citizenship based, a Cherokee by blood?
A Yes, a Cherokee by blood.
Q In January 1883, did you hold any official position in the Cherokee Nation, if so, what was it?
A About that time I held the position of Clerk of the Citizenship Court or Commission.
Q If you remember the names of themembers of that Commission or Court, please give them?
A The President of the Commission was Tehee I believe, and a member by the name of Wolfe whose first name I don't recollect, and Mr. Thompson here.
Q T. F. Thompson?
A Yes.
Q Do you know whether these three members of that Commission were recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and whether their citizenship was based upon blood or not?
A They were supposed to be citizens of the Cherokee Nation and their citizenship was based upon their blood.
Q Will you please look at the paper now handed you which the Notary has marked exhibit "A" to the deposition of Mr. T. F. Thompson, and a copy of which he will attach to Mr. Thompson's depositions, and state whether with the exception of the certificate of M. L. Bragdon, Clerk, and of John L. Adair Asst. Ex. Secretary, you recognize the paper as one you have ever seen before?
A Yes, I think I have seen this before.
Q When, and where, if you remember, did you first see that paper?
A This is a paper I drew up at the time I was acting as Clerk of the said Citizenship Court.
Q Looking at its date, was it drawn at you at the time it bears date?
A To the best of my recollection it was drawn at the date specified.
Q Do you recognize the signature to the certificate attached to that paper?
A Yes, that is my signature.
Q State if you know, in whose handwriting the body of the paper is?
A It is in my handwriting.
Q And at that time you were Clerk of that Commission? A Yes.
Q Will you please look at the signatures of the members of the Commission as they appear on that paper, and state if you can, by whom they were written?
A I think the first two is my handwriting, the last I recognize that as T. F. Thompson's.
Q Explain please, how you came to write the signatures of Thomas Tehee and Alex Wolfe to that paper?
A Thomas Tehee and Alex Wolfe were full bloods and could not write, and in their presence, and at their request I wrote their signatures.

Q ...e that the usual manner of certifying to the action of the ...mission to applicants as to the decision of their application ...r citizenship, where admitted?
A ... all instances where it was necessary for the Court to sign ... paper of any kind it was adopted by that Court for the Clerk ... sign Tehee's and Wolf's names and T. P. Thompson to sign his ... name.
Q You didn't catch exactly my idea, but perhaps that answered it, ... I intended to call you attention to, was whether when ...plicants had been admitted to citizenship a paper of this kind ... shown you, signed by the judges as you have explained, and ...lled by you as a transcript of the proceedings was issued?
... My recollection is that a transcript of the judgment was issued ... the applicant when they were admitted at their request, the ... was entered upon the record when they were admitted and ... the judges, and whenever the transcript was delivered ... parts I think it was signed by the judges.
... you had any knowledge at the time the application of the Dawson ... M. and others whose names are mentioned in tht paper, ...ding before that Commission, or before or after, of any ...rruption or bribery, or attempted corruption or bribery of the ... or any of its officers, by F. M. Dawson, or any person connected ... manner with the clair of the Dawsons to citizenship in the ... nation, state it fully?
A I never heard a thing of the kind, I know nothing of the kind, ... that I have ever heard about a question of hat kind is what has ...ccurred recently, since the enrollment business has been ...vestigated.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY W. T. HUTCHINGS:

... as you certify, this paper was a transcript of the record, ... did you have the judges sign it?
A I know no reason further than that was the practice at that time, ... members of the Court being present I presume it was thought ... would be as good or better than the signature of the Clerk.
Q Examine that signature of Mr. Thompson, examine the first T in ... name and the T in Tehee's name and see if it is not all your ... handwriting?
A No, I would not call that mine, there is a resemblance between the letters but I am satisfied it is a mere fortuity, accidant.
Q How was the evidence taken in those cases?
A It was taken by the witness being present and detailing his knowledge of the case, I wrote it down sentence by sentence as it was delivered.

... you know whether that evidence is in existance or not?
A ... not, the last I saw of it was when I turned the records ... to the executive office at Tahlequah, and I have not seen it ...
Q You say you never heard any talk about this being an improper ... and very recently?
A ... that would depend upon what you mean by recently, I don't ... I ever heard of it prior to three years ago, I can safely say that did not.

Q Do you remember through what ancestor they claimed their right to citizenship here?

Objected to by applicants because the question tends to elicit testimony which is wholly incompetent and irrelevant, and because it is not proper cross-examination.

A They claimed their right of citizenship through a man by the name of Rogers, I don't recollect his first name.
Q Do you know how many Rogers families there are who have citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?
A I do.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., March 17, 1902.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of FRANCIS M. DAWSON, ET AL., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

The case having been set for final hearing March 17, 1902, the following proceedings are had:

APPEARANCES:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of counsel for applicants;
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Hutchings: Comes now the Nation on the calling of this case and announces that it is ready for trial, provided permission is given to hereafter examine before the Commission, either at this place or Fort Gibson, the witness S. H. Benge, who has been regularly summoned to attend at this day and time but who is too sick to travel at this time and probably will be for some time to come. As evidence of a good faith of the Nation we hereby present an affidavit of the facts sought to be proven by the said Benge. If the applicant's counsel are willing to concede that the witness if present would testify to the facts herein set forth, the Nation is ready to proceed to trial without reservation of any kind. If they are not it desires to reserve this privilege of hereafter, either tomorrow or otherwise, this case being set for to-day and tomorrow, of examining before the Commission, or its authorized officer, this witness as above set forth.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the introduction of the paper presented and do not admit that the witness, Samuel H. Benge if present would testify to the facts therein stated. They consent and desire that the testimony of said Benge be taken before the Commission at its office in Muskogee but not elsewhere, and protest against it being taken at any other place, with the understanding, however, that when taken we have opportunity to introduce any evidence we may desire in rebuttal.

Mr. Hutchings:
The Nation will pay all the expenses of the opposing Counsel, their client and Commission officers in taking the deposition at Fort Gibson.

Commissioner Brookinridge: The allegations of this witness are material in their character and are quite tangent. The Commission of its own volition would acquire information of that character if it knew of its existance anywhere. While the functions of the Commission, as well known are in many respects judicial, yet it is bodied with somewhat complex powers, such as Congress creates from time to time to do business of certain character, and it is ordered to make a correct roll, which is a duty largely independent of hearing simply what is brought before them; it must be the architect and constructor of that roll and if evidence is not brought before before the Commission it must go out and get it, to be uniform on that construction of the law. The Commission, therefore, desires this information independent of any counsel on either side both with respect to the applicant and to the Nation, and if this witness is is not able to come one of the Commissioners will go to Fort Gibson and to his bed-side, or make a proper official, if necessary to take his testimony. The only matter to consider, therefore, is one of convenience with respect to getting this testimony. Now, I understand that this witness is an extreme sufferer from Bright's Disease he is an old man and he may never be able to get out of the house, and it may be an injustice to him to subject him to a trip here, and therefore it seems to me better that counsel for plaintiff submit to a form of taking a deposition or else accompany an official of this Commission over to Fort Gibson and let his testimony be taken there.

After consultation with the attorneys upon the two sides it is found to be agreeable that the parties start to Fort Gibson tomorrow morning at half past eight o'clock, and it is agreed then and directed with an official of the Commission with a stenographer leave from the office of the Commission for Fort Gibson at 8:30 tomorrow morning.

FRANCIS M. DAWSON, the applicant, re-called for additional cross-examination on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q What is your name? A Francis M. Dawson.
Q Where do you reside? A In Afton.
Q You have been examined in this case heretofore, have you?
A I don't know which case it is.
Q In your own case? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you the one that is commonly called Bud Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q You made the original application in the Dawson family for admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, didn't you? No, sir; my brother.
Q What was his name? A A. F. Dawson.
Q You and Robert Dawson and Elbert Dawson and others applied September 24, '81, about that time? A Yes, sir.
Q And you were admitted about thelth of January '83? A Yes, sir.
Q There were other members of your family that applied and were admitted after that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you or not remember the evidence offered in theirs to substantiate their cases was the relationship between yourself and Robert and others and the evidence of your admission by the Tehlequah Court. In all the subsequent admissions I mean the only evidence offered was the fact that you and your brothers had been admitted before and that they were kin to you; that was the only evidence offered in any subsequent cases, wasn't it; so far as you saw?
A That is afterwards?
Q Yes, afterwards? A I think there was some other evidence introduced.
Q Don't you know that there was never any evidence offered in any other case except evidence of Dr. Baker of Arkansas? A Yes, sir.
Q Who else? A Oliver Miller.
Q Who was Oliver Miller; the people in this case have been somewhat confused and mutilated? A Oliver Miller lived in Arkansas.
Q What was he, who was he? A He is no kin to me at all.
Q Well, what station in life did he occupy; was he a farmer?
A Yes, sir, farmer.
Q Were you present when he testified? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you present when Dr. Baker testified? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you a fair recollection of the testimony of those two men?
A No, not at all.
Q You don't read do you, Mr. Dawson? A No, sir, I dont read nor write; I can barely write my name.
Q Do you think you would remember the testimony of Dr. Baker if your mind was refreshed on it? A Part of it I think.
Q Were you present when you were admitted? A I was not in the room.
Q You were in Tahlequah at the time? A I was in the town of Tahlequah at the time.
Q I will read this paer to you and desire for you ro say whether or not it was the testimony of Dr. Baker in your case:
(Affidavit of Dr. Arthur Baker read to witness, and asked to be copied in the record later.)
Q Is that the correct transcript of the testimony? A It has been so long ago, I could not say; a part of it is, I could not remember it all.
Q Does that state the facts as to the family history correctly so far as you know about it? A So far as I know.
Q Now, you were a son of what Dawson? A Robert Dawson.
Q How many children did Robert Dawson have, and give me their names?
A Elbert Dawson, the oldest; Lila, Jesper, Francis Marion-
Q That is yourself? A Yes, sir; Elizabeth Dawson, Josephine Dawson, John Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson, James Dawson, Edna Dawson, Mollie Dawson, Filburn Dawson.
Q Thirteen? (No response.)
Q Now, Rober Dawson's father was whom? A Sam Dawson.
Q Who was Sam Dawson's wife, your grandmother? A I have been told.
Q By family history is all you know? A She was called Polly Dawson.
Q Who was Anna Pruitt? A I don't know.
Q Never heard of anybody in the family by the name of Anna Pruitt? A No, sir; that was away back in the old country; I have heard talk about it, old Dr. Baker talked about it.
Q Your grand-mother's name was Polly Dawson? A Yes, sir; I don't remember seeing her but once, she died when I was small, died in Texas.
Q Pollie Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q And she was known to be Pollie Rogers, her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q Daughter of Captain John Rogers? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, she died in Texas what time? A I don't remember.
Q Can't you guess at it? A Oh, I could guess.
Q Give your best recollection? A About '58 or '59, or no, '46 or '49; I don't say positive, just guessing at it.
Q How old a boy were you then? A I was born in '42.
Q Have you any distinct recollection of her? A No, sir.
Q Have you any recollection of all the children of Sam and Pollie Dawson; that is, your father, uncles and Aunts? I didn't see all of them.
Q Do you know by family history the names of all of them? A Yes, sir.
Q Will you give them to me?
A Betsy Ann Dawson, I believe her name was.
Q Did she marry a Petty? A Yes, sir; the next is Robert Dawson.
Q Your father? A Yes, sir.
Q Next one? A I think the next was James Dawson, and I think the next one was a girl, Edna Dawson.
Q Did he have two daughters? A Yes, sir.
Q Well sir? A The next one was Joe Dawson: I never saw him; Riley Dawson.

Q That is Samuel P. Dawson, Riley Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Any other one? A That is all I know anything about.
Q Did he have any child by the name of John? A Yes, Jack.
Q Didn't you get Jack misplaced with Joe? A No, it was Joe; I have heard my father speak of him.
Q Then they have seven children? A I never saw them all.
Q How many of them did you ever see? A I seed uncle Riley Dawson and James Dawson and Jack Dawson and Betsy Ann Petsy; I don't think I saw but one of Pa's sisters and brother, they went to Mississippi I think.
Q Do you know what your family history says that the mother of your grandmother, Pollie Rogers' name was? A We have no history.
Q Well, as it was brought down to you; did you ever hear anybody say what your great grandmother's name was? A No, I don't remember.
Q What is that other man, Oliver Hillerthat testified in your case? A He testified in James Dawson's case; he never testified in my father's case.
Q Well, didn't anybody testify in your case but Dr. Baker?
A Yes, sir, several other witnesses.
Q Who were they? A I don't remember; my mother got them witnesses around Tahlequah, old people.
Q Were you present? A No, sir.
Q You were only present when Dr. Baker testified? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, do you find any mistakes in Dr. Baker's statement there? A I could not say all of them was correct or not, part of it is correct.
Q What part is correct? A My about knowing the family over there.
Q Who is Buck Dawson? A My brother.
Q What is his name? A We always called him Buck, it is Elbert, E. Dawson.
Q Who went with you the first time you went up to make application for citizenship do you remember? A With my brother.
Q The first time? A I met my brother in Texas.
Q Which one? A E. Dawson.
Q That is Elbert or Buck? A Yes, sir.
Q You were living in Arkansas? A Yes, sir.
Q And he was living in Texas? A Yes, sir, and another one of little brothers, Dr. Dawson now:
Q Dr. Dawson now? A Yes, sir.
Q What is his name? A James.
Q And you three went there? A Yes, sir.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants by their counsel object to all the statement of this witness relating to the testimony introduced before the Cherokee Citizenship Commission, and the history of the family as detailed by him, because the same is incompetent and irrelevant, and cannot be used for the purpose of impeaching the integrity of the judgment of said Commission, or either of the Commissioners in admitting members of the Dawson family.

Commission: The objection of the Attorney for the applicants to the testimony above will be noted. The same will be filed and noted for what it is worth.

(Attorney for applicants waives examination.)

C. H. TAYLOR, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. McKENNON:

Q State your name? A C. H. Taylor.
Q Where do you reside, Mr. Taylor? A Near Coffeyville.
Q Were you an attorney before various citizenship Courts along in '21 to '8' in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you attorney for F. M. Dawson commonly known as Bud Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you present at the taking of testimony in that case? A No, sir; I wasn't present.
Q Do you know who composed the court that decided the case at that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Who were they? A Tom Tehee and Alex Wolfe and Tommy Thompson.
Q Do you know whether or not they were all there when the case was decided? A No, sir, there were only two of them present.
Q Which two? A Tehee and Wolfe.
Q Who was the Clerk of the Court at that time? A Mr. Duncan, D. W. C. Duncan.
Q Do you know what witnesses were used in the case of Bud Dawson? A No, sir; now I was the attorney in the case and the evidence had already been filed before the Court.
Q When were you made attorney? A I was only called in as an attorney at the— Well, Mr. Duncan came down there, and Mr. Bryant had the case and several other attorneys had the case and he employed me.
Q Did you read the evidence in this case? A No, sir.
Q Did you deliver any money? A Now, I was the attorney in the case and I don't think it would be right for me to make any statement.
Q Now, you have claimed your privilege, I ask that you answer the question? Did Dawson ever send you any money with the direction to pay it to either member of the Court or the Clerk of the Court, D. W. C. Duncan, and if so state the amount? A I had a heap of trouble over this matter.-

Commission: Just answer the question, Mr. Taylor.

A Again, the attorney I don't believe it is right for me to answer that question.

Commission: Do you refuse to answer? A Yes, sir.

Q Did the matter to which you object to testifying occur prior to the rendition of the decision admitting to citizenship or afterwards? (No response)

COMMISSIONER BRECKINRIDGE:

Q Do you decline to reply to the last question? A I don't think it is right; I was attorney in the case.
Q Mr. Taylor, do you object to answering that question? A Yes, sir.
Q You refuse to answer that question, do you? A I had rather not answer it.

Q Either answer it or say you won't answer it? A I had rather not answer it.
Q Mr. Taylor, you have answered a number of questions down to this point, but it is at this point that you prefer to plead your privileges, as an attorney, do you? A Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The power in regard to these matters is lodged in the United States. The Court is clothed with special power with reference to matters with arise through this Commission. Of course the Commission desires and the Government needs for the making of a correct roll the fullest information possible, but it is subject to the limitation of law, and it is not for this Commission to decide of the law in a matter of this character with any authority as I understand it at this time, but to report the matter to the United States Court and let the Court pass judgment.

Under Section 21 of the Curtis law as it is commonly called Act of June 28, 1898, the Members of the Commission shall in performing all duties required of them by law, have authority to administer oaths, examine witnesses and send for papers and persons, and the court is clothed with authority to enforce obedience. The law having enumerated certain powers goes on to say so far as all others are concerned to enable said Commission to make rolls as herein required, and to punish anyone who may in any manner or by any means obstruct said work. Now, the Commission will report the facts to the United States Court and let the Court decide whether or not you are with in your lawful privilege. It seems that you refuse to answer questions, or at least one question, which tends to establish as to whether or not you are claiming what what is commonly considered a matter of privilege--according to an authority referred to by an attorney, but the enforcement of an answer seems clearly to be a matter for the Court to deal with.

Q Now, Mr. Taylor, in regard to the last question asked you by Mr. Hutchings, one of the Counsel for the Cherokee Nation, I direct that you make answer, and if you refuse I shall report the matter to the United States Court: do you refuse? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, you have read to you, Mr. Taylor, the first of the two questions propounded to you by Mr. Hutchings, and which you declined at the time to make answer; viz; as to whether Mr. Dawson sent you money to pay to the Court or to any officials of the Court, it seems to come to the question as to whether there was any collusion between you and Mr. Dawson and any member of the Court; now, I understand that you refuse to answer that question upon the grounds that you were Mr. Dawson's attorney? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, I require that you answer that question, do you refuse? A Yes, sir.
Q I shall also report that refusal to the United States Court as it seems to come under the provision of law, relating to conspiracy between you and Mr. Dawson which apparently considered a privilege matter, and you base your refusal now, not upon the ground that you are incriminating yourself, but that you were counsel for Mr. Dawson. I will report the matter to the Court and you will be informed at the time of any proceedings in the matter I caution you not to talk with Mr. Dawson or may of the applicants in this case.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants do not object and have not objected to the witness answering on account of his privilege as an attorney or for any other cause whatever, they only want to object to the incompetence and irrelevancy of the testimony, with the privilege of cross-examining upon any testimony given by the witness.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE:
Q You still refuse having the consent of the attorneys in the case to make answer? A I will just ask your Honor to let the matter go over until morning.

Commissioner Breckinridge: It will rest until in the morning at its present status; it is after business hours now.

As for the objection made by Captain McKennon, Counsel for the applicant, it will be taken into consideration, but will not be granted at the present.
(The Commission adjourns until 1:30 P. M. to-morrow afternoon, March 13, 1902.)

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of FRANCIS M. DAWSON ET AL., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of Counsel for applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

SAMUEL H. BENGE, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Samuel H. Benge.
Q Where do you reside? A Fort Gibson.
Q How old are you? A I am 70 years old, going in 71.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; Cherokee by blood.
Q State what official position you have held in the Cherokee Nation and what your general connection with the Nation officially in the last 40 years? A Well, I had several; I have been Sheriff, Councilman, Senator, Delegate to Washington; had a hand in making the treaty of 1866, I am the only one living that signed that treaty; President of the National Council of different tribes of Indians.
Q Were you acquainted with F. M. Dawson, commonly called Bud Dawson? A Yes, sir; I knew him.
Q State you connection with and what you know about his citizenship case before what is known as the Thomas Tehee Citizenship Court? A Mr. Dawson come down, I was living down below here, he come and employed me to tend to his case and we went to Tahlequah, I believe if I ain't mistaken in 1881 and filed his case there; we went several times and continued his case on for the want of evidence, and finally while we was up there we run across one old darkey by the name of Tosh Rogers; we got his testimony and after we got that testimony we concluded that it was sufficient to go into the trial with. Tosh lived here at Fort Gibson, he was a horse trainer down here and stayed here; he claimed that he knew the Rogers and belonged to one of them and after that we thought we had sufficient evidence we submitted our case to the Court for trial, and the Court went to work and rendered a decision against Mr. Dawson. I told Mr. Dawson right there that "our cake is dough", just made that remark, and he just made the remark "never mind", and next morning they taken up his case again and they rendered a decision in his favor. I filed no motion nor any evidence at all whatever; I give the case up right there and the decision was then given in his favor, and on our way back from Tahlequah, why we got to talking about the case and I told him: "it was a pretty hard blow when they rendered that decision against us." He said: "yes, but Duncan was the man to reach", but he reached him with five hundred dollars.
Q What position did Duncan occupy? A He was Clerk of the Court.
Q Duncan an educated man or—? Yes, sir; he was an educated man.
Q Who were the members of the Court? A Tom Tehee, Alex Wolfe and Tom Thompson.
Q How many of these could speak English at all? A One.
Q Which one? A Thompson.
Q Who was the Attorney that represented the Nation in those cases?
A Wm Sanders.

Q What was his given name? A Wilson Sanders; was it Wilson Sanders?
A Wilson Sanders.
Q Was he an educated man, or could speak English well? A No, sir.
Q Did Mr Dawson say anything about the matters having cost him a good deal of money? A He said it had cost him a right smart.
Q Was any remark made on the way back about the opening up of the case, and if so, what? A He asked me if I thought the case was ever investigated eventially and I told him I didn't know.

MR McKENNON:

Q Were you ever a witness in the Dawson case, Judge, in any of those investigations that have been made since that time? A I don't know that you might call it a witness; that young man come to me once at Tahlequah, and asked me to help him up there that the case was going against him, him and his mother and all was about knocked out and I interceded and done what I could there befo e the Committee. I was not a witness but that is at I don't for him.
Q That was Mr. Graham, wasn't it? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you had conversations with Mr. Grahar since that time about it? A Now, I might, I don't recollect, I might have had conversations with him.
Q Well, after the Dawes Commission began taking a census of the Cherokees and when they we about Sallisaw down here, did you have a conversation with him here in Fort Gibson about the matter?
A Now, I just can't tell you; I have seen him on several occasions, but the conversations we might have had I can't state.
Q To refresh your memory I will ask you if he did not tell you that they were making a fight on the Dawson farily and he wanted to know of you whether that judgment in favor of Robert Dawson's family was fairly rendered, and did you not then tell him that it was all right, that it was fairly obtained? A Not as I recollect of; all he said; that is as I have stated he talked to me in regard to his mother, himself and probably his brothers and sisters, I don't recollect how many there were, but he told me they were rejected, that is just the words he used.
Q When? A It has been sometime ago.
Q Was it in Fort Gibson? A Well, that is I saw him here in Fort Gibson. Sometimes I saw him in Tahlequah.
Q Well, did he here in Fort Gibson ask you particularly about the Robert Dawson judgment, as to whether it was fairly obtained or not?
A He said; he was basing his claim on the Dawson case, that is the way.
Q That is the principal Dawson family? A Yes.
Q When was this other written statement here made, when was this made by you? (referring to affidavit heretofore referred to.)
A Yesterday I reckon.
Q Who came to take this? A Mr. Starr.
Q Who else was present when this was taken? A No, sir.
Q Who had you told about this matter, Judge? A No one as I know of.
Q Do you know how it was that they knew that you knew this?
A No, sir.
Q You never made any statement? A Never made any statement that I recollect of except I might have talked with Scales, he and him talked about these cases a good many times; if I ever made a statement it was to Joe Ab Scales.
Q How did Mr. Starr know? A I could not tell you how Mr. Starr knew.

Q He came alone here as a Notary Public? A He came alone here as a Notary Public. All he said when he come, he says "we understand that you know something in regard to these cases", I said " what case," and he went to work and named Shoemake case and Dawson case.
Q And thereupon you made this tatement? A He said he wanted to qualify me.
Q Are you certain Judge that after the rendition of tat judgment Mr. Dawson came back here to Fort Gibson with you?
A Yes, sir; we was together.
Q Let me ask you if it was not a very cold day when he came here and he went over ahead of you and you went over to Tahlequah the next day or two after he left? A My recollection was he and I went together.
Q And returned here together? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he not leave you there and go back direct to Arkansas?
A No, sir, we came here together. If my memory serves me right, I might be mistaken but then I don't believe I am, he came from Webbers Falls up here to my house, that is according to his statement.
Q What amount of fee did they pay you? A I don't know as that is in connection with the case whatever the money they paid me.
Q How didthey pay you? A Paid me the money.
Q Who paid it to you? A Dawson there and that fellow, young fellow paid me some.
Q Mr. Grahan? A Yes.
Q At the same time? A Oh, no, he wanted me to intercede for him at Tahlequah and paid me to do something for him which I did.
Q I will ask you if Mr. F. M. Dawson here did not obtain two copies of the judgment one of which you sent in a letter in which you wrote to his brother living in Texas and that brother in Texas, the one they called Buck, didn't send you $50 that they paid you? A No, if I ever got a letter of Buck whatever you might call him, I don't recollect it and if I ever got a nickel from him I don't recollect it. Old man paid me what money I got from it. I don't know nothing about his brothers; he told me he had an uncle living over in Arkansas, but not living down in Texas, I don't know about it.
Q Where did he pay you the money? A Paid it here at home.
Q Before you went out? A He paid me fifty dollars before we went up and when we went up yonder he paid me fifty dollars more; if you want to know what I got, I got one hundredn dollars.
Q You were acting as his attorney in the case? A Yes, sir.
Q How many judges were there present when the judgment was rendered? In his case?
Q Yes, sir. A Well, according to my recollect there was all there, but if they were not all there, Tom Thompson was sick. Tehee and Wolfe.
Q Don't you remember that they were all present? A No, I think they were present though.
Q Who else was present at the time? A Oh, I could not tell you, there were several people in the house; could not tell you at all.
Q Were there several in the house the evening before the judgment was rendered against them as you say? A Yes, there were several in the house.
Q And several in the house when the judgment was rendered the next day? A I don't know how many there was.
Q Do you remember the names of any of them? A Why not exactly, mostly full bloods.
Q How long didyou remain out at Tahlequah on that trip?
A I guess I was there about three days.

Q Tending to this case alone, or did you have other cases? A no, sir.
Q Do you know of your own knowledge that the judges received any money (this question asked at the instance of Mr. Graham present) A I don't know whether the judges received nay or not.

---oooOOOooo---

I, J. O. Rosson, do hereby certify upon my official oath as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that I correctly recorded the testimony had this day in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) J. O. Rosson.

March 18, 1902. Commission convened pursuant to adjournment.

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of counsel for applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

C. H. TAYLOR takes the stand and continues his testimony.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Mr. Taylor, you said you would consider the matter yesterday and let us know whether you would answer those questions today; have you decided what you would do about the matter? A Well, it is like this, of course I don't want to be held as in contempt of the Court.
Q You would be held in contempt and the other Court would make you answer? A That being he case of course I would make a statement.
Q Are you acquainted with D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of what is known as the Tehee Citizenship Commission Court? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you ever have any conversation with him about letting him know of the different character of cases that would come up before the Court that you knew of, whether they were good ones or bad ones? A No, the only thi g that ever come up in that respect; he asked me if whatever large cases that would come up befor the Court to let him know.
Q Did you have any talk with him about the Dawson case during the progress of its trial or before and ever introduced Mr. P. M. Dawson to him, or carry him to him? A I spoke to him when Mr. Dawson came to Tahlequah to see about his case, and he said that he would take the papers over to his room, the Dawson papers.
Q Did you see him again that night? A Yes, sir; after supper I went down to his room.
Q Did he ask you about the Dawsons or Dawson case? A He asked me where Dawson was.
Q Which Dawson are you referring to now, P. M. Dawson, known as Bud Dawson? A Bud Dawson.
Q Well, what didyou reply to him? A I told him that I thought he had gone to church.
Q Did you find Dawson after church? A Yes, sir, he told me to come and bring Dawson down and I did so; Dawson was in church.
Q You carried Dawson to him? A Yes, sir.

Q ... you remain during the conversation? A Only a minute.
Q What was said if anything while you were present? A Mr. Duncan ... Mr. Dawson and says "there is a hitch in your evidence."
Q ... and state what else he said? A He said "if that was straightened out it would be all right," and I turned and went away, I says, "gentlemen, I will go home."
Q Did you know of their having any other conversation or communication after that? A No, sir.
Q You left them there together yourself? A Yes, sir.
Q ... Mr. Dawson give you any directions the next morning about ... the case? A Yes, sir, he asked me to call it up the case.
Q ... next morning? A Yes, sir.
Q ... there any additional evidence offered? A No, sir; ... additional testimony offered.
Q ... next morning to call up the case? A Yes, sir.
Q ... and submitted the next morning? A Yes, sir.
Q ... the members of the Court were there present that ... ? A There were only two, two full-blood Indians.
Q ... speak english at all? A Tehee could talk a little, ...
Q ... have open sessions all the time or what is called ... sometimes? A Well, I don't remember about ... generally when the case was submitted to attorneys would ... parties would go out and they would determine the case.
Q ... did they go out to that sort of executive session the ... morning on the Dawson case? A Well, we went out when the ... was submitted.
Q ... was the decision rendered that morning in their favor?
A Yes, sir.
Q ... notified you of the decision of the Court? A Why, Mr. Dawson.
Q ... you remember whether he went out with you or was in there during the consideration of the case? A I think he went out with me.
Q ... at any time thereafter receive any money, checks or other evidence money from Mr. Dawson with direction to turn it in part over to D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of that Court? A Mr. Dawson gave me $50 dollars and said he would send the balance in a short time ... he would send some more money in a short time.
Q ... did he send any money afterwards? A Yes, sir, in the course of ten days or two weeks he send a hundred dollar check, ...
Q What did he direct you to do with it? A He directed me to give D. W. C. Duncan half of it.
Q Did you give him half of it? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he send you any at any other time after that? A Well, in the course of a couple of weeks he sent me a hundred dollars more.
Q Did he direct you to turn any of that and if so how much, to D. W. C. Duncan? A He told me to give him half of it,
Q ... give him half of it? A I did, sir.
Q ... remember whether or Dr. Arthur Baker was the principal ... in behalf of the Dawson case? A No, sir, I don't because I ... had any connection with the case, but I heard that he was ... in the case.
Q ... argument was made when you submitted the case? A No, sir.
Q ... just submitted it on the testimony? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you born and reared in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir: I ... born in the old Nation.

Q When did you come to the Cherokee Nation? A Come here in 1895.
Q How long have you been practicing law in the Cherokee Nation?
A I think since '88.
Q You have done a great deal of citizenship business haven't you?
A Yes, sir.
Q You were in the United States Court at Fort Smith on charges in regard to the citizenship business? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you convicted there? A Yes, sir; I was convicted there on this very case.
Q And served a term of what length? A I was sent to the jail hospital for sixty days and I stayed in about 38 or 39 days, and I was released.
Q When was that? A I don't remember how long ago it has been.
Q You say it was in regard to this case? A Yes, sir; this case was the bone of contention; Clem Rogers and the Chief, they are the ones that had me arrested, carried to Fort Smith.
Q Well, now, were you charged with an offense against the law in this case, or was it in regard to some other case? A Well, it was in regard to using the mail for fraudulent purposes.
Q Sending out propositions and obtaining case for citizenship for people [illegible] Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, it was for answering correspon[illegible].
Q Not relating to this case at all? A Well, this was the main charge, Clem Rogers went before the Court there and stated that I had got in at least three hundred Dawsons, that they were white people and not entitled to citizenship and that was the main trouble.
Q Well, now, was the charge based upon that or was it based upon your letters you sent out to other people? A That was the charge for using the mail for fraudulent purposes.
Q The use of the mails for fraudulent purposes not in connection of this case was it? A Not particular of this case.
Q Then the trouble you had was the prejudice of Clem Rogers and others caused by your connection with the Dawson case; that is what you mean to say? A Yes, sir.
Q Why did you say because you were charged with an offense based upon this case? A Well, the prejudice grew out of this case.
Q Now, then, you had full conversation with the representatives of the Cherokee Nation as to your testimony in this case, did you not before you came on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q You had told them of these particulars before you came on the witness stand did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q Yet when you came on the stand you assumed to have conscientious scruples as to answering as to matters which occured between you and your client, Bud Dawson, in relation to this matter and declined to answer claiming your privilege as an attorney did you not? A Yes, sir; I didn't want to make a statement at all in the matter.
Q You had voluntarily made a statement to the representatives of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; I had stated to Mr. Hastings; he summoned me and I come down here and I didn't want to make a statement to him but he insisted.
Q He had no power to compel you to make a statement? A No, sir.
Q You could then make it very freely and your conscience did not hurt you, but when you came on the stand you were very conscientious about it? A I didn't want to make a statement at all unless I I would be put in jail here if I didn't.
Q But you had armed them with information by which they could ask you these questions when you came on the stand? A I had told Mr. Hastings.

Q You knew when you gave him that information that you would be brought on the stand as a witness, did you not, by reason of that?
A No, I didn't know that I would be compelled to make a statement in the matter, a sworn statement.
Q You thought you would not be compelled to answer?
A I didn't think the law would compel me to make a statement.
Q Why then did you make a statement to him about it? A Oh, he was asking me about it, and I told him that I didn't want to make a statement, and I didn't for quite a while after I came down here.
Q When the enrollment division of the Dawes Commission was in Tahlequah, in the winter of 1900, did you not there meet F. M. Dawson and did you not then and there say to him "I told Shoemake I would be for him if he would employ me in his case and if he didn't I would be against him, and the same to you?" A No, sir; I said to him this; I says that if there is not something done that I will likely be summoned against you and Mr. Shoemake both.
Q What did you mean by that? A Well, I just meant this, I just left the matter with him to say what he wanted to do in the matter; I only spoke a word or two about it. I was going out of town just as he came in.
Q When you told him if something was not done you would be summoned as a witness against him; what did you mean by that? A Well, I just meant that the chances were that the Nation would summon me against him.
Q What did you mean by the expression "if there was not something done" that you would be summoned as a witness?
A Well, I meant this, if I was re-employed in the matter if he was to have a case and I was re-employed I would not be required.

Q You could be required to make a statement as to declarations made to you by your client to you on one instance, but if a little more money was put up you could not be required to make a statement; is that what you meant? A I didn't think I could be forced to make a statement at all in the matter.
Q Why did you make that expression to him "if something wasn't done you might be summoned as a witness" if you believed you could not be made to make a statement? A I meant if I was employed in the case.
Q If he would put up you would not testify? A That they could not force me to testify.
Q About the month of February, 1901, in the town of Wagoner, Indian Territory, did you not send your son to get Graham to come to the hotel at night, and did you not then and there say to Gid Graham; "you people are on the doubtful list and if you will give me $500. I will make it all right and see that you are enrolled and if you don't I will see that you don't get on"? A No, sir; I got a letter from Gid Graham in which he asked me to certify that the case was all right and after I met him I told him that I could not do it, that the case was crooked, he then said to me, he says, "I will give you a hundred dollars", he says "will you take a hundred dollars," I said "no, sir." I didn't make any bid, that is I didn't set no price with him.
Q You did not say to him then what I have embraced in that question there? A No, sir.
Q You did have a conversation with him about that time and at that place, did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q You say you didn't make any bid or set any price? A No, sir; he offered me a hundred dollars.
Q Why did you send for him to come to the hotel? A In answer to his letter.

A Did you not on yesterday morning on the street in Muskogee, Indian Territory, in a conversation with E. M. Shoemake say to him: "You have made a great mistake in not keeping in your employment and so have the Dawsons and it will go hard with you but you will see it"? No, sir; I says to Mr. Shoemake, I says: "Who have you employed in your case," and he says "Judge Tansil and Mr. Owen." I said "It might have been a advantage to you if you had retained me in your matter;" Well, he says "there was nothing wrong in my case" and I says "no, there is nothing wrong on earth in your case that I know of." He said all he wanted was justice and I said "I don't know a thing on earth against you," and I says "there is not a thing on earth wrong in your case as I know it came up fairly and squarely and decided in your favor."

Q You said nothing to him about the Dawson case? A Yes, I said to him "it might have been well if the Dawsons had retained me in their case." I said "I am summoned on the part of the Nation and I don't want to make a statement and I want if I can possible avoid it."

Q Was that before or after you talked with Mr. Hastings, the representative of the Nation? A It was afterwards.

Q You meant by that if you had refused to answer you could have gone to jail? A No, sir; if they had employed me before hand I would not now.

Q You mean that if they had employed you before hand you would not have given this information to Mr. Hastings? A I would not be required, being the attorney.

Q Were you required to give him the information; did you know that you had to give him any information? A Who do you mean.

Q Mr. Hastings. A I did refuse him and he insisted.

Q Well, he no authority to compel you to do it? A No, sir; I don't know whether he did or not.

Q As a lawyer you knew that he did not have authority to compel you to make a statement to him? A I told him tht I was an attorney in the case and I didn't want to make any statement at all.

Q Why did you do it? A Well, he intimated to me it would go no further. He said to me "I will not make this matter — I will not use it;" that is, what I stated to him was part in confidence.

Q And he pledged you his word that it would not be used? A Well, told him I could make a statement in confidence, and that I didn't want to make a statement before the Court.

Q Well, what did he reply, as you said just now? A Oh, he says make the statement and then I told him—I regretted very much to do it, and I regret very much to make a statement here. I tried to avoid it yesterday.

Q You stated just now that he said it would not be used; did he say so or not? A Well, something to that amount: oh, he says it won't make any difference or something to that effect.

Q Now, don't you know that Mr. Hastings did not intimate to you that the statement he was asking you to make would not be used? A Well, I didn't think that I would be forced to make a qualified statement before the Court here, because I thought my license would protect me in that matter.

Q Yet it did not protect you or prevent you from making a statement to the attorneys for the Nation? A No, sir.

Q Now, in this conversation with Shoemake to which I before referred did you not ask him to again employ you and tell him if he would you would make it all right for him? A No, sir; I didn't say that; no, I said if he had employed me in the matter "maybe it would have been better for you." Now, he offered me when I was down here last week, he offered me five dollars to go down and talk to his lawyers on the matter, I didn't go I was busy.

Q That was not your price? A No, no, I had nothing to say in his case that would be to his advantage; I knew nothing against him.
Q Now, then, you say that your were present on the morning that the judgment was rendered in favor of the Dawsons? A I was not in the Court house.
Q You were present in Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q How long had you been at Tahlequah? A I was living there at that time.
Q When were you first employed by them? A By Dawsons?
Q Yes, sir. A The evening before the case was tried.
Q You say that after he judgment was rendered Dawson handed you $20? A Yes, sir.
Q And told you to hand to Duncan? A No, sir.
Q What was your statement? A That he paid me $20 and says "I will send you some more in a short time, week or so.
Q And then he sent you $100? A Yes, sir.
Q And wrote you to give D. W. C. Duncan $50 of it? A Yes, sir.
Q And then sent you another $100 and told you to give him half of it? A Yes, sir.
Q How much did they pay you? A Well, that was the agreement, was that he would pay me $50 a family.
Q How much did he pay you? A I think there was $250; now I am not sure about the $50, but it appears to me like there was a $50 sent, and Mr. Duncan asked me, as well as I remember, says "have you got a letter from Dawson," I told him "yes, sir." It was either that or the $100, and he says "I would like to have some money", and I went to Stapler's and got it changed— I won't be sure about it being $50 or $100--I went to Stapler's and got him to cash the check and give him his part of it.
Q How much did they pay you for your services? A That is all I got.
Q How much? A I think it was $100, $120.
Q What did you do for them? A Didn't do a thing only called up the case and submitted it; never read the evidence.
Q Submitted it without remarks? A Yes, sir.
Q And for that you say they paid you $120? A Yes, sir; $120.
Q Was Houston Benge present when that was one? A No, sir; I don't think he was.
Q Did you see him then at that time in Tahlequah? A I don't remember.
Q Were you associated with him in any manner in connection with the case? A No, sir.
Q You had a great deal of business of that character, have you before the Courts? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you paid like fees in other cases for like services? A Yes, sir.
Q In many of them? A Yes, sir, good many.
Q All like cases? A Oh, citizenship cases.
Q When was it you were in jail at Fort Smith? A I don't remember: Mr. Mellette can remember, he was there, he was my attorney.
Q Was it about 1883? A It was somewhere along there, along in 1890 somewhere.
Q That has been your principal business as a lawyer, has it not? A Yes, sir.
Q You have never practiced much in any other way have you? A Very little.
Q Were you in the habit of working your cases through in the same manner in which you state you worked this through? A No, sir.

Q This was an exception was it? A I never worked this case through. I simply called the case up by request of Mr. Dawson. I read the evidence; don't know what proof there was in it; he just asked me to call the case up.
Q And he agreed to pay you $50 a family for doing that? A Yes, sir.
Q Was that what you required of him? A That is what he agreed to pay. I says "what will you give?" He says "I will give you $50 a family."

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q At the same time that the attorney for the Nation was talking to you about the Dawson case he also made inquiries about the Shoemake case didn't he? A Yes, sir.
Q And you told him at that time before you knew anything about whether you would be made or compelled to testify that so far as you knew there was nothing you knew detrimental to the Shoemake case? A Yes, sir; that is what I said.
Q You told him at the same time that you not only expected to claim you privilege as an attorney in the case, but that you told him, Mr. Hastings, with the full belief that the Court would sustain your position? A Yes, sir.

Mr. McKennon: That is very leading.

Q Now, did you think that the re-employment, being the attorney in the pending case would strengthen your position or weaken it, when you spoke to Mr. Dawson? A What I thought in the matter was before ever I would be summoned in the matter, a long time ago, that if I had been employed in the matter of course my position would have been such that I would not have been required or could not have been forced.
Q Did you think under those circumstances that Mr. Hastings would approach you about the subject? A No, sir; I don't think I would be forced to, having license to practice law.
Q Did Mr. Hastings tell you at the time that he was going to put you on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q And let the Court decide? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Now, have you a license to practice in the United States Courts? A Yes, sir.
Q In the Territory? A Yes, sir.
Q And also in the Indian Courts? A Yes, sir: do you want to see them?

JAMES W. LEWIS, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name please? A J. W. Lewis.
Q James W. Lewis? A Yes, sir.

Q What is your business ? A I work at the tin business and gun work.
Q Do you know one James Dawson, the brother of F. M. Dawson and the other Dawsons? A I know old man James Dawson.
Q That is the one I mean, old man James Dawson? A Yes, sir; I know him.
Q How long have you known him? A Well, some four or five years, I guess.
Q How long? A Four or five years I think.

Q When did you come to the country? A I have been in the country 70 odd years.
Q Well, when did he come to the country, do you know? A Along about somewheres in eighty if I recollect right, might have been later than that.
Q How did you happen to be acquainted with? A He lived right close by me and I built a house for him.
Q Did you have any conversation with him at the time you built that house? A Yes, several different times.
Q About how he became a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, about the circumstances? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he make any statement to you about the use of money in getting his citizenship, and if so, state what he said?
A Well, he told me that it cost him $700 to get his rights.
Q Didn't tell you to whom he paid it? A No, he didn't and I didn't ask any questions.

MR. McKENNON:

Q How old was he at that time, do you know? A I do not know exactly, must have been somewheres near about 70 years old, he might have been older than that, I don't know.
Q He was a very old and feeble man? A Yes, he was old and feeble.
Q He seldom ever got out away from his house? A No, sir, only short distance.
Q When you first knew him he was that kind of man? A Yes, sir.

J. L. CLINKENBEARD, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A J. L. Clinkenbeard.
Q What is your post office address? A Vinita.
Q How old are you? A 56.
Q Were you ever an applicant for citizenship before the Tehee Citizenship Court in Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q About what time was that? A September '81, I think.
Q Did you meet there about that time, one Elbert or Buck Dawson?
A Yes, sir.
Q How did you happen to meet him? A He and I stopped at the same place, man's by the name of Sharbow.
Q You and he stopped there, did you, board there? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, did you have any talk about citizenship cases, yours and his? A
Yes, sir.
Q Where did he state that he was from? A Texas.
Q Well, state what you can remember of the conversation between you two time to time about citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?
A Well, we were there on the same business and we talked about it at different times, all in talking about the evidence we had there I, of course, told him how many witness I had and what I could prove and so on, and he said that he didn't have but one witness, Mr. Baker from Arkansas, a man that was 85 or 90 years old, he said, and he hadn't come and said he'd like to have get him there, but he hadn't come.
Q Well, what did he say about the doctor's knowing anything?
A Well, he said he was 85 or 90 years old and didn't now straight off.
Q Well, did he say anything about giving him whisky?
A Well, he said he could give him four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would swear that black was white.

Q Did he say anything about what money would do in Texas or Indian Territory? A Well, in talking about the evidence, he said that money was what talked here down in Texas and he said "I came to get the lay of the land" and he says "I found out it goes here," or words to that effect.
Q Did he say what he had to spend on the question? A Well, he said that he could stand a thousand dollars on it and not be hurt very much; finally he said he could stand more than that.
Q What did he tell you what he thought about the necessity of witnesses anyhow? A Well, I don't know as he said as to that, but I understood from what he said that he thought money would beat witnesses.
Q Well, where did he go from there? A He and I left there together; he came to Muskogee by way of Fort Gibson and there we parted.
Q Did you ever see him after that? A I saw him about two years or something like that afterwards.
Q Where? A Vinita.
Q Did you refer to the citizenship matter? A I asked him how he come out and he said all right.
Q Was he deformed in any way this man? A He had a crippled hand or stiff finger; I don't remember just what it was now.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Your first conversation with him was in '01 was it? A Yes, sir.
Q What time in '01? A September.
Q You were then an applicant for citizenship? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you admitted? A No, sir.
Q You are still an applicant? A No, sir.
Q You are still working to get in as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir; haven't quit it entirely.
Q What business are you in now? A I am running a dairy in Vinita.
Q When did you make these statements now to the representative of the Cherokee Nation? A Well, sir, I haven't; I saw Mr. Hastings I believe here last Saturday the first time.
Q How did they ever know that you had had these conversations with Mr. Dawson? A I don't know.
Q You don't know how they found that out? A No, sir.
Q You say you saw Mr. Hastings here last Saturday? A Yes, sir.
Q How, did you approach him or did he approach you? A He approached me.
Q You know why? A No, sir; I suppose somebody I have told something at some time about this, I don't know when or who. I don't remember of having talked to anyone about it. I have saw Mr. Hastings for years.
Q Now, you say—how was that expression about his giving Dr. Baker three or four drinks of liquor? A He said the old man; he said that Dr. Baker, he was expecting him there and he didn't come, and he said he didn't care where he did or not; he said he was 85 or 90 years old; he said he didn't know straight up; said he could give him three or four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would not know black or white.
Q Now, he said that did he? A Yes, sir.
Q You are just as positive of that as you are of any other statement he made are you? A Yes, sir.
Q You say you next saw Dawson at Vinita? A Yes, sir.
Q How long afterwards was that? A About two years, I think something near that.
Q Did he move to the Territory? A Yes, sir he lived at Vinita at one time.

Q You speak about having a dairy business there at Vinita, to what extent? A I am only milking about four cows now, I sent the others to the country.
Q Do you run a dairy wagon there? A No, sir.
Q You serve on the jury a good deal? A I have been serving on the Petit jury there this winter.
Q Generally? No, sir.
Q Are you a kind of a professional juror? A No, sir; I was on the regular Petit jury, I was on the regular panel and served.

Q What were your other remarks? A I said no, sir, I didn't have any unkind feeling towards him.

(It being 5 o'clock, the Commission adjourns until 8:30 o'clock to-morrow Morning.)

March 19, 1902.
Commission convened pursuant to adjournment.

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of Counsel for Applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

C. C. BRAUGH, re-called, further testified:

A.S. McKENNON:

Q Mr. Braught, you were a claimant under the Watts family are you not? A Yes, sir.
(witness excused.)

CHARLES D. KENNEY, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A. Charles D. Kenney.
Q What is your post office? A Dawson now.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; supposed to be.
Q Recognized as such are you? A Yes, sir.
Q How old are you? A There is no family record, my parents died when I was young, I just guess at my age, I am somewheres between 44 and 45 years old.
Q Were you personally acquainted with one Elbert or Buck Dawson?
A I knew Buck Dawson when I saw him.
Q Did you know him in the state of Texas, if so state what time?
A I knew Buck Dawson, knew him and saw him at different dates in Texas.
Q Well, in the year '81 in Clay County, Texas, did you ever see him?
A It was in '81 or 82, I think I knew him in both years.
Q Did you ever have any conversation with him in the presence of Bill Smith, Jiles Flippin and Joe Pleston about his application for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Mr. Dawson and Flippins were talking in regard to grass down there before we one time and it was mentioned, I was going up on the strip and Buck Dawson says "he an Indian" and Jiles said "yes, he is an Indian", and "By God," I believe is the way he spoke, "if I was an Indian I would not be punching cattle, I would have stock eating my grass."

Q What did he say about making application? A He said he was going to the Chickasaw Nation and prove up and get him some grass.
Q Who was that? A Buck Dawson.
Q Well, did anybody suggest about his going to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, I told him, I says "why don't you go to the Cherokee Nation, why don't you go up home" I believe is the way I spoke it, "up amongst God's people;" and he says "are they all white like you?" and Jiles spoke up and says "majority of them."
Q Well, what did he say to Jiles then? A He says "let's go up Jiles", just in a whole crowd of cow punchers, and Mr. Flippin says "Hell, I am going; brother John is getting ready to go now."
Q Well, then what did he say to you? A He says "Who are your best lawyers up there, Kenney," and I told him "Hooley Bell was counted the brainiest man in our country."
Q Well, do you know whether he claimed to have any Indian blood in what he was claiming in that country, whether white man or Indian? A No, sir, I could not say what he was; he was generally known over there as Buck Dawson, a citizen of the State of Texas, that is all I know of him.

Mr. McKennon: The applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

Mr. McKennon:
Q Were you born and reared in the Cherokee Nation? A I can't tell you where I was born; I was raised here part of the time and in Hunt County, Texas. B. F. Alberty was my guardian.
Q Were you admitted to citizenship by the Council or Court? A I think both of them passed on me; I can't tell you the date.
Q About what time? A It was sometime in '80 though.
Q What tribunal first? A I don't know; I don't know either when I was admitted, I was re-instated at Council.
Q When? A I think it was in '87 or '88.
Q Haven't you been arrested for crime and charged with crime? A Well, I didn't know that I was on trial; I have been arrested a hundred times I guess from here to the Rio Grande.
Q For what offense? A For gambling, stealing; if I am on trial I have had lots of them, I have been on the road.
MR. HASTINGS, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation:
Q Were you ever convicted? A No, sir.
Mr. McKennon: Applicant makes further objection to the testimony of this witness on account of his criminal character stated by him.

THOMAS B. BABBART, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name, please? A Thomas B. Babbart.
Q What is your post office? A Melvin.

Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know one James Dawson? A Well, yes; I did; I have seen him time or two.
Q Were you in Tahlequah about the time he had an application before the Sneers or Snake Party Citizenship Court? A Yes, sir; I was there about the time the case was settled.
Q Did you know Aaron Butler? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was he? A He was a Cherokee Interpreter for the Court.
Q Do you know James Smith? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was he? A He was the Nation's attorney before the Court.
Q Well, did you about that time have a conversation with either Aaron Butler of Jim Smith in company with Mr. James Dawson? A Yes.
Q State the full particulars of it? A About that time this man Dawson and Butler come to me while they were all together, all three of them, and Butler come and called me off to one side, that was down at a colored church, it was after dark, and they called me off there and this man Dawson borrowed some money from me, he said he had to have it that night, his case was going to be submitted the next morning.
Q Well, did he say anything about whether he could get his case submitted if he had more money? A Well, from the language to me and Butler, he wanted this money; Smith had agreed to submit the case without further evidence in the matter.
Q Well, did you let him have the ten dollars? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did they go then? A They walked off up towards town.
Q Did they go together, those three? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Was that James Dawson, the leading applicant in that case?
A Yes, best of my recollection that was.
Q How old a man was he? A I don't know; I could not tell you; he looked, I don't know, he might have been—could not tell you just about how old he was.
Q Well, about how old was he, 25, 30 or 40? A Yes, he was older than that, from my judgment I guess he must have been 45 or 50 years old.
Q Is he living or dead? A I don't know.
Q Where have you been living? A I have been living down here near Tahlequah.
Q That was the man's name, Dawson's name? A Jim Dawson I think.
Q You are certain of that? A Yes, sir; I am pretty certain.
Q They came to you with Smith, the Prosecuting Attorney, and Butler, the Interpreter? A Yes, sir.
Q Dawson took you off to one side? A Butler took me to where Dawson was and introduced me to Dawson and vouched for Dawson being all right for the money.
Q When did you first make a statement of this matter to anybody?
A I guess—I don't remember when.
Q How long have you been in Muskogee this time?
A I have been here since, I was summoned here last Friday.
Q Did you ever make any statement to anybody about this before that time? A Yes, I talked to Butler about it.
Q When? A Oh, about, first I remember it has been about two years ago, and Butler was talking to me about it; it was at my house.
Q Were you born a citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q You weren't admitted to citizenship by the Courts or Council?
A No, sir.
Q You have been living in the Cherokee Nation all your life?
A Well, I was born and raised here; ; I haven't been here all the time; I have been out and in.

Q You have never seen that man Dawson since? A If I have I have never known it, but I seen him the next day.
Q You saw him and took a good look at him, and know about what kind of man he was? I saw him around there about several times,
Q You think he was about 35 or 40 years old? A That would be my guess at it, my recollection.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness, all of it, because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

DELIA A. BREWER, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation.

Q Now, do you know how many children your grandfather had , that is brothers and sisters of your father? A I heard him say seven.
Q Well, did you ever hear your father or grandfather speak of whether or not your grandmother was a white woman or an Indian?
A Well, I heard my father speak about it, I don't know that I ever heard my grandfather say anything about it.
Q Well, what did he say about it? A I have heard him say his mother was not an Indian.
Q Did you fathercome here and a ply nce for citizenship?
A Yes, sir.
Q Was he admitted? A I think not.
Q Did you hear him make any statements about he ground he expected to get in? A He said his brothers had proved their rights here and if his brothers had any rights he did, but I don't know.
Q Well, in t at connection didhe say whether his mother was an Indian or white woman? A Never heard him say that his mother was a white woman in speaking about that, I don't know whether he said anything about that or not; I have heard him say his mother wasn't no Indian.

BY MR. McKENNON: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness because it is wholly irrelevant and incompetent.

ALEX S. LEWIS, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Alex S. Lewis.
Q What is your post-office? A Dawson, Indian Territory.
Q How old are? A 59 years.
Q What was your wife's maiden name? A Elizabeth Parales Dawson.
Q Who was your wife's father and mother? A Her father was Samuel P. Dawson and her mother was the wife of Samuel P. Dawson, did you know her maiden name?
Q Well, if you know the maiden name of your wife's mother, state how you know it? A Well she was called Margarett, Margarett Queen was her maiden name.
Q The maiden name now of your wife's father's mother? A Why the maiden name of my wife's father's mother?
Q Yes, sir? A From what her husband and my father-in-law told me it was Annie Pruett.
Q What was the name of your wife's father's father? A My wife's grandfather on her father's side, Samuel Dawson.
Q And his wife's maiden name was Annie Pruett? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you know the old gentleman, Samuel Dawson, your wife's grandfather? A Yes, sir.
Q Personally? A Yes, sir.
Q What opportunities had you to get acquainted with him? A He lived with his youngest son, my father-in-law, and visited me, my wife and I, after we were married, at and with us quite a while; I lived near my father-in-law and he visited very often.
Q When did he die? A '74.
Q Have you any particular method of recalling that date? A Well, I was away from the house when he was taken sick, and they sent for my wife and myself, and so when I got home my wife had gone to her father's to see her grandfather, he was sick, and I remember my wife was a baby at that time.
Q At whose home was your first child born? A He was born December, '73.
Q How do you know how old your wife's father was when he died? A Why he was up in 60, but I don't remember his age.
Q Did the old original Samuel Dawson ever tell you his age? A Yes, sir, several times.
Q How old was he at the time of his death? A He was passed 94.
Q Did he ever tell you whether or not his wife Annie Pruett had any sister or brother? A Told me she only had one brother named Bob Pruett.
Q Have any of the members of the family named their children after her? A Make it a little plain, it is a little long; my wife's oldest brother was a particular favorite of his grandfather, and he always took this boy with him everywhere, and he had named one of his,- eldest child for this brother-in-law who was a particular favorite of his grandfather; named it for him I understood.
Q No, what is his name? A Of course I don't know why he named it, but he gave him the name of Robert Pruett, and I understood it was on account of his grandfather thinking so much of Robert Pruett.
Q Did you ever hear the old Samuel Dawson speak of his brother-in-law? A Yes, sir; I have heard him say that he wished he knew what had become of Bob Pruett, he never had heard of him for a long time; didn't know where he was, or whether he was alive or not.

Q Now, I want the children of Samuel Dawson and Annie Pruett, how many of them did you know, first? A How many did I know personally?
Q Yes, sir? A John James, and Samuel R. Those were the only ones of his children that I remember personally.
Q Well, remember what you know of the family, what other children did he have? A Well he had two girls, as I understand the family history, he had two girls, first, and John Dawson was the third child, and the oldest boy was John Dawson.
Q Was John Dawson the oldest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q Which was the oldest girl? What is she known by now? A I think it was Mrs. Petty, nee Bettie Dawson.
Q And John Dawson was the oldest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q And Samuel R. Dawson was the youngest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q You know anything about the time John Dawson was born, have you any way of coming at it, the oldest boy? A Yes, sir, I know what the oldest son and his wife told me.
Q What was that? A They said he was born in 1811.
Q Who was his oldest son? A Toliver H. Dawson; told me his father was born in 1811.
Q Do you remember now whether the old man had occasion to say whether his wife, Annie Pruett was an Indian or white woman, or ever said anything about it? A I know what the old man said that one time, I don't know that I ever heard the question approached in that way, I have heard him speak as to her blood, but it was in a kind of a way that he reached it.
Q What blood did he say she was? A Well he said that she was the daughter of Mrs. Pruett, a white woman; and that her father was Captain John Rogers, a white man who lived with the Cherokee Indians, and traded with them.
Q Did he say who Captain John Rogers afterwards married? A Said he had a wife in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Not that Annie Pruett was not her child? A No, sir, she was the child of Mrs. Pruett.
Q A white woman? A Yes, sir, that was the half sister of Bob Pruett.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness, because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

Q Now, you apply for citizenship here? A Yes, sir; for my wife.
Q When? A My father-in-law made the application, I don't know exactly when it was, I think probably about '96, I couldn't say as to the date.
Q Before the Cherokee authorities? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he file an application before the Dawes Commission in 1896 also? A Him.
Q Yes, sir? A I don't think he did, no sir.
Q Did you? A I did.
Q In behalf of your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you make affidavit to that application? A No, sir.
Q Who did? A I don't know, don't remember now.
Q You applied for your wife as an Indian by blood didn't you not? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you still an applicant? A No, sir.
Q Is she? A No, sir.
Q She was denied was she? A Yes, sir.
Q Was there an appeal taken from that? A Application was filed if I remember, before the Dawes Commission, and they rejected the case, and then I appealed it to the District Court, and it was rejected there and then I stopped.

Q Have you ever been arrested for any crime? A Yes, sir.
Q What? A Charge of murder.
Q Anything else? A No, sir.
Q Committed on the train? A Yes, sir.
Q In a train robbery? A Yes, sir, in a train robbery.
Q How long did you remain in jail? A Appealed the case to the Supreme Court, and it was reversed and sent back, and I was acquitted on that charge.
Q That all the crime you were ever charged with? A Yes, sir.
Q Haven't you been having some trouble with the Dawson family? A Well no personally I have no trouble with any of them, there is one of my boys and one of W. A. Dawson's sons-in-law had one trouble.
Q You are not friendly with the Dawson family? A That son-in-law Mr. Wooley, and myself, don't speak, and I don't think his wife speaks to me either.
Q Well you are claiming some sort of lease on the Wooley farm, aren't you? A No, sir, I don't claim any lease on the Wooley farm.

B. W. ALBERTY, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q State your name? A B. W. Alberty.
Q What is your post-office? A Tahlequah.
Q What is your present official position in the Cherokee Nation? A Assistant Executive Secretary of the Cherokee Nation.
Q As such have you charge of the citizenship records and books etc. of the Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you made search recently for the original records in the various cases of the Dawson family before citizenship courts in Council? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you got what records you found with you? A I find what's supposed to be the original papers in the case, all that I could find. (Produces papers and hands to Nation's attorney.)
Q Where did you find these papers? A I found them in the desk in which papers of that character are filed away in the Executive Office at Tahlequah. (Applicant's attorneys examine papers produced by witness.)

Testimony for Claimants.

Witness:

Dr. Baker sworn testifies as follows. My name is Arthur Baker I reside at Berryvill, Arkansas, Carroll County. My a[ge] is 77 years, I am not a Cherokee, I lived in the Cherokee N[ation] about three years when I first came to Arkansas I have been acquainted with him since he became a citizen of Carroll County some thirty five years (line drawn through the last three words.) 35 years at my mother's house near Calhoun I became acquainted with the claimants Robt Dawsons grand mo[ther] on mother's side, she was frequently at my mother's house; though she A ma Pruit lived in the Nation side. She claimed to be a half sister to Big Joe Vann, also claimed to be half Cherokee; the first time she brought the claimant's mother to my mother's house she the claimant's mother was about [illegible] years old, when I was a lit le boy she called her daughter Polly Rogers said Capt John Rogers who was a boat up the river [illegible] the mother of the child; I saw the girl frequently there at my mother's and there at Louis Rogers Store I saw her occasionally until I was 15 or 16 years old and I think then Old Capt John Rogers took her off to school. I saw her no more from the time Old Capt. John Rogers took her off till I saw her here in Arkansas the wife of Old Samuel Dawson. I showed all [illegible] were and we and I had a talk over our old acquaintance, and I asked her [illegible] she became acquainted with Dawson and she said at the time she was going to school. And she said after she left school that Dawson followed her home to the Nation and they were married. I have told that precisely in the words she used.

Capt John Rogers claimed to be one fourth Cherokee, the claimant is the son of Polly Rogers and I know Polly Rogers to be the daughter of Anna Pruet, and I know the claimant to be the son of Polly Dawson Capt Rogers then resided in the Cherokee Country about twelve miles from Calhoun on the Hiwassee River.

Anna Pruet resided in the Cherokee Nation as long as I stayed there the Dawsons when I got acquainted with them Arkansas were recognized where they were as Cherokees, Robt Dawsons children is Buck, John, Marion, and two girls; the children named in the petition I recognize as being the claimants.

Question by Solicitor:
Ques. 1 How many children did Polly Rogers have?
Ans. 1 Five, I think that's all.
Ques. 2 Did you say something about no, some being married twice?
Ans. 2 The claimant was married twice.
Ques. 3 Could Anna Pruet speak Cherokee?
Ans. 3 Yes she could speak it well
Ques. 4 Did Polly Rogers speak Cherokee?
Ans. 4 She could when she was young.
Ques. 5 How far do you live from Anna Pruet?
Ans. 5 Just across the river about 3/4 of a mile.
Ques. 6 Was Calhoun in the Cherokee Nation?
Ans. 6 It was on both sides of the river, part in the Nation and part out in the State.

Ques. 7 Which Harnage was it went to Texas?
Ans. 7 George went first then John went they were the sons of old Man Harnage that lived up here near the line.
Ques. 8 Did the claimant go to Texas?
Ans.8 No the claimant didn't go to Texas.
Ques. 9 What connection was claimant and Polly Rogers?
Ans. 9 The claimant is the son of Polly Rogers Marion here is the grandson of Polly Rogers.
Ques. 10 Where does claimant now live?
Ans. 10 He lives in Carroll County, Arkansas.
Ques. 11 Do you know what relation old Captain John Rogers was to Charlotte Rogers here in Cooweescoowee?
Ans. 11 They claimed kin but what kin I dont know there were two Capt. John Rogers' in the Nation I am speaking of the time when I first came to this 1830 Country about the year 1830.
Ques. 12 Was Anna Pruet the maiden name of Claimant's grandmother
Ans. 12 Yes that was her maiden name the Indians called her Sinee.

"Now this day comes the above case for final examination, Samuel R. Dawson, bases his application for re-admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the ground that he is the son of Samuel Dawson a white man, Polly Rogers the alleged daughter of Captain John Rogers and Chilsey Pruitt, said to be a sister of Joseph Vann, commonly known as Rich and who was of Cherokee blood. It is admitted that John Rogers and Chilsey Pruitt died before the roll upon which their names would appear if living at the time and specified in the 7th section of the Act of December 6th, 1886, creating the Commission on Citizenship, were made but in support of the application it is urged that certain members of the Dawson family and full brothers of the applicant were re-admitted to citizenship by the Commission on Citizenship commonly known as

"The Tehee Court", and the "Spears Court"; and are now residing as citizens in the Cherokee Nation. In the opinion of this Commission the sufficiency of the considerations which determined the decision of those Commissions of the testimony now introduced to authorize the admission of the present applicant is not relivent to the issue now pending. The 7th section of the Act of December 8th, 1886, before named provides, that "The Commission shall give a hearing to any person applying for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the ground of Cherokee blood or descent, but such applicant must be a person, or the lineal descendant of a person whose name appears upon the census rolls of Cherokees taken by the United States," As are hereafter enumerated. Neither the name of the applicant nor that of the person of whom he claims to be a lineal descendant appearing upon eitherof said rolls the Commission adjudge and decree that Samuel R. Dawson and family are not entitled to re-admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as Cherokees by blood. This opinion includes the cases of Andrew J. Dawson, James K. P. Dawson, Jounnah Barber nee Jounnah Dawson and Jane Queen, nee Jane Dawson, and their families, as enumerated in their respective applications.

Commission's No.....
for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

Your respondent, S. H. Mayes, Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, comes now and demurs the said application, and for the grounds thereof says:

1st. That this Commission has not jurisdiction over the parties or subject matter of this controversy.

2nd. That the application does not state facts sufficient if true, to show that the applicant . . . entitled to citizenship.

Respondent not waiving his aforesaid demurrer, but insisting upon the same for answer to said application, says that John Rogers through whom the petitioner claims to derive right to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, is not now, - . . and has not been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, since the removal of said Nation, west to the Indian Territory, as at present located and defined; that his name does not appear on any of the authenticated rolls of said nation; that neither he nor any of his ancestors ever resided, or ever have resided in the Cherokee Nation east of the Mississippi, as citizens thereof.

See case Nation's No. 1771.

Having fully answered, your respondent asks to be hence dismissed.

Now this day comes the above case for final hearing, Samuel E. Dawson makes his application to be admitted to Cherokee Citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the ground that he is the son of Samuel Dawson, a white man, Polly Lewis, the daughter of Cherokee John Rogers, and Calaway Pruett said to be half sister of John Rogers and also known as Nancy of Cherokee blood. It is admitted that John Rogers was

Military Grants Homestead Applications Citizenship
Section 7 of the Act of December 8th, 1887, repealing of Citizenship Case made, but in support of the petition it is urged that certain members of the Dawson family the full brothers of the applicant are entitled to citizenship by the operation of Section 7 commonly known as the "Tobacco Court" or "Bryans Court" and are now residing in the Province of Manitoba. In the opinion of this Commission the petitioner of the Council praying Commissioner the Petition for Certificates of Citizenship now introduced is without foundation as the applicant is not married to a person entitled. The 7th section of the Act of December 8th, 1887, does not provide that the Commissioner may grant any person applying for citizenship in the Province of Manitoba the rights of Citizenship unless he or she is a British subject by descent, but the applicant must be a person, or the lineal descendant of a person, who was on the 15th day of July 1870 entitled to hold lands from the Hudson Bay Company and the wife of the applicant for part of this person who claims to be a lineal descendant answering these conditions of said Acts, the Commission adjudge and decree that Samuel F. Dawson and his wife are not entitled to re-admission to citizenship in the Province of Manitoba as applied for.
This opinion includes the cases of Andrew J. Dawson, James
A. P. Dawson, Jonathan Barber, nee Jonathan De Mont, and Jane Owen, nee Jane Dawson and their families as enumerated in their respective petitions.

Your respondent, S. H. Mayes, Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, comes now and demurs the said application, and for the grounds thereof says:

1st. That the Commission has no jurisdiction over the parties or subject matter of this controversy, and not legal right, therefor, to hear and determine the same.

2nd. That the application does not state facts sufficient, in law, to show that the applicants are entitled to citizenship.

Respondent not waiving the aforesaid demurrer, but insisting upon the same for answer to said application, says that John Rogers through whom the petitioners claim to derive their right to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, is not now, and never has been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, since the approval by said Nation, and by the Indian Territory as it was located and defined; that his name does not appear upon any of the authenticated rolls of said Nation; that neither petitioners nor their endorsers now reside or ever have resided in the Cherokee Nation and Indian Territory, as citizens thereof.

Having fully answered, your respondent asks to be hence dismissed.

FIRST. The Commission erred in rejecting its testimony and said claims adversely to the appellants against the proof submitted by said appellants.

SECOND. The Commission erred in investigating the claims of appellants and denying same against the advice of a majority of the members of the Commission.

THIRD. The Commission erred in refusing the appellants the right and privilege of examining the proof submitted by appellee in support of the answer filed by the appellee and to give the appellants the right of filing exceptions to appellee's answer or proof in writing of same.

FOURTH. The Commission erred in denying the appellants the right of a trial of their said claims, as guaranteed to them by the laws and constitution of the United States.

FIFTH. The Commission erred in refusing to allow the claimants to be present in person, or by attorney, during the trial and determination of their claims by said Commission.

SIXTH. The Commission erred in refusing to issue process for witnesses and to award the proper writs of attachment to be done as by the appellants.

SEVENTH. The Commission erred in deciding against the right of these appellants to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

EIGHTH. The Commission erred in deciding against them, holding that blood was not a test of admission of citizenship in said Cherokee Nation.

NINTH. The Commission erred in deciding against the proposition of residence, holding that residence in the Cherokee Nation was not a test of the right of citizenship in the said Cherokee Nation.

TENTH. The Commission erred in not entering upon their docket or record the grounds upon which the claims of appellants were denied and refused; to notify appellants the grounds of denial or rejection.

ELEVENTH. The Commission erred in examining the claims and proof of appellants and denying the same while the Commission was not clothed with any legal authority, nor had jurisdiction, to render decision on said claims or deny the same.

TWELFTH. That the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, was unconstitutional and had no power or legal right to confer jurisdiction on said Commission to try and adjudge the rights to citizenship of said appellants, and said Commission erred in determining the rights and denying same to said appellants.

THIRTEENTH. That Congress had no power by enactment to create, appoint and empower a judiciary, and said Commission erred in deciding the claims of said appellants without any legal authority to do so.

Therefore, the appellants of this cause pray that the appeal be granted to this Court and that a trial, de novo, be had of the appellants, and that said appellants be permitted to introduce testimony, and that an order be made requiring said Commission to send up the pleadings, papers and record filed therein in this cause to this Court, and that the Cherokee Nation, the appellee herein, be cited to appear [illegible] plead & defend against the appeal [illegible] show why the petition should not by the rules, orders and decisions of this Court be adjudged entitled to citizenship in the said Cherokee Nation, and the appellants will ever pray.

"Joanna Barber et Al.
vs. No.90.
Cherokee Nation.

Mr. E. A. Gibson, Special Master, to whom this cause was referred, submits the following report:

"IN THE UNITED STATES COURT IN THE INDIAN TERRITORY,
NORTHERN DISTRICT, AT MUSKOGEE.

JOANNA BARBER ET AL)
: REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER.
-vs-
CHEROKEE NATION.)

---------oOo---------

I, E. A. Gibson, Special Master herein, show to the Court that by the general order herein, I have examined the [illegible] herein, which is hereto attached and made a part hereof, and that I find as follows:

I

That this cause was instituted on September 5th, 1906, under the Dawes Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, by Joanna Barber, and Isaac J. Barber, her husband, on their children, Ona E., William H., James E., Johnnie and Joel A. Barber. That Joel A. Barber has the following children. Hattie Tolliver, George A., Frankie G., Jesse and Ethel Barber. That the application includes also Mary A. Tolliver and her child Inez Tolliver, Emma L. Murray and her child Claud Murray, Eva Moore and her children Anna J., Jackson D., Mary [illegible] Gladys, Attie L. Hunt and her child Norma Hunt, Alsey J. Stuart and [illegible] Mildred, George A. and Ruxey A. Stuart, Joanna J. Garlington and her children Cyrene C., Cora L. and Bertha [illegible] Garlington. That the application was by the Commission tried and rejected on October 29th, 1906, with no reasons given for the decision, and that subsequently on December 22, 1906, the claimants appealed to this Court. That the parties all live in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory.

II

That the parties claim the right to be admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by reason of their descent from Polly Rogers, who is claimed to be a Cherokee Indian by blood. That in support of their application the affidavits of S. P. Dawson, E. Dawson, Francis A. Dawson, and W. A. Dawson, who testify that Joanna Barber is the [illegible] of Elizabeth Reavy, nee Dawson, who was the daughter of Polly Rogers, who married a white man by the name of Samuel Dawson, and that Polly Rogers was the daughter of Captain John Rogers and Alsey Vann. That these witnesses are all Cherokee citizens by blood, and all [illegible] claimants, and concerning the other testimony, related to the [illegible].

The attorney introduces to contravert this testimony the decision of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, rendered in the year 1897, in which these claimants were rejected by this Commission and also the affidavits of T. C. Rogers a grandson of Captain John Rogers, and Mrs. Sarah Carter, a granddaughter of Captain John Rogers, both of whom state that they never heard of any daughter of said Captain John Rogers by the name of Polly Rogers, and that Cynthia Rogers was his only daughter.

III

The claimants contend that they are residents of the Cherokee Nation, and are relatives of the Dawson family, who are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood, are entitled to be enrolled to the Cherokee Nation as citizens by blood, while the attorney contends that John Rogers, through whom the petitioners claim, is not now and was not born a citizen of the Cherokee Nation since the removal west; that his name does not appear on the rolls of the Cherokee Nation, and that he nor his ancestors ever resided in the Cherokee Nation as citizens thereof.

The premises considered, in view of the unsettled condition of affairs in the Cherokee Nation at the time when Captain John Rogers, the ancestors through whom these claimants trace their Cherokee blood, lived, and especially in view of the absence of a uniform law and of records pertaining to births, I am of the opinion that these claimants have proven that they are descended from Capt. John Rogers, who resided in the Cherokee Nation, and was a recognized citizen, though the do not show that he was ever enrolled as such, and I therefore find that the claimants are all residents of the Cherokee Nation, within the meaning of the law, and that they are all Cherokee Indians by blood. That they have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1887, and probably longer, though the proof does not go to definitely how long, they have so resided.

I find that the Court allow the reasonable fee for my services here in as Special Master.

Respectfully submitted this 16 day of August, 1907.

(signed) H. A. Gibson,
SPECIAL MASTER.

Fee allowed.
No Objections Filed."

IN THE COURT.

From this report it appears that the claimants base their right to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation upon the grounds that they are the descendants of a Cherokee Indian by blood, but their ancestors through whom they claim have never resided in the Cherokee Nation as now constituted. It appears that they have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1887, and probably longer, but the proof does not state definitely how long they have so resided. It does not appear that the claimants or any of their ancestors have ever been enrolled as members of the Cherokee Nation.

The judgment of the United States Commission rejecting this case is affirmed, and the application of the claimants to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation is denied."

BY MR. MITCHELL:

We now introduce the original record in the citizenship case of Irene J. House, et al., before the Commission in 1896, the court number of same being 238, said case being denied by the Commission; appealed to the United States Court, and the decision of the Commission affirmed.

In this case we desire to call especial attention to the certified copy filed therein of the testimony of Arthur Baker, the certified copy having been made in 1894, being the testimony of Dr. Baker in the case of Robert Dawson against Sam Mayes, number 103, before the Citizenship Commission, and which was made January 19, 1894.

BY MR. McKENNON: To all of which the applicants object, because the same is immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

The papers in Court No. 230, just introduced above, are as follows:

"Office of Commission on Citizenship,
Cherokee Nation, Tahlequah, January 19, 1883.

No. 108.
Robert Dawson et al) Exhibit C.
vs (
Cherokee Nation.)

Testimony for Claimants.

Witness, Dr. Arthur Baker sworn testifies as follows:
My name is Arthur A. Baker I reside at Berryvill Arkansas Carroll County my age is 73 years I am not a Cherokee. I lived in the Cherokee Nation about three years when I first came to Arkansas I have been acquainted with him since he became a citizen of Carrolls County some 35 years - At my Mothers house near Calhoun I became acquainted with the claimants Robt Dawson grandfather on mother's side she was frequently at my Mothers house though she Anna Pruet lived in the Nation side; She claimed to be a half sister to Big Joe Vann, also claimed to be half Cherokee, the first time she brought the claimants mother to my Mothers house she the Mothers mother was about grown when I was a little boy. She called her daughter Polly Rogers, Said Captain John Rogers who ran a boat on the River was the father of the child; I saw the girl frequently there at my Mothers and there at Louis Ramsey Store.

I saw her occasionally until I was 15 or 16 years of old and I think then Old Capt. John Rogers took her off to school, I saw her no more from the time Old Capt. John Rogers took her off till I saw her here in Arkansas the wife of old Samuel Dawson, I stayed all night there with us and I had a talk over our old matters and I asked her where she became acquainted with Dawson and she said at the time she was going to school and she said after she left school that Dawson followed her home, to the Nation and they were there married. I have told that precisely in the words that she used, Capt John Rogers claimed to be one fourth Cherokee. The claimant is the son of Polly Rogers, and I know Polly Rogers to be the daughter of Anna Pruett and I know the claimant to be the son of Polly Dawson. Capt. Rogers then reside in the Cherokee Country about twenty (Word "twenty" marked through) twelve miles below Calhoun on the Hiwassee River Anna Pruett resided in the Cherokee Nation as long as I stayed there the Dawson when I got acquainted with them Arkansas were recognized there they were as Cherokees. Robert Dawson children is Buck, John, Marian and two girls, The children named in the petition I recognized as being the claimants.

Question by Solicitor:

Qu. 1 How many children did Polly Rogers have?
Ans. 1 Five I think that's all.
Qu. 2 Did you say so much about some one being married twice?
Ans. 2 The claimant was married twice.
Qu. 3 Could Anna Pruet speak Cherokee?
Ans. 3 Yes, she could speak it well.

Ques 4 Did Polly Rogers and C[illegible]?
Ans. 4 She did when [illegible] was young.
Ques 5 How far did you live from A[illegible]?
Ans 5 Just across the river about 1/4 of a mile.
Ques 6 Was Calhoun in the Cherokee Nation?
Ans. 6 It was on both sides of the river part in the Nation and part out in the [illegible].
Ques 7 Which Marriage was it went to Texas?
7 George went first, then John went, they were the sons of old man Marriage, that lived up near the line.
Ques 8 Did the Claimant go to Texas?
Ans. 8 No the Claimant did not go to Texas.
9 What connection was claimant and Polly Rogers?
9 The Claimant is the son of Polly Rogers Marion here is the grandson of Polly Rogers.
10 Where does claimant now live?
10 He lives in Carroll Co Arkansas.
11 Do you know what relation old Capt John Rogers was to Charles Rogers here in Cooweescoowee?
11 They claimed him but what kin I dont know there were two Capt John Rogers in the Nation I am speaking of the time when I first came to this country about the year 1830.
12 Was Anna Pruet the maiden name of claimants grandmother
12 Yes that was her maiden name the Indian called her Since

F. M. Dawson being duly sworn according to law deposes and says:

My name is F. M. Dawson; I am 54 years of age; My post office address is Afton Indian Territory I am a farmer by occupation and reside in the Cherokee Nation.

I am a recognized Cherokee citizen by blood. I was born in Carroll County Arkansas near Berryville. I derived my Cherokee Indian blood from my grandmother whose maiden name was Polly Rogers through my father Robert Dawson, My grandmother Polly Rogers was a Cherokee Indian and was married to Samuel Dawson my grand father in the old Cherokee Nation in Tennessee, my grand parents Samuel Dawson and his wife Polly came west from the Old Cherokee Country in about 1832 and settled in western Arkansas and later came on to the Indian Territory and the father of this affiant Robert Dawson and family settled in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory. Robert Dawson, the father of the affiant was also a recognized citizen of the present Cherokee Nation by reason of his Cherokee Indian blood.

The said Robert Dawson father of this affiant and Elizabeth Dawson who married John Petty were full brother and sister by blood, both being children of said Samuel Dawson and his wife Polly Dawson whose maiden name was Polly Rogers The said Elizabeth Petty was the mother Of Joanna Barber who is a full cousin by blood of this affiant in the Indian side. The said Joanna Barber is the mother of Irena J. House nee Barber who is a second cousin of this affiant in the Indian side.

This affiant further states that he has seventy five to a hundred blood relatives who reside in the Cherokee Nation and are recognized Cherokee Indians by blood and drew their per capita money all the last payment; said citizens and relatives derived their Indian blood from the same source that the above named Irena J. House, deraves her Indian blood and right.

This statement I have made to John H. Koogler, a Notary Public at Muskogee Indian Territory and it has been written down by him at my dictation. Such part of this testimony which refers to matters occuring previous to my recollection I know by means of family history and traditions which facts I have always been taught and told of by my parents and grand parents from childhood up, th facts stated as occuring since my childhood I know of my personal knowledge. Affiant further states that he is not personally interested in the prosecution of the application of said Irena J. House for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

EXHIBIT D.

E. Dawson, being duly sworn according to law on oath states: My name is E. Dawson; I am 61 years old; my post office address is Talala, Ind. Ter. I am a farmer by Occupation, and reside in Cooweescoowee District- Cherokee Nation. I am a recognized Cherokee Indian by blood, and exercise all the rights and immunities of a Cherokee Citizen now living in the present Cherokee Nation. I was born in Carroll County Arkansas near Berryville. I derived my Cherokee Indian blood from my Grandmother Polly Rogers through my father, Robert Dawson. My grandmother Polly Rogers was a Cherokee Indian and was married to my grandfather Samuel Dawson in the old Cherokee Nation in Tennessee. My Grand Parents, Samuel Dawson and his wife Polly Dawson whose maiden name was Polly Rogers came from the Old Cherokee Country in about the year 1828, and settled in Western Arkansas, and later on came to the Cherokee Nation. My father Robert Dawson was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation when he died, by reason of his Cherokee Indian blood.

The said Robert Dawson, the father of this affiant, and Elizabeth Dawson who married John Petty were full brother and sister by blood, both being children of the said Samuel Dawson and Polly Dawson his wife she being the same Polly Rogers as aforesaid. The said Elizabeth Petty was the mother of Joanah Barber who is a full cousin by blood of this affiant on the Indian side, the said Joanah Barber is the mother of Irene J. House, whose maiden name was Irene J. Barber and a second cousin of this affiant on the Cherokee Indian side. The affiant further state that he has seventy five to a hundred blood relatives who reside in the Cherokee Nation and are recognized Cherokee Indians of the present Cherokee Nation and exercise all the rights and privileges of such Cherokee citizens, they having drawn their shares of the Strip Money and the last per capita payment made by the Cherokee Nation.

Said citizens and relatives derived their Cherokee Indian blood from the same source, as did the above named Irene J. House.

I have made this statement before J. Parrickla , Notary Public at Talala, Ind. Ter, and affiant further states that he has no personal interest in the prosecution of the claim for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation of the said Irene J. House.

That the above facts which are within the personal knowledge of the affiant or within his years of discretion he knows personally, and the other facts that occurred before the recollection of affiant he testifies to as of what he has been taught from his family history and traditions.

That the relationship existing among all his people in the Cherokee Nation he knows from his personal knowledge and that they are related to the Cherokee Indian side.

"Irene J. House et al,
vs. No. 238
Cherokee Nation.

Mr. W. A. Gibson, Special Master to whom this case was referred, submits the following report: (Insert report)

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT IN THE INDIAN TERRITORY.

NORTHERN DISTRICT AT MUSCOGEE.

IRENE J. [illegible] ET AL

VS # 238 REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER.

THE CHEROKEE NATION.

----------oOo----------

I, W. A. Gibson, Special Master herein, show to the Court ... under the general order herein, I have examined the proof and pleadings on file in this case which are ... of this report, and that I find as follows:-

That this case is in reality a branch of ... Barber vs Cherokee Nation, the principal claimant herein ... Irene J. House a daughter of Joanna Barber.

That this cause was instituted on September 2 ... at which time application was made to the Commission of the Five Civilized Tribes for citizenship by blood in the Cherokee Nation.

That this case was tried by the said Commission on November 24, 1896 and the applicants denied, no reasons ... given for the decision, and that on January 20, 1897, the ... appealed from said decision to this Court.

That this application was made by Irene J. House, her husband, W. J. House, and their children Chas., C. Timber ..., and Henry W. House. That they file in support of ... application the affidavits of Joanna Barber, F. ... Dawson, Arthur A. Baker, E. Dawson, and W. A. Dawson. That these Dawson witnesses are citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and state that they are related by blood to the claimants herein on the Cherokee side. The claimants base their contention of a right to Cherokee citizenship upon the fact that the claimant Irene J. House is the daughter of Joanna Barber, who is the daughter of Elizabeth Petty, who was the daughter of Polly Rogers, and that Polly Rogers was the daughter of Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann, who were recognized Cherokee citizens by blood. That the testimony shows that this Dawson family are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that the claimants herein are cousins by blood upon the Indian side, and that they all claim through a common ancestor, Polly Rogers and Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann, who were all recognized Cherokee Indians.

II

The appellee introduces in defense the record of the application of these claimants to the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship in the year 1897, and the record of the rejection of the claimants, and further the affidavits of W. C. Rogers, and Mrs. Sarah Carter, a granddaughter both of whom state that they never heard of any daughter of Captain John Rogers by the name of Polly Rogers, and that he had only one daughter, whose name was Cynthia.

III

The Claimants contend that they are residents of the Cherokee Nation and are relatives of the Dawsons, who are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood, are entitled to be admitted to the Cherokee Nation as citizens by blood, while the appellee contends that John Rogers, through whom the petitioners claim, is not now and has not been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation since the removal west. That his name does not appear on the rolls of the Nation, and that neither he nor his ancestors ever resided in the Cherokee Nation as citizens thereof.

IV

The premises considered, I find that the claimants are the descendants of Captain John Rogers, and that it was entirely possible that in the condition of affairs at that early date in the Cherokee Nation, especially owing to the absence of a marriage law and of records pertaining to marriage, that these claimants should be the descendants of Captain John Rogers by a daughter, Polly Rogers, of whom the affiants for the appellee may never have heard.

I find that the claimants are residents of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, where they have resided since 1887, and that they are Cherokee Indians by blood.

I ask that the Court allow me a reasonable fee for my services herein as Special Master.

Respectfully submitted, this 9 day of Nov 1897.

Special Master.

My fee paid,
No Exceptions filed."

BY MR. HASTINGS:

"Well we close for the present.

TESTIMONY INTRODUCED IN BEHALF OF THE APPLICANTS:

D. W. C. DUNCAN, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Please state your name, age and residence? A My name is D. W. C. Duncan, my age is 72 years, my residence, Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q Are you a duly recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood? A I am.
Q You gave testimony in this case once before did you not, before the Dawes Commission? A I did.
Q Before this Commission I will say, this Commission? A The Dawes Commission? A Why I don't recollect who the Commissioner was, that was taken at Vinita, ex parte.
Q Were you in any way connected with the Cherokee Citizenship Commission in 1883 known as the "Teheo Commission"? A I was Clerk of that Commission.

Q ...ery much longer of that? A I don't recollect the exact length of time, I think it was about thirty days, during the continuance of that commission and existence of that Commission.
Q You were the only clerk it had during its existence were you?
A I think I was.
Q You were Clerk of that Commission when it rendered a decision in the case of Robert Dawson et al, as found on page 114 of its record, numbered 1? (Witness examines record referred to.) Now in the possession of this Commission? A I was.
Q The members of that Commission were the same as shown by the signatures to this judgment were they? A The same, yes, sir.
Q Thomas Tehee, the then of the Commission, Alex Wolfe and T. F. Thompson, Commissioners that is correct, is it? A That's correct.
Q Were you present when this case was under consideration by that Commission and when it rendered this judgment in the case? A I was.
Q Were you at that time acquainted with F. M. Dawson, one only called "Red Dawson", Campbell Taylor and Samuel H. Benge, who were attorneys, who were Cherokee attorneys at that time? A I might say that I merely knew Mr. Dawson; all I knew of him was I saw him there as a party to the suit. I knew Mr. Taylor and Mr. Benge more extensively; I have known them a number of years.
Q They were recognized Cherokee citizens were they? A They were.
Q Did Taylor not know generally as a Citizenship Attorney?
A I think he was.
Q Do you remember seeing him and Benge present at the time this case was under consideration by the Court? A Why I do not recollect seeing Mr. Benge, I cannot recollect, but I can recollect of seeing Mr. Taylor about the Court room now and then.
Q Do you know who submitted the case to the Court for the applicants? A Let me understand the running of that; who brought the case?
Q Who called up the case? A No, I don't recollect.
Q Do you remember whether that Commission rendered any other decision than that found upon this record in that case? A I never had any knowledge only but one decision.
Q Was that in favore of or against the applicants? A It was in favor of them, I will say this: that if there was another decision other than the one that appears on the docket now before you, I have no recollection of it.
Q The only decision you have any knowledge of was recorded by you in this book as here shown was it not? A That is the only one that I have any knowledge of.
Q Did Red Dawson pay you any money in connection with that case?
A He did not.
Q Did he ever promise to pay you any money for your influence with the court in that case? A Never.
Q Did he pay you any money, either directly or through any other person? A For my influence in that case?
Q Yes, sir? A Never.
Q Did you have any knowledge of his having paid to the Court or to any member of the Court any money for the purpose of influencing their judgment in that case? A None whatever.
Q Did you have opportunity of observing his conduct during that Court at the time? A The only opportunity that I had was during the session of the Commission; I saw but very little of him during the recesses of the Commission, now and then I would see him in passing.
Q Did you see anything in his conduct toward that Court which indicated that he had used undue influence in procuring that judgment. A I never observed anything of the kind; nothing that awakened a suspicion in my mind that he was engaged in that kind of practice.

Q Did Campbell Taylor at any time after the rendition of that case sent pay to you any money as counsel fees or help from said D. Sen for any services which you had rendered to him in that case?

A Yes, he paid me some.

Q What amount? A My recollection is that I think it was a twenty dollar bill. I don't know but I had better go and state the conversation, all about it.

Q Yes, sir. A Mr. Dawson, Bud Dawson, during the trial of the case occasionally applied to me at my office for writing paper, issue of subpoenas or transcript, something of that kind. I always treated him with courtesy and proper official consideration. He seemed to appreciate it, and whenever [illegible] that kind he would say, he, I have no money, Mr. Duncan, but I will pay you. I told him I made a charge [illegible] but that in passing I might state that I never received a cent for any kind of that work which I have done in the line of doing the various services before the Court.

After his trial was concluded, in the afternoon a little while before supper time I went to my hotel, the Kendall Brick Hotel in Ardmore, went to my room, felt a little tired, laid down upon the bed to rest. I recollect Mr. Dawson opened into the room, came and stood by the bedside and sat down and commenced giving me some idea in his qualification of the success of his case, dwelling mostly upon the testimony in the case being so satisfactorily established his Cherokee blood, and that he thought that he was entitled and that he had received justice by the Court. I listened to him, and we talked there I guess some ten or fifteen minutes; after a little he says, I must go to-morrow, I think he says to-morrow, I must go home,- he then lived down in Arkansas somewhere, Says he, Mr. Duncan, I believe I owe you something, and I want to pay you something. Alluding, as I understood, to these little courtesies that I extended to him at my desk. Says I, I make no charges, Mr. Dawson, for services; if I have done you any favor you are welcome. Well, says he, I feel indebted to you, I want to pay you. I says, that makes no difference; I will [illegible] to you. Says he, I have hardly enough money to get home with. He shook my hand, and the last words he says to me, you owe me anything; for your attention to me I thought he had referred to my services at the desk. That is the last I saw of [illegible] though it must have been a year [illegible] I had located [illegible] on the public domain in the Ardmore District, [illegible] what I intended to be a farm, I will see, I didn't make any [illegible] improvements, [illegible] week, went over in the west part of the country to look at [illegible] and I ran across Mr. Dawson, he had come [illegible] located and built him a little shanty and was living [illegible] upon him, he was very glad to see me. I [illegible] stay there; he said he had moved into the country, [illegible] says I, you are encroaching upon me here, he had opened his claim over part of mine, mine had been made [illegible] it was outlawed under Choctaw law. Well, says Mr. Dawson, I don't feel like doing you any wrong, I will pay you for your claim, and we will settle the matter in that way, that he as soon as he got his little matters together that he would and pay me for it. Well we parted at that point. It ran on then for a long time, I don't know how long,- I think I met him in Vinita, and says he, did Cald Taylor pay you any money that I sent to you? Says I, No, I have not seen Cald Taylor.

Well, says he, I gave him some money and told him to send it to you for me, and, says he, you ask him and he will hand it over to you I guess. Well we parted then. Well, went on for some time, some months; I happened to meet Mr. Taylor in Tahlequah; I met him on the street I think, jocularly I slapped my hand on his shoulder, says I, look here, did Mr. Dawson any money to me by you? He says, yes, and he pulled out what I recollect to be a twenty dollar bill, and handed it to me; I received it, and I received it with the idea that he was compensating me for taking my claim, or possibly for having him those little services in the Court. Now that is the sum and substance of the whole thing.

Q Was not that twenty-five dollars, Mr. Duncan? A It might possibly have been, my recollection does not serve me exactly, it might have been 25 dollars.

Q Did Campbell Taylor pay you any other money as coming from Mat Dawson? A Never a cent.

Q Did he on one time pay you fifty dollars out of a hundred dollars which he had received from Mr. Dawson? A Never.

Q Did he on a second occasion pay you fifty dollars out of one hundred dollars which he claimed to have received from Mr. Dawson? A Done it all.

Q He paid you no other money than that you have already stated, from Mr. Dawson? A Not a cent.

BY MR. McKENNON: We offer in evidence the judgment of the Cherokee Citizenship Commission before referred to, and ask that it be filed in evidence in the case of every application made by members of the Mount Dawson family who claim under it, or through Albert Dawson, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, said judgment found on page 114, Records of the Tehee Court, 1880 to 1884, case number 108, judgment dated January 11th, 1883, rendered by Thomas Tehee, President, Alex Wolfe, J. F. Thompson, Commissioners. D. W. C. Duncan, Clerk Commission.

The said judgment just introduced is as follows:

"Office Commission on Citizenship,
Tahlequah, C. N., September 24th, 1881.
No. 108
Matt Dawson,
Albert Dawson,
Jasper Dawson,
John Dawson,
Josephine Dawson,
Joseph Dawson, Petition for Citizenship
Jane Dawson,
Polly Dawson,
Tilbron Dawson,
James Dawson,
Pink Dawson,
vs.
Cherokee Nation.

Continued by the Plaintiff, Oct. 5, 1881.

January 13th, 1882.
The above case continued by the Cherokee Nation till Sept.

term. Agreed by the parties that the above shall not be taken up for final disposition before the 4th day of Oct. 1883,

October 4th, 1882

It is agreed by the parties that this shall be finally disposed of at the next January term if the claimant is present demanding the same, if not, the case shall be continued to the September term, 1883.

On this agreement Commission continues the case till the next January term to-wit, January 1883.

And now this 11th day of January A.D. 1883 this case coming on for final hearing, and all the evidence produced in the case being carefully read and duly considered by the Commission it was adjudged and determined by the Commission on Citizenship that the claimants, Robert Dawson, F. K. Dawson, Elbert Dawson, Jasper Dawson, John Dawson, Josephine Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson, Molly Dawson, Wilbron Dawson, James Dawson, and Rial Dawson, are Cherokees by blood; and that they are entitled to all the rights and privileges of Cherokee Citizenship within the Cherokee Nation, and that they should be, and they are, hereby admitted to the full and complete enjoyment of the same in all respects as native born Cherokees.

Q Do you remember how many members of the Court were present when this judgment was rendered, or were all of them? A My recollection upon that point is not positive, but relying as to my upon what I know to be the practice of the Court at the time, again, the names of all these Commissioners there, I can say with a great deal of positiveness that they were all present, because I never signed the name of one of the Commissioners unless he was present, assenting to it or directing it.

Q The rendition of that judgment was now concurred in by all of the three Judges? A It was.

Q Mr. Duncan, if there had been a decision rendered this day before in this case while the Court was in session, adverse to these Claimants, would you have known it? A I certainly should have known it.

Q Was there any such decision of the Court? A None to my knowledge. I can say positively there was not.

Q How many of these Judges are now living? A Only one.

Q Which? A Mr. Thompson.

Q Tehee and Wolfe are dead? A Tehee and Wolfe are dead.

Q How long have they been dead, do you know? A I do not know, quite a number of years. I wasn't living there, never lived with them when each died or knew, but the death occurred perhaps a long time before I got knowledge of it. It is generally understood that they are dead.

Q ...you remember ... ever seen any other ... of the Bureau ... ally about the Court at that time than Ed Duncan? A I have ... thought, and I can't call to mind that I ever saw any other ... except Ed, until after they move into the county building ... condition of the judgment.

(At this point a party who has been sitting in the room ... in which the examination is being held, is called forward, sworn on behalf of applicants, and asked to retire until ...)

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Mr. Duncan, when did you become a clerk of the Texas Commission Court? A It must have been sometime in December, 1934, at the time the Commission was organized immediately at the close of the Council in which they were appointed.

Q December 1934? A I think so.

Q And are you doing and did you make here in your handwriting ... book? A The Commission held its Court after they were elected ... time.

Q The Court was elected in 1934 wasn't it? A Well, I ... the time, I don't pretend to say when the Court was elected, I ... have most of the time I was ... clerk. I was ... clerk ... the close ... the session of the Legislature until ... year.

Q '35? A I think it was '35.

Q You entered on this judgment rendered January, 1935? A Yes, ... it was the session of the Commission.

Q That was after you were clerk of it? A Well I held ... clerkship for some time you know ... continuously.

Q I will but then you were not ... you were their clerk when the ... or same was passed on? A No, I don't mean to say that.

Q How could you be clerk ... the ... was passed on in ... when you were not elected until 1934? A I am mistaken in ... it, it comes after '35,- it was the preceding book, it must have been '34.

Q Your first entry in the Hudson case is January 17, 1935, isn't it? A I don't recollect what my first entry was. (Attorneys show the record to witness) Yes, that is the entry there on the 17th.

Q And that was shortly after you became clerk wasn't it? A Yes, shortly after I became clerk.

Q Who was it ... entered upon the docket before you became clerk? A I think so, yes; I ... entered it ... previous to me ... the ... of the Commission.

Q In whose handwriting was the names of the three Commissioners ... to that judgment? A Byron Jackson?

(Attorney shows record to witness) A That is my handwriting.

Q All three names? A All three names.

Q The record there shows that you immediately gave them that day ... transcript of the judgment, do you know who signed it? A ... signed the transcript?

Q Yes, sir. A I do not recollect now, who in, did the writing?

Q Signed the names to it? A Yes, that's it.

Q You always signed the names of Texas and Wells Fish't you?

A I think I did pretty generally; I don't know ... their ... writing to write their own names.

Q When Mr. Thompson was there didn't he ... his own name? A Sometimes he did, sometimes he simply authorized me to do it.

Q Have you any recollection of him authorizing you to do it except from the fact ... you have done it on that record frequently?

A I don't mean ... the particular ... of authorization, but I can say positively that, consulting the record, that he authorized me to put his name there.

...will you look at the original document I hereby show you and ...to it the jury and say the signed the names of the ...persons there? A (Papers shown to witness) A I signed ...name.

...recognize that as your handwriting? A I do.

...what made you say you were testifying at Hillsboro before Mr. ..., at least at the ... case, and being cross-... by me, why that is your signature and that the ... I spoke attached was the signature of Mr. Thompson? A ... in this way: I had no ... of the records in the ... a month ago or ... My answer to my question in the court ... about ordinarily the ... way I recollected at that ..., when I gave it my best ... before the Commissioner, ... that that was ... at the time I served ... I had ... of the fellow members of the Commis-..., the ... either ... occasionally signed his ... I ... that ... in that declaration upon ... them- ... that ... in court, I ... compared the ... with ... correct statement ... I ... in the ... way. I ... I answered it ... I ... it occurred. The way it ...

...you answered your explanation of the fact that Thompson ... present and ... a document signed it himself, ... of your own handwriting? A No, I ... it. I simply spoke without advisement when ... in that testimony I ... ly became better informed and ... that that was ... and not entered by me. ... made, ... there ... which he ... to ... it ... and I did it.

... you have ... testimony, because you think you have ... of the ... there now than you had then, ... to ... your handwriting at ... I ... testimony in reference to ... in regard to this ..., this case.

... you ... know then ... I ... you whether or ... it is your handwriting ... it ... refreshed by what you ... to be ... ? A ... I know it by examining ..., even ... I should recognize ... handwriting, ... question should be propounded ... merely without any advisement or premeditation I ... a mistake.

... recognize the names of Thomas Fisher and Alexander Wolfe as ..., in your handwriting at that time? A I was very clear and positive, and so stated, that the names of those Commissioners were in my handwriting, and I was made certain by reflecting on the fact that they never signed their names with their own hand, but always authorized me to do it. I see there is no question in my mind in regard to my handwriting in their signatures.

And then the third name, right under it, as compared with your admitted handwriting, you had to wait and learn the facts afterwards to determine whether that was your signature or not? A No, I don't think that if I had considered the circumstances, I knew that there was a resemblance. What made me of the opinion that that might have been Mr. Thompson's signature was like this: I knew that he had been in the habit of at least sometimes signing his own name, and I was under the impression-and I do not now think I am much deceived- that his ... was ... at least some resemblance to my own, hence I doubted whether I had signed that name or not on that account.

Q You are sure on that at this time in your testimony by the fact that I, I'm sure that that was his signature and not yours, didn't it? A Mr. [illegible] stating that that really endwriting, set it aside to wait to ascertain whether I was not mistaken or not, and after so long a time I could read that I see.

Q And he stated, and you too didn't you, that he always signed the original bill self when he was present? A I do not recollect what I stated, that I used the word "always", at that time, but at the time I was examined when the deposition was taken by [illegible] that he did, but now I am to the fact and my examination of the docket I am convinced that I was wrong, that occasionally I signed for him.

Then you never found out that your testimony given on this time a year and a half ago was wrong until you examined the docket day before yesterday, and discovered you are not Thompson's signature? A I don't know that I have thought of it since that time until yesterday or day before, the examining the docket.

Q So the only recollection that you have got and the only aid to your recollection that Thompson was present when this judgment was rendered was the fact that you see his name signed to it, in your handwriting, is it? A As a fact,-

Q You can answer that yes or no? A That seeing the endwriting already recollection and I would not say that the court rooms were all present at the time that I signed it. I didn't think it was out of court at all.

Q Was it in the forenoon now or in the afternoon? A I don't recollect whether it was in the forenoon or afternoon.

Q In recollecting that they were all present when the record was signed, do you mean to say that they were all present when the judgment was rendered? A Yes, that is, you mean when the question of admission or rejection was voted upon?

A Yes. A They were present.

Q Did you write up the record at the time that they rendered the judgment, or make a memorandum of it, and then write up the judgment some days afterward? A The record was not written up immediately upon the decision of any case, but I wrote up the record after adjournment, generally in the evening, and presented it next day or when the next session was held, for signature: that was the practice.

Q But in this Dawson case you wrote it on the very day that it was rendered didn't you? A I didn't recollect as to that.

Q And gave them a transcript the very day it was rendered?

A I don't recollect as to that.

Q And indicated the giving of the transcript on the bottom of the judgment the day it was rendered? A I should say it was given at the date of the transcript.

Q That was a very unusual thing for you to do in entering up judgments? A To do what?

Q To noteon the bottom that you had given a transcript the same day the judgment was rendered? A No, I don't know that there is anything unusual about that.

Q Any other instance in that record or more than one in any event that you have ever done that? A I don't recollect, and so I don't recollect of giving anybody else a transcript.

Q That is what I am getting at: you gave them a transcript and wrote up your judgment and completing right away? A Pretty promptly after the decision whether it was the same day or the evening, and signed next day, I don't recollect.

IT NOW BEING THE HOUR OF NOON, 12 M., THE COMMISSION ADJOURNS UNTIL HALF PAST ONE P. M.

AFTERNOON, HALF-1:45, P. M.,-AFTERPANCE,-same as in forenoon: U. S. S. MCCALL and Counsel present.
BY MR. HUTCHINS:

Q Do you recollect what witnesses were before the Court? A I don't recollect now distinctly except Dr. Baker, I remember him mainly because of the length of his testimony at the time it took to take it.
Q The Doctor was about the only distinct witness there was? A He is the only one now that I can call to mind.
Q There was probably another old darkey that testified was not there? A I have no recollection to that effect.
Q The case was just decided really on Doctor Baker's testimony, it is about the only man that knew anything about the case? A I am not certain that Dr. Baker was the only witness; might have been others that are now erased by recollection.
Q Doctor Baker's testimony was taken down in writing? A Yes.
Q The only one not anybody else taken down in writing was there? A All the testimony that was accepted in the case was taken down in writing.
Q Did you ever see anybody's else testimony in writing except Dr. Baker in that case? A That is not as I recollect, I can't recollect any other but Dr. Baker's.
Q You know whether that was taken immediately before the trial or at the trial or how was it? A It was taken in the presence of the three Commissioners during the session of the Court.
Q You mean the day that the case was decided or how? A I do not recollect whether the case was on trial more than one day, but my impression is but one day.
Q Do you know whether it was the same term of the Court or not? A I think it was the same term of the Court.
Q How many terms a year did that Court have, when and how did they last? A I don't recollect of but serving but one term.
Q Don't recollect the serving but one term? A Myself, it seems to me so.
Q You didn't go on until January of 1883 did you; your first record is a record of about the 15th of January 1883, as shown by the book, isn't it? A I don't recollect in that regard.
Q Now would they take testimony in the case, then continue it, or how could they generally do about that? A I think they decided on the case at the term in which they took testimony.
Q Can you say whether or not this testimony was taken in this case at the time it was decided or at the same term it was decided, or within a week or two of the time it was decided? A My best recollection is that it was taken at the term in which it was decided; case was taken up, testimony heard that the decision was made at the conclusion of the testimony.
Q Well now, I see on October 4th, 1882, in your handwriting, the following entry reads: "It is agreed by the parties that this case is only be heard at the next January Term," To it would be January, 1883, "If the plaintiff is present during the sale, if not, the case will be continued to the Second Term, 1883; or this may be entered from continuing the case till the next January Term, 1883." Do you I should like if you had a January and September ter ; and this decision was rendered at the January, 1943 term . Was Baker's testimony taken during the January, 1943, term, at the time the decision was rendered? A I find it impossible for me to recollect those facts that are recorded there; although I can say about that, that the record shows the correct statement of the facts. But I won't recall those facts.

Q Well there is a record here that this case was continued on the 16th day of January, 1943, upon agreement that it should be taken upon the 4th day of October, 1943. Your record shows that there was nothing done in the case from January 16th, 1943 until October 4th, 1943: would you say that was correct? A I would say it was correct if it so stands on the book. It is designed to be a correct entry of the facts.

Q I will let you see the book for yourself: I don't want to misrepresent your self at all. (Shows entry in book to witness.)

A I can't recall those facts in regard to the agreement.

Q Who took down in testimony of the witnesses in court? A I took it down.

Q You took down the testimony of Dr. Baker? A Yes.

Q He was cross examined by counsel for the Nation? A As to that I don't recollect. He was present, but was always present; I think likely he was cross examined.

Q And that testimony was taken near the time when the judgment was rendered in January, 1943? A I think it was, my impression is to that effect.

Q Well the court seems to have had no session as to this case from January 16, 1943 up to October 4th, 1943, according to the record? A (No response.)

Q You don't recall taking down anybody's else testimony in the case? A No sir, I don't.

Q And the probability is that he was the only witness examined isn't it? A It might have been so. My recollection is that he was regarded as the main witness of the case.

Q He was quite an old man, about 73 at that time? A Yes, he was quite old.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q The testimony of Dr. Arthur Baker, from this record, appears to have been taken January 16th, 1943; is that correct as far as you may know, or are able to state? A Is that Dr. Baker's testimony? (Attorney here shows witness papers) A It appears to be, yes; I don't think that was the testimony that the case was decided upon, because his testimony was taken orally before the Commissioner, and I wrote it down: please let me see it. (Attorney hands said papers to witness.)

A Well, all I know about this is as I stated before, I can't recall those facts, but whatever the record says why I say that the record was made correct, according to the fact. (Witness takes copy of the testimony referred to to refresh his memory.) I don't understand in reading that very clearly to my own understanding, but I gather from the subject matter in that testimony that it is in accord with Doctor Baker's statement; in exactly word for word I am not able to say, but that is the tenor of the testimony.

BY MR. MITCHELL:

Q I. think the testimony you undertook to put down all the material facts that you could in typing it I believe? A Yes, very nearly word for word, as I could take it, sometimes there was a little variation made necessary by the length of the witness' statement.

BY MR. McKENNON: Applicants object to all of the witness' testimony relating to the method of taking the testimony of witnesses at the trial, the character and effect of that testimony, and the number of witnesses, except so far as the same may be used for the purpose of testing the memory of the witness, because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

Q And has for a number of years? A Well now I say I think he does; I have always so understood.
Q Don't keep up with all your members? A No, but he has attended church there and my impression was been that he is a member of the church.
Q You didn't have any business before the Citizenship Court of which he was clerk, did you? A No, sir, not that I know of.
Q You was not at Tahlequah while he was clerk of a Court from 1902 to '3? A I don't believe I was.
Q Never had any business before that Court? A Had no business before them, not while he was Clerk to my knowledge.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q You spoke of his membership in the church; he is in good standing as a member of the church is he? A Yes, sir.
Q I will ask you if Campbell Taylor's reputation isn't notoriously bad? A Yes, I have so understood it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q I will ask you if it was notoriously bad in 1902, when these people employed him to represent them before the Court? A That was before my knowledge of him.

Q [illegible] reputation dates back as far as you [illegible] as long as I know him.

C. W. [illegible] sworn on his oath, examined, testified as follows:

Q Was his character such as to preclude any such charge against him? A It was, yes sir.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How long did you know Dr. Baker? A Two years.

Q What does he do there? A He was an old gentleman then, he lived right in the edge of Berryville, Dr. Baker.

Q How old do you think he was then? A I think he must have been 70 or 75 years old; an old gentleman.

Q That was in '66 what, 60? A No sir, it was in '68 and '69, the two years that I lived over there.

Q He had retired from business? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he have any family? A Yes, sir.

Q What family did he have? A I don't know how much family he had, I was not acquainted with the old gentleman.

Q He wasn't doing any business with anybody? A No sir.

Q And his character was never called in question one way or the other was it? A No sir, no sir.

Q Campbell Taylor was a notorious rascal pretty much ever since you ever knew him wasn't he? A Yes sir, I never knew much good of him.

Q And whenever a man got bad citizenship case he got Campbell to work it, because he was notoriously a rascal; that's it plain to all a great many of them got it.

Q It was a notorious thing that they had a bad case they would get him, it would sort of give a case a bad odor to have Campbell around it? A Yes, that would be right.

Q You never knew anything about Mr. Bowman's connection with citizenship matters? A No sir, never did.

Q You never heard about his examining some of the records of citizenship cases? A No sir, never did.

Q You have heard lots of talk about this Dawson case? A Yes sir.

Q Rumor has it all around that somebody was doing something wrong? A Yes sir.

Q You never accused him of it you think? A I never heard him accused of it, no sir.

Q That rumor got out from the first day they were entitled right to the present? A Well I don't know not from the first day, I have heard it for a good while though.

Q But you never knew who they fixed it on? A No sir.

Q They have been a pretty strong family up there in that country haven't they, pretty large family? A Yes sir.

Q Cast a good many votes up there? A Yes sir.

Q Did you ever know of the Doctor's testifying any in court, Mr. Baker? A No sir, I never did.

Q What would you think of a man who would testify that a lady had a child that was single in 1883 when the youngest of the seven children was born in 1883: what would you think, would you think that was a statement to be made by a man who was truthful? A -

BY MR. McKINNON: Applicants object to the question because it is wholly incompetent, and not based upon any proof or admitted facts in the case, and it is wholly immaterial and incompetent.

Do you think that was a statement that would be made by a truthful man? A (no response.)

Q You knew him in '98? A Yes sir.

Q He was quite an old, decrepit man? A Yes sir, quite old, in '98 and '99.

Q 14 years from that time he was liable to be in his dotage?
A I don't know, he was an old man when I knew him.
Q He was too old to work, and retired from business then? A Well he did work a good deal, but wasn't doing any business particular that I knew of.
Q He would have been pretty old 14 years from that time? A Yes, he would be getting old.

D. K. HARRIS, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:

Q How long have you known him? A Why 15 years or longer.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and honesty in the community? A His general reputation, yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Well it is not good.
Q Is it bad? A Well I suppose it must be bad then.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How long has Campbell's reputation been bad, Mr. Harris, quite a good while, hasn't it? A Why I think so, yes sir.
Q And it kind of began mostly with this citizenship business?
A Yes, so far as I know it did, yes sir.
Q Campbell got so many bad citizenship cases sent through the mails, and they finally had him up about it, had a good deal of stir about it? A Yes sir.
Q And some of that stir was sort of occasioned by his helping the Dawsons in wasn't it? A I don't know, I don't know whether he helped the Dawsons.
Q Was not that one of the principal cases that brought him into notoriety? A I don't know whether he had that case or not; I know he had a great many cases.
Q That was the principal thing that convinced the Mail Campbell out, the citizenship cases here? A I think that is what got him into the most trouble.
Q I say before that time nobody had talked much about Campbell, one way or another, and it became a matter of general that Campbell was handling citizenship cases, and he got a bad reputation from that? A Yes sir, I think that is where Campbell got his, Campbell's connection with the Dawson cases sent him, kept Campbell mostly now I think much about it? A I never have anything about it, one time or.
Q You never heard that there was a conspiracy case, down the Grand River, that was a notorious thing? A Oh it is a notorious case, yes sir.
Q Tell the fact of Mr. Dawson's reputation for truthfulness was also concerned in that suit. Was connected in, practically? A Yes sir. What?

Q His reputation for straightness is somewhat given by himself; he takes occasion to confess that very often himself; doesn't he?
A I don't know whether I am qualified to answer that.
Q Speaking of his own honesty, he does that very frequently?
A No sir, not that I know of.
Q Doesn't he write a good deal about that sort of thing? A About his reputation?
Q Why in speaking of his own integrity? A I don't remember that he does.
Q You were not about the citizenship courts along in 1881 '2 and '3 were you? A No sir.
Q Don't remember about the talk that was going on around the Capitol over there about the citizenship cases? A Why no, don't remember anything special as I know of. I remember the citizenship court going on at different times.
Q How far were you living from Tahlequah in '8? A Well, I lived close to Vinita, I guess it is sixty miles probably.
Q Have your lived any nearer Tahlequah since that time? A No sir, never have.

Q How long? A I was there four years, sir.
Q Do you know D. F. C. Duncan? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A I have known Mr. Duncan 21 years.
Q Do you know his general reputation for honesty and truthfulness of character? A I do.
Q Is that good or bad? A Good, so far as I know.
Q You have had opportunity of knowing? A Yes sir.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q Mr. Duncan was a member of your church? A Yes sir.
Q That is the principal way you had of coming in contact with him? A Yes sir, he was a member of my official board.
Q His connection with citizenship cases that were decided by the court of which he was clerk was never brought up in your presence anywhere? A No sir.
Q Or never discussed? A No sir, I know nothing about his connection with it.
Q You didn't live about or near Tahlequah in '8? A Yes sir, I was Pastor of the Methodist Church in '8 at Tahlequah.
Q Did you hear about the Dawson case, and other cases admitted over there by the Citizenship Court? A No sir, I know nothing about the cases; I remember when the Commission was in session, and remember that he was clerk of the Commission, but knew nothing about the cases that were decided at all.
Q Never heard anybody discuss the cases that were decided? A No sir.

THOMAS A. CHANDLER, being first duly sworn by Bob, examined, testified as follows:

Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I think about 15 years.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and honesty? A Yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Good so far as I know.

BY MR. WHITEHORN:

Q How did Campbell Taylor get a bad reputation? A As I sir, I don't know how he did.
Q You never knew him until 1885? A Well I never knew him personally, I heard of him before that.
Q He had a bad reputation before '85? A Yes sir.
Q Bad reputation way back yonder? A First I remember I ever heard of him I heard people speaking bad of him, when I was a kid.
Q And everybody that ever spoke about the matter and knew anything at all knew Campbell had a bad reputation? A Yes sir, ever so far back as '79 or '80, that is as far back as I can remember; I think I heard it spoken of in '80, I think that's about the time.
Q And Campbell got a very bad reputation in '80 and '81 when we began to have these citizenship cases? A Yes sir.
Q You heard it spoken of in morality and using the mails for those business? A Yes sir, I heard of him being in the Fort Smith Jail on that account.
Q Citizens of the Nation talked a good deal about Campbell's being in those bad citizenship cases? A Yes sir.
And I also heard he had a bad reputation for using his debts, also about the same time.
Q You don't know, but as a matter of fact, he might not have had the right to use his debts? A No sir.
Q He could have been out of bad citizenship cases? A Yes sir, I suppose he could.
Q You never heard Mr. Duncan's name mentioned before in connection with the Bowers case, citizenship cases? A No sir, I don't think I have, I may have, but I don't remember hearing it.
Q General impression that somebody had done something wrong with that matter, citizenship cases? A I heard some one say something about it in connection with the Bowers citizenship case.
Q You have been in Muskogee ever since they have sat? A Yes sir, I have been in Muskogee ever since they have sat.
Q In a matter of so many days, with so many witnesses as there were in the Bowers case, you never heard anything about Mr. Lucas? A I never investigated, I don't know whether it was ever investigated, I never heard of it.

Q So they never made any endeavor to find out who the man was?
A No sir.
Q Where did you live in '87? A In '87 I lived out on Duck Creek about 12 miles south-east of Viola.
Q How far from Tuckerman was that? A About 65 or 70 miles, I suppose.
Q You never were around before the Chancery Court during that time? A No sir.
Q You don't know whether or not Campbell had sent out the bad checks or not do you? A No sir, I do not, at that time.

BY MR. McKENNON: Applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness as same is heard by way of rumor, about the character of the person cited, because the same is hearsay, immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

A. S. McKENNON, of Counsel for Applicants, being first duly sworn, makes the following statement:

I became a resident of Carroll County, Arkansas, early in 1870. I was intimately acquainted with Doctor Arthur Baker, for many years. Knew him as well as I did anyone else. He was a gentleman of the highest Christian character, so recognized by everybody who knew him. He was a sober man, and never drank liquor. I make this statement more in vindication of that good man's memory than for any other reason, because any imputation against his character is false.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long did you know him? A I resided in Carroll County until 1887 when I removed to Johnson County, Arkansas; during the year I was away from home, but I knew him intimately every year that I resided in Carroll County.
Q Did you know him since '87? A Yes sir, I have seen him several times. I have relatives living in the town in which he lived; my relations to him were such as to cause me always to inquire about Doctor Baker; I knew his reputation I think as well after I left there as I did when I lived there.
Q Did you know those facts in 1899 when you were a member of this Commission? A Yes sir, I have known them all my life; do I know them now.
Q Did you know them when you as a member of this Commission passed on the Irene J. House case? A I knew it every day of my life, in 1899 as well as now.
Q So you say that Doctor Arthur Baker's statement should prove that he was born in the year 1809, and suppose he said when he was 15 or 16 years of age that Anna Priest the wife of Samuel Dawson, was a grown up girl going to school, when the other undisputed evidence shows that she had married Sam Dawson prior to that time and had seven children, the youngest of whom was born in '37, how would you harmonize that with a man who was an honest man and knew the facts in the case? A Whatever Dr. Baker stated he honestly believed, whether it was right or wrong; whether it was error or truth, he honestly believed it, and stated it as he believed it.
Q He was capable of being in error? A Every man is.
Q I say he was? A Yes sir, just as you and I and every man, he was. I don't stand as to his high character, which could be proved, by every man who knew him I think, I know it.
Q The Commission rejected Irene J. House in 1899, of which you were a member? A I don't remember anything about that personally.

TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF CHEROKEE NATION.

DAVID MEREDITH, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A David Meredith.
Q Where do you reside? A Vinita.
Q How old are you? A 60 years old.
Q Did you ever know James Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I knew him probably 2 years.
Q Did you ever have any talk with him about his citizenship case.
A Very little.
Q You were at one time an applicant before the Dawes Commission for citizenship were you not? A Yes sir.
Q Well what did Mr. Dawson tell you with reference to his citizenship, as to the cost of his getting it, if anything? A Well he told me it cost him eleven or twelve hundred dollars to get his case through.
Q Where did that conversation take place? A At Afton.
Q At what time? A It was in '98, spring of '99.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Where were you when he told you that? A I was working on a house in Afton, building the house.
Q Whose house? A S. S. Haines.
Q Who else was present? A Haines was present.
Q Where is he? A At Afton.
Q What aged man was Mr. Dawson at that time? A I don't know, he was very old, probably 75 years old.
Q Was he not a very feeble man? A Yes sir.
Q Hardly able to get around? A No sir.
Q Was he not then regarded as feeble minded old man? A I don't know whether he was so regarded or not.
Q You don't know what he had to do with the case, in fact, himself, do you? A No, I judged it was himself and family that cost that much to get through; attorney's fees, etc. That is the way I took it anyway.
Q You were an applicant yourself were you not? A Yes sir.
Q When? A At that time.
Q Before the Cherokee authorities? A Yes sir.
Q They rejected you? A Yes sir.
Q You were an applicant then before the Dawes Commission were you?
A Yes sir, been rejected ever since.
Q Are you still an applicant? A Yes sir.
Q Still trying to get in? A Yes sir.
Q Claiming by blood? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation? A 15 years.
Q Where did you come from? A Indiana.
Q Claiming to be a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
Q Indian? A Yes sir.
Q James Dawson is dead is he? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A I think he died probably within two years After that.

TESTIMONY TAKEN ON BEHALF OF THE APPLICANTS.

F. M. DAWSON, being re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

F. M. Dawson? A Yes sir.

Q Mr. Dawson, what number of your family came to the Cherokee Nation to file and who acted the claim of your father, Robert Dawson, and the members of his family, to Cherokee citizenship?
A My brother Tom Dawson and Tom Lennox.
Q Tell his name? A Elbert Dawson, they all know him by Buck.
Q When was that? A In '81 as well as I remember, or '82, I don't know which, it was in '81 or '82.
Q Did you file your claim at that time? A My brother did, yes, the application,—my mother had Joel Bryan to make it out and file it. That is my understanding.
Q Joel Bryan, who afterwards was Chief of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Before what court was that filed? A My understanding was he was clerk of the court; Hastings can tell me what court he was clerk of.
Q He was clerk of the Court at that time? A Yes sir, of the citizenship court; that's my understanding.
Q What was done about the case at that time, if you remember? A I went back home and left my brother down there at that time, that trip.
Q Where did you then live? A I lived at Berryville, Arkansas.
Q When did you next come to the Cherokee Nation? A I believe I came back the next January, that was in September.
Q Was your brother Buck here then? A I don't think he was, I don't remember.
Q Well had he at any time of the Court or session of the Commission at any time after you first came here and filed the application until after it was decided? A No sir, I never met him any more until that case was decided.
Q You conducted the business then after that did you not? A Yes sir.
Q The case was finally determined in January 1883? A '84, yes sir, the 11th day as I remember.
Q Were you present at that session? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any decision of that case other than the one of record here? A I never heard of it if there was.
Q Was the judgment rendered in that case as recorded in the record Book of that Commission now in the custody of the Dawes Commission the only judgment that was rendered in that case so far as you know?
A Yes sir, so far as I know, if there was any I never heard of it in that case.
Q You then know of no decision against you in the case? A No sir.
Q Who was your attorney employed at the beginning? A I employed A. E. Norwood.
Q Was he a Cherokee Citizen? A Yes sir, I think so.
Q Where did he live? A At Claremore, my understanding.
Q Was he present at any time before the Commission? A I never saw him, he never met me there before the Commission.
Q Did you pay him any money? A Yes sir.
Q How much? A Fifty dollars.
Q Did he ever render any services? A If he ever did I never knew it.
Q Well then who did you employ? A My brother employed Joel Bryant.
Q Was he a Cherokee citizen?
A That is my understanding.
Q Was he not a prominent Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
Q What service did he render? A Well sir, I don't know whether he rendered any or not, only he met us a time or two at Tahlequah, and he was before the Commission; whether he rendered any services or not I don't know; he was generally always at Washington City during the term down there.

Q Well what did he do about it? A I don't know, I couldn't say whether he done anything about it. That is Mr. Bryant, he was always gone.
Q What next was done about the employment of an attorney? A Why I got a letter from Joel Bryant that he was going to Washington City and for me to come down in January Term and Campbell Taylor would rise to my duty before the court.
Q Did he say that he had engaged the services of Campbell Taylor the attorney, to attend to it in his absence? A Yes sir, in his absence.
Q Have you got that letter? A I don't think I got the letter.
Q Well what did you do then? A Why when the time come I come down on the way to Muskogee here and I goes over from here to Fort Gibson and I goes down to see Uncle Houston Benge and stayed all night with him; it was very cold weather, and I got him to go over and submit my case to the court; I went over one day and the next day Uncle Houston Benge come over and the next, coming after he come over the case was submitted.
Q Did he submit the case? A Yes sir, he told me so.
Q For you? A Yes sir.
Q Were you present? A I was present until they went to take the vote on the case and then we was drove out of their room and they had a secret session, acting on the case.
Q Did Houston Benge present with you? A Yes sir.
Q Were you in the court when he submitted it to them? A Yes sir, when he made his argument.
Q He made an argument before the Commission? A Yes sir.
Q Was the decision rendered on that day? A Yes sir.
Q How long after he made his argument and submitted the case? A It was not but a little bit; when we were drove out of the house the first time before they went into secret session they called us to set up the cigars to the court and we crowd in the house; after the decision was rendered I am to set up the cigars, and everybody come to me and told me to go and get the cigars and I done so.
Q And you took the cigars there and all? A Yes sir, everybody, the attorneys and all that was in the house, all had a big smoke.
Q Did they then announce their finding in the case? A Yes sir, they told me that I was granted by citizenship right and by the Commission.
Q What did you do about it then? A Why the Clerk wrote me out my certificate.
Q That same day? A That same day.
Q What arrangements did you make with Mr. Benge about his fee, and what was the amount of his fee? A There was no arrangements made until we got up there and he submitted our case; then he wanted me to pay, he charged me fifty dollars, that was his fee.
Q What was the agreement about the matter, the manner in which that fee should be paid? A My brother in Texas was to pay it.
Q Were you to write or was he to write? A I was to write for it.
Q Did your brother in Texas ever pay his fee of fifty dollars? A Yes sir.
Q For that and that was to be paid? A All he was to have was his charges.
Q You heard his write out when he gave his decision at Fort Gibson the other day did you not? A Yes sir.

Q [illegible] A No sir.
Q [illegible] A I never did in my life.
Q [illegible] A I went by Spring Dale.
Q By Pinkerton? A I went by Silver Springs and by Spring Dale and from to Pocasse, that the railroad is now and went on by Selina and by Pinkerton here.
Q You then did not return to Fort Gibson with James Pogue, as he states? A No sir, I did not.
Q How did you get to return to Fort Gibson? A Well I came at night the others and the stage at noon and struck a back going out by Sapulpa then I was behind, so I could go to Silver Springs and I went by that route and then there was a back going by Spring Dale, that was the most direct route.
Q That was the most direct route for your home was it not? A Yes sir.
Q And the shortest? A And the shortest route.
Q And you been coming back to Fort Gibson you would have been going directly away from home would you not? A Yes sir.
Q Your home was nearly east, due east of Tullequah was it not? A Yes sir, little north of east, pretty near due east.
Q While Fort Gibson is about due west is it not? A South west.
Q You heard Mr Steele say that you came to Fort Gibson with him, and if you had been stated to him that it was to reach the court was trying to bribe and you resented it. Then he gave you five hundred dollars, did you have that state of? A I never did, I didn't have the five hundred dollars to resent him.
Q Did he tell at Tullequah in the court room on the evening before this judgment was rendered in your favor, tell you that the court had rendered a judgment against you? A No sir.
Q And did you then say to him, you can fix that? A I had no such conversation with him.
Q Did you pay to D. W. C. Duncan, who was the Clerk of the Court any sum of money, or agree to pay him any sum of money, directly or through any other person for any services he might render you by way of influencing the court to decide it your favor? A No sir.
Q Or for any other purpose? A No sir.
Q Did you pay him any money after that through Campbell Taylor?
A Yes sir.
Q What amount? A 20 or 25 Dollars, I don't know which it was.
Q State what that money was paid for? A For a claim.
Q What do you mean by a claim? A Claim on the public domain; he had a claim up there close to me; paid him 20 or 25 dollars for his claim; he had no claim by me, on the Cherokee Public Domain.
Q What did Campbell Taylor have to do with your case?
A He had nothing to do with it.
Q Did you agree to pay him any money for his services as an attorney? A No sir.
Q Did he perform any services in that case for you as a representative of Mr. Bryant? A No sir.
Q Did you pay him any money? A Yes sir.
Q On that account? A No sir, I owed him a big account against me for Joel Bryant and wanted me to pay him the money and I done so.
Q What amount? A Hundred dollars.

POOR ORIGINAL
BEST AVAILABLE

Q [illegible] A [illegible] Joel Bryant. He was no relation to Joel Bryant.
Q Did you pay that money to Joel Bryant, or to whom? A Joel Bryant claimed he didn't, but we had to pay it again, paid Joel Bryant the hundred dollars we owed it to him; R. Bryan paid Joel Bryant; after that; we have to get that money from Campbell Taylor, only this twenty dollars or twenty-five dollars; and in all we owed you and from him.
Q How did you get that 25 dollars out of it from Duncan? A I kept after him and telling him to pay that money back to me, he rendered no services to me at all and the money was to go to Joel Bryant, and I finally worked out the twenty or twenty-five dollars, that is all I ever did get back.
Q The amount that he paid to Duncan? A Yes sir.
Q Was this money paid to him, this one hundred dollars, all in one lump sum at the time the jury went out, or was it paid to him afterwards? A I think it was paid then, as well as I remember about it.
Q You think it was paid to him? A Yes sir, that's my recollection now.
Q Did you send him one hundred dollars after you got back there, subsequent to the rendering of that jury out, after it was rendered? I mean, directly after you got fifty dollars of that on account sent to D. F. C. Duncan? A No sir.
Q Did you send him a second one hundred dollars in that direction? A No sir.
Q Mr. Bryan, are you [illegible] family [illegible] will be obtained by the citizens which is the cause of Nation under this judgment? A Practically so, if I do.
Q Well about what are? A About five hundred dollars, twenty hundred 500 dollars. That is what I considered, I was beat out of some of my money, what I was beat out of and expenses.
Q Now, make a statement of what that money was paid for and how, so far as you remember, itemize it now? Well the first fifty dollars Barwood got: the next fifty dollars Joe got; that was the attorneys fees; I speak of the attorneys fees now: the next money was the hundred that Campbell Taylor got; the next attorney fees was Bryant's one hundred dollars.
Q Was that all the attorney's fees? A I think it was, no, wait, I paid Ross 15 dollars for taking Baker's deposition.

Q Which Ross was that? A The old Chief, Will Ross I think was his name, William P. Ross.
Q He then, with Chief William P, Ross for taking the deposition of Dr. Baker charged you fifteen dollars? A Yes sir.
Q Do you recall that that he acted as your attorney and examined it? A Yes sir.
He examined it before the Commission, I mean statements.
Q What other attorneys were there present? A None of them was present.
Q Well now, go on. A For the expenses of taking Dr. Baker and being a Doctor, we call it was here he charged 5 dollars a day and I was sick and his expenses down there; we come through Abbeville, Anderson, to Columbia, and our expenses around I think was about 75 dollars to that time; as well as I can recall it. Maybe a little over that.
Q Did you pay him a per diem? A I paid him five dollars a day for his time and then his expenses.

Q Well? A Well I made several trips out here at different times, to Tahlequah before the Commission, and back, three or four trips as well as I remember now, cost me 20 or 25 dollars each trip, as I remember about it.
Q Do you remember how many trips aside from the one in which you brought Dr. Baker? A No, I think there was probably three trips I think it was, maybe more, and then I made one trip to Claremore to see A. H. Norwood.
Q What did that trip cost you? A I don't remember what it cost; I went in a wagon down there.
Q You went through and employed Benge, went by railroad; what did that trip cost you? A I don't remember what it was, whether it was 21 dollars or 31 dollars, one or the other, I don't remember which it was; Joe Dawson, my brother gave me the money, it was either 21 or 31 dollars.
Q Now then is there any other expense that you know of that was paid by you or your family, any members of your family, other than that you have mentioned? A I don't remember any other now; I can't call to my memory right now.
Q What was the condition of the members of your family generally now, financially, at that time? A Well we were considered poor people; I don't know, we didn't have much money, scarcely any.
Q Was there any one of them that was better off than the others, and if so, which one? A I suppose Elbert Dawson was better off than the others, Buck Dawson.
Q Do you know how much Buck Dawson paid of these expenses? A I don't think he paid, he paid the Benge debt and the Bryant debt, I think it was.
Q That is one hundred and fifty dollars? A Yes sir, then he came up on one trip and taken some evidence with Joel Bryant when Joel Bryant was Clerk of the Court before this Tahlee Court, I don't know what that cost sir.
Q Came up here and took some testimony? A Yes, came up and went back to Texas, filed his claim and took some testimony and went back to Texas and I didn't see him.
Q Did that testimony include Dr. Baker's testimony? A No sir.
Q You know how many witnesses were examined then? A I only know what he told me.
Q How many? A Four witnesses.
Q You know whether they were residence of the Cherokee Nation or not? A He told me they was.
Q Were you present on that trip in which he came there and took that testimony? A No, I met him there and then I went back home and left him at Tahlequah.
Q He had taken the testimony before you left him or afterwards? A He taken it afterwards; that was my understanding.
Q Did Buck furnish only the one hundred fifty dollars that you now remember? A I think it was.
Q And the expense of taking these witnesses up there A Yes sir.
Q Who else furnished money now of the members of your family? A My brothers and father lived down in Sperryville, me and my brother-in-law, Blassingame, we all chipped in together a few dollars from each family.
Q You heard the statement of C. C. Brought that in June 1932 you told him that it had cost you 700 dollars, did you make any such statement to him? A I never did.
Q And that you paid one witness 300 dollars? A I never made any such statement.

Q Did you pay any witness any such sum? A No sir, I paid Dr. Brown for his time; he said his time was worth 5 dollars a day, he did, and I paid it.
Q Did you pay any other witness any more than that? A No sir, he was the only witness I had on down there in my case.
Q Well the Robert Dawson case? A Yes sir.
Q Now state that you told him this in your house there on your place, did you have any house there in June 1883? A I was not living on my farm at that time.
Q Did you have any farm? A Didn't have any.
Q Then did you build a house there? A I built a house on the farm I live in now by Mr. Brought. I moved on the farm the last of July, 1883, and I camped in my wagon.
Q What did you do? A I went to the timber and cut poles and hewed them out and made me a log cabin on the place by a spring owned by Brought.
Q About what time did you finish that house? A I was in ...
Q How soon after you finished that house until you brought your family out? A I finished it up and got it covered and the floor in it and I went back to Eureka Springs after my wife.
Q How family did you have then? A I had my wife and she had one child; but my oldest children, by my first wife were with me in the Territory, camping with me; three little boys and one girl were with me, and one girl back in Arkansas.
Q Are you and C. G. Brought on good terms? A No sir.
Q What has been the character of the trouble between you? A Trouble over our places first started it.
Q When did it begin? A As soon as I got back from Arkansas he commenced hinder crowding me out to take my farm away from me, and we have been in a racket ever since.
Q Then his statement that you were on friendly terms, is it correct or not? A No sir, it ain't correct.
Q He and you have never been friendly as neighbors then since you first came back from Arkansas and settled in the Territory? A I don't remember ever being in his house; I never was in his house.
Q Have you had law suits with each other? A Yes sir.
Q How many? A I don't know that we had any particular law suits, but I have had law suits and he has been a witness against me.
Q That was your last trouble with him, when I mean? A Along last fall.
Q That was when your boys had a little racket and he had your boy arrested? A Yes sir.
Q What was the age of those boys? A Eleven years old.
Q He had him arrested down at Vinita? A Yes sir, had him arrested and carried before the Commissioner at Vinita.
Q He was discharged on account of his age? A Yes sir.
Q Buck Dawson is dead is he? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A Three years, little over three years.
Q And James Dawson is dead? A Yes sir.
Q Is your father, Robert Dawson living? A No sir.
Q When did James Dawson die? A I don't remember, been dead several years, I don't remember how long, 6 or 7 years, I couldn't state.
Q When did your father, Robert Dawson die? A I believe it was in '87 as I remember now, I wont be positive.
Q Had all these moved to the Cherokee Nation before their death?
A No sir, father died in Arkansas.

Q Those that lived here in the Nation they lived here in the Nation but went back to Arkansas and died there? A Well the rest of my folks all lived here. That was James Dawson and Buck Dawson.
Q Robert Dawson, your father, never did move to the Territory, did he? A No.
Q Did you hear the statement of the witness Beavert this morning, that about the time of hearing of the James Dawson case, at a negro church at night James Dawson came down there with someone else & was introduced to him, and he loaned him ten dollars; did you hear that statement this morning? A I heard the statement, yes sir, I heard it.
Q He says that then James Dawson was 35 or 40 years old; was there any James Dawson living below in to your family at that time of any such age? A No sir.
Q How many James Dawson's were there belonging to your family? A There was my uncle James Dawson and a brother James Dawson, the Doctor here.
Q How old was your brother James Dawson then? A He was a tolerable old man, I don't know his age.
Q About what age? A I must have been 60.
Q Between 60 and 70? A Yes sir.
Q What was the age of your brother James? A At that time?
Q Yes sir, in '84? A In '84 I suppose he was about 12, somelike that.
Q Had he anything to do with the James Dawson case? A No sir.
Q Was he present at the time that the James Dawson case was under consideration? A No sir.
Q Was James Dawson, your uncle, James Dawson, present at any time during the consideration of his case? A No sir.
Q He never was present? A No sir, if Uncle Jim Dawson was ever in Tahlequah I never knew it.
Q Who conducted the prosecution of the James Dawson case before the Cherokee Citizenship Commission, who conducted it? A The James Dawson case?
Q Yes sir? A I think James Low and Bill Jackson and Campbell Taylor.
Q Were you acting with them? A Yes sir.
Q They employed Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q Then there was no James Dawson present during that session of the Commission? A No sir.
Q What was the condition of James Dawson's health at that time? A It was pretty poorly; was not good.
Q Was he at that time able to get about and attend to business? A I don't think he was.
Q Was he not a very feeble minded old man at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Regarded as rather a silly man was he not? A Yes sir.
Q Did he attend to any kind of business of the family at that time? A No sir, didn't.
Q What was his financial condition? A Pretty bad.
Q Did he have any money? A No sir.
Q Did he have any property? A None hardly at all; horse probably, or a cow or two, something that way.
Q Was that about all the property he had? A Yes sir.
Q Now about the other members of his family that were initiated at that time; what was their financial condition? A They were in poor circumstances.
Q Now then after these judgments were rendered what, where did your family removed to the Territory, Cherokee Nation, I will say? A Robert Dawson and family and James Dawson and family, that is, the and their children.

Q Robert D[illegible] didn't remove here? A No, I said except Robert Dawson.
Q Did all the members of Robert Dawson family move here? A Yes sir.
Q Except himself? A Yes sir.
Q And all the members of James Dawson family? A No, not all the members, Melvina Low I don't think ever lived here.
Q She has never moved here? A No sir.
Q Were all the members of your family, your father's family included in that judgment of the Committee, rendered January 11th, 1894? A All but one.
Q What was the name of that one? A Edna.
Q A daughter? A Daughter of Robert Dawson.
Q A minor? A Yes sir.
Q Was she then of age or was she a minor? A I think she was a minor, as well as I can remember.
Q Was she afterwards admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A She was.
Q By commission of the Cherokee Council? A She was first admitted by the Keetoowah Court, her and two of her neices.
Q What are their names? A Katie Vernon and Verna Fishback.
Q What became of that? A The certificate papers they got was lost, and they went before the Council in 1894 and they was readmitted each by the act of Council.
Q That was in 1894, the Cherokee Council admitted, re-admitted as it was called it, the three above named? A Yes sir. Mary and Verna Fishback and Katie Vernon, they have now the same name as Katie Vernon, I is not. Bob Robinson married the widow, Katie Vernon.
Q Now then is there any other consideration of the Dawson case by the Cherokee authorities at any time aside from these two cases in '87 and '94 admitting the two families of Robert and James Dawson, and the act of Council of '94 admitting these three [illegible] you have just named? A Yes sir.
Q Which? A My two of my sons was placed on the roll by the act of Council in 1893 I think it was; left off of the rolls in per capita payments and they was placed on the rolls I think, the Sa[illegible] Council, on their draft or checks for the money. Have you got that copy of the act of Council admitting them? A Yes sir.
Q Where is it? A (Produces papers.)

MR. [illegible]: We offer in evidence an act of the Cherokee National Council making an appropriation of $6,[illegible] dollars belonging to the general fund for the payment of certain persons therein named a per capita payment, as per amount set opposite their respective names, provided that the Principal Chief shall draw warrants for such amounts, and further provided "That the names of the persons appearing on the per capita rolls in this act shall be placed (on) the authenticated roll of 1880 by the Principal Chief."
This act was approved December 31, 1891.
Approval signed by Stephen Tonee, Assistant Acting Principal-
In this list appear the names of William R. Dawson for payment of $13.70, and of Marion Dawson, for a like sum. Are these the names of two of your sons? A Yes sir.

(The paper above introduced, is filed and made a part of the record in this case.

Q Was there any other action of the Cherokee authorities relating to members of your family? A Yes sir.

Q Then? A In 1894.
Q What was that? A Allowing them their Strip Money.
Q Have you a copy of that? A I think I have. (Produces papers.)

BY MR. McKENNON: We offer in evidence a duly certified copy of an act of the Cherokee National Council approved November 24, 1894, signed C. J. Harris, Principal Chief. Senate Bill No. 19, appropriating a sufficient amount of money to make payment per capita of what is known as the strip money to certain persons named therein. Among them are members of the Blassingame family, as follows: Jane, Elbert, Henry, James Ross Lennie, Pearl, Amos, Myrtle, Winnie and Clifford: this act mentions these persons as Cherokees by blood, and whose names had been left off the pay roll approved May 3, 1894, providing a payment to each one of these a sum of $265.70.

Q Were these members of the Robert Dawson family? A Yes sir.
Q Which one of the members of the family? A Jane.
Q This is Jane who was admitted by the judgment admitting the Robert Dawson family? A Yes sir.
Q And her children? A Her children, was not admitted, she was admitted.
Q I mean this mentions her children here? A Yes, that mentions her children.

(The paper last above introduced is filed and made a part of the record in this case.)

Q Do you know whether the payment of the Cherokee Strip money was to Cherokee citizens by blood only or not? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any other act of the Cherokee authorities passing upon the citizenship of members of your family? A Why the Douthett children, my brother's grand-children. Two grand-children of E. Dawson.
Q When was that? A That, I think it was in '84.
Q Have you got a copy of that act? A No, the record is here.
Q Was that by the Spears Court? A Yes sir, by the Spears Court.

BY MR. McKENNON: We now offere in evidence a judgment of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, 1880 and 1884, found on page 190, case No. 181, dated September 9th, 1884, signed by Ellis Spears, President, John Lee and Andrew Young, Commissioners, admitting to citizenship Lula Douthett and Dallas Douthett as Cherokees by blood.

Q These now are the Douthetts to which you refer, are they? Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: Attention is called to the fact that the names of the Commissioners are all signed in the same hand-writing as the record of the judgment.

The said judgment record above introduced, and found on page 190, No. 181, record of 1880 to 1884, is as follows;

"Office of Commission on Citizenship,
Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation, September 14th, 1883.

E. Dawson, for his grand-children,)
No. 181. (C. H. Taylor,
Lula Douthitt,) Atty for Claim.
Dallas Douthitt, (
vs) Petition filed September
The Cherokee Nation. (14th, 1883.

Case submitted by claimants Sept 14th, 1883.
Case submitted by Solicitor, Sept. 19th, 1883.
Continued by Petitioner Jan 28 1884 to September Court 1884.
Re-submitted September 2nd 1884, by Attys Taylor and Seavert

Submitted by defence Sept 9 1884.

And now on this the 17th day of September 1884 comes this case for final hearing and all the evidence in the case having been carefully read, and considered by the Commission on Citizenship it has been decided by the Commission that the above named Lula Dauthett and Dallas Dauthett are Cherokees by blood, and that they are entitled to all the rights and privileges of Cherokee citizenship in the Cherokee Nation and that they should be, and are hereby admitted to the full and complete enjoyment of the same in all respects, as native born Cherokees.

Ellis Sparks, Jr.
John Lee,
John L. Adair, Andrew Young,
Clk Com'n. Commission on Citizenship."

Q Now were there any other actions of the Cherokee authorities of like character relating to the members of your family?
A I don't remember of any others.
Q I will ask you if when the Cherokee authorities were [illegible] the roll of 1880, in compliance with the request of the Dawes Commission for a roll to be prepared by them for the use of the said Commission, the question of the citizenship of the children of your family was not then raised and an investigation had in regard to it? A Before the Dawes Commission?
Q No, before the Cherokee Commission making the roll of 1880, of which John T. Gunter was a member? A Yes sir, yes. I had forgot it, but since you have named it there was some investigation of that at that time; this is what I understood.
Q That roll shows that the members of your family were duly enrolled by the Commission? A Yes.

Q Have you and the other members of your family since your removal to the Territory in 1883 and immediately following been recognized as Cherokee citizens by blood? A Yes sir.

Q Have you been exercising and enjoying all the rights of Cherokee citizens by blood since that time? A Yes sir.
Q You and all the members of your family are living in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q You have all drawn Cherokee moneys whenever pay ents were made? A Yes sir.
Q And have you all male members been voting at the Cherokee elections or in the Cherokee elections? A Yes sir, I was one of the judges of the elections that was held voting on the treaty.
Q What treaty? A The treaty bill that was sent back here for the Cherokees to vote on; I was one of the judges at Afton.
Q In what year was that? A I believe it was last spring some time, last April.

Q Have any of you held any offices in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What offices have the members of your family filled? A Deputy Clerk, under Pete Hastings, when he was clerk of Delaware District, I was a candidate once for Council in the Downing Party,

...ffice of deputy clerk be held by any one else except ...citizen? A Only by a citizen, yes sir.
...t all? A (No reply).
...the children of ...bers of your family attend the ...schools, and were educated in them schools? A Yes, sir.
...ve the ...bers of your family been all the while subject to the ...diction of the courts of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
...they been tried for any offenses against the law? Yes sir.
...ve they instituted in the ...il suits in the courts of the ...Nation? A Yes sir.
...suits instituted ...ainst them in such courts? A Yes sir.
...ve ...been ...have you to the Supreme Court of the ...Nation? A Yes sir.
...ases passed upon by the ...ri...ll? A Yes sir.
...anything else? A Nothing now; I ...sick this evening; I ...head-ache so bad I can't hardly see.

BY MR. KITCHING:

...ow old was your ...ther Robert Benson when he died? A I don't ..., I couldn't say as to that.
...he a very old man? A Yes sir, he was getting tolerably old.
...he was ...tell me ...he older ...n than you? A No I don't know.
...Mr. Benson in 1884 must have been a very old man, wasn't he? A ...he was old and he was feeble.
...I ...to state that ...he was so silly ...as to naturally that ...? A He used to live in Texas; I didn't know him until after ...to the Territory.
...I say he had gotten so old, what was the occasion of that? A I ...suppose so, the eldest one of these children was Mrs. Betty ..., that's my ...ther's sister.
...the older boy was John Benson? A We always called him Jack.
...Benson ...the oldest? A Yes sir.
...the youngest? A Sam Riley.
...he the youngest one of the crowd? A Yes sir.
Your father lived four or five years after he and you were ...ted to citizenship? Yes sir, something about that, it was ...7, I think he died in 1887, I won't be positive; that is as ...as I remember now. I have got a headache so bad that I can't ...either anything.
...any more of the older members of the family were ever present ...any of these trials of citizenship? A No sir, not a one of ...them.
...not a one of them was ever called upon to testify as to the blood ...their other, who she was or anything about it? A I don't ...they was.
Your claim of kinship was through Captain John Rogers and that ...grandmother was the half sister of Big Joe Vann, wasn't it? A I don't know, I couldn't answer the question.
You were there when they took the testimony? A I was there when Mr. Baker's testimony was taken, that was about 15 years ago.
And nobody kin to the Rogers and Vanns was ever called to testify in the case? A Not as I know of.
They were very well known Cherokee families in the coun try? A I suppose so, I don't know.
And yet nobody on any side of the family connected with it was ever called to testify A Not that I know of, I don't know ...ut my brother done, he taken some of the evidence at Tahlequah ...I was not there; he first filed his claim.

Q You had spoken to Dr. Baker about the testifying before you brought your case didn't you? A No sir.
Q Must have been a short time afterwards? A It was a short time afterwards. I went back after him and it was too late and I fetched him the next time.
Q You had talked to your brother about what you could prove by Dr. Baker? A I told him I thought Dr. Baker, I thought he knew about our folks.
Q You had told him in general way you expected to use Dr. Baker as a witness? A Yes sir.
Q You went off, came to Arkansas and left your brother at Tahlequah after you told him that fact? A Yes sir.
Q You didn't see your brother any more until after you were admitted? A No sir.
Q You and he however made trips back and forth to Tahlequah and both at different times, but you didn't happen to get together? A No. I never met him any more and I don't know that he was there until after we were admitted.
Q But you were there and brought Dr. Baker over? A Yes sir.
Q And took his testimoney a year or such a matter before ever you were admitted? A I think as well as I remember, yes sir.
Q How the way you came to get Campbell Taylor was on the recommendation of old man Bryant? A I didn't get him, didn't use him.
Q The way he came into your case? A The way he claimed to come in.
Q He did more in your case than Bryant did? A Campbell didn't do anything.
Q What did Bryant do? A I think he held my brother take evidence my brother employed him.
Q How did you happen to be sending money by Campbell to Mr. Duncan? A I never sent him any money.
Q Then when he, Mr. Duncan, states that Campbell delivered the money as Campbell said he did, both were wrong? A Oh no, you are listening, Mr. Duncan got 20 or 25 dollars, which he stated, from Campbell Taylor, for me.
Q How did you happen to give it to Campbell? A I give the money to Campbell to give to Joel Bryant, and he wouldn't do it, and I tried to get the money back from him, and I finally worked the 20 or 25 dollars he gave to Duncan.
Q Then you didn't tell Duncan as he testified that you sent 20 or 25 dollars by Campbell Taylor? A Campbell Taylor agreed to pay Duncan 20 or 25 dollars for me of the money I give him to give to Joel Bryant.
Q The family kept Campbell Taylor employed though as their attorney after that? A In the James Dawson case I think so.
Q E. Dawson, you remember, had him for his grand-children? A That is my understanding.
Q And your whole James Dawson had him in the case of his children? A Uncle James had nothing to do with it; James Low and Bill Jackson got him: that was my understanding of who employed him.
Q The record here shows that the case was originally instituted by C. N. Taylor and was finally submitted by him September 2nd, 1894, in the James Dawson case? A I don't deny him being in that case.
Q You say he was employed in the E. Dawson case? A I don't know who was in the Dawthett children's case.
Q The record shows that Campbell Taylor instituted the case, and it was finally submitted by him, and Mr. Bennett, who testified a while ago? A That was in the James Dawson case, wasn't it?
Q What case in the E. Dawson grand-children? A Elbert?
Q No, in the Dawthett children's case? A Oh yes.

Q He was likewise attorney in the Mary Dawson case, was he, and befo[re] the Admir[istrative] court, the 4th of August, 1[9]27, in the case of Jam[es] K. P. Dawson? A I don't know anything about that.
Q Are the cases identical, Riley Dawson? A I don't know anything about those.
Q There are a bunch of you? A Well I wouldn't say.
Q James K. P. Dawson moves to be son of Riley D. son? A Well if he is he is by connection there. There are so many Dawsons
I don't know that all.
Q You know Andrew J. Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q The Dawsons have so many children, their brothers didn't nearly know them did they? A That's it, I don't know them.
Q Don't you know who Andrew J. Dawson is? A I do, sir, I don't know.
Q He says in his application for roll, a cousin of R. Dawson, himself, who were admitted to citizenship by the Dawes Court?
A He may be, I don't know nothing about it.
Q He resided I believe, at that time at Reynolds, Missouri? A I don't know anything about other people.
Q Isn't Reuben an old and nearly old man at the time he received, wasn't he? A Getting old, he was not paralyzed.
Q Then the statement is true that the reason he couldn't write his name and had to take his mark, because he was paralyzed, is not true, why isn't that true? A He hasn't have good use of his fingers.
Q Then he was not paralyzed? A No, I brought him over there in a hack from Pennyville, Arkansas.
Q Well I say he was a very old man? A Yes, getting old.
Q You didn't you go to this Dawson and their joining meeting and get on it some time before you brought your family? A No,
I brought my family with me, except my wife.
Q And you subsequently built a home on it? A Yes sir.
Q And went back and got your wife and moved them to the home? A Yes sir, went to Pineville and got my wife.
Q You never saw your grandfather at all? A Sam Dawson, yes sir,
I saw him.
Q You remember do you of ever seeing him much of any at all? A I was in Texas in time of the war, with my uncle Riley Dawson, and he was there.
Q In '60 sometime? A '61, I reckon, or '62. Somewhere along there, it was in time of the war.
Q How old a man was he at that time? A Pretty old man.
Q You never saw your grandmother, she died before she got?
A Yes sir, I never saw her at all.
Q The first started the citizenship matter, your brother in Texas or you? A Why it was me, and my brother together.
Q I mean who first conceived the idea? A I first got excited about it.
Q And sent down for him? A I was in Texas with him and then in Arkansas; I went backwards and forwards a time or two after the war.
Q About that time nearly everybody in Ark[ansas] were crying to get to be claim of kinship to Cherokees? A No sir, not at that time.
Q They were getting pretty thick in there in 1[8]60? A Well in 67 and '4 and '5 I think.
Q Were you excited over there to get yourselves on the rolls?
A Just got to be everybody; but it wasn't at that time we admitted there was not much stir about the rights here.
Q Well the matter had been admitted before that? A I mean to say had; there was not much excitement over the matter at that time.

BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You did locate a man named Shahlee when you first came to Tahlequah in '31? A I think I did.
Q Your brother Buck Dawson knows him also? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Shahlee lived in the north end of town, old German? A Yes sir, old German, lived in the lower part of town.
Q Did you ever hear the names of any other witnesses which you stated perhaps testified in your case? A I have heard them but I have forgot them.
Q You don't recollect any name now? A I don't remember them, no sir.
Q In the Irene House case and Joanna Barber case, in which you testified before the Commission, when you were making search for this testimony you couldn't find any other testimony from that of record except the Dr. Baker testimony, could you? A That's all we could find; now we didn't find the testimony, we got a copy.
Q Well it must have been a copy of the original, the certificate shows that? A I don't know; House got a copy of what claimed to be the affidavit of Baker and he told me to give it to him; that is all I know about it.
Q Well the certificate where does not bear my certificate does it? A I don't know about that, I am no scholar.
Q Well you didn't get the testimony of any other witnesses except that of Dr. Baker; you couldn't find any other over there of record? A I didn't hunt for any; House hunted for them.
Q None of you have ever been able to find any other? A No. Not even find our petition.
Q Samuel F. Dawson applied to what is known as the Adair Court, didn't he? A I don't remember that.
Q He was an uncle of yours wasn't he? A Yes sir, claimed to be.
Q The father of these two parties who testified here this morning? A Well I don't know, they claimed to be, I never met them to know them.
Q He was rejected by the Adair Court, or Hayes Court? A I don't know whether he filed his petition.
Q Did you testify in his case? A I don't remember; I might have done it.

Q Didn't you testify in the Andrew J. Dawson case before what is known as the Hayes Court? A I don't recollect, if I did I don't remember.
Q Did you testify in the Silas Dawson case? A No sir, no. That I remember.
Q Didn't you know of his being rejected by that court? A I don't remember, sir.
Q You know that the Cherokee Council never authenticated that roll of 1896, don't you? A No sir, I don't know it; I didn't know this was done until I went to Tahlequah after some papers and came back and they told me about it.
Q You never found out that C. H. Taylor was a big rascal up until the present time have you? A (No response)
Q The records here show that he has been in the constant employment of your family from that date up to this time? A Why it shows here from the record; I would rather be excused from any part of it.
Q You are the man that had most to do with it? A I never employed him, I own my that.
Q You are the man that had most to do with the records? A In my case and in my father's case.
Q Didn't you testify for your uncle Jim Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Wasn't he attorney for him? A Yes sir.

Q Wasn't he employed by Jim Dawson after you got your citizenship?
A Why not but the grand-children.
Q Jim Ian son's petition was filed in September 1883, after yours?
A Yes sir.
Q C. H. Taylor, attorney of record, filed his petition? A He might have filed it for all I know.
Q Well you hadn't at that time fallen out with C. H. Taylor had you? A Why no, we never did have any trouble, only over their money, he never would give it back to me or give it to Bryant.
Q You never discovered that he was such a bad man until after your judgment was rendered? A I know he was not of good character.
Q Are you and Brought, this man who testified for the Cherokee Nation, on speaking terms? A Hardly speak.
Q Does he refuse to speak to you? A So etimes he does.
Q Do you refuse to speak to him? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been speaking to him for the last two or three months? A I have not spoke to him until I met him there at the hotel the other day.
Q First time you spoke to him since he had the boy arrested? A Yes sir.
Q When did he have the boy arrested? A Along in September or October, September I think.
Q When did Dr. Baker die? A I don't remember.
Q You don't remember how much older your father was than you? A No, I don't know.
Q What is your age? A I will be 60 in May.
Q Then you were born in '42? A Yes sir, '43 according to the record.
Q Was your father as much as 25 years old when you were born? A I couldn't say.
Q What was your best judgment? A I suppose he was 30 or 35 years old. My understanding he married young.
Q Can't you give any better idea than 4 or 5 years of your father's age? A I say 25.
Q Your father was born say, 25 from 42 would have made him be born in 1817; now had your father any older brothers or sisters? A I think Jack Dawson was the oldest of the family, no, Betty, the girl, was the oldest and Jack next, and Monroe Taylor as well as I remember about it.
Q There were two girls older? A No, one of the girls I never saw.
Q Then you think there are only 2 older than your father? A Yes, that's my understanding of the family.
Q Mr. Baker gives his age 73 in '82, which would make him be born in '09, now he states that when he was 15 or 16 years old, which added to 1809, will make 1824, that your grandmother Anna Priett, was a school girl: whereas from your testimony and that of the family history introduced here shows that your grandmother Anna Priett was the mother of seven children, the youngest being born in 1827, how do you reconcile that? A I don't remember about the dates out of Mr. Baker; I don't know that he made such statement as that, I don't remember about it.
Q And if he did you don't know how to reconcile it? A (No response.)

Q Did you talk to any of the officers of the Court that admitted you? A No sir, I was not acquainted with them.
Q You know whether they were old or young men? A They were old men like; Steve Tehee. I got acquainted with him afterwards, and Tom Thompson, at the Council you know I was there a good deal.

Q That was the fellow that was on the Court? A Yes sir.
Q He was afterwards Assistant Chief of the Cherokee Nation?
A I think so.
Q Steven Tehee, that's the man you had reference to? A Yes sir, I think it was, I just knew the man; I had no acquaintance with him at all.
Q D. W. C. Duncan boarded when you were down there at the National Hotel? A I think he did, as well as I remember now when we were admitted.
Q Don't you know he did? A I think he did, as well as I remember.
Q Were not you over there to his room? A I think I was.
Q You remember when it was that you brought Dr. Baker down there to make a statement before the Court? A It was in January, Term, was in January Term of 1882 I believe, it was, as well as I remember about it.
Q Well you didn't take any more testimony after Dr. Baker testified?
A No sir, I didn't.
Q But your case was not submitted or passed upon before then?
A I think it was, yes sir, as well as I remember.
Q I would like to ask you when the Blassingame family came to the Cherokee Nation? A Alex Balsingame came with me when we moved here, and went back and got his family and moved that fall.
Q Did he move his family here that same fall? A Yes sir.
Q What year was that? A In the fall of '83 I believe it was, as well as I remember now.
Q When did the Bulaska family come? A I think the girl and the old lady came in the next spring.
Q How long did they remain that time? A The old lady stayed here, but the girl went back and in a short time her and her husband came back.
Q Did she come back until after her marriage? A No, she was married when she came first.
Q The last time? A She was married I think, she was married when she came out.
Q How long has August Bulaska been a permanent and continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation? A I think he came there in the fall of 1884 or 1885, I wont say which.
Q How long has Robert Pierce been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since he was admitted.
Q When was that? A '83.
Q How long has Martin L. Patterson? A Ever since he married his wife, and he was living here before he married his wife.
Q Who is Arizona Alsey? A That is my daughter.
Q Did you bring her with you? A No not when I moved.
Q When did she come? A She came out in a year or two after I moved here.
Q Was she married when you moved here? A No sir, she was not married.
Q She was not married when you were admitted? A No sir, she was a child.
Q When did Jim Lowe come to this country? A With his grandfather, James Dawson.
Q What was his mother's name? A Melvina Dawson.
Q You know Jim Lowe's age? A No sir.
Q Don't know how old he was in '83? A No sir.
Q Was he grown? A I think he was.
Q Married? A No no.
Q Married in this country? A Yes sir.
Q Who is James H. Harmon? A Married one of the Jackson girls.

Q When did they come to this country? A Right away after they was admitted.
Q In what year? A I think the winter of '94, I think it was, spring or winter of '94.
Q You know Gideon Graham? A Yes sir.
Q Who is his mother? A Missouri Ann Graham, formerly Missouri Ann Dawson.
Q Did he come from Texas to Arkansas? A Came from Texas.
Q Did you know them in Texas? A I knew the girl.
Q You never knew them until they come to this country? A I never knew Gid.
Q When did you see him here? A I think they come here in the fall or winter of 1894 or '5.
Q He was married then? A I think he was.
Q Brought his wife? A I think he was, I don't know.
Q Did he have any children when you first saw him? A He came to my house and I never saw his family for-I don't know, for several years.
Q You understood he had a family? A Yes sir.

BY MR. MCKENNON:

Q Did you mean to say '84 or '94? A '84.
Q Did you see Gid Graham in '84? A '84, let's study, maybe '85.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Did you see him in '85, are you positive on that proposition? A I think so.
Q Will you swear it? A No sir, I won't positive swear it, but I think it was, as I remember now it was; I couldn't say positive.
Q All the people Mr. Dawson that have been admitted to citizenship by courts of competent jurisdiction unless they were de-citizenised by courts of acquired jurisdiction, enjoyed the same privileges that you have narrated here about going to and of and being tried in the courts? A Yes sir.

Q All that sort of thing that you have been telling here in your direct examination? A Ask the question again.
Q I say all people who were admitted here by courts of competent jurisdiction, until they were de-citizenised by courts of like jurisdiction, enjoyed the same privileges that you did? A So far as I know they was.
Q They all drawed money and all tried in the courts as long as we had tribunal courts, were they not? A Yes sir, so far as I know.
Q There was no special privilege granted to you in preference to anybody else? A None but recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation.
Q Well you had been recognized since you were admitted? A Yes sir, I enjoyed the same privileges of native born Cherokees.
Q Well I say there is nothing special about it? A No, I don't know as there is.
Q You got acquainted with Mr. Duncan while you were up there during the hearing? A Yes sir, I was acquainted with him, knew him, when I saw him.
Q Mr. Bill Rose did the examination of Dr. Baker? A Yes sir.
Q Did you file any other paper before the Court other than your petition and then Dr. Baker's statement? A I never filed any petition there at all.
Q None whatever? A I don't remember any.
Q Until you never had occasion to file any papers before Mr. Duncan? A I got him to do some writing for me.
Q What? A Letters to my brother in Texas.
Q Buck Dawson? A Yes sir, B. Dawson.

Q That? A Yes sir, Mac' Dawson.
Q Well is that all he did for you? A I don't [illegible] about it.
Q Why didn't you get your attorney to do that letter writing? A There was not any there.
Q Taylor nor Benge was not there then? A No sir.
Q That is what you paid the 20 or 25 dollars for, was writing this letter back to your brother? A I paid it for that claim.
Q When did you pay that? A I think I paid it, I don't exactly when, Carn Taylor paid it a year or two after I come out here and settled where I did; might have been 2 years. I don't remember.
Q There was Duncan living then? A I couldn't say whom.
Q Was he still clerk of this Court? A No sir, not when the money was paid; that is, when Carn Taylor said he paid it.
Q You did send Carn Taylor some money? A I sent some money to Mr. Joel Bryant.
Q You knew Joel Bryant's address didn't you? A No, I don't know that I did, No I didn't send Carn Taylor any money, I gave it to him.
Q How much did you give him? A One hundred dollars.
Q When? A Right at that time; he claimed it from me as soon as he got our papers; he come into me and demanded it for Bryant.
Q You never sent him any then after that? A No sir.
Q Did you ever see Bryant after that? A Yes sir
Q How long after that? A I don't know, a year or two afterwards. I wrote I believe, my brother wrote, I wrote to my brother about it. Carn Taylor money and he went and see my brother about it and never paid him until I moved out to this country.
Q After all that you got him to attend to your uncle Jim Dawson's and the other relatives cases? A The other parties did.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Applicants object to all that part of the witness' evidence in response to interrogatories by representatives of the Cherokee Nation which relates to the origin of the evidence upon which the judgments admitting members of the James and Robert Dawson families were entered, and to the history of the members of the Dawson family, because the same is immaterial, incompetent and irrelevant.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q One question I omitted to ask you Mr. Dawson, as to the Court at the time the judgment admitting Robert Dawson's family was rendered, who of the judges were present on that day? A They was all three of them, Wolfe, Toher and Thompson.
Q Are you positive of that fact? A Yes sir.
Q You do not know this Andrew Dawson family who applied to the Dawes Commission for Cherokee citizenship, who stated that they are cousins of some members of your family? A Andrew?
Q Andrew J. Dawson, who claims to be from Missouri? A How was the question?
Q You do not know them do you? A I don't know that they are any kin to us.
Q You don't know that they are related to you at all? A No sir.
Q This Mary Dawson case, do you know the members of that family?
A No sir, I don't.
Q Don't know who they are? A No sir.
Q The Rebecca Dawson case? A I don't know her either.
Q You don't know whether they are related to you or not? A No sir.
Q If any of these persons are related to you or your family did you have any knowledge of it? A Not as I know of.

Q Joanna Barber, do you know anything about them? A They claim to be kin to us.
Q Where are they from? A They are from Texas.
Q Do you know they are related to you? A They claim to be kin.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Well you swore for them before the Commission? A Yes, they claim to be kinfolks of mine.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Irene J. House, who is that? A That is a cousin of mine; claims to be.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You testified for her didn't you before the Commission? A I think I did as well as I remember.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Before the Court that admitted James Dawson orally, who were the witnesses there? A Oliver Miller, from Bentonville, Arkansas.
Q Who were the others? A Myself and J. Dawson and there was two other witnesses, I don't remember who they are.
Q Were they Cherokee citizens and residents of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You don't remember their names? A Which?
Q Of these other people who claimed to be citizens of the Cherokee Nation and who were witnesses? A I said about me and J. Dawson was citizens of the Cherokee Nation.
Q You only proved that Jim Dawson was a brother of Robert Dawson before the Court? A Yes sir.
Q And then referred back to the decision in the Court below? A We proved that they were citizens, and he knew my folks before I ever came here.
Q Was he older than Dr. Baker? A About two years.
Q Why didn't you get Oliver Miller's testimony in the House case?
Q He was dead.
Q You and no member of your family in the Irene House case or the Joanna Barber case or any of those cases that were tried before the Dawes Commission in your affidavits ever made reference to the fact that Oliver Miller testified in Jim Dawson's case in '84 did you? A I don't remember about that.
Q You did make reference to the fact that Dr. Baker testified there in '85, didn't you? A I don't remember about that now.
Q You never made reference to any other witness having testified other than Dr. Baker did you? A I don't remember about it now.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q You just one other question: All of these papers in the original application and everything, so far as you know, in the James Dawson case, were filed before the Commission which admitted the James Dawson family, are lost or mislaid are they not? A I suppose they are, I don't know, I never saw them.
Q Have you tried to get copies of them? A Yes sir, I tried to get the original papers.

BY COMMISSION: This case is continued until 8:30 a.m., tomorrow morning, March 20th, 1902, it now being the hour for adjournment.

MARCH 20, 1902,- 8:30 a.m.- F. M. DAWSON again on the stand, testifies as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Where was your brother Jim Dawson raised? A In Arkansas.

Q What County? A Carroll.
Q [illegible] born? A Near Eureka.
Q Mr. Dawson live on Van Buren? A Yes sir.
Q [illegible] any rooms?
A Yes sir.
Q [illegible] to be [illegible] of his sister
[illegible] of life? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Josephine Pierce? A Yes sir.
Q Was she [illegible]? A Both E Dawson's.
Q Is she the same [illegible] who is called Josie Pierce, [illegible] Josie Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Is there any other Josie Pierce or Josie Dawson or Josephine Pierce or Josephine Dawson? A I don't know but to one.
Q She is also called Josephine or Josi Kelly? A Yes, after she married her first husband was Pierce.
Q After her second husband A Was Kelly.
Q There was another Josephine Dawson wasn't there, Bill Kelly's wife?
A [illegible] called her Joe, I suppose to distinguish me, I could not be positive; that was Pike Dawson's daughter, August Kelly's wife.
Q She is not younger than your sister, Josephine, above referred to? A Yes sir, oh yes.
BY MR. HUTCHINS:
Q Where were you born, Mr. Dawson? A Carroll County, Arkansas.
Q Your age, how old you are? A 42.
Q 42? A I think so.
Q How many older children were there of your father and mother than yourself? A Three.
Q Which are they? A E. Dawson, Pike Dawson and Jasper Dawson.
Q You are the fourth child and the fourth boy? A Yes sir, fourth boy.
Q Where were your father and mother married, do you know, from the history? A I think it was in Arkansas, I couldn't be positive,
I think they was.
Q Do you know how long your grandfather lived in Arkansas? A No sir I don't.
Q Don't know what year he came to Arkansas? A Only from statement.
Q What did they say about it? A I think they [illegible]
[illegible] in '30.
Q You know whether your father was born in Arkansas? No, any of your grandfather's children were born there? A There is some born in Arkansas according to history and according to that [illegible] told me, they were born in Tennessee.
Q He came there in '30, and all the other children, were born on the Tennessee River in Tennessee, before he came, is that it?
A That is what I think, yes sir. Now I am not positive about that.
They came from Tennessee, but either Mr. Dawson lived where my folks come from there; I don't know as I ever seen that I was told [illegible] they say where he was born at.
Q In Tennessee so where; he said he was good old boy from he came to Arkansas? A I don't know as I ever heard him say.
Q Do you know the difference in the ages of yourself and your three older brothers? A No I don't.
Q Don't know the time that come in between you? A No I don't know that; I think it is about two years though.
Q That would make E. Dawson about eight years older than you, roughly? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Did Josephine Pierce have a daughter who married Mr. Bogle?
A Yes sir.
Q What was her name? A I always knowed her by Dade Pierce; I don't know whether that is her right name or not.
Q What is Bogle's name? A John Bogle.
Q She is the child of Josephine Pierce who married John Bogle?
A Yes sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Where did she marry John Bogle? A Near Afton.
Q When? A I douldn't state.
Q About when? A You have got a copy of the marriage license.
Q When did Josephine Pierce come to the Cherokee Nation? A '83.
Q Has she lived here continuously since that time? A Up until her death; she is dead.
Q Any of her children come with her at that time? A Yes sir.
Q And have they lived here continuously since that time? A Yes sir, except Bill Pierce, he went to Colorado and died.

J. C. STARR, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Your name is J. C. Starr is it? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Starr, was that instrument taken by you, or before you? (Showing witness document.)
A Yes sir.
Q Where? A At the residence of S. H. Benge near Fort Gibson.
Q When? A On the 15th day of this month.
Q What day of the week was that? A On Saturday.
Q Is that the day it was taken? A Yes sir.
Q Did you go there on Saturday to take this? A Yes sir.
Q Then when Judge Benge stated on Tuesday that it was taken "yesterday" meaning Monday, the 17th, he was mistaken, was he?
A It was taken Saturday, the 15th.
Q Was he mistaken or not? A It was not taken then.
Q Then his statement made on Tuesday the 18th that it was taken on "yesterday", meaning Monday, the 17th, was not correct, was it?
A I think not, because I was there, and it was taken on the 15th.
Q And it was taken on the 15th, you are positive it was taken on the 15th? A Yes sir.

Q Then of course his statement could not be correct? A I guess not.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q He was just mistaken about the date, wasn't he? A Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Did you tell Charles T. Moore who is now present, on last Tuesday that they sent you out there on Monday to take that? A No sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q I sent you there last Saturday? A Yes sir.
Q And you went there at my direction, didn't you? A Yes sir, and come back Saturday night.

ROBERT L. DAWSON, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A My name is Robert L. Dawson.
Q What is your age? A My age is something close to 30 years old, I guess 26 past.

Q Are you a son of E. D- son, commonly known as Buck Dawson?
A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if you will examine this letter sent with the enclosure and state whether or not you found that among the papers of your father after his death? A (Hands letter to witness who examines it) A Yes sir, I found this amongst the papers of My Father. He always kept all his own papers, and re looking over them I saw this letter.
Q Has that been in your custody ever since you found it? A Yes sir, if that's the letter that was in the envelope.
Q Well that's what it is, you can tell whether it is or not. (Witness further examines letter) Q That purports to be a letter from Samuel H. Benge, does it not, to your father? A Yes sir. (Here applicants' attorney hands letter and envelope referred to to attorneys for Cherokee Nation.)

BY MR. McKENNON: I want to offer this letter in evidence in this case; it is a letter signed by S. H. Benge, attorney at law, dated Fort Gibson, C. N., Jan. 13, 1883. Addressed to Mr. E. Dawson, Esq., together with the envelope, in which it was enclosed, with the card of C. H. Taylor upon it, attorney at law, Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and postmarked Tahlequah, Ind. T., January 13.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS: The Nation objects to the introduction of this letter for the reason that S. H. Benge is living and has testified in this case, and his handwriting should be either proven or denied by hi self.

G. W. BENGE, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A G. W. Benge.
Q Are you a son of Samuel H. Benge? A Yes sir.
Q Do youknow his handwriting? A I believe so.
Q Is that his handwriting? (Shows witness letter before referred to.) A Yes sir, it is either his or a resemblance of his.
Q To the best of your knowledge and belief is that his letter?
A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: Now we offer it in evidence.

BY COMMISSION: (Reading letter,

"Fort Gibson, C. N.,
Jan 13th, 1883.

Mr. E. Dawson, Esq.,

Dear Sir:- I write this note to inform you that your case came off before the Court on Citizenship on the 11th inst, and was decided in your favor, so you all are citizens of this Nation. F. M. Dawson was furnished with a copy of the decision at the court. He will write to you allso. You will please send me fifty dollars as my fee in your case according to contract. Send it to Fort Gibson, Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully yours,
S. H. Benge,
Attorney at law."

Enclosed in envelope, as follows:
Card in upper corner, left hand:
"Return in ten days to C. H. Taylor,
Attorney at Law,
Tahlequah, Ind. Ter."
Address: [illegible]

Henryetta,
Clay Co., Texas."

Post-marked: " Tahlequah, Jan 17 IND T."

ROBERT L. DAWSON, -re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Now examine that and see if that is also a paper which you found among your father's papers after his death? (Hands papers to witness) A That is the same letter that I found.

Q Along the same that you found the Bengo letter? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: This is a letter purporting to have been written by J. M. Bryan, to E. Dawson, dated at Chouteau Station, Cherokee Nation, and not dated, which we offer in evidence. (Applicants' attorney hands said paper to Nation's attorneys.)

Q Mr. Bryan is dead is he not? A I think so.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS: We have no objection.

BY COMMISSION: (reads letter)

"Chouteau Station, Cherokee Nation.
I. T., M. K. & T. R. R.

MR. Dawson:

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your favor of the 30th inst in regard to our contract.

After I had got the claim so there would be little more to do I employed Campbell Taylor to answer for me when the case came up, for which I was to pay him $20 out of my fee.

This all the action I had in the matter with Taylor.

I saw Taylor in Washington last month, and he told me that your brother had made another contract with him, and paid him, or that you was to pay him $100- and that you had offered him a check on some bank in Texas.

That $100- matter with Taylor, I have nothing to do with, nor couldn't have if I wanted to.

I hope Mr. Dawson this letter will explain the matter fully.

And I am satisfied that you are apprised of the earnest work I done for you, Please write to me.

Very respectfully,
Very truly,
J. M. Bryan."

Q I will ask you if you know of your father having paid Bryan that money? A Yes sir, paid him a horse and some other money.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How old was your father when he died? A No, I don't know whether I know his age or not.

Q If you don't know you can't say? A I wouldn't have no reason to know his age; never asked me his age; of course I guess my mother knows.

Q Never had occasion to talk about his age at all? A Oh I have heard him speak of his age at different times, but then I never paid enough attent on to it.

Gid Graham, being first duly sworn upon his oath, examined and testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q What is your name? A Gid Graham.

Q How old are you? A Mr. Graham? A I am 35 years old.
Q How long have you been living in the Territory? A I came out here in 1887 or '88.
Q To the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation, what year was that '87 or '8? A Yes sir.
Q Have you resided here continuously from that time ever since in the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you live in the Cherokee Nation? A About 6 years.
Q Where did you go then? A Wagoner.
Q In the Creek Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And been residing there ever since? A Yes sir.
Q In business? A Yes sir.
Q Have you all the while been recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Graham, do you know Judge Samuel H. Benge? A Yes sir.
Q Did you have a conversation with him in Fort Gibson about September of 1900? A Well as to the exact time I couldn't say. It was sometime about the time that the Dawes Commission were at Sallisaw, or possibly a little later, somewhere about there.
Q Taking the census of the Cherokees? A Yes sir.
Q At that time had the question of the validity of the judgment of the Cherokee citizenship corrission admitting Robert Dawson and family been called in question? A Yes sir.
Q Did you talk to him about the facts concerning the obtaining of that judgrent? A I did.
Q What did he tell you about it: well I will just ask you, did he then and there tell you that that judgment was regular and all right nothing wrong with it? A He did.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS.

Q You were looking around for testimony at that time, Mr. Graham, were you? A How was that?
Q You were looking around for testirony at that time, expecting this case to be questioned? A Since the validity of that judgment had been attacked by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, I thought it was well to look into the matter.
Q And he told you the judgment was all right? A Having known that Mr. Benge was connected with the case, I saw him in Fort Gibson, subsequent to that time and asked him about it, if there was anything wrong about the matter, and also that I might want his affidavit concerning the matter, and I also I think maybe wrote to him; possibly prior to that, I am not sure as to the writing, but I think I wrote to him.
Q Did he tell you he would make an affidavit? A I don't think at that time that I asked him for an affidavit. I thought as he lived right near here I would see him in person; he assured me that everything was all right.
Q Your mother was Missouri Dawson was not she? A Yes sir.
Q Her name was Missouri [illegible] when she was re-admitted to citizenship? A Yes sir.
Q And was not Missouri [illegible] named in that judgment? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether the [illegible] children named in there had married and changed their names at the time they were admitted? A There were not any of them married.
Q Ella Dawson was your aunt? A Yes sir.
Q Was she married at that time? [illegible]? A Yes sir.
Q Melvina Dawson, was she married at that time? A Yes sir.
Q And the fourth one you named, Missouri Dawson, was your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Can you give us the exact date of your birth? A Yes sir.
Q Do so, please? A January 21, 1867.
Q And you came to the Territory when? A In 1886 or 1888.
Q You can't make that any more definite? A Well sir, it has been a good while ago, and I didn't have anything to cause me to.
Q Well I just want to know whether you did have or not? A No sir.
Q Then were you married? A 1886.
Q You were married prior to coming here? A Yes sir.
Q Your first child born away from here? A Yes sir.
Q What is its name? A John W.
Q '86 you were married, and he was born about the spring of '87?
A Somewhere in 1887, I don't remember.
Q Prior to your coming here? A Yes sir.
Q That is the only child you had that was born away from here?
A No sir, Julius.
Q Julius was not born in the Territory? A No sir.
Q And prior to the time of your removing to the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q These are the only children born out? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if about February 1901, he came to Wagoner, and sent his son to have you come to the hotel at night where he was, and if he then and there said to you "You people are on the doubtful list, and if you will give me five hundred dollars I will make it all right and see that you are enrolled, and if you don't I will see that you don't get on"? A Well now as to the first part of thatquestion, where you say he sent his son; that is an error; I don't know whether he came to my house or sent some one; when I returned home that evening my wife told me there was some one there to see me, and was at the city hotel at Wagoner, and said come down and see him; I went down there; I never had met Taylor; he introduced himself to me and stated what his business was; asked me if I was on the doubtful list, etc., to which I replied that we were; he asked me if I didn't want to employ him, stating that if he would give him, our family would give him five hundred dollars he would see that we were placed on the rolls all right, but if we refused to give him five hundred dollars that he would use his influence against us and see that we were rejected.
Q You never had met him before, or had any communication with him?
A I never met him before; as to the communication, I may have written him something about his affidavit as to the validity of that judgment, I can't say as to that. He said in his testimony that I did: I don't know whether I did or not now.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q You knew he was the attorney in the case, originally? A After looking at the records I did.
Q I mean you knew it at the time you wrote to him about the affidavit: that was the reason why you thought he would know something? A Certainly.
Q He never told you he was going to swear against you or threatened to tell anything that was not true? A He just simply said unless we gave him that five hundred dollars he would see we were left out off the rolls.
Q Said he would use his influence against you, that is what he said? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You don't deny writing to him then for the affidavit? A I don't say I did or I did not; I neither affirm it or deny the question.
Q You went to Captain Benge and also wrote him with reference to what he knew about the case? A I don't know whether I wrote him or not, I said I was under the impression I wrote via son.
Q You went to see Aaron Butler, who was interpreter before that court that admitted you? A Yes sir.
Q And you went with Aaron Butler to see Jim Smith, attorney before that court? A Yes sir.
Q And you either wrote or went to see everybody you knew of that was before that court then? A Yes sir.
Q That shows you used considerable activity? A Yes sir, I used such activity as was to my interest.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q That was all after the representatives of the Cherokee Nation objected to the enrollment of the Dawson family and by reason thereof such as had appeared before the Commission had been placed upon a doubtful card? A Yes sir.
Q Then you began to look up the evidence and see what there was in it? A Yes sir.
Q As Mr. Hastings has stated? A That's right.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q You are a grandson of James Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q The old gentleman? A Yes sir.
Q About what was his age when he was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, in 1884, wasn't it? A Yes sir, well I can't be exact as to that.
Q Well as nearly as you can? A He was somewhere about 70 or 72, years of age.
Q Well what other James Dawson did you know belonging to the families, either one of these families, Robert Dawson family or the James Dawson family? A I never knew of but two James Dawsons.
Q Who were the others? A Dr. James R. Dawson, who is present and standing right here; my grandfather, James Dawson.
Q Was there in '84 any James R. Dawson 35 or 40 or 45 years old, that you know of, belonging to either one of these families?
A No sir.
Q Do you know how old Dr. James R. Dawson was that that time?
A James Dawson? Q No I am speaking of Dr. James R. Dawson? A Oh, how old he was, no sir, I do not.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q Do you know who was here attending to your father's citizenship case at that time, at the time they were admitted? A Yes sir, James Low and Bill Jackson, son of Ellen Jackson.
Q Who was W. A. Dawson? A That is Wilburn, my uncle.
Q Was he here? A I don't know sir.
Q You were not here any of the time? A No sir.
Q You knew your grandfather then, you had lived in the same neighborhood with him? A Yes sir, I knew him well.
Q He didn't die for a year or two after that did he? A After when, Mr. Hutchings?
Q After his admission to citizenship? A No sir, he didn't die I think until '91 or '90, several years after.
Q Very old man when he died? A Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q About what age? A He was approximately 80 years old.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q When he died? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q That about level? A I think so, yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Applicants object to the testimony of the witness elicited by interrogatories of Counsel for the Cherokee Nation relating to his family, their history, etc, as being immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

James R. Dawson, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Your name is James R. Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Where do you live? A Afton, Indian Territory.
Q What is your age? A 45.
Q You are a Cherokee are you not? A Yes sir.
Q Was James Dawson, whose family was admitted in 1884, an uncle of yours? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know what his age was at that time? A No sir, I do not, only approximately.
Q State as nearly as you can? A At the time of the admission?
Q Yes sir? A About 70, I don't know exactly.
Q How old was he when he died? A I would suppose he was about 78.
Q What was your age in 1884? A I am 45.
Q What year were you born, Doctor? A I was born in '83.
Q Then have been '39? A Yes sir, that's right.
Q What was your age then? A In '84?
Q Yes sir? A About 38.
Q Were you present at the time that James Dawson family was admitted, or at any time while their case was pending before the Cherokee citizenship commission? A Not while the James Dawson case was, no sir.
Q You were present during your father's case? A I was there at the time.
Q When was that? A The dates I dispute her; when the case first come up, I dispute her the exact date.
Q How long were you there? A I was there about a week.
Q Was that when it first came up you say? A Yes sir.
Q Nothing was done? A No sir.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q You never saw Dr. Baker? A Yes sir.
Q Did he and your uncle Jim use to talk about how they played together when they were boys? A My uncle Jim and Dr. Baker talk?
Q Yes? A I never saw them together.
Q They were about the same age? A Yes sir, I believe Dr. Baker was 15 years older probably.
Q Dr. Baker must have been listened about his own age? A Guessing, that's all I know about his age.
Q The Doctor had been paralyzed, rather a decrepit looking man at the time he was over here at the citizenship business? A No sir, not as I know anything about.
Q He was near about 70 then? A I couldn't tell you, he was an old looking man.
Q Your uncle Jim was about 70? A Yes sir.

TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF THE CHEROKEE NATION.

W. W. HASTINGS, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q State your name? A W. W. Hastings.
Q Residence? A Tahlequah, age 35.
Q You are attorney for the Cherokee Nation in the general preparation of these cases? A Yes sir.
Q Just state how it happened that you summoned Mr. Campbell Taylor, and what occurred between you with reference to his testimony?
A Well there had been some talk, as the testimony here indicates, that there was perhaps fraud in the admission of this family, and by agreement with counsel on the other side, and the Commission, this case was set for the 17th day of March, and some short time prior to that, as the attorney for the Nation I began to make some preparation or inquiry into the case, and I wrote a great many letters around to different people and among them I wrote C. H. Taylor to come down here. I don't think in that letter that I told him what I wanted with him. I don't think I told him the case that I wanted him to testify in; that is my recollection now. Mr. Taylor prior to that time, neither directly nor indirectly, so far as I know, ever gave me any information voluntarily against this family, or ever said anything that would lead me to believe that he knew anything of a fraudulent character connected with it. But I summonsed him; perhaps the fact that I knew he had been connected with them in some way and that I perhaps also would get some information from him. Well he came in response to a letter that I wrote, and I took him up to my office. I talked to him quite a long while. He was exceedingly reluctant about giving any testimony whatever, he told me first and last that he didn't intend to testify before the Commission. He told me he had been attorney for these people, and he didn't believe he could be compelled to testify, and that is he was put upon the stand he would claim that privilege, and he didn't believe I could force him to testify. I talked to him at some considerable length; I asked him what he knew about it; of course he for a long time declined to tell me; and what information I did get from him was by piecemeal. He was exceedingly reluctant all through the interview to give any information. I asked him finally though that if the Court compelled him to testify when he got before the Commission, if he would tell the facts about it, and he said that he would. I told him then that I would subpoena him.
Well we talked quite a good while and finally after always telling me that he intended to claim that privilege, and never wanting to testify, he detailed to me the facts just as he told them on the stand; I don't believe there is the slightest variation, except that he perhaps was not so full at that time and it was told by piecemeal, but I got all those facts out of him, or very nearly all those facts out of him. He may have elaborated a little more here by examination; but he never voluntarily gave me any information at all, either directly or so far as I know indirectly. I don't think he sent any one to me. I got his name because I heard he was connected with the case, and perhaps knew something about it, like I did a great many other people, some of whom I didn't bring, because they didn't know what I supposed they did know about the case.

With reference to S. H. Benge, I want to state that he never voluntarily gave me any information at all about this case, nor did I know that he knew anything in connection with this case until I sent J. C. Starr over to S. H. Benge's place to take his affidavit on Saturday, March 15, in the W. H. and J. W. Shoemake case, and their descendants. I had heard that Mr. Benge knew some important facts in connection with the Shoemake case and I sent him over there then to take that affidavit; and when Mr. Starr came back he told me that he knew some facts also in connection with these other cases, and I was surprised to find he had instead of one affidavit, in the Shoemake case, that he also had another affidavit in the Dawson case. That is the first information I had that Mr. Benge knew anything whatever in connection with the Dawson case, and therefore he never voluntarily, either directly or indirectly gave any information prior to that time to me.

I impressed upon Mr. Taylor that the Nation only wanted the absolute truth in this matter; that it was not seeking anything else but the truth, and didn't want him to tell anything else but the truth.

I want to say again that after he was on the stand and left that evening, and after Captain McKennon, or counsel for the family, had indicated his willingness for Mr. Taylor to testify, that he went over all of these facts that he testified to on the stand subsequent to that time in the presence of J. C. Starr in my office. I simply wanted to go on the stand for the purpose of showing that Mr. Taylor hadn't voluntarily given me any information, and I make this statement for that purpose.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q You had no power to compel him to give you any information at that time at all did you? A No sir, none other than the persuasion that I brought to use.

Q He therefore did it simply upon your persuation? A Yes sir.

Q You knew he had been acting as attorney for these parties?

A Yes sir, I had seen from the record that he did too.

Q And he told you so? A Yes sir.

BY COMMISSION: The attorneys for the applicant and the representatives of the Cherokee Nation will be granted thirty days from the receipt of the transcript in this case in which to file a brief in this case with the Commission.

I, M. D. Green, do hereby certify that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes I correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) M. D. Green.

I, Arthur C. Evans, being duly sworn, state that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes I copied the foregoing, and that the same is a true and complete copy of the original.

Martin, a Notary Public on October 4, 1900, and further proceedings were had therein before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory on March 17, 1902. All of these proceedings have been made a part of the record herein.

The evidence, and an examination of the records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission show that on January 11, 1883, one Robert Dawson and his adult children, F. M. Dawson, Elbert Dawson, Jasper Dawson, Mollie Dawson, Wilborn Dawson, James Dawson, Rial Dawson, Josephine Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson and John Dawson were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, commonly known as the "Teehee Court", and that on September 9, 1884, one James Dawson, a brother of the Robert Dawson aforesaid, together with his adult children, Ella Dawson, W. A. Dawson, Malvina Dawson and Missouri Dawson were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship commonly known as the "Spears Court." In addition to their tribal enrollment as shown by the evidence herein, it also appears from an examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, in the possession of this Commission, that F. M. Dawson is identified on the Cherokee pay rolls of 1883 and 1894, Elbert Dawson on the Cherokee pay roll of 1886, Mollie Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, Wilborn Dawson on the pay rolls of 1886 and 1894, James Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883 and 1894, Rial Dawson on the pay rolls of 1886 and 1894, Josephine Dawson on the pay roll of 1886, Jane Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, Joseph Dawson and John Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883, 1886 and 1894, Ella Dawson and W. A.-

Dawson on the pay roll of 1888, and Missouri Dawson on the pay roll of 1894.

A majority of the above named persons, together with the descendants of the persons admitted as aforesaid and such white persons as may have intermarried with the said Dawsons or their descendants are the applicants herein.

For convenience, the applications are divided into groups:

Group 1, includes the applications of Francis M. Dawson and those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 734, D 580, D 581, D 584, D 588 and D 835.

The evidence shows that Francis M. Dawson is the same person admitted to citizenship as hereinbefore stated under the name of F.M. Dawson. Katie Dawson, his wife, was married to him on November 21, 1880. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since they were married, and the six children included in the application of said Francis M. Dawson, and hereinbefore named are the issue of the marriage aforesaid. All the applicants herein are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

John Dawson, William R. Dawson, Lizzie Atkins, formerly Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, Jr., and Arizona Allred are the children of said Francis M. Dawson by a former wife, Julia Ann. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship. John Dawson, Lizzie Atkins and Francis M. Dawson, Jr., are identified on the Strip Payment roll of 1894, and William R. Dawson and Arizona Allred are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Andrew G. Atkins was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on March 22, 1891, to the above named Lizzie Dawson. He has resided in the Cherokee Nation with his said wife since they were married, and the four children included in his application, and hereinbefore named are the issue of that marriage. The oldest child, Arthur, is identified on the Cherokee pay roll of 1894, and the three younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Arizona Allred, nee Dawson, came from Arkansas to the Cherokee Nation for the first time in 1894, remained there about two years and then returned to Arkansas, where she was married to Lee Allred. Such marriage was not in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. Arizona Allred and her husband came to the Cherokee Nation in 1896, stayed there a month and returned to Arkansas where they remained until September, 1898, at which time they came to the Cherokee Nation, remained there about a year and returned to Arkansas in 1899, where they were living at the date of this application. William C. Allred is the child of said Arizona Allred and possesses no rights not acquired by his mother. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Paragraph 9, Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) provides:

> "No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the Nation in which he claims citizenship."

The evidence further shows that Francis M. Dawson, his wife, Katie and William R. Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, Jr., and Lizzie Atkins have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883, and Andrew C. Atkins, the husband of said Lizzie Atkins, since 1891, and that John Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation for at least fourteen years prior to the date of his application. The residence of the minor children of the above named persons is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group II, includes the applications of Samuel R. Dawson, together with those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 350, D 352, D 358, D 365, D 482 and D 402.

The evidence shows that Samuel R. Dawson is identified as the Rial Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. His wife, Catherine, a white woman, was married to him on July 11, 1866. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since their marriage, and August and Mate Dawson are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. Samuel R. Dawson, his wife and children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Robert Dawson, Albert H. Dawson, Josephine Bulawsky, formerly Josephine Dawson, John W. Dawson, and Katie Newman, formerly Katie Dawson are the children of said Samuel R. Dawson. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Sarah F. Dawson, nee Abbott, was married to the said Albert H. Dawson in October, 1894. She has lived with her said husband, since they were married. Ralph H., Alford and Cecil Dawson are the issue of that marriage. Sarah F. Dawson and her child Ralph H. are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. Alford is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission. The evidence further shows that the youngest child, Cecil Dawson, is dead.

August Bulawsky, was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on May 25, 1893, to the said Josephine Dawson. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. The four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and the Strip payment roll of 1894. May Bulawsky is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and Oscar Bulawsky is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Mannie Dawson, nee Baugher, was married to the said John W. Dawson on September 2, 1894, and she has lived with her said husband since they were married.

The evidence further shows that Samuel R. Dawson, his wife, Catherine, and Robert Dawson, Albert H. Dawson, John W. Dawson, and Katie Newman have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1886, August Bulawsky and his wife Josephine, since 1892, and Sarah F. and Mannie Dawson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group III, includes the application of John Dawson, and those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 578, D 360 and D 530. The evidence shows that John Dawson is the same person admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated, Sarah J. Dawson, nee Wood, his wife, a white woman, was married to him on October 4, 1871. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since they were married and the nine children included in the application of said John Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. John Dawson, his wife, and his seven older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Thomas P. Dawson and Orle H. Dawson are the children of said John Dawson. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship, and they are both identified on the Cherokee

Census roll of 1896.

Thomas P. Dawson was married on April 24, 1898, to Allen A. Allison, and Mariee J. Dawson is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Orle H. Dawson was married on December 28, 1899, to Willie York, and Burr R. and James W. Dawson are the issue of that marriage. The said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said John Dawson and his wife, Sarah J., have resided together in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that said Orle H. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883, and that Thomas P. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888. The residence of the minor children herein is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IV, includes the applications of those claiming through the said Josephine Dawson, now deceased. At the time of her admission she was the wife of one Thomas Pierce, but was admitted to citizenship under maiden name of Dawson. The group embraces cases numbered D 408, D 409, D 431, D 471, I 472 and D 479.

The evidence shows that Robert Pierce, William Pierce, Charles E. Pierce, Oma Gray, formerly Oma Pierce, Effie Pierce (now Effie Akin?) and Nancy J. Bogle, formerly Nancy J. Pierce are the children of said Josephine Dawson. They were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Nellie Pierce, a white woman, was married to said Robert Pierce on July 15, 1894. She has lived with her said husband since they were married, and Myrtle and Arthur Pierce are the issue of that marriage. Nellie Pierce is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and her two children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Oma Gray was married to John B. Gray on April 7, 1898, and Cecil and Velton Gray are the issue of that marriage. Oma Gray is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894 and her children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

John S. Bogle was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 5, 1894, to the above named Nancy J. Pierce. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. John S. Bogle and his two older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his four younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said William Pierce died in January, 1902.

It further appears that Robert Pierce, Charles E. Pierce, Nancy J. Bogle and Oma Gray have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; that John S. Bogle, husband of Nancy J. Bogle, and Nellie Pierce, wife of Robert Pierce, have resided in said Nation ever since they were married, and the residence of the minor children herein is considered to be that of their parents with whom they are living. It appears that Effie Aking was seventeen years old at the date of the application for her enrollment, and it further appears that she resided in the Cherokee Nation from about 1886 up to December, 1900, when she went to Colorado, was married there to Will Aking, and is now living in that state with her said husband.

Group V, includes the application of the said Joseph Dawson, Wilborn Dawson and James Dawson, and embraces cases numbered D 364, D 475 and D 526.

Joseph R. Dawson is identified as the Joseph Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. He was married to Florence Jackson on May 16, 1886, and they have lived together since the date of their marriage. The said Florence Jackson is the daughter of Ella Dawson, but she was of age at the date of her mother's admission to citizenship. The six children included in the application of said Joseph R. Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the marriage between the said Joseph R. Dawson and Florence Jackson. The applicant, his said wife and his four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Wilborn Dawson is identified as the person of that name admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

James R. Dawson is identified as the James Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as heretofore stated. His wife, Martha A. Dawson was married to him on February 20, 1890. She has lived with her said husband since the date of their marriage, and the four children included in the application of said James R. Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. The applicant, his said wife and his three older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The youngest child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that Joseph R. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that Florence Dawson and Wilborn Dawson have resided in said Nation since 1886, and that James R. Dawson has resided in said Nation since 1883, excepting a temporary absence from 1889 to 1891. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group VI, includes the application of Mollie Dawson and those claiming through her and embraces case numbered D 518.

The evidence shows that Mollie Moore, formerly Dawson, is identified as the Mollie Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. Her husband, Charles T. Moore, was married to her under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on January 17, 1887. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. Charles T. Moore, his wife Mollie, and his four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896; the two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that said Charles T. Moore, his wife Mollie and his oldest child have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; the younger children have resided in said nation all their lives.

Group VII, includes the applications of those claiming through the above named Jane Dawson, who, at the time of her admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, as hereinbefore stated, was the wife of one Alexander Blasingame, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson. Jane Dawson is a resident of Arkansas, and is not an applicant for enrollment. This group embraces cases numbered D 832, D 833 and D 834.

The evidence shows that Henry A. Blasingame, Elbert L. Blasingame, and James R. Blasingame are the children of said Jane Dawson. They were minors at the time of their mother's admission to citizenship and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Henry A. Blasingame was married to his wife Birdie J., on December 6, 1896, and Vinnie C. Blasingame is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Ida Blasingame, a white woman, was married to the said Elbert L. Blasingame on September 5, 1894. She has lived with her said husband ever since they were married and the four minor children included in the application of said Elbert L. Blasingame are the issue of that marriage. The said Ida Blasingame and her two older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Mary A. Blasingame was married to the said James R. Blasingame on August 11, 1895. She has lived with her said husband since they were married and the three minor children included in the application of said James R. Blasingame, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. Mary A. Blasingame and her oldest child are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said Henry A. Blasingame, Elbert L. Blasingame and James R. Blasingame removed to the Cherokee Nation in 1897 and have resided therein with their said wives ever since. The residence of the minor children included in this Group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group VIII, includes the applications of those claiming through the said Elbert Dawson, and embraces cases numbered D 435, D 604, D 608, D 605, D 609, D 617, D 626 and D 627.

The evidence shows that Zona Patterson, formerly Dawson, William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Richard W. Dawson, Ella L. Spickerman, formerly Dawson, and Francis M. Dawson are the children of the said Elbert Dawson. All of them, excepting the said Francis M. Dawson, were minors at the time of their father's admission to citizenship. Zona Patterson is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson are identified on the Strip Payment roll of 1894. An examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, in the possession of this Commission, shows that the said Ella L. Spickerman is also identified on the Strip Payment roll of 1894.

Martin L. Patterson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on July 13, 1890, to the said Zona Dawson. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. Martin L. Patterson and his three older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his three younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Alice Dawson, nee Alexander, was married to the said William C. Dawson on November 18, 1886. She has lived with her said husband ever since they were married.

Elbert B. Dawson was married on February 16, 1898, to Cora Bright, a non-citizen, and his child Ralph E. Dawson is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Sarah J. Dawson, nee Jones, was married to the above named Elbert Dawson about 1854, and lived with him as his wife until his death in February, 1899, and has not re-married since his death. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship.

Richard W. Dawson was married to Luella Mason, a white woman, on January 24, 1898. His child Ina E. Dawson is the issue of that marriage, and she is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Ella L. Spickerman was married to John J. Spickerman, a white man, on September 7, 1897. Her children Hellen J. and William Clem are the issue of that marriage. They are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

It further appears from the evidence that Francis M. Dawson, son of Elbert Dawson, at the time of his father's admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation was twenty-two or twenty-three years old. There is no evidence that the said Francis M. Dawson has been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 496), provides for the enrollment of,

> "all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents, by reason of their Cherokee blood have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, and who were minors when their parents were so admitted."

The evidence further shows that Zona Patterson, William C. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson, and Ella L. Spickerman since 1883; Alice Dawson since 1836, and Martin L. Patterson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IX, includes the applications of the said Missouri Dawson, and these claiming through her. The said Missouri Dawson at the time of her admission to citizenship was the wife of one John W. Graham, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson, This group embraces cases numbered D 23, D 35, D 836, D 1124, D 1125, D 1126, D 1127 and D 1128.

The evidence shows that John W. Graham was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on February 12, 1883, to the said Missouri Dawson. He had been formerly married to her in the State of Texas in 1866, and has lived with her since that time. Tempa V. and Robert S. Graham are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. John W. Graham, his wife and two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

ship in the Cherokee Nation was twenty-two or twenty-three years old. There is no evidence that the said Francis M. Dawson has been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides for the enrollment of,

> "all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents, by reason of their Cherokee blood have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, and who were minors when their parents were so admitted."

The evidence further shows that Zona Patterson, William C. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson, and Ella L. Spicherman since 1883; Alice Dawson since 1886, and Martin L. Patterson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IX, includes the applications of the said Missouri Dawson, and those claiming through her. The said Missouri Dawson at the time of her admission to citizenship was the wife of one John W. Graham, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson. This group embraces cases numbered, D 23, D 35, D 836, D 1124, D 1125, D 1126, D 1127 and D 1128.

The evidence shows that John W. Graham was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on February 12, 1888, to the said Missouri Dawson. He had been formerly married to her in the State of Texas in 1886, and has lived with her since that time. Tompa V. and Robert S. Graham are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. John W. Graham, his wife and the children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Joe E. Graham was married to Mary Bradshaw, a non-citizen on January 6, 1898. William C. Graham is the issue of that marriage, and he is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

John F. Graham was married on February 11, 1900, to Mattie Lawson, a non-citizen, and Edna M. and Robert Lee are the issue of that marriage. Said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Bessie Graham was married on November 2, 1892, to the said James M. Graham. She has lived with him since the date of their marriage, and the six children included in the application of said James M. Graham, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the said marriage. The oldest child Marion is identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894, and the five younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said John W. Graham, his wife Missouri Graham, Gideon Graham, Mathew A. Painter, and his wife Laverna A. Painter, Florence P. Bradshaw, John F. Graham and Joe Willie Neal have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888, and that Joe E. Graham and James M. Graham have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group X, includes the application of the said Ella Dawson and those claiming through her. The said Ella Dawson, at the time of her admission to citizenship, was the wife of Green W. Jackson, but she was admitted to citizenship under her maiden name of Dawson. This group embraces cases numbered D 395, D 476, D 608, D 830 and D 847.

The evidence shows that Green W. Jackson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on March 24, 1887 to the said Ella Dawson. He had been previously married to her in Texas prior to her admission to citizenship. From an affidavit made a part of this record it appears that Green W. Jackson died subsequent to the date of this application, and prior to September 1, 1902.

The evidence further shows that Flora Harmon, formerly Jackson, Toshio A. Jackson, William Jackson and Fannie Lenox, formerly Jackson are the children of said Ella Dawson, now Ella Jackson. Flora Harmon, Toshio A. Jackson and Fannie Lenox were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

James H. Harmon was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 24, 1887, to the said Flora Jackson. He has lived with his wife since the date of their marriage, and the four minor children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the said marriage. James H. Harmon and his three elder children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The youngest child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

William C. Lenox was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 1, 1888, to the said Fannie Jackson. He has lived with his wife since the date of their marriage, and the two children Birtie E. and Myrtle Lenox, included in his application, are the issue of the said marriage. William C. Lenox and his two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Lizzie Jackson claims to have been married in 1888 to the said William Jackson, who is now deceased. It appears that William Jackson at the date of his mother's admission to citizenship, was over twenty-one years old. There is no evidence that the said William Jackson was ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). Lizzie Jackson and the five minor children included in her application, and hereinbefore named, are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and they take only such rights as may have been possessed by the said William Jackson. The authority of the Commission herein is defined in Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), heretofore quoted.

The evidence further shows that the said Ella Jackson, the said Flora Harmon and the said Toshie A. Jackson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884, and that William C. Lenox, and his wife Fannie Lenox have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XI, includes the applications of those claiming through Malvina Dawson and embraces case numbered D 839.

The evidence shows that James Lowe is the son of the said Malvina Dawson, and that at the time of her admission to citizenship the said James Lowe was over 21 years old. There is no evidence that the said James Lowe was ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). It further appears that the said James Lowe was married on June 12, 1887, to Mollie Knight, a white woman, and the four minor children included in his application and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. James Lowe and his said children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896 and said children take only the rights which may have been acquired by their father.

The authority of the Commission herein is derived in Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), heretofore quoted.

Group XII, includes the applications of those claiming through the said W. A. Dawson and embraces cases numbered D 405, D 406, D 715, R 12 and R 13.

The evidence shows that Millie T. Dawson was married to the said W. A. Dawson in 1892 and lived with him as his wife in the Cherokee Nation until his death in 1899, and that she has not re-married since his death. Texanna Woolley is the daughter of said W. A. Dawson and his former wife Melissa A. Dawson. Texanna Woolley was a minor at the date of her father's admission to citizenship, and she is identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894. She was married on March 27, 1898, to James Woolley, and her children Irene W. and Wilburn E. are the issue of that marriage. They are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Henry T. Richardson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on July 11, 1886, to one Sellar Dawson, who was the daughter of the said W. A. Dawson by his first wife Melissa A. Sellar Dawson was a minor at the date of her father's admission to citizenship. Henry T. Richardson lived in the Cherokee Nation with his said wife Sellar from the date of their marriage until her death in 1892. On September 22, 1898, Henry T. Richardson married one Kitty Flournoy nee Dawson. The said Kitty Flournoy was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. Of the children herein applied for, Delia F. Richardson is the child of the applicant by his first wife, Sellar. Finis T. Richardson and Jasper C. Richardson are children by his wife Kitty. Edgar, Walter, Alice, Laura, Oscar, Claude and Edna Flournoy are the children of his said wife Kitty by a former husband.

The six older children were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on December 1, 1894, with their mother as the members of her family. The youngest child Edna Flournoy was born in 1896 and was living at the date of this application. Delia F. Richardson is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and Finis T. and Jasper C. Richardson are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Etta Brauer is the daughter of said W. A. Dawson, and was a minor at the date of her father's admission. She was married in 1892 to a non-citizen but such marriage was not in accordance with Cherokee laws. She is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Melissa A. Dawson was married to the said W. A. Dawson in the State of Texas on September 28, 1873. The Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in the case of Melissa A. Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson, decided that Melissa A. Dawson, the applicant herein was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of intermarriage with her said husband, W. A. Dawson. She is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and she has not re-married since her divorce from said W. A. Dawson.

The evidence shows that Texanna Woolley has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; that Etta Brauer and Melissa A. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation, with the exception of temporary absences, since 1884; that Millie T. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1892; that Henry T. Richardson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1886, and that Kitty Richardson, his wife, has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XIII, includes the following applications: Hiram F. Waddle, et al D 521; William D. Douthitt, D 522; Alonzo M. Fishback, D 543; Florence Morgan, et al D 737; John E. Fishback, D 848 and George A. Mabry, et al D 979. The persons embraced in these applications are related to the above named Dawsons. They are not claiming the right to enrollment by virtue of such relationship, but rely upon a separate adjudication of their rights.

The evidence shows that Hiram F. Weddle was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on September 15, 1884, to Lula P. Douthitt, who was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the said "Spears Court" on September 15, 1884. Curtis, Morris O. and Roy Weddle are the issue of the said marriage. Hiram F. Weddle and his said wife are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and their three children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

William D. Douthitt is the brother of said Lula P. Weddle, and was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation with his said sister on September 15, 1884. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Alonzo L. Fishback was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on May 17, 1881, to Lavinia A. Dawson. He had been previously married to the said wife in Texas in 1877, and has lived with her ever since. It appears that Lavinia Fishback was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. William A. and Annie B. Fishback are the issue of the said marriage. Alonzo L. Fishback and his said wife and children are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his wife is also identified on the Cherokee pay roll of 1880.

Florence Morgan, the wife of Elbert I. Morgan, is the daughter of the Kitty Richardson heretofore mentioned and was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on December 1, 1894 with the said Kitty Richardson as a member of her family. Clide and Alice A. Morgan are her children by her said husband. The said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

John R. Fishback is the son of Laverna Fishback, who was re-admitted to citizenship on December 1, 1894, as heretofore stated. He was a minor at the date of his mother's admission to citizenship and he is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

George A. Mabry was married to one Edna Dawson in the State of Arkansas in 1884. He claims to have been married under a Cherokee marriage license to his said wife in 1889, but he presents no satisfactory proof of such marriage. Edna Dawson was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. Roby and Charley Mabry are her children by her said husband, George A. Mabry. Edna Mabry is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894, and the two children were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship.

The evidence further shows that Alonzo H. Fishback and his wife Laverna A. Fishback have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that Lula P. Weddle, William D. Douthitt, and John R. Fishback have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884, and that Florence Morgan and Edna Mabry have resided in said Nation since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

All birth affidavits for the minor children embraced in this decision, and hereinbefore noted, are made a part of this record.

It is contended by the Cherokee Nation that the applicants herein are not entitled to be enrolled by this Commission because they have never been lawfully admitted or enrolled by the Cherokee authorities, and that the judgment of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship admitting Robert Dawson and his family was obtained by fraud on the part of said Dawson.

In considering the question at issue, it is the opinion of this Commission that it has no power, and that it is not the purpose of this proceeding, to review or to set aside the judgment in the Dawson case, or to determine such questions as were necessarily involved in the issues before the Cherokee Commission, and were passed upon by that Commission. In United States vs. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. Page 61, it is stated, "the doctrine is well settled that the Court will not set aside a judgment because it was founded on perjured testimony or for any matter which was actually presented and considered in the judgment assailed." Only such facts therefore, are considered by this Commission, as were not part of the record in the Robert Dawson case before the Teehee Commission, and which tend to show whether the judgment admitting the Dawsons was a bona fide judgment of the Teehee Commission, or whether such judgment is void because of fraud, and upon this proposition the burden of proof is upon those attacking the judgment.

Briefly stated, the circumstances attending the admission of the Dawsons appear to be as follows:

On September 24, 1881, an application was made to the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship known as the "Teehee Court" for admission to Cherokee citizenship of Robert Dawson and the members of his family above mentioned. The members of that Commission were Thomas Teehee, Alex Wolfe and T. F. Thompson. The first two were full blood Cherokee Indians; they could understand, but could not talk English. One D. W. C. Duncan was the Clerk of the Commission. The Dawson case was continued several times before final decision. J. M. Bryan appears to have been an attorney in the case, and after some delay he notified Francis M. Dawson that the case would be taken up by the Commission at its session in January, 1883, and also informed him that C.M.Ingler would look after Dawson's interests as he, Bryan, would be in Washington. On receipt of this notice Francis M. Dawson went to Fort Gibson, Cherokee Nation, and made arrangements with his uncle Samuel H. Benge to go to Tahlequah and conduct the case. Benge who is a witness herein testifies that he was connected with the Dawson case when it was commenced in 1881; that it was continued several times for want of evidence, and that in January, 1883, in company with F. M. Dawson he went to Tahlequah and while there secured the testimony of Tosh Rogers, a negro, who knew the Dawson's ancestors, and that after getting his evidence the case was submitted to the Commission. He further testifies that the Commission rendered a decision against the Dawsons and that next morning the Commission reopened the case, but not upon motion of the witness, and rendered a judgment admitting the Dawsons to citizenship. He further states that on his way home to Fort Gibson with Dawson he remarked to the latter, "it was a pretty hard blow when they rendered a decision against us," to which Dawson is alleged to have replied, "yes, but Duncan was the man to reach and he reached him with five hundred dollars."

Dawson denies ever having had such a conversation and says that he did not return to Fort Gibson with Benge but went home to Arkansas by a different route.

C. H. Taylor testifies that he was an attorney in the case and was present when the case was decided. He says there were only two Commissioners present, Teehee and Wolfe. He further testifies that D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of the Court asked the witness to let him know when any large citizenship cases came up; that he introduced F. M. Dawson to Duncan on the evening of January 10th, heard part of a conversation between them in which Duncan addressing Dawson said, "there is a hitch in your evidence, if that was straightened out it will be all right." Next morning witness says Dawson told him to call up the case, which he did. That there was no additional evidence introduced and no argument made, and that the case was then decided in favor of the Dawsons. Witness further testifies that Dawson gave him twenty dollars and said he would send him the balance in a short time, that in the course of ten days he sent him one hundred dollars with directions to pay over half of it to Duncan; that Dawson soon afterwards sent him another hundred dollars with the same instruction to give Duncan half of it.

Dawson denied the matters testified to by Taylor excepting in the matter of paying Taylor money, which he admits in part, but says that the twenty dollars mentioned was sent to Taylor about a year after the decision, and that he instructed Taylor to pay it over to Duncan to pay him for a land claim, and that the other money was in payment of J. M. Bryan's attorney fees which Taylor represented to Dawson he had for collection against him. Taylor's reputation for truth and veracity has been impeached by various disinterested witnesses.

The evidence which may be considered as tending to support the charge of fraud is the testimony of S. H. Benge, C. H. Taylor, Thomas L. Babeart, J. L. Clinkenbeard, James T. Lewis, C. G. Draught and David Meredith.

S. H. Benge testifies that a judgment adverse to the Dawsons was rendered by the Commission on the evening of one day and without any additional proceedings in the case that judgment was reversed on the morning of the next day.

Even if this were a material fact, there is no other proof that two judgments in the case were ever rendered. The record of the proceedings and judgment in the Commission's docket is all on one page, the entry of the application in 1881 and the first continuance being entered under authority of a former Commission and by a different clerk, and there is no evidence of erasure on that page. It is not an unusual thing for a Court to change its judgment, and this fact, if it is a fact, is not in itself any evidence of fraud.

Thomas B. Babcart testifies that one James Dawson, a man of forty or fifty years of age, in company with Butler, the Commission's interpreter and Jim Smith, solicitor for the Nation, came to the witness in Tahlequah the evening of January 10, 1883, to borrow some money; that Dawson was vouched for by Butler as a responsible party and that Dawson told the witness that he had to have money that night, that his case was to be submitted the next day if he could get some money, that Smith had agreed to submit the case without evidence, and that witness thereupon let Dawson have ten dollars.

Admitting all this to be true and that the influence of these officials was purchased for the sum of ten dollars, the Commission fails to see how these alleged facts show that the Court was imposed upon or misled. Bribery of officials to use their influence with the Commission would not necessarily vitiate the judgment, but it must appear that the fraud, or corruption reached the members of the Commission and tainted the judgment itself. The case was not submitted without evidence as appears from the record, and it is shown that such evidence was carefully considered by that Commission. Furthermore, the evidence shows that there was no such person then in Tahlequah as the James Dawson described by witness.

Clinkenbeard testifies that he had a talk with Elbert Dawson about 1881; that Dawson told him he had only one witness, Dr. Baker of Arkansas, "an old man 85 or 90 years old who did not know straight up," and that he could give Dr. Baker four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would swear black was white. Witness further testifies that Dawson told him that money was what made the mare go in Texas, and that he had found out that it goes here too.

Assuming that this Commission can go into thequestion of perjury in connection with evidence in that case, the testimony of Clinkenbeard establishes, if anything, only the facts stated, and does not prove that Dr. Baker committed perjury in giving his testimony before the Commission. Further, it is not clear that Dr. Baker was the only witness in the case. Benge stated that Tosh Rogers was a witness, Duncan is under that impression also, and T. F. Thompson, one of the Commissioners, states that he thinks there were three witnesses. The testimony of Dr. Baker, seems, however, to be the only testimony preserved of record. As to whether Doctor Baker offered perjured testimony by Dawson's procurement, it is proper to state that the evidence of W. H. Curtis and A. S. McClennon, witnesses for applicants, show that Doctor Baker was a man of integrity and was not addicted to drinking.

The testimony of James W. Lewis is to the effect that he had a conversation with F. M. Dawson about 1885, in which Dawson had told the witness that it had cost him seven hundred dollars to get his rights. Draught also testifies that he was an applicant for citizenship about 1881 or 1882, and that while his case was pending he had a talk with F. M. Dawson who told him that if he (the witness) ever got in, it would cost him seven hundred dollars, and that Dawson told him he had paid one witness three hundred dollars, and made arrangements with the Court to get the Dawsons in at one hundred dollars a family. David Meredith testifies that he had a talk with old James Dawson in 1886, and that the latter told the witness it cost him twelve hundred dollars to get his case through.

It can hardly be urged that such evidence is sufficient to show that the members of the Tochee Commission were corrupted by the fraudulent use of money. So far as these witnesses have been able to testify the money spent by the Dawsons might have been for proper and legitimate purposes. F. M. Dawson gives a detailed statement of what the case cost him and his brother in a legitimate way. The presumption can not be indulged that such moneys were used for fraudulent purposes and the proof to the contrary must be very clear before this Commission will deny applicants the right to be enrolled upon that ground.

Admitting the truth of all the testimony in this case as to the actual transfer of money by the Dawsons, it appears that Duncan, Butler and Smith were the only beneficiaries of that money. There is no evidence that the members of the Commission received or were offered any of it.

The judgment entered in the Commission's docket shows the signature of the three members of the Commission appended thereto. There is some conflict as to whether Duncan signed Thompson's name, or whether Thompson affixed his own signature. Duncan testified that all three signatures were made by him as Clerk under authority of the Commissioners present, the two full bloods being unable to sign their names. T. F. Thompson testifies that he signed the original transcript of the judgment, which was made on the day of its rendition. The question, however, is not considered to be very material. The signing of judgments by each Commissioner appears to have been a matter of custom only. T. F. Thompson testifies that he remembers the Dawson case and recognizes the judgment therein as the final judgment of the Commission, and that there was no fraud or corruption in the procurement of that judgment by the Dawsons or by any one else so far as he knew.

Much evidence has been introduced by the Cherokee Nation for the purpose of showing that the ancestor, through whom the Dawsons claim, was not a Cherokee, and that other members of the Dawson family, claiming from the same source, have been denied Cherokee citizenship by subsequent Cherokee tribunals, and also by this Commission and by the United States Court. Such evidence, in the opinion of this Commission, is not competent for any purpose in this proceeding. The only question before this Commission is whether there was fraud in the procurement of the Robert Dawson judgment, and not whether the applicants are Cherokee Indians, or whether they ought to have been admitted to citizenship upon the proof submitted. These were questions presented, considered and passed upon by the Tecihee Commission. If their decision is a valid and regular judgment, it is binding on this Commission. If, on the contrary, the applicants have never been lawfully admitted to citizenship, because the judgment under which they claim is void, for fraud, then the question as to whether they are Cherokees by blood is not material, as this Commission has now no authority to admit them to citizenship.

While it is true, that since 1883, a number of applicants, members of the Dawson family, have been denied admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, no argument derived therefrom is of any force, for it is also true that other members of the same family have been admitted to citizenship, and the action of the Cherokee authorities in admitting them has never been questioned by the Cherokee Nation. Whatever inference, therefore, may be drawn from these facts applies with equal force both for and against the validity of the judgment in question.

The Dawsons have lived in the Cherokee Nation, most of them since 1883; they have exercised the rights of Cherokee citizenship for many years, some of them occupying official positions in the Nation, and no protest seems to have been made against their citizenship until within the last few years. The records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission, show, that since 1883, there have been Commissions on citizenship charged with authority to investigate the judgments of former tribunals alleged to have been secured by fraud, and the Cherokee Legislature had power to order an investigation, and to create a tribunal with authority to set aside a judgment so obtained. No such action appears to have been taken by the Cherokee authorities with reference to the judgment of the Teehee Commission in the Robert Dawson case.

After a careful consideration of all the facts in this case this Commission is of the opinion that the evidence fails to establish that the Dawsons secured their admission to citizenship by fraud or that the judgment of the Teehee Commission as rendered January 11, 1883, was fraudulent as the result of corruption, bribery, or deception upon the part of the Dawsons, or their agents, and that such judgment, and also the judgment of the Spears Commission in 1884, and the Act of the Cherokee National Council of December 1, 1894, which have not been attacked by the Cherokee Nation, being regular on their face, must therefore be accepted by this Commission as the valid judgments of the duly constituted Cherokee authorities.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, enrolled as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the provisions of said Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress, and it is so ordered.

It is further the opinion of this Commission that, for the reasons heretofore stated, the applications for the enrollment of Arizona Allred and William C. Allred, (embraced in D 835); Francis M. Dawson, son of Elbert Dawson, (embraced in D 627); Osie Jackson, Lizzie Jackson, Jessie Jackson, Ray Jackson, and Clyde Jackson, the children of William and Lizzie Jackson, (embraced in D 830); James Lowe, May Lowe, Zelma Lowe, Roberta Lowe and Rosa Lowe, (embraced in D 836), as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that the applications of Lizzie Jackson, widow of William Jackson, (embraced in D 830), and George A. Mabry (embraced in D 979), as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, in accordance with the provisions of the law heretofore quoted, and it is so ordered.

As hereinbefore stated William Pierce (D 409) and Cecil Dawson (D 558) and Green W. Jackson (D 595), died prior to September 1, 1902. It further appears from affidavits, made a part of this record that Liddie and Margaret Graham (D 1128) have died since the date of the application for their enrollment and prior to September 1, 1902.

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of said William Pierce, Cecil Dawson, Green W. Jackson, Liddie Graham and Margaret Graham be, and the same are hereby dismissed.

ADDRESS ONLY THE
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 1st 1902

Ella L. Speckerman,

Tahlequah, Indian Territory,

Madam:-

You are hereby notified that the application of yourself and daughter for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 17th day of March, 1902.

On said date, you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission, in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting your application.

You are further notified that the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony tending to disprove your right to enrollment, but said Representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to introduce such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

Cherokee D-826

GROUP VIII.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to office report of even date transmitting Group I of the consolidated case of Francis M. Dawson, et al., applicants for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, there is enclosed herewith the record relative to the applicants parties to Group VIII.---

D.405, Group VIII, page 1.

Martin L. Patterson applies for the enrollment of himself as an intermarried citizen, and for the enrollment of his wife, Emma, and their minor children, Sarah A., Martha A., Glenco A., Edgar D., Thomas M. and Virgil V. Patterson, as citizens by blood. Virgil V. was born subsequent to the date of his original application and is identified by birth affidavit.

D.404, Group VIII, page 11.

William T. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Alice Dawson, as an intermarried citizen.

D.403, Group VIII, page 11.

Robert L. Dawson applies for enrollment as a citizen by blood.

D.626, Group VIII, page 16.

Albert R. Dawson applied for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ralph R. Dawson, as citizens by blood. The child was born subsequent to the date of his original application, and is identified by birth affidavit.

D.627, Group VIII, page 16.

Sarah J. Dawson applies for the enrollment of herself as an intermarried citizen.

D.627, Group VIII, page 23.

Richard V. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ina M. Dawson, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Lucile Dawson, as a citizen by intermarriage. The Commission states that Lucile Dawson is differently classed and is not embraced in its decision.

D.626, Group VIII, page 27.

Ella L. Spickerman applied for the enrollment of herself and her minor child, Velon J. Spickerman, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband, John J. Spickerman, as a citizen by intermarriage. She also applies for the enrollment as a citizen by blood of her child, William C. Spickerman, who was born after her original application. This child is identified by a birth affidavit. The Commission states that John J. Spickerman has been differently classed and is not embraced in its decision.

D.627, Group VIII, page 31.

Francis M. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood.

POOR ORIGINAL -

The record in this case shows that Martin L. Patterson, (Group VIII, page 1), was married July 13, 1898, to Rena Patterson nee Dawson, daughter of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted by the Dawes Court, January 11, 1906. The marriage was performed in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. Rena Patterson nee Dawson was a minor when her father was admitted. Rena Patterson's name appears on the 1896 census roll, as does the names of Martin L. Patterson, Sarah A., Martha and Claude (A.) Patterson. Edgar B., Thomas H. and Virgil V. Patterson are identified by birth affidavits.

William G. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 11), is a son of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1906. He was a minor when his father was admitted. He was married to Alice Dawson, November 16, 1904. He is identified by the 1896 and 1896 rolls of the Cherokee Nation. From the record it does not seem that the name of his wife is found on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation.

Robert L. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 15), is a son of Hibert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1906. He was a minor when his father was admitted.

Hibert E. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 16), is the son of Hibert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1906. He was a minor when his father was admitted. February 16, 1905, he was married to Cora Wright, a non-citizen. His name appears on the 1896 roll, but is not on the 1896 roll.

Sarah J. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 19), is the widow of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1906. The applicant's husband is identified by the 1896 pay-roll of the Cherokee Nation. It does not appear from the record that her name is on any roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Richard W. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 22), is the son of Hibert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was a minor when his father was admitted to citizenship. He was married to Luella Mason, a white woman, January 24, 1894.

Nila L. Spickermann, (Group VIII, page 27), is the daughter of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted in 1883. She was a minor when her father was admitted to citizenship. Sept. 7, 1897, she was married to John J. Spickermann, a white man. She is identified by the 1894 roll.

Francis M. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 21), is a son of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was of age when his father was admitted, and it does not appear that he was admitted to citizenship. From the evidence it does not seem that Francis M. Dawson's name is found on any roll of the Cherokee Nation. He claims to have lived in the Cherokee Nation since 1884. It appears that he and the members of his family were refused enrollment by the Cherokee tribal authorities in 1896.

It is known that Zona Patterson, William G. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson, have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884. Robert L. Dawson, Hibert R. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson and Nila L. Spickermann, have resided there since 1883. Alice Dawson has resided in the Nation since 1886 and Martin L. Patterson since 1894.

The Commission in its decision of December 23, 1903, held that all of the parties in this group, except Luella Dawson and J. J. Spickermann, who are differently classed, and Francis M. Dawson (Group VIII, page 21), were entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation--Martin L. Patterson, Alice Dawson and Sarah J. Dawson, as citizens by intermarriage and the others as citizens by blood.

[illegible]

For the reasons set forth in office report of even date, transmitting Group I of this consolidated case, the approval of the Commission's decision is recommended, except in so far as it relates to Martin L. Patterson, Alice Dawson and Sarah J. Dawson, who apply for enrollment as intermarried citizens. The question submitted to the Court of Claims not having been passed upon by the Court, their applications should not be considered at this time. The right of Francis M. Dawson to enrollment as a citizen by blood will be discussed herein.

August 21, 1903, Harry S. Kimball and W. F. White, attorneys for this city, filed a brief on behalf of applicant Francis M. Dawson, for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. In their letter it is said that a copy of this brief has been forwarded to the attorney for the Cherokee Nation, W. W. Hastings, Esq. Kimball & White in their brief state that Francis M. Dawson is the son of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, January 11, 1841, and that he was at that time about 22 years of age. They claim that his father applied for readmission February 24, 1880, and that Francis M. Dawson was at the date of this application less than 21 years of age that he has resided in the Cherokee Nation from the time of his fathers admission, and they take the position that the only reason the Commission gives for refusing his enrollment is that he was more than 21 years of age at the time of his father's admission. The statement is made by them "his name appears upon every roll since his father's admission. He drew his share of the strip money and has resided nowhere except in said Nation." They claim that under Section 5, of the Amendments to Article 3, of the Constitution, and the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General in the James W. Shirley case of June 11, 1903, Francis M. Dawson is entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

From the record it does not appear that the name of Francis M. Dawson is found on any rolls of the Cherokee Nation. The Commission, in what is understood to be its field decision or field note, says: "He is not identified on any roll since that time," meaning the date of his father's admission. In this decision or note it is also said: "The application for admission is shown by the document cited to be dated January 4, 1841, and giving the applicant the benefit of the supposition that the fact of admission would date from the application, he was a minor at that time.

In the brief of Kimball & White it is alleged that Elbert Dawson applied "for admission February 24, 1840." There seems to be considerable doubt as to the exact date Elbert Dawson made application for admission for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, but from the records it appears the true date is September 24, 1841. By the supplemental testimony it is shown that the application of Elbert Dawson et al., for admission to citizenship was "filed September 24, 1841."

Francis M. Dawson, October 17, 1900, (Group VIII, page 31), testified among other things that he was 59 years of age "on the last day of December last," meaning December 31, 1899. If this be true, and if the correct date of the application of his father, Elbert Dawson, is September 24, 1841, Francis M. Dawson was 20 years 3 months and 23 days old at the date of his father's application. The office believes that the date of admission should be held to relate back to the date of the application. There is nothing in the record which shows that Elbert Dawson, or any of the other applicants of 1841, were asked in 1843 whether any of their children had arrived at the age of majority.

In lieu of the foregoing, it is respectfully recommended that the decision of the Commission as to Francis M. Bowden be not approved, and that the Commission be directed to enroll him as a citizen of the Cherokee nation by blood, unless there be some reason which does not appear in the record why the same should not be done. There seems to be no question but that he is of Cherokee blood.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,
Commissioner.

March 21, 1904.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

February 26, 1904, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application of Francis M. Dawson et al. for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

In your decision of December 23, 1903, you disposed of the applications in the Dawson case by groups. Group VIII, as disposed of by you, includes the applications of those persons who claim enrollment by virtue of their descent from Hibert Dawson, who was admitted to Cherokee citizenship by decree of the Tahee Court dated January 14, 1883. These applications are designated by you as D.433, D.434, D.435, D.436, D.439, D.447, D.456, and D.457.

It appears that the principal applicants in this group, claiming enrollment by blood, viz: Rena Patterson, formerly Dawson, William G. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Hibert F. Dawson, Richard N. Dawson, Ella L. Spielmeyer, formerly Dawson, and Francis M. Dawson, are the children of the said Hibert Dawson. All of them except the said Francis M. Dawson were minors at the time of their father's admission to citizenship.

The application of Martha L. Patterson, D.433, was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife, Rena Patterson; and his six minor children, Sarah A., Martha A., Claude A., Edgar D., Thomas M., and Virgil V. Patterson, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The said Martin L. Patterson was married July 14, 1898, in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, to the said Rena Patterson, nee Dawson. He has resided in the nation since his marriage, and the six children named above are the issue of said marriage. His name, and the names of his three older children, are on the Cherokee census roll of 1896. The three younger children are identified by birth affidavits. Rena Patterson, nee Dawson, is also identified on said roll, and he resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1894.

William C. Dawson, D.604, applied for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Alice Dawson, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. He is identified upon the strip payment roll of 1894, and has resided in the nation since 1894. He was married November 18, 1896, to the said Alice Dawson, nee Alexander, who has resided with him since their marriage.

The application of Robert L. Dawson, D.605, was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. He is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894, and has resided in the nation since 1893.

The application of Hibert B. Dawson, D.606, was for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ralph H. Dawson, as Cherokees by blood. Said Hibert B. Dawson is identified upon the strip payment roll of 1894. His son is identified by a birth affidavit. The father has resided in the nation since 1893. On February 16, 1898, he married Cora Bright, a non-citizen, who is the mother of said child. It appears, however, that no application was made for her enrollment under this title.

The application of Sarah J. Dawson, D.609, was for the enrollment of herself as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation. In 1894 she married the said Hibert Dawson, and lived with him as his wife until his death in February, 1898. Since then she has not married. She has resided in the nation since 1893.

The application of Richard W. Dawson, D.617, was for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ina E. Dawson, as citizens by blood and for the enrollment of his wife, Lucille Dawson, as a citizen of said nation by intermarriage. The latter is differently classified and is not embraced in this decision. Said Richard W. Dawson is identified upon the 1896 strip payment roll, and has resided in the nation since 1884. January 24, 1900, he married Lucille Mason. Ina E. Dawson, who is identified by a birth affidavit, is the issue of that marriage.

The application of Nila L. Spiekerman, D.626, was for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Helen J. and William G. Spiekerman, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband John J. Spiekerman, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. His application is differently classified and will not be considered herein. The said Nila L. Spiekerman, nee Dawson, is identified on the strip payment roll of 1896, and has resided in the nation since 1883. Said children are identified by birth affidavits.

The application of Francis W. Dawson, D.627, was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. His case is distinguished from that of the other principal applicants who claim by blood, in that he was not a minor at the date of his father's admission to citizenship. It appears, however, that the petition for the enrollment of his father, Elbert Dawson et al., was filed when he was a minor. The exact date when said petition was filed is uncertain. The Indian Office finds that the date of the petition was September 24, 1901. You find that the petition bears a still earlier date. It is claimed by this applicant and by his attorneys that his name is borne upon various tribal rolls. It does not appear from the record, however, that such is the fact. He states that he has resided in the nation ever since 1880, and that he drew strip money [illegible]

In his report of October 16, 1903, relative to this group, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs calls attention to that portion of the evidence which shows that the applicant was a minor when the petition for the enrollment of his father was filed, and expresses the opinion that the admission of his father (construed as including his minor children living with him) should be considered as taking effect from the date the petition was filed.

In your decision of December 22, 1903, in which you refused to enroll this applicant, you make no reference to this aspect of the case. It is observed, however, from the field notes as they appear in connection with the record in this case, that the Examiner was then of the opinion that the date of the father's petition might possibly affect the rights of the applicant.

The attorney for this applicant and for the Nation have filed briefs. The attorneys for neither, however, have discussed the rights of the applicant from this standpoint.

It is considered that both parties should be furnished with a copy of the Commissioner's letter relating to this group, and be allowed to be heard in reference to the matter.

From a letter addressed to the Assistant Attorney General for this Department, from Kimball & White, attorneys for Francis M. Dawson, Jr., dated February 13, 1904, it appears that under date of January 13, 1904, you wrote said attorneys as follows:

> "You are advised that the 1896 pay roll does not contain the name of such a person as Francis M. Dawson. There does appear upon that roll, however, the name of one Marion Dawson, and it is possible this is the same person."

Although not addressed to the Department, it was considered that your letter should be received as authentic evidence of the matters stated therein. It is believed, in view of the statement contained in said letter and from the testimony of Francis Marion Benson, referred to above, that an adjudication of his case upon the record as it now stands would be untimely and inadvisable.

In your decision of December 23, 1902, you held that all of the applicants are entitled to enrollment except Francis M. Benson. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs concurred in your recommendation respecting those applicants claiming by blood, except as to him, and also recommended his enrollment. As to those applicants claiming by intermarriage the Commissioner recommended that no action be taken at present.

The Department concurs in the recommendation of the Commissioner as to all of the applicants, except Francis M. Benson. The record in his case is herewith returned for further investigation in accordance with the suggestions herein contained.

The attorney for the Cherokee Nation protests against the enrollment of these applicants, claiming that their enrollment was obtained through fraud. In this connection see opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of February 13, 1904, relating to the Benson case, a copy of which was sent you February 24, 1904.

A copy of Indian Office letter of October 16, 1903, relating to this group, is also inclosed.

Respectfully,

(signed) Thos Ryan

Acting Secretary.

(1896 Roll, Page 585, #425, Martin L. Patterson, Delaware D'st)
(1896 Roll, Page 515, #2382, Zona Patterson, Delaware D'st)
(1896 Roll, Page 515, #2383, Sarah A. Patterson, Delaware D'st)

The name of Martin L. Patterson appears upon the census roll of 1896, as well as the name of his wife, Zona, whose name before he married her was Zona Dawson, and he avers that she was the child of Elbert Dawson, who was admitted to citizenship in the year 1883, the certificate of his admission being more particularly described in the testimony. And the names of his children, Sarah A., Martha A. and Claud A appear upon the census rolls of 1896: He presents satisfactory proof as to the birth of his two younger children, Edgar Dawson and Thomas M., whose names do not appear upon the census roll of 1896.

The applicant applies for enrollment as an intermarried citizen, and presents satisfactory marriage liscence, showing that he was married to one, Zona Dawson, a Cherokee citizen by blood, shown to be the child of Elbert Dawson, who was admitted to citizenship in the year 1883. The parties herein are identified according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony, and satisfactory proof has been made as to the residence of the said applicants.

Comes the Cherokee Nation, by its represenatives, and protests against the enrollment of Zona Patterson, nee Dawson, as a Cherokee citizen by blood, because of the fact that her father was admitted to citizenship by fraud; also because of the fact of her not having moved to the Cherokee Nation a sufficient time after the admission of her father to warrant her citizenship: Consequently, final judgment as to the enrollment of the said Martin L. Patterson, his wife Zona Patterson, and his children, as enumerated in the testimony will be suspended, and their names will be placed upon a Doubtful Card.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 27th day of September, 1900.

FILED

OCT 31 1902

ACTING CHAIRMAN

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I. T., SEPTEMBER 17th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Francis Marion Dawson, wife and children for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q What is your full name? A Francis Marion Dawson.
Q What is your age? A I am fifty eight years old.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Oocoma.
Q What District do you live in? A Delaware.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Myself and family.
Q Your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q How many children? A Six.
Q Do you apply for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir; she is a white woman.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Since 1883.
Q Were you admitted by the Cherokee Commission? A Yes, sir.

The applicant presents a duly authenticated certificate of admission to citizenship, showing that on the 11th day of January, 1897, certain persons were admitted by the Commission on citizenship, and among them appears the name of F. M. Dawson.

Q That is your name is it? A Yes, sir.

This is recognized as satisfactory evidence of the facts stated.

Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since your admission?
A Yes, sir; in Delaware District ever since.
Q Give the name of your wife? A Katie Dawson.
Q How old is she now? A Forty five.
Q Was she admitted with you? A No, sir.
Q Have you married her according to Cherokee law since your admission? A No, sir.
Q You have not remarried since your admission? A No, sir: it was not necessary.

The applicant presents a duly authenticated marriage license and certificate, showing that he was married to his wife, as stated by him, in 1880, by the Reverend R. W. Goudelock, in Carrol County, Mississippi, the license being issued by the Clerk of that County.

These papers are filed herewith.

Q Your wife was not admitted by the Cherokee Commission, when you were? A No, sir.
Q Or at any other time? A No, sir.
Q By act of the Commission or Council? A No, sir: she was placed on the rolls.
Q In the census rolls? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the names of your children, please? A Lula.
Q How old? A Seventeen.
Q Next child? A Ray.
Q How old? A Fifteen.
Q Next child? A Jessie Jane.

(1896 Roll, Page 461, #908, Lorena Albertie Dawson, " "

Q Is this Lula or Luly? A Luly.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, wife and six children:

Q Were these children all born since you were admitted into the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

The applicant is shown by the certificate of admission, cited in the testimony, to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship, by the Commission on Citizenship, January 11th, 1883; he is identified on the roll of 1896, but the representative of the Cherokee Nation desires to make inquiry into the methods of that time, and for that reason, the application of the applicant will at present be placed on a "Doubtful Card." He has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since his admission to citizenship. His wife was married to him under United States law, and was married prior to his admission: she has never been remarried according to Cherokee law: She has lived with him ever since his admission to citizenship, and she is identified on the roll of 1896. The application for her enrollment will be placed on a "Doubtful Card".

Their six children, as enumerated in the testimony are identified on the roll of 1896: They are living at this time, all having been born since his admission (Applicant's). These children will be placed with him on a "Doubtful Card". The applicant's marriageto the mother of these children is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith. If any additional papers, adverse are developed in this case, he will be given timely notice thereof.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

BEFORE THE MUSKOGEE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the enrollment of T. T. Dawson and others as Cherokee citizens.

Petitions of sundry persons in behalf of the applicants for enrollment mentioned in the title, taken before me, Lewis T. Martin, a Notary Public in and for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, duly appointed, qualified and acting as such, at the office of C. B. Denison in the Gray-Halsell building, in the town of Vinita, Indian Territory, on Thursday the fourth day of October 1900, between the hours of one and a half o'clock p. m. and five o'clock in the afternoon of said day, in accordance with the agreement to take testimony, entered in to between the applicants by their joint motion, by their respective attorneys, which agreement is hereto attached.

T. T. Thompson, being produced by the applicants, being first duly sworn to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY C. B. DENISON:

Q State your name, age, residence and occupation?
A T. T. Thompson, 52 years old, I live near Vinita, Cherokee Nation, I am a farmer.
Q How long have you resided in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation as now constituted?
A Yes, sir.
Q Upon what is that citizenship based, blood or otherwise?
A Blood.
Q What, if any official position have you held in the Cherokee Nation, and at what time?
A I was elected to the Cherokee Council in 1870 some odd, I don't remember the exact year, I was also on the Commission Court.
Q Do you remember when that was? A Some time in 1870 or 1871, somewhere there, it may have been earlier.
Q Did that Commission or Court have anything to do with admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q State, if you remember, how many members of that Commission or Court there were, and who they were besides yourself?
A There were three, Tehee, Told and myself, Tehee was President of the Court.
Q Where were the sessions of that body held? A Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation.
Q Did you have a Clerk? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember who that was? A D. W. C. Duncan.
Q Do you know whether the members of that Commission beside yourself, are living or dead? A Yes, sir, they are both dead.
Q Can you recollect how short period of time that Commission lasted?
A About two years I think, two sessions, and there was one session each year.
Q Were the sessions of that body held in Tahlequah, open to the public at all times when it was in session?
A Yes, sir.
Q Were the cases coming before that body heard in open session?
A Yes.
Q Witnesses examined orally? A Yes, sir.

Q Judgments of the Court or Commission pronounced in open session?
A In case of decisions I think they sometimes had secret sessions, but the judgments of the Commission were pronounced openly.
Q What you intended to convey by you answer to the former question was that after hearing the proof the Commission or Court deliberated in secret session upon the testimony taken before reaching a decision or announcing it? A After hearing all the testimony we went into secret session.
Q I will present you with a paper which the Notary will mark exhibit "A" and a copy of which he will attach to your deposition, and will ask you if with the exception of the certificate of record of L. Bragdon, Clerk, and John L. Adair Asst. Ex. Secretary, you recognize it as a paper you have ever seen before?
A I recognize the signature to it, but don't remember the instrument.
Q Which signature on that paper do you recognize? A My own.
Q That signature is in your own handwriting? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether Th mas Tehee, president of the Commission could write in English or not? A No, I don't think he could.
Q How as to Alexander Wolfe, a member of the Commission?
A I don't think he could write either, I don't think either of them ever wrote except by touching the pen.
Q Have you, and are you familiar with the handwriting of R. W. D. Dawson, the Clerk of that Commission?
A Tolerably well, but it has been a long time since I saw any of it.
Q Will you look at the paper again and say whether you recognize his signature attached thereto?
A Yes, that is his signature to the best of my knowledge.
Q Do you preserve any personal recollection of the application before that Commission of F. M. Dawson and other members of the Dawson family, to be admitted as citizens of he Cherokee Nation by that Commission?
A I remember F. M. Dawson and his brother, that is about the only ones I remember.
Q The question was not as to the personal recollection of the individuals, but as to the claim being presented by the Dawsons for admission?
A Yes, there was such a claim before the Commission.
Q Can you state as to the citizenship of Thomas Tehee, whether he was a citizen of the Nation by blood or not?
A Yes, sir, he was always recognized as such, full blood besides.
Q What is your knowledge of Alexander Wolfe?
A About the same, he was also a full blood and recognized as a citizen.
Q Judge Thompson, if you possessed or had, or have now any knowledge of any corruption or bribery of the court or Commission, on any member of it by F. M. Dawson or any of the Dawson family or anybody connected with the presentation of their claim for admission, state it fully?
A None whatever as far as I was concerned, and I don't think there was the slightest of the Court.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY W. T. HUTCHINGS:

Q You mean to say Mr. Thompson that your name attached to the transcript shown you is in your handwriting?
A Yes, sir.
Q That Mr. Dawson certified that this is a transcript of the decision in the case, he is mistaken, that is the original?
A No, I don't know, that may be the original, if that is not the original I did not sign it, if it is the original I signed it.
Q You state that the witnesses were examined orally before the Court, don't you know that in almost every case you took ex parte of witnesses when those witnesses were not present?

we ruled exparte evidence out, as well as I remember.
you have any stenographer or anybody to copy the evidence?
n did all of the copying.
evidence copied and preserved?
r, I think it was.
was done with that evidence, where was any of it ever put?
it is at Tahlequah in the office of the Treasurer or went into secret session did you have Mr. Duncan read ence to you?

r, we went over the evidence thoroughly.
allow the applicants or their attorneys admission to your secret sessions?

you got ready to render your decisions did you then send applicants or their attorneys?
No, sir.
you rendered them in secret also, did you? A Yes, sir.
you any recollection who testified in the Dawson case, as claim? A No, sir, I have not.
you any recollection as to who they claimed their Cherokee were? A Yes, sir, they claimed the Rogers.
they claim relationship with any of the present families of Rogers residing in the Cherokee Nation?

The applicant objects to this question as tending to elicit testimony wholly incompetent and irrelevant to the issue, and not cross-examination of this witness.

I don't know that they did, particularly.
How could your court determine when they claimed descent through some Rogers family, that that family was of Cherokee blood?

The applicant objects to the question upon the same grounds as their objection to the previous question.

A By the evidence they produced.
Didn't you make them prove that that family was well known and claimed to be connected with the Cherokee Nation, and were members thereof? A Yes.
Who was the attorney for the Dawsons? A Old man Houston Benge.
Could either Tehee or Wolfe speak English? A They could understand, but they never spoke English, they had an interpreter.
Did you ever talk to either of them as to whether they got through deciding this case? A No, sir.
How long were you considering the case altogether?
A I will not say as to that, I think we were on it two or three days, I think. I could not say positively now, they were a long time hearing testimony.
How many were only two or three witnesses examined all told, were there?

No, three I think, they had quite a lot of affidavits, we had to consider them.
Your court was a good while arriving at its conclusion after it was closed?
A It was a good while, I don't remember the exact time.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION:

Q Remember who the interpreter the Commission had during the Dawson case.
A Yes, Lewis, I forget his given name.

Q Do you know whether he is living or dead?
A I don't know, he seemed to be in bad health at the time we had the case up, I think they are all dead but me and Mr. Duncan.
Q What was he, a Cherokee by blood?
A He was considered a Cherokee by blood.
Q Do you know where he lived at that time?
A No, sir, he lived in the South part of the Nation though, I think in Sequoyah.

The Cherokee Nation.

And now on this, the 11th day of January, A. D. 1883, this case coming on for final hearing and all the evidence produced in the case being carefully read and duly considered by the Commission, it was adjudged and determined by the Commission on Citizenship, that the claimants, Rob't Dawson, F. M. Dawson, Elbert Dawson, Jasper Dawson, John Dawson, Josephine Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson, Molly Dawson, Wilbron Dawson, James Dawson, and Rial Dawson, are Cherokees by blood: and that they are entitled to all the rights and priviliges of Cherokee citizenship within the Cherokee Nation, and that they should be, and they should be, and they are hereby admitted to the full and complete enjoyment of the same in all respects as native born Cherokees.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY C. B. DENISON:

Q Please state your name, age, residence and occupation?
A My name is D. W. C. Duncan, my age is 70 years, my residence is Vinita, Indian Territory, my occupation is a farmer.
Q How long has that been your place of residence? A Since 1874.
Q Are you a member of the Cherokee Nation as it is now constituted?
A Yes, sir.
Q Upon what is your citizenship based, a Cherokee by blood?
A Yes, a Cherokee by blood.
Q In January 1883, did you hold any official position in the Cherokee Nation, if so, what was it?
A About that time I held the position of Clerk of the Citizenship Court or Commission.
Q If you remember the names of themembers of that Commission or Court, please give them?
A The President of the Commission was Tehee I believe, and a member by the name of Wolfe whose first name I do not recollect, and Mr. Thompson here.
Q T. F. Thompson?
A Yes.
Q Do you know whether those three members of that Commission were recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and whether their citizenship was based upon blood or not?
A They were supposed to be citizens of the Cherokee Nation and their citizenship was based upon their blood.
Q Will you please look at the paper now handed you which the Notary has marked exhibit "A" to the deposition of Mr. T. F. Thompson, and a copy of which he will attach to Mr. Thompson's depositions, and state whether with the exception of the certificate of H. L. Bragdon, Clerk, and of John L. Adair Asst. Ex. Secretary, you recognize the paper as one you have ever seen before?
A Yes, I think I have seen this before.
Q When, and where, if you remember, did you first see that paper?
A This is a paper I drew up at the time I was acting as clerk of the said Citizenship Court.
Q Looking at its date, was it drawn at you at the time it bears date?
A To the best of my recollection it was drawn at the date specified.
Q Do you recognize the signature to the certificate attached to that paper?
A Yes, that is my signature.
Q State if you know, in whose handwriting the body of the paper is?
A It is in my handwriting.
Q And at that time you were Clerk of that Commission? A Yes.
Q Will you please look at the signatures of the members of the Commission as they appear on that paper, and state if you can, by whom they were written?
A I think the first two is my handwriting, the last I recognize that as T. F. Thompson's.
Q Explain please, how you came to write the signatures of Thomas Tehee and Alex Wolfe to that paper?
A Thomas Tehee and Alex Wolfe were full bloods and could not write, and in their presence, and at their request I wrote their signatures.

Q Do you remember through what ancestor they claimed their right to citizenship here?

Objected to by applicants because the question tends to elicit testimony which is wholly incompetent and irrelevant, and because it is not proper cross-examination.

A They claimed their right of citizenship through a man by the name of Rogers, I don't recol ect his first name.
Q Do you know how many Rogers families there are who have citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?
A I do.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of FRANCIS M. DAWSON, ET AL., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

The case having been set for final hearing March 17, 1902, the following proceedings were had:

APPEARANCES:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of counsel for applicants;
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Hutchings: Comes now the Nation on the calling of this case and announces that it is ready for trial, provided permission is given to hereafter examine before the Commission, either at this place or Fort Gibson, the witness S. H. Benge, who has been regularly summoned to attend at this day and time but who is too sick to travel at this time and probably will be for some time to come. As evidence of a good faith of the Nation we hereby present an affidavit of the facts sought to be proven by the said Benge. If the applicant's counsel are willing to concede that the witness if present would testify to the facts herein set forth, the Nation is ready to proceed to trial without reservation of any kind. If they are not it desires to reserve this privilege of hereafter, either tomorrow or otherwise, this case being set for to-day and tomorrow, of examining before the Commission, or its authorized officer, this witness as above set forth.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the introduction of the paper presented and do not admit that the witness, Samuel H. Benge if present would testify to the facts therein stated. They consent and desire that the testimony of said Benge be taken before the Commission at its office in Muskogee but not elsewhere, and protest against it being taken at any other place, with the understanding, however, that when taken we have opportunity to introduce any evidence we may desire in rebuttal.

Mr. Hutchings:
The Nation will pay all the expenses of the opposing Counsel, their client and Commission officers in taking the deposition at Fort Gibson.

Commissioner Breckinridge: The allegations of this witness are material in their character and are quite tangent. The Commission of its own volition would acquire information of that character if it knew of its existance anywhere. While the functions of the Commission, as well known are in many respects judicial, yet it is bodied with somewhat complex powers, such as Congress creates from time to time to do business of certain character, and it is ordered to make a correct roll, which is a duty largely independent of hearing simply what is brought before them; it must be the architect and constructor of that roll and if evidence is not brought before before the Commission it must go out and get it, to be uniform on that construction of the law. The Commission, therefore, desires this information independent of any counsel on either side both with respect to the applicant and to the Nation, and if this witness is is not able to come one of the Commissioners will go to Fort Gibson and to his bed-side, or send a proper official, if necessary to take his testimony. The only matter to consider, therefore, is one of convenience with respect to getting this testimony. Now, I understand that this witness is an extreme sufferer from Bright's Disease he is an old man and he may never be able to get out of the house, and it may be an injustice to him to subject him to a trip here, and therefore it seems to me better that counsel for plaintiff submit to a form of taking a deposition or else accompany an official of this Commission over to Fort Gibson and let his testimony be taken there.

After consultation with the attorneys upon the two sides it is found to be agreeable that the parties start to Fort Gibson tomorrow morning at half past eight o'clock, and it is agreed then and directed with an official of the Commission with a stenographer leave from the office of the Commission for Fort Gibson at 8:30 tomorrow morning.

FRANCIS M. DAWSON, the applicant, re-called for additional cross-examination on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q What is your name? A Francis M. Dawson.
Q Where do you reside? A In Afton.
Q You have been examined in this case heretofore, have you?
A I don't know which case it is.
Q In your own case? A Yes, sir.
Q And you the one that is commonly called Bud Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q You made the original application in the Dawson family for admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, didn't you? A. sir; my brother.
Q What was his name? A A. E. Dawson.
Q You and Robert Dawson and Elbert Dawson and others [illegible]
[illegible] 24, '81, about that time? A Yes, sir.
Q And you were admitted about the 11th of January '83? A Yes, sir.
Q There were other members of your family that applied [illegible] admitted after that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you or not remember the evidence offered in their [illegible] into the cases was the relationship between yourself [illegible] and others and the evidence of your admission by the Tehlequah Court. In all the subsequent admissions I mean the only evidence of [illegible] the fact that you and your brothers had been admitted before that they were kin to you; what was the only evidence of [illegible] any subsequent cases, wasn't it; so far as you know?
Q That is afterwards?
A Yes, afterwards? A I think there was some other evidence introduced.
Q Don't you know that there was never any evidence of any kind in any other case except evidence of Dr. Baker of Arkansas? A No, sir.
Q Who else? A Oliver Miller.
Q Who was Oliver Miller; the records in this case have been examined and approved [illegible] mutilated? A Oliver Miller [illegible]
Q What was he, who was he? A He is a kin to me [illegible]
Q Well, what station in life did he occupy; was he a farmer?
A Yes, sir, farmer.
Q Were you present when he testified? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you present when Dr. Baker testified? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you a fair recollection of the testimony of those two men?
A No, not at all.
Q You don't read do you, Mr. Dawson? A No, sir, I dont read nor write; I can barely write my name.
Q Do you think you would remember the testimony of Dr. Baker if your mind was refreshed on it? A Part of it I think.
Q Were you present when you were admitted? A I was not in the room.
Q You were in Tahlequah at the time? A I was in the town of Tahlequah at the time.
Q I will read this paer to you and desire for you ro say whether or not it was the testimony of Dr. Baker in your case:
(Affidavit of Dr. Arthur Baker read to witness, and asked to be copied in the record later.)
Q Is that the correct transcript of the testimony? A It has been so long ago, I could not say; a part of it is, I could not remember it all.
Q Does that state the facts as to the family history correctly so far as you know about it? A So far as I know.
Q Now, you were a son of what Dawson? A Robert Dawson.
Q How many children did Robert Dawson have, and give me their names?
A Elbert Dawson, the oldest; Lila, Jesper, Francis Marion-
Q That is yourself? A Yes, sir; Elizabeth Dawson, Josephine Dawson, John Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson, James Dawson, Edna Dawson, Mollie Dawson, Wilburn Dawson.
Q Thirteen? (No response.)
Q Now, Rober Dawson's father was whom? A Sam Dawson.
Q Who was Sam Dawson's wife, your grandmother? A I have been told.
Q My family history is all you know? A She was called Polly Dawson.
Q Who was Anna Pruitt? A I don't know.
Q Never heard of anybody in the family by the name of Anna Pruitt? A No, sir, that was away back in the old country; I have heard talk about it, old Dr. Baker talked about it.
Q Your grand-mother's name was Polly Dawson? A Yes, sir; I don't remember seeing her but once, she died when I was small, died in Texas.
Q Pollie Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Ans she was known to be Pollie Rogers, her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q Daughter of Captain John Rogers? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, she died in Texas what time? A I don't remember.
Q Can't you guess at it? A Oh, I could guess.
Q Give your best recollection? A About '58 or '59, or no, '46 or '49; I don't say positive, just guessing at it.
Q How old a boy were you then? A I was born in '42.
Q Have you any distinct recollection of her? A No, sir.
Q Have you any recollection of all the children of Sam and Pollie Dawson; that is, your father, uncles and Aunts? I didn't see all of them.
Q Do you know by family history the names of all of them? A Yes, sir.
Q Will you give them to me?
A Betsy Ann Dawson, I believe her name was.
Q Did she marry a Petty? A Yes, sir; the next is Robert Dawson.
Q Your father? A Yes, sir.
Q Next one? A I think the next was James Dawson, and I think the next one was a girl, Edna Dawson.
Q Did he have two daughters? A Yes, sir.
Q Well sir? A The next one was Joe Dawson; I never saw him; Riley Dawson.

Q That is Samuel R. Dawson, Riley Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Any other one? A That is all I know anything about.
Q Did he have any child by the name of John? A Yes, Jack.
Q Didn't you get Jack misplaced with Joe? A No, it was Joe; I have heard my father speak of him.
Q Then they have seven children? A I never see them all.
Q How many of them did you ever see? A I see uncle Riley Dawson and James Dawson and Jack Dawson and Betsy Ann Petty; I don't think I saw but one of Pa's sisters and brothers, they went to Mississippi I think.
Q Do you know what your family history says that the mother of your grandmother, Pollie Rogers' name was? A We have no history.
Q Well, as it was brought down to you; did you ever hear anybody say what your great grandmother's name was? A No, I don't remember.
Q Who is the other man, Oliver Hill that testified in your case? A He testified in James Dawson's case; he never testified in my father's case.
Q Well, didn't anybody testify in your case but Dr. Baker?
A Yes, sir, several other witnesses.
Q Who were they? A I don't remember; my mother got them witnesses around Tahlequah, old people.
Q Were you present? A No, sir.
Q You were only present when Dr. Baker testified? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, do you find any mistakes in Dr. Baker's statement there? A I could not say all of that was correct or not, part of it is correct.
Q What part is correct? A Why about knowing the family over there.
Q Who is Buck Dawson? A My brother.
Q What is his name? A He always called Mr. Buck, it is Albert, E. Dawson.
Q Who went with you the first time you went up to make application for citizenship do you remember? A With my brother.
Q The first time? A I met my brother in Texas.
Q Which one? A E. Dawson.
Q That is Albert or Buck? A Yes, sir.
Q You were living in Arkansas? A Yes, sir.
Q And he was living in Texas? A Yes, sir, and another one of these brothers, Dr. Dawson now:
Q Dr. Dawson now? A Yes, sir.
Q What is his name? A James.
Q And you three went there? A Yes, sir.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants by their counsel object to all the statement of the witness relating to the testimony introduced before the Cherokee Citizenship Commission, and the history of the family as detailed by him, because the same is incompetent and irrelevant, and cannot be used for the purpose of impeaching the integrity of the judgment of said Commission, or either of the Commissioners in admitting orphans of the Dawson family.

Commission: The objection of the Attorney for the applicants to the testimony above will be noted. The same will be filed and noted for what it is worth.

(Attorney for applicants waives examination.)

C. H. TAYLOR, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. MCKENNON:

Q State your name? A C. H. Taylor.
Q Where do you reside, Mr. Taylor? A Near Coffeyville.
Q Were you an attorney before various citizenship Courts along in '01 to '8? in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you attorney for F. M. Dawson commonly known as Bud Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you present at the taking of testimony in that case? A No, sir; I wasn't present.
Q Do you know who composed the court that decided the case at that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Who were they? A Tom Tehee and Alex Wolfe and Toby Thompson.
Q Do you know whether or not they were all there when the case was decided? A No, sir, there were only two of them present.
Which two? A Tehee and Wolfe.
Q Who was the Clerk of the Court at that time? A Mr. Duncan, D. W. C. Duncan.
Q Do you know what witnesses were used in the case of Bud Dawson? A No, sir, now I was the attorney in the case and the evidence had already been filed before the Court.
Q When were you made attorney? A I was only called in as an attorney at the— Well, Mr. Duncan came down there, and Mr. Bryant had the case and several other attorneys had the case and he employed me.
Q Did you record the evidence in this case? A No, sir.
Q Did you deliver any money? A Now, I was the attorney in the case and I don't think it would be right for me to make any statement.
Q Now, you have claimed your privilege, I ask that you answer the question? Did Dawson ever send you any money with the direction to pay it to either member of the Court or the Clerk of the Court, D. W. C. Duncan, and if so state the amount? A I had a heap of trouble over this matter.-

Commission: Just answer the question, Mr. Taylor.

A Then, the attorney I don't believe it is right for me to answer that question.

Commission: Do you refuse to answer? A Yes, sir.

Q Did the matter to which you object to testifying occur prior to the rendition of the decision admitting to citizenship or afterwards? (No response)

COMMISSIONER BRECKINRIDGE:

Do you desire to reply to the last question? A I don't think it is right; I was attorney in the case.

Mr. Taylor, do you object to answering that question? A Yes, sir.

You refuse to answer that question, do you? A I had rather not answer it.

Either answer it or say you won't answer it? A I had rather not answer it.

Mr. Taylor, you have answered a number of questions down to this point and it is at this point that you prefer to plead your privilege, as an attorney, do you? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner Breckinridge: The power in regard to these matters is lodged in the United States. The Court is clothed with special power with reference to matters which arise through this commission. Of course the Commission desires and the Government needs for the ends of a correct roll the fullest information possible, but it is subject to the limitation of law, and it is not for this Commission to decide of the law in a matter of this character with any authority as I understand it at this time, but to report the matter to the United States Court and let the Court pass judgment.

Under Section 21 of the Curtis law as it is commonly called Act of June 28th98, the Members of the Commission shall in performing all duties required of them by law, have authority to administer oaths, examine witnesses and send for papers and persons, and the court is clothed with authority to enforce obedience. The law having enumerated certain powers goes on to say so far as all others are concerned to enable said Commission to make rolls as herein required, and to punish anyone who may in any manner or by any means obstruct said work. Now, the Commission will report the facts to the United States Court and let the Court decide whether or not you are within your lawful privilege. It seems that you refuse to answer questions, or at least one question, which tends to establish as to whether or not you are claiming what what is commonly considered a matter of privilege--according to an authority referred to by an attorney, but the enforcement of an answer seems clearly to be a matter for the Court to deal with.

Q Now, Mr. Taylor, in regard to the last question asked you by Mr. Hutchings, one of the Counsel for the Cherokee Nation, I direct that you make answer, and if you refuse I shall report the matter to the United States Court: do you refuse? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, you have read to you, Mr. Taylor, the first of the two questions propounded to you by Mr. Hutchings, and which you declined at the time to make answer; viz: as to whether Mr. Dawson sent you money to pay to the Court or to any officials of the Court, it seems to come to the question as to whether there was any collusion between you and Mr. Dawson and any member of the Court; now, I understand that you refuse to answer that question upon the grounds that you were Mr. Dawson's attorney? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, I require that you answer that question, do you refuse?
A Yes, sir.
Q I shall also report that refusal to the United States Court as it seems to come under the provision of law, relating to conspiracy between you and Mr. Dawson which apparently considered a privilege matter, and you base your refusal now, not upon the ground that you are incriminating yourself, but that you were counsel for Mr. Dawson. I will report the matter to the Court and you will be informed at the time of any proceedings in the matter I caution you not to talk with Mr. Dawson or any of the applicants in this case.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants do not object and have not objected to the witness answering on account of his privilege as an attorney or for any other cause whatever, they only want to object to the incompetence and irrelevancy of the testimony, with the privilege of cross-examining upon any testimony given by the witness.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE:
Q You still refuse having the consent of the attorneys in the case to make answer? A I will just ask your Honor to let the matter go over until morning.

Commissioner Breckinridge: It will rest until in the morning at its present status; it is after business hours now.

As for the objection made by Captain McKennon, Counsel for the applicant, it will be taken into consideration, but will not be granted at the present.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of [illegible] H. DAWSON ET AL [illegible] Cherokee Nation:

[illegible] Counsel for Applicants.
[illegible], Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

[illegible] sworn, testified as follows:

[illegible] H. Berry.
[illegible] Gibson.
[illegible] years old, going on 71.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; Cherokee by blood.
Q State what official position you have held in the Cherokee Nation and what your general connection with the Nation officially in the past 40 years? A Well, I have held several; I have been Sheriff, Councilman, Senator, Delegate to Washington; had a hand in making the treaty of 1866, I am the only one living that signed that treaty; President of the National Council of different tribes of Indians.
Q Were you acquainted with F. H. Dawson, commonly called Bud Dawson? A Yes, sir; I knew him.
Q State you connection with and what you know about his citizenship case before what is known as the Thomas Tehee Citizenship Court? A Mr. Dawson come down, I was living down below here, he come and employed me to lend to his case and we went to Tahlequah, I believe and I ain't mistaken in [illegible] and filed his case there; we went several times and continued his case on for the want of evidence, and finally while we was up there we run across one old darkey by the name of Tush Rogers; we got his testimony and after we got that testimony we considered that it was sufficient to go into the trial with. [illegible] lived here at Fort Gibson, he was a horse trainer and [illegible] here; he claimed that he knew the Rogers and [illegible] after that we thought we had sufficient evidence we [illegible] to the Court for trial, and the Court [illegible] decision against Mr. Dawson [illegible] that "our case is dough", just made that remark, [illegible] and they rendered a decision in [illegible] evidence at all however; I [illegible] decision was then given in his [illegible] back from Tahlequah, why we got to talking [illegible] and I told him: "It was a pretty hard blow when they [illegible] decision against us." He said: "yes, but Duncan was [illegible] to read, but he received with five hundred dollars.
Q What position did Duncan occupy? A He was a Clerk of the Court.
Q Was Duncan an educated man or-? Yes, sir; he was an educated man.
Q Who were the members of the Court? A Tom Tehee, Alex Wolfe and [illegible] Thompson.
Q How many of these could speak English at all? A One.
Q Which one? A Thompson.
Q Who was the Attorney that represented the Nation in those cases? A Wyly Sanders.

[illegible] What was his given name? A Wilson Sanders; was it Wilson Sanders? A Wilson Sanders.

Q Was he an educated man, or could speak English well? A No, sir.

Q Did Mr. Lawson say anything about the matters having cost him a good deal of money? A He said it had cost him a right smart.

Q Any remark made on the way back about the opening up of the case, and if so, what? A He asked me if I thought the case was ever investigated eventially and I told him I didn't know.

MR. McKINNON:

Q You never a witness in the Dawson case, Judge, in any of the investigations that have been made since that time? A I don't know that you might call it a witness; that young man come to Tahlequah, and asked me to help him up there that the [illegible] going against him, him and his mother and all was about to [illegible] and I interceded and done what I could there before the [illegible]. I was not a witness but that is at I don't for him.

Q That was Mr. Graham, wasn't it? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you had conversations with Mr. Graham since that time about [illegible]? A Now, I might, I don't recollect, I might have had conversations with him.

Q Well, after the Dawes Commission began taking a census of the [illegible] and when they were about Sallisaw down here, did you have conversation with him here in Fort Gibson about the matter?

A Now, I just can't tell you; I have seen him on several occasions, but the conversations we might have had I can't state.

Q To refresh your memory I will ask you if he did not tell you that they were making a fight on the Dawson family and he wanted to know of you whether that judgment in favor of Robert Dawson's family was fairly rendered, and did you not then tell him that it was all right, that it was fairly obtained? A Not as I recollect of; all I know; that is as I have stated he talked to me in regard to his father, himself and probably his brothers and sisters, I don't remember how many there were, but he told me they were rejected, that is just the words he used.

Q When was it? A It has been sometime ago.

Q Was it in Fort Gibson? A Well, that is I saw him here in Fort Gibson, sometimes I saw him in Tahlequah.

Q Did he come here in Fort Gibson ask you particularly about the [illegible] judgment, as to whether it was fairly obtained or not? A [illegible] having a claim on the Dawson case, that is the Q [illegible] principal Dawson family? A Yes.

Q [illegible] other written statement here made, when was this [illegible] (Referring to affidavit heretofore referred to.)

A [illegible] I reckon.

Q Who did take this? A Mr. Starr.

Q Was anyone present when this was taken? A No, sir.

Q Who have you told about this matter, Judge? A No one as I know.

Q [illegible] how it was that they knew that you know this?

A No, sir.

Q Have you ever made any statement? A Never made any statement that I recollect of except I might have talked with Scales, we had him talked about these cases a good many times; if I ever made a statement it was to Joe Ab Scales.

Q How did Mr. Starr know? A I could not tell you how Mr. Starr knew.

Q [illegible] alone here as a Notary Public? A He came alone here as a Notary Public. All he said when he come, he says "we understand that you know something in regard to these cases", I said " what cases," and he went to work and named Shoemake case and Dawson case.
Q And thereupon you made this tatement? A He said he wanted to [illegible] me.
Q Are you certain Judge that after the rendition of tht judgment [illegible] came back here to Fort Gibson with you?
A Yes, sir; we was together.
Q Let me ask you if it was not a very cold day when he came here [illegible] went over ahead of you and you went over to Tahlequah the [illegible] after he left? A My recollection was he and I [illegible]
Q [illegible] here together? A Yes, sir.
Q [illegible] leave you there and go back direct to Arkansas?
A [illegible] we came here together. If my memory serves me right. [illegible] mistaken but then I don't believe I am, because from [illegible] up here to my house, that is according to his state-
Q [illegible] much of it did they pay you? A I don't know as that is [illegible] with the case whatever the money they paid me.
Q [illegible] they pay you? A Paid me the money.
Q [illegible] it to you? A Dawson there and that fellow, young [illegible] paid me some.
Q Mr. Graham? A Yes.
Q At the same time? A Oh, no, he wanted me to intercede for him [illegible] Tahlequah and paid me to do something for him which I did.
Q I will ask you if Mr. F. M. Dawson here did not obtain two copies [illegible] the judgment one of which you sent in a letter in which you [illegible] to his brother living in Texas and that brother in Texas, the [illegible] they called Buck, didn't send you $50 that they paid you? A No, I never got a letter of Buck whatever you might call him, I don't recollect it and if I ever got a nickel from him I don't recollect it. [illegible] paid me what money I got from it. I don't know nothing [illegible] his brothers; he told me he had an uncle living over i [illegible], but not living down in Texas, I don't know about it.
Q [illegible] did he pay you the money? A Paid it here at home.
Q [illegible] you went out? A He paid me fifty dollars before we [illegible] and he said when we went up yonder he paid me fifty dollars more; [illegible] want to know what I got, I got one hundredn dollars.
Q [illegible] acting as his attorney in the case? A Yes, sir.
Q [illegible] many judges were there present when the judgment was rendered? [illegible] name?
A Well, sir, A Well, according to my recollect there was all [illegible], but if they were not all there, Tom Thompson was sick [illegible] at Wolfe.
Q Do you remember that they were all present? A No, I think [illegible] present though.
Q [illegible] was present at the ime? A Oh, I could not tell you, [illegible] several people in the house; could not tell you at all.
Q Were there several in the house the evening before the judgment [illegible] rendered against them as you say? A Yes, there were several in [illegible] house.
Q [illegible] several in the house when the judgment was rendered the next day? A I don't know how many there was.
Q Do you remember the names of any of them? A Why not exactly, [illegible] full bloods.
Q How long didyou remain out at Tahlequah on that trip?
A I guess I was there about three days.

Q Tending to this case alone, or did you have other cases? A no, sir.
Q Do you know of your own knowledge that the judges received any money (this question asked at the instance of Mr. Graham present) A I don't know whether the judges received nay or not.

---oooOOOooo---

I, J. O. Rosson, do hereby certify upon my official oath as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that I correctly recorded the testimony had this day in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) J. O. Rosson.

March 13, 1902. Commission convened pursuant to adjournment.

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of counsel for applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

C. H. TAYLOR takes the stand and continues his testimony.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Mr. Taylor, you said you would consider the matter yesterday and let us know whether you would answer those questions today: have you decided what you would do about the matter? A Well, it is like this, of course I don't want to be held as in contempt of the Court.
Q You would be held in contempt and the other Court would make you answer? A That being the case of course I would make a statement.
Q Are you acquainted with D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of what is known as the Tehee Citizenship Commission Court? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you ever have any conversation with him about letting him know of the different character of cases that would come up before the Court that you knew of, whether they were good ones or bad ones? A No, the only thing that ever come up in that respect; he asked me if whatever large cases that would come up before the Court to let him know.
Q Did you have any talk with him about the Dawson case during the progress of its trial or before and ever introduced Mr. F. M. Dawson to him, or carry him to him? A I spoke to him when Mr. Dawson came to Tahlequah to see about his case, and he said that he would take the papers over to his room, the Dawson papers.
Q Did you see him again that night? A Yes, sir; after supper I went down to his room.
Q Did he ask you about the Dawsons or Dawson case? A He asked me where Dawson was.
Q Which Dawson are you referring to now, F. M. Dawson, known as Bud Dawson? A Bud Dawson.
Q Well, what didyou reply to him? A I told him that I thought he had gone to church.
Q Did you find Dawson after church? A Yes, sir, he told me to come and bring Dawson down and I did so; Dawson was in church.
Q You carried Dawson to him? A Yes, sir.

...conversation? A Only a minute.
...was said if any while you were present? A Mr. Duncan
... Mr. ... there is a hitch in your evidence."
... he said? A He said "if that was ... right," and I turned and went away,
"Gentlemen, I will go home."
... any other conversation or communi-
... that? A No, sir.

... submitted it on the testimony? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

... a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
... born and reared in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir;
... to live in the old Nation.

[illegible] A Come here in 1898.
[illegible] Cherokee Nation?
[illegible] haven't you?
[illegible] Fort Smith on charges in [illegible] there
[illegible] to the jail
[illegible], and I
[illegible] it has been.
[illegible] case
[illegible] are the
[illegible] against the law in [illegible], it was [illegible] answering [illegible] the main charge. Clem Rogers went before the Court there and stated that I had got in at least three hundred families, that they were white people and not entitled to citizenship and that was the main trouble.
Q Well, now, was the charge based upon that or was it based upon your letters you sent out to other people? A That was the charge for using the mail for fraudulent purposes.
Q The use of the mails for fraudulent purposes not in connection with this case was it? A Not particularly of this case.
Q Then the trouble you had was the prejudice of Clem Rogers and others caused by your connection with the Dawson case; that is what you mean to say? A Yes, sir.
Q Why did you say because you were charged with an offense based upon [illegible] well, the prejudice grew out of this case.
Q Then, you had full conversation with the representatives of [illegible] as to [illegible] in this case, did you not [illegible] you came on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q You had told them of these matters before you came on the [illegible] and you did? A [illegible] to be conscientious [illegible] when you came on the stand [illegible] scruples as to answering as to matters which arose between you [illegible] your client, and himself, in relation to this [illegible] matter and declined to answer [illegible] privilege as an attorney [illegible] A Yes, sir, I did [illegible] make a statement at [illegible] in the matter.
Q You had voluntarily made a statement to the representatives of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, I had stated to Mr. Hastings; he summoned me and I came down here but I didn't want to make a statement to him but he insisted.
Q He had no power to compel you to make that statement? A No, sir.
Q You could [illegible] A [illegible] considered did not hurt you, but when you came on the stand you were very conscientious about it? A I didn't want to make a statement at all unless I I would be put in jail here if I [illegible]
Q But you had stated that with the [illegible] by which they could ask you these questions when you [illegible] A I had told Mr. Hastings.

Q You knew when you gave him that information that you would be brought on the stand as a witness, did you not, by reason of that?
A No, I didn't know that I would be compelled to make a statement in the matter, a sworn statement.
Q You thought you would not be compelled to answer?
A I didn't think the law would compel me to make a statement.
Q Why then did you make a statement to him about it? A Oh, he was asking me about it, and I told him that I didn't want to make a statement, and I didn't for quite a while after I came down here.
Q When the enrollment division of the Dawes Commission was in Ardmore, in the winter of 1900, did you not there meet F. M. Dawson and did you not then and there say to him "I told Shoemake I would see him if he would employ me in his case and if he didn't I would whip him, and the same to you?" A No, sir; I said to him that I says that if there is not something done that I will likely be summoned against you and Mr. Shoemake both.
Q What did you mean by that? A Well, I just meant this, I just talked the matter with him to say what he wanted to do in the matter; I just spoke a word or two about it. I was going out of town just at the time.
Q Then you told him if something was not done you would be summoned as a witness against him; what did you mean by that? A Well, I just meant that the chances were that the Nation would summon me and not him.
Q What did you mean by the expression "if there was not something done" that you would be summoned as a witness?
A Well, I meant this, if I was re-employed in the matter if he was to have a case and I was re-employed I would not be required.

Q You could be required to make a statement as to declarations made to you by your client to you in one instance, but if a little more money was put up you could not be required to make a statement; is that what you mean? A I didn't think I could be forced to make a statement at all in the matter.
Q Why didyou make that expression to him "if something wasn't done you might be summoned as a witness" if you believed you could not be made to make a statement? A I meant if I was employed in the case.
Q If he would put up you would not testify? A That they could not force me to testify.
Q About the month of February, 1901, in the town of Wagoner, Indian Territory, did you not send your son to get Graham to come to the hotel at night, and did you not then and there say to Gid Graham; "Your people are on the doubtful list and if you will give me $500. I will make it all right and see that you are enrolled and if you don't I will see that you don't get on"? A No, sir; I got a letter from Gid Graham in which he asked me to certify that the case was all right and after I met him I told him that I could not do it, that the case was crooked, he then said to me, he says, "I will give you a hundred dollars", he says "will you take a hundred dollars," I said "No, sir." I didn't take any bid, that is I dddn't set any price with him.
Q You did not say to him then what I have embraced in that question now? A No, sir.
Q You did have a conversation with him about that time and at that place, did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q You say you didn't make any bid or set any price? A No, sir; he offered me a hundred dollars.
Q Why did you send for him to come to the hotel? A In answer to his letter.

Q Did you not, yesterday morning on the street in Muskogee, Indian Territory, in a conversation with W. H. Shoemake say to him: "You have made a great mistake in not keeping in your employment and to have the Dawsons and it will go hard with you and you will see it"? No, sir; I says to Mr. Shoemake, I says: "Who have you employed in your case," and he says "Judge Thomas and Mr. Owen." I said "It might have been a advantage to you if you had retained me in your matter;" "Well, he says "there was nothing wrong in my case" and I says "no, there is nothing wrong on earth in your case that I know of." He said all he wanted was justice and I said "I don't know a thing on earth against you," and I says "there is not a thing on earth wrong in your case as I know it and I think fairly and squarely and decided in your favor."

Q You said nothing to him about the Dawson case? A Yes, I said to him "it might have been well if the Dawsons had retained me in their case." I said "I am not out on the report of the Nation and I don't want to make it out to-day and I want if I can possible avoid it."

Q Was that before or after you talked with Mr. Hastings, the representative of the Nation? A It was afterwards.

Q You went to -- and if you had gone to do your duty you could have done it, could you not? A Yes, sir; if they had employed before I went I could.

Q Now, that if they had employed you before hand you would not have given this information to Mr. Hastings? A I would not be authorized, before the attorney.

Q And you propose to give this information: did you know that you had to give him any information? A Who do you mean.

Q Mr. Hastings. A I was because he asked me.

Q Well, had he authority to command you to do it? A No, sir; I don't know whether he did or not.

Q As a lawyer you know that he did not have authority to compel you to make a statement to him? A I told him that I was an attorney in the case and I didn't want to make any statement at all.

Q Why did you do it? A Well, he intimated to me it would go further. He said to me "I will not make this matter -- I will not use it;" that is, what I stated to him was part in confidence.

Q And he pledged you his word that it would not be used? A Well, told him I could make a statement in confidence, and that I didn't want to make a statement before the Court.

Q Well, that did he reply, as you said just now? A Oh, he says make the statement and then I told him--I regretted very much to do it, and I regret very much to make a statement here. I tried to avoid it yesterday.

Q You stated just now that he said it would not be used; did he say it or not? A Well, something to that amount; oh, he says it won't make any difference or so on, to that effect.

Q Now, don't you know that Mr. Hastings never intimate to you that the statement he was asking you to make would not be used? A Well, I didn't think that I could be forced to make a qualified statement before the Court here, because I thought my license would protect me in that matter.

Q Yet it did not protect you or prevent you from making a statement to the attorneys for the Nation? A No, sir.

Q Now, in this conversation with the one to which I before referred did you not ask him to again employ you and tell him if he would you would make it all right for him? A No, sir; I didn't say that; no, I said if he had employed me in the matter "maybe it would have been better for you." Now, he offered me when I was down here last week, he offered me five dollars to go down and tell the lawyers on the matter, I didn't go I was busy.

Q That was not your price? A No, no, I had nothing to say in his case that would be to his advantage; I knew nothing against him.
Q Now, then, you say that your were present on the morning that the judgment was rendered in favor of the Dawsons? A I was not in the Court house.
Q You were present in Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q How long had you been at Tahlequah? A I was living there at that time.
Q Then were you first employed by them? A By Dawsons?
Q Yes, sir. A The evening before the case was tried.
Q You say that after he judgment was rendered Dawson handed you [illegible] A Yes, sir.
Q And told you to hand to Duncan? A No, sir.
Q What was your statement? A That he paid me $20 and says "I will send you some more in a short time, week or so.
Q And then he sent you $100? A Yes, sir.
Q And wrote you to give D. W. C. Duncan $50 of it? A Yes, sir.
Q And then sent you another $100 and told you to give him half of it? A Yes, sir.
Q How much did they pay you? A Well, that was the agreement, was that he would pay me $50 a family.
Q How much did he pay you? A I think there was $250; now I am not sure about the $50, but it appears to me like there was a $50 sent, and Mr. Duncan asked me, as well as I remember, says "have you got a letter from Dawson," I told him "yes, sir." It was either that or the $100, and he says "I would like to have some money", and I went to Stapler's and got it changed-- I won't be sure about it being $50 or $100--I went to Stapler's and got him to cash the check and give him his part of it.
Q How much did they pay you for your services? A That is all I got.
Q How much? A I think it was $100, $120.
Q What did you do for them? A Didn't do a thing only called up the case and submitted it; never read the evidence.
Q Submitted it without remarks? A Yes, sir.
Q And for that you say they paid you $120? A Yes, sir; $120.
Q Was Houston Benge present when that was done? A No, sir; I don't think he was.
Q Did you see him then at that time in Tahlequah? A I don't remember.
Q Were you associated with him in any manner in connection with the case? A No, sir.
Q You had a great deal of business of that character, have you before the Courts? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you paid like fees in other cases for like services?
A Yes, sir.
Q In many of them? A Yes, sir, good many.
Q All like cases? A Oh, citizenship cases.
Q When was it you were in jail at Fort Smith? A I don't remember; Mr. Pollette can remember, he was there, he was my attorney.
Q Was it about 1883? A It was somewhere along there, along in [illegible] somewhere.
Q That has been your principal business as a lawyer, has it not?
A Yes, sir.
Q You have never practiced much in any other way have you? A Very little.
Q Were you in the habit of working your cases through in the same manner in which you state you worked this through? A No, sir.

Q This was an exception was it? A I never worked this case through. I simply called the case up by request of Mr. Dawson. I read the evidence; don't know what proof there was in it; he just asked me to call the case up.
Q And he agreed to pay you $50 a family for doing that? A Yes, sir.
Q Was that what you required of him? A That is what he agreed to pay. I says "what will you give?" He says "I will give you $50 a family."

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q At the same time that the attorney for the Nation was talking to you about the Dawson case he also made inquiries about the Shoemake case didn't he? A Yes, sir.
Q And you told him at that time before you knew anything about whether you would be made or compelled to testify that so far as you knew there was [illegible] you knew detrimental to the Shoemake case? A Yes, sir; that is true.
Q You told him at the same time that you not only expected to claim your privilege as an attorney in the case, but that you told him, Mr. Hastings, with the full belief that the Court would sustain your position? A Yes, sir.

Mr. McKennon: That is very leading.

Q Now, did you think that the re-employment, being the attorney in the pending case would strengthen your position or weaken it, when you spoke to Mr. Dawson? A What I thought in the matter was before ever I would be sworn out in the matter, a long time ago, that if I had been employed in the matter of course my position would have been such that I would not have been required or could not have been forced.
Q Did you think under those circumstances that Mr. Hastings would approach you about the subject? A No, sir; I don't think I would be forced to, having license to practice law.
Q Did Mr. Hastings tell you at the time that he was going to put you on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q And let the Court decide? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Now, have you a license to practice in the United States Courts? A Yes, sir.
Q In the Territory? A Yes, sir.
Q And also in the Indian Courts? A Yes, sir; do you want to see them?

JAMES W. LEWIS, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the [illegible] Motion:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name please? A J. W. Lewis.
Q James W. Lewis? A Yes, sir.
Q Where is your post office, Mr. Lewis? A Afton.
Q How old are you? A [illegible] years old.
Q What is your business? A I work at the tin business and gun work.
Q Do you know one James Dawson, the brother of F. M. Dawson and the other Dawsons? A I know the James Dawson.
Q That is the one I mean. Did you James Dawson? A Yes, sir; I know him.
Q How long have you known him? A Well, some four or five years, I guess.
Q How long? A Four or five years I think.

Q When did you come to the country? A I have been in the country 30 odd years.
Q Well, when did he come to the country, do you know? A Along about somewheres in eighty if I recollect right, might have been later than that.
Q How did you happen to get acquainted with? A He lived right close by me and I built a house for him.
Q Did you have any conversation with him at the time you built that house? A Yes, several different times.
Q About how he became a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, about the circumstances? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he make any statement to you about the use of money in getting his citizenship, and if so, state what he said?
A Well, he told me that it cost him $700 to get his rights.
Q Didn't tell you to whom he paid it? A No, he didn't and I didn't ask any questions.

LR. McKENNON:

Q How old was he at that time, do you know? A I do not know exactly, must have been somewheres near about 70 years old, he might have been older than that, I don't know.
Q He was a very old and feeble man? A Yes, he was old and feeble.
Q He seldom ever got out away from his house? A No, sir, only short distance.
Q When you first knew him he was that kind of man? A Yes, sir.

J. L. CLINKENBEARD, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

LR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A J. L. Clinkenbeard.
Q What is your post office address? A Vinita.
Q How old are you? A 56.
Q Were you ever an applicant for citizenship before the Tehee citizenship Court in Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q About what time was that? A September '81, I think.
Q Did you meet there about that time, one Elbert or Buck Dawson?
A Yes, sir.
Q How did you happen to meet him? A He and I stopped at the same place, man's by the name of Sharbow.
Q You and he stopped there, did you, board there? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, did you have any talk about citizenship cases, yours and his? A
A Yes, sir.
Q Where did he state that he was from? A Texas.
Q Well, state what you can remember of the conversation between you from time to time about citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?
A Well, we were there on the same business and we talked about it at different times, and in talking about the evidence we had there I, of course, told him how many witness I had and what I could prove and so on, and he said that he didn't have but one witness, Dr. Baker from Arkansas, a man that was 85 or 90 years old, he said, and he hadn't come and said he was to have met him there, but he hadn't come.
Q Well, what did he say about the doctor's knowing anything?
A Well, he said he was 85 or 90 years old and didn't know straight up.
Q Well, did he say anything about giving him whisky?
A Well, he said he could give him four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would swear that black was white.

Q Did he say anything about what money would do in Texas or Indian Territory? A Well, in talking about the evidence, he said that reminded him that made the cases go down in Texas and he said "I come to get the lay of the land" and he says "I found out it goes here," or words to that effect.
Q Did he say what he had to spend on the question? A Well, he said that he could stand a thousand dollars on it and not be hurt very much; finally he said he could stand more than that.
Q What did he tell you what he thought about the necessity of witnesses anyhow? A Well, I don't know as he said as to that, but I understood from what he said that he thought money would beat witnesses.
Q Well, where did he go from there? A He and I left there together; he came to Muskogee by way of Fort Gibson and there we parted.
Q Did you ever see him after that? A I saw him about two years or something like that afterwards.
Q Where? A Vinita.
Q Did you refer to the citizenship matter? A I asked him how he come out and he said all right.
Q Was he deformed in any way this man? A He had a crippled hand or stiff finger; I don't remember just what it was now.

I.R. McKENNON:

Q Your first conversation with him was in '01 was it? A Yes, sir.
Q What time in '01? A September.
Q You were then an applicant for citizenship? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you admitted? A No, sir.
Q You are still an applicant? A No, sir.
Q You are still working to get in as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir; haven't quit it entirely.
Q What business are you in now? A I am running a dairy in Vinita.
Q When did you make these statements now to the representative of the Cherokee Nation? A Well, sir, I haven't; I saw Mr. Hastings I believe here last Saturday the first time.
Q How did they ever know that you had had these conversations with Mr. Dawson? A I don't know.
Q You don't know how they found that out? A No, sir.
Q You say you saw Mr. Hastings here last Saturday? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, did you approach him or did he approach you? A He approached me.
Q You know why? A No, sir; I suppose somebody I have told something at some time about this, I don't know when or who. I don't remember of having talked to anyone about it. I have saw Mr. Hastings for years.
Q Now, you say—now was that expression about his giving Dr. Baker three or four drinks of liquor? A He said the old man; he said that Dr. Baker, he was expecting him there and he didn't come, and he said he didn't care where he did or not; he said he was 85 or 90 years old; he said he didn't know straight up; said he could give him three or four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would not know black or white.
Q Now, he said that did he? A Yes, sir.
Q You are just as positive of that as you are of any other statement he made are you? A Yes, sir.
Q You say you next saw Dawson at Vinita? A Yes, sir.
Q How long afterwards was that? A About two years, I think something near that.
Q Did he move to the Territory? A Yes, sir he lived at Vinita at one time.

Q You speak about having a dairy business there at Vinita, to what extent? A I am only milking about four cows now, I sent the others to the country.
Q Do you run a dairy wagon there? A No, sir.
Q You serve on the jury a good deal? A I have been serving on the Petit jury there this winter.
Q Generally? No, sir.
Q Are you a kind of a professional juror? A No, sir; I was on the regular petit jury, I was on the regular panel a d served.

C. G. BRAUGHT, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

H. J. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A C. G. Braught.
Q What is your age? A 62 29th day of last January.
Q What is your Post office? A Fairland.
Q How long have you been living in the neighborhood of Fairland? A Been living there 19 years.
Q Do you know one Bud Dawson or F. M. Dawson as his name is? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A About 18 years.
Q How close do you live from him? A Half a mile of him.
Q Does he still own that place? A I think he does.
Q Were you an applicant for citizenship along about '81 or '2 at Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you have at any time a conversation with Bud Dawson about his and your citizenship cases? A Yes, sir.
Q State what he stated to you of citizenship cases in general and about his own in particular, you can state the time that you had these conversations as near as you can? A Well, I think it was in '83, he told me if I ever got in I would have to put up; he said it cost him $700 to get in; he said he paid one witness three hundred dollars.
Q Did he state the name of that witness? A No, he did not.
Q Who did he say he made arrangements with? A He said he made arrangements with the Court; that is, heads of families to get them in at one hundred dollars apiece.
Q Do you know what time of the year tht was, whether it was in the summer or not? A I think it was in June.
Q Did he make any other statements to you at any other time? A No, sir, I don't think he has in regards to that matter.
Q You have been living neighbors with him? A Yes, sir.

W. McKENNON:

Q You say this was about June of '83? A I think it was in June, 1883, I won't be positive whether it was June or not.
Q You were an applicant; were you admitted? A No, sir.
Q Have you been admitted? A No, sir.
Q You are still an applicant? A Yes, sir.
Q Still trying to get in? A Yes, sir.
Q Where was this conversation had? A Had at Bud Dawson's house.
Q What part of the premises? that is, in his residence? A Yes, sir.
Q In the house? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was present? A There wasn't anybody present; he just built the house and there wasn't anybody there.
Q Was there more than one room? A I won't be positive but I don't think there was but one room, log house.
Q Just one room? A Yes, sir.

Q And in that room he made this statement to you? A Yes, sir.
Q He and you are enemies are you not? A No, I don't think we are enemies.
Q You are not friendly at all? A Friendly part of the time, and part of the time we ain't.
Q Haven't you had considerable trouble about he lands between your farms? A No, sir; we ain't had any trouble.
Q Didn't you have his little boy arrested recently for a difficulty?
A Yes, sir.
Q And you say that you are not on bad terms with him?
A Why we speak, have conversation, have right right along all the time.
Q Is it not a fact now that you and he have been all the while at outs? A No, sir.
Q You don't have any unkind feeling towards him? A No, sir.
Q What were your other remarks? A I said no, sir, I didn't have any unkind feeling towards him.

(It being 4 o'clock, the Commission adjourns until 8:30 o'clock to-morrow morning.)

March 19, 1902.
Commission convened pursuant to adjournment.

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of Counsel for Applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

C. G. BRAUGH, re-called, further testified:

MR. McKENNON:

Q Mr. Braught, you were a claimant under the Watts family are you not? A Yes, sir.
(witness excused.)

CHARLES D. KENNEY, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Charles D. Kenney.
Q What is your post office? A Dawson now.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; supposed to be.
Q Recognized as such are you? A Yes, sir.
Q How old are you? A There is no family record, my parents died when I was young. I [illegible] at my age, I am somewhere between 44 and 45 years old.
Q Were you personally acquainted with one Elbert or Buck Dawson?
A I knew Buck Dawson when I saw him.
Q Did you know him in the state of Texas, if so state what time?
A I knew Buck Dawson, knew him and saw him at different dates in Texas.
Q Well, in the year '81 in Clay County, Texas, did you ever see him?
A It was in '81 or 82, I think I knew him in both years.
Q Did you ever have any conversation with him in the presence of Bill Smith, Miles Fleming and Joe Fleeton about his application for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Mr. Dawson and [illegible] were talking in regard to [illegible] down there before me one time and it was mentioned, I was going up on the strip and Buck Dawson says "he an Indian" and Jiles said "yes, he is an Indian", and "By God," I believe is the way he spoke, "if I was an Indian I would not be punching cattle, I would have stock eating my grass."

Q What did he say about making application? A He said he was going to the Chickasaw Nation and prove up and get him some grass.
Q Who was that? A Buck Dawson.
Q Well, did anybody suggest about his going to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, I told him, I says "why don't you go to the Cherokee Nation, why don't you go up home" I believe is the way I spoke it, "up amongst God's people," and he says "are they all white like you?" and Jiles spoke up and says "majority of them."
Q Well, what did he say to Jiles then? A He says "let's go up Jiles", just in a whole crowd of cow punchers, and Mr. Flippin says "Hell, I am going; brother John is getting ready to go now."
Q Well, then what did he say to you? A He says "Who are your best lawyers up there, Kenney," and I told him "Hooley Bell was pointed the wealthiest man in our country."
Q Well, do you know whether he claimed to have any Indian blood or what he was claiming in that country, whether white man or Indian? A No, sir, I could not say what he was; he was generally known there as Buck Dawson, a citizen of the State of Texas, that is all I know of him.

Mr. McKennon: The applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

Mr. McKennon:
Were you born a citizen in the Cherokee Nation? A I can't tell you where I was born; I was raised here part of the time and [illegible] County, Texas. B. F. Alberty was my guardian.
Were you admitted to citizenship by the Council or Court? A I [illegible] both of them passed on me; I can't tell you the date.
What tribunal first? A It was sometime in '80 though.
Were you permitted on, I was re-instated at Council.
What year? A I think it was in '87 or '88.
Haven't you been arrested for crime and charged with crime? A Well, I didn't know that I was on trial: I have been arrested a [illegible] times I guess from here to the Rio Grande.
What kind of offense? A For gambling, stealing; if I am on trial I have had lots of them, I have been on the road.
R. HASTINGS, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation:
Were you ever convicted? A No, sir.
Mr. McKennon: Applicant makes further objection to the testimony of this witness on account of his criminal character [illegible] by him.

[illegible] testified as follows [illegible] behalf of the Cherokee Nation:

R. HASTINGS:

State your name, please? A [illegible].
What is your post office? A [illegible]
What is your age? A 69.
Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know one James Dawson? A Well, yes; I did; I have seen him time or two.
Q Were you in Tahlequah about the time he had an application before the Spears or Snake Fuzzy Citizenship Court? A Yes, sir; I was there about the time the case was settled.
Q Did you know Aaron Butler? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was he? A He was a Cherokee Interpreter for the Court.
Q Do you know James Smith? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was he? A He was the Nation's Attorney before the Court.
Q Well, did you about that time have a conversation with either Aaron Butler or Jim Smith in company with Mr. James Dawson? A Yes.
Q State the full particulars of it? A About that time this man Dawson and Butler came to me while they were all together, all three of them, and Butler came and called me off to one side, that was down at a colored church, it was after dark, and they called me off there and this man Dawson borrowed some money from me, he said he had to have it that night, his case was going to be submitted the next morning.
Q Well, did he say anything about whether he could get his case submitted if he had some more? A Well, from the language to me and Butler, he wanted this money; Smith had agreed to submit the case without further evidence in the matter.
Q Well, did you let him have the ten dollars? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did they go then? A They walked off up towards town.
Q Did they go together, those three? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Was that James Dawson, the leading applicant in that case?
A Yes, best of my recollection that was.
Q How old a man was he? A I don't know; I could not tell you; he looked, I don't know, he might have been--could not tell you just about how old he was.
Q Well, about how old was he, 25, 30 or 40? A Yes, he was older than that, from my judgment I guess he must have been 45 or 50 years old.
Q Is he living or dead? A I don't know.
Q Where have you been living? A I have been living down here near Tahlequah.
Q What was the man's name, Dawson's name? A Jim Dawson I think.
Q You are certain of that? A Yes, sir; I am pretty certain.
Q They came to you with Smith, the Prosecuting Attorney, and Butler, the Interpreter? A Yes, sir.
Q Dawson took you off to one side? A Butler took me to where Dawson was and introduced me to Dawson and vouched for Dawson being all right for the money.
Q When did you first make a statement of this matter to anybody?
A I guess--I don't remember when.
Q How long have you been in Muskogee this time?
A I have been here since, I was summoned here last Friday.
Q Did you ever make any statement to anybody about this before that time? A Yes, I talked to Butler about it.
Q When? A Oh, about, first I remember it was been about two years ago, and Butler was talking to me about it; it was at my house.
Q Were you born a citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q You weren't admitted to citizenship by the Courts or Council?
A No, sir.
Q You have been living in the Cherokee Nation all your life?
A Well, I was born and raised here; I haven't been here all the time; I have been out and in.

Q You have never seen that man Dawson since? A If I have I have never known it, but I seen him the next day.
Q You saw him and took a good look at him, and know about what kind of man he was? I saw him around there about several times.
Q You think he was about 35 or 40 years old? A That would be my guess at it, my recollection

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness, all of it, because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

DELIA A. BREWER, [illegible], testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your full name? A My husband's name was C. P. Brewer, but generally I sign my name Mrs. D. A. Brewer.
Q What was your full maiden name? A Delia A. Vann; well it was really Delilah but I never was called by that name, it was De altogether in my young days.
Q What was your father's name? A His name was Joseph Vann.
Q Was he called by any nicknames and if so how many, and what?
A None but the Cherokees, the full-bloods called him Joe Aney.
Q What does that name mean when you talk English? A Rich Joe.
Q Did any of them call him Big Joe Vann? A I don't know; he was a large man; larger than the other Joe Vann.
Q There was another Joe Vann? A Yes, sir.
Q Did your father have any sisters and brothers? A He had quite a number of sisters.
Q Did he have a half sister? A Had two half brothers.
Q Did he have a half sister? A Had several half sisters.
Q Who did they marry? A Different persons; I knew the names of all of them but I have a bad memory, but I know that there was one, a Mrs. Ibbie Wolfe, and Mrs. Lamer, she was first a Mrs. Nicholson and she became a Mrs. Lamer and lived in Alabama and never come to this country, but she has grandchildren in this country.
Q Well, did any of your father's sisters or half sisters ever marry a Rogers? A No, sir.
Q Never had any Rogers kin-folks? A No, sir, I certainly would have heard of them through my family, there was a great many of the kin-folks I never saw, but I heard of them.
Q The Dawson case was talked of here for many years, they claiming kin?
A I never knew until I understood they claimed to be kin to the Vanns, and I flatter myself that my family was prominent enough that they never claimed kin.
Q They never claimed kin at all? A No, sir.
Q Did your father ever had a sister or half sister by the name of Willie, Anna or Alsey? A No, sir.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to all the testimony of this witness because it is incompetent and irrelevant.

SAMUEL TOLLIVER DAWSON, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
[illegible]:

Q State your name? A Samuel Tolliver Dawson.

Q What relationship are you to the Dawsons? A Well, I am not acquainted with none of these Dawsons, I guess I am cousin, that is what he told me.
Q Who was your father? A Samuel Riley Dawson.
Q What did you say your father's name was? A Riley Dawson.
Q Do you know what his full name was? A Samuel Riley Dawson.
Q What children had your father? A Why, he had got, you mean his first children or his whole family?
Q I want all of his children? A I don't know, I will have to think a while on them, there was nine or ten of them.
Q Just one or two of them I want to; is Mrs. Lewis your sister?
A Yes, sir.
Q Your full sister? A Yes, sir.
Q She was a daughter of S. R. Dawson, Jr.? A Yes, sir.
Q Now who were the parents of your father, Samuel Dawson?
A Why Sam Dawson was his father.
Q Sam Dawson was his father? A Yes, sir.
Q What was Sam Dawson's wife, if you know their family history, what your father said or what your grandfather said? A I have heard that she was a Pruitt, my father said; of course I don't know.
Q What was her given name? A Annie.
Q Did you ever see your grandfather, Samuel Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Saw him? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know about how old he was when he died? A He was somewhere up about 90.
Q About how old were you when your grandfather died? A I don't remember exactly how old I was, I must have been somewhere near 12 years old when my grandfather died.
Q Was your father his youngest child? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know about when your father was born? A Well, no, I don't, he died in '90 and he was 67 years old.
Q He died in about '90 and was about 67 years old when he died?
A Yes, sir.
Q And he was the youngest child? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, do you know how many children your grandfather had, that is brothers and sisters of your father? A I heard him say seven.
Q Well, did you ever hear your father or grandfather speak of whether or not your grandmother was a white woman or an Indian?
A Well, I heard my father speak about it, I don't know that I ever heard my grandmother say anything about it.
Q Well, what did he say about it? A I have heard him say his mother was not an Indian.
Q Did your father come here and apply for citizenship?
A Yes, sir.
Q You did? A I think so.
Q Do you know his name and statements about he ground he expected to get in? A He said his brothers had proved their rights here and all his brothers drew away rights he did, but I don't know.
Q Well, in that connection did he say whether his mother was an Indian or white woman? A Never heard him say that his mother was a white woman in speaking about that, I don't know whether he said anything about that or not; I have heard him say his mother wasn't no Indian.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness because it is wholly irrelevant and incompetent.

ALEX S. LEWIS, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Alex S. Lewis.
Q What is your post-office? A Dawson, Indian Territory.
Q How old are? A 59 years.
Q What was your wife's maiden name? A Elizabeth Parales Dawson.
Q Who was your wife's father and mother? A Her father was Samuel R. Dawson and her mother was the wife of Samuel R. Dawson, did you want her maiden name?
Q Well, if you know the maiden name of your wife's mother, state how you know it? A Well she was called Margarett, Margarett Queen was her maiden name.
Q The maiden name now of your wife's father's mother? A Why the maiden name of my wife's father's mother?
Q Yes, sir? A From what her husband and my father-in-law told me it was Annie Pruett.
Q What was the name of your wife's father's father? A My wife's grandfather on her father's side, Samuel Dawson.
Q And his wife's maiden name was Annie Pruett? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you know the old gentleman, Samuel Dawson, you wife's grandfather? A Yes, sir.
Q Personally? A Yes, sir.
Q What opportunities had you to get acquainted with him? A He lived with his youngest son, my father-in-law, and visited us, my wife and I, after we were married, at first with us quite a while; I lived near my father-in-law and we visited very often.
Q When did he die? A '74.
Q Have you any particular method of recalling that date? A Well, I was away from the house when he was taken sick, and they sent for my wife and myself, and so when I got home my wife had gone to her father's to see her grandfather, he was sick, and I remember my first wife was a baby at that time.
Q And when was your first child born? A He was born December, '73.
Q You know how old you wife's father was when he died? A Why he was up in 60, but I don't remember his age.
Q Did the old original Samuel Dawson ever tell you his age? A Yes, sir, several times.
Q How old was he at the time of his death? A He was passed 94.
Q Did he ever tell you whether or not his wife Annie Pruett had any sister or brother? A Told me she only had one brother named Bob Pruett.
Q Have any of the members of the family named their children after him? A Make it a little plain, it is a little long; my wife's oldest brother was a particular favorite of his grandfather, and he always took this boy with him everywhere, and he has named one of his,- oldest child for this brother-in-law who was a particular favorite of his grandfather; named it for him I understood.
Q How, what is his name? A Of course I don't know why he named it, but he gave him the name of Robert Pruett, and I understand it was on account of his grandfather thinking so much of Robert Pruett.
Q Did you ever hear the old Samuel Dawson speak of his brother-in-law? A Yes, sir; I have heard him say that he wished he knew what had become of Bob Pruett, he never had heard of him for a long time; didn't know where he was, or whether he was alive or not.

Q Now, I want the children of Samuel Dawson and Annie Pruett, how many of them did you know, first? A How many did I know personally?
Q Yes, sir? A John James, and Samuel R. Those were the only ones of his children that I remember personally.
Q Well, remember what you know of the family, what other children did he have? A Well he had two girls, as I understand the family history, he had two girls, first, and John Dawson was the third child, and the oldest boy was John Dawson.
Q Was John Dawson the oldest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q Which was the oldest girl? What is she known by now? A I think it was Mrs. Petty, nee Bettie Dawson.
Q And John Dawson was the oldest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q And Samuel R. Dawson was the youngest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q You know anything about the time John Dawson was born, have you ever had occasion looking at it, the oldest boy? A Yes, sir, I know what the oldest son and his wife told me.
Q What was that? A They said he was born in 1811.
Q Who was his oldest son? A Toliver H. Dawson; told me his father was born in 1811.
Q Do you remember now whether the old man had occasion to say whether his wife, Annie Pruett was an Indian or white woman, or whether he said anything about it? A I know what the old man said that she was, I don't know that I ever heard the question approached in that way, I have heard him speak as to her blood, but it was in a different way that he reached it.
Q What blood did he say she was? A Well he said that she was the daughter of Mrs. Pruett, a white woman; and that her father was Captain John Rogers, a white man who lived with the Cherokee Indians, and traded with them.
Q Did he say who Captain John Rogers afterwards married? A Said he had a wife in the Cherokee Nation.
Q But that Annie Pruett was not her child? A No, sir, she was the child of Mrs. Pruett.
Q A white woman? A Yes, sir, that was the half sister of Bob Pruett.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness, because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

Q Whenever you apply for citizenship here? A Yes, sir; for my wife.
Q When? A My father-in-law made the application, I don't know exactly when it was, I think probably about '96, I couldn't say to the date.

Q Before the Cherokee authorities? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he file an application before the Dawes Commission in 1896 also? A Him.
Q Yes, sir? A I don't think he did, no sir.
Q Did you? A I did.
Q On account of your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you make affidavit to that application? A No, sir.
Q Who did? A I don't know, don't remember now.
Q You applied for your wife as an Indian by blood did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you still an applicant? A No, sir.
Q Is she? A No, sir.
Q She was denied was she? A Yes, sir.
Q Was there an appeal taken from that? A Application was filed if I remember, before the Dawes Commission, and they rejected the case, and then I appealed it to the District Court, and it was rejected there and then I stopped.

Q Have you ever been arrested for any crime? A Yes, sir.
Q What? A Charge of murder.
Q Anything else? A No, sir.
Q Committed on the train? A Yes, sir.
Q In a train robbery? A Yes, sir, in a train robbery.
Q How long did you remain in jail? A Appealed the case to the Supreme Court and it was reversed and sent back, and I was acquitted on that charge.
Q That all the crime you were ever charged with? A Yes, sir.
Q Haven't you been having some trouble with the Dawson family? A Well me personally I have no trouble with any of them, there is one of my boys and one of W. A. Dawson's sons-in-law had some trouble.
Q You are not friendly with the Dawson family? A That son-in-law Mr. Wooley, himself, don't speak, and I don't think his wife speaks to me either.
Q Well you are claiming some sort of lease on the Wooley farm, aren't you? A No, sir, I don't claim any lease on the Wooley farm.

B. W. ALBERTY, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q State your name? A B. W. Alberty.
Q What is your post-office? A Tahlequah.
Q What is your present official position in the Cherokee Nation? A Assistant Executive Secretary of the Cherokee Nation.
Q As such have you charge of the citizenship records and books etc. of the Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you made search recently for the original records in the various cases of the Dawson family before citizenship courts in Council? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you got what records you found with you? A I find what's supposed to be the original papers in the case, all that I could find. (Produces papers and hands to Nation's attorney.)
Q Where did you find these papers? A I found them in the desk in which papers of that character are filed away in the Executive Office at Tahlequah. (Applicant's attorneys examine papers produced by witness.)
BY MR. HUTCHINGS: The Nation here introduces in evidence an envelope marked No. 108, the names on the back of it are Robert, Elbert, Jasper, John, Frances, Marion, Josephine, Joseph, Jane, Mollie, Wilburn, James, Rial Dawson, versus the Cherokee Nation; the envelope and its contents.

vs.
Cherokee Nation.

Testimony for Claimants.

Witness:

Dr. Baker sworn testified as follows. My name is Arthur Baker I reside at Berrivill, Arkansas, Carroll County, my age is 37 years, I am not a Cherokee , I lived in the Cherokee Nation about three years when I first came to Arkansas I have been acquainted with him since he became a citizen of Carroll County some thirty five years (line drawn through the last three words.) 35 years at my mother's house near Calhoun I became acquainted with the claimants Robt Dawsons grandmother on mother's side, she was frequently at my mother's house; though she Anna Pruit lived in the Marion side. She claimed to be a half sister to Big Joe Vann, also claimed to be half Cherokee; the first time she brought the claimant's mother to my mother's house she the claimant's mother was about grown, when I was a lit le boy she called her daughter Polly Rogers said Capt. John Rogers who ran a boat up the river was the father of the child; I saw the girl frequently there at my mother's and where at Louis Fowlers Store I saw her occasionally until I was 15 or 16 years old and I think then Old Capt John Rogers took her off to school. I saw her no more from the time Old Capt. John Rogers took her off till I saw her here in Arkansas the wife of Old Samuel Dawson. I stayed all night there she and I had a talk over our old acquaintances, and I asked her when she became acquainted with Dawson and she said at the time she was going to school. And she said after she left school that Dawson followed her home to the Nation and they were there married. I have told that precisely in the words she used.

Capt John Rogers claimed to be one fourth Cherokee, the claimant is the son of Polly Rogers and I knew Polly Rogers to be the daughter of Anna Pruet, and I know the claimant to be the son of Polly Dawson Capt Rogers then resided in the Cherokee Country about twelve miles from Calhoun on the Arkansas River.

Anna Pruet resided in the Cherokee Nation as long as I stayed there the Dawsons when I got acquainted with them Cherokees were recognized where they were as Cherokees, Robt Dawsons children is Buck, John, Marion, and two girls; the children named in the petition I recognize as being the claimants.

Cross Examination by Solicitor:

Ques. 1 How many children did Polly Rogers have?
Ans. 1 Five, I think that's all.
Ques. 2 Did you say something about her having married twice?
Ans. 2 The claimant was married twice.
Ques. 3 Could Anna Pruet speak Cherokee?
Ans. 3 Yes she could speak it well
Ques. 4 Did Polly Rogers speak Cherokee?
Ans. 4 She could when she was young.
Ques. 5 How far do you live from Anna Pruet?
Ans. 5 Just across the river about 3/4 of a mile.
Ques. 6 Was Calhoun in the Cherokee Nation?
Ans.6 It was on both sides of the river, part in the Nation and part out in the State.

Ques. 7 Which Harnage was it went to Texas?
Ans. 7 George went first then John went they were the sons of old man Harnage that lived up here near the line.
Ques. 8 Did the claimant go to Texas?
Ans.8 No the claimant didn't go to Texas.
Ques. 9 What connection was claimant and Polly Rogers?
Ans. 9 The claimant is the son of Polly Rogers Marion here is the grandson of Polly Rogers.
Ques. 10 Where does claimant now live?
Ans. 10 He lives in Carroll County, Arkansas.
Ques. 11 Do you know what relation old Captain John Rogers was to Charlotte Rogers here on Coowescoowee?
Ans. 11 They claimed kin but what kin I dont know there were two Capt. John Rogers' in the Nation I am speaking of the time when I first came to this 1830 Country about the year 1830.
Ques. 12 Was Anna Priest the maiden name of Claimant's grandmother
Ans. 12 Yes that was her maiden name the Indians called her Sinoe.

Joseph Dawson introduced for Claimants, sworn in open Court testified as follows:

Jos. Dawson, am a Cherokee live in the Cherokee Nation, am 31 years old.

Lulu Dauthett and Dallas Dauthett, the Claimants are Cherokees. Fannie Dawson was their Mother. Fannie Dawson was a Cherokee, that is what I was always told. Her father was E. Dawson. E. Dawson was my brother. Mrs. Dauthett is not living now: the last time I saw Lula, and Dallas Dauthett, they were in Texas. But I have heard since that they are in the Cherokee Nation. E. Dawson recognizes them as his grandchildren and I have known them ever since they were born.
By Solicitor:

Lula is about 10 years old. The Dallas is about 5 or 6 years old. I heard that their father is now at Vinita Cherokee Nation, E. Dawson is Filbert Dawson. The applicants' Mother has been dead about three or four years. She died at Hillsboro, Texas.

I was not present when their mother and E. Dawson had their children to the best of my recollection, or 9. Fannie, Francis, Cartenna, Janie, Bob, Smith, Forsh, Bert, Ella. All living but two, Fannie and Smith. They are all living in Texas when I left there. I am a brother to F. M. Dawson, we are full brothers. In red ink written along Age column is the following: "Rejected April 26, 1889."

"Now this day comes the above case for final hearing, Samuel R. Dawson, bases his application for re-admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the ground that he is the son of Samuel Dawson a white man, Polly Rogers the alleged daughter of Captain John Rogers and Chilsey Pruitt, said to be a half sister of Joseph Vann, commonly known as Rich and the wife of Cherokee blood. It is admitted that John Rogers and Chilsey Pruitt died before the roll upon which their names would appear if living at the time and specified in the 7th section of the Act of December 8th, 1886, creating the Commission on Citizenship, were made but in support of the application it is urged that certain members of the Dawson family and full brothers of the applicant were re-admitted to citizenship by the Commission on Citizenship commonly known as

"The Tehee Court", and the "Spears Court", and are now residing as citizens in the Cherokee Nation. In the opinion of this Commission the sufficiency of the considerations which determined the decision of the Commissions of the testimony now introduced to authorize the admission of the present applicant is not relivent to the issue now pending. The 7th section of the Act of December [illegible], before named provides, that "The Commission shall give a hearing to any person applying for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the ground of Cherokee blood or descent, but such applicant must be a person, or the lineal descendant of a person [illegible] upon the census rolls of Cherokees taken by the Chiefs mentioned" as are hereafter enumerated. Neither the name of the [illegible] nor that of the person of whom he claims to be a lineal descendant appearing upon either of said rolls the Commission adjudge and decree that Samuel R. Dawson and family are not entitled to re-admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as Cherokees by blood. This opinion includes the cases of Andrew J. Dawson, James K. P. Dawson, Jounnah Barber nee Jounnah Dawson and Jane Queen, nee Jane Dawson, and their families, as enumerated in their respective applications.

for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

Your respondent, S. H. Mayes, Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, comes now and demurs the said application, and for the grounds thereof says:

1st. That this Commission has not jurisdiction over the parties or subject matter of this controversy.

2nd. That the application does not state facts sufficient if true, to show that the applicant . . . entitled to citizenship.

Respondent not waiving his aforesaid demurrer, but insisting upon the same for answer to said application, says that John Rogers through whom the petitioner claims to derive right to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, is not now, - . . and has not been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, since the removal of said Nation, west to the Indian Territory, as at present located and defined; that his name does not appear on any of the authenticated rolls of said nation; that neither nor any of his ancestors now reside, or ever have resided in the Cherokee Nation and Indian Territory, as citizens thereof,

Samuel Dawson, a white man, Polly Rogers, the ... ... for a Certain John Rogers, and Calloway Pruett said to be half sister of Joseph Vann, ... Nation and who were of Cherokee blood. It is admitted that John ...

Chilsey Proctt died before the rolls upon which their names would appear as living at the time, and specified in the 7th Section of the Act of December 6th, 1906, creating the Commission on Citizenship were made, but in support of the application it is urged that certain members of the Dawson family the full brothers of the applicant are admitted to citizenship by the Commission on Citizenship commonly known as the "Tahlee Court" and "Spears Court" and are now residing as citizens in the Cherokee Nation. In the opinion of this Commission the sufficiency of the consideration upon which determined the decisions of those Commissions or the testimony now introduced to authorize the admission of the present applicant is not relevant in the issue now pending. The 7th Section of the Act of December 6th, 1906, before mentioned provides that the Commission hearing any person applying for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the grounds of Cherokee blood or descent, but such applicant must be a person, or the lineal descendant of a person whose name appears upon the census rolls of the Cherokee taken by the United States, hereinafter mentioned, neither the name of the applicant nor that of the person of whom he claims to be a lineal descendant appearing upon either of said rolls, the Commission adjudge and decree that Samuel R. Dawson and family are not entitled to re-admission of citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as Cherokees by blood. This opinion includes the case of Andrew J. Dawson, James M. P. Dawson, Joannah Barber, nee Joannah Dawson, and Jane Queen, nee Jane Dawson and their families as enumerated in their respective applications.

W. C. Rogers being duly sworn on oath deposes and says: that he is a citizen and resident of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory. That his post-office address is Skiatook, Ind. Ter. That he was born and raised in the above named Indian Territory; that he is 46 years of age.

Affiant further states that he is slightly acquainted with Irena J. House, an applicant for admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as shown by copy of her application.

Affiant further states that his father's name was Charlie Rogers- who was a son of Captain John Rogers and the said Capt. John Rogers was the only man of that name that ever lived in the Cherokee Nation that this affiant ever heard of; that the said Capt. John Rogers this affiants grandfather lived at Grand Saline, I. "IN THE UNITED STATES COURT FOR THE INDIAN TERRITORY, MIDDLE JUDICIAL DIVISION, AT MUSKOGEE, I.T. U.S.A.

Joe [illegible] Oscar Otis E. Parker, William F. Parker, Jr. [illegible] Parker, Jessie Parker, Joel A. Parker, [illegible] A. Parker, [illegible] Lone, Addie L. Hall, Alger J. Stuart, APPELLANTS.

vs.

CHEROKEE NATION, APPELLEE.

PETITION FOR APPEAL FROM THE DECISION OF THE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Come now the appellants in the above entitled cause and petition the Court to grant an appeal in said cause from the decision of the Commission, known as the Dawes Commission, created by Congress to treat with the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians, to-wit: the Cherokee, Creek, Choctaw, Chickasaw, and Seminole Indians, and to pass upon and decide applications for citizenship in the said Five Civilized Tribes, which decision by said Commission was rendered by authority of, but not in accordance with, an Act of Congress passed and approved June 10th, 1896, and by which decision on the 29 day of October, 1896 the aforesaid appellants were denied their rights to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory.

The facts relied upon by the appellants to establish their rights to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, as aforesaid are as follows: to-wit: The affidavits of E. Dawson, S. [illegible] Lawson [illegible] A. Dawson, F. M. Dawson.

Said affidavits fully and conclusively establishing the fact that said applicants are Cherokee Indians, by blood and descent, and entitled to rights of citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

Said affidavits, together with the application, of said appellants, were, prior to September the 10th, 1896, filed with and submitted to said Commission for its investigation, examination and decision.

That a certified copy of said application, together with the accompanying affidavits, was served upon the Chief, or Attorney General, of said Cherokee Nation, prior to September the 10th, 1896.

The errors of the Commission in rejecting the claims for citizenship of said appellants are the grounds for appeal to this Court, to-wit:

FIRST. The Commission erred in rendering its decision on said claims adversely to the appellants and against the proof submitted by said appellants.

SECOND. The Commission erred in investigating the claims of appellants and denying the same, the consent of a majority of the members of the Commission.

THIRD. The Commission erred in rejecting the appellants the right and privilege of examining the proof submitted by appellee in support of its answers filed by the appellee and denying the appellants the right of filing a replication to appellee's answer or cross-bill or proof in rebuttal of the same.

FOURTH. The Commission erred in denying the appellants the benefit of a trial of their said claims de novo, as provided for by the laws and constitution of the United States.

FIFTH. The Commission erred in refusing appellants the right to be present in person, or by attorney, during the trial and determination of their claims before said Commission.

SIXTH. The Commission erred in refusing to issue process for witnesses and refusing to hear the witnesses and testimony offered by appellants.

SEVENTH. The Commission erred in deciding against the right of these appellants to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

EIGHTH. The Commission erred in deciding against blood, holding that blood was not a test of the right of citizenship in said Cherokee Nation.

NINTH. The Commission erred in deciding against the question of residence, holding that residence in the Cherokee Nation was not a test of the right of citizenship in the said Cherokee Nation.

TENTH. The Commission erred in not entering upon their docket or record the grounds upon which the claims of appellants were denied and refusing to notify the appellants the grounds of denial or rejection.

ELEVENTH. The Commission erred in examining the claims and proof of appellants and denying the same while the Commission was not clothed with any legal authority, nor had jurisdiction, to render decision on said claims or deny the same.

TWELFTH. That the Act of Congress approved June [illegible], 1906, was unconstitutional and did not confer any legal right to confer jurisdiction on said Commission to deny and refuse the rights to citizenship of said appellants, and said Commission erred in determining the rights and equities to said appellants.

THIRTEENTH. That Congress has no power by enactment to create, appoint and empower a judiciary, and said Commission erred in denying the claims of said appellants without any legal authority to do so.

Therefore, the appellants pray that an appeal be granted to this Court and that a trial, de novo, be granted the appellants, and that said appellants be permitted to introduce new testimony, and that the proper writs issue commanding said Commission to send all the papers, and the record and proceedings in said cause, to this Court, that the Cherokee Nation, the appellee herein, may be cited to appear at this Court and plead and defend against the said [illegible] why the appellants should not by the rules, orders and decisions of this Court be adjudged entitled to citizenship in the said Cherokee Nation, and the appellants will ever pray.

"Joanna Barber et al.
vs. No.90.
Cherokee Nation.

Mr. M. A. Gibson, Special Master, to whom the above cause was referred, submits the following report:

'IN THE UNITED STATES COURT IN THE INDIAN TERRITORY,
NORTHERN DISTRICT, AT MUSKOGEE.

JOANNA BARBER ET AL)

-VS- : REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER.

THE CHEROKEE NATION.)

----------oOo----------

I, M. A. Gibson, Special Master herein, show to the Court that under the general order herein, I have examined the proofs and pleadings herein, which is hereto attached and made a part hereof, and find as follows:

I

This this cause was instituted on September 8th, 1906, before the Dawes Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, by Joanna Barber, and Isaac J. Barber, her husband, and their children, Onie E., William L., James E., Johnnie and Joel A. Barber. That Joel A. Barber has the following children, Lattie Toliver, George A., Frankie O., Jesse and Ethel Barber. That the application includes also Mary A. Bowyer and her child Inez Bowyer, Emma L. Murray and her child Claud Murray, E. A. Moore and her children Anna J., Jackson D., Ruby M. Cleghs, Attie L. Hunt and her child Dorman Hunt, Alber J. Smart and her children Georgia A. and Emzey E. Smart, Josie J. Garlinghouse and her children Myrtle C., Corn L. and Bertie E. Garlinghouse. That this application was by the Commission tried and rejected on October 29th, 1906, with no reasons given for the decision, and that subsequently on December 27, 1906, the claim is appealed to this Court. That the parties all live in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory.

II

That the parties claim the right to be admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by reason of their descent from Polly Rogers, who is claimed to be a Cherokee Indian by blood. That there are filed in support of their application the affidavits of S. R. Dawson, E. Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, and M. A. Dawson, who testify that Joanna Barber is the daughter of Elizabeth Reavy, nee Dawson, who was the daughter of Polly Rogers, who was a white woman by the name of Samuel Dawson, and that Polly Rogers was the daughter of Captain John Rogers and Allegoy Vann. That these witnesses are all Cherokee citizens by blood, and that the said claimants, and according to their testimony, related to the [illegible].

The appellee introduces to contravert this testimony the decision of the Cherokee Commission on citizenship, rendered in the year 1[illegible]7, in which these claimants were rejected by this Commission and also the affidavits of E. C. Rogers a grandson of Captain John Rogers, and Mrs. Sarah Carter, a granddaughter of Captain John Rogers, both of whom state that they never heard of any daughter of said Captain John Rogers by the name of Polly Rogers, and that Cynthia Rogers was his only daughter.

III

The claimants in this case are residents of the Cherokee Nation, and the relatives of the Lawson family, who are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood, are entitled to be enrolled as citizens by blood, while the appellee contends that John Rogers, through whom the petitioners claim, is not now and never has been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation since the removal west; that his name does not appear on the rolls of the Cherokee Nation, and that he nor his ancestors ever resided in the Cherokee Nation so entitle them thereof.

The premises considered, in view of the unsettled condition of affairs in the Cherokee Nation at the time when Captain John Rogers, the ancestors through whom these claimants trace their Cherokee blood, lived, and especially in view of the absence of a marriage law and of record pertaining to marriage, I am of the opinion that these claimants have shown that they are descended from Capt. John Rogers, who resided in the Cherokee Nation, and was a recognized citizen, though they do not show that he was ever enrolled as such, and I therefore find that the claimants are all residents of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, and that they are all Cherokee Indians by blood. That Rogers resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1[illegible]7, and probably longer, though the proof does not state definitely how long he has resided.

I [illegible] that the Court allow the sum of [illegible] for [illegible] services herein as special master.

Respectfully submitted this 1[illegible] day of August, 1[illegible]07.

(signed) W. A. Gibson,
SPECIAL MASTER.

[illegible]

"Creek Freedmen Final."

[illegible] C. J.

Mrs. [illegible] contends that the claimants have their right to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation upon the grounds that they are the descendants of a Cherokee Indian by blood, but their ancestors through whom they claim have never resided in the Cherokee Nation as now constituted. It appears that they have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1[illegible]7, and probably longer, though the proof does not state definitely how long they have so resided. It does not appear that the applicants or any of their ancestors have ever been recognized as members of the Cherokee Nation.

The judgment of the United States Commission rejecting this case is affirmed, and the application of the claimants to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation is denied."

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

We now introduce the original record in the citizenship case of Irene J. Moore, et al., before the Commission in 1896, the court number of same being 230, said case being denied by the Commission; appealed to the United States Court, and the decision of the Commission affirmed.

In this case I desire to call especial attention to the certified copy filed therein of the testimony of Arthur Baker, the certified copy having been made in 1894, being the testimony of Dr. Baker in the case of Robert Dawson against the nation, number 138, before the Citizenship Commission, and which was made January 10, 1882.

BY MR. McKENNON: To all of which the applicants object, because the same is immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

The papers in Court No. 238, just introduced above, are as follows:

"Office of Commission on Citizenship,
Cherokee Nation, Tahlequah, January 19, 1893.

No. 102.
Robert Dawson et al) Exhibit C.
vs)
Cherokee Nation.)

Testimony for Claimants.

Witness, Dr. Arthur Baker sworn testified as follows:

My name is Arthur A. Baker I reside at Berryvill Arkansas Carroll County my age is 52 years I am not a Cherokee. I lived in the Cherokee Nation about three years when I first came to Arkansas I have been acquainted with him since he became a citizen of Carrolls County some 35 years - At my Mothers house near Calhoun I became acquainted with the claimants Robt Dawson grandmother on Mother's side she was frequently at my mothers house though she Anna Pruet lived in the Nation side; She claimed to be a half sister to Big Joe Vann, also claimed to be half Cherokee, the first time she brought the claimants Mother to my Mothers house she the mothers mother was about grown when I was a little boy. She called her daughter Polly Rogers, Said Captain John Rogers who ran a boat up the River was the father of the child; I saw the girl frequently there at my Mothers and there at Louis Rogers Store.

I saw her occasionally until I was 15 or 16 years of old and I think then Old Capt. John Rogers took her off to school, I saw her no more from the time Old Capt. John Rogers took her off till I saw her here in Arkansas the wife of old Samuel Dawson, I stayed all night there and we and I had a talk over our old matters and I asked her where she became acquainted with Dawson and she said at the time she was going to school and she said after she left school that Dawson followed her home, to the Nation and they were there married. I have told that precisely in the words that she used. Capt John Rogers claimed to be one Fourth Cherokee. The claimant is the son of Polly Rogers, and I know Polly Rogers to be the daughter of Anna Pruett and I know the claimant to be the son of Polly Dawson.

Capt. Rogers then resided in the Cherokee Country about ~~twenty~~ (Word "twelve" marked thus (,,) twelve miles below Calhoun on the Hiwassee River. Anna Pruett resided in the Cherokee Nation as long as I knew there the Dawson when I got acquainted with them Arkansas were recognized where they were as Cherokees. Robert Dawson children is Buck, John, Marian and two girls, The children named in the petition I recognized as being the claimants.

Question by Solicitor:

No. 1 How many children did Polly Rogers have?
Ans. 1 Five I [illegible] that's all.
No. 2 Did you ever see Polly Rogers and Dawson one being married twice?
Ans. 2 The claimant was married twice.
No. 3 Could Anna Pruet speak Cherokee?
Ans. 3 Yes, she could speak it well.

Ques 4 Did Polly Rogers speak Cherokee?
Ans. 4 She did when I was young.
Ques 5 How far did you live from Ada Pruet?
Ans. 5 Just across the river about 3/4 of a mile.
Ques 6 Was Calhoun in the Cherokee Nation?
Ans. 6 It was on both sides of the river part in the Nation and part out in the state.
Ques 7 Which Hornage was it went to Texas?
7 George went first, then John went, they were the sons of old man Hornage, that lived up near the line.
Ques 8 Did the Claimant go to Texas?
Ans. 8 No the Claimant did not go to Texas.
9 What connection was claimant and Polly Rogers?
9 The Claimant is the son of Polly Rogers
Marion here is the grandson of Polly Rogers.
10 Where does claimant now live?
10 He lives in Carroll Co Arkansas.
11 Do you know the relation old Capt John Rogers was to Charles Rogers here in Cooweescoowee?
11 They claimed kin but what kin I dont know there were two Capt John Rogers in the Nation I am speaking of the time when I first came to this country about the year 1830.
12 Was Anna Pruet the maiden name of claimants grandmother
12 Yes that was her maden name the Indian called her Sinee

My name is F. M. Dawson; I am 54 years of age; my post office address is Afton Indian Territory; I am a farmer by occupation and reside in the Cherokee Nation.

I am a recognized Cherokee citizen by blood. I was born in Carroll County Arkansas near Berryville. I derived my Cherokee Indian blood from my grandmother whose maiden name was Polly Rogers through my father Robert Dawson, My grandmother Polly Rogers was a Cherokee Indian and was married to Samuel Dawson my grand father in the old Cherokee Nation in Tennessee. My grand parents Samuel Dawson and his wife Polly came west from the Old Cherokee Country in about 1832 and settled in Western Arkansas and later came on to the Indian Territory and the father of this affiant Robert Dawson and family settled in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, Robert Dawson, the father of the affiant was also a recognized citizen of the present Cherokee Nation by reason of his Cherokee Indian blood.

The said Robert Dawson father of this affiant and Elizabeth Dawson who married John Petty were full brother and sister by blood, both being children of said Samuel Dawson and his wife Polly Dawson whose maiden name was Polly Rogers The said Elizabeth Petty was the mother Of Joanna Barber who is a full cousin by blood of this affiant in the Indian side. The said Joanna Barber is the mother of Irena J. House nee Barber who is a second cousin of this affiant in the Indian side.

This affiant further states that he has seventy five to a hundred blood relatives who reside in the Cherokee Nation and are recognized Cherokee Indians by blood and drew their per capita money all the last payment; said citizens and relatives derived their Indian blood from the same source that the above named Irene J. House, derives her Indian blood and right.

This statement I have made to John H. Koogler, a Notary Public at Muskogee Indian Territory and it has been written down by him at my dictation. Such part of this testimony which refers to matters occuring previous to my recollection I know by means of family history and traditions which facts I have always been taught and told of by my parents and grand parents from childhood up, the facts stated as occuring since my childhood I know of my personal knowledge. Affiant further states that he is not personally interested in the prosecution of the application of said Irena J. House for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

I am a farmer by occupation, and reside in the Delaware District- Cherokee Nation. I am a recognized Cherokee Indian by blood, and exercise all the rights and immunities of a Cherokee citizen now living in the present Cherokee Nation. I was born in Carroll County Arkansas near Berryville. I derive my Cherokee Indian blood from my grandmother Polly Rogers through my father, Robert Lawson. My grandmother Polly Rogers was a Cherokee Indian and was married to my own father Samuel Lawson in the old Cherokee Nation in Tennessee. My father, Samuel Lawson and wife Polly Lawson came West and settled in Cherokee Country in about the year 1829, and settled in Western Arkansas, and later came on to the Cherokee Nation. My father Robert Lawson was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation when he died, by reason of his Cherokee Indian blood.

The said Robert Lawson, the father of this affiant, and Elizabeth Lawson who married John Petty were full brother and sister by blood, both being children of the said Samuel Lawson and Polly Lawson his wife she being the same Polly Rogers as aforesaid. The said Elizabeth Petty was the mother of Joanna Barber who is a full cousin by blood of this affiant on the Indian side, the said Joanna Barber is the mother of Irene J. House, whose maiden name was Irene J. Barber and a second cousin of this affiant on the Cherokee Indian side. This affiant further states that he has seventy five to a hundred blood relatives who reside in the Cherokee Nation and are recognized Cherokee Indians of the present Cherokee Nation and exercise all the rights and privileges of such Cherokee citizens, they having drawn their shares of the Strip money at the last per capita payment made by the Cherokee Nation.

Said citizens and relatives derived their Cherokee Indian blood from the same source, as did the above named Irene J. House.

I have made this statement before J. Garrickles, Notary Public at Talala, Ind. Ter, and affiant further states that he has no personal interest in the prosecution of the claim for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation of the said Irene J. House.

That the above facts [illegible] are within the personal knowledge of the affiant or within his years of discretion he knew personally, and the other facts [illegible] occurred before the recollection of affiant he testifies to [illegible] and he has derived [illegible] his family history and [illegible] blood.

That the relationship existing among all his people in the Cherokee Nation he knows from his personal knowledge and [illegible] that they are related to the Cherokee Indian side.

"Irene J. House et al,
vs. No. 238
Cherokee Nation.

Mr. W. A. Gibson, Special Master to whom this case was referred, submits the following report: (Insert report)

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT IN THE INDIAN TERRITORY.

NORTHERN DISTRICT AT MUSCOGEE.

IRENE J. HOUSE ET AL

VS

THE CHEROKEE NATION.

) 338 REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER.

----------oOo----------

I, M. A. Gibson, Special Master herein, show to the Court that under the general order herein, I have examined the proof and pleadings on file in this cause which are made part of this report, and find as follows:-

I

That this case is in reality a transcript of Case No. 90, Joanna Barber vs Cherokee Nation, the principal claimant herein being Irene J. House a daughter of Joanna Barber.

That this cause was instituted on September , 1896 at which time application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for citizenship by blood in the Cherokee Nation.

That this case was tried by the said Commission on November 24, 1896 and the applicants denied, no reasons being given for the decision, and that on January 20, 1897, the parties appealed from said decision to this Court.

That this application was made by Irene J. House, her husband, T. J. House, and their children Chas., C. Winston T., and Henry F. House. That they file in support of their application the affidavits of Joanna Barber, T. J. Dawson, Arthur A. Baker, E. Dawson, and W. A. Dawson. That these Dawson witnesses are citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and state that they are related by blood to the claimants herein on the Cherokee side. The claimants base their contention of a right to Cherokee citizenship upon the fact that the claimant Irene J. House is the daughter of Joanna Barber, who is the daughter of Elizabeth Petty, who was the daughter of Polly Rogers, and that Polly Rogers was the daughter of Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann, who were recognized Cherokee citizens by blood. That the testimony shows that this Dawson family are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that the claimants herein are cousins by blood upon the Indian side, and that they all claim through a common ancestor, Polly Rogers and Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann, who were all recognized Cherokee Indians.

II

The appellee introduces in defense the record of the application of these claimants to the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship in the year 1897, and the record of the rejection of the claimants, and further the affidavits of W. A. Rogers, and Mrs. Sarah Carter, a granddaughter both of whom state that they never heard of any daughter of Captain John Rogers by the name of Polly Rogers, and that he had only one daughter, whose name was Cynthia.

III

The Claimants contend that they are residents of the Cherokee Nation and are relatives of the Dawsons, who are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood, are entitled to be enrolled to the Cherokee Nation as citizens by blood. While the applicant contends that John Rogers, through whom the petitioners claim, is not now and has not been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation since the removal west That his name was not at any time on the rolls of the Nation, and that none of his ancestors ever resided in the Cherokee Nation, the burden is upon the petitioners to prove.

IV

[illegible] considered, I find that the claimants are [illegible] Captain John Rogers, and that it was [illegible] that in the condition of affairs at that [illegible] the Cherokee Nation, especially owing to the [illegible] marriage law and of records pertaining to marriage, [illegible] claimants should be the descendents of certain [illegible] daughter, Polly Rogers, of whom the applicants [illegible] they never lay claim.

[illegible] well we close for the present.

[illegible] EXAMINATION ON BEHALF OF THE APPLICANTS:

[illegible] first duly sworn, and being examined,
[illegible]

[illegible] name, age and residence? A My name is D. W. [illegible] 35 years, my residence, Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q Are you [illegible] citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood? A I [illegible].
Q You [illegible] this [illegible] before did you not, before the Dawes [illegible]? A I [illegible].
Q Before this Commission, I will say, this Commission? A The Dawes Commission. I may [illegible] the the Commissioner was, that was [illegible].
Q Were you [illegible] connected with the Cherokee Citizenship Commission [illegible] known as the "Tehee Commission"? A I was Clerk of that Commission.

...what length of time? A I don't recollect the exact length
... me, I think it was about thirty days, during the continuance
... that Commission, existance of that Commission.
... you were the only clerk it had during its existance were you?
A I think I was.
... Clerk of that Commission when it rendered a decision
... of Robert Dawson et al, as found on page 114, of its
... (witness examines record referred to.) now
... commission of this Commission? A I was.
... appears of that Commission were the same as shown by the
... to this judgment were they? A The same, yes, sir.
... Commission, Alex Wolfe and T. J.
... is correct, is it? A That's correct.
... was under consideration by the
... this judgment in the case? A I was.
... F. M. Dawson, Jr. only
... Taylor and Samuel H. Benge, who were
... attorneys at that time? A I might
... Dawson; all I know of him was I saw him
... Mr. Taylor and Mr. Benge
... them a number of years.
... prominent citizens were they? A They were.
... not known generally as a Citizenship Attorney?
A I think he was.
... remember seeing Mr. Benge present at the time this ... was under consideration by the Court? A Why I do not recollect
... Mr. Benge, I cannot recollect, but I can recollect of seeing
... Taylor about the Court room now and then.
... you know who submitted the case to the Court for the ... applicants? A Let me understand the meaning of that; who brought
... the case?
... Who called up the case? A No, I don't recollect.
... you remember whether that Commission rendered any other decision
... than found upon this record in that case? A I never had any ... knowledge only but one decision.
... was that in favore of or against the applicants? A It was in ... favor of them; I will say this: that if there was another decision
... from the one that appears on the docket now before you, I
... no recollection of it.
... Was there a change of venue ordered by you
... Court to some other county? A That is the only one that I ...
... Did you ever say you can't remember with that case?
... to ...
... influence
... to the Court
... outcome of influence-
... that during; that
... I had was having
... Court which
... reference to transacting that judi-

ment? A I never observed anything of the kind; nothing that awakened a suspicion in my mind that he was engaged in that kind of practice.

Q Did Campbell Taylor at any time after the rendition of that ... ent pay to you any money as coming thro gh him from Bud Dawson for any services which you had rendered to him in that case?

A Yes, he paid me some.

Q What amount? A My recollection is that, I think it was a twenty dollar bill. I don't know but I had better go and state the transaction, all about it.

Q Yes, sir. A Mr. Dawson, Bud Dawson, during the trial of the case occasionally applied to me at my desk for writing paper, issue of a subpoena or transcript, something of that kind. I always treated him with courtesy and proper attention. He seemed to appreciate it, and whenever I did a favor of this kind for him, says he, I have no money, Mr. Duncan, but when I get it I owe it to pay you. I told him I had no charge for work of that kind. And in passing I might state that I never received a cent for any kind of that work which I was in the habit of doing for various parties before the Court.

After his trial was concluded, in the afternoon a little while before supper time I went to my hotel, The Kimmel Brick Hotel in Tahlequah; went to my room, felt a little tired, laid down upon the bed to rest. I recollect Mr. Duncan stepped into the room, drew a chair up to the bedside and sat down and congratulated me on his vindication at the hands of his case, ... mostly upon the testimony in the case being so satisfactorily establishing his Cherokee blood, and that he thought that he was entitled and that he had received justice by the Court. I listened to him, and we talked there I guess some ten or fifteen minutes; after a little he says, I must go to-morrow, I think I go to-morrow, I must go home,- he then lived down in Arkansas somewhere. Says he, Mr. Duncan, I believe I owe you something, I want to pay you something. Alluding, as I understood, to these little courtesies that I extended to him at my desk. Says I, I make no charges, Mr. Dawson, for services; if I have done you ... you are welcome. Well, says he, I feel indebted to you, ... to pay you. I says, that makes no difference; I will ... ent to you. Says he, I have hardly enough money to get ... he shook my hand, and the last word he says to me, you ... don't take anything for your kindness to me. I thought he had ... for my services at the desk. That was the last I saw of ... Dawson, or it must have been a year afterwards; I had located a little claim on the public domain up there in Delaware District, ... what I intended to be a farm, ... stables, I didn't ... other improvements, over there on ... Creek. Went over in the part of the country to look after my ..., and I ran ... Mr. Dawson, he had come into the ... and located and built him a little shanty and was living in it. ... upon him, ... glad to see me: I ... ... ing there; ... has moved into the country, and I ... him, says I, you are encroaching upon me here; he had ... his claim over part of mine, mine had been made no ... it was outlawed under Cherokee law. Well, says Mr. Dawson, I don't feel like doing you any wrong, I will pay you for your claim, and we will settle the matter in ... way, that he as soon as he got his little matters together that he would satisfy me for it. Well we parted it that night. It ran on then for a long time, I don't know how long,- I ... I met him in Vinita, and says he, did Camp Taylor pay you any money that I sent to you? Says I, No, I have not seen Camp Taylor.

Well, says he, I gave him some money and told him to send it to you for me, and, says he, you ask him and he will hand it over to you I guess. Well we parted then. Well, went on for some time, some months; I happened to meet Mr. Taylor in Tahlequah; I met him on the street I think, jocularly I clapped my hand on his shoulder, says I, look here, did Mr. Dawson any money to me by you? He says, yes, and he pulled out what I recollect to be a twenty dollar bill, and handed it to me; I received it, and I received it with the idea that he was compensating me for taking my claim, or possibly for doing him those little services in the Court. Now that is the gist and substance of the whole thing.

Q Was not that twenty-five dollars, Mr. Duncan? A It might possibly have been, my recollection does not serve me exactly, it might have been 25 dollars.

Q Did Campbell Taylor pay you any other money as coming from said Dawson? A Never a cent.

Q Did he on one time pay you fifty dollars out of a hundred dollars which he had received from Mr. Dawson? A Never.

Q Did he on a second occasion pay you fifty dollars out of one hundred dollars which he claimed to have received from Mr. Dawson? A None at all.

Q He never paid you no other money than that you have already stated, from Mr. Dawson? A Not a cent.

BY MR. McKENNON: We offer in evidence the judgment of the Cherokee Citizenship Commission before referred to, and ask that it be filed in evidence in the case of every application made by members of the Robert Dawson family who claim under it, or through Robert Dawson, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, said judgment being found on page 114, Records of the Tehee Court, 1880 to 1884, cause number 106, judgment dated January 11th, 1883, rendered by Thomas Tehee, President, Alex Wolfe, T. F. Thompson, Commissioners. D. W. C. Duncan, Clerk Commission.

The said judgment just introduced is as follows:

"Office Commission on Citizenship,

Q Do you remember how many members of the Court were present when this judgment was rendered, or were all of them? A My recollection upon that point is not positive, but it is my opinion and belief, and I know to be the practice of the court at the time, stating the names of all these Commissioners there, I can say with a great deal of positiveness that they were all present, because I never signed the name of one of the Commissioners unless he was present, authorizing it or directing it.

Q The rendition of that judgment then was concurred in by all of the three judges? A It was.

Q Mr. Duncan, if there had been a decision rendered the day before in this case while the Court was in session, adverse to these Claimants, would you have known it? A I certainly should have known it.

Q Was there any such decision of the Court? A None to my knowledge. I can say positively there was not.

Q How many of those judges are now living? A Only one.

Q Who? A Mr. Thompson.

Q Tehee and Wolfe are dead? A Tehee and Wolfe are dead.

Q How long have they been dead, do you know? A I do not know, quite a number of years. I wasn't living there. I was living in [illegible] when their death occurred, and the events occurred some a long time before I got knowledge of it. It is generally understood that they are dead.

Q ...you recall hearing any other member of the Utah family about the Court at that time? A I have been thinking, and I can't call to mind that I ever saw any other Bureau except Ted, until after they have filed the motion subsequent to the rendition of the judgment.

(At this point a party who was then sitting in the room in which the examination is being held, is called forward, sworn on behalf of applicants, and asked to retire until called.)

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Mr. Duncan, when did you become a clerk of the Texas Commission Court? A It must have been sometime in December, 1884, at the time the Commission was organized in Austin at the close of the Council in which they were appointed.

Q December 1884? A I think so.

Q What are you doing reading judgments here in your handwriting in 1887? A The Commission held its Court after they were elected sometime.

Q The Court was elected in 1881 wasn't it? A Well, I don't the time, I don't pretend to say when the Court was elected, I wouldn't have said at the time I was chosen clerk. I was chosen clerk just at the close of the session of the National Council of that year.

Q '84? A I think it was '84.

Q You entered up this judgment rendered January, 1887? A Yes, that was the session of the Commission.

Q That was before you were clerk of it? A Well I held a clerkship for some time now continuously.

Q Well but then you do not say that you were their clerk when the decision case was passed on? A No, I don't mean to say that.

Q How could you be clerk when the decision could be passed on in 1887 when you were not elected until 1884? A I am mistaken in that, '84 came after '87,- it was the year preceding 1887, it must have been '86.

Q Your first entry in the Lawson case is January 17, 1887, isn't it? A I don't recollect that my first entry was. (Attorneys show the record to witness) Yes, that is the entry I see on that page.

Q And that was shortly after you became clerk wasn't it? A Yes, shortly after I became clerk.

Q The case had been on before when the docket book you became clerk? A I think so, yes; It was entered in the previous term of the session of the Commission.

Q In whose handwriting was the notes of the Texas Commissioners affixed to this judgment? A Lawson's now?

(Attorney shows record to witness again) A That is my handwriting.

Q All three notes? A All three notes.

Q The record there shows that you immediately gave them that day a transcript of the judgment, do you know who signed it? A Signed the transcript?

Q Yes, sir. A I do not recollect now, this is, did I do writing?

Q Signed the transcript? A Yes, that's it.

Q You always signed the names of Tobin and Wilkinson? A I think I did pretty generally; I don't know of their ever attempting to write their own names.

Q When Mr. Thompson was there didn't he sign his own name? A Sometimes he did, sometimes he simply authorized me to do it.

Q Have you any recollection of any occasion when you had to do it other than the last time you were there on that court recently? A I can't recall to my mind that I had any authorization, but I can only say that I, consulting the record, was authorized to put his name down.

Q Will you look at the original transcript hereby shown you and referred to in the judgment and say who signed the names of the Commissioners there? A (Papers shown to witness) A. I signed them there.

Q You recognize that as your handwriting? A I do.

Q That made you when you were testifying at Vinita before Mr. Martin, on looking at the same signatures, and being cross-examined by me, say that it was not your signature and that the signature thereto attached was the signature of Mr. Thompson? A Occurred in this way: I had not seen any of the records in the case for about nineteen years. The exact transaction in the court had vanished about entirely from my memory; I recollected at that time, however, when I gave in my testimony before the Commissioner, Martin, that that was a practice of the Court at the time I served by which I signed the names of the full-blood members of the Commission, and Mr. Thompson either uniformly or occasionally signed his own name. I based my statement in that deposition upon my knowledge of the rule or practice in the Court, without comparing the docket and refreshing my memory. I made an incorrect statement when I said that that was not my handwriting: I am convinced now that it is my handwriting. That is the way it occurred, the way it happened.

Q Then you consider your recollection of the fact that Thompson, when he was present and rendering a judgment signed it himself, better than your own knowledge of your own handwriting?

A No, I didn't so regard it. I simply spoke without advisement when I gave in that testimony; I subsequently became better informed and concluded that that was my handwriting and not entered by Mr. Thompson under the rule, but was one of those cases in which he authorized me to do it myself, and I did it.

Q Then you have changed your testimony, because you think you have a better knowledge of the surrounding facts now than you had then, and not from the fact of your judgment on your handwriting at present? A I simply corrected my testimony in reference to my statement in regard to this handwriting, this case.

Q And you wouldn't know then as I understand you whether or not that is your handwriting if it was not refreshed by what you consider to be exterior facts? A I should know it by examining it. By thinking over the circumstances, I think I should recognize my own handwriting, but if a question should be propounded instantaneously without any advisement or preconsideration I might make a mistake.

Q You did recognize the names of Thomas Tehee and Alexander Wolfe as being in your handwriting at that time? A I was very clear and positive, and so stated, that the names of those Commissioners were in my handwriting, and I was made certain by reflecting on the rule that they never signed their names with their own hand, but always authorized me to do it. Hence there is no question in my mind in regard to my handwriting in their signatures.

Q And then the third name, right under it, as compared with your admitted handwriting, you had to wait and learn the facts afterwards to determine whether that was your signature or not? A No, I don't think that if I had considered the circumstances, I know what there was a resemblance, what idea of the opinion that that might have been Mr. Thompson's signature was like this: I knew that he had been in the habit of at least sometimes signing his own name, and I was under the impression-and I do not now think I am much deceived- that his signature by me at least was some resemblance to my own, hence I doubted whether I had signed that name or not on that account.

Q [illegible] about it, [illegible] fact is, I [illegible] and not [illegible], didn't he? A [illegible] recollection, but [illegible] I was [illegible] or not, and [illegible] I could [illegible] I was.

Q As he stated, now you too didn't you, that he always [illegible] original bill when he was present? A I do not recollect [illegible] I stated, that I never [illegible] this [illegible] I was examined when the deposition was taken, I [illegible] I did, but now I want to reflect my examination [illegible] I was convinced that I was wrong, when originally I [illegible] for it.

Then you never found out that your testimony given [illegible] a year and a half ago was wrong until you examined the [illegible] before yesterday, and found you were [illegible]? I don't know that I have thought of it since that time until [illegible] day before the day in the Court.

Is the only recollection that you have got now the one [illegible] to your recollection that Thompson was present when this judgment was rendered was the fact that you were [illegible] and signed on it, is that [illegible], is it? A As a fact,—

Q You can answer that yes or no? A That resting the [illegible] my recollection and I recollect now that the Constables were all present at the time that I signed it. I didn't [illegible] out of Court at all.

Q Was it in the forenoon now or in the afternoon? A I don't recollect whether it was in the forenoon or afternoon.

Q In recollecting that they were all present when the record was signed, do you mean to say that they were all present when the judgment was rendered? A Yes, that is, you mean when the question of admission or rejection was voted upon?

A Yes. A They were present.

Q Did you write up the record at the time that they rendered the judgment, or make a memorandum on it, and then write up the record some days afterward? A The record was not written up [illegible] solely upon the decision of any case, but I wrote up the record after adjournment, generally in the evening, and presented it next day or when the next session was had, for signature; that was the practice.

Q But in this instance you wrote it on the very day that it was rendered didn't you? A I didn't recollect as to that.

Q And gave them a transcript the very day it was rendered? A I don't recollect as to that.

Q As indicated the giving of the transcript on the bottom of the judgment the day it was rendered? A I should say it was [illegible] of the transcript.

Q That was a very unusual thing for you to do in entering up [illegible]? A To do what?

Q To mean the bottom that you had given a transcript the same day the judgment was rendered? A No, I don't know that there is [illegible] unusual about that.

Q Any other places in that record or more than one in any event [illegible] you have ever done that? A I don't recollect, and no I don't recollect of giving anybody else a transcript.

Q That is what I am getting at: you have then a transcript and wrote up your judgment and everything right away? A Pretty soon after the decision; whether it was the same day or the evening, and signed next day, I don't recollect.

IT NOW BEING THE HOUR OF NOON, 12 M., THE COMMISSION ADJOURNS UNTIL HALF PAST ONE P. M.

AFTERNOON, TUT-1:45, M. M.,-APPEARANCES,-same as in forenoon: M. M. C. D-ICAL again on the stand.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Do you remember what witnesses were before the Court? A I don't recollect now distinctly except Mr. Baker, I remember him quite because of the length of his testimony at the time it took to take it.
Q The Doctor was about the only distinct witness there was? A He is the only one now that I can call to mind.
Q There was probably another old darkey that testified was not there? A I have no recollection to that effect.
Q The case was just decided really on Doctor Baker's testimony, is about the only man that knew anything about the case? A I am not certain that Dr. Baker was the only witness; might have been others that has now escaped my recollection.
Q Doctor Baker's testimony was taken down in writing? A Yes.
Q There was not anybody else testimony in writing was there? A All the testimony that was accepted in the case was taken down in writing.
Q Did you ever see anybody's else testimony in writing except Dr. Baker in that case? A That is not as I recollect, I don't recollect any other but Dr. Baker's.
Q You know whether that was taken deliberately before the trial or at the trial or how was it? A It was taken in the presence of the three Commissioners during the session of the Court.
Q You mean the day that the case was decided or how? A I do not recollect whether the case was on trial more than one day, but my impression is that it was.
Q Do you know whether it was the same term of the Court or not? A I think it was the same term of the Court.
Q How many terms a year did that Court have, when and how did they last? A I don't recollect at present but one term.
Q I don't recollect the serving but one term? A Myself, it seems to me so.
Q You didn't go in until January of 1883; did you your first record is a record of about the 14th of January 1883, as shown in the book, isn't it? A I don't recollect in that regard.
Q How could they take testimony in the case, then continue it, or how could they generally do about that? A I think they decided on the term at the term in which they took testimony.
Q Can you say whether or not this testimony was taken in this case at the time it was decided or at the same term it was decided, or within a week or two of the time it was decided? A My recollection is that it was taken at the term in which it was decided; was taken down, testimony heard that the decision was made at the conclusion of the testimony.
Q Well now, I see on October 4th, 1882, on your numbering, the following entry reads: "It is agreed by the parties that this case shall be heard at the next term of this Court," that would be January, 1883, "If the clerk is not in receipt of the record, this case shall be continued to the next term of this Court. If the clerk is in receipt of the record this case will then be heard, if--." Now I would like to know if you had a January and September term; and this decision was rendered at the January, 1883 term. Was Baker's testimony taken during the January, 1883, term, at the time this decision was rendered? A. I find it impossible for me to recollect those facts that are recorded there; although I can say about that, that the record shows the correct statement of the facts; but I can't recall those facts.

Q. Well there is a record here that this case was continued on the 13th day of January, 1882, upon agreement that it should be taken from the 4th day of October, 1882; now a record shows that there was nothing done in the case from January 13th, 1883 until October 4th, 1883; would you say that was correct? A. I would say it was correct if it so stands on the book; it is deemed to be a correct entry of the facts.

Q. I will let you see the book for yourself; I don't want to misrepresent your end of it at all. (Shows entry in book to witness.)

A. I can't recall those facts in regard to the agreement.

Q. Who took down the testimony of the witnesses in court? A. I took it down.

Q. You took down the testimony of Dr. Baker? A. Yes.

Q. He was cross examined by counsel for the defendant? A. As to that I don't recollect. He was present, he was always present; I think likely he was cross examined.

Q. All that testimony was taken at or near the time when the judgment was rendered in January, 1883? A. I think it was, my impression is to that effect.

Q. Well the court seems to have had no session as to this case from January 13, 1882 up to October 4th, 1883, according to the record? A. (No response.)

Q. You don't recall taking down anybody's else testimony in the case? A. No sir, I don't.

Q. And the probability is that he was the only witness examined isn't he? A. It might have been so. My recollection is that he was regarded as the main witness of the case.

Q. He was quite an old man, about 75 at that time? A. Yes. He was quite old.

BY MR. McKENZIE:

Q. The testimony of Dr. Arthur Baker, from this record, appears to have been taken on January 13th, 1882? Is that correct as far as you may know, or are able to state? A. I take Dr. Baker's testimony? (Attorney here shows witness papers) A. It appears to be, yes; I don't think that was the testimony that the case was decided upon, because his testimony was to be recalled before the decision, and I wrote it down; please let me see it. (Attorney hands said papers to witness.)

A. Well, all I know about this is as I stated before, I can't recall those facts, but whatever the record says is, I say that the record was made correct, according to the fact. (Witness takes copy of the testimony referred to and reads same.) I don't recollect in reading it very closely to see what transpired, but I gather from the subject matter that testimony that it is in accord with Doctor Baker's statement, in exactly word for word I am not able to say, but that is the tenor of the testimony.

BY MR. McKENZIE:

Q. In all the testimony you endeavored to set down all the material facts that you could in taking it in long hand? A. Yes, very nearly word for word, as I could take it, as well as there was a little variation made necessary by the length of the witness' evidence.

BY MR. McKENNON: Applicants object to all of the witness' testimony relating to the method of taking the testimony of witnesses at the trial, the character and effect of that testimony, and the number of witnesses, except so far as the same may be used for the purpose of testing the memory of the witness, because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

Q Is that good or bad? A It is good, so far as I know.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known him? A Well I have known him 18 or 20 Years, I guess.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and honesty? A Well you.
Q Is that good or bad? A Well, it is bad, I think.

ATTORNEYS FOR CHEROKEE NATION waive cross examination.

T. H. CURTIS, being first duly sworn and bein examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A T. H. Curtis.
Q How old are you, Mr. Curtis? A 56.
Q Where do you reside? A Afton, Indian Territory.
Q How long have you lived in the Indian Territory? A 20 years.
Q What is your business? A Lumber business.
Q Do you know D. W. C. Duncan? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A About 20 years.
Q Do you know his general reputation for honesty and uprightness of character in the community where he lives? A I do.
Q Is that good or bad? A As good as any man's.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A Some 20 years, I suppose.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and integrity and honesty? A Yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A Good.
Q Is it extraordinarily good? A Yes
Q Do you even know Mr. Baker, Mr. A. B. Baker, of Bentonville, Arkansas? A Yes sir, I know him from '88 and '89.
Q Where? A Over at Bentonville; I own a saw mill in that country at Bentonville.
Q Do you know his general reputation so far as honesty and uprightness of character and truthfulness? A Yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A Good as any man's; he is a [illegible]
Q Do you know Bob Ross? A Yes sir, I do.
Q Do you know his reputation for truth and honesty? A Yes sir.
Q Are you in the habit of taking liquor, drinking liquor? A Not that I know, sir. I never [illegible] a drink in my life.

Q ...character would it be to preclude any such charge against ...? A It was, sir.

BY MR. [illegible]:

Q How long did you know Mr. Baker? A Two years.

Q What does he do here? A He was an old gentleman then, he lived ...t is the edge o' Watsonville, Mr. Baker.

Q How old do you think he was? A I think he must have been ...or 75 years old; an old gentleman.

Q That is it is what, sir? A No sir, it was in '60 or '62, I ...you were that I lived over there.

Q Mr. [illegible] knew Campbell? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he have any family? A Yes, sir.

Q What family did he have? A I don't know how many family he ... I never got acquainted with the old gentleman.

Q He wasn't doing any business with anybody? A No sir.

Q And his character was never called in question one way or the ...how was it? A No sir, no sir.

Q Campbell Taylor was a notorious racial character, was he not, ... you ever hear him mention that? A Yes sir, I never knew much good of him.

Q And whenever a man [illegible] his citizenship case he got Campbell to vote it, because he was notoriously a racial; that's it ain't it? A Well a great lady of them got sir.

Q It was a notorious thing that they had a bad case they would ... sir, it would sort of give a case a bad odor to have Campbell ...ounce it? A Yes, that would be right.

Q You never knew anything about Mr. Brown's connection with ...ize this matter? A No sir, never did.

Q You never heard about his changing some of the records of citizenship cases? A No sir, never did.

Q You have heard lots of talk about this Bryant order? A Yes sir.

Q Rumor had it all around that somebody was doing something ...ong? A Yes sir.

Q You never accused him of it you think? A I never heard him accused of it, no sir.

Q That rumor got out from the first day they were admitted right up to the present? A Well I don't know not from the first day, I have heard it for a good while though.

Q But you never knew who had fixed it on? A No sir.

Q They have been a pretty strong family up there in that country haven't they, pretty large family? A Yes sir.

Q Cast a good many votes up there? A Yes sir.

Q Did you ever know of the Doctor's testifying any in court, Mr. ...ker? A No sir, I never did.

Q What would you think of a man who would testify that in the year ... that was single in 1885 when the youngest of her seven children ...was born in 1887; what would you think, would you think that was a statement to be made by a man who was truthful? A -

MR. [illegible]: I object to the question because it is wholly immaterial, and the mere fact whether or not ... is so, and it is wholly immaterial and incompetent.

Q ...would you think a statement that could be made by a truthful ...? A (No response.)

Q You know her to be old? A Yes sir.

Q She is very an old, decrepit lady? A Yes sir. Quite old, I ... 'em.

Q 14 years from that time he was liable to be in his dotage?
A I don't know, he was an old man when I knew him.
Q He was too old to work, and retired from business then? A Well he quit, got a good deal, but wasn't doing any business particular that I knew of.
Q He would have been pretty old 14 years from that time? A Yes, he would be getting old.

D. M. MARRS, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A D. M. Marrs.
Q What is your age, Mr. Marrs? A I am 44.
Q What is your business? A I am publishing a newspaper.
Q What paper? A "The Indian Chieftan."
Q Are you Editor of that paper? A Yes sir.
Q You live at Vinita, then? A Yes sir.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q By blood or intermarriage? A Intermarriage.
Q Do you know D. W. C. Duncan? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A 18 or 19 years.
Q Do you know his general reputation in the community where he lives for honesty and uprightness of character? A Yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A Good.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A Why 15 years or longer.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and honesty in the community? A His general reputation, yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Well it is not good.
Q Is it bad? A Well I suppose it must be bad then.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q How long has Campbell's reputation been bad, Mr. Marrs, quite a good while, hasn't it? A Why I think so, yes sir.
Q And it kind of began mostly with this citizenship business? A Yes, so far as I know it did, yes sir.
Q Campbell got so many bad citizenship cases and through the mails, and they finally had him up about it, had a good deal of stir about it? A Yes sir.
Q And some of that stir was sort of occasioned by his helping the Dawsons in wasn't it? A I don't know, I don't know whether he helped the Dawsons.
Q Was not that one of the principal cases that brought him into notoriety? A I don't know whether he had that case or not. I know he had a great many cases.
Q That was the principal thing that got mixed him Campbell out, was citizenship cases here? A I think that is what got him into the most trouble.
Q I say before that time no one had talked much about Campbell one way or another, and it became pretty general that Campbell was meddling shady citizenship cases, and he got a bad reputation from that? A Yes sir, I think that was the impression generally.
Q How Mr. Duncan's connection with the matter came sort of been kept back: people never talked much about it? A I never heard anything about it, as I know of.
Q You have heard that there was a scandal, now, about the Dawson case, that was a notorious thing? A O, it is a notorious case, yes sir.
Q Well the fact of Mr. Duncan's reputation for truthfulness has been somewhat lower up his way, he has been considered? A How is that?

Q His reputation for truthfulness is somewhat given by himself; he takes occasion to confess that very often himself; doesn't he?
A I don't know whether I am qualified to answer that.
Q Speaking of his own honesty, he does that very frequently?
A No sir, not that I know of.
Q Doesn't he write a good deal about that sort of thing? A About his reputation?
Q Why it speaking of his own integrity? A I don't remember that he does.
Q You were not about the citizenship courts along in 1881 '2 and '3 were you? A No sir.
Q Don't remember about the talk that was going on around the Capitol over there about the citizenship cases? A Why no, don't remember anything special as I know of. I remember the citizenship court going on at different times.
Q How far were you living from Tahlequah in '8? A Well, I lived close to Vinita, I guess it is sixty miles probably.
Q Have you lived any nearer Tahlequah since that time? A No sir, never have.

R. L. BUTLER, being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A R. L. Butler.
Q You are a minister of the Gospel? A Yes sir.
Q M. E. Church, South? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been in the ministry? A I have been in the ministry 22 years, sir.
Q Did you ever live at Vinita? A Yes sir.
Q How long? A I was there four years, sir.
Q Do you know D. W. C. Duncan? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A I have known Mr. Duncan 21 years.
Q Do you know his general reputation for honesty and uprightness of character? A I do.
Q Is that good or bad? A Good, so far as I know.
Q You have had opportunity of knowing? A Yes sir.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q Mr. Duncan was a member of your church? A Yes sir.
Q That is the principal way you had of coming in contact with him? A Yes sir, he was a member of my official board.
Q His connection with citizenship cases that were decided by the court of which he was clerk was never brought up in your presence anywhere? A No sir.
Q Or never discussed? A No sir, I know nothing about his connection with it.
Q You didn't live about or near Tahlequah in '8? A Yes sir, I was Pastor of the Methodist Church in '8 at Tahlequah.
Q Did you hear about the Dawson case, and other cases admitted over there by the Citizenship Court? A No sir, I know nothing about the cases; I remember when the Commission was in session, and I remember that he was clerk of the Commission, but know nothing about the cases that were decided at all.
Q Never heard anybody discuss the cases that were decided? A No sir.

THOMAS A. CHANDLER, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. DUNCAN:

Q What is your name? A Thomas A. Chandler.
Q What is your age, Mr. Chandler? A I am 70.
Q What is your business? A Deputy Clerk of the United States Court at Vinita.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Do you know D. W. C. Duncan? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A Let me see, I have known him about nine or ten years.
Q You know his general reputation for honesty and uprightness of character in the community where he lives? A Yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Good so far as I know.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I think about 15 years.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and honesty? A Yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Bad so far as I know.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How did Campbell Taylor get a bad reputation? A Well sir, I don't know how he did.
Q You never knew him until 1885? A Well I never knew him personally, I heard of him before that.
Q He had a bad reputation before '85? A Yes sir.
Q Bad reputation way back yonder? A First I remember I ever heard of him I heard people speaking bad of him, then I was a kid.
Q And everybody that ever around the Nation and knew anything at all knew Campbell had a bad reputation? A Yes sir, ever so far back as '79 or '80, that is as far back as I can remember; I think I heard it spoken of in '80, I think that's about the time.
Q And Campbell got a very bad reputation in '80 and '81 when we began to have these citizenship cases? A Yes sir.
Q You heard him spoken of in connection with the mails for those business? A Yes sir, I heard of him being in the Fort Smith Jail on that account.
Q Citizens of the Nation talked a good deal about Campbell's being in these bad citizenship cases? A Yes sir.
And I also heard he had a bad reputation for evading his debts, when about to have time.
Q You don't know whether he had the money, he might not have had the money to pay his debts? A No sir.
Q He could have kept out of bad citizenship cases? A Yes sir, I suppose he could.
Q You never heard Mr. Duncan's name mentioned before in connection with the Bowers case, citizenship cases? A No sir, I don't think I have, I may have, but I don't remember hearing it.
Q General impression that somebody had done something wrong with that matter, citizenship cases? A I heard there was something wrong in connection with the Bowers citizenship case.
Q That he always been in notoriety ever since they were admitted? A Yes sir, I have heard it rumored around over the country that way in the case.

Q You are a pretty long voting capacity up there and Mr. Duncan was never investigated? A I don't know about that, I don't think it was ever investigated, I never heard of it.

Q So they never had any endeavor to find out who the man was?
A No sir.
Q Where did you live in '82? A In '82 I lived out on Duck Creek about 12 miles south-east of Vinita.
Q How far from Tahlequah was that? A About 65 or 70 miles, I suppose.
Q You never were around before the citizenship courts any during that time? A No sir.
Q You don't know then whether or not Campbell had lost all the bad cases or not down there? A No sir, I do not, at that time.

BY MR. McKENNON: Applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness as to what is heard by way of rumor, about the character of the Dawson case, because the same is hearsay, immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

A. S. McKENNON, of Counsel for Applicants, being first duly sworn, makes the following statement:

I became a resident of Carroll County, Arkansas, early in 1880. I was intimately acquainted with Doctor Arthur Baker, for many years. Knew him as well as I did anyone else. He was a gentleman of the highest Christian character, so recognized by everybody who knew him. He was a sober man, and never drank liquor. I make this statement more in vindication of that good man's memory than for any other reason, because any imputation against his character is false.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long did you know him? A I resided in Carroll County until 1887 when I removed to Johnson County, Arkansas; during the time I was away from home, but I knew him intimately every year that I resided in Carroll County.
Q Did you know him since '87? A Yes sir, I have seen him several times. I have relatives living in the town in which he lived; my relations to him were such as to cause me always to inquire about Doctor Baker; I knew his reputation I think as well after I left there as I did when I lived there.
Q Did you know those facts in 1896 when you were a member of this Commission? A Yes sir, I have known them all my life as I know them now.
Q Did you know them when you as a member of this Commission passed on the Irene J. House case? A I knew it every day of my life, in 1896 as well as now.
Q Suppose that Doctor Arthur Baker's statement should answer that he was born in the year 1809, and suppose he said when he was 15 or 16 years of age that Anna Pruett the wife of Samuel Dawson, was a grown up girl going to school, when the other undisputed evidence shows that she had married Sam Dawson prior to that time and had seven children, the youngest of whom was born in '83, how would you harmonize that with a man who was an honest man and knew the facts in the case? A Whatever Dr. Baker stated he honestly believed, whether it was right or wrong; whether it was error or truth, he honestly believed it, and stated it as he believed it.
Q He was capable of being in error? A Every man is.
Q I say he was? A Yes sir, just as you and I and every man, he was; I merely stated as to his high character, which could be proven by every man who knows it I think, I know it.
Q The Commission rejected Irene J. House in 1896, of which you were a member? A I don't remember anything about that personally.

TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF CHEROKEE NATION.

DAVID MEREDITH, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A David Meredith.
Q Where do you reside? A Vinita.
Q How old are you? A 60 years old.
Q Did you ever know James Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I knew him probably 2 years.
Q Did you ever have any talk with him about his citizenship case.
A Very little.
Q You were at one time an applicant before the Dawes Commission for citizenship were you not? A Yes sir.
Q Tell what did Mr. Dawson tell you with reference to his citizenship, as to the cost of his getting it, if anything? A Well he told me it cost him eleven or twelve hundred dollars to get his case through.
Q Where did that conversation take place? A At Afton.
Q At what time? A It was in '98, spring of '98.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Where were you when he told you that? A I was working on a house in Afton, building the house.
Q Whose house? A S. S. Haines.
Q Who else was present? A Haines was present.
Q Where is he? A At Afton.
Q What aged man was Mr. Dawson at that time? A I don't know, he was very old, probably 75 years old.
Q Was he not a very feeble man? A Yes sir.
Q Hardly able to get around? A No sir.
Q Was he not then regarded as feeble minded old man? A I don't know whether he was so regarded or not.
Q You don't know what he had to do with the case, in fact, himself, do you? A No, I judged it was himself and family that cost that much to get through: attorney's fees, etc. That is the way I took it anyway.
Q You were an applicant yourself were you not? A Yes sir.
Q When? A At that time.
Q Before the Cherokee authorities? A Yes sir.
Q They rejected you? A Yes sir.
Q You were an applicant then before the Dawes Commission were you?
A Yes sir, been rejected ever since.
Q Are you still an applicant? A Yes sir.
Q Still trying to get in? A Yes sir.
Q Claiming by blood? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation? A 15 years.
Q Where did you come from? A Indiana.
Q Claiming to be a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
Q Indian? A Yes sir.
Q James Dawson is dead is he? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A I think he died probably within two years after that.

TESTIMONY TAKEN ON BEHALF OF THE APPLICANTS.

F. M. DAWSON, being recalled and further examined, testified as follows.

BY MR. McKENNON:

F. M. Dawson? A Yes sir.

Q Mr. Dawson, what member of your family came to the Cherokee Nation to file and prosecute the claim of your father, Robert Dawson, and the members of his family, to Cherokee citizenship?
A My brother from Texas met me at Tahlequah.
Q Tell his name? A Elbert Dawson, they all know him by Buck.
Q When was that? A In '81 as well as I remember, or '82, I don't know which, it was in '81 or '82.
Q Did you file your claim at that time? A My brother was, yes, the application,-my brother had Joel Mayes to make it out and file it. That is my understanding.
Q Joel Mayes, who afterwards was Chief of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Before what Court was that filed? A My understanding was he was clerk of the court; Hastings can tell me what court he was clerk of.
Q He was clerk of the Court at that time? A Yes sir, of the citizenship court; that's my understanding.
Q What was done about the case at that time, if you remember? A I went back home and left my brother down there at that time, that trip.
Q Where did you then live? A I lived at Perryville, Arkansas.
Q When did you next come to the Cherokee Nation? A I believe I came back the next January, that was in September.
Q Was your brother Buck here then? A I don't think he was, I don't remember.
Q Well had he at any term of the Court or session of the Commission at any time after you first came here and filed the application until after it was decided? A No sir, I never met him any more until that case was decided.
Q You conducted the business then after that did you not? A Yes sir.
Q The case was finally determined in January 1883? A '83, yes sir, the 11th day as I remember.
Q Were you present at that session? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any decision of that case other than the one of record here? A I never heard of it if there was.
Q Was the judgment rendered in that case as recorded in the record book of that Commission now in the custody of the Dawes Commission the only judgment that was rendered in that case so far as you know?
A Yes sir, so far as I know; if there was any I never heard of it in that case.
Q You then know of no decision against you in the case? A No sir.
Q Who was your attorney employed at the beginning? A I employed A. H. Norwood.
Q Was he a Cherokee Citizen? A Yes sir, I think so.
Q Where did he live? A At Claremore, my understanding.
Q Was he present at any time before the Commission? A I never saw him, he never met me there before the Commission.
Q Did you pay him any money? A Yes sir.
Q How much? A Fifty dollars.
Q Did he ever render any services? A If he ever did I never knew it.
Q Tell them who did you employ? A My brother employed Joel Bryant.
Q Was he a Cherokee citizen?
A That is my understanding.
Q Was he not a prominent Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
Q What service did he render? A Well sir, I don't know whether he rendered any or not, only he met me a time or two at Tahlequah, and he was before the Commission; whether he rendered any services or not I don't know; he was generally always at Washington City during the Term down there.

Q Well what did he do about it? A I don't know, I couldn't say whether he done anything about it. That is Mr. Bryant, he was always gone.
Q What next was done about the employment of an attorney? A Why I got a letter from Joel Bryant that he was going to Washington City and for me to come down in January Term and Campbell Taylor would see to my case before the court.
Q Did he say that he had engaged the services of Campbell Taylor the attorney, to attend to it in his absence? A Yes sir, in his absence.
Q Have you got that letter? A I don't think I got the letter.
Q Well what did you do then? A Why when the time come I come down on the City to Muskogee here and I goes over from here to Fort Gibson and I goes down to see Uncle Houston Benge and stays all night with him; it was very cold weather, and I got him to go over and submit my case to the court; I went over one day and the next day Uncle Houston Benge come over and the next morning after he come over the case was submitted.
Q Did he submit the case? A Yes sir, he told me so.
Q For you? A Yes sir.
Q Were you present? A I was present until they went to take the vote on the case and then we was drove out of their room and they had a secret session, actin on the case.
Q Was Houston Benge present with you? A Yes sir.
Q Were you in the court when he submitted it to them? A Yes sir, when he made his argument.
Q He made an argument before the Commission? A Yes sir.
Q Was the decision rendered on that day? A Yes sir.
Q How long after he made his argument and submitted the case? A Was not but a little bit; when we were drove out of the house the first time before they went into secret session they wanted me to get up the cigars to the court and the crowd in the house; after the decision was rendered then I was to get up the cigars, and everybody come to me and told me to go and get the cigars and I done so.
Q And you took the cigars there and all? A Yes sir, everybody, the attorneys and all that was in the house, all had a big smoke.
Q Did they then announce their finding in the case? A Yes sir, they told me that I was granted my citizenship right and by the Commission.
Q What did you do about it then? A Why the Clerk wrote me out my certificate.
Q That same day? A That same day.
Q What arrangements did you have with Mr. Benge about his fee, and what was the amount of his fee? A There was no arrangement made until we got up there and he submitted our case; then he wanted me to pay, he charged me fifty dollars, that was his fee.
Q What was the agreement about the matter, the manner in which that fee should be paid? A My brother in Texas was to pay it.
Q Were you to write or was he to write? A He was to write for it.
Q Did your brother in Texas ever pay his fee of fifty dollars?
A Yes sir.
Q Was that all that was to be paid? A All he was to have; all he charged me.
Q You heard his statement when he gave his deposition at Fort Gibson the other day did you not? A Yes sir.

Q He stated that you paid him fifty dollars before [illegible] went over to Tahlequah, did you do that? A No sir.
Q You said that you paid him fifty dollars after he got over to Tahlequah, did you do that? A I never paid him a cent in my life.
Q After the jury was [illegible] where did you go to? A I went by Fort Gibson to Afton.
Q By what route? A I went by Silom Springs and by Spring Dale but I was not to Pegram, that is railroad I was not on by Siloam and by Spring Dale's home.
Q You then did not return to Fort Gibson from Tahlequah, as he stated? A No sir, I did not.
Q The did you not return to Fort Gibson? A Well I thought maybe the others was the quickest route and I started that way by Dan Staples when I was to meet at, I come to Silo Springs and I went by that route and then there was a back going by Spring Dale, that was the most direct route.
Q That was the most direct route for your horse was it not? A Yes sir.
Q All to cheapen? A All to cheapest route.
Q Had you been coming back to Fort Gibson you would have been riding directly away from home, would you not? A Yes sir.
Q Your home was nearly east, due east of Tahlequah was it not? A Yes sir, little north of east, about [illegible] east.
Q While Fort Gibson is almost due west is it not? A South west.
Q You heard him state that you came to Fort Gibson with him, and as you gave you stated to him that it was to reach the court house upon a Monday and you reached there [illegible] five hundred dollars, did you make that statement? A I never did, I didn't have the five hundred dollars to reach him.
Q Did he while at Tahlequah inthe court room of the evening before this judgment was rendered in your favor, tell you that the court had rendered a judgment against you? A No sir.
Q And did you then say to him, you can't fix that? A I had no such conversation with him.
Q Did you pay to D. W. C. Duncan, who was the Clerk of the Court any sum of money, or agree to pay him any sum of money, directly or through any other person for any services he might render you by way of influencing the court to decide in your favor? A No sir.
Q Or for any other purpose? A No sir.
Q Did you pay him any money after that through Col. Bell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q What amount? A 20 or 25 Dollars, I don't know which it was.
Q State what that money was paid for? A For a claim.
Q What do you mean by a claim? A Claim on the public domain; he had a claim up there close to me; paid him 20 or 25 dollars for his claim. He had an allotment by me, on the Cherokee Public Domain.
Q What did Campbell Taylor have to do with your case?
A He had nothing to do with it.
Q Did you agree to pay him any money for his services as an attorney? A No sir.
Q Did he perform any services in that case for you as a representative of Mr. Bryant? A No sir.
Q Did you pay him any money? A Yes sir.
Q On what account? A He came to me and said he had the claim against me for Joel Bryant and wanted me to pay him the money and I came on.
Q What amount? A Hundred dollars.

Q For [illegible] paid [illegible]? A [illegible], Joel Bryant. He was to collect it for Joel Bryant.
Q Did he pay the money to Joel Bryant, or how did you know of? A Joel Bryant claimed he didn't, and I had to pay him again, paid Joel Bryant the hundred dollars we owed him for his fee; E. Duncan paid Joel Bryant; after that; we never could get the money from Campbell Taylor, only this twenty dollars or twenty-five dollars; that is all we ever got back from him.
Q How did you get that 25 dollars out of him for Duncan? A I kept after him and telling him to pay that money back to us, he rendered no services to us at all and the money was to go to Joel Bryant, and I finally worked out the twenty or twenty-five dollars, that is all I ever did get back.
Q The amount that he paid to Duncan? A Yes sir.
Q Was this money paid to him, this one hundred dollars, while you were there at the time the judgment was rendered, or was it sent to him afterwards? A I think it was paid then, as well as I remember about it.
Q You think it was paid then? A Yes sir, that's my recollection now.
Q Did you send him one hundred dollars after you went away from there, subsequent to the rendering of that judgment, after it was rendered I mean, directing him to pay fifty dollars of that or any other sum to D. W. C. Duncan? A No sir.
Q Did you send him a second one hundred dollars with a like direction? A No sir.
Q Mr. Duncan, do you know about what it cost you personally in all to obtain their citizenship in the Cherokee Nation under this judgment? A Pretty near it I do.
Q Well about what sum? A About five hundred dollars, pretty near 500 dollars. That is what I considered, I was beat out of some of my money, what I was beat out of and expenses.
Q Now take a statement of what that money was paid for and how, so far as you remember, itemize that now? Well the first fifty dollars Norwood got; the next fifty dollars Bean got; that was the attorneys fees: I speak of the attorneys fees now: the next money was the hundred that Campbell Taylor got; the next attorney fees was Bryant's one hundred dollars.
Q Was that all the attorney's fees? A I think it was, no, wait, I paid Ross 15 dollars for taking Baker's deposition.

Q Which Ross was that? A The old Chief, Bill Ross I think was his name, William P. Ross.
Q He then, this Chief William P. Ross for taking the deposition of Dr. Baker charged you fifteen dollars? A Yes sir.
Q Do you mean by that that he acted as your attorney and examined him? A Yes sir.
He examined him before the Commission, took his statements.
Q What other attorneys were there present? A None of them was present.
Q Well now, go on? A Why the expenses of taking Dr. Baker and he was a Doctor, as well as I remember he charged us 5 dollars a day and I more time and his expenses down there; we come through on a boat from Fayetteville, Arkansas, to Tahlequah, and our board and expenses and all I think was about 75 dollars that trip; something near it. Maybe a little over that.
Q Did you pay him a per diem? A I paid him five dollars a day for his time and then his expenses.

Q Well? A Well I made several trips out here at different times, to Tahlequah before the Commission, and back, three or four trips as well as I remember now, cost me 20 or 25 dollars each trip, as I remember about it.
Q Do you remember how many trips aside from the one in which you brought Dr. Baker? A No, I think there was probably three trips I think it was, maybe more, and then I made one trip to Claremore to see A. H. Norwood.
Q What did that trip cost you? A I don't remember what it cost; I went in a wagon down there.
Q You went through and employed Benge, went by railroad; what did that trip cost you? A I don't remember what it was, whether it was 21 dollars or 31 dollars, one or the other, I don't remember which it was; Joe Dawson, my brother give me the money, it was either 21 or 31 dollars.
Q Now then is there any other expense that you know of that was paid by you or your family, any members of your family, other than that you have mentioned? A I don't remember any other now; I can't call to my memory right now.
Q What was the condition of the members of your family generally now, financially, at that time? A Well we were considered poor people; I don't know, we didn't have much money, scarcely any.
Q Was there any one of them that was better off than the others, and if so, which one? A I suppose Albert Dawson was better off than the others, Buck Dawson.
Q Do you know how much Buck Dawson paid of these expenses? A I don't think he paid, he paid the Benge debt and the Bryant debt, I think it was.
Q That is one hundred and fifty dollars? A Yes sir, then he came up on one trip and taken some evidence with Joel Bryant Mail Joel Bryant was Clerk of the Court Before this Tahlee Court, I don't know what that cost him.
Q Came up he and took some testimony? A Yes, came up and went back to Texas. Filed his claim and took some testimony and went back to Texas and I didn't see him.
Q Did that testimony include Dr. Baker's testimony? A No sir.
Q You know how many witnesses were examined then? A I only know what he told me.
Q How many? A Four witnesses.
Q You know whether they were residence of the Cherokee Nation or not? A He told me they was.
Q Were you present on that trip in which he came there and took that testimony? A No, I met him there and then I went back home and left him at Tahlequah.
Q He had taken the testimony before you left him or afterwards?
A He taken it afterwards; that was my understanding.
Q Did Buck furnish only the one hundred fifty dollars that you now remember? A I think it was.
Q And the expense of taking these witness up there A Yes sir.
Q Who else furnished money now of the members of your family?
A My brothers and father lived down in Berryville, me and my brother-in-law, Blassingame, we all chipped in together a few dollars from each family.
Q You heard the statement of C. C. Brought that in June 1903 you told him that it had cost you 700 dollars, did you make any such statement to him? A I never did.
Q And that you paid one witness 300 dollars? A I never made any such statement.

Q Did you pay any witness any such sum? A No sir, I paid Mr. Bailey for his time; he said his time was worth 5 dollars a day, and I paid it.
Q Did you pay any other witness any more than that? A No sir, he was the only witness I had down there in my case.
Q Well the Robert Dawson case? A Yes sir.
Q He says that you told him this in your house there on your place, did you have any house there in June 1883? A I was not living on my farm at that time.
Q Did you have any farm? A Didn't have any.
Q When did you build a house there? A I built a house on the farm I live in now by Mr. Brought, I moved on the farm the last of July, 1883, and I camped in my wagon.
Q What did you do? A I went to the timber and cut poles and hewed them out and made me a log cabin on the place by a spring near Mr. Brought.
Q About what time did you finish that house? A I t was in September.
Q How on; after you finished that house until you brought your family out? A I finished it up and got it covered and the floor in it and I went back to Eureka Springs after my wife.
Q What family did you have then? A I had my wife and she had one child; but my oldest children, by my first wife were with me in the Territory, camping with me; three little boys and one girl were with me, and one girl back in Arkansas.
Q Are you and C. G. Brought on good terms? A No sir.
Q What has been the character of the trouble between you? A Trouble over our places first started it.
Q When did it begin? A As soon as I got back from Arkansas he commenced ruder crowding me out to take my farm away from me, and we have been in a racket ever since.
Q Then his statement that you were on friendly terms, is it correct or not? A No sir, it aint correct.
Q He and you have never been friendly as neighbors then since you first came back from Arkansas and settled in the Territory? A I don't remember ever being in his house; I never was in his house.
Q Have you had law suits with each other? A Yes sir.
Q How many? A I don't know that we had any particular law suits, but I have had law suits and he has been a witness against me.
Q What was your last trouble with him, when I mean? A Along last fall.
Q That was when your boys had a little racket and he had your boy arrested? A Yes sir.
Q What was the age of those boys? A Eleven years old.
Q He had him arrested down at Vinita? A Yes sir, had him arrested and carried before the Commissioner at Vinita.
Q He was discharged on account of his age? A Yes sir.
Q Buck Dawson is dead is he? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A Three years, little over three years.
Q And James Dawson is dead? A Yes sir.
Q Is your father, Robert Dawson living? A No sir.
Q When did James Dawson die? A I don't remember, been dead several years, I don't remember how long, 6 or 7 years, I couldn't state.
Q When did your father, Robert Dawson die? A I believe it was in '87 as I remember now, I wont be positive.
Q Had all these moved to the Cherokee Nation before their death? A No sir, father died in Arkansas.

Q Those that lived here in the Nation they lived here in the Nation but went back to Arkansas and died there? A Well the rest of my folks all lived here. That was James Dawson and Buck Dawson.
Q Robert Dawson, your father, never did move to the Territory, did he? A No.
Q Did you hear the statement of the witness Beavert this morning, that about the time of hearing of the James Dawson case, at a negro church at night James Dawson came down there with someone else & s introduced to him, and he loaned him ten dollars; did you hear that statement this morning? A I heard the statement, yes sir, I heard it.
Q He says that said James Dawson was 35 or 40 years old; was there any James Dawson living belonging to your family at that time of any such age? A No sir.
Q How many James Dawson's were there belonging to your family? A There was my uncle James Dawson and a brother James Dawson, the Doctor here.
Q How old was your brother James Dawson then? A He was a tolerable old man, I don't know his age.
Q About what age? A Must have been 60.
Q Between 60 and 70? A Yes sir.
Q That was the age of your brother James? A At that time?
Q Yes sir, in '84? A In '84 I suppose he was about 18, something like that.
Q Had he anything to do with the James Dawson case? A No sir.
Q Was he present at the time that the James Dawson case was under consideration? A No sir.
Q Was James Dawson, your uncle James Dawson, present at any time during the consideration of his case? A No sir.
Q He never was present? A No sir, if Uncle Jim Dawson was ever in Tahlequah I never knew it.
Q Who conducted the prosecution of the James Dawson case before the Cherokee Citizenship Commission, who conducted it? A The James Dawson case?
Q Yes sir? A I think James Low and Bill Jackson and Campbell Taylor.
Q Were you acting with them? A Yes sir.
Q They employed Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q Then there was no James Dawson present during that session of the Commission? No sir.
Q What was the condition of James Dawson's health at that time?
A It was pretty poorly; was not good.
Q Was he at that time able to get about and attend to business?
A I don't think he was.
Q Was he not a very feeble minded old man at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Regarded as rather a silly man was he not? A Yes sir.
Q Did he attend to any kind of business of the family at that time?
A No sir, didn't.
Q What was his financial condition? A Pretty bad.
Q Did he have any money? A No sir.
Q Did he have any property? A None hardly at all; horse probably, or a cow or two, something that way.
Q Was that about all the property he had? A Yes sir.
Q How about the other members of his family that were admitted at that time; what was their financial condition? A They were in poor circumstances.
Q How then after these judgments were rendered what members of your family removed to the Territory, Cherokee Nation, I will say?
A Robert Dawson and family and James Dawson and family, that is, them and their children.

Q. ...cept I don't believe here? A No, I said except Robert Dawson.
Q. Did all the members of Robert Dawson family move here? A Yes sir.
Q. Except himself? A Yes sir.
Q. And all the members of James Dawson family? A No, not all ... members, Melvina Lou I don't think ever lived here.
Q. She has never moved here? A No sir.
Q. Well all the members of your family, your father's family in- ... it not judgment of the committee, rendered January 11th, ...? A All but one.
Q. What was the name of that one? A Elna.
Q. Daughter? A Daughter of Robert Dawson.
Q. Sister? A Yes sir.
Q. ... them of age or was she a minor? A I think she was ..., to tell as I can remember.
Q. ... attempted admittance in citizenship in the Cherokee ...? A She did.
Q. ... action of the Cherokee Council? A She was first ... the Dawson heirs, her and two of ... neices.

Q When? A In 1894.
Q What was that? A Allowing them their Strip Money.
Q Have you a copy of that? A I think I have. (Produces papers.)

BY MR. McKENNON: We offer in evidence a duly certified copy of an act of the Cherokee National Council approved November 24, 1894, signed C. J. Harris, Principal Chief. Senate Bill No. 19, appropriating a sufficient amount of money to make payment per capita of what is known as the strip money to certain persons named therein. Among them are members of the Blessingame family, as follows: Jane, Elbert, Henry, James Ross Lennie, Pearl, Amos, Myrtle, Winnie and Clifford; this act mentions these persons as Cherokees by blood, and whose names had been left off the pay roll approved May 3, 1894, providing payment to each one of these a sum of $265.70.

Q Were these members of the Robert Dawson family? A Yes sir.
Q Which one of the members of the family? A Jane.
Q This is Jane who was admitted by the judgment admitting the Robert Dawson family? A Yes sir.
Q And her children? A Her children was not admitted, she was admitted.
Q I mean this mentions her children here? A Yes, that mentions her children.

(The paper last above introduced is filed and made a part of the record in this case.)

Q Do you know whether the payment of the Cherokee Strip money was to Cherokee citizens by blood only or not? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any other act of the Cherokee authorities passing upon the citizenship of members of your family? A Why the Douthett children, my brother's grand-children. Two grand-children of E. Dawson.
Q When was that? A That, I think it was in '84.
Q Have you got a copy of that act? A No, the record is here.
Q Was that by the Spears Court? A Yes sir, by the Spears Court.

BY MR. McKENNON: We now offere in evidence a judgment of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, 1880 and 1884, found on page 190, case No. 181, dated September 8th, 1884, signed by Eli Spears, President, John Lee and Andrew Young, Commissioners, admitting to citizenship Lula Dowthett and Dallas Dowthett as Cherokees by blood.

Q These now are the Douthetts to which you refer, are they? Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: Attention is called to the fact that the names of the Commissioners are all signed in the same hand-writing as the record of the judgment.

The said judgment record above introduced, and found on page 190, No. 181, record of 1880 to 1884, is as follows:

"Office of Commission on Citizenship,
Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation, September 14th, 1883.

E. Dawson, for his grand-children, No. 181.
Lula Fawthitt,
Dallas Dawthitt,
vs
The Cherokee Nation.

C. H. Taylor, Atty for Claim.

Petition filed September 14th, 1883.

Case submitted by claimants Sept 14th, 1883.
Case submitted by Solicitor, Sept. 19th, 1883.
Continued by Petitioner Jan 22 1884 to September Court 1884.
Re-submitted September 2nd 1884, by Attys Taylor and Seavert

Submitted by defense Sept 9 1884.

And now on this the 17th day of September 1884 come this case for final hearing and all the evidence in the case having been carefully read, and considered by the Commission on Citizenship it has been decided by the Commission that the above named Lula Southard and Dallas Daniels are Cherokees by blood, and that they are entitled to all the rights and privileges of Cherokee citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, and that they should be, and are hereby admitted to the full and complete enjoyment of the same in all respects, as native born Cherokees.

"Ellis Sparks, pro se.
John Lee,
John L. Adair, Andrew Young,
Cit Com'n. Commission on Citizenship."

Q Now were there any other actions of the Cherokee authorities of like character relating to the members of your family?
A I don't remember of any others.
Q I will ask you if when the Cherokee authorities were [illegible] the roll of 1896, in compliance with the request of the Dawes Commission for a roll to be prepared by them for the use of said Commission, the question of the citizenship of the members of your family was not then raised and an investigation had in regard to it? A Before the Dawes Commission?
Q No, before the Cherokee Commission again, the roll of 1896, of which John T. Gunter was a member? A Yes sir, yes. I had forgot it, but since you have named it there was some investigation of them at that time; this is what I understood.
Q That roll shows that the members of your family were duly enrolled by the Commission? A Yes.

Q Have you and the other members of your family since your removal to the Territory in 1869 and immediately following been recognized as Cherokee citizens by blood? A Yes sir.

Q Have you been exercising and enjoying all the rights of Cherokee citizens by blood since that time? A Yes sir.
Q You and all the members of your family are living in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q You have all drawn Cherokee moneys whenever payments were made? A Yes sir.
Q And have you all male members been voting at the Cherokee elections or in the Cherokee elections? A Yes sir, I was one of the judges of the elections that was held voting on the treaty.
Q What treaty? A The treaty bill that was sent back here for the Cherokees to vote on; I was one of the judges at Afton.
Q In what year was that? A I believe it was last spring some time, last April.

Q Have any of you held any offices in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What offices have the members of your family filled? A Deputy Clerk, under Pete Hastings, when he was clerk of Delaware District, I was a candidate once for Council in the Downing Party.

Q Can any office of deputy clerk be held by any one else except a recognized citizen? A Only by a citizen, yes sir.
Q Is that all? A (No reply).
Q Have the children of members of your family attended the Cherokee schools, and been educated in Cherokee schools? A Yes, sir.
Q Have the members of your family been all the while subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Have they been tried for any offenses against the law? A Yes sir.
Q And have they instituted their civil suits in the courts of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And had suits instituted against them in such courts? A Yes sir.
Q So all these years have gone by in the Cherokee Court of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And were you called upon by the principal? A Yes sir.
Q Is there anything else? A Nothing now; I am sick this morning; I have got a head-ache so bad I can't hardly see.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Do you know of the Robert Benson that died? A I don't know, I couldn't say on that.
Q He was a very old man? A Yes sir. He was getting considerably old.
Q Do you know whether he was older than you? A No I don't know.
Q Mr. Jo as I look at him he must have been a very old man, mustn't he? A Well he was old and he was feeble.
Q Well you stated that he had been so silly; was he naturally that way? A He used to live in Texas; I didn't know him until after he came to the Territory.
Q I say he had gotten so old, that was the occasion of that?
I suppose so, the oldest one of these children was Mrs. Betty Benson, that's my understanding.
Q Which older boy was John Benson? A We always called him Jack.
Q Jack Benson is the oldest? A Yes sir.
Q And who the youngest? A Sam Riley.
Q He was the youngest one of the crowd? A Yes sir.
Q Your father lived four or five years after he and you were admitted to citizenship? A Yes sir, something about that, it was in 1 8, I think he died in 1887, I wont be positive; that is as near as I remember now. I have got a headache so bad that I can't remember anything.
Q Neither none of the older members of the family were ever present at any of these trials of citizenship? A No sir, not a one of them was.
Q Was a one of them ever called upon to testify as to the blood of their father, who she was or anything about it? A I don't know if they was.
Q Your claim of kinship was through Captain John Rogers and that your grandmother was the half sister of Big Joe Vann, wasn't it?
A I don't know, I couldn't answer the question.
Q You were there when they took the testimony? A I was there when Dr. Baker's testimony was taken, that was about 15 years ago.
Q And nobody kin to the Rogers and Vanns was ever called to testify in the case? A Not as I know of.
Q They were very well known Cherokee families in the coun try?
A I suppose so, I don't know.
Q And yet nobody on any side of the family connected with it was ever called to testify A Not that I know of, I don't know what my brother done, he taken some of the evidence at Tahlequah when I was not there; he first filed his claim.

Q You had spoken to Dr. Baker about the testifying before you brought your case didn't you? A No sir.
Q What have been a short time afterwards? A It was a short time afterwards. I went back after him and it was too late and I fetched him the next time.
Q You had talked to your brother also that you could prove by Dr. Baker? A I told him I thought Dr. Baker, I thought he knew about our folks.
Q You had told him in general way you expected to use Dr. Baker as a witness? A Yes sir.
Q You went off, came to Arkansas and left your brother at Tahlequah after you told him that fact? A Yes sir.
Q You didn't see your brother any more until after you were admitted? A No sir.
Q You and he however made trips back and forth to Tahlequah and home at different times, but you didn't happen to get together? A No. I never met him any more and I don't know what he was there until after we were admitted.
Q But you were there and brought Dr. Baker over? A Yes sir.
Q And took his testimoney a year or such a matter before ever you were admitted? A I think a year as I remember, yes sir.
Q Now the way you came to get Campbell Taylor was on the recommendation of old man Bryant? A I didn't get him, didn't use him.
Q The way he came into your case? A The way he claimed to come in.
Q He did more in your case than Bryant did? A Campbell didn't do anything.
Q What did Bryant do? A I think he told my brother take evidence my brother employed him.
Q How did you happen to be sending money by Campbell to Mr. Duncan? A I never sent him any money.
Q Then when he, Mr. Duncan, states that Campbell delivered the money as Campbell said he did, both were wrong? A Oh no, you are mistaken, Mr. Duncan got 20 or 25 dollars, which he stated, from Campbell Taylor, for me.
Q How did you happen to give it to Campbell? A I give the money to Campbell to give to Joel Bryant, and he wouldn't do it, and I tried to get the money back from him, and I finally worked the 20 or 25 dollars he gave to Duncan.
Q Then you didn't tell Duncan as he testified that you sent 20 or 25 dollars by Campbell Taylor? A Campbell Taylor agreed to pay Duncan 20 or 25 dollars for me of the money I give him to give to Joel Bryant.
Q The family kept Campbell Taylor employed though as their attorney after that? A In the James Dawson case I think so.
Q E. Dawson, you remember, had him for his grand-children? A That is my understanding.
Q And your uncle James Dawson had him in the case of his children? A Uncle James had nothing to do with it; James Lee and Bill Jackson got him; that was my understanding of who employed him.
Q The record here shows that the case was originally instituted by C. H. Taylor and was finally submitted by him September 2nd, 1904, in the James Dawson case? A I don't deny him being in that case.
Q You say he was employed in the E. Dawson case? A I don't know who was in the Douthett children's case.
Q The record shows that Campbell Taylor instituted the case, and it was finally submitted by him, and Mr. Seavert, who testified a while ago? A That was in the James Dawson case, wasn't it?
Q That was in the E. Dawson grand-children? A Elbert?
Q No, in the Douthett children's case? A Oh yes.

Q He was likewise attorney in the Mary Dawson case was he, and before the Adair court, the 4th of October, 1887, in the case of James K. P. Dawson? A I don't know anything about that.
Q And the case likewise of Riley Dawson? A I don't know anything about those.
Q They are relations of yours? A Well I couldn't say.
Q James K. P. Dawson proves to be a son of Riley Dawson? A Well if he is he is by connection then. There are so many Dawsons I don't know them all.
Q You know Andrew J. Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q The Dawsons have so many children their brothers didn't hardly know them did they? A That's it, I don't know them.
Q Well then you don't know who Andrew J. Dawson is? A No sir, I don't know.
Q He refers in his application as being a cousin of R. Dawson, and yourself, who were admitted to citizenship by the Tahlequah Court? A He may be, I don't know nothing about it.
Q He resided I believe, at that time at Nevada, Missouri? A I don't know anything about other people.
Q Old Sam Rader was an old and paralyzed man at the time he testified wasn't he? A Getting old, he was not paralyzed.
Q Then the statement made that the reason he couldn't write his name and had to make his mark, because he was paralyzed, in the testimony isn't that true? A He didn't have good use of his fingers.
Q Then he was not paralyzed? A No, I brought him over there in a hack from Bentyville, Arkansas.
Q Well I say he was a very old man? A Yes, getting old.
Q How didn't you come to this place and take up their joining Brought's and work on it some time before you brought your family? A No, I brought my family with me, except my wife.
Q And you subsequently built a log house on it? A Yes sir.
Q And went back and got your wife and moved them to the log house? A Yes sir, went to Batesville and got my wife.
Q You never saw your grandfather at all? A Sam Dawson, yes sir, I saw him.
Q You remember do you of being with him much of any at all? A I was in Texas in time of the war, with my uncle Riley Dawson, and he was there.
Q In '60 sometime? A '60, I reckon, or '61. Somewhere along there, it was in time of the war.
Q How old a man was he at that time? A Pretty old man.
Q You never saw your grandmother, she died before she came?
A Yes sir, I never saw her at all.
Q The first started the citizenship matter, your brother in Texas or you? A Why it was me, and my brother together.
Q I mean who first conceived the idea? A I first commenced talking about it.
Q And sent down for him? A I was in Texas with him and then in Arkansas; I went backwards and forwards a time or two after the war.
Q About that time nearly everybody in Arkansas were trying to get some claim of kinship to Cherokees? A No sir, not at that time.
Q They were getting pretty thick in there in 1880? A Well in 83 and '4 and '5 I think.
Q Been some excitement over there to get yourselves on the rolls?
A Just got to be everybody; but it wasn't at the time we was admitted there was not much stir about the rights here.
Q Well the Watts had been admitted before that? A I suppose they had; there was not much excitement over the Watts claim at that time.

BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You did locate and board with Sam Shables when you first came to Tahlequah in '81? A I think I did.
Q Your brother Buck Dawson stayed there also? A Yes sir.
Q Sam Shables lived in the north end of town, old German? A Yes sir, old German, lived in the lower part of town.
Q Did you ever hear the names of any other witnesses which you stated perhaps testified in your case? A I have heard them but I have forgot them.
Q You don't recollect any name now? A I dont remember them now sir.
Q In the Irene House case and Joanna Barber case, in which you testified before the Commission, when you were making search for this testimony you couldn't find any other testimony from that of record except the Dr. Baker testimony, could you? A That's all we could find; no we didn't find the testimony, we got a copy.
Q Well it must have been a copy of the original, the certificate shows that? A I don't know; House got a copy of what claimed to be the affidavit of Baker and he told me to give it to him; that is all I know about it.
Q Well the certificate there does not bear my certificate does it? A I don't know about that, I am no scholar.
Q Well you didn t get the testimony of any other witnessm except that of Dr. Baker; you couldn't find any other over there of record? A I didn't hunt for any; House hunted for them.
Q None of you have ever been able to find any other? A No. Not even find our petition.
Q Samuel R. Dawson applied to what is known as the Adair Court, didn't he? A I don't remember now.
Q He was an uncle of yours wasn't he? A Yes sir, claimed to be.
Q The father of these two parties who testified here this morning? A Well I don't know, they claimed to be, I never met them to know them.
Q He was rejected by the Adair Court, or Hayes Court? A I don't know whether he filed his petition.
Q Did you testify in his case? A I don't remember; I might have dont it.

Q Didn't you testify in the Andrew J. Dawson case before what is known as the Hayes Court? A I don't recollect, if I did I don't remember.
Q Did you testify in the Riley Dawson case? A No sir, not that I remember.
Q Didn't you know of his being rejected by that court? A I don't remember, sir.
Q You know that the Cherokee Council never authenticated the roll of 1896, don't you? A No sir, I don't know it; I didn't know this was done until I went to Tahlequah after some papers and came back and they told me about it.
Q You never found out that C. H. Taylor was a big rascal up until the present time have you? A (No response)
Q The records here show that he has been in the constant employment of your family from that date up to this time? A Why it shows here from the record; I would rather be excused for my part of it.
Q You are the man that had the most to do with it? A I never employed him, I can say that.
Q You are the man that had most to do with the records? A In my case and in my father's case.
Q Didn't you testify for your uncle Ji Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Wasn't he attorney for him? A Yes sir.

Q Wasn't he employed by Jim Dawson after you got your citizenship?
A Why not but the grand-children.
Q Jim Dawson's petition was filed in September 1903, after yours?
A Yes sir.
Q C. H. Taylor, attorney of record, filed his petition? A He might have filed it for all I know.
Q Well you hadn't at that time fallen out with C. H. Taylor had you? A Why no, we never did have any trouble, only over his money, he never would give it back to me or give it to Bryant.
Q You never discovered that he was such a bad man until after your judgment was rendered? A I know he was not of good character.
Q Are you now brought, this man who testified for the Cherokee Nation, on speaking terms? A Hardly speak.
Q Does he refuse to speak to you? A Sometimes he does.
Q Do you refuse to speak to him? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been speaking to him for the last two or three months? A I have not spoke to him until I met him here at the hotel the other day.
Q First time you spoke to him since he had the boy arrested? A Yes sir.
Q When did he have the boy arrested? A Along in September or October, September I think.
Q Then did Dr. Baker die? A I don't remember.
Q You don't remember how much older your father was than you?
A No, I don't know.
Q What is your age? A I will be 60 in May.
Q Then you were born in '42? A Yes sir, '42 according to the record.
Q Was your father as much as 25 years old when you were born?
A I couldn't say.
Q What was your best judgment? A I suppose he was 30 or 35 years old. My understanding he married young.
Q Can't you give any better idea than 4 or 5 years of your father's age? A I say 25.
Q Your father was born say, 25 from 42 would have made him be born in 1817; now had your father any older brothers or sisters? A I think Jack Dawson was the oldest of the family, no, Betty, the girl, was the oldest and Jack next, and then my father as well as I remember about it.
Q There were two girls older? A No, one of the girls I never saw.
Q Then you think there are only 3 older than your father? A Yes, that's my understanding of the family.
Q Dr. Baker gives his age 73 in '82, which would make him be born in '89, now he states that when he was 15 or 16 years old, which added to 1809, will make 1824, that your grandmother Anna Priett, was a school girl; whereas from your testimony and that of the family history introduced here shows that your grandmother Anna Pricit was the mother of seven children, the youngest being born in 1823, how do you reconcile that? A I don't remember about the statement of Dr. Baker; I don't know what he made such statement as that, I don't remember about it.
Q And if he did you don't know how to reconcile it? A (No response.)

Q Did you talk to any of the members of the Court that admitted you? A No sir, I was not acquainted with them.
Q You know whether they were old or young men? A They were old men like; Steve Tehee, I got acquainted with him afterwards, and Tom Ie Thompson, at the Council you see I was there a good deal,

Q That was the fellow that was on the Court? A Yes sir.
Q He was afterwards assistant Chief of the Cherokee Nation?
A I think so.
Q Steven Tehee, that's the man you had reference to? A Yes sir,I think it was, I just knew the man: I had no acquaintance with him at all.
Q D. W. C. Duncan boarded when you were down there at the National Hotel? A I think he did, as well as I remember now when we were admitted.
Q Don't you know he did? A I think he did, as well as I remember.
Q Were not you over there to his room?AI think I was.
Q You remember when it was that you brought Dr. Baker down there to make a statement before the Court? A It was in January, Term, was in January Term of 1882 I believe, it was, as well as I remember about it.
Q Well you didn't take any more testimony after Dr. Baker testified?
A No sir, I didn't.
Q But your case was not submitted or passed upon for a year?
A I think it was, yes sir, as well as I remember.
Q I would like to ask you when the Glasgingame family came to the Cherokee Nation? A Alex Balsingame came with us when we moved here, and went back and got his family and moved that fall.
Q Did he move his family here that same fall? A Yes sir.
Q What year was that? A In the fall of .87 I believe it was, as well as I remember now.
Q When did the Bulaska family come? A I think the girl and the old lady come in the next spring.
Q How long did they remain that time? A The old lady stayed here, but the girl went back and in a short time her and her husband came back.
Q Did she come back until after her marriage? A No, she was married when she come first.
Q The last time? A She was married I think, she was married when she come out.
Q How long has August Bulaska been a permanent and continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation? A I think he come there in the fall of 1884 or 1885, I wont say which.
Q How long has Robert Pierce been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since he was admitted.
Q When was that? A '83.
Q How long has Martin L. Patterson? A Ever since he married his wife, and he was living here before he married his wife.
Q Who is Arizona Airey? A That is my daughter.
Q Did you bring her with you? A No no. When I moved.
Q When did she come? A She come out in a year or two after I moved here.
Q Was she married when you moved here? A No sir, she was not married.
Q She was not married when you were admitted? A No sir, she was a child.
Q When did Jim Lowe come to this country? A With his grandfather, James Dawson.
Q What was his mother's name? A Melvina Dawson.
Q You know Jim Lowe's age? A No sir.
Q Don't know how old he was in '83? A No sir.
Q Was he grown? A I think he was.
Q Married? A No no.
Q Married in this country? A Yes sir
Q Who is James H. Harmon? A Married one of the Jackson girls.

Q When did they come to this Country? A Right away after they was admitted.
Q In what year? A I think the winter of '94, I think it was, spring or winter of '94.
Q You know Gideon Graham? A Yes sir.
Q Who is his mother? A Missouri Ann Graham, formerly Missouri Ann Dawson.
Q Did he come from Texas to Arkansas? A Come from Texas.
Q Did you know them in Texas? A I knew the girl.
Q You never knew them until they come to this country? A I never knew Gid.
Q When did you see him here? A I think they come here in the fall or winter of 1894 or '5.
Q He was married then? A I think he was.
Q Brought his wife? A I think he was, I don't know.
Q Did he have any children when you first saw him? A He come to my house and I never saw his family for-I don't know, for several years.
Q You understood he had a family? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Did you learn to say '84 or '94? A '84.
Q Did you see Gid Graham in '84? A '84, let me study, maybe '85.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Did you see him in '85, are you positive on that proposition? A I think so.
Q Will you swear it? A No sir, I wont positive swear it, but I think it was, as I remember now it was; I couldn't say positive.
Q All the people Mr. Dawson that have been admitted to citizenship by courts of competent jurisdiction unless they were de-citizenised by courts of acquired jurisdiction, enjoyed the same privileges that you have narrated here about going to school and being tried in the courts? A Yes sir.

Q All that sort of thing that you have been telling here in your direct examination? A Ask me the question again.
Q I say all people who were admitted here by courts of competent jurisdiction, until they were de-citizenised by courts of like jurisdiction, enjoyed the same privileges that you did? A So far as I know they was.
Q They all drawed money and all tried in the courts as long as we had tribunal courts, were they not? A Yes sir, so far as I know.
Q There was no special privilege granted to you in preference to anybody else? A None but recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation.
Q Well you had been recognized since you were admitted? A Yes sir, I enjoyed the same privileges of native born Cherokees.
Q Well I say there is nothing special about it? A No, I don't know as there is.
Q You got acquainted with Mr. Duncan while you were up there during the hearing? A Yes sir, I was acquainted with him, knew him, when I saw him.
Q Mr. Bill Ross did the examination of Dr. Baker? A Yes sir.
Q Did you file any other paper before the Court other than your petition and then Dr. Baker's statement? A I never filed any petition there at all.
Q None whatever? A I don't remember any.
Q Well you never had occasion to file any papers before Mr. Duncan? A I got him to do some writing for me.
Q What? A Letters to my brother in Texas.
Q Buck Dawson? A Yes sir, E. Dawson.

Q That? A Yes sir, Buck Dawson.
Q Well is that all he did for you? A I don't remember any about it.
Q Why didn't you get your attorney to do that letter writing? A There was not any there.
Q Taylor nor Benge was not there then? A No sir.
Q That is what you paid the 80 or 25 dollars for, was writing this letter back to your brother? A I paid him for that claim.
Q When did you pay that? A I think I paid it, I don't exactly when, Camp Taylor paid it a year or two after I moved out here and settled where I did; might have been 2 years. I don't remember.
Q There was Duncan living then? A I couldn't say where.
Q Was he still clerk of this Court? A No sir, not when the money was paid; that is, when Camp Taylor said he paid it.
Q You did send Camp Taylor some money? A I sent some money to him for Joel Bryant.
Q You knew Joel Bryant's address didn't you? A No, I don't know that I did, No I didn't send Camp Taylor any money, I gave it to him.
Q How much did you give him? A One hundred dollars.
Q When? A Right at that time: he claimed it from me as soon as we got our papers: he come onto me and demanded me for Bryant.
Q You never sent him any then after that? A No sir.
Q Did you ever see Bryant after that? A Yes sir
Q How long after that? A I don't know, a year or two afterwards. a year I believe, my brother wrote, I wrote to my brother about paying Camp Taylor money and he went onto my brother about it and he never paid him until we moved out to this country.
Q After all that you got him to attend to your uncle Jim Dawson's and the other relatives cases? A The other parties did.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Applicants object to all that part of the witness' evidence in response to interrogatories by representatives of the Cherokee Nation which relates to the character of the evidence upon which the judgments admitting members of the James and Robert Dawson families were admitted, and to the history of the members of the Dawson family, because the same is immaterial, incompetent and irrelevant.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q One question I omitted to ask you Mr. Dawson, as to the Court at the time the judgment admitting Robert Dawson's family was rendered, who of the judges were present on that day? A They was all three of them, Wolfe, Tehee and Thompson.
Q Are you positive of that fact? A Yes sir.
Q You do not know this Andrew Dawson family who applied to the Dawes Commission for Cherokee citizenship, and who stated that they are cousins of some members of your family? A Andrew?
Q Andrew J. Dawson, who claims to be from Missouri? A How was the question?
Q You do not know them do you? A I don't know that they are any kin to us.
Q You don't know that they are related to you at all? A No sir.
Q This Mary Dawson case, do you know the members of that family? A No sir, I don't.
Q Don't know who they are? A No sir.
Q The Rebecca Dawson case? A I don't know her either.
Q You don't know whether they are related to you or not? A No sir.
Q If any of these persons are related to you or your family did you have any knowledge of it? A Not as I know of.

Q Jonina Barber, do you know anything about them? A They claim to be kin to us.
Q Where are they from? A They are from Texas.
Q Do you know they are related to you? A They claim to be kin.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Well you swore for them before the Commission? A Yes, they claim to be kinfolks of mine.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Irene J. House, who is that? A That is a cousin of mine; claims to be.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You testified for her didn't you before the Commission? A I think I did as well as I remember.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Before the Court that admitted James Dawson and family, who were the witnesses there? A Oliver Miller, from Berryville, Arkansas.
Q Who were the others? A Myself and J. Dawson and there was two other witnesses, I don't remember who they are.
Q Were they Cherokee citizens and residents of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You don't remember their names? A Which?
Q Of these other people who claimed to be citizens of the Cherokee Nation and who were witnesses? A I said about me and J. Dawson were citizens of the Cherokee Nation.
Q You only proved that Jim Dawson was a brother of Robert Dawson before the Court? A Yes sir.
Q And then referred back to the decision in the Court before? A We proved that they were citizens, and he knew my folks before he ever came here.
Q Was he older than Dr. Baker? A About the same age.
Q Why didn't you get Oliver Miller's testimony in the House case?
A He was dead.
Q You and no member of your family in the Irene House case or the Jonina Barber case or any of those cases that were tried before the Dawes Commission in your affidavits ever made reference to the fact that Oliver Miller testified in Jim Dawson's case in '84 did you?
A I don't remember about that.
Q You did make reference to the fact that Dr. Baker testified there in '83, didn't you? A I don't remember about that now.
Q You never made reference to any other witness having testified other than Dr. Baker didyou? A I don't remember about it now.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Now just one other question: All of these papers in the original application and everything, so far as you know, in the James Dawson case, were filed before the Commission which admitted the James Dawson family, are lost or mislaid are they not? A I suppose they are, I don't know, I never saw them.
Q Have you tried to get copies of them? A Yes sir, I tried to get the original papers.

BY COMMISSION: This case is continued until 8:30 a.m., tomorrow morning, March 20th, 1902, it now being the hour for adjournment.

MARCH 20, 1902.- 8:30 a. m.- F. L. DAWSON again on the stand, testifies as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Where was your brother Nick Dawson raised? A In Arkansas,

Q What County? A Carroll.
Q Near in a town? A Berryville.
Q Did Dr. Baker live at Berryville? A Yes sir.
Q Was your brother intimately acquainted with him for many years?
A Yes sir.
Q Did he know him sufficiently to be acquainted with his character and habits of life? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Josephine Pierce? A Yes sir.
Q Whose daughter was she? A Robert Dawson's.
Q Is she the same identical person who is called Josie Pierce, and Josie Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Is there any other Josie Pierce or Josie Dawson or Josephine Pierce or Josephine Dawson? A I don't know but the one.
Q She was also called Josephine or Josie Kelly? A Yes, after she married; her first husband was Pierce.
Q And her second husband A Was Kelly.
Q There was another Josephine Dawson wasn't there, Bulaske's wife?
A They called her Joe, I suppose that's her name, I would not be positive; that was Pile Dawson's daughter, August Bulaske's wife.
Q She is much younger than your sister, Josephine, above referred to? A Yes sir, oh yes.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Where were you born, Mr. Dawson? A Carroll County, Arkansas.
Q You know how old you are? A 42.
Q 43? A I think so.
Q How many older children were there of your father and mother than yourself? A Three.
Q Which were they? A E. Dawson, Riley Dawson and Jasper Dawson.
Q You are the fourth child and the fourth boy? A Yes sir, fourth boy.
Q Where were your father and mother married, do you know, from family history? A I think it was in Arkansas, I couldn't be positive, I think they was.
Q Do you know how long your grandfather lived in Arkansas? A No sir I don't.
Q Don't know what year he came to Arkansas? A Only from statement.
Q Well what did they say about it? A I think they come there some time in '30.
Q You know whether your father was born in Arkansas? How many of your grandfather's children were born there? A There was none of them born in Arkansas according to history and according to what he always told me, they were born in Tennessee.
Q He came there in '30, and all the other children were born on the Hiwassee River in Tennessee, befor he ever came? A That is what I think, yes sir. Now I am not positive about that. They were from Tennessee, but either Dr. Baker lived there or my folks come from there; I don't know as I remember that I ever heard my father say where he was born at.
Q In Tennessee somewhere; he said he was a good big boy when he came to Arkansas? A I don't know as I ever heard him say.
Q Do you know the difference in the ages of yourself and your three older brothers? A No I don't.
Q Don't know the time that comes in between you? A No I don't know that; I think it is about two years though.
Q That would make E. Dawson about eight years older than you, probably? A Yes sir.

BY MR. MCKENNON:
Q [illegible] Mr. Boyle?
A [illegible]
Q [illegible] A I always knowed her by Josie Pierce: I don't [illegible] this is her right name or not.
Q [illegible] John Boyle.
Q Is the child of Josephine Pierce who married John Boyle?
A Yes sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Where did she marry John Boyle? A Near Afton.
Q When? A I couldn't state.
Q About when? A You have got a copy of the marriage license.
Q When did Josephine Pierce come to the Cherokee Nation? A '83.
Q And she lived here continuously since that time? A Up until her [illegible]; she is dead.
Q All of her children came with her at that time? A Yes sir.
Q And have they lived here continuously since that time? A Yes [illegible], except Bill Pierce, he went to Colorado and died.

J. C. STARR, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. MCKENNON:
Q Your name is J. C. Starr is it? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Starr, was that instrument taken by you, or before you? (Indicating witness document.)
A Yes sir
Q Where? A At the residence of S. H. Benge near Fort Gibson.
Q When? A On the 15th day of this month.
Q What day of the week was that? A On Saturday.
Q And that the day it was taken? A Yes sir.
Q And you go there on Saturday to take this? A Yes sir.
Q And when Judge Benge stated on Tuesday that it was taken "yesterday" meaning Monday, the 17th, he was mistaken, was he?
A It was taken Saturday, the 15th.
Q Was he mistaken or not? A It was not taken then.
Q When his statement made on Tuesday the 18th that it was taken on "yesterday", meaning Monday, the 17th, was not correct, was it?
A I think not, because I was there, and it was taken on the 15th.
Q And it was taken on the 15th, you are positive it was taken on [illegible]? A Yes sir.
Q [illegible] his statement could not be correct? A I guess not.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q He was just mistaken about the date, wasn't he? A Yes sir.
BY MR. MCKENNON:
Q You told Charles F. Moore who is now present, on last Tuesday [illegible] sent you out there on Monday to take that? A No sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Sent you there last Saturday? A Yes sir.
Q And you went there at my direction, didn't you? A Yes sir, and [illegible] had [illegible].

ROBERT L. DAWSON, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:
BY MR. MCKENNON:
Q What is your name? A My name is Robert L. Dawson.
Q And how old are you? A I am [illegible] close to 30 years old, [illegible]

Q Are you a son of E. Dawson, commonly known as Buck Dawson?
A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if you will examine this letter sent with the enclosure and state whether or not you found that among the papers of your father after his death? A (Hands letter to witness who examines it) A Yes sir, I found this amongst the papers of my father. He always kept all his own papers, and me looking over them I saw this letter.
Q Has that been in your custody ever since you found it? A Yes sir, if that's the letter that was in the envelope.
Q Well that's what it is, you can tell whether it is or not. (Witness further examines letter) Q That purports to be a letter from Samuel H. Benge, does it not, to your father? A Yes sir. (Here applicants' attorney hands letter and envelope referred to to attorneys for Cherokee Nation.)

BY MR. McKENNON: I want to offer this letter in evidence in this case; it is a letter signed by S. H. Benge, attorney at law, dated Fort Gibson, C. N., Jan. 13, 1883. Addressed to Mr. E. Dawson, Esq., together with the envelope, in which it was enclosed, with the card of C. H. Taylor upon it, attorney at law, Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and postmarked Tahlequah, Ind. T., January 13.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS: The Nation objects to the introduction of this letter for the reason that S. H. Benge is living and has testified in this case, and his handwriting should be either proven or denied by himself.

G. W. BENGE, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A G. W. Benge.
Q Are you a son of Samuel H. Benge? A Yes sir.
Q Do youknow his handwriting? A I believe so.
Q Is that his handwriting? (Shows witness letter before referred to.) A Yes sir, it is either his or a resemblance of his.
Q To the best of your knowledge and belief is that his letter?
A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: Now we offer it in evidence.

BY COMMISSION: (Reading letter)

"Fort Gibson, C. N.,
Jan 13th, 1883.

Mr. E. Dawson, Esq.,

Dear Sir:- I write this note to inform you that your case came off before the Court on Citizenship on the 11th inst, and was decided in your favor, so you all are citizens of this Nation. F. M. Dawson was furnished with a copy of the decision at the court. He will write to you allso. You will please send me fifty dollars as my fee in your case according to contract. Send it to Fort Gibson, Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully yours,
S. H. Benge,
Attorney at law."

Enclosed in envelope, as follows:
Card in upper corner, left hand:
"Return in ten days to C. H. Taylor,
Attorney at Law,
Tahlequah, Ind. Ter."
Addressed: "Mr. E. Dawson,

Henryetta,
Clay Co., Texas."

Post-marked: " Tahlequah, Jan 17 Ind T."

ROBERT L. DAWSON, -re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Now examine that and see if that is also a paper which you found among your father's papers after his death? (Hands papers to witness) A That is the same letter that I found.

Q Among the same that you found the Benge letter? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: This is a letter purporting to have been written by J. M. Bryan, to E. Dawson, dated at Chouteau Station, Cherokee Nation, and not dated, which we offer in evidence. (Applicants' attorney hands said paper to Nation's attorneys.)

Q Mr. Bryan is dead is he not? A I think so.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS: We have no objection.

BY COMMISSION: (reads letter)

"Chouteau Station, Cherokee Nation.
I. T., M. K. & T. R. R.

MR. Dawson:

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your favor of the 30th inst in regard to our contract.

After I had got the claim so there would be little more to do I employed Campbell Taylor to answer for me when the case came up, for which I was to pay him $20 out of my fee.

This all the action I had in the matter with Taylor.

I saw Taylor in Washington last month, and he told me that your brother had made another contract with him, and paid him, or that you was to pay him $100- and that you had offered him a check on some bank in Texas.

That $100- matter with Taylor, I have nothing to do with, nor couldn't have if I wanted to.

I hope Mr. Dawson this letter will explain the matter fully.

And I am satisfied that you are apprised of the earnest work I done for you, Please write to me.

Very respectfully,
Very truly,
J. M. Bryan."

Q I will ask you if you know of your father having paid Bryan that money? A Yes sir, paid him a horse and some other money.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How old was your father when he died? A Me, I don't know whether I know his age or not.

Q If you don't know you can't say? A I wouldn't hav no reason to know his age; never asked him his age; of course I guess my mother knows.

Q Never had occasion to talk about his age at all? A Oh I have heard him speaking of his age at different times, but then I never paid enough attention to it.

Gid Graham, being first duly sworn and [illegible] examined testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q What is your name? A Gid Graham.

Q How old are you? A Mr. Graham? A I am 35 years old.
Q How long have you been living in the Territory? A I came out here in 1887 or '88.
Q To the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation, what year was that '87 or '8? A Yes sir.
Q Have you resided here continuously from that time ever since in the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you live in the Cherokee Nation? A About 6 years.
Q Where did you go then? A Wagoner.
Q In the Creek Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And been residing there ever since? A Yes sir.
Q In business? A Yes sir.
Q Have you all the while been recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Graham, do you know Judge Samuel H. Benge? A Yes sir.
Q Did you have a conversation with him in Fort Gibson about September of 1906? A Well as to the exact time I couldn't say, it was sometime about the time that the Dawes Commission were at Gallisaw, or possibly a little later, somewhere about there.
Q Taking the census of the Cherokees? A Yes sir.
Q At that time had the question of the validity of the judgment of the Cherokee citizenship commission admitting Robert Dawson and family been called in question? A Yes sir.
Q Did you talk to him about the facts concerning the obtaining of that judgment? A I did.
Q What did he tell you about it; well I will just ask you, did he then and there tell you that that judgment was regular and all right nothing wrong with it? A He did.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q You were looking around for testimony at that time, Mr. Graham, were you? A How was that?
Q You were looking around for testimony at that time, expecting this case to be questioned? A Since the validity of that judgment had been attacked by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, I thought it was well to look into the matter.
Q And he told you the judgment was all right? A Having known that Mr. Benge was connected with the case, I saw him in Fort Gibson, subsequent to that time and asked him about it, if there was anything wrong about the matter, and also that I might want his affidavit concerning the matter, and I also I think maybe wrote to him; possibly prior to that, I am not sure as to the writing, but I think possibly I did.
Q Did he tell you he would make an affidavit? A I don't think at that time that I asked him for an affidavit. I thought as he lived right near here I would use him in person; he assured me that everything was all right.
Q Your mother was Missouri Dawson was not she? A Yes sir.
Q Her name was Missouri Graham when she was re-admitted to citizenship? A Yes sir.
Q And was not Missouri Dawson as named in that judgment? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether the other children named in there had married and changed their names also at the time they were admitted?
A There were not any of them married.
Q Ella Dawson was your aunt? A Yes sir.
Q Was she married at that time? In 1903? A Yes sir.
Q Melvina Dawson, was she married at that time? A Yes sir.
Q And the fourth one you have mentioned, Missouri Dawson, was your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Can you give us the exact date of your birth? A Yes sir.
Q Do so, please? A January 21, 1867.
Q And you came to the Territory when? A In 1887 or 1888.
Q You can't make that any more definite? A Well sir, it has been a good while ago, and I didn't have anything to cause me to.
Q Well I just want to know whether you did have or not? A No sir.
Q When were you married? A 1886.
Q You were married prior to coming here? A Yes sir.
Q Your first child born away from here? A Yes sir.
Q What is its name? A John W.
Q '86 you were married, and he was born about the spring of '87?
A Somewhere in 1887, I don't remember.
Q Prior to your coming here? A Yes sir.
Q That is the only child you had that was born away from here?
A No sir, Julius.
Q Julius was not born in the Territory? A No sir.
Q And prior to the time of your removing to the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q These are the only children born out? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if about February 1901, he came to Wagoner, and sent his son to have you come to the hotel at night where he was, and if he then and there said to you "You people are on the doubtful list, and if you will give me five hundred dollars I will make it all right and see that you are enrolled, and if you don't I will see that you don't get on".? A Well now as to the first part of thatquestion, where you say he sent his son; that is an error; I don't know whether he came to my house or sent some one; when I returned home that evening my wife told me there was some one there to see me, and was at the city hotel at Wagoner, and said come down and see him; I went down there; I never had met Taylor; he introduced himself to me and stated what his business was; asked me if I was on the doubtful list, etc., to which I replied that we were; he asked me if I didn't want to employ him, stating that if we would give him, our family would give him five hundred dollars he would see that we were placed on the rolls all right, but if we refused to give him five hundred dollars that he would use his influence against us and see that we were rejected.
Q You never had met him before, or had any communication with him?
A I never met him before; as to the communication, I may have written him something about his affidavit as to the validity of that judgment, I can't say as to that. He said in his testimony that I did; I don't know whether I did or not now.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q You knew he was the attorney in the case, originally? A After looking at the records I did.
Q I mean you knew it at the time you wrote to him about the affidavit; that was the reason why you thought he would know something? A Certainly.
Q He never told you he was going to swear against you or threatened to tell anything that was not true? A He just simply said unless we gave him that five hundred dollars he would see we were all put off the rolls.
Q Said he would use his influence against you, that is what he said? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You don't deny writing to him then for the affidavit? A I don't say I did or I did not; I neither affirm it or deny the question.
Q You went to Captain Benge and also wrote him with reference to what he knew about the case? A I don't know whether I wrote him or not, I said I was under the impression I wrote his son.
Q You went to see Aaron Butler, who was interpreter before that court that admitted you? A Yes sir.
Q And you went with Aaron Butler to see Jim Smith, attorney before that court? A Yes sir.
Q And you either wrote or went to see everybody you knew of that was before that court then? A Yes sir.
Q That shows you used considerable activity? A Yes sir, I used such activity as was to my interest.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q That was all after the representatives of the Cherokee Nation objected to the enrollment of the Dawson family and by reason thereof such as had appeared before the Commission had been placed upon a doubtful card? A Yes sir.
Q Then you began to look up the evidence and see what there was in it? A Yes sir.
Q As Mr. Hastings has stated? A That's right.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q You are a grandson of James Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q The old gentleman? A Yes sir.
Q About what was his age when he was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, in 1884, wasn't it? A Yes sir, well I can't be exact as to that.
Q Well as nearly as you can? A He was somewhere about 70 or 72, years of age.
Q Well what other James Dawson did you know belonging to the families, either one of these families, Robert Dawson family or the James Dawson family? A I never knew of but two James Dawsons.
Q Who were the others? A Dr. James R. Dawson, who is present and standing right here; my grandfather, James Dawson.
Q Was there in '84 any James R. Dawson 35 or 40 or 45 years old, that you know of, belonging to either one of these families?
A No sir.
Q Do you know how old Dr. James R. Dawson was that that time?
A James Dawson? Q No I am speaking of Dr. James R. Dawson? A Oh, how old he was, no sir, I do not.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q Do you know who was here attending to your mother's citizenship case at that time, at the time they were admitted? A Yes sir, James Low and Bill Jackson, son of Ellen Jackson.
Q Who was W. A. Dawson? A That is Wilburn, my uncle.
Q Was he here? A I don't know sir.
Q You were not here any of the time? A No sir.
Q You knew your grandfather then, you had lived in the same neighborhood with him? A Yes sir, I knew him well.
Q He didn't die for a year or two after that did he? A After when, Mr. Hutchings?
Q After his admission to citizenship? A No sir, he didn't die I think until '91 or '90, several years after.
Q Very old man when he died? A Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q About what age? A He was approximately 80 years old.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q When he died? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q That about 1891? A I think so, yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Applicants object to the testimony of the witness elicited by interrogatories of Counsel for the Cherokee Nation relating to his family, their history, etc, as being irmaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

James R. Dawson, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Your name is James R. Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Where do you live? A Afton, Indian Territory.
Q What is your age? A 45.
Q You are a physician are you not? A Yes sir.
Q Was James Dawson, whose family was admitted in 1884, an uncle of yours? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know what his age was at that time? A No sir, I do not, only approximately.
Q State as nearly as you can? A At the time of theadmission?
Q Yes sir? A About 70, I don't know exactly.
Q How old was he when he died? A I would suppose he was about 78.
Q What was your age in 1884? A I am 45.
Q What year were you born, Doctor? A I was born in '55.
Q Must have been '56? A Yes sir, that's right.
Q What was your age then? A In '84?
Q Yes sir? A About 28.
Q Were you present at the time that James Dawson family was admitted, or at any time while their case was pending before the Cherokee citizenship commission? A Not while the James Dawson case was, no sir.
Q You were present during your father's case? A I was there at the time.
Q When was that? A The dates I disremember; when the case first come up, I disremember the exact date.
Q How long were you there? A I was there about a week.
Q Was that when it first came up you say? A Yes sir.
Q Nothing was done? A No sir.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q You never saw Dr. Baker? A Yes sir.
Q Did he and your uncle Jimmie used to talk about how they played together when they were boys? A My uncle Jim and Dr. Baker talk?
Q Yes? A I never saw them together.
Q They were about the same age? A Yes sir, I believe Dr. Baker was 15 years older probably.
Q Dr. Baker must have been mistaken about his own age? A Guessing, that's all I know about his age.
Q The Doctor had been paralyzed, rather a decrepit looking man at the time he was over here at this citizenship business? A No sir, not as I know anything about.
Q He was near about 70 then? A I couldn't tell you, he was an old looking man.
Q Your uncle Jimmie was about 70? A Yes sir.

TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF THE CHEROKEE NATION.

W. W. HASTINGS, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q State your name? A W. W. Hastings.
Q Residence? A Tahlequah, age 35.
Q You are attorney for the Cherokee Nation in the general preparation of these cases? A Yes sir.
Q Just state how it happened that you summoned Mr. Campbell Taylor, and what occurred between you with reference to his testimony?
A Well there had been some talk, as the testimony here indicates, that there was perhaps fraud in the admission of this family, and by agreement with counsel on the other side, and the Commission, this case was set for the 17th day of March, and some short time prior to that, as the attorney for the Nation I began to make some preparation or inquiry into the case, and I wrote a great many letters around to different people and among them I wrote C. H. Taylor to come down here. I don't think in that letter that I told him what I wanted with him. I don't think I told him the case that I wanted him to testify in; that is my recollection now. Mr. Taylor prior to that time, neither directly nor indirectly, so far as I know, ever gave me any information voluntarily against this family, or ever said anything that would lead me to believe that he knew anything of a fraudulent character connected with it. But I summonsed him; perhaps the fact that I knew he had been connected with them in some way and that I perhaps also would get some information from him. Well he came in response to a letter that I wrote, and I took him up to my office. I talked to him quite a long while. He was exceedingly reluctant about giving any testimony whatever, he told me first and last that he didn't intend to testify before the Commission. He told me he had been attorney for these people, and he didn't believe he could be compelled to testify, and that is he was put upon the stand he would claim that privilege, and he didn't believe I could force him to testify. I talked to him at some considerable length; I asked him what he knew about it; of course he for a long time declined to tell me; and what information I did get from him was by piecemeal. He was exceedingly reluctant all through the interview to give any information. I asked him finally though that if the Court compelled him to testify when he got before the Commission, if he would tell the facts about it, and he said that he would. I told him then that I would subpoena him.
Well we talked quite a good while and finally after always telling me that he intended to claim that privilege, and never wanting to testify, he detailed to me the facts just as he told them on the stand; I don't believe there is the slightest variation, except that he perhaps was not so full at that time and it was told by piecemeal, but I got all those facts out of him, or very nearly all those facts out of him. He may have elaborated a little more here by examination; but he never voluntarily gave me any information at all, either directly or so far as I know indirectly. I don't think he went any one to me. I got his name because I heard he was connected with the case, and perhaps knew something about it, like I did a great many other people, some of whom I didn't bring, because they didn't know what I supposed they did know about the case.

With reference to S. H. Benge, I want to state that he never voluntarily gave me any information at all about this case, nor did I know that he knew anything in connection with this case until I sent J. C. Starr over to S. H. Benge's place to take his affidavit on Saturday, March 15, in the W. H. and J. W. Shoemake case, and their descendants. I had heard that Mr. Benge knew some important facts in connection with the Shoemake case and I sent him over there then to take that affidavit; and when Mr. Starr came back he told me that he knew some facts also in connection with these other cases, and I was surprised to find he had instead of one affidavit, in the Shoemake case, that he also had another affidavit in the Dawson case. That is the first information I had that Mr. Benge knew anything whatever in connection with the Dawson case, and therefore he never voluntarily, either directly or indirectly gave any information prior to that time to me.

I impressed upon Mr. Taylor that the Nation only wanted the absolute truth in this matter; that it was not seekin, anything else but the truth, and didn't want him to tell anything else but the truth.

I want to say again that after he was on the stand and left that evening, and after Captain McKennon, or counsel for the family, had indicated his willingness for Mr. Taylor to testify, that he went over all of these facts that he testified to on the stand subsequent to that time in the presence of J. C. Starr in my office. I simply wanted to go on the stand for the purpose of showing that Mr. Taylor hadn't voluntarily given me any information, and I make this statement for that purpose.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q You had no power to compel him to give you any information at that time at all did you? A No sir, none other than the pursuation that I brought to use.

Q He therefore did it simply upon your pursuation? A Yes sir.

Q You knew he had been acting as attorney for these parties?

A Yes sir, I had seen from the record that he did too.

Q And he told you so? A Yes sir.

BY COMMISSION: The attorneys for the applicant and the representatives of the Cherokee Nation will be granted thirty days from the receipt of the transcript in this case in which to file a brief in this case with the Commission.

I, M. D. Green, do hereby certify that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes I correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) M. D. Green.

I, Arthur G. Evans, being duly sworn, state that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes I copied the foregoing, and that the same is a true and complete copy of the original.

Martin, a Notary Public on October 4, 1900, and further proceedings were had therein before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory on March 17, 1903. All of these proceedings have been made a part of the record herein.

The evidence, and an examination of the records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission show that on January 11, 1883, one Robert Dawson and his adult children, F. M. Dawsin, Elbert Dawson, Jasper Dawson, Mollie Dawson, Wilborn Dawson, James Dawson, Rial Dawson, Josephine Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson and John Dawson were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, commonly known as the "Teehee Court", and that on September 9, 1884, one James Dawson, a brother of the Robert Dawson aforesaid, together with his adult children, Ella Dawson, W. A. Dawson, Malvina Dawson and Missouri Dawson were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship commonly known as the "Spears Court." In addition to their tribal enrollment as shown by the evidence herein, it also appears from an examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, in the possession of this Commission, that F. M. Dawson is identified on the Cherokee pay rolls of 1883 and 1884, Elbert Dawson on the Cherokee pay roll of 1886, Mollie Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, Wilborn Dawson on the pay rolls of 1886 and 1894, James Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883 and 1894, Rial Dawson on the pay rolls of 1886 and 1894, Josephine Dawson on the pay roll of 1886, Jane Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, Joseph Dawson and John Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883, 1886 and 1894, Ella Dawson and W.A.

Dawson on the pay roll of 1886, and Missouri Dawson on the pay roll of 1894.

A majority of the above named persons, together with the descendants of the persons admitted as aforesaid and such white persons as may have intermarried with the said Dawsons or their descendants are the applicants herein.

For convenience, the applications are divided into groups:

Group 1, includes the applications of Francis M. Dawson and those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 324, D 580, D 581, D 584, D 588 and D 595.

The evidence shows that Francis M. Dawson is the same person admitted to citizenship as hereinbefore stated under the name of F.M. Dawson. Katie Dawson, his wife, was married to him on November 21, 1880. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since they were married, and the six children included in the application of said Francis M. Dawson, and hereinbefore named are the issue of the marriage aforesaid. All the applicants herein are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

John Dawson, William R. Dawson, Lizzie Atkins, formerly Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, Jr., and Arizona Allred are the children of said Francis M. Dawson by a former wife, Julia Ann. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship. John Dawson, Lizzie Atkins and Francis M. Dawson, Jr., are identified on the Strip Payment roll of 1894, and William R. Dawson and Arizona Allred are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Andrew C. Atkins was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on March 29, 1891, to the above named Lizzie Dawson. He has resided in the Cherokee Nation with his said wife since they were married, and the four children included in his application, and hereinbefore named are the issue of that marriage. The oldest child, Arthur, is identified on the Cherokee pay roll of 1894, and the three younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Arizona Allred, nee Dawson, came from Arkansas to the Cherokee Nation for the first time in 1894, remained there about two years and then returned to Arkansas, where she was married to Lee Allred. Such marriage was not in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. Arizona Allred and her husband came to the Cherokee Nation in 1896, stayed there a month and returned to Arkansas where they remained until September, 1898, at which time they came to the Cherokee Nation, remained there about a year and returned to Arkansas in 1899, where they were living at the date of this application. William C. Allred is the child of said Arizona Allred and possesses no rights not acquired by his mother. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Paragraph 9, Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) provides:

> "No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the Nation in which he claims citizenship."

The evidence further shows that Francis M. Dawson, his wife, Katie and William E. Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, Jr., and Lizzie Atkins have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883, and Andrew J. Atkins, the husband of said Lizzie Atkins, since 1891, and that John Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation for at least fourteen years prior to the date of his application. The residence of the minor children of the above named persons is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group II, includes the applications of Samuel R. Dawson, together with those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 550, D 552, D 558, D 565, D 482 and D 402.

The evidence shows that Samuel R. Dawson is identified as the Rial Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. His wife, Catherine, a white woman, was married to him on July 11, 1866. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since their marriage, and August and Mate Dawson are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. Samuel R. Dawson, his wife and children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Robert Dawson, Albert [illegible] Dawson, Josephine Bulawsky, formerly Josephine Dawson, John W. Dawson, and Katie Newman, formerly Katie Dawson are the children of said Samuel R. Dawson. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Sarah F. Dawson, nee Abbott, was married to the said Albert H. Dawson in October, 1904, and has lived with her said husband, since they were married. Ralph H., Alford and Cecil Dawson are the issue of that marriage. Sarah F. Dawson and her child Ralph H. are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. Alford is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission. The evidence further shows that the youngest child, Cecil Dawson, is dead.

August Bulawsky, was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on May 25, 1893, to the said Josephine Dawson. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. The four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and the Strip payment roll of 1894. May Bulawsky is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and Oscar Bulawsky is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Nannie Dawson, nee Baugher, was married to the said John W. Dawson on September 2, 1894, and she has lived with her said husband since they were married.

The evidence further shows that Samuel R. Dawson, his wife, Catherine, and Robert Dawson, Albert H. Dawson, John W. Dawson, and Katie Newman have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1886, August Bulawsky and his wife Josephine, since 1892, and Sarah F. and Nannie Dawson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group III, includes the application of John Dawson, and those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 578, D 360 and D 530. The evidence shows that John Dawson is the same person admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. Sarah J. Dawson, nee Wood, his wife, a white woman, was married to him on October 4, 1871. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since they were married and the nine children included in the application of said John Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. John Dawson, his wife, and his seven older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Thomas P. Dawson and Orle M. Dawson are the children of said John Dawson. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship, and they are both identified on the Cherokee

Census roll of 1896.

Thomas P. Dawson was married on April 24, 1898, to Allen A. Allison, and Marion J. Dawson is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Orle H. Dawson was married on December 28, 1899, to Addie York, and Burr R. and James W. Dawson are the issue of that marriage. The said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said John Dawson and his wife, Sarah J., have resided together in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that said Orle H. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883, and that Thomas P. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888. The residence of the minor children herein is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IV, includes the applications of those claiming through the said Josephine Dawson, now deceased. At the time of her admission she was the wife of one Thomas Pierce, but was admitted to citizenship under maiden name of Dawson. The group embraces cases numbered D 408, D 409, D 431, D 471, D 472 and D 479.

The evidence shows that Robert Pierce, William Pierce, Charles F. Pierce, Oma Gray, formerly Oma Pierce, Effie Pierce (now Effie Akin) and Nancy J. Bogle, formerly Nancy J. Pierce are the children of said Josephine Dawson. They were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Nellie Pierce, a white woman, was married to said Robert Pierce on July 15, 1894. She has lived with her said husband since they were married, and Myrtle and Arthur Pierce are the issue of that marriage. Nellie Pierce is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and her two children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Oma Gray was married to John B. Gray on April 7, 1898, and Cecil and Walton Gray are the issue of that marriage. Oma Gray is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894 and her children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

John S. Bogle was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 5, 1894, to the above named Nancy J. Pierce. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. John S. Bogle and his two older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his four younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said William Pierce died in January, 1902.

It further appears that Robert Pierce, Charles E. Pierce, Nancy J. Bogle and Oma Gray have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; that John S. Bogle, husband of Nancy J. Bogle, and Nellie Pierce, wife of Robert Pierce, have resided in said Nation ever since they were married, and the residence of the minor children herein is considered to be that of their parents with whom they are living. It appears that Ellie Akin was seventeen years old at the date of the application for her enrollment and it further appears that she resided in the Cherokee Nation from about 1886 up to September, 1901, when she went to Colorado, was married there to [illegible] Akin, and is now living in that state with her said husband.

Group V, includes the application of the minor Joseph Dawson, Wilborn Dawson and James Dawson, and embraces in the number A 1 364, D 475 and D 526.

Joseph R. Dawson is identified as the Joseph Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. He was married to Florence Jackson on May 16, 1886, and they have lived together since the date of their marriage. The said Florence Jackson is the daughter of Ella Dawson, but she was of age at the date of her mother's admission to citizenship. The six children included in the application of said Joseph R. Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the marriage between the said Joseph R. Dawson and Florence Jackson. The applicant, his said wife and his four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Wilborn Dawson is identified as the person of that name admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

James R. Dawson is identified as the James Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as heretofore stated. His wife, Martha A. Dawson was married to him on February 20, 1890. She has lived with her said husband since the date of their marriage, and the four children included in the application of said James R. Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. The applicant, his said wife and his three older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The youngest child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that Joseph R. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that Florence Dawson and Wilborn Dawson have resided in said Nation since 1886, and that James R. Dawson has resided in said Nation since 1883, excepting a temporary absence from 1889 to 1891. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group VI, includes the application of Mollie Dawson and those claiming through her and embraces case numbered D 518.

The evidence shows that Mollie Moore, formerly Dawson, is identified as the Mollie Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. Her husband, Charles T. Moore, was married to her under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on January 17, 1887. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. Charles T. Moore, his wife Mollie, and his four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896; the two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that said Charles T. Moore, his wife Mollie and his oldest child have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; the younger children have resided in said nation all their lives.

Group VII, includes the applications of those claiming through the above named Jane Dawson who, at the time of her admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, as hereinbefore stated, was the wife of one Alexander Blasingame, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson. Jane Dawson is a resident of Arkansas, and is not an applicant for enrollment. This group embraces cases numbered D 832, D 833 and D 834.

The evidence shows that Henry A. Blasingame, Elbert L. Blasingame, and James R. Blasingame are the children of said Jane Dawson. They were minors at the time of their mother's admission to citizenship and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Henry A. Blasingame was married to his wife Birdie J., on December 6, 1896, and Vinnie C. Blasingame is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Ida Blasingame, a white woman, was married to the said Elbert L. Blasingame on September 5, 1894. She has lived with her said husband ever since they were married and the four minor children included in the application of said Elbert L. Blasingame are the issue of that marriage. The said Ida Blasingame and her two older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Mary A. Blasingame was married to the said James R. Blasingame on August 11, 1895. She has lived with her said husband since they were married and the three minor children included in the application of said James R. Blasingame, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. Mary A. Blasingame and her oldest child are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said Henry A. Blasingame, Elbert L. Blasingame and James R. Blasingame removed to the Cherokee Nation in 1897 and have resided therein with their said wives ever since. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group VIII, includes the applications of those claiming through the said Elbert Dawson, and embraces cases numbered D 435, D 604, D 608, D 605, D 609, D 617, D 626 and D 627.

The evidence shows that Zona Patterson, formerly Dawson, William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Richard W. Dawson, Ella L. Spickerman, formerly Dawson, and Francis M. Dawson are the children of the said Elbert Dawson. All of them, excepting the said Francis M. Dawson, were minors at the time of their father's admission to citizenship. Zona Patterson is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson are identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894. An examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, in the possession of this Commission, shows that the said Ella L. Spickerman is also identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894.

Martin L. Patterson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on July 13, 1890, to the said Nona Dawson. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. Martin L. Patterson and his three older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his three younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Alice Dawson, nee Alexander, was married to the said William C. Dawson on November 18, 1886. She has lived with her said husband ever since they were married.

Elbert B. Dawson was married on February 16, 1898, to Cora Bright, a non-citizen, and his child Ralph E. Dawson is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Sarah J. Dawson, nee Jones, was married to the above named Elbert Dawson about 1854, and lived with him as his wife until his death in February, 1899, and has not re-married since his death. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship.

Richard W. Dawson was married to Luella Mason, a white woman, on January 24, 1893. His child Ina E. Dawson is the issue of that marriage, and she is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Ella L. Spickerman was married to John J. Spickerman, a white man on September 7, 1897. Her children Hellen J. and William Glenn are the issue of that marriage. They are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

It further appears from the evidence that Francis M. Dawson, son of Elbert Dawson, at the time of his father's admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation was twenty-two or twenty-three years old. There is no evidence that the said Francis M. Dawson has been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 10. 1896 (29 Stats., 321), Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides for the enrollment of,

> "all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents, by reason of their Cherokee blood have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, and who were minors when their parents were so admitted."

The evidence further shows that Zona Patterson, William C. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson, and Ella L. Spickerman since 1883; Alice Dawson since 1886, and Martin L. Patterson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IX. includes the applications of the said Missouri Dawson, and those claiming through her. The said Missouri Dawson at the time of her admission to citizenship was the wife of one John W. Graham, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson, This group embraces cases numbered D 27, D 35, D 836, D 1124, D 1125, D 1126, D 1127 and D 1128.

The evidence shows that John W. Graham was married under a Cherokee Marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on February 12, 1888, to the said Missouri Dawson. He had been formerly married to her in the State of Texas in 1868, and has lived with her since that time. Tempa V. and Robert S. Graham are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. John W. Graham, his wife and two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

ship in the Cherokee Nation was twenty-two or twenty-three years old. There is no evidence that the said Francis M. Dawson has been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides for the enrollment of,

> "all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents, by reason of their Cherokee blood have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities," and who were minors when their parents were so admitted."

The evidence further shows that Zona Patterson, William C. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; Robert L. Dawson, Hubert D. Dawson, Sarah F. Dawson, and Ella L. Spicherman since 1883; Alice Dawson since 1886, and Martin L. Patterson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IX, includes the applications of the said Missouri Dawson, and those claiming through her. The said Missouri Dawson at the time of her admission to citizenship was the wife of one John W. Graham, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson. This group embraces cases numbered, D 23, D 35, D 836, D 1124, D 1125, D 1126, D 1127 and D 1128.

The evidence shows that John W. Graham was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on February 12, 1888, to the said Missouri Dawson. He had been formerly married to her in the State of Texas in 1886, and has lived with her since that time. Tempe W. and Robert S. Graham are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. John W. Graham, his wife and two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Joe N. Graham was married to Mary Bradshaw, a non-citizen on January 6, 1898. William C. Graham is the issue of that marriage, and he is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

John F. Graham was married on February 11, 1900, to Mattie Lawson, a non-citizen, and Edna M. and Robert Lee are the issue of that marriage. Said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Bessie Graham was married on November 2, 1892, to the said James M. Graham. She has lived with him since the date of their marriage, and the six children included in the application of said James M. Graham, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the said marriage. The oldest child Marion is identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894, and the five younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said John W. Graham, his wife Missouri Graham, Gideon Graham, Mathew A. Painter, and his wife Laverna A. Painter, Florence P. Bradshaw, John F. Graham and Joe Willie Neal have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888, and that Joe N. Graham and James M. Graham have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group X. includes the application of the said Ella Dawson and those claiming through her. The said Ella Dawson, at the time of her admission to citizenship, was the wife of Green W. Jackson, but she was admitted to citizenship under the [illegible] name of Dawson. This group embraces cases numbered D 335, D 476, D 508, D 830 and D 847.

The evidence shows that Green W. Jackson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on March 24, 1887 to the said Ella Dawson. He had been previously married to her in Texas prior to her admission to citizenship. From an affidavit made a part of this record it appears that Green W. Jackson died subsequent to the date of this application, and prior to September 1, 1902.

The evidence further shows that Flora Harmon, formerly Jackson, Tashie A. Jackson, William Jackson and Fannie Lenox, formerly Jackson are the children of said Ella Dawson, now Ella Jackson. Flora Harmon, Tashie A. Jackson and Fannie Lenox were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

James H. Harmon was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 24, 1887, to the said Flora Jackson. He has lived with his wife since the date of their marriage, and the four minor children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the said marriage. James H. Harmon and his three elder children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The youngest child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

William C. Lenox was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 1, 1888, to the said Fannie Jackson. He has lived with his wife since the date of their marriage, and the two children Birtie E. and Myrtle Lenox, included in his application, are the issue of the said marriage. William C. Lenox and his two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Lizzie Jackson claims to have been married in 1888 to the said William Jackson, who is now deceased. It appears that William Jackson at the date of his mother's admission to citizenship, was over twenty-one years old. There is no evidence that the said William Jackson was ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). Lizzie Jackson and the five minor children included in her application, and hereinbefore named, are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and they take only such rights as may have been possessed by the said William Jackson. The authority of the Commission herein is defined in Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), heretofore quoted.

The evidence further shows that the said Ella Jackson, the said Flora Harmon and the said Toshie A. Jackson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884, and that William C. Lenox, and his wife Fannie Lenox have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XI, includes the applications of those claiming through Melvina Dawson and embraces case numbered D 839.

The evidence shows that James Lowe is the son of the said Melvina Dawson, and that at the time of her admission to citizenship the said James Lowe was over 21 years old. There is no evidence that the said James Lowe was ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). It further appears that the said James Lowe was married on June 12, 1887, to Mollie Knight, a white woman, and the four minor children included in his application and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. James Lowe and his said children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896 and said children take only the rights which may have been acquired by their father.

The authority of the Commission herein is defined in Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), heretofore quoted.

Group XII, includes the applications of those claiming through the said W. A. Dawson and embraces cases numbered D 405, D 406, D 715, R 12 and R 13.

The evidence shows that Millie T. Dawson was married to the said W. A. Dawson in 1892 and lived with him as his wife in the Cherokee Nation until his death in 1899, and that she has not re-married since his death. Texanna Woolley is the daughter of said W. A. Dawson and his former wife Melissa A. Dawson. Texanna Woolley was a minor at the date of her father's admission to citizenship, and she is identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894. She was married on March 27, 1898, to James Woolley, and her children Irene W. and Wilburn E. are the issue of that marriage. They are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Henry T. Richardson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on July 11, 1886, to one Sellar Dawson, who was the daughter of the said W. A. Dawson by his first wife Melissa A. Sellar Dawson was a minor at the date of her father's admission to citizenship. Henry T. Richardson lived in the Cherokee Nation with his said wife Sellar from the date of their marriage until her death in 1892. On September 22, 1898, Henry T. Richardson married one Kitty Flournoy nee Dawson. The said Kitty Flournoy was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. Of the children herein applied for, Delia F. Richardson is the child of the applicant by his first wife, Sellar. Finis T. Richardson and Jasper C. Richardson are children by his wife Kitty. Edgar, Walter, Alice, Laura, Oscar, Claude and Edna Flournoy are the children of his said wife Kitty by a former husband.

The six older children were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on December 1, 1894, with their mother as the members of her family. The youngest child Edna Flournoy was born in 1896 and was living at the date of this application. Delia F. Richardson is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and Finis T. and Jasper C. Richardson are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Etta Brauer is the daughter of said W. A. Dawson, and was a minor at the date of her father's admission. She was married in 1892 to a non-citizen but such marriage was not in accordance with Cherokee laws. She is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Melissa A. Dawson was married to the said W. A. Dawson in the State of Texas on September 26, 1873. The Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in the case of Melissa A. Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson, decided that Melissa A. Dawson, the applicant herein was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of intermarriage with her said husband, W. A. Dawson. She is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and she has not re-married since her divorce from said W. A. Dawson.

The evidence shows that Texanna Woolley has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; that Etta Brauer and Melissa A. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation, with the exception of temporary absences, since 1864; that Millie T. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1892; that Henry T. Richardson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1886, and that Kitty Richardson, his wife, has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XIII, includes the following applications: Hiram J. Weddle, et al D 521; William D. Douthitt, D 522; Alonzo M. Fishback, D 343; Florence Morgan, et al D 737; John E. Fishback, D 845 and George A. Mabry, et al D 979. The persons embraced in these applications are related to the above named Dawsons. They are not claiming the right to enrollment by virtue of such relationship, but rely upon a separate adjudication of their rights.

The evidence shows that Hiram F. Weddle was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on September 13, 1884, to Lula P. Douthitt, who was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the said "Spears Court" on September 13, 1884. Curtis, Morris O. and Roy Weddle are the issue of the said marriage. Hiram F. Weddle and his said wife are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and their three children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

William D. Douthitt is the brother of said Lula P. Weddle, and was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation with his said sister on September 13, 1884. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Alonzo L. Fishback was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on May 17, 1883, to Lavirna A. Dawson. He had been previously married to the said wife in Texas in 1877, and has lived with her ever since. It appears that Lavirna Fishback was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. William A. and Annie B. Fishback are the issue of the said marriage. Alonzo L. Fishback and his said wife and children are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his wife is also identified on the Cherokee pay roll of 1890.

Florence Morgan, the wife of Elbert L. Morgan, is the daughter of the Kitty Richardson heretofore mentioned and was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on December 1, 1894 with the said Kitty Richardson as a member of her family. Clide and Alice A. Morgan are the children by the said marriage. The said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

John E. Fishback is the son of Laverna Fishback, who was re-admitted to citizenship on December 1, 1894, as heretofore stated. He was a minor at the date of his mother's admission to citizenship and he is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

George A. Mabry was married to one Edna Dawson in the State of Arkansas in 1884. He claims to have been married under a Cherokee marriage license to his said wife in 1880, but he presents no satisfactory proof of such marriage. Edna Dawson was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. Roby and Charley Mabry are her children by her said husband, George A. Mabry. Edna Mabry is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894, and the two children were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship.

The evidence further shows that Alonzo H. Fishback and his wife Laverna A. Fishback have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that Lula P. Weddle, William D. Douthitt, and John E. Fishback have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884, and that Florence Morgan and Edna Mabry have resided in said Nation since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

All birth affidavits for the minor children embraced in this decision, and hereinbefore noted, are made a part of this record.

It is contended by the Cherokee Nation that the applicants herein are not entitled to be enrolled by this Commission because they have never been lawfully admitted or enrolled by the Cherokee authorities, and that the judgment of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship admitting Robert Dawson and his family was obtained by fraud on the part of said Dawson.

In considering the question at issue, it is the opinion of this Commission that it has no power, and that it is not the purpose of this proceeding, to review or to set aside the judgment in the Dawson case, or to determine such questions as were necessarily involved in the issues before the Cherokee Commission, and were passed upon by that Commission. In United States vs. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. Page 61, it is stated, "the doctrine is well settled that the Court will not set aside a judgment because it was founded on perjured testimony or for any matter which was actually presented and considered in the judgment assailed." Only such facts therefore, are considered by this Commission, as were not part of the record in the Robert Dawson case before the Teehee Commission, and which tend to show whether the judgment admitting the Dawsons was a bona fide judgment of the Teehee Commission, or whether such judgment is void because of fraud, and upon this proposition the burden of proof is upon those attacking the judgment.

Briefly stated, the circumstances attending the admission of the Dawsons appear to be as follows:

On September 24, 1881, an application was made to the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship known as the "Teehee Court" for admission to Cherokee citizenship of Robert Dawson and the members of his family above mentioned. The members of that Commission were Thomas Teehee, Alex Wolfe and T. F. Thompson. The first two were full blood Cherokee Indians; they could understand, but could not talk English. One D. W. C. Duncan was the Clerk of the Commission. The Dawson case was continued several times before final decision. J. M. Bryan appears to have been an attorney in the case, and after some delay he notified Francis M. Dawson that the case would be taken up by the Commission at its session in January, 1883, and also informed him that C.H.Taylor would look after Dawson's interests as he, Bryan, would be in Washington. On receipt of this notice Francis M. Dawson went to Fort Gibson, Cherokee Nation, and made arrangements with his uncle Samuel L. Benge to go to Tahlequah and conduct the case. Benge who is a witness herein testifies that he was connected with the Dawson case when it was commenced in 1871; that it was continued several times for want of evidence, and that in January, 1880, in company with T. M. Dawson he went to Tahlequah and while there secured the testimony of Tosh Rogers, a negro, who knew the Dawson's ancestors, and that after he had his evidence the case was submitted to the Commission. He further testifies that the Commission rendered a decision against the Dawsons and that next morning the Commission reopened the case, but not upon motion of the witness, and rendered a judgment admitting the Dawsons to citizenship. He further states that on his way home to Fort Gibson with Dawson he remarked to the latter, "it was a pretty hard blow when they rendered a decision against us," to which Dawson is alleged to have replied, "yes, but Duncan was the man to reach and he reached him with five hundred dollars."

Dawson denies ever having had such a conversation and says that he did not return to Fort Gibson with Benge but went home to Arkansas by a different route.

C. J. Taylor testifies that he was an attorney in the case and was present when the case was decided. He says there were only two Commissioners present, Teehee and Wolfe. He further testifies that D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of the Court asked the witness to let him know when any large citizenship cases came up; that he introduced T. M. Dawson to Duncan on the evening of January 10th, heard part of a conversation between them in which Duncan addressing Dawson said, "there is a hitch in your evidence, if that was straightened out it will be all right." Next morning witness says Dawson told him to call up the case, which he did. That there was no additional evidence introduced and no argument made, and that the case was then decided in favor of the Dawsons. Witness further testifies that Dawson gave him two hundred dollars and said he would send him the balance in a short time, that in the course of ten days he sent him one hundred dollars with directions to pay over half of it to Duncan; that Dawson soon afterwards sent him another hundred dollars with the same instructions to give Duncan half of it.

Taylor denied the matters testified to by Taylor excepting in the matter of paying Taylor money, which he admits in part, but says that the twenty dollars mentioned was sent to Taylor about a year after the decision, and that he instructed Taylor to pay it over to Duncan to pay him for a land claim, and that the other money was in payment of J. M. Bryan's attorney fees which Taylor represented to Dawson he had for collection against him. Taylor's reputation for truth and veracity has been impeached by various disinterested witnesses.

The evidence which may be considered as tending to support the charge of fraud is the testimony of S. H. Denge, C. H. Taylor, Thomas J. Dabeart, W. F. Clinkenbeard, James W. Lewis, C. E. Draught and David Meredith.

S. H. Denge testifies that a judgment adverse to the Dawsons was rendered by the Commission on the evening of one day and without any additional proceedings in the case that judgment was reversed on the morning of the next day.

Even if this were a material fact, there is no other proof that two judgments in the case were ever rendered. The record of the proceedings and judgment in the Commission's docket is all on one page, the entry of the application in 1881 and the first continuance being entered under authority of a former Commission and by a different clerk, and there is no evidence of erasure on that page. It is not an unusual thing for a Court to change its judgment, and this fact, if it is a fact, is not in itself any evidence of fraud.

Thomas B. Dabeart testifies that one James Dawson, a man of forty or fifty years of age, in company with Butler, the Commission's interpreter and Jim Smith, solicitor for the Nation, came to the witness in Tahlequah the evening of January 10, 1883, to borrow some money; that Dawson was vouched for by Butler as a responsible party and that Dawson told the witness that he had to have money that night, that his case was to be submitted the next day if he could get some money, that Smith had agreed to submit the case without evidence, and that witness thereupon let Dawson have ten dollars.

Admitting all this to be true and that the influence of these officials was purchased for the sum of ten dollars, the Commission fails to see how these alleged facts show that the Court was imposed upon or misled. Bribery of officials to use their influence with the Commission would not necessarily vitiate the judgment, but it must appear that the fraud, or corruption reached the members of the Commission and tainted the judgment itself. The case was not submitted without evidence as appears from the record, and it is shown that such evidence was carefully considered by that Commission. Furthermore, the evidence shows that there was no such person then in Tahlequah as the James Dawson described by witness.

Clinkenbeard testifies that he had a talk with Elbert Dawson about 1881; that Dawson told him he had only one witness, Dr. Baker of Arkansas, "an old man 85 or 90 years old who did not know straight up" and that he could give Dr. Baker four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would swear black was white. Witness further testifies that Dawson told him that money was what made the mare go in Texas, and that he had found out that it goes here too.

Assuming that this Commission can go into thequestion of perjury in connection with evidence in that case, the testimony of Clinkenbeard establishes, if anything, only the facts stated, and does not prove that Dr. Baker committed perjury in giving his testimony before the Commission. Further, it is not clear that Dr. Baker was the only witness in the case. Benge stated that Tosh Rogers was a witness, Duncan is under that impression also, and T. F. Thompson, one of the Commissioners, states that he thinks there were three witnesses. The testimony of Dr. Baker, seems, however, to be the only testimony preserved of record. As to whether Doctor Baker offered perjured testimony by Dawson's procurement, it is proper to state that the evidence of W. H. Curtis and A. S. McKennon, witnesses for applicants, show that Doctor Baker was a man of integrity and was not addicted to drinking.

The testimony of James W. Lewis is to the effect that he had a conversation with F. M. Dawson about 1883, in which Dawson had told the witness that it had cost him seven hundred dollars to get his rights. Draught also testifies that he was an applicant for citizenship about 1881 or 1882, and that while his case was pending he had a talk with F. M. Dawson who told him that if he (the witness) ever got in, it would cost him seven hundred dollars, and that Dawson told him he had paid one witness three hundred dollars, and made arrangements with the Court to get the Dawsons in at one hundred dollars a family. David Meredith testifies that he had a talk with old James Dawson in 1888, and that the latter told the witness it cost him twelve hundred dollars to get his case through.

It can hardly be urged that such evidence is sufficient to show that the members of the Teehee Commission were corrupted by the fraudulent use of money. So far as these witnesses have been able to testify the money spent by the Dawsons might have been for proper and legitimate purposes. F. M. Dawson gives a detailed statement of what the case cost him and his brother in a legitimate way. The presumption can not be indulged that such moneys were used for fraudulent purposes and the proof to the contrary must be very clear before this Commission will deny applicants the right to be enrolled upon that ground.

Admitting the truth of all the testimony in this case as to the actual transfer of money by the Dawsons, it appears that Duncan, Butler and Smith were the only beneficiaries of that money. There is no evidence that the members of the Commission received or were offered any of it.

The judgment entered in the Commission's docket shows the signature of the three members of the Commission appended thereto. There is some conflict as to whether Duncan signed Thompson's name, or whether Thompson affixed his own signature. Duncan testified that all three signatures were made by him as Clerk under authority of the Commissioners present, the two full bloods being unable to sign their names. T. F. Thompson testifies that he signed the original transcript of the judgment, which was made on the day of its rendition. The question, however, is not considered to be very material. The signing of judgments by each Commissioner appears to have been a matter of custom only. T. F. Thompson testifies that he remembers the Dawson case and recognizes the judgment therein as the final judgment of the Commission, and that there was no fraud or corruption in the procurement of that judgment by the Dawsons or by any one else so far as he knew.

Much evidence has been introduced by the Cherokee Nation for the purpose of showing that the ancestor, through whom the Dawsons claim, was not a Cherokee, and that other members of the Dawson family, claiming from the same source, have been denied Cherokee citizenship by subsequent Cherokee tribunals, and also by this Commission and by the United States Court. Such evidence, in the opinion of this Commission, is not competent for any purpose in this proceeding. The only question before this Commission is whether there was fraud in the procurement of the Robert Dawson judgment, and not whether the applicants are Cherokee Indians, or whether they ought to have been admitted to citizenship upon the proof submitted. These were questions presented, considered and passed upon by the Teehee Commission. If their decision is a valid and regular judgment, it is binding on this Commission. If, on the contrary, the applicants were never lawfully admitted to citizenship, because the judgment under which they claim is void, for fraud, then the question as to whether they are Cherokees by blood is not material, as this Commission has now no authority to admit them to citizenship.

While it is true, that since 1883, a number of applicants, members of the Dawson family, have been denied admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, no argument derived therefrom is of any force, for it is also true that other members of the same family have been admitted to citizenship, and the action of the Cherokee authorities in admitting them has never been questioned by the Cherokee Nation. Whatever inference, therefore, may be drawn from these facts applies with equal force both for and against the validity of the judgment in question.

The Dawsons have lived in the Cherokee Nation, most of them since 1883; they have exercised the rights of Cherokee citizenship for many years, some of them occupying official positions in the Nation, and no protest seems to have been made against their citizenship until within the last few years. The records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission, show, that since 1883, there have been Commissions on citizenship charged with authority to investigate the judgments of former tribunals alleged to have been secured by fraud, and the Cherokee Legislature had power to order an investigation, and to create a tribunal with authority to set aside a judgment so obtained. No such action appears to have been taken by the Cherokee authorities with reference to the judgment of the Teehee Commission in the Robert Dawson case.

After a careful consideration of all the facts in this case this Commission is of the opinion that the evidence fails to establish that the Dawsons secured their admission to citizenship by fraud or that the judgment of the Teehee Commission as rendered January 11, 1883, was fraudulent as the result of corruption, bribery, or deception upon the part of the Dawsons, or their agents, and that such judgment, and also the judgment of the Spears Commission in 1884, and the Act of the Cherokee National Council of December 1, 1894, which have not been attacked by the Cherokee Nation, being regular on their face, must therefore be accepted by this Commission as the valid judgments of the duly constituted Cherokee authorities.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that,

(Group XIII) Miram F. Weddle and Alonzo M. Fishback, should be enrolled as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the provisions of said Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress, and it is so ordered.

It is further the opinion of this Commission that, for the reasons heretofore stated, the applications for the enrollment of Arizona Allred and William C. Allred, (embraced in D 835); Francis M. Dawson, son of Elbert Dawson, (embraced in D 627); Osie Jackson, Lizzie Jackson, Jessie Jackson, Ray Jackson, and Clyde Jackson, the children of William and Lizzie Jackson, (embraced in D 830); James Lowe, May Lowe, Zelma Lowe, Roberta Lowe and Rosa Lowe, (embraced in D 836), as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that the applications of Lizzie Jackson, widow of William Jackson, (embraced in D 830), and George A. Mabry (embraced in D 979), as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, in accordance with the provisions of the law heretofore quoted, and it is so ordered.

As hereinbefore stated William Pierce (D 409) and Cecil Dawson (D 358) and Green W. Jackson (D 396), died prior to September 1, 1902. It further appears from affidavits, made a part of this record that Liddie and Margaret Graham (D 1128) have died since the date of the application for their enrollment and prior to September 1, 1902.

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of said William Pierce, Cecil Dawson, Green W. Jackson, Liddie Graham and Margaret Graham be, and the same are hereby dismissed.

CHEROKEE ENROLLMENT.

Francis M. Dawson, et al.,

GROUP VIII.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to office report of even date transmitting Group I of the consolidated case of Francis M. Dawson, et al., applicants for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, there is enclosed herewith the record relative to the applicants parties to Group VIII.---

D.435, Group VIII, page 1.

Martin L. Patterson applies for the enrollment of himself as an intermarried citizen, and for the enrollment of his wife, Zona, and their minor children, Sarah A., Martha A., Claude A., Edgar D., Thomas M. and Virgil V. Patterson, as citizens by blood. Virgil V. was born subsequent to the date of his original application and is identified by birth affidavit.

D.604, Group VIII, page 11.

William C. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Alice Dawson, as an intermarried citizens

D.605, Group VIII, page 15.

Robert. L. Dawson applies for enrollment as a citizen by blood.

D.608, Group VIII, page 16.

Albert B. Dawson applied for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ralph B. Dawson, as citizens by blood. The child was born subsequent to the date of his original application, and is identified by birth affidavit.

D.609, Group VIII, page 19.

Sarah J. Dawson applies for the enrollment of herself as an intermarried citizen.

D.617, Group VIII, page 23.

Richard W. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ina B. Dawson, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Luella Dawson, as a citizen by intermarriage. The Commission states that Luella Dawson is differently classed and is not embraced in its decision.

D.626, Group VIII, page 27.

Nila L. Spickerman applied for the enrollment of herself and her minor child, Helen J. Spickerman, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband, John J. Spickerman, as a citizen by intermarriage. She also applies for the enrollment as a citizen by blood of her child, William G. Spickerman, who was born after her original application. This child is identified by a birth affidavit. The Commission states that John J. Spickerman has been differently classed and is not embraced in its decision.

D.627, Group VIII, page 31.

Francis M. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood.

The record in this case shows that Martin L. Patterson, (Group VIII, page 1), was married July 13, 1890, to Zona Patterson nee Dawson, daughter of Elbert Dawson, who was admitted by the Tahlequah Court, January 11, 1883. The marriage was performed in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. Zona Patterson nee Dawson was a minor when her father was admitted. Zona Patterson's name appears on the 1896 census roll, as does the names of Martin L. Patterson, Sarah A., Martha and Claude (A.) Patterson. Edgar D., Thomas M. and Virgil V. Patterson are identified by birth affidavits.

William C. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 11), is a son of Elbert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was a minor when his father was admitted. He was married to Alice Dawson, November 18, 1886. He is identified by the 1894 and 1896 rolls of the Cherokee Nation. From the record it does not seem that the name of his wife is found on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation.

Robert L. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 15), is a son of Elbert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was a minor when his father was admitted.

Elbert B. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 16), is the son of Elbert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was a minor when his father was admitted. February 16, 1898, he was married to Cora Bright, a non-citizen. His name appears on the 1894 roll, but is not on the 1896 roll.

Sarah J. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 19), is the widow of Elbert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1883. The applicant's husband is identified by the 1894 pay-roll of the Cherokee Nation. It does not appear from the record that her name is on any roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Richard W. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 42), is the son of Elbert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was a minor when his father was admitted to citizenship. He was married to Luella Mason, a white woman, January 24, 1898.

Ella L. Spiekerman, (Group VIII, page 27), is the daughter of Elbert Dawson, who was admitted in 1883. She was a minor when her father was admitted to citizenship. Sept. 7, 1897, she was married to John J. Spiekerman, a white man. She is identified by the 1894 roll.

Francis M. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 31), is a son of Elbert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was of age when his father was admitted, and it does not appear that he was admitted to citizenship. From the evidence it does not seem that Francis M. Dawson's name is found on any roll of the Cherokee Nation. He claims to have lived in the Cherokee Nation since 1883. It appears that he and the members of his family were refused enrollment by the Cherokee tribal authorities in 1896.

It is shown that Zona Patterson, William C. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson, have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884. Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson and Ella L. Spiekerman, have resided there since 1883. Alice Dawson has resided in the Nation since 1886 and Martin L. Patterson since 1894.

The Commission in its decision of December 23, 1902, held that all of the parties in this group, except Luella Dawson and J. J. Spiekerman, who are differently classed, and Francis M. Dawson (Group VIII, page 31), were entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation---Martin L. Patterson, Alice Dawson and Sarah J. Dawson, as citizens by intermarriage and the others as citizens by blood.

[illegible]

For the reasons set forth in office report of even date, transmitting Group I of this consolidated case, the approval of the Commission's decision is recommended, except in so far as it relates to Martin L. Patterson, Alice Dawson and Sarah J. Dawson, who apply for enrollment as intermarried citizens. The question submitted to the Court of Claims not having been passed upon by the Court, their applications should not be considered at this time. The right of Francis M. Dawson to enrollment as a citizen by blood will be discussed herein.

August 31, 1903, Harry S. Kimball and W. H. White, attorneys for this city, filed a brief on behalf of applicant Francis M. Dawson, for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. In their letter it is said that a copy of this brief has been forwarded to the attorney for the Cherokee Nation, W. W. Hastings, Esq. Kimball & White in their brief state that Francis M. Dawson is the son of Elbert Dawson, who was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, January 11, 1883, and that he was at that time about 22 years of age. They claim that his father applied for readmission February 24, 1880, and that Francis M. Dawson was at the date of this application less than 21 years of age; that he has resided in the Cherokee Nation from the time of his father's admission, and they take the position that the only reason the Commission gives for refusing his enrollment is that he was more than 21 years of age at the time of his father's admission. The statement is made by them "his name appears upon every roll since his father's admission. He drew his share of the Strip money and has resided nowhere except in said Nation." They claim that under Section 5, of the Amendments to Article 3, of the Constitution, and the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General in the James W. Shirley case of June 11, 1903, Francis M. Dawson is entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

From the record it does not appear that the name of Francis M. Dawson is found on any rolls of the Cherokee Nation. The Commission, in what is understood to be its field decision or field note, says: "He is not identified on any roll since that time," meaning the date of his father's admission. In this decision or note it is also said: "The application for admission is shown by the document cited to be dated January 4, 1881, and giving the applicant the benefit of the opinion that the fact of admission would date from the application, he was a minor at that time.

In the brief of Kimball & White it is alleged that Elbert Dawson applied "for admission February 24, 1880." There seems to be considerable doubt as to the exact date Elbert Dawson made application for admission for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, but from the records it appears the true date is September 24, 1881. By the supplemental testimony it is shown that the application of Elbert Dawson et al., for admission to citizenship was "filed September 24, 1881."

Francis M. Dawson, October 17, 1890, (Group VIII, page 31), testified among other things that he was 39 years of age "on the last day of December last," meaning December 31, 1889. If this be true, and if the correct date of the application of his father, Elbert Dawson, is September 24, 1881, Francis M. Dawson was 20 years 8 months and 23 days old at the date of his father's application. The office believes that the date of admission should be held to relate back to the date of the application. There is nothing in the record which shows that Elbert Dawson, or any of the other applicants of 1881, were asked in 1883 whether any of their children had arrived at the age of majority.

In view of the foregoing, it is respectfully recommended that the decision of the Commission as to Francis M. Dawson be not approved, and that the Commission be directed to enroll him as a citizen of the Cherokee nation by blood, unless there be some reason which does not appear in the record why the same should not be done. There seems to be no question but that he is of Cherokee blood.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,
Commissioner.

March 31, 1904.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

February 25, 1903, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application of Francis M. Dawson et al., for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

In your decision of December 23, 1902, you disposed of the applications in the Dawson case by groups. Group VIII, as disposed of by you, includes the applications of those persons who claim enrollment by virtue of their descent from Elbert Dawson, who was admitted to Cherokee citizenship by decree of the Tahee Court dated January 11, 1883. These applications are designated by you as D.435, D.604, D.605, D.608, D.609, D.617, D.626, and D.627.

It appears that the principal applicants in this group, claiming enrollment by blood, viz: Zona Patterson, formerly Dawson, William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Richard W. Dawson, Ella L. Spickerman, formerly Dawson, and Francis M. Dawson, are the children of the said Elbert Dawson. All of them except the said Francis M. Dawson were minors at the time of their father's admission to citizenship.

The application of Martin L. Patterson, D.435, was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife, Zona Patterson, and his six minor children, Sarah A., Martha A., Claude A., Edgar D., Thomas M., and Virgil V. Patterson, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The said Martin L. Patterson was married July 13, 1890, in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, to the said Zona Patterson, nee Dawson. He has resided in the nation since his marriage, and the six children named above are the issue of said marriage. His name, and the names of his three elder children, are on the Cherokee census roll of 1896. The three younger children are identified by birth affidavits. Zona Patterson, nee Dawson, is also identified on said roll, andhas resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884.

William C. Dawson, D.604, applied for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Alice Dawson, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. He is identified upon the strip payment roll of 1894, and has resided in the nation since 1884. He was married November 18, 1886, to the said Alice Dawson,nee Alexander. She has resided with him since their marriage.

The application of Robert L.Dawson, D.605,was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. He is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894,and has resided in the nation since 1883.

The application of Elbert B. Dawson, D.608, was for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ralph E. Dawson, as Cherokees by blood. Said Elbert B. Dawson is identified upon the strip payment roll of 1894. His son is identified by a birth affidavit. The father has resided in the nation since 1883. On February 16,1898, he married Cora Bright,a non-citizen,who is the mother of said child. It appears,however,that no application was made for her enrollment under this title.

The application of Sarah J. Dawson, D.609, was for the enrollment of herself as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation. In 1854 she married the said Elbert Dawson,and lived with him as his wife until his death in February, 1899. Since then she has not married. She has resided in the nation since 1883.

The application of Richard W. Dawson, D.617, was for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ina E. Dawson, as citizens by blood and for the enrollment of his wife, Luella Dawson, as a citizen of said nation by intermarriage. The latter is differently classified and is not embraced in this decision. Said Richard W. Dawson is identified upon the 1894 strip payment roll, and has resided in the nation since 1884. January 24, 1898, he married Luella Mason. Ina E. Dawson, who is identified by a birth affidavit, is the issue of that marriage.

The application of Ella L. Spickerman, D.626, was for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Helen J. and William G. Spickerman, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband John J. Spickerman, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. His application is differently classified and will not be considered herein. The said Ella L. Spickerman, nee Dawson, is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894, and has resided in the nation since 1883. Said children are identified by birth affidavits.

The application of Francis M. Dawson, D.627, was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. His case is distinguished from that of the other principal applicants who claim by blood, in that he was not a minor at the date of his father's admission to citizenship. Itappears, however, that the petition for the enrollment of his father, Elbert Dawson et al., was filed when he was a minor. The exact date when said petition was filed is uncertain. The Indian Office finds that the date of the petition was September 24, 1881. You find that the petition bears a still earlier date. It is claimed by this applicant and by his attorneys that his name is borne upon various tribal rolls. It does not appear from the record, however, that such is the fact. He states that he has resided in the nation "ever since 1883", and that he drew strip money "at Claremore."

In his report of October 16, 1903, relative to this group, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs calls attention to that portion of the evidence which shows that the applicant was a minor when the petition for the enrollment of his father was filed, and expresses the opinion that the admission of his father (construed as including his minor children living with him) should be considered as taking effect from the date the petition was filed.

In your decision of December 23, 1902, in which you refused to enroll this applicant, you make no reference to this aspect of the case. It is observed, however, from the field notes as they appear in connection with the record in this case, that the examiner was then of the opinion that the date of the father's petition might possibly affect the rights of the applicant.

The attorneys for this applicant and for the Nation have filed briefs. The attorneys for neither, however, have discussed the rights of the applicant from this standpoint.

It is considered that both parties should be furnished with a copy of the Commissioner's letter relating to this group, and be allowed to be heard in reference to the matter.

From a letter addressed to the Assistant Attorney General for this Department, from Kimball & White, attorneys for Francis M. Dawson, Jr., dated February 13, 1904, it appears that under date of January 13, 1904, you wrote said attorneys as follows:

> "You are advised that the 1894 pay roll does not contain the name of such a person as Francis M. Dawson. There does appear upon that roll, however, the name of one Marion Dawson, and it is possible this is the same person."

Although not addressed to the Department, it was considered that your letter should be received as authentic evidence of the matters stated therein. It is believed, in view of the statement contained in said letter and from the testimony of Francis Marion Dawson, referred to above, that an adjudication of his case upon the record as it now stands would be untimely and inadvisable.

In your decision of December 23, 1902, you held that all of the applicants are entitled to enrollment except Francis M. Dawson. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs concurred in your recommendation respecting those applicants claiming by blood, except as to him, and also recommended his enrollment. As to those applicants claiming by intermarriage the Commissioner recommended that no action be taken at present.

The Department concurs in the recommendation of the Commissioner as to all of the applicants, except Francis M. Dawson. The record in his case is herewith returned for further investigation in accordance with the suggestions herein contained.

The attorney for the Cherokee Nation protests against the enrollment of these applicants, claiming that their enrollment was obtained through fraud. In this connection see opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of February 18, 1904, relating to the Dawson case, a copy of which was sent you February 24, 1904.

A copy of Indian Office letter of October 16, 1903, relating to this group, is also inclosed.

Respectfully,

(signed) Thos Ryan

Acting Secretary.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and wife. He is shown to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship in the year 1883. He is identified on the 1894 roll, but he is not identified on the roll of 1896. He testifies himself that objection was made to this enrollment in 1896 on the ground that the original admission of his father was by fraud, and that this ground was set up as an opposition to his enrollment in 1896 by the Cherokee Nation, nd the same objection is made the ground of the protest entered to his enrollment at this time by the Cherokee representative present. He states that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation since his admission and he will be placed upon a doubtful card until such time as satisfactory evidence is presented to the Commission as to the admission of his father in 1883. His wife is shown be satisfactory testimony to have been married to him in 1886. She is not identified on the roll of 1896. It is shown that neither of them were ever married before. She has lived with him ever since her marriage and she will be placed on a doubtful card as an intermarried citizen He being placed thereon as a Cherokee by blood. The final decision of the Commission as to this application will be made known to the applicant at his post office address.

To be filed with C. D. Rae, William P. Boudinot.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I. T., SEPTEMBER 10th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Francis Marion Dawson, wife and children for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner, T. B. Brockinridge, testified as follows:

Q What is your full name? A Francis Marion Dawson.
Q What is your age? A I am fifty eight years old.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Oocona.
Q What District do you live in? A Delaware.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Myself and family.
Q Your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q How many children? A Six.
Q Do you apply for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir; she is a white woman.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Since 1883.
Q Were you admitted by the Cherokee Commission? A Yes, sir.

The applicant presents a duly authenticated certificate of admission to citizenship, showing that on the 11th day of January, 1883, certain persons were admitted by the Commission on citizenship, and among whom appears the name of F. M. Dawson.

Q That is your name is it? A Yes, sir.

This is recognized as satisfactory evidence of the facts stated.

Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since your admission?
A Yes, sir; in Delaware District ever since.
Q Give me the name of your wife? A Katie Dawson.
Q How old is she now? A Forty five.
Q Was she admitted with you? A No, sir.
Q Have you married her according to Cherokee law since your admission? A No, sir.
Q You have not remarried since your admission? A No, sir; it was not necessary.

The applicant presents a duly authenticated marriage license and certificate, showing that he was married to his wife, as stated by him, in 1880, by the Reverend R. W. Goudelock, in Carrol County, Arkansas, the license being issued by the Clerk of that County.

These papers are filed herewith.

Q Your wife was not admitted by the Cherokee Commission, when you were? A No, sir.
Q Or at any other time? A No, sir.
Q By act of the Commission or Council? A No, sir; she was placed on the rolls.
Q On the census rolls? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the names of your children, please? A Lula.
Q How old? A Seventeen.
Q Next child? A Ray.
Q How old? A Fifteen.
Q Next child? A [illegible].
Q How old? A Fourteen.
Q Next child? A [illegible].
Q How old? A [illegible].
Q Next child? A [illegible].
Q How old? A He is eight I believe.

Q Next child? A Laura.
Q How old is that child? A She is four years old.
Q Is that all? A Yes, sir; six of them. I have others, but they are not at home.
Q Are they married? A No, sir.
Q Are they over age? A Yes, sir.

Q Is this Lula or Luly? A Luly.
The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, wife and six Children;
Q Were these children all born since you were admitted into the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

The applicant is shown by the certificate of admission, cited in the testimony, to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship, by the Commission on Citizenship, January 11th, 1896; he is identified on the roll of 1896, but the representative of the Cherokee Nation desires to make inquiry into the methods of that time, and for that reason, the application of the applicant will at present be placed on a "Doubtful Card." He has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since his admission to citizenship. His wife was married to him under United States law, and was married prior to his admission: she has never been remarried according to Cherokee law: She has lived with him ever since his admission to citizenship, and she is identified on the roll of 1896. The application for her enrollment will be placed on a "Doubtful Card".
Their six children, as enumerated in the testimony are identified on the roll of 1896. They are living at this time, all having been born since his admission (Applicant's). These children will be placed with him on a "Doubtful Card". The applicant's marriage to the mother of these children is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith. If any additional papers, adverse are developed in this case, he will be given timely notice thereof.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

BEFORE THE HONORABLE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the enrollment :
of F. M. Dawson and others as :
Cherokee citizens. :

Depositions of sundry persons in behalf of the applicants for enrollment mentioned in the title, taken before me, Lewis T. Martin, a Notary Public in and for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, duly appointed, qualified and acting as such, at the office of C. B. Denison in the Gray-Halsell building in the town of Vinita, Indian Territory, on Thursday the fourth day of October 1900, between the hours of one and a half o'clock and six o'clock in the afternoon of said day, in accordance with the agreement to take testimony, entered into between the applicants and the Cherokee Nation, by their respective attorneys, which agreement is hereto attached.

T. F. Thompson, being produced by the applicants, being first duly sworn to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY C. B. DENISON:

Q State your name, age, residence and occupation?
A T. F. Thompson, 53 years old, I live near Vinita, Cherokee Nation, I. T. I am a farmer.
Q How long have resided in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation as now constituted?
A Yes, sir.
Q Upon what is that citizenship based, blood or otherwise?
A Blood.
Q What, if any official position have you held in the Cherokee Nation, and at what time?
A I was elected to the Cherokee Council in 1870 some odd, I don't remember the exact year, I was also on the Commission Court.
Q Do you remember when that was? A Some time in 1880 or 1881, I think, it may have been earlier.
Q Did that Commission or Court have anything to do with admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q State, if you remember, how many members of that Commission or Court, there were, and who they were besides yourself?
A There were three, Tehee, Wolf and myself, Tehee was President of the Court.
Q Where were the sessions of that body held? A Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation.
Q Did you have a Clerk? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember who that was? A D. W. C. Duncan.
Q Do you know whether the members of that Commission beside yourself, are living or dead? A Yes, sir, they are both dead.
Q Can you recollect how what period of time that Commission lasted?
A About two years I think, two sessions, and there was one session each year.
Q Were the sessions of that body held in Tahlequah, open to the public at all times when it was in session?
A Yes, sir.
Q Were the cases coming before that body heard in open session?
A Yes.
Q Witnesses examined orally? A Yes, sir.

Q Judgments of the Court or Commission pronounced in open session?
A In case of decisions I think they sometimes had secret sessions, yes, the judgments of the Commission were pronounced openly.
Q What you intended to convey by you answer to the former question was that after hearing the proof the Commission or Court deliberated in secret session upon the testimony taken before reaching a decision or announcing it? A After hearing all the testimony we went into secret session.
Q I will present you with a paper which the Notary will mark exhibit "A" and a copy of which he will attach to your deposition, and will ask you if with the exception of the certificate of record by M. L. Bragdon, Clerk, and John L. Adair Asst. Ex. Secretary, you recognize it as a paper you have ever seen before?
A I recognize the signature to it, but don't remember the instrument.
Q Which signature on that paper do you recognize? A My own.
Q That signature is in your own handwriting? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether Thomas Tehee, president of the Commission could write in English or not? A No, I don't think he could.
Q How as to Alexander Wolfe, a member of the Commission?
A I don't think he could write either, I don't think either of them ever wrote except by touching the pen.
Q Were you, and are you familiar with the handwriting of D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of that Commission?
A Tolerably well, but it has been a long time since I saw any of it.
Q Will you look at the paper again and say whether you recognize his signature attached thereto?
A Yes, that is his signature to the best of my knowledge.
Q Do you preserve any personal recollection of the application before that Commission of F. H. Dawson and other members of the Dawson family, to be admitted as citizens of the Cherokee Nation by that Commission?
A I remember F. H. Dawson and his brother, that is about the only ones I remember.
Q The question was not as to the personal recollection of the individuals, but as to the claim being presented by the Dawsons for admission?
A Yes, there was such a claim before the Commission.
Q Can you state as to the citizenship of Thomas Tehee, whether he was a citizen of the Nation by blood or not?
A Yes, sir, he was always recognized as such, full blood besides.
Q What is your knowledge of Alexander Wolfe?
A About the same, he was also a full blood and recognized as a Cherokee.
Q Judge Thompson, if you possessed or had, or have now any knowledge of any corruption or bribery of the court or Commission, or any member of it by F. H. Dawson or any of the Dawson family or anybody connected with the presentation of their claim for citizenship, state it fully?
A None whatever as far as I was concerned, and I don't think there was by the balance of the Court.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY W. T. HUTCHINGS:

Q Do you mean to say Mr. Thompson that your name attached to the certificate shown you is in your handwriting?
A Yes, sir.
Q Then Mr. Duncan certified that this is a transcript of the decision in the case, he is mistaken, that is the original?
A No, I don't know, that may be the original, if that is not the original I did not sign it, if it is the original I signed it.
Q You state that the witnesses were examined orally before the Court, don't you know that in almost every case you took ex parte affidavits of witnesses when those witnesses were not present?

A I think we ruled exparte evidence out, as well as I remember.
Q Did you have any stenographer or anybody to copy the evidence?
Mr. Duncan did all of the copying.
Q Was the evidence copied and preserved?
A Yes, sir, I think it was.
Q What was done with that evidence, where was any of it ever put?
A I suppose it is at Tahlequah in the office of the Treasurer or Secretary.
Q When you went into secret session did you have Mr. Duncan read that evidence to you?
A Yes, sir, we went over the evidence thoroughly.
Q Did you allow the applicants or their attorneys admission to any of your secret sessions?
No, sir.
Q When you got ready to render your decisions did you then send for the applicants or their attorneys?
A No, sir.
Q And you rendered them in secret also, did you? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any recollection who testified in the Dawson case, as to their claim? A No, sir, I have not.
Q Have you any recollection as to who they claimed their Cherokee ancestors were? A Yes, sir, they claimed the Rogers.
Q Did they claim relationship with any of the present families of Rogers residing in the Cherokee Nation?

The applicant objects to this question as tending to elicit testimony wholly incompetent and irrelevant to the issue, and not cross-examination of this witness.

A I don't know that they did, particularly.
Q How could your court determine when they claimed descent through some Rogers family, that that family was of Cherokee blood?

The applicant objects to the question upon the same grounds as their objection to the previous question.

A By the evidence they produced.
Q Didn't you make them prove that that family was well known at one time to be connected with the Cherokee Nation, and were citizens thereof? A Yes.
Q Who was the attorney for the Dawsons? A Old man Houston Benge.
Q Could either Tehee or Wolfe speak English? A They could understand, but they never spoke English, they had an interpreter.
Q Did you ever talk to either of them as to whether they got anything for decidingthis case? A No, sir.
Q How long were you considering the case altogether?
A I could not say as to that, I think we were on it two or three weeks anyhow, I could not say positively now, they were a long time getting in testimony.
Q There were only two or three witnesses examined all told, were there not?
A I think so, three I think, they had quite a lot of affidavits, but we did not consider them.
Q Well the Court was a good while arriving at its conclusion after the evidence was closed?
A Yes, quite a good while, I don't remember the exact time.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION:

Q Do you remember who the interpreter the commission had during the hearing of the Dawson case.
A His name was Reese, I forget his given name.

Q Do you know whether he is living or dead?
A I don't know, he seemed to be in bad health at the time we had the case up, I think they are all dead but me and Mr. Duncan.
Q What was he, a Cherokee by blood?
A He was considered a Cherokee by blood.
Q Do you know where he lived at that time?
A No, sir, he lived in the South part of the Nation though, I think in Sequoyah.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY C. B. DENISON:

Q Please state your name, age, residence and occupation?
A My name is D. F. C. Duncan, my age is 70 years, my residence is Vinita, Indian Territory, my occupation is a farmer.
Q How long has that been your place of residence? A Since 1874.
Q Are you a member of the Cherokee Nation as it is now constituted?
A Yes, sir.
Q Upon what is your citizenship based, a Cherokee by blood?
A Yes, a Cherokee by blood.
Q In January 1883, did you hold any official position in the Cherokee Nation, if so, what was it?
A About that time I held the position of Clerk of the Citizenship Court or Commission.
Q If you remember the names of themembers of that Commission or Court, please give them?
A The President of the Commission was Tehee I believe, and a member by the name of Wolfe whose first name I don't recollect, and Mr. Thompson here.
Q T. F. Thompson?
A Yes.
Q Do you know whether those three members of that Commission were recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and whether their citizenship was based upon blood or not?
A They were supposed to be citizens of the Cherokee Nation and their citizenship was based upon their blood.
Q Will you please look at the paper now handed you which the Notary has marked exhibit "A" to the deposition of Mr. T. F. Thompson, and a copy of which he will attach to Mr. Thompson's depositions, and state whether with the exception of the certificate of M. L. Dragdon, Clerk, and of John L. Adair Asst. Ex. Secretary, you recognize the paper as one you have ever seen before?
A Yes, I think I have seen this before.
Q When, and where, if you remember, did you first see that paper?
A This is a paper I drew up at the time I was acting as clerk of the said Citizenship Court.
Q Looking at its date, was it drawn at you at the time it bears date?
A To the best of my recollection it was drawn at the date specified.
Q Do you recognize the signature to the certificate attached to that paper?
A Yes, that is my signature.
Q State if you know, in whose handwriting the body of the paper is?
A It is in my handwriting.
Q And at that time you were Clerk of that Commission? A Yes.
Q Will you please look at the signatures of the members of the Commission as they appear on that paper, and state if you can, by whom they were written?
A I think the first two in my handwriting, the last I recognize that as T. F. Thompson's.
Q Explain please, how you came to write the signatures of Thomas Tehee and Alex Wolfe to that paper?
A Thomas Tehee and Alex Wolfe were full bloods and could not write, and in their presence, and at their request I wrote their signatures.

Q Was that the usual manner of certifying to the action of the Commission to applicants as to the decision of their application for citizenship, where admitted?
A In all instances where it was necessary for the Court to sign a paper of any kind it was adopted by that Court for the Clerk to sign Tehee's and Wolf's names and T. F. Thompson to sign his own name.
Q You didn't catch exactly my idea, but perhaps that answered it, what I intended to call you attention to, was whether when applicants had been admitted to citizenship a paper of this kind now shown you, signed by the judges as you have explained, and certified by you as a transcript of the proceedings was issued?
A My recollection is that a transcript of the judgment was issued to the applicant when they were admitted at their request, the judgment was entered upon the record when they were admitted and signed by the judges, and whenever the transcript was delivered to the applicants I think it was signed by the judges.
Q If you had any knowledge at the time the application of the Dawson family, F. M. and others whose names are mentioned in that paper, was pending before that Commission, or before or after, of any corruption or bribery, or attempted corruption or bribery of the Court or any of its officers, by F. M. Dawson, or any person connected in any manner with the claim of the Dawsons to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, state it fully?
A I never heard a thing of the kind, I know nothing of the kind, all that I have ever heard about a question of that kind is what has originated recently, since the enrollment business has been inaugurated.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY W. T. HUTCHINGS:

Q If as you certify, this paper was a transcript of the record, why did you have the judges sign it?
A I know no reason further than that was the practice at that time, the members of the Court being present I presume it was thought it would be as good or better than the signature of the Clerk.
Q Examine that signature of Mr. Thompson, examine the first T in his name and the T in Tehee's name and see if it is not all your own handwriting?
A No, I would not call that mine, there is a resemblance between the letters but I am satisfied it is a mere fortuity, accidant.
Q How was the evidence taken in those cases?
A It was taken by the witness being present and detailing his knowledge of the case, I wrote it down sentence by sentence as it was delivered.

Q Do you know whether that evidence is in existance or not?
A I do not, the last I saw of it was when I turned the records over to the Executive office at Tahlequah, and I have not seen it since.
Q You say you never heard any talk about this being an improper case until very recently?
A Well, that would depend upon what you mean by recently, I don't think I ever heard of it prior to three years ago, I can safely say that did not.

Q Do you remember through what ancestor they claimed their right to citizenship here?

Objected to by applicants because the question tends to elicit testimony which is wholly incompetent and irrelevant, and because it is not proper cross-examination.

A They claimed their right of citizenship through a man by the name of Rogers, I don't recollect his first name.
Q Do you know how many Rogers families there are who have citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?
A I do.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., March 17, 1902.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of FRANCIS M. DAWSON, ET AL., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

The case having been set for final hearing March. 17, 1902, the following proceedings were had:

APPEARANCES:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of counsel for applicants;
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Hutchings: Comes now the Nation on the calling of this case and announces that it is ready for trial, provided permission is given to hereafter examine before the Commission, either at this place or Fort Gibson, the witness S. H. Benge, who has been regularly summoned to attend at this day and time but who is too sick to travel at this time and probably will be for some time to come. As evidence of a good faith of the Nation we hereby present an affidavit of the facts sought to be proven by the said Benge. If the applicant's counsel are willing to concede that the witness if present would testify to the facts herein set forth, the Nation is ready to proceed to trial without reservation of any kind. If they are not it desires to reserve this privilege of hereafter, either tomorrow or otherwise, this case being set for to-day and tomorrow, of examining before the Commission, or its authorized officer, this witness as above set forth.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the introduction of the paper presented and do not admit that the witness, Samuel H. Benge if present would testify to the facts therein stated. They consent and desire that the testimony of said Benge be taken before the Commission at its office in Muskogee but not elsewhere, and protest against it being taken at any other place, with the understanding, however, that when taken we have opportunity to introduce any evidence we may desire in rebuttal.

Mr. Hutchings:
The Nation will pay all the expenses of the opposing Counsel, their client and Commission officers in taking the deposition at Fort Gibson.

Commissioner Breckinridge: The allegations of this witness are material in their character and are quite tangent. The Commission of its own volition would acquire information of that character if it knew of its existance anywhere. While the functions of the Commission, as well known are in many respects judicial, yet it is bodied with somewhat complex powers, such as Congress creates from time to time to do business of certain character, and it is ordered to make a correct roll, which is a duty largely independent of hearing simply what is brought before them; it must be the architect and constructor of that roll and if evidence is not brought before [illegible] Commission it must go out and [illegible] it, to be uniform on [illegible] construction of the law. The Commission, therefore, desires this information independent of any counsel on either side both with respect to the applicant and to the Nation, and if this witness is

is not able to come one of the Commissioners will go to Fort Gibson and to his bed-side, or send a Proper official, if necessary to take his testimony. The only matter to consider, therefore, is one of convenience with respect to getting this testimony. Now, I understand that this witness is an extreme sufferer from Bright's Disease he is an old man and he may never be able to get out of the house, and it may be an injustice to him to subject him to a trip here, and therefore it seems to me better that counsel for plaintiff submit to a form of taking a deposition or else accompany an official of this Commission over to Fort Gibson and let his testimony be taken there.

After consultation with the attorneys upon the two sides it is found to be agreeable that the parties start to Fort Gibson tomorrow morning at half past eight o'clock, and it is agreed then and directed with an official of the Commission with a stenographer leave from the office of the Corrmission for Fort Gibson at 8:30 to-morrow morning.

FRANCIS M. DAWSON, the applicant, re-called for additional cross-examination on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q What is your name? A Francis M. Dawson.
Q Where do you reside? A In Afton.
Q You have been examined in this case heretofore, have you?
A I don't know which case it is.
Q In your own case? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you the one that is commonly called Bud Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q You made the original application in the Dawson family for admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, didn't you? No, sir; my brother.
Q What was his name? A A. E. Dawson.
Q You and Robert Dawson and Elbert Dawson and others applied September 24, '81, about that time? A Yes, sir.
Q And you were admitted about the 11th of January '83? A Yes, sir.
Q There were other members of your family that applied and were admitted after that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you or not remember the evidence offered in theirs to substantiate their cases was the relationship between yourself and Robert and others and the evidence of your admission by the Teh[illegible] Court. In all the subsequent admissions I mean the only evidence offered was the fact that you and your brothers had been admitted before and that they were kin to you; that was the only evidence offered in any subsequent cases, wasn't it; so far as you know?
A That is afterwards?
Q Yes, afterwards? A I think there was some other evidence introduced.
Q Don't you know that there was never any evidence offered in any other case except evidence of Dr. Baker of Arkansas? A Yes, sir.
Q Who else? A Oliver Miller.
Q Who was Oliver Miller; the records in this case have been somewhat destroyed and mutilated? A Oliver Miller lived in Arkansas.
Q What was he, who was he? A He is no kin to us at all.
Q Well, what station in life did he occupy; was he a farmer?
A Yes, sir, farmer.
Q Were you present when he testified? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you present when Dr. Baker testified? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you a fair recollection of the testimony of those two men?
A No, not at all.
Q You don't read do you, Mr. Dawson? A No, sir, I dont read nor write; I can barely write my name.
Q Do you think you would remember the testimony of Dr. Baker if your mind was refreshed on it? A Part of it I think.
Q Were you present when you were admitted? A I was not in the room.
Q You were in Tahlequah at the time? A I was in the town of Tahlequah at the time.
Q I will read this paer to you and desire for you to say whether or not it was the testimony of Dr. Baker in your case:
(Affidavit of Dr. Arthur Baker read to witness, and asked to be copied in the record later.)
Q Is that the correct transcript of the testimony? A It has been so long ago, I could not say; a part of it is, I could not remember it all.
Q Does that state the facts as to the family history correctly so far as you know about it? A So far as I know.
Q Now, you were a son of what Dawson? A Robert Dawson.
Q How many children did Robert Dawson have, and give me their names?
A Elbert Dawson, the oldest; Lila, Jesper, Francis Marion-
Q That is yourself? A Yes, sir; Elizabeth Dawson, Josephine Dawson, John Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson, James Dawson, Edna Dawson, Mollie Dawson, Wilburn Dawson.
Q Thirteen? (No response.)
Q Now, Rober Dawson's father was whom? A Sam Dawson.
Q Who was Sam Dawson's wife, your grandmother? A I have been told.
Q By family history is all you know? A She was called Polly Dawson.
Q Who was Anna Pruitt? A I don't know.
Q Never heard of anybody in the family by the name of Anna Pruitt? A No, sir, that was away back in the old country; I have heard talk about it, old Dr. Baker talked about it.
Q Your grand-mother's name was Polly Dawson? A Yes, sir; I don't remember seeing her but once, she died when I was small, died in Texas.
Q Pollie Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q And she was known to be Pollie Rogers, her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q Daughter of Captain John Rogers? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, she died in Texas what time? A I don't remember.
Q Can't you guess at it? A Oh, I could guess.
Q Give your best recollection? A About '58 or '59, or no, '46 or '49; I don't say positive, just guessing at it.
Q How old a boy were you then? A I was born in '42.
Q Have you any distinct recollection of her? A No, sir.
Q Have you any recollection of all the children of Sam and Pollie Dawson; that is, your father, uncles and Aunts? I didn't see all of them.
Q Do you know by family history the names of all of them? A Yes, sir.
Q Will you give them to me?
A Betsy Ann Dawson, I believe her name was.
Q Did she marry a Petty? A Yes, sir; the next is Robert Dawson.
Q Your father? A Yes, sir.
Q Next one? A I think the next was James Dawson, and I think the next one was a girl, Edna Dawson.
Q Did he have two daughters? A Yes, sir.
Q Well sir? A The next one was Joe Dawson: I never saw him; Riley Dawson.

Q That is Samuel R. Dawson, Riley Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Any other one? A That is all I know anything about.
Q Did he have any child by the name of John? A Yes, Jack.
Q Didn't you get Jack misplaced with Joe? A No, it was Joe; I have heard my father speak of him.
Q Then they have seven children? A I never saw them all.
Q How many of them did you ever see? A I saw uncle Riley Dawson and James Dawson and Jack Dawson and Betsy Ann Petty; I don't think I saw but one of Pa's sisters and brother, they went to Mississippi I think.
Q Do you know what your family history says that the mother of your grandmother, Pollie Rogers' name was? A We have no history.
Q Well, as it was brought down to you; did you ever hear anybody say what your great grandmother's name was? A No, I don't remember.
Q What is that other man, Oliver Millerthat testified in your case? A He testified in James Dawson's case; he never testified in my father's case.
Q Well, didn't anybody testify in your case but Dr. Baker?
A Yes, sir, several other witnesses.
Q Who were they? A I don't remember; my mother got them witnesses around Tahlequah, old people.
Q Were you present? A No, sir.
Q You were only present when Mr. Baker testified? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, do you find any mistakes in Dr. Baker's statement there? A I could not say all of them was correct or not, part of it is correct.
Q What part is correct? A Why about knowing the family over there.
Q Who is Buck Dawson? A My brother.
Q What is his name? A We always called him Buck, it is Elbert, E. Dawson.
Q Who went with you the first time you went up to make application for citizenship do you remember? A With my brother.
Q The first time? A I met my brother in Texas.
Q Which one? A E. Dawson.
Q That is Elbert or Buck? A Yes, sir.
Q You were living in Arkansas? A Yes, sir.
Q And he was living in Texas? A Yes, sir, and another one of little brothers, Dr. Dawson now:
Q Dr. Dawson now? A Yes, sir.
Q What is his name? A James.
Q And you three went there? A Yes, sir.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants by their counsel object to all the statement of the witness relating to the testimony introduced before the Cherokee Citizenship Commission, and the history of the family as detailed by him, because the same is incompetent and irrelevant, and cannot be used for the purpose of impeaching the integrity of the judgment of said Commission, or either of the Commissioners in admitting members of the Dawson family.

Commission: The objection of the Attorney for the applicants to the testimony above will be noted. The same will be filed and noted for what it is worth.

(Attorney for applicants waives examination.)

C. H. TAYLOR, being, duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A C. H. Taylor.
Q Where do you reside, Mr. Taylor? A Near Coffeyville.
Q Were you an attorney before various citizenship Courts along in April to '8' in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you attorney for F. M. Dawson commonly known as Bud Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you present at the taking of testimony in that case? A No, sir; I wasn't present.
Q Do you know who composed the court that decided the case at that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Who were they? A Tom Tehee and Alex Wolfe and Toby Thompson.
Q Do you know whether or not they were all there when the case was decided? A No, sir, there were only two of them present.
Q Which two? A Tehee and Wolfe.
Q Who was the Clerk of the Court at that time? A Mr. Duncan, D. W. C. Duncan.
Q Do you know that witnesses were used in the case of Bud Dawson? A No, sir; now I was the attorney in the case and the evidence had already been filed before the Court.
Q When were you made attorney? A I was only called in as an attorney at the— Well, Mr. Duncan came down there, and Mr. Bryant had the case and several other attorneys had the case and he employed me.
Q Did you read the evidence in this case? A No, sir.
Q Did you deliver any money? A Now, I was the attorney in the case and I don't think it would be right for me to make any statement.
Q Now, you have claimed your privilege, I ask that you answer the question? Did Dawson ever send you any money with the direction to pay it to either member of the Court or the Clerk of the Court, D. W. C. Duncan, and if so state the amount? A I had a heap of trouble over this matter.—

Commission: Just answer the question, Mr. Taylor.

A Being the attorney I don't believe it is right for me to answer that question.

Commission: Do you refuse to answer? A Yes, sir.

Q Did the matter to which you object to testifying occur prior to the rendition of the decision admitting to citizenship or afterwards? (No response)

COMMISSIONER BRECKINRIDGE:

Q Do you desire to reply to the last question? A I don't think it is right; I was attorney in the case.
Q Mr. Taylor, do you object to answering that question? A Yes, sir.
Q You refuse to answer that question, do you? A I had rather not answer it.

Q Either answer it or say you won't answer it? A I had rather not answer it.
Q Mr. Taylor, you have answered a number of questions down to this point, but it is at this point that you prefer to plead your privileges, as an attorney, do you? A Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The power in regard to these matters is lodged in the United States. The Court is clothed with special power with reference to matters with arise through this Commission. Of course the Commission desires and the Government needs for the sake of a correct roll the fullest information possible, but it is subject to the limitation of law, and it is not for this Commission to decide of the law in a matter of this character with any authority as I understand it at this time, but to report the matter to the United States Court and let the Court pass judgment.

Under Section 21 of the Curtis law as it is commonly called Act of June 28,1898, the members of the Commission shall in performing all duties required of them by law, have authority to administer oaths, examine witnesses and send for papers and persons, and the court is clothed with authority to enforce obedience. The law having enumerated certain powers goes on to say so far as all others are concerned to enable said Commission to make rolls as therein required, and to punish anyone who may in any manner or by any means obstruct said work. Now, the Commission will report the facts to the United States Court and let the Court decide whether or not you are within your lawful privilege. It seems that you refuse to answer questions, or at least one question, which tends to establish as to whether or not you are claiming what what is commonly considered a matter of privilege--according to an authority referred to by an attorney, but the enforcement of an answer seems clearly to be a matter for the Court to deal with.

Q Now, Mr. Taylor, in regard to the last question asked you by Mr. Hutchings, one of the Counsel for the Cherokee Nation, I direct that you make answer, and if you refuse I shall report the matter to the United States Court: do you refuse? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, you have read to you, Mr. Taylor, the first of the two questions propounded to you by Mr. Hutchings, and which you declined at the time to make answer; viz; as to whether Mr. Dawson sent you money to pay to the Court or to any officials of the Court, it seems to come to the question as to whether there was any collusion between you and Mr. Dawson and any member of the Court; now, I understand that you refuse to answer that question upon the grounds that you were Mr. Dawson's attorney? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, I require that you answer that question, do you refuse?
A Yes, sir.
Q I shall also report that refusal to the United States Court as it seems to come under the provision of law, relating to conspiracy between you and Mr. Dawson which apparently considered a privilege matter, and you base your refusal now, not upon the ground that you are incriminating yourself, but that you were counsel for Mr. Dawson. I will report the matter to the Court and you will be informed at the time of any proceedings in the matter I caution you not to talk with Mr. Dawson or may of the applicants in this case.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants do not object and have not objected to the witness answering on account of his privilege as an attorney or for any other cause whatever, they only want to object to the incompetence and irrelevancy of the testimony, with the privilege of cross-examining upon any testimony given by the witness.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE:
Q You still refuse having the consent of the attorneys in the case to make answer? A I will just ask your Honor to let the matter go over until morning.

Commissioner Breckinridge: It will rest until in the morning at its present status; it is after business hours now.

As for the objection made by Captain McKennon, Counsel for the applicant, it will be taken into consideration, but will not be passed at the present.
(The Commission adjourns until 1:30 P. M. to-day or afternoon, March 13, 1903.)

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of FRANCIS M. DAWSON ET AL., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of Counsel for applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

SAMUEL H. BENGE, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Samuel H. Benge.
Q Where do you reside? A Fort Gibson.
Q How old are you? A I am 70 years old, going in 71.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; Cherokee by blood.
Q State what official position you have held in the Cherokee Nation and what your general connection with the Nation officially in the last 40 years? A Well, I had several; I have been Sheriff, Councilman, Senator, Delegate to Washington; had a hand in making the treaty of 1866, I am the only one living that signed that treaty; President of the National Council of different tribes of Indians.
Q Were you acquainted with F. M. Dawson, commonly called Frid Dawson? A Yes, sir; I knew him.
Q State you connection with and what you know about his citizenship case before what is known as the Thomas Tehee Citizenship Court? A Mr. Dawson come down, I was living down below here, he come and employed me to tend to his case and we went to Tahlequah, I believe if I ain't mistaken in 1881 and filed his case there; we went several times and continued his case on for the want of evidence, and finally while we was up there we run across one old darkey by the name of Tosh Rogers; we got his testimony and after we got that testimony we concluded that it was sufficient to go into the trial with. Tosh lived here at Fort Gibson, he was a horse trainer down here and stayed here; he claimed that he knew the Rogers and belonged to one of them and after that we thought we had sufficient evidence we submitted our case to the Court for trial, and the Court went to work and rendered a decision against Mr. Dawson.
I told Mr. Dawson right there that "our cake is dough", just made that remark, and he just made the remark "never mind", and next morning they taken up his case again and they rendered a decision in his favor. I filed no motion nor any evidence at all whatever; I give the case up right there and the decision was then given in his favor, and on our way back from Tahlequah, why we got to talking about the case and I told him: "it was a pretty hard blow when they rendered that decision against us." He said: "yes, but Duncan was the man to reach", but he reached him with five hundred dollars.
Q What position did Duncan occupy? A He was Clerk of the Court.
Q Duncan an educated man or—? Yes, sir; he was an educated man.
Q Who were the members of the Court? A Tom Tehee, Alex Wolfe and Tom Thompson.
Q How many of these could speak English at all? A One.
Q Which one? A Thompson.
Q Who was the Attorney that represented the Nation in those cases? A Wm Sanders.

Q What was his given name? A Wilson Sanders; was it Wilson Sanders?
A Wilson Sanders.
Q Was he an educated man, or could speak English well? A No, sir.
Q Did Mr. Dawson say anything about the matters having cost him a good deal of money? A He said it had cost him a right smart.
Q Was any remark made on the way back about the opening up of the case, and if so, what? A He asked me if I thought the case was ever investigated eventially and I told him I didn't know.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Were you ever a witness in the Dawson case, Judge, in any of those investigations that have been made since that time? A I don't know that you might call it a witness; that young man came to me once at Tahlequah, and asked me to help him up there that the case was going against him, him and his mother and all was about knocked out and I interceded and done what I could there before the committee. I was not a witness but that is what I don't for him.
Q That was Mr. Graham, wasn't it? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you had conversations with Mr. Grahan since that time about it? A Well, I might, I don't recollect, I might have had conversations with him.
Q Well, after the Dawes Commission began taking a census of the Cherokees and when they were about Sallisaw down here, did you have a conversation with him here in Fort Gibson about the matter?
A Now, I just can't tell you; I have seen him on several occasions, but the conversations we might have had I can't state.
Q To refresh your memory I will ask you if he did not tell you that they were making a fight on the Dawson family and he wanted to know of you whether that judgment in favor of Robert Dawson's family was fairly rendered, and did you not then tell him that it was all right, that it was fairly obtained? A Not as I recollect of; all he was; that is as I have stated he talked to me in regard to his mother, himself and probably his brothers and sisters, I don't recollect how many there were, but he told me they were rejected, that is just the words he used.
Q When? A It has been sometime ago.
Q Here in Fort Gibson? A Well, that is I saw him here in Fort Gibson, and then I saw him in Tahlequah.
Q Well, did he here in Fort Gibson ask you particularly about the Robert Dawson judgment, as to whether it was fairly obtained or not?
A No, sir; he was basing his claim on the Dawson case, that is the way he—
Q That is the principal Dawson family? A Yes.
Q When was this other written statement here made, when was this made by you? (referring to affidavit heretofore referred to.)
A Yesterday I reckon.
Q Who came to take this? A Mr. Starr.
Q Who else was present when this was taken? A No, sir.
Q How had you told about this matter, Judge? A No one as I know of.
Q Do you know how it was that they knew that you knew this?
A No, sir.
Q You never made any statement? A Never made any statement that I recollect of except I might have talked with Scales, he and him talked about these cases a good many times; if I ever made a statement it was to Joe Ab Scales.
Q How did Mr. Starr know? A I could not tell you how Mr. Starr knew.

Q He came alone here as a Notary Public? A He came alone here as a Notary Public. All he said when he come, he says 'we understand that you know something in regard to these cases', I said ' what case,' and he went to work and named Shoemake case and Dawson case.
Q And thereupon you made this tatement? A He said he wanted to qualify me.
Q Are you certain Judge that after the rendition of tat judgment Mr. Dawson came back here to Fort Gibson with you?
A Yes, sir; we was together.
Q Let me ask you if it was not a very cold day when he came here and he went over ahead of you and you went over to Tahlequah the next day or two after he left? A My recollection was he and I went together.
Q And returned here together? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he not leave you there and go back direct to Arkansas?
A No, sir, we came here together. If my memory serves me right, I might be mistaken but then I don't believe I am, he came from Webbers Falls up here to my house, that is according to his statement.
Q What amount of fee did they pay you? A I don't know as that is in connection with the case whatever the money they paid me.
Q How didthey pay you? A Paid me the money.
Q Who paid it to you? A Dawson there and that fealow, young fellow paid me some.
Q Mr. Grahar? A Yes.
Q At the same time? A Oh, no, he wanted me to intercede for him at Tahlequah and paid me to do something for him which I did.
Q I will ask you if Mr. F. M. Dawson here did not obtain two copies of the judgment one of which you sent in a letter in which you wrote to his brother living in Texas and that brother in Texas, the one they called Buck, didn't send you $50 that they paid you? A No, if I ever got a letter of Buck whatever you might call him, I don't recollect it and if I ever got a nickel from him I don't recollect it. Old man paid me what money I got from it. I don't know nothing about his brothers; he told me he had an uncle living over i Arkansas, but not living down in Texas, I don't know about it.
Q Where did he pay you the money? A Paid it here at home.
Q Before you went out? A He paid me fifty dollars before we went up and when we went up yonder he paid me fifty dollars more; if you want to know what I got, I got one hundredn dollars.
Q You were acting as his attorney in the case? A Yes, sir.
Q How many judges were there present when the judgment was rendered?
A In his case?
Q Yes, sir. A Well, according to my recollect there was all there, but if they were not all there, Tom Thompson was sick. Taher and Wolfe.
Q Don't you remember that they were all present? A No, I think they were present though.
Q Who else was present at the ime? A Oh, I could not tell you, there were several people in the house; could not tell you at all.
Q Were there several in the house the evening before the judgment was rendered against them as you say? A Yes, there were several in the house.
Q And several in the house when the judgment was rendered the next day? A I don't know how many there was.
Q Do you remember the names of any of them? A Why not exactly, mostly full bloods.
Q How long didyou remain out at Tahlequah on that trip?
A I guess I was there about three days.

Q Tending to this case alone, or did you have other cases? A No, sir.
Q Do you know of your own knowledge that the judges received any money (this question asked at the instance of Mr. Graham present) A I don't know whether the judges received nay or not.

I, J. O. Rosson, do hereby certify upon my official oath as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that I correctly recorded the testimony had this day in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) J. O. Rosson.

March 18, 1902. Commission convened pursuant to adjournment.

Appearances;
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of counsel for applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

C. H. TAYLOR takes the stand and continues his testimony.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Mr. Taylor, you said you would consider the matter yesterday and let us know whether you would answer those questions today: have you decided what you would do about the matter? A Well, it is like this, of course I don't want to be held as in contempt of the Court.
Q You would be held in contempt and the other Court would make you answer? A That being he case of course I would make a statement.
Q Are you acquainted with L. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of what is known as the Tehee Citizenship Commission Court? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you ever have any conversation with him about letting him know of the different character of cases that would come up before the Court that you knew of, whether they were good ones or bad ones? A No, the only thi g that ever come up in that respect; he asked me if whatever large cases that would come up befor the Court to let him know.
Q Did you have any talk with him about the Dawson case during the progress of its trial or before and ever introduced Mr. F. M. Dawson to him, or carry him to him? A I spoke to him when Mr. Dawson came to Tahlequah to see about his case, and he said that he would take the papers over to his room, the Dawson papers.
Q Did you see him again that night? A Yes, sir; after supper I went down to his room.
Q Did he ask you about the Dawsons or Dawson case? A He asked me where Dawson was.
Q Which Dawson are you referring to now, F. M. Dawson, known as Bud Dawson? A Bud Dawson.
Q Well, what didyou reply to him? A I told him that I thought he had gone to church.
Q [illegible] A Yes, sir, he told me to come
Q [illegible] A [illegible]

Q Did you remain during the conversation? A Only a minute.
Q What was said if anything while you were present? A Mr. Duncan spoke to Mr. Dawson and says "there is a hitch in your evidence."
Q Go ahead and state what else he said? A He said "if that was straightened out it would be all right," and I turned and went away, I says, "gentlemen, I will go home."
Q Did you know of their having any other conversation or communication after that? A No, sir.
Q You left them there together yourself? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Mr. Dawson give you any directions the next morning about submitting the case? A Yes, sir, he asked me to call it up the case.
Q The next morning? A Yes, sir.
Q Had there been any additional evidence offered? A No, sir; there was not additional testimony offered.
Q He told you the next morning to call up the case? A Yes, sir.
Q Was it called up and submitted the next morning? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, how many of the members of the Court were there present that morning? A There were only two, two full-blood Indians.
Q Could they speak english at all? A Tehee could talk a little, talk some.
Q Did that Court have open sessions all the time or what is called executive sessions sometimes? A Well, I don't remember about that; it was generally when the case was submitted the attorneys would go out. The parties would go out and they would determine the case.
Q Well, did they go out into that sort of executive session the next morning on the Dawson case? A Well, we went out when the case was submitted.
Q And was the decision rendered that morning in their favor?
A Yes, sir.
Q Who notified you of the decision of the Court? A Why, Mr. Dawson.
Q Do you remember whether he went out with you or was in there during the consideration of the case? A I think he went out with me.
Q Did you at any time thereafter receive any money, checks or other evidence money from Mr. Dawson with direction to turn it in part over to D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of that Court? A Mr. Dawson gave me 20 dollars and said he would send the balance in a short time, said he would send some more money in a short time.
Q Well, did he send any money afterwards? A Yes, sir, in the course of ten days or two weeks he send a hundred dollar check, draft.
Q What did he direct you to do with it? A He directed me to give D. W. C. Duncan half of it.
Q Did you give him half of it? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he send you any at any other time after that? A Well, in the course of a couple of weeks he sent me a hundred dollars more.
Q Did he direct you to turn any of that and if so how much, to D. W. C. Duncan? A He told me to give him half of it,
Q Did you give him half of it? A I did, sir.
Q Do you remember whether on Dr. Arthur Baker was the principal witness in behalf of the Dawson case? A No, sir, I don't because I never had any connection with the case, but I heard that he was a witness in the case.
Q No argument was made when you submitted the case? A No, sir.
Q Just submitted it on the testimony? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you born and reared in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir: I was born in the old Nation.

Q When did you come to the Cherokee Nation? A Come here in 1355.
Q How long have you been practicing law in the Cherokee Nation?
A I think since '68.
Q You have done a great deal of citizenship business haven't you?
A Yes, sir.
Q You were in the United States Court at Fort Smith on charges in regard to the citizenship business? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you convicted there? A Yes, sir; I was convicted there on this very case.
Q And served a term of what length? A I was sent to the jail hospital for sixty days and I stayed in about 38 or 39 days, and I was released.
Q When was that? A I don't remember how long ago it has been.
Q You say it was in regard to this case? A Yes, sir; this case was the bone of contention; Clem Rogers and the Chief, they are the ones that had me arrested, carried to Fort Smith.
Q Well, now, were you charged with an offense against the law in this case, or was it in regard to some other case? A Well, it was in regard to using the mail for fraudulent purposes.
Q Sending out propositions and obtaining case for citizenship for people [illegible] Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, it was for answering correspon[illegible]
Q Not relating to this case at all? A Well, this was the main charge, Clem Rogers went before the Court there and stated that I had got in at least three hundred Dawsons, that they were white people and not entitled to citizenship and that was the main trouble.
Q Well, now, was the charge based upon that or was it based upon your letters you sent out to other people? A That was the charge for using the mail for fraudulent purposes.
Q The use of the mails for fraudulent purposes not in connection of this case was it? A Not particular of this case.
Q Then the trouble you had was the prejudice of Clem Rogers and others caused by your connection with the Dawson case; that is what you mean to say? A Yes, sir.
Q Why did you say because you were charged with an offense based upon this case? A Well, the prejudice grew out of this case.
Q Now, then, you had full conversation with the representatives of the Cherokee Nation as to your testimony in this case, did you not before you came on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q You had told them of these particulars before you came on the witness stand did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q Yet when you came on the stand you assumed to have conscientious scruples as to answering as to matters which occured between you and your client, Bud Dawson, in relation to this matter and declined to answer claiming your privilege as an attorney did you not? A Yes, sir; I didn't want to make a statement at all in the matter.
Q You had voluntarily made a statement to the representatives of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; I had stated to Mr. Hastings; he questioned me and I come down here and I didn't want to make a statement to him but he insisted.
Q He had no power to compel you to make a statement? A No, sir.
Q You could then make it very freely and your conscience did not hurt you, but when you came on the stand you became very conscientious about it? A I didn't want to make a statement at all unless I I would be put in jail here if I didn't.
Q But you had armed them with information by which they could ask you these questions when you came on the stand? A I had told Mr. Hastings.

Q You knew when you gave him that information that you would be brought on the stand as a witness, did you not, by reason of that? A No, I didn't know that I would be compelled to make a statement in the matter, a sworn statement.
Q You thought you would not be compelled to answer?
A I didn't think the law would compel me to make a statement.
Q Why then did you make a statement to him about it? A Oh, he was asking me about it, and I told him that I didn't want to make a statement, and I didn't for quite a while after I came down here.
Q When the enrollment division of the Dawes Commission was in Tahlequah, in the winter of 1900, did you not there meet F. M. Dawson and did you not then and there say to him "I told Shoemake I would be for him if he would employ me in his case and if he didn't I would be against him, and the came to you?" A No, sir; I said to him this; I says that if there is not something done that I will likely be summoned against you and Mr. Shoemake both.
Q What did you mean by that? A Well, I just meant this, I just left the matter with him to say what he wanted to do in the matter; I only spoke a word or two about it. I was going out of town just as he came in.
Q When you told him if something was not done you would be summoned as a witness against him; what did you mean by that? A Well, I just meant that the chances were that the Nation would summon me against him.
Q What did you mean by the expression "if there was not something done" that you would be summoned as a witness?
A Well, I meant this, if I was re-employed in the matter if he was to have a case and I was re-employed I would not be required.

Q You could be required to make a statement as to declarations made to you by your client to you in one instance, but if a little more money was put up you could not be required to make a statement; is that what you mean? A I didn't think I could be forced to make a statement at all in the matter.
Q Why did you make that expression to him "if something wasn't done you might be summoned as a witness" if you believed you could not be made to make a statement? A I meant if I was employed in the case.
Q If he would put up you would not testify? A That they could not force me to testify.
Q About the month of February, 1901, in the town of Wagoner, Indian Territory, did you not send your son to get Graham to come to the hotel at night, and did you not then and there say to Gid Graham; "you people are on the doubtful list and if you will give me $500, I will make it all right and see that you are enrolled and if you don't I will se that you don't get on"? A No, sir; I got a letter from Gid Graham in which he asked me to certify that the case was all right and after I met him I told him that I could not do it, that the case was crooked, he then said to me, he says, "I will give you a hundred dollars", he says "will you take a hundred dollars," I said "no, sir." I didn't make any bid, that is I didn't set no price with him.
Q You did not say to him then what I have embraced in that question there? A No, sir.
Q You did have a conversation with him about that time and at that place, did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q You say you didn't make any bid or set any price? A No, sir; he offered me a hundred dollars.
Q Why did you send for him to come to the hotel? A In answer to his letter.

A Did you not K yesterday morning on the street in Muskogee, Indian Territory, in a conversation with W. H. Shoemake say to him: "You have made a great mistake in not keeping in your employment and so have the Dawsons and it will go hard with you and you will see it"? No, sir; I says to Mr. Shoemake, I says: "Who have you employed in your case," and he says "Judge Pruner and Mr. Owen." I said "It might have been a advantage to you if you had retained me in your matter;" Well, he says "there was nothing wrong in my case" and I says "no, there is nothing wrong on earth in your case that I know of." He said all he wanted was justice and I said "I don't know a thing on earth against you," and I says "there is not a thing on earth wrong in your case as I know it came up fairly and squarely and decided in your favor."

Q You said nothing to him about the Dawson case? A Yes, I said to him "it might have been well if the Dawsons had retained me in their case." I said "I am summoned on the part of the Nation and I don't want to make a statement and I want if I can possible avoid it."

Q Was that before or after you talked with Mr. Hastings, the representative of the Nation? A It was afterwards.

Q You meant by that if you had refused to answer you would have gone to jail? A No, sir; it they had employed me before hand I mean't not now.

Q You mean that if they had employed you before hand you would not have given this information to Mr. Hastings? A I would not be required, being the attorney.

Q Were you required to give him the information; did you know that you had to give him any information? A Who do you mean.

Q Mr. Hastings. A I did refuse him and he insisted.

Q Well, he no authority to compel you to do it? A No, sir; I don't know whether he did or not.

Q As a lawyer you knew that he did not have authority to compel you to make a statement to him? A I told him that I was an attorney in the case and I didn't want to make any statement at all.

Q Why did you do it? A Well, he intimated to me it would go no further. He said to me "I will not make this matter — I will not use it;" that is, what I stated to him was part in confidence.

Q And he pledged you his word that it would not be used? A Well, told him I could make a statement in confidence, and that I didn't want to make a statement before the Court.

Q Well, what did he reply, as you said just now? A Oh, he says make the statement and then I told him—I regretted very much to do it, and I regret very much to make a statement here. I tried to avoid it yesterday.

Q You stated just now that he said it would not be used; did he say that or not? A Well, something to that amount; oh, he says it won't make any difference or so with me, to that effect.

Q Now, don't you know that Mr. Hastings did not intimate to you that the statement he was making you to make would not be used? A Well, I didn't think that I could be forced to make a qualified statement before the Court here, because I thought my license would protect me in that matter.

Q Yet it did not protect you or prevent you from making a statement to the attorneys for the Nation? A No, sir.

Q Now, in this conversation with Shoemake to which I have referred did you not ask him to again employ you and tell him if he would you would make it all right for him? A No, sir; I didn't say that; no, I said if he had employed me in the matter "maybe it would have been better for you." Now, he offered me when I was down here last week, he offered me five dollars to go down and talk to the lawyers on the matter, I didn't go I was busy.

Q That was not your price? A No, no, I had nothing to say in his case that would be to his advantage; I knew nothing against him.
Q Now, then, you say that your were present on the morning that the judgment was rendered in favor of the Dawsons? A I was not in the Court house.
Q You were present in Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q How long had you been at Tahlequah? A I was living there at that time.
Q When were you first employed by them? A By Dawsons?
Q Yes, sir. A The evening before the case was tried.
Q You say that after he judgment was rendered Dawson handed you $20? A Yes, sir.
Q And told you to hand to Duncan? A No, sir.
Q What was your statement? A That he paid me $20 and says "I will send you some more in a short time, week or so.
Q And then he sent you $100? A Yes, sir.
Q And wrote you to give D. W. C. Duncan $50 of it? A Yes, sir.
Q And then sent you another $100 and told you to give him half of it? A Yes, sir.
Q How much did they pay you? A Well, that was the agreement, was that he would pay me $50 a family.
Q How much did he pay you? A I think there was $250; now I not sure about the $50, but it appears to me like there was a $50 sent, and Mr. Duncan asked me, as well as I remember, says "have you got a letter from Dawson," I told him "yes, sir." It was either that or the $100, and he says "I would like to have some money", and I went to Stapler's and got it changed-- I won't be sure about it being $50 or $100--I went to Stapler's and got him to cash the check and give him his part of it.
Q How much did they pay you for your services? A That is all I got.
Q How much? A I think it was $100, $120.
Q What did you do for them? A Didn't do a thing; only called up the case and submitted it; never read the evidence.
Q Submitted it without remarks? A Yes, sir.
Q And for that you say they paid you $120? A Yes, sir; $120.
Q Was Houston Benge present when that was done? A No, sir; I don't think he was.
Q Did you see him then at that time in Tahlequah? A I don't remember.
Q Were you associated with him in any manner in connection with the case? A No, sir.
Q You had a great deal of business of that character, have you before the Courts? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you paid like fees in other cases for like services? A Yes, sir.
Q In many of them? A Yes, sir, good many.
Q All like cases? A Oh, citizenship cases.
Q When was it you were in jail at Fort Smith? A I don't remember; Mr. Kellette can remember, he was there, he was my attorney.
Q Was it about 1893? A It was somewhere along there, along in 1890 somewhere.
Q That has been your principal business as a lawyer, has it not? A Yes, sir.
Q You have never practiced much in any other way have you? A Very little.
Q Were you in the habit of working your cases through in the same manner in which you state you worked this through? A No, sir.

Q This was an exception was it? A I never worked this case through. I simply called the case up by request of Mr. Dawson. I read the evidence; don't know what proof there was in it; he just asked me to call the case up.
Q And he agreed to pay you $50 a family for doing that? A Yes, sir.
Q Was that what you required of him? A That is what he agreed to pay. I says "what will you give?" He says "I will give you $50 a family.

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q At the same time that the attorney for the Nation was talking to you about the Dawson case he also made inquiries about the Shoemake case didn't he? A Yes, sir.
Q And you told him at that time before you knew anything about whether you would be made or compelled to testify that so far as you knew there was nothing you knew detrimental to the Shoemake case? A Yes, sir; that is what I said.
Q You told him at the same time that you not only expected to claim you privilege as an attorney in the case, but that you told him, Mr. Hastings, with the full belief that the Court would sustain your position? A Yes, sir.

Mr. McKennon: That is very leading.

Q Now, did you think that the re-employment, being the attorney in the pending case would strenthen your position or weaken it, when you spoke to Mr. Dawson? A What I thought in the matter was before ever I would be summoned in the matter, a long time ago, that if I had been employed in the matter of course my position would have been such that I would not have been required or could not have been forced.
Q Did you think under those circumstances that Mr. Hastings would approach you about the subject? A No, sir: I don't think I would be forced to, having license to practice law.
Q Did Mr. Hastings tell you at the time that he was going to put you on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q And let the Court decide? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Now, have you a license to practice in the United States Courts?
A Yes, sir.
Q In the Territory? A Yes, sir.
Q And also in the Indian Courts? A Yes, sir; do you want to see them?

JAMES W. LEWIS, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name please? A J. W. Lewis.
Q James W. Lewis? A Yes, sir.
Q Where is your postoffice, Mr. Lewis? A Afton.
Q How old are you? A 73 years old.
Q What is your business ? A I work at the tin business and gun work.
Q Do you know one James Dawson, the brother of F. M. Dawson and the other Dawsons? A I know old man James Dawson.
Q That is the one I mean, old man James Dawson? A Yes, sir; I know him.
Q How long have you known him? A Well, some four or five years, I guess.
Q How long? A Four or five years I think.

Q When did you come to the country? A I have been in the country 70 odd years.
Q Well, when did he come to the country, do you know? A Along about somewheres in eighty if I recollect right, might have been later than that.
Q How did you happen to get acquainted with? A He lived right close by me and I built a house for him.
Q Did you have any conversation with him at the time you built that house? A Yes, several different times.
Q About how he became a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, about the circumstances? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he make any statement to you about the use of money in getting his citizenship, and if so, state what he said?
A Well, he told me that it cost him $700 to get his rights.
Q Didn't tell you to whom he paid it? A No, he didn't and I didn't ask any questions.

MR. McKENNON:

Q How old was he at that time, do you know? A I do not know exactly, must have been somewheres near about 70 years old, he might have been older than that, I don't know.
Q He was a very old and feeble man? A Yes, he was old and feeble.
Q He seldom ever got out away from his house? A No, sir, only short distance.
Q When you first knew him he was that kind of man? A Yes, sir.

J. L. CLINKENBEARD, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A J. L. Clinkenbeard.
Q What is your post office address? A Vinita.
Q How old are you? A 56.
Q Were you ever an applicant for citizenship before the Tahlequah citizenship Court in Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q About what time was that? A September '81, I think.
Q Did you meet there about that time, one Elbert or Buck Dawson?
A Yes, sir.
Q How did you happen to meet him? A He and I stopped at the same place, man's by the name of Sharbow.
Q You and he stopped there, did you, board there? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, did you have any talk about citizenship cases, yours and his? A
Yes, sir.
Q Where did he state that he was from? A Texas.
Q Well, state what you can remember of the conversation between you from time to time about citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?
A Well, we were there on the same business and we talked about it at different times, and in talking about the evidence we had there I, of course, told him how many witnesses I had and what I could prove and so on, and he said that he didn't have but one witness, Dr. Baker from Arkansas, a man that was 85 or 90 years old, he said, and he hadn't come and said he was to have got him there, but he hadn't come.
Q Well, what did he say about the doctor's knowing anything?
A Well, he said a man 85 or 90 years old and didn't know straight no.
Q Well, did he say anything about giving him whiskey?
A Well, he said he could give him four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would swear that black was white.

Q Did he say anything about what money would do in Texas or Indian Territory? A Well, in talking about the evidence, he said that money was what made a case go down in Texas and he said "I come to get the law of the land" and he says "I find out it goes here," or words to that effect.
Q Did he say what he had to spend on the question? A Well, he said that he could stand a thousand dollars on it and not be hurt very much; finally he said he could stand more than that.
Q What did he tell you what he thought about the necessity of witnesses anyhow? A Well, I don't know as he said as to that, but I understood from what he said that he thought money would beat witnesses.
Q Well, where did he go from there? A He and I left there together; he came to Muskogee by way of Fort Gibson and there we parted.
Q Did you ever see him after that? A I saw him about two years or something like that afterwards.
Q Where? A Vinita.
Q Did you refer to the citizenship matter? A I asked him how he come out and he said all right.
Q Was he deformed in any way this man? A He had a crippled hand or stiff finger; I don't remember just what it was now.

J.H. McKENNON:

Q Your first conversation with him was in '81 was it? A Yes, sir.
Q What time in '81? A September.
Q You were then an applicant for citizenship? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you admitted? A No, sir.
Q You are still an applicant? A No, sir.
Q You are still working to get in as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir; haven't quit it entirely.
Q What business are you in now? A I am running a dairy in Vinita.
Q When did you make these statements now to the representative of the Cherokee Nation? A Well, sir, I haven't; I saw Mr. Hastings I believe here last Saturday the first time.
Q How did they ever know what you had had these conversations with Mr. Dawson? A I don't know.
Q You don't know how they found that out? A No, sir.
Q You say you saw Mr. Hastings here last Saturday? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, did you approach him or did he approach you? A He approached me.
Q You know why? A No, sir; I suppose somebody I have told something at some time about this, I don't know when or who. I don't remember of having talked to anyone about it. I have saw Mr. Hastings for years.
Q Now, you say—now was that expression about his giving Dr. Baker three or four drinks of liquor? A He said the old man; he said that Dr. Baker, he was expecting him there and he didn't come, and he said he didn't care where he died or not; he said he was 85 or 90 years old; he said he didn't know straight up; said he could give him three or four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would not know black or white.
Q Now, he said that did he? A Yes, sir.
Q You are just as positive of that as you are of any other statement he made are you? A Yes, sir.
Q You say you next saw Dawson at Vinita? A Yes, sir.
Q How long afterwards was that? A About two years, I think something near that.
Q Did he move to the Territory? A Yes, sir; he lived at Vinita at one time.

Q You speak about having a dairy business there at Vinita, to what extent? A I am only milking about four cows now, I sent the others to the country.
Q Do you run a dairy wagon there? A No, sir.
Q You serve on the jury a good deal? A I have been serving on the Petit jury there this winter.
Q Generally? No, sir.
Q Are you a kind of a professional juror? A No, sir; I was on the regular petit jury, I was on the regular panel and served.

C. C. BRAUGHT, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A C. C. Braught.

Q What is your post office? A Fairland.
Q How long have you been living in the neighborhood of Fairland? A Been living there 19 years.
Q Do you know one Bud Dawson or F. M. Dawson as his name is? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A About 13 years.
Q How close to you live from him? A Half a mile of him.
Q Does he still own that place? A I think he does.
Q Were you an applicant for citizenship along about '81 or '2 at Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you have at any time a conversation with Bud Dawson about his and your citizenship cases? A Yes, sir.
Q State what he stated to you of citizenship cases in general and about his own in particular, you can state the time that you had these conversations as near as you can? A Well, I think it was in '83, he told me if I ever got in I would have to put up; he said it cost him $700 to get in; he said he paid one witness three hundred dollars.
Q Did he state the name of that witness? A No, he did not.
Q Who did he say he made arrangements with? A He said he made arrangements with the Court; that is, heads of families to get them in at one hundred dollars apiece.
Q Do you know what time of the year tht was, whether it was in the summer or not? A I think it was in June.
Q Did he make any other statements to you at any other time? A No, sir, I don't think he has in regards to that matter.
Q You have been living neighbors with him? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q You say this was about June of '83? A I think it was in June, 1883, I won't be positive whether it was June or not.
Q You were an applicant; were you admitted? A No, sir.
Q Have you been admitted? A No, sir.
Q You are still an applicant? A Yes, sir.
Q Still trying to get in? A Yes, sir.
Q Where was this conversation had? A Had at Bud Dawson's house.
Q What part of the premises? that is, in his residence? A Yes, sir.
Q In the house? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was present? A There wasn't anybody present; he just built the house and there wasn't anybody there.
Q Was there more than one room? A I won't be positive but I don't think there was but one room, log house.
Q Just one room? A Yes, sir.

Q And in that room he made this statement to you? A Yes, sir.
Q He and you are enemies are you not? A No, I don't think we are enemies.
Q You are not friendly at all? A Friendly part of the time, and part of the time we ain't.
Q Haven't you had considerable trouble about the lands between your farms? A No, sir; we ain't had any trouble.
Q Didn't you have his little boy arrested recently for a difficulty? A Yes, sir.
Q And you say that you are not on bad terms with him? A Why we speak, have conversation, have right right along all the time.
Q Is it not a fact now that you and he have been all the while at outs? A No, sir.
Q You don't have any unkind feeling towards him? A No, sir.
Q What were your other remarks? A I said no, sir, I didn't have any unkind feeling towards him.

(It being 5 o'clock, the Commission adjourns until 8:30 o'clock to-morrow morning.)

March 19, 1903.
Commission convened pursuant to adjournment.

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of Counsel for Applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

C. C. BRAUGHT, re-called, further testified:

MR. McKENNON:

Q Mr. Braught, you were a claimant under the Watts family are you not? A Yes, sir.
(witness excused.)

CHARLES D. KENNEY, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Charles D. Kenney.
Q What is your post office? A Dawson now.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; supposed to be.
Q Recognized as such are you? A Yes, sir.
Q How old are you? A There is no family record, my parents died when I was young, I just guess at my age, I am somewheres between 44 and 45 years old.
Q Were you personally acquainted with one Elbert or Buck Dawson? A I knew Buck Dawson when I saw him.
Q Did you know him in the state of Texas, if so state what time? A I knew Buck Dawson, knew him and saw him at different dates in Texas.
Q Well, in the year '81 in Clay County, Texas, did you ever see him? A It was in '81 or 82. I think I knew him in both years.
Q Did you ever have any conversation with him in the presence of Bill Smith, Miles Pilgrim and Joe Pleston about his application for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Mr. Dawson and [illegible] were talking in regard to grass down there below Ardmore one time and it was mentioned, I was going up on the strip and Buck Dawson says "he an Indian" and Jiles said "yes, he is an Indian", and "By God," I believe is the way he spoke, "if I was an Indian I would not be punching cattle, I would have stock eating my grass."

Q What did he say about making application? A He said he was going to the Chickasaw Nation and prove up and get him some grass.
Q Who was that? A Buck Dawson.
Q Well, did anybody suggest about his going to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, I told him, I says "why don't you go to the Cherokee Nation, why don't you go up home" I believe is the way I spoke it, "up amongst God's people;" and he says "are they all white like you?" and Jiles spoke up and says "majority of them."
Q Well, what did he say to Jiles then? A He says "let's go up Jiles", just in a whole crowd of cow punchers, and Mr. Flippin says "Hell, I am going; brother John is getting ready to go now."
Q Well, then what did he say to you? A He says "Who are your best lawyers up there, Kenney," and I told him "Hooley Bell was counted the brainiest man in our country."
Q Well, do you know whether he claimed to have any Indian blood or what he was claiming in that country, whether white man or Indian? A No, sir, I could not say what he was; he was generally known down there as Buck Dawson, a citizen of the State of Texas, that is all I know of him.

Mr. McKennon: The applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

Mr. McKennon:
Q Were you born any nearer in the Cherokee Nation? A I can't tell you where I was born; I was raised here part of the time and in Ross County, Texas. B. W. Alberty was my guardian.
Q Were you admitted to citizenship by the Council or Court? A I think both of them passed on me; I can't tell you the date.
Q About what time? A It was sometime in '80 though.
Q What tribunal first? A I don't know; I don't know either when I was admitted, I was re-instated at Council.
Q When? A I think it was in '87 or '88.
Q Haven't you been arrested for crime and charged with crime? A Well, I didn't know that I was on trial; I have been arrested a hundred times I guess from here to the Rio Grande.
Q For what offense? A For gambling, stealing; if I am on trial I have had lots of them, I have been on the road.
Mr. HASTINGS, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation;
Q Were you ever convicted? A No, sir.

Mr. McKennon: Applicant makes further objection to the testimony of this witness on account of his criminal character stated by him.

THOMAS B. HARBART, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
Mr. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name, [illegible] A [illegible]
Q [illegible]
Q [illegible]
Q Are you a citizen by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know one James Dawson? A Well, yes; I did; I have seen him time or two.
Q Were you in Tahlequah about the time he had an application before the Spears or Snake Puppy Citizenship Court? A Yes, sir; I was there about the time the case was settled.
Q Did you know Aaron Butler? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was he? A He was a Cherokee Interpreter for the Court.
Q Do you know James Smith? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was he? A He was the Nation's attorney before the Court.
Q Well, did you about that time have a conversation with either Aaron Butler of Jim Smith in company with Mr. James Dawson? A Yes.
Q State the full particulars of it? A About that time this man Dawson and Butler come to me while they were all together, all three of them, and Butler come and called me off to one side, that was down at a colored church, it was after dark, and they called me off there and this man Dawson borrowed some money from me, he said he had to have it that night, his case was going to be submitted the next morning.
Q Well, did he say anything about whether he could get his case submitted if he had some none? A Well, from the language to me and Butler, he wanted this money; Smith had agreed to submit the case without further evidence in the matter.
Q Well, did you let him have the ten dollars? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did they go then? A They walked off up towards town.
Q Did they go together, those three? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Was that James Dawson, the leading applicant in that case?
A Yes, best of my recollection that was.
Q How old a man was he? A I don't know; I could not tell you; he looked, I don't know, he might have been—could not tell you just about how old he was.
Q Well, about how old was he, 35, 30 or 40? A Yes, he was older than that, from my judgment I guess he must have been 45 or 50 years old.
Q Is he living or dead? A I don't know.
Q Where have you been living? A I have been living down here near Tahlequah.
Q What was the man's name, Dawson's name? A Jim Dawson I think.
Q You are certain of that? A Yes, sir; I am pretty certain.
Q They came to you with Smith, the Prosecuting Attorney, and Butler, the Interpreter? A Yes, sir.
Q Dawson took you off to one side? A Butler took me to where Dawson was and introduced me to Dawson and vouched for Dawson being all right for the money.
Q When did you first make a statement of this matter to anybody?
A I guess—I don't remember when.
Q How long have you been in Muskogee this time?
A I have been here since, I was summoned here last Friday.
Q Did you ever make any statement to anybody about this before that time? A Yes, I talked to Butler about it.
Q When? A Oh, about, first I remember it was been about two years ago, and Butler was talking to me about it; it was at my house.
Q Were you born a citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q You weren't admitted to citizenship by the Courts or Council?
A No, sir.
Q You have been living in the Cherokee Nation all your life?
A Well, I was born and raised here; I haven't been here all the time; I have been out and in.

Q You have never seen that man Dawson since? A If I have I have never known it, but I seen him the next day.
Q You saw him and took a good look at him, and knew about what kind of man he was? I saw him around there about several times.
Q You think he was about 35 or 40 years old? A That would be my guess at it, my recollection.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness, all of it, because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

DELIA A. BREWER, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your full name? A My husband's name was O. P. Brewer, but generally I sign my name Mrs. D. A. Brewer.
Q What was your full maiden name? A Delia A. Vann; well it was really Delilah but I never was called by that name, it was De altogether in my young days.
Q What was your father's name? A His name was Joseph Vann.
Q Was he called by any nicknames and if so how many, and what? A None but the Cherokees, the full-bloods called him Joe Aney.
Q What does that name mean when you talk English? A Rich Joe.
Q Did any of them call him Big Joe Vann? A I don't know; he was a large man; larger than the other Joe Vann.
Q There was another Joe Vann? A Yes, sir.
Q Did your father have any sisters and brothers? A He had quite a number of sisters.
Q Did he have a half sister? A Had two half brothers.
Q Did he have a half sister? A Had several half sisters.
Q Who did they marry? A Different persons; I knew the names of all of them but I have a bad memory, but I know that there was one, a Mrs. Ibbie Wolfe, and Mrs. Lamer, she was first a Mrs. Nicholson and she became a Mrs. Lamer and lived in Alabama and never come to this country, but she has grandchildren in this country.
Q Well, did any of your father's sisters or half sisters ever marry a Rogers? A No, sir.
Q Never had any Rogers kin-folks? A No, sir, I certainly would have heard of them through my family, there was a great many of the kin-folks I never saw, but I heard of them.
Q The Dawson case was talked of here for many years, they claiming kin?
A I never knew until I understood they claimed to be kin to the Vanns, and I flatter myself that my family was prominent enough that they never claimed kin.
Q They never claimed kin at all? A No, sir.
Q Did your father ever had a sister or half sister by the name of Annie, Anna or Alsey? A No, sir.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to all the testimony of this witness because it is incompetent and irrelevant.

Q What relationare you to the Dawsons? A Well, I am not acquainted with none of these Dawsons, I guess I am cousin, that is what he told me.
Q Who was your father? A Samuel Riley Dawson.
Q What did you say your father's name was? A Riley Dawson.
Q Do you know what his full name was? A Samuel Riley Dawson.
Q What children had your father? A Why, he had got, you mean his first children or his whole family?
Q I want all of his children? A I don't know, I will have to count a while on them, there was nine or ten of them.
Q Just one or two of them I care for; is Mrs. Lewis your sister?
A Yes, sir.
Q Your full sister? A Yes, sir.
Q Was she a daughter of S. R. Dawson, Jr.? A Yes, sir.
Q Now who were the parents of your father, , Samuel Dawson?
A Why Sam Dawson was his father.
Q Sam Dawson was his father? A Yes, sir.
Q What was Sam Dawson's wife, if you know their family history, that your father said or what your grandfather said? A I have heard that she was a Pruitt, my father said; of course I don't know.
Q What was her given name? A Annie.
Q Did you ever see your grandfather, Samuel Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Saw him? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know about how old he was when he died? A He was somewhere up about 90.
Q About how old were you when your grandfather died? A I don't remember exactly how old I was, I must have been somewhere near 12 years old when my grandfather died.
Q Was your father his youngest child? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know about when your father was born? A Well, no, I don't, he died in '90 and he was 67 years old.
Q He died in about '90 and was about 67 years old when he died?
A Yes, sir.
Q And he was the youngest child? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, do you know how many children your grandfather had , that is brothers and sisters of your father? A I heard him say seven.
Q Well, did you ever hear your father or grandfather speak of whether or not your grandmother was a white woman or an Indian?
A Well, I heard my father speak about it, I don't know what I ever heard my grandmother say anything about it.
Q Well, what did he say about it? A I have heard him say his mother was not an Indian.
Q Did you fathercome here and apply nce for citizenship?
A Yes, sir.
Q Was he admitted? A I think not.
Q Did you hear him make any statements about he ground he expected to get in? A He said his brothers had proved their rights here and if his brothers had any rights he did, but I don't know.
Q Well, in that connection did he say whether his mother was an Indian or white woman? A Never heard him say that his mother was a white woman in speaking about that, I don't know whether he said anything about that or not; I have heard him say his mother wasn't no Indian.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness because it is wholly irrelevant and incompetent.

Q Was your father's birth recorded in the family Bible? A Yes, sir.
Q You know whether your grandfather's record of marriages and births were recorded in any Bible or not? A I [illegible], but we never got it.
Q What became of it? A Got burned.
Q Well, about what year do you remember that your father, Samuel [illegible] born? A I believe it was '23.
Q In 1823? A Yes, sir.
Q And how old was he when he died, if you recollect? A He was [illegible] 64 and '7.
Q Did you ever hear your father speak of his relations, his father and mother, as to whether they were white people or Indians? A Yes, sir, they were white people.

Q. You know whether in the family you grandfather was spoken of by the name of Annie, always? A Yes, sir.

BY MR. McGUIRE: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness because it is wholly irrelevant and incompetent.

ALEX S. LEWIS, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Alex S. Lewis.
Q What is your post-office? A Denson, Indian Territory.
Q How old are? A 59 years.
Q What was your wife's maiden name? A Elizabeth Female Denson.
Q Who was your wife's father and mother? A Her father was Samuel P. Denson and her mother was the wife of Samuel P. Denson, did you ever hear maiden name?
Q Well, if you know, the maiden name of your wife's mother, state how you know it? A Well she was called Margaret, her Creek name was Annie Pruett.
Q The maiden name now of your wife's father's mother? A The maiden name of my wife's father's mother?
Q Yes, sir? A Pruett was her husband's mother-in-law was Annie Pruett.
Q What was the name of your wife's father's father? A My wife's grandfather on her father's side, Samuel Denson.
Q And his wife's maiden name was Annie Pruett? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you ever talk with Samuel Denson, your wife's grandfather? A Yes, sir.
Q Personally? A Yes, sir.
Q What opportunities had you to become acquainted with him? A He lived with his youngest son, my father-in-law, and visited me, my wife and I, after we were married, a good bit; quite a while; I lived near my father-in-law and he visited very often.
Q When did he die? A '74.
Q Have you any particular method of recalling that date? A Well, I was away from the house when he was taken sick, and they sent for my wife and myself, and so when I got home my wife had gone to her father's to see her grandfather, he was sick, and I remember my first wife was a baby at that time.
Q And when was your first child born? A He was born December, '77.
Q You know how old your wife's father was when he died? A My he was up in 60, but I don't remember his age.
Q Did the old man Samuel Denson ever tell you his age? A Yes, sir, several times.
Q How old was he at the time of his death? A He was past 94.
Q Did he ever tell you whether or not his wife Annie Pruett had a sister or brother? A Told me she only had one brother named Bob Pruett.
Q Have any of the members of the family named their children after him? A Make it a little plain, it is a little long; my wife's oldest brother was a particular favorite of his grandfather, and he always took this boy with him everywhere, and named one of his,- eldest child for his brother-in-law as a particular favorite of his grandfather; as well as for him I understood.
Q So, it is his name? A Of course I don't know why he named it, but he gave him the name of Robert Pruett, and I understood it was on account of his grandfather thinking so much of Robert Pruett.
Q Did you ever hear the old Samuel Denson speak of his brother-in-law? A Yes, sir; I have heard him say that he missed he knew what had become of Bob Pruett, he never had heard of him for a long time; didn't know where he was, or whether he was alive or not.

Q Now, I want the children of Samuel Dawson and Annie Pruett, how many of them did you know, first? A How many did I know personally?
Q Yes, sir? A John James, and Samuel R. Those were the only ones of his children that I remember personally.
Q Well, remember what you know of the family, who other children did he have? A Well he had two girls, as I understand the family history, he had two girls, first, and John Dawson was the third child, and the oldest boy was John Dawson.
Q Was John Dawson the oldest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q Which was the oldest girl? What is she known by now? A I think it was Mrs. Petty, nee Bettie Dawson.
Q And John Dawson was the oldest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q And Samuel R. Dawson was the youngest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q You know anything about the time John Dawson was born, have you any way of coming at it, the oldest boy? A Yes, sir, I know what the oldest son and his wife told me.
Q What was that? A They said he was born in 1811.
Q Who was his oldest son? A Toliver H. Dawson; told me his father was born in 1811.
Q Do you remember now whether the old man had occasion to say whether his wife, Annie Pruett was an Indian or White woman, or ever said anything about it? A I know that the old man said that she was, I don't know that I ever heard the question approached in that way, I have heard him speak as to her blood, but it was in a different way that he reached it.
Q What blood did he say she was? A Well he said that she was the daughter of Mrs. Pruett, a white woman; and that her father was Captain John Rogers, a white man who lived with the Cherokee Indians, and traded with them.
Q Did he say who Captain John Rogers afterwards married? A Said he had a wife in the Cherokee Nation.
Q But that Annie Pruett was not her child? A No, sir, she was the child of Mrs. Pruett.
Q A white woman? A Yes, sir, that was the half sister of Bob Pruett.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness, because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

Q Did ever you apply for citizenship here? A Yes, sir; for my wife.
Q When? A My father-in-law made the application, I don't know exactly when it was, I think probably about '86, I couldn't say as to the date.
Q Before the Cherokee authorities? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he file an application before the Dawes Commission in 1896 also? A Him.
Q Yes, sir? A I don't think he did, no sir.
Q Did you? A I did.
Q On account of your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you make affidavit to that application? A No, sir.
Q Who did? A I don't know, don't remember now.
Q You applied for your wife as an Indian by blood did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you still an applicant? A No, sir.
Q Is she? A No, sir.
Q She was denied was she? A Yes, sir.
Q Was there an appeal taken from that? A Application was filed if I remember, before the Dawes Commission, and they rejected the case, and then I appealed it to the District Court, and it was rejected there and then I stopped.

Q Have you ever been arrested for any crime? A Yes, sir.
Q What? A Charge of murder.
Q Anything else? A No, sir.
Q Committed on the train? A Yes, sir.
Q In a train robbery? A Yes, sir, in a train robbery.
Q How long did you remain in jail? A Appealed the case to the Supreme Court, and it was reversed and sent back, and I was acquitted on that charge.
Q That all the crime you were ever charged with? A Yes, sir.
Q Haven't you been having some trouble with the Dawson family? A Well me personally I have no trouble with any of them, there is one of my boys and one of W. A. Dawson's sons-in-law had some trouble.
Q You are not friendly with the Dawson family? A That son-in-law Mr. Wooley, and myself, don't speak, and I don't think his wife speaks to me either.
Q Well you are claiming some sort of lease on the Wooley farm, aren't you? A No, sir, I don't claim any lease on the Wooley farm.

No. 108 Robert Dawson, "et al."
vs.
Cherokee Nation.

Testimony for Claimants.

Witness:

Dr. Baker sworn testified as follows. My name is Arthur Baker I reside at Berrivill, Arkansas, Carroll County, My age is 73 years, I am not a Cherokee, I lived in the Cherokee Nation about three years when I first came to Arkansas I have been acquainted with him since he became a citizen of Carroll County some thirty five years (line drawn through the last three words.) 35 years at My Mother's house near Calhoun I became acquainted with the claimants Robt Dawsons grandmother on mother's side, she was frequently at My mother's house; though she Anna Pruit lived in the Nation side. She claimed to be a half sister to Big Joe Vann, also claimed to be half Cherokee; the first time she brought the clairant's mother to My mother's house she the claimant's mother was about grown, when I was a lit le boy she called her daughter Polly Rogers said Capt. John Rogers who ran a boat up the river was the father of the child; I saw the girl frequently there at My mother's and there at Louis Rowses Store I saw her occasionally until I was 15 or 16 years old and I think then Old Capt John Rogers took her off to school. I saw her no more from the time Old Capt. John Rogers took her off till I saw her here in Arkansas the wife of Old Samuel Dawson. I stayed all night there and she and I had a talk over our old matters, and I asked her when she became acquainted with Dawson and she said at the time she was going to school. And she said after she left school that Dawson followed her home to the Nation and they were there married. I have told that precisely in the words she used.

Capt John Rogers claimed to be one fourth Cherokee, the claimant is the son of Polly Rogers and I know Polly Rogers to be the daughter of Anna Pruet, and I know the claimant to be the son of Polly Dawson Capt Rogers then resided in the Cherokee Country about twelve miles from Calhoun on the Hiawassa River.

Anna Pruet resided in the Cherokee Nation as long as I stayed there the Dawsons when I got acquainted with them Arkansas were recognized where they were as Cherokees, Robt Dawsons children is Buck, John, Marion, and two girls; the children named in the petition I recognize as being the claimants.

Question by Solicitor:

Ques. 1 How many children did Polly Rogers have?
Ans. 1 Five, I think that's all.
Ques. 2 Did you say something about someone being married twice?
Ans. 2 The claimant was married twice.
Ques. 3 Could Anna Pruet speak Cherokee?
Ans. 3 Yes she could speak it well
Ques. 4 Did Polly Rogers speak Cherokee?
Ans. 4 She could when she was young.
Ques. 5 How far did you live from Anna Pruet?
Ans. 5 Just across the river about 3/4 of a mile.
Ques. 6 Was Calhoun in the Cherokee Nation?
Ans.6 It was on both sides of the river, part in the Nation and part out in the State.

Ques. 7 Which Harnage was it went to Texas?
Ans. 7 George went first then John went they were the sons of old man Harnage that lived up here near the line.
Ques. 8 Did the claimant go to Texas?
Ans.8 No the claimant didn't go to Texas.
Ques. 9 What connection was claimant and Polly Rogers?
Ans. 9 The claimant is the son of Polly Rogers Marion here is the grandson of Polly Rogers.
Ques. 10 Where does claimant now live?
Ans. 10 He lives in Carroll County, Arkansas.
Ques. 11 Do you know what relation old Captain John Rogers was to Charlotte Rogers here in Coowescoowee?
Ans. 11 They claimed kin but what kin I dont know there were two Capt. John Rogers' in the Nation I am speaking of the time when I first came to this 1830 Country about the year 1830.
Ques. 12 Was Anna Pruet the raiden name of Claimant's grandmother
Ans. 12 Yes that was her raiden name the Indians called her Sinee.

Joseph Dawson introduced for Claimants, sworn in open Court testified as follows:

Jos. Dawson, I am a Cherokee live in the Cherokee Nation, am 31 years old.

Lula Dauthett and Dallas Dauthett, the Claimants are Ch rokees. Fannie Dawson was their mother. Fannie Dawson was a Cherokee, that is what I was always told. Her father was E. Dawson. E. Dawson was my brother. Mrs. Dauthett is not living now: the last time I saw Lula, and Dallas Dauthett, they were in Texas. But I have heard since that they are in the Cherokee Nation. E. Dawson recognizes them as his grandchildren and I have known them ever since they were born.

By Solicitor:

Lula is about 10 years old. The Dallas is about 5 or 6 years old. I heard that their father is now at Vinita Cherokee Nation, E. Dawson is Albert Dawson. Th applicants' mother has been dead about three or four years. She died at Millsboro, Texas.

I was not present when their mother and E. Dawson had eight children to the best of my recollection, or 9. Fannie, Francis, Catherine, Mattie, Mrs. Britt Worsh, Bert, Ella. All living but two, Fannie and Smith. They are all living in Texas when I left there. I am a brother to F. M. Dawson, we are full blood Cherokees. My father has been admitted to Cherokee Citizenship by this Court.

"Now this day comes the above case for final hearing, Samuel R. Dawson, bases his application for readmission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the ground that he is the son of Samuel Dawson a white man, Polly Rogers the alleged daughter of Captain John Rogers and Chilsey Pruitt, said to be a half sister of Joseph Vann, commonly known as Rich and who were of Cherokee blood. It is admitted that John Rogers and Chilsey Pruitt died before the roll upon which their names would appear if living at the time and specified in the 7th section of the Act of December 8th, 1866, creating the Commission on Citizenship, were made but in support of the application it is urged that certain members of the Dawson family and full brothers of the applicant were re-admitted to citizenship by the Commission on Citizenship commonly known as "Two Tehee Court", and the "Spears Court", and are now residing as citizens in the Cherokee Nation. In the opinion of this Commission the sufficiency of the considerations which determined the decision of those Commissions of the testimony now introduced to authorize the admission of the present applicant is not relivent to the issue now pending. The 7th section of the Act of December 8th, 1886, before named provides, that "The Commission shall give a hearing to any person applying for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the ground of Cherokee blood or descent, but such applicant must be a person, or the lineal descendant of a person whose name appears upon the census rolls of Cherokees taken by the United States," As are hereafter enumerated. Neither the name of the applicant nor that of the person of whom he claims to be a lineal descendant appearing upon eitherof said rolls the Commission adjudge and decree that Samuel R. Dawson and family are not entitled to re-admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as Cherokees by blood. This opinion includes the cases of Andrew J. Dawson, James K. P. Dawson, Jounnah Barber nee Jounnah Dawson and Jane Queen, nee Jane Dawson, and their families, as enumerated in their respecti e applic tions.

I am a citizen of the Cherokee Nation and reside in Coowescoowee Dist. and am 55 years old. I am acquainted with the applicant, Andrew J. Dawson, he claims to be a relation of mine. I have known him personally about three (3) years. He said his father was Joe Dawson. I know the party, the applicant, from circumstances, and have no doubt but that he is a realtion of mine.

Joe Dawson, the father of the applicant was my father's brother. Joe Dawson was considered to be a Cherokee, I think he died on the Hiwassee river in Tenn. I think he had four (4) children. I never saw any of them but Andrew J. Dawson, and Jim Dawson.

-Cross Ex.-

Joe Dawson has been dead about 35 years he lived west of the Mississippi River, I understand. My father had four brothers. I don't know how long Joe Dawson had been living in Tenn. before he died. All that I know of the applicant being the son of my Uncle Joe Dawson, is from what he himself has told me, - My grandfather, Sam Dawson was a white man. The applicant could be of the Dawson name and not be related to me- My grandfather being a Dawson and a white man.

for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

Your respondent, S. H. Mayes, Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, comes now and demurs the said application, and for the grounds thereof says:

1st. That this Commission has not jurisdiction over the parties or subject matter of this controversy.

2nd. That the application does not state facts sufficient if true, to show that the applicant . . . entitled to citizenship.

Respondent not waiving his aforesaid demurrer, but insisting upon the same for answer to said application, says that John Rogers through whom the petitioner claims to derive right to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, is not now, - . . and has not been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, since the removal of said Nation, west to the Indian Territory, as at present located and defined; that his name does not appear on any of the authenticated rolls of said nation; that neither nor any of his ancestors now reside, or ever have resided in the Cherokee Nation and Indian Territory, as citizens thereof.

Now this day comes the above case for final hearing, Samuel R. Dawson bases his application for re-admission to Citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the ground that he is the son of Samuel Dawson, a White man, Polly Rogers, the alleged daughter of Captain John Rogers, and Chilsey Pruett said to be half sister of Joseph Vann commonly known as Rich and who were of Cherokee blood. It is admitted that John Rogers ...

Chilsey Proctor and before the roll upon which their names would appear at living at the time, and specified in the 7th Section of the Act of December 10th, 1906, creating the Commission on Citizenship were made, but in support of the application it is urged that certain members of the Dawson family the full brothers of the applicant are admitted to citizenship by the Commission on Citizenship commonly known as the "Tehee Court" and "Spears Court" and are now residing as citizens in the Cherokee Nation. In the opinion of this Commission the sufficiency of the consideration which determined the decisions of those Commissions or the testimony now introduced to authorize the admission of the present applicant is not relevant in the issue now pending. The 7th Section of the Act of December 10th, 1906, does not provide that the Commission is authorized to any person applying for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the grounds of Cherokee blood or descent, but such applicant must be a person, or the lineal descendant of a person whose name appears upon the census roll of Cherokees taken by the United States, hereinafter mentioned, neither the name of the applicant nor that of the person of whom he claims to be a lineal descendant appearing upon either of said rolls, the Commission adjudge and decree that Samuel R. Dawson and family are not entitled to re-admission of citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as Cherokees by blood. This opinion includes the case of Andrew J. Dawson, James M. P. Dawson, Jonathan Barber, nee Joanna Dawson, and Jane Queen, nee Jane Dawson and their families as enumerated in their respective applications.

Affiant further states that he is slightly acquainted with Irene J. House, an applicant for admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as shown by copy of her application.

Affiant further states that his father's name was Charlie Rogers- who was a son of Captain John Rogers and the said Capt. NORTH ERN JUDICIAL DIVISION, AT MUSKOGEE, IND. TER.

Joanna Barber Onis E. Barber, William P. Barber, James E. Barber, Jennie Barber, Joel A. Barber, Mary A. Barber, Ella Moore, Attie L. Hunt, Alcey J. Grant, APPELLANTS,

vs

CHEROKEE NATION, APPELLEE.

PETITION FOR APPEAL FROM THE DECISION OF THE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Come now the appellants in the above entitled cause and petition the Court to grant an appeal in said cause from a decision of the Commission, known as the Dawes Commission, created and empowered to treat with the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians, to-wit: the Cherokee, Creek, Choctaw, Chickasaw, and Seminole Indians, and to pass upon and decide applications for citizenship in the said Five Civilized Tribes, which decision by said Commission was rendered by authority of, but not in accordance with, an Act of Congress passed and approved June 10th, 1896, and by which decision on the 29 day of October, 1896 the aforesaid appellants were denied their rights to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory.

The facts relied upon by the appellants to establish their rights to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, as aforesaid are as follows: to-wit: The affidavits of B. Dawson, S. E. Dawson T. A. Dawson, F. M. Dawson.

Said affidavits fully and conclusively establishing the fact that said applicants are Cherokee Indians, by blood and descent, and entitled to rights of citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

Said affidavits, together with the application, of said appellants, were, prior to September the 10th, 1896, filed with and submitted to said Commission for its investigation, consideration and decision.

That a certified copy of said application, together with the accompanying affidavits, were served upon the Chief, or Attorney General, of said Cherokee Nation, prior to September the 10th, 1896.

The errors of the Commission in rejecting the claims for citizenship of said appellants are the grounds for appeal to this Court, to-wit:

FIRST. The Commission erred in rendering its decision on said claims adversely to the appellants and against the proof submitted by said appellants.

SECOND. The Commission erred in investigating the claims of appellants and denying same upon the absence of a majority of the members of the Commission.

THIRD. The Commission erred in refusing the appellants the right and privilege of examining the proof submitted by appellee in support of the answers filed by the appellee and denying the appellants the right of filing application to appellee's answer or producing proof in rebuttal of the same.

FOURTH. The Commission erred in denying the appellants the right of a trial of their claims by a competent jury, as granted to them by the laws and constitution of the United States.

FIFTH. The Commission erred in refusing appellants the right to be present in person, or by attorney, during the trial and determination of their claims before the said Commission.

SIXTH. The Commission erred in refusing to issue process for witnesses and to send for persons and papers upon requests to do so by the appellants.

SEVENTH. The Commission erred in deciding against the right of these appellants to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

EIGHTH. The Commission erred in deciding against blood, holding that blood was not a test of a right of citizenship in said Cherokee Nation.

NINTH. The Commission erred in deciding against the question of residence, holding that residence in the Cherokee Nation was not a test of the right of citizenship in the said Cherokee Nation.

TENTH. The Commission erred in not entering upon their docket or record the grounds upon which the claims of appellants were denied and refusing to notify appellants the grounds of denial or rejection.

ELEVENTH. The Commission erred in examining the claims and proof of appellants and denying the same while the Commission was not clothed with any legal authority, nor had jurisdiction, to render decision on said claims and deny the same.

TWELVTH. That the Act of Congress approved June the 10th, 1896, was unconstitutional and had no power or legal effect to confer jurisdiction on said Commission to try and determine the rights to citizenship of said appellants, and said Commission erred in determining the rights and denying the same to said appellants.

THIRTEENTH. That Congress had no power by enactment to create, appoint and empower a judiciary, and said Commission erred in denying the claims of said appellants without any legal authority to do so.

Therefore, the appellants of this cause pray that an appeal be granted to this Court and that a trial, de novo, be granted the appellants, and that said appellants be permitted to introduce new testimony, and that an order be made requiring said Commission to send all pleadings, papers and records filed before it in this cause to this Court, and that the Cherokee Nation, the appellee in this case, be cited to appear at this Court and plead and defend against the appeal and show why the appellants should not by the rules, orders and decisions of this Court be adjudged entitled to citizenship in the said Cherokee Nation, and the appellants will ever pray.

vs. No.90.

Mr. H. A. Gibson, Special Master, to whom this case was referred, submits the following report:

'IN THE UNITED STATES COURT IN THE INDIAN TERRITORY,
NORTHERN DISTRICT, AT MUSKOGEE.

JOANNA BARBER ET AL)
)
-VS.)- : REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER.
)
CHEROKEE NATION.)
----------oOo----------

I, H. A. Gibson, Special Master herein, show to the Court that under the general order herein, I have examined the proof and pleadings herein, which is hereto attached and make a true proof, and that I find as follows:

I

That this cause was instituted on September 8th, 1896, before the Dawes Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, by Joanna Barber, and Isaac J. Barber, her husband, and their children, Onis E., William H., James E., Johnnie and Joel A. Barber. That Joel A. Barber has the following children, Mattie Toliver, George A., Frankie O., Jesse and Ethel Barber. That the application includes also Mary A. Bolt and her child Inez Bolt, Emma L. Murphy and her child Claud Murphy, Emma Moore and her children Anna J., Jackson D., Mary and Gladys, Attie L. Hunt and her child Dorina Hunt, Albey J. Smart and her children Georgia A. and Brizey E. Smart, Josepho J. Garlinghouse and her children Myrtle C., Corn L. and Bertha M. Garlinghouse. That this application was by the Commission tried and rejected on October 20th, 1896, with no reasons given for the decision, and that subsequently on December 22, 1896, the claimants appealed to this Court. That the parties all live in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory.

II

That the parties claim the right to be admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by reason of their descent from Polly Rogers, who is claimed to be a Cherokee Indian by blood. That there filed in support of their application the affidavits of S. E. Dawson, F. Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, and T. A. Dawson, who testify that Joanna Barber is the daughter of Elizabeth Foley, nee Dawson, who was the daughter of Polly Rogers, who married a white man by the name of Samuel Dawson, and that Polly Rogers was the daughter of Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann. That these witnesses are all Cherokee citizens by blood, and related with the claimants, and according to their testimony, relating to them by blood.

The appellee introduces to contravert this testimony the decision of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, rendered in the year 1.37, in which these claimants were rejected by this Commission and also the affidavits of E. C. Rogers a grandson of Captain John Rogers, and Mrs. Sarah Carter, a granddaughter of Captain John Rogers, both of whom state that they never heard of any daughter of said Captain John Rogers by the name of Polly Rogers, and that Cynthia Rogers was his only daughter.

III

The claimants contend that they are residents of the Cherokee Nation, and are relatives of the Dawson family, who are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood, are entitled to be admitted to the Cherokee Nation as citizens by blood, while the appellee contends that John Rogers, through whom the petitioners claim, is not now and has not been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation since the removal west: that his name does not appear on the rolls of the Cherokee Nation, and that he nor his ancestors ever resided in the Cherokee Nation as citizens thereof.

The premises considered, in view of the unsettled condition of affairs in the Cherokee Nation at the time when Captain John Rogers, the ancestors through whom these claimants trace their Cherokee blood, lived, and especially in view of the absence of a marriage law and of records pertaining to marriage, I am of the opinion that these claimants have proved that they are descended from Capt. John Rogers, who resided in the Cherokee Nation, and was a recognized citizen, though they do not show that he was ever enrolled as such, and I therefore find that the claimants are all residents of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, and that they are all Cherokee Indians by blood. That they have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1.67, and probably longer, but the proof does not go to definitely how long they have so resided.

I ask that the Court allow me a reasonable fee for my services herein as Special Master.

Respectfully submitted this 1[illegible] day of August, 1.07.

(signed) N. A. Gibson,
SPECIAL MASTER.

[illegible] said.
"No Exceptions Filed."

BY THE COURT.

From this report it appears that the claimants base their right to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation upon the ground that they are the descendants of a Cherokee Indian by blood, but their ancestors through whom they claim have never resided in the Cherokee Nation as now constituted. It appears that they have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1.67, and probably longer, though the proof does not state definitely how long they have so resided. It does not appear that the claimants or any of their ancestors have ever been recognized as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

The judgment of the United States Commission rejecting this case is affirmed, and the application of the claimants to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation is denied."

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

We now introduce the original record in the citizenship case of Irene J. House, et al., before the Commission in 1896, the court number of same being 238, said case being denied by the Commission; appealed to the United States Court, and the decision of the Commission affirmed.

In this case we desire to call especial attention to the certified copy filed therein of the testimony of Arthur Baker, the certified copy having been made in 1894, being the testimony of Dr. Baker in the case of Robert Dawson against the Nation, number 108, before the Citizenship Commission, and which was made January 19, 1898.

BY MR. McKENNON: To all of which the applicants object, because the same is immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

The papers in Court No. 238, just introduced above, are as follows:

"Office of Commission on Citizenship,
Cherokee Nation, Tahlequah, January 19, 1883.

No. 108.

Testimony for Claimants

Witness, Dr. Arthur Baker sworn testified as follows:

My name is Arthur A. Baker I reside at Berryvill Arkansas Carroll County my age is 73 years I am not a Cherokee, I lived in the Cherokee Nation about three years when I first came to Arkansas I have been acquainted with him since he became a citizen of Carrolls County more 35 years - At my Mothers house near Calhoun I became acquainted with the claimants Robt Dawson grandmother on Mother's side she was frequently at my mothers house though she Anna Pruet lived in the Nation side: She claimed to be a half sister to Big Joe Vann, also claimed to be half Cherokee, the first time she brought the claimants mother to my mothers house she the mothers mother was about grown when I was a little boy. She called her daughter Polly Rogers, Said Captain John Rogers who ran a boat up the River was the father of the child; I saw the girl frequently there at my mothers and there at Louis Ragses Store;

I saw her occasionally until I was 15 or 16 years of old and I think then Old Capt. John Rogers took her off to school, I saw her no more from the time Old Capt. John Rogers took her off till I saw her here in Arkansas the wife of old Samuel Dawson, I stayed all night there and she and I had a talk over our old matters and I asked her where she became acquainted with Dawson and she said at the time she was going to school and she said after she left school that Dawson followed her home, to the Nation and they were there married. I have told that precisely in the words that she used, Capt John Rogers claimed to be one fourth Cherokee. The claimant is the son of Polly Rogers, and I know Polly Rogers to be the daughter of Anna Pruett and I know the claimant to be the son of Polly Dawson.

Capt. Rogers then resided in the Cherokee Country about ~~twenty~~ (Word "twenty" marked through) twelve miles below Calhoun on the Hiwassee River Anna Pruett resided in the Cherokee Nation as long as I stayed there to Dawson when I got acquainted with them Arkansas were recognized where they were as Cherokees. Robert Dawson children is Buck, John, Marian and two girls, The children named in the petition I recognized as being the claimants.

Question by Solicitor:

Qo. 1 How many children did Polly Rogers have?
Ans. 1 Five I think that's all.
No. 2 Did you say so anything about her being married twice?
Ans. 2 The claimant was married twice.
No. 3 Could Anna Pruet speak Cherokee?
Ans. 3 Yes, she could speak it well.

Ques 4 Did Polly Rogers speak Cherokee?
Ans. 4 She did when she was young.
Ques 5 How far did you live from Anna Pruet?
Ans 5 Just across the rive about 3/4 of a mile.
Ques 6 Was Calhoun in the Cherokee Nation?
Ans. 6 It was on both sides of the river part in the Nation and part out in the state.
Ques 7 Which Harnage was it went to Texas?
7 George went first, then John went, they were the sons of old man Harnage, that lived up near the line.
Ques 8 Did the Claimant go to Texas?
Ans. 8 No the Claimant did not go to Texas.
9 What connection was claimant and Polly Rogers?
9 The Claimant is the son of Polly Rogers Marion here is the grandson of Polly Rogers.
10 Where does claimant now live?
10 He lives in Carroll Co Arkansas.
11 Do you know what relation old Capt John Rogers was to Charles Rogers here in Cooweescoowee?
11 They claimed him but what kin I dont know there were two Capt John Rogers in the Nation I am speaking of the time when I first come to this country about the year 1830.

Affiant further states that Irena House is the grand daughter of Mrs. Petty, who was a full sister of Robt & James Dawson.

Affiant further says that he knows that Irena House is a lineal descendant of Annie Dawson whose children (line drawn through word "children") sons, Robt & James before spoken are recognized citizens.

Affiant further says he has no interest in this suit.

vs. No. 238
Cherokee Nation.

Mr. N. A. Gibson, Special Master to whom this case was referred, submits the following report: (Insert report)

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT IN THE INDIAN TERRITORY.

NORTHERN DISTRICT AT MUSCOGEE.

IRENE J. HOUSE ET AL

VS # 238 REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER.

THE CHEROKEE NATION.

----------oOo----------

I, N. A. Gibson, Special Master herein, show to the Court that under the general order herein, I have examined the proof and pleadings on file in this case which are made a part of this report, and that I find as follows:-

I

That this case is in reality a branch of Case No. 80, Joanna Barber vs Cherokee Nation, the principal claimant herein being Irene J. House a daughter of Joanna Barber.

That this cause was instituted on September 8, 1896 at which time application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for citizenship by blood in the Cherokee Nation.

That this case was tried by the said Commission on November 24, 1896 and the applicants denied, no reasons being given for the decision, and that on January 20, 1897, the parties appealed from said decision to this Court.

That this application was made by Irene J. House, her husband, W. J. House, and their children Thos. C. Winston T., and Henry W. House. That they file in support of their application the affidavits of Joe A. Barber, T. L. Dawson, Arthur A. Baker, E. Dawson, and W. A. Dawson. That these Dawson witnesses are citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and state that they are related by blood to the claimants herein on the Cherokee side. The claimants base their contention of a right to Cherokee citizenship upon the fact that the claimant Irene J. House is the daughter of Joanna Barber, who is the daughter of Elizabeth Foster, who was the daughter of Polly Rogers, and that Polly Rogers was the daughter of Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann, who were recognized Cherokee citizens by blood. That the testimony shows that the Dawson family are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that the claimants herein are cousins by blood upon the Indian side, and that they all claim through a common ancestor, Polly Rogers and Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann, who were all recognized Cherokee Indians.

II

The appellee introduces in defense the record of the application of these claimants to the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship in the year 1896, and the record of the rejection of the claimants, and further the affidavits of W. C. Rogers, and Mrs. Sarah Carter, a grand daughter both of whom state that they never heard of any daughter of Captain John Rogers by the name of Polly Rogers, and that he had only one daughter, whose name was Cynthia.

III

The Claimants contend that they are residents of the Cherokee Nation and are relatives of the Dawsons, who are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood, are entitled to be admitted to the Cherokee Nation as citizens by blood, while the appellee contends that John Rogers, through whom the petitioners claim, is not now and has not been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation since the removal west. That his name does not appear on the rolls of the Nation, and that neither he nor his ancestors ever resided in the Cherokee Nation as citizens thereof.

IV

The premises considered, I find that the claimants are the descendants of Captain John Rogers, and that it was entirely possible that in the condition of arrairs at that early date in the Cherokee Nation, especially owing to the absence of a marriage law and of records pertaining to marriage, that those claimants should be the descendants of Captain John Rogers by a daughter, Polly Rogers, of whom the affiants for the appellee may never have heard.

I find that the claimants are residents of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, where they have resided since 1837, and that they are Cherokee Indians by blood.

I ask that the Court allow me a reasonable fee for my services herein as Special Master.

Respectfully submitted, this 9 day of Nov 1897.

Special Master.

My fee paid,
No Exceptions filed."

BY MR. HITCHINGS:

Well we close for the present.

TESTIMONY INTRODUCED ON BEHALF OF THE APPLICANTS:

D. W. C. DUNCAN, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Please state your name, age and residence? A My name is D. W. C. Duncan, my age is 78 years, my residence, Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q Are you a duly recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood? A I am.
Q You gave testimony in this case once before did you not, before the Dawes Commission? A I did.
Q Before this Commission I will say, this Commission? A The Dawes Commission? A Why I don't recollect who the Commissioner was, that was taken at Vinita, ex parte.
Q Were you in any way connected with the Cherokee Citizenship Commission, also known as the "Dawes Commission"? A I was Clerk of that Commission.

Q For what length of time? A I can't recollect the exact length of time, I think it was about thirty days, during the continuance of that Commission, Examiner of this Commission.
Q You were the only clerk of said during its existance were you?
A I think I was.
Q You were Clerk of that Commission when it rendered a decision in favor of Robert Lowery et al, as found on page 114, of its record, numbered 108 (Chronn examines record referred to.) now in the possession of this Commission? A I was.
Q The members of that Commission were the same as shown by the signatures to this judgment were they? A The same, yes, sir.
Q Thomas Fisher, Attorney of the Commission Alex Wolfe and T. F. Thompson Commissioners is that is correct, is it? A That's correct.
Q Were you present when this cause was under consideration by that Commission and when it rendered this judgment in the case? A I was.
Q Were you at that time acquainted with F. M. Dawson, one only [illegible] Dawson, Marshal Taylor and Samuel H. Berge, who were attorneys, who were Cherokee attorneys at that time? A I might say that I merely knew Mr. Dawson; and I knew of him when I saw him [illegible] Mr. Taylor and Mr. Berge [illegible] I have known them a number of years.
Q [illegible] Cherokee citizens were they? A They were.
[illegible] (merely as a citizen) Attorney?
A [illegible]
Q [illegible] seeing him and being present at the time this [illegible] Mr. Berge? A Why I do not recollect seeing Mr. Berge, I cannot recollect now, but I can recollect of seeing Mr. Taylor [illegible] them.
Q [illegible] to the Court for the [illegible] the hearing of that; who brought the case?
Q [illegible] The record? A No, I don't recollect.
Q Do you know whether that Commission rendered any other decision than the [illegible] in this case? A I never had any [illegible]
Q [illegible] applicants? A It was in favor [illegible] If there was another decision other [illegible] before you, I have no [illegible]
Q The [illegible] any knowledge of was recorded by you in [illegible] was it not? A That is the only one that I have any [illegible]
Q [illegible] you any money in connection with that case?
A [illegible]
Q [illegible] to pay you any money for your influence [illegible] A Never.
[illegible] Q [illegible] through any other person [illegible] influence in that case?
A [illegible]
Q [illegible] any knowledge of his having paid to the Court [illegible] of the Court any money for the purpose of influencing [illegible] in that case? A No, whatever.
Q [illegible] opportunity to observe the conduct during that Court [illegible] A The only opportunity that I had was during [illegible] I was [illegible] of him [illegible] and saw him [illegible] I would see him in Court.
Q [illegible] (WITNESS) I was present [illegible] Court which [illegible] and heard [illegible] argument [illegible] that judg-mony? A I never observed anything of the kind; nothing that attracted a suspicion in my mind that he was guilty in that kind of practice.

Q Did Campbell Taylor at any time after the rendition of that judgment say to you why you were again employed by him and Dawson for any services you had rendered him in that case?

A Yes, he said he knew.

Q What amount? A My recollection is that I think it was a twenty dollar bill. I don't know but I had better go and state the transaction, all about it.

Q Yes, sir. A Mr. Duncan, Tom Dawson, during the trial of the case occasionally applied to me at my desk for writing paper, a piece of subpoena or transcript, something of that kind I always treated him with courtesy and proper official consideration. He seemed to appreciate it, and whenever I did services of that kind to him, says he, I have no money, Mr. Duncan, but I feel as I ought to pay you. I told him I made no charges for work of that kind. And in passing I might state that I never received a cent for any kind of that work which I had been in the habit of doing for various parties before the court.

After his trial was concluded, in the afternoon a little while before supper I went to my hotel, the National Hotel in Tahlequah; went to my room, felt a little tired, laid down upon the bed to rest. I recollect Mr. Duncan entered into the room, drew a chair up to the bedside and sat down and commenced talking in expression to his gratification at the success of his case, dwelling mostly upon the testimony in the case both, so satisfactorily, establishing his Cherokee blood, and that he thought that he was entitled and that he had received justice by the Court. I listened to him, and we talked there I guess some ten or fifteen minutes; after a little he says, I must go now, I think he says to-morrow, I must go home, Mr. Duncan lived down in Arkansas somewhere. Says he, Mr. Duncan, I believe I owe you something, I ought to pay you something. Alluding, as I understood, to these little courtesies that I extended to him at my desk. Says I, I make no charges, Mr. Dawson, for services; if I have done you any good you are welcome. Well, says he, I feel indebted to you, I ought to pay you. I says, that makes no difference; I will leave that to you. Says he, I have hardly enough money to get back home. He shook my hand, and the last word he says to me, you won't lose anything for your kindness to me; I thought he had reference to my services at the bar. That was the last I saw of Mr. Dawson, or it must have been a year afterwards; I was located a little claim on the Walla Walla up there in Delaware District, looked after what I claimed to be a farm, merely squatter, I didn't make any other improvements, over there on Horse Creek. Went over in that part of the country to look after my claim, and I met Tom Dawson in. Dawson, he had come into the Country and become quite a trader, a fixed pretty well and living; in fact I seldom met him, he was very glad to see me. I asked him what he was doing there; he said he had moved into the country, and I told him, says I, you are encroaching upon me here; he had entered his claim over part of mine, mine had been made so long it was outlawed under Cherokee law. Well, says Mr. Dawson, I don't feel like doing you any harm, I will pay you for your claim, we will settle the matter in that way, that he as soon as he got his little business together that we would attend to it, until we parted at that point. It ran on then for a long time, I can't know how long,- I think I met him in Alvita, and says he, did Campbell Taylor pay you any money that I sent to you? Says I, No. I have not seen Campbell Taylor.

Well, says he, I gave him some money and told him to send it to you for me, and, says he, you ask him and he will hand it over to you I guess. Well we parted then. Well, went on for some time, some months; I happened to meet Mr. Taylor in Tahlequah; I met him on the street I think, jocularly I slapped my hand on his shoulder, says I, look here, did Mr. Dawson any money to me by you? He says, yes, and he pulled out what I recollect to be a twenty dollar bill, and handed it to me; I received it, and I received it with the idea that he was compensating me for taking my claim, or possibly for doing him those little services in the Court. Now that is the sum and substance of the whole thing.

Q Was not that twenty-five dollars, Mr. Duncan? A It might possibly have been, my recollection does not serve me exactly, it might have been 25 dollars.

Q Did Campbell Taylor pay you any other money as coming from Bud Dawson? A Never a cent.

Q Did he at one time pay you fifty dollars out of a hundred dollars which he had received from Mr. Dawson? A Never.

Q Did he on a second occasion pay you fifty dollars out of one hundred dollars which he claimed to have received from Mr. Dawson? A None at all.

Q He paid you no other money than that you have already stated, from Mr. Dawson? A Not a cent.

BY MR. McKENNON: We offer in evidence the judgment of the Cherokee Citizenship Commission before referred to, and ask that it be filed in evidence in the case of every application made by members of the Robert Dawson family who claim under it, or through Robert Dawson, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, said judgment being found on page 114, Records of the Tehee Court, 1880 to 1884, cause number 106, judgment dated January 11th, 1883, signed by Thomas Tehee, President, Alex Wolfe, T. F. Thompson, Commissioners. D. W. C. Duncan, Clerk Commission.

The said judgment just introduced is as follows:

"Office Commission on Citizenship,
Tahlequah, C. N., September 24th, 1881.
No. 106
Robt Dawson,
Elbert Dawson,
Jasper Dawson,
John Dawson,
Josephine Dawson,
Joseph Dawson,

vs.
Cherokee Nation,

Petition for Citizenship

Continued by the Plaintiff, Oct. 5; 1881.

January 11th, 1883.

The above case continued by the Cherokee Nation till Sept, term. Agreed by the parties that the above shall not be taken up for final disposition before the [illegible] day of Oct. 1902, October [illegible] 1902.

It is agreed by the parties that this shall be finally disposed of at the next January term of the Commission. Present defendants the same, if not, the case shall be transferred to the September term, 1903.

On this agreement Commission continues the cause till the next January term to-wit, January 1903.

And now this the 11th day of January A.D. 1903 this case coming on for final hearing, and all the evidence produced in the case being carefully read and fully considered by the Commission it was adjudged and determined by the Commission on Citizenship that the claimants, Robert Dawson, F. W. Dawson, Albert Dawson, Jesper Dawson, John Dawson, Jo [illegible] Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson, Molly Dawson, Filbron Dawson, James Dawson, nee Pial Dawson, are Cherokees by blood; and that they are entitled to all the rights and privileges of Cherokee Citizenship within the Cherokee Nation, and that they should be, and they are, hereby admitted to the full and complete enjoyment of the same in all respects as native born Cherokees.

Marginal Note: "Case submitted by Claimant January 11th 1903. Case submitted by Solicitor January 11th, 1903."

Q Do you remember how many members of the Court were present when this judgment was rendered, or were all of them? A My recollection upon that point is not positive, but resting my statement upon what I know to be the practice of the Court at the time, seeing the names of all these Commissioners there, I can say with a great deal of positiveness that they were all present, because I never signed the name of one of the Commissioners unless he was present, assenting to it or directing it.

Q The rendition of that judgment then was concurred in by all of the three judges? A It was.

Q Mr. Duncan, if there had been a decision rendered the day before in this case while the Court was in session, adverse to these Claimants, would you have known it? A I certainly should have known it.

Q Was there any such decision of the Court? A None to my knowledge. I can say positively there was not.

Q How many of those judges are now living? A Only one.

Q What? A Mr. Thompson.

Q Tehee and Wolfe are dead? A Tehee and Wolfe are dead.

Q How long have they been dead, do you know? A I do not know quite a number of years. I haven't lived there, never have, but from what their death occurred, and [illegible] some time before I got knowledge of it. It is generally understood that they are dead.

Q Do you recollect to have seen any other member of the Dawson family about the Court at that time I am speaking of? A I have been thinking, and I can't recall to mind that I ever saw any other Dawson except Ned, until after they came into the Territory subsequent to the rendition of the judgment.

(At this point a party who has been sitting in the room in which the examination is being held, is called forward, sworn on behalf of Applicants, and asked to retire until called.)

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Mr. Duncan, when did you become clerk of the Yukon Colonization Court? A It must have been somewhere in December, 1884, at the time the Commission was organized immediately at the close of the Council in which they were appointed.

Q December 1884? A I think so.

Q What are you doing rendering judgments here in your handwriting in 1883? A The Commission held its Court after they were elected sometime.

Q The Court was elected in 1884 wasn't it? A Well, I'm not the time, I don't pretend to say when the Court was elected, I did not have said at the time I was chosen clerk. I was chosen clerk just at the close of the session of the National Council of that year.

Q '84? A I think it was '84.

Q You entered up this judgment rendered January, 1883? A Yes, that was the session of the commission.

Q That was before you were clerk of it? A Well I held my clerkship for some time you know continuously.

Q Well but when you go back to see if you were their clerk when the law on case was passed on? A No, I don't mean to say that.

Q How could you be clerk when the Dawson claim was passed on in 1883 when you were not elected until 1884? A I am mistaken in that, '84 comes after '83,- it was the year preceding 1883, it must have been '82.

Q Your first entry in the Dawson case is January 17, 1884, isn't it? Q I don't recollect what my first entry was. (Attorneys show the record to witness) Yes, that is the entry there on that day,

Q And that was shortly after you became clerk wasn't it? A Yes, shortly after I became clerk.

Q The case had been entered upon the docket before you became clerk? A I think so, yes; It was entered at the previous term of the session of the Commission.

Q In whose handwriting was the names of the three Commissioners signed to that judgment? A Dawson Jud ment?

(Attorney shows record to with a again) A That is my handwriting.

Q All three names? A All three names.

Q The record there shows that you immediately gave them that day a transcript of the judgment, do you know who signed it? A Signed the transcript?

Q Yes, sir. A I do not recollect now, this is, did the writing?

Q Signed the names to it? A Yes, that's it.

Q You always signed the names of Yukon and Yukon didn't you?

A I think I did pretty generally; I don't know of their attempting to write their own names.

Q When Mr. Thompson was there didn't he sign his own name? A Sometimes he did, sometimes he simply authorized me to do it.

Q Have you any recollection of his authorizing you to do it except from the fact that you have done it on that score frequently?

A I can't recall the particular instance or set of circumstances, but I can say positively that, consulting the record, that he authorized me to put his name there.

Q Will you look at the original transcript hereby shown you and referred to in the judgment and say who signed the names of the Commissioners there? A (Papers shown to witness) A I signed them there.

Q You recognize that as your handwriting? A I do.

Q What made you when you were testifying at Vinita before Mr. Martin, on looking at the same signatures, and being cross-examined by me, say that it was not your signature and that the signature thereto attached was the signature of Mr. Thompson? A Occurred in this way: I had not been any of the persons in the case for about nineteen years. The exact transaction in the court had vanished about entirely from my memory: I recollected at that time, however, when I gave in my testimony before the Commissioner, Martin, that that was a practice of the Court at the time I served by which I signed the names of the full-blood members of the Commission, and Mr. Thompson either uniformly or occasionally signed his own name. I based my statement in that deposition upon my knowledge of the rule or practice in the Court, without comparing the docket and refreshing my memory. I made an incorrect statement when I said that that was not my handwriting; I am convinced now that it is my handwriting. That is the way it occurred, the way it happened.

Q Then you consider your recollection of the fact that Thompson when he was present and rendering a judgment signed it himself, better than your own knowledge of your own handwriting?

A No, I didn't so regard it. I simply spoke without advisement when I gave in that testimony; I subsequently became better informed and concluded that that was my handwriting and not entered by Mr. Thompson under the rule, but was one of those cases in which he authorized me to do it myself, and I did it.

Q Then you have changed your testimony, because you think you have a better knowledge of the surrounding facts now than you had then, and not from the fact of your judgment on your handwriting at present? A I simply corrected my testimony in reference to my statement in regard to this handwriting, this case.

Q And you wouldn't know this as I understand you whether or not that is your handwriting if it was not refreshed by what you consider to be exterior factor A I should know it by examining it and thinking over the circumstances, I think I should recognize my own handwriting, but if question should be propounded instantaneously without any advisement or preconsideration I might make a mistake.

Q You did recognize the names of Thomas Tehee and Alexander Wolfe as being in your handwriting at that time? A I was very clear and positive, and so stated, that the names of those Commissioners were in my handwriting, and I was made certain by reflecting on the rule that they never signed their names with their own hand, but always authorized me to do it. Hence there is no question in my mind in regard to my handwriting in their signatures.

Q And then the third name, right under it, as compared with your admitted handwriting, you had to wait and learn the facts afterwards to determine whether that was your signature or not? A No; I don't think that if I had considered the circumstances, I knew that there was a resemblance; that made it of the opinion that that might have been Mr. Thompson's signature was like this: I knew that he had been in the habit of at least sometimes signing his own name, and I was under the impression-and I do not now think I am much deceived- that his chirography bore at least some resemblance to my own, hence I doubted whether I had signed that name or not on that account.

Q You were asked somewhat at that time in your testimony as to the fact that Mr. Thompson's name was not written and not known, didn't not A Mr. Thompson's signing that book was my suggestion; not by him but to you; to ascertain whether I was not right or not, and after so long a time I found that I was.

Q And he stated, as you too didn't you, that he always did sign the original bill when he was present? A I do not recollect that I stated, that I used the word "always", at that time, but at the time I was examined when the deposition was taken by me I recollect that he did, but then I come to reflect and examine the docket I was convinced that I was wrong, that occasionally I signed for him.

Q Then you never knew until this your testimony given something like a year and a half ago was wrong until you examined the docket day before yesterday, and discovered you're not Thompson's signature? A I don't know that I have thought of it since that time until yesterday or day before the examining the docket.

Q Is the only recollection that you have got and the only aid to your recollection that Thompson was present when this judgment was rendered was the fact that you see his name signed to it, in your handwriting, is it? A As a fact.-

Q You can answer that yes or no? A That seeing the admitting aided my recollection and I recollect now that the commissioners were all present at the time that I signed it. I didn't their names out of court at all.

Q Was it in the forenoon now or in the afternoon? A I don't recollect whether it was in the forenoon or afternoon.

Q In recollecting that they were all present when the record was signed, do you mean to say that they were all present when the judgment was rendered? A Yes, that is, you mean when the question of admission or rejection was voted upon?

A Yes. A They were present.

Q Did you make up the record at the time that they rendered the judgment, or make a memorandum of it, and then write up the judgment some days afterward? A The record was not written up immediately upon the decision of any case, but I wrote up the record after adjournment, generally in the evening, and presented it next day or when the next session was had, for signature; that was the practice.

Q But in this Dawson case you wrote it up the very day that it was rendered didn't you? A I didn't recollect as to that.

Q And gave them a transcript the very day it was rendered?

A I don't recollect as to that.

Q Was instructed the giving of the transcript on the bottom of the judgment the day it was rendered? A I should say it was given at the date of the transcript.

Q That was a very unusual thing, for you to do in entering up judgments? A We do that?

Q To notice the bottom that you had given a transcript the same day the judgment was rendered? A No, I don't know that there is anything unusual about that.

Q Only three cases in that record or more than one in any event that you have ever done that? A I don't recollect, but as I don't recollect of giving anybody else a transcript.

Q That is what I am getting at: you gave them a transcript and wrote up your judgment and everything right away? A Pretty promptly after the decision; whether it was the same day or the evening, and signed next day, I don't recollect.

AT NOW BEING THE HOUR OF NOON, I.E.M., THE COMMISSION ADJOURNS UNTIL HALF PAST ONE P. M.

AFTERNOON, 1:30 P.M., APPEARANCES, same as in forenoon: D. F. C. DUNCAN again on the stand.
BY MR. CUMMINGS:

Q Do you remember what witnesses were before the Court? A I couldn't recollect now distinctly except Dr. Baker, I remember him mainly because of the length of his testimony at the time it took to take it.
Q The Doctor was about the only distinct witness there was? A He is the only one now that I can call to mind.
Q There was probably another old donkey that testified was not there? A I have no recollection to that effect.
Q The case was just decided really on Doctor Baker's testimony, he is about the only man that knew anything about the case? A I am not certain that Dr. Baker was the only witness; might have been others that are now escaped my recollection.
Q Doctor Baker's testimony was to be given in writing? A Yes.
Q There was not anybody else taken down in writing, was there? A All the testimony that was accepted in the case was taken down in writing.
Q Did you ever see anybody's else testimony in writing except Dr. Baker in that case? A Yes, I presume so, I can't recollect any other but Dr. Baker's.
Q You know whether that was taken absolutely before the trial or at the trial or how was it? A It was taken in the presence of the three commissioners during the session of the Court.
Q You mean the day that the case was decided or how? A I do not recollect whether the case was on trial more than one day, but my impression is that it was.
Q Do you know whether it was the same term of the court or not? A I think it was the same term of the Court.
Q How many terms a year did that court have, do you know how did they last? A I don't recollect of late serving but one term myself, it seems to me so.
Q You didn't go in until January of 1888 did you? A First record is a record of about the 15th of January 1888, as shown on the book, isn't it? A I don't recollect in that regard.
Q How would they take testimony in the case, then sentence it, or how could they generally do about that? A I think they decided on the case at the term in which they took testimony.
Q Can you say whether or not this testimony was taken in this case at the time it was decided or at the term it was decided, or within a week or two of the time it was decided? A My best recollection is that it was taken at the term in which it was decided; some was taken on my testimony heard that the decision was made at the conclusion of the testimony.
Q Well now, I see on October 4th, 1888, on your docket, the following entry reads: "It is agreed by the parties that this shall finally be disposed of at the next January Term." That would be January, 1889, "if the plaintiff to prosecute with due diligence, if not, the case shall be dismissed by the Court on the 1st day of October, 1888; or this agreement to be void and of no effect from and after the 1st day of January to, 1889." Now I don't see as you had a January and September term; and this decision was rendered at the January, 1933 term. The Baker's testimony taken during the January, 1933, term, at the time this decision was rendered? A I find it impossible for me to recollect those facts that are recorded there; although I can say about that, that the record shows the correct statement of the facts; but I can't recall those facts.

Q Well there is a record here that this case was continued on the 13th day of January, 1933, upon agreement that it should be taken upon the 4th day of October, 1933; your record shows that there was nothing done in the case from January 13th, 1933 until October 4th, 1933; would you say that was correct? A I would say it was correct if it so stands on the book; it is designed to be a correct entry of the facts.
Q I will let you see the book for yourself; I don't want to misrepresent your end of it at all. (Shows entry in book to witness.)
A I can't recall those facts in regard to the agreement.
Q Who took down the testimony of the witnesses in court? A I took it down.
Q You took down the testimony of Dr. Baker? A Yes.
Q He was cross examined by counsel for the Nation? A As to what I don't recollect. He was present, he was always present; I think likely he was cross examined.
Q And that testimony was taken at or near the time when the judgment was rendered in January, 1933? A I think it was, my impression is to that effect.
Q Well the court seems to have had no session as to this case from January 13, 1933 up to October 4th, 1933, according to the record? A (No response.)
Q You don't recall taking down Attorney's Wise testimony in the case? A No sir, I don't.
Q And the probability is that he was the only witness examined isn't he? A It might have been so. My recollection is that he was regarded as the main witness of the case.
Q He was quite an old man, about 75 at that time? A Yes, he was quite old.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q The testimony of Dr. Arthur Baker, from this record, appears to have been taken January 13th, 1933; is that correct, as far as you may know, or are able to state? A Is that Dr. Baker's testimony? (Attorney here shows witness papers) A It appears to be, yes; I don't think that was the testimony that the case was decided upon, because his testimony was taken orally before the Commission, and I wrote it down; please let me see it. (Attorney hands said papers to witness.)
A Well, all I know about this is as I stated before, I can't recall those facts, but whatever the record says why I say that the record was made correct, according to the fact. (Witness takes copy of the testimony referred to to refresh his memory.) I don't succeed in reading that very clearly to my own understanding, but I gather from the subject matter in that testimony that it is in accord with Doctor Baker's statement; in exactly word for word I am not able to say, but that is the tenor of the testimony.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q In taking the testimony you endeavored to get down all the material facts that you could in taking it in long hand? A Yes, very nearly word for word, as I could put it, sometimes there was a little variation made necessary by the length of the witness' statement.

BY MR. McKENNON: Applicants object to all of the witness' testimony relating to the method of taking the testimony of witnesses at the trial, the character and effect of that testimony, and the number of witnesses, except so far as the same may be used for the purpose of testing the memory of the witness, because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

B. F. FORTNER, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q What is your name? A B. F. Fortner.
Q What is your age? A 54.
Q You are a physician are you not? A I am.
Q Where do you reside? A Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q Do you hold any official position in your profession? A Yes, I am President of the National Board of Health, Cherokee National Board of Health, and member of the Legislative Committee of the Indian Territory and of the American Medical Association,-those are some, and the most important positions I hold at this time.
Q Are you a Cherokee citizen? A I am.
Q By blood or intermarriage? A Intermarriage.
Q Your wife is a citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know D. W. C. Duncan? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A About twelve or fifteen years, about twelve years I should say.
Q Do you know his general reputation in the community where he resides for honesty and uprightness of character? A I do, I think.
Q Is that good or bad? A It is good.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A About six or eight years, don't know exactly how long: Known of him for ten years and personally I have known him about any six or eight years.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and veracity? A I do.
Q Is that good or bad? A It is bad.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Mr. Du can belongs to the same church you belong to? A Yes, sir.
Q And has for a number of years? A Well now I say I think he does; I have always so understood.
Q Don't keep up with all your members? A No, but he has attended church there and my impression has been that he is a member of the church.
Q You didn't have any business before the Citizenship Court of which he was clerk, did you? A No, sir, not that I know of.
Q You was not at Tahlequah while he was clerk of a Court from 1832 to '3? A I don't believe I was.
Q Never had any business before that Court? A Had no business before them, not while he was Clerk to my knowledge.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q You spoke of his membership in the church: he is in good standing as a member of the church is he? A Yes, sir.
Q I will ask you if Campbell Taylor's reputation isn't notoriously bad? A Yes, I have so understood it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q I will ask you if it was notoriously bad in 1832, when these people employed him to represent them before the Court? A That was before my knowledge of him.

Q But so far as you know his bad reputation dates back so far as you know him? A So far as I know him.

G. W. MILLER, being duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A G. W. Miller.
Q What is your age, Mr. Miller? A 61.
Q Where do you reside? A Vinita.
Q How long have you lived there? A Well I have lived there altogether about 13 years I guess, or 14.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.
Q What is your business? A Real estate and insurance agent.
Q Do you know D. W. C. Duncan? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I have known him twenty years.
Q Do you know his general reputation for honesty and uprightness of character where he lives? A Why yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A It is good, so far as I know.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known him? A Well I have known him 18 or 20 years, I guess.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and honesty? A Well yes.
Q Is that good or bad? A Well, it is bad, I think.

ATTORNEYS FOR CHEROKEE NATION waive cross examination.

T. H. CURTIS, being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A T. H. Curtis.
Q How old are you, Mr. Curtis? A 56.
Q Where do you reside? A Afton, Indian Territory.
Q How long have you lived in the Indian Territory? A 20 years.
Q What is your business? A Barber business.
Q Do you know D. W. C. Duncan? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A About 20 years.
Q You know his general reputation for honesty and uprightness of character in the community where he lives? A I do.
Q Is that good or bad? A As good as any man's.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A Some 20 years, I suppose.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and integrity and honesty? A Yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A Bad.
Q Is it notoriously bad? A Yes.
Q Did you ever know Mr. Baker, Mr. A. W. Baker, of Berryville, Arkansas? A Yes sir, I knew him a good deal.
Q Where? A Over at Berryville; I had a saw mill in that country at Berryville.
Q Did you know his general reputation so far as honesty and uprightness of character and truthfulness? A Yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A Good sir. Good as any man's; he is a good citizen gentleman.
Q Did you know him well enough to know his habits of life? A Yes sir.
Q Was he in the habit of using liquor, drinking liquor? A Not that I know, I [illegible] saw him take a drink in my life.

Q Was his character such as to preclude any such charge against him? A It was, yes sir.

BY MR. FOSTER:

Q How long did you know Dr. Baker? A Two years.

Q What does he do here? A He was an old veteran then, he lived right on the edge of Jeffersville, Dr. Baker.

Q How old do you think he was then? A I think he must have been 65 or 70 years old; an old gentleman.

Q That was in 18 what, 80? A No sir, it was in '82 and '83, the two years that I lived over there.

Q He had retired from business? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he have any family? A Yes, sir.

Q What family did he have? A I don't know how much family he had, I was not acquainted with the old gentleman.

Q He wasn't doing any business with anybody? A No sir.

Q And his character was never called in question one way or the other was it? A No sir, no sir.

Q Campbell Taylor was a notorious rascal pretty much even since you ever knew his name, he? A Yes sir, I never knew much good of him.

Q And whenever a man got a bad citizenship case he got Campbell to work it, because he was notoriously a rascal, that's it sir, it? A Well a great many of them got him.

Q It was a notorious thing that they had a bad case they would get him, it would sort of give a case a hallmark to have Campbell around it? A Yes, that would be right.

Q You never knew anything about Mr. Watson's connection with citizenship matters? A No sir, never did.

Q You never heard about "kiting" some of the records of citizenship cases? A No sir, never did.

Q You have heard lots of talk about this Watson case? A Yes sir.

Q Rumor has it all around that somebody was doing something wrong? A Yes sir.

Q You never accused him of it you think? A I never heard him accused of it, no sir.

Q That never got out from the first day they were admitted right up to the present? A Well I don't know not from the first day, I have heard it for a good while though.

Q But you never knew who they fixed it on? A No sir.

Q They have been a pretty strong family up there in that country haven't they, pretty large family? A Yes sir.

Q Cast a good many votes up there? A Yes sir.

Q Did you ever know of the Doctor's testifying any in court, Dr. Baker? A No sir, I never did.

Q What would you think of a man who would testify that he knew a girl that was single in 1825 when the youngest of her seven children was born in 1827; what would you think, would you think that was a statement to be made by a man who was truthful? A -

BY MR. WATKINS: Applicants object to the question because it is wholly incompetent, and not based upon any proof or admitted facts in the case, and it is wholly immaterial and incompetent.

Do you think that was a statement that would be made by a truthful man? A (No response.)

Q You knew him in '82? A Yes sir.

Q He was quite an old, decrepit man? A Yes sir, quite old, '82 and '83.

Q 14 years from that time he was liable to be in his dotage?
A I don't know, he was an old man when I knew him.
Q He was too old to work, and retired from business then? A Well he did work a good deal, but wasn't doing any business particular that I know of.
Q He would have been pretty old 14 years from that time? A Yes, he would be getting old.

D. M. HARRS, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q What is your name? A D. M. Harris.
Q What is your age, Mr. Harris? A I am 44.
Q What is your business? A I am publishing a newspaper.
Q What paper? A "The Indian Chieftan."
Q Are you Editor of that paper? A Yes sir.
Q You live at Vinita, then? A Yes sir.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q By blood or intermarriage? A Intermarriage.
Q Do you know D. W. C. Duncan? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A 15 or 18 years.
Q Do you know his general reputation in the community where he lives for honesty and uprightness of character? A Yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A Good.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A Why 15 years or longer.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and honesty in the community? A His general reputation, yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Well it is not good.
Q Is it bad? A Well I suppose it must be bad then.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How long has Campbell's reputation been bad, Mr. Harris, quite a good while, hasn't it? A Why I think so, yes sir.
Q And it kind of began mostly with this citizenship business? A Yes, so far as I know it did, yes sir.
Q Campbell got so many bad citizenship cases and through the mails, and they finally had him up about it, had a good deal of stir about it? A Yes sir.
Q And some of that stir was sort of occasioned by his helping the Dawsons in, wasn't it? A I don't know, I don't know whether he helped the Dawsons.
Q Was not that one of the principal cases that brought him into notoriety? A I don't know whether he had that case or not. I know he had a great many cases.
Q That was the principal thing that convicted the Civil Campbell out, was citizenship cases here? A I think that is what got him into the most trouble.
Q I say before that time nobody had talked much about Campbell one way or another, and it became pretty general that Campbell was handling shoddy citizenship cases, and he got a bad reputation from that? A Yes sir, I think that was the reputation generally.
Q Now Mr. Harris, Campbell's connection with the Dawson case sort of been kept back; people never talked much about it? A I never heard anything about it, as I know of.
Q You have heard that there has been something, well, about the Dawson case, that has been a notorious thing? A O. it has been a notorious case, yes sir.
Q Well the fact of Mr. Dawson's reputation for truth and veracity has been so much given by himself, his confession, is terrible? A What is that?

Q His reputation for truthfulness is good if given by himself; no [illegible] to confess a bad one, [illegible] doesn't he?
A I don't know whether I am qualified to answer that.
Q [illegible] his own honesty, he knows that very well, don't he?
A No sir, not that I make of.
Q Doesn't he write a good deal about that sort of thing? A About his reputation?
Q Why is speaking of his own integrity? A I don't remember that he does.
Q You read not about the citizenship courts along in 1911 '2 and '3 here, you do? A No sir.
Q Don't remember about the talk that was going on around the Capitol over there about the citizenship cases? A Why no, don't remember anything special as I know of. I read of the citizenship court going on at different times.
Q How far were you living from Tahlequah in '87? A Well, I lived close to Vinita, I guess it is sixty miles probably.
Q Have you lived any nearer Tahlequah since that time? A No sir, never have.

H. L. BUTLER, being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:

BY I.R. PETERSON:

Q What is your name? A H. L. Butler.
Q You are a minister of the Gospel? A Yes sir.
Q H. L. Butler, Senior? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been in the ministry? A I have been in the ministry 24 years, sir.
Q Did you ever live at Vinita? A Yes sir.
Q How long? A I was there four years, sir.
Q Do you know D. W. E. Bacon? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A I have known him about 22 years.
Q Do you have his general reputation for honesty and truthfulness of character? A I do.
Q Is that good or bad? A Good, so far as I know.
Q You have had opportunity of knowing? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McCUTCHEON:

Q Mr. Bacon was a member of your church? A Yes sir.
Q What is the principal way you had of coming in contact with him? A Yes sir, he was a member of my official board.
Q His connection with citizenship cases that were decided by the court of which he was clerk was never brought up in your presence anywhere? A No sir.
Q Or never discussed? A No sir, I know nothing about his connection with it.
Q You didn't live about at Tahlequah in '87? A Yes sir, I was Pastor of the M.E. Church in '87 at Tahlequah.
Q Do you know about the Indian cases, and other cases appealed there by the Citizenship Court? A No sir, I know nothing about the cases; I read the decision when in session, and I never [illegible] in the clerk of the Court's room, but know nothing about the cases that were decided at all.
Q Never heard anybody discuss the cases that were decided? A No sir.

THOMAS A. CHANDLER, being first duly sworn by me, being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. ROBINSON:

Q What is your name? A Thomas A. Chandler.
Q What is your age, Mr. Chandler? A I am 70.
Q What is your business? A Deputy Clerk of the United States Court at Vinita.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Do you know D. W. C. Lipsey? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A Let me see, I have known him about nine or ten years.
Q You know his general reputation for honesty or uprightness of character in the community where he lives? A Yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Good so far as I know.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I think about 15 years.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and honesty? A Yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Bad so far as I know.

BY MR. HUTCHINES:

Q How did Campbell Taylor get a bad reputation? A Well sir, I don't know how he did.
Q You never knew him until 1885? A Well I never knew him personally, I heard of him before that.
Q He had a bad reputation before '85? A Yes sir.
Q Bad reputation any back yonder? A First I remember I ever heard of him I heard people speaking bad of him, when I was a kid.
Q And everybody that came around the Nation and knew anything at all knew Campbell had a bad reputation? A Yes sir, ever so far back as '79 or '80, that is as far back as I can remember; I think I heard it broken off in '80, I think that's about the time.
Q And Campbell got a very bad reputation in '80 and '81 when we began to have these citizenship cases? A Yes sir.
Q You heard him spoken of in reference and using the mails for these business? A Yes sir, I heard of him being in the Fort Smith Jail on that account.
Q Citizens of the Nation talked a good deal about Campbell's being in these bad citizenship cases? A Yes sir.
And I also heard he had a bad reputation for evading his debts, along about the same time.
Q You don't know whether or not he had the money, he might not have had the money to pay his debts? A No sir.
Q He could have kept out of bad citizenship cases? A Yes sir, I suppose he could.
Q You never heard Mr. Duncan's name mentioned before in connection with the Dawson case, citizenship cases? A No sir, I don't think I have, I may have, but I don't recollect hearing it.
Q General impression that somebody had done something wrong with that matter, citizenship cases? A I heard there was something wrong in connection with the Dawson citizenship case.
Q What has always been in relation since they were settled? A Yes sir, I have heard it rumored around over the country that such was the case.

Q Was it a pretty large voting community up there and it never was investigated? A I don't know about that, I don't know if it was ever investigated, I never heard of it.

Q So they never had any endeavor to find out who the man was?
A No sir.
Q Where did you live in '87? A In '87 I lived out on Duck Creek about 12 miles south-east of Vinita.
Q How far from Tahlequah was that? A About 65 or 70 miles, I suppose.
Q You never were around before the citizenship courts any time that time? A No sir.
Q You don't know then whether or not Campbell had lost all the Dawson cases or not down there? A No sir, I do not, at that time.

BY MR. McKENNON: Applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness as to what he heard by way of rumor, about the character of the Dawson case, because the same is hearsay, immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

A. S. McKENNON, of Counsel for Applicants, being first duly sworn, makes the following statement:

I became a resident of Carroll County, Arkansas, early in 1856. I was intimately acquainted with Doctor Arthur Baker, for many years. Knew him as well as I did anyone else. He was a gentleman of the highest Christian character, so recognized by everybody who knew him. He was a sober man, and never drank liquor. I make this statement more in vindication of that good man's memory than for any other reason, because any imputation against his character is false.

BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q How long did you know him? A I resided in Carroll County until 1867 when I removed to Johnson County, Arkansas; during the war I was away from home, but I knew him intimately every year that I resided in Carroll County.
Q Did you know him since '67? A Yes sir, I have seen him several times. I have relatives living in the town in which he lived; my relations to him were such as to cause me always to inquire about Doctor Baker; I knew his reputation I think as well after I left there as I did when I lived there.
Q Did you know those facts in 1896 when you was a member of this Commission? A Yes sir, I have known them all my life as I know them now.
Q Did you know them when you as a member of this Commission passed on the Irene J. House case? A I knew it every day of my life, in 1896 as well as now.
Q Suppose that Doctor Arthur Baker's statement would show that he was born in the year 1808, and suppose he said when he was 15 or 16 years of age that Anna Pruett the wife of Samuel Dawson, was a grown up girl going to school, then the other undisputed evidence shows that she had married Sam Dawson prior to that time and had seven children, the youngest of whom was born in '45, how would you harmonize that with a man who was an honest man and knew the facts in the case? A Whatever Dr. Baker stated he honestly believed, whether it was right or wrong; whether it was error or truth, he honestly believed it, and stated it as he believed it.
Q He was capable of being in error? A Every man is.
Q I say he was? A Yes sir, just as you and I and every man, he was: I merely stated as to his high character, which could be proven, by every man who knows me I think, I know it.
Q The Commission rejected Irene J. House in 1896, of which you were a member? A I don't remember anything about that personally.

TESTIMONY IN BEHALF OF APPLICANTS.

DAVID [illegible], being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows,
By MR. [illegible]:
Q State your name? A David [illegible].
Q Where do you reside? A Vinita.
Q How old are you? A 49 years old.
Q Did you ever know James Dawson, A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I have [illegible] years.
Q Did you ever have any talk with him about his citizenship here.
A Very little.
Q You were at one time an applicant before the Dawes Commission for citizenship were you not? A Yes sir.
Q Well what did Mr. Dawson tell you in reference to his citizenship, as to the cost of his getting it, if anything? A Well he told me it cost him eleven or twelve hundred dollars to get his case through.
Q Where did that conversation take place? A At Afton.
Q At what time? A It was in '98, spring of '98.
By MR. McKENNON:
Q Where were you when he told you that? A I was working on a house in Afton, building a house.
Q Whose house? A S. S. Haines.
Q Who else was present? A Nobody was present.
Q Where is he? A At Afton.
Q What age man was Mr. Dawson at that time? A I don't know, he was very old, probably 75 years old.
Q Was he not a very feeble man? A Yes sir.
Q Hardly able to get around? A No sir.
Q Was he not then regarded as feeble minded old man? A I don't know whether he was so regarded or not.
Q You don't know what he had to do with the case, in fact, himself, do you? A No, I judged it was himself and family that cost that much to get through; attorney's fees, etc. That is the way I took it anyway.
Q You were an applicant yourself? were you not? A Yes sir.
Q When? A At that time.
Q Before the Cherokee authorities? A Yes sir.
Q They rejected you? A Yes sir.
Q You were an applicant then before the Dawes Commission were you?
A Yes sir, been rejected ever since.
Q Are you still an applicant? A Yes sir.
Q Still trying to get in? A Yes sir.
Q Claiming by blood? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation? A 15 years.
Q Where did you come from? A Indiana.
Q Claiming to be a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
Q Indian? A Yes sir.
Q James Dawson is dead is he? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A I think he died probably within two years after that.

TESTIMONY TAKEN ON BEHALF OF THE APPLICANTS.

F. M. DAWSON, being recalled and further examined, testified as follows:
By MR. McKENNON:
Q F. M. Dawson? A Yes sir.

Q Mr. Dawson, what member of your family came to the Cherokee Nation to file and prosecute the claim of your father, Robert Dawson, and the children of his family, to Cherokee citizenship?
A My brother from Texas that resided at Tahlequah.
Q Tell his name? A Elbert Dawson, they all know him by that.
Q When was that? A In '81 as well as I remember, or '82, I don't know which it was in '81 or '82.
Q Did you file your claim at that time? A My brother was, yes, the application,--my brother had Joel Mayes to make it out and file it. That is my understanding.
Q Joel Mayes, who afterwards was Chief of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Before what court was that filed? A My understanding was he was clerk of the court; Hastings can tell us what court he was clerk of.
Q He was clerk of the Court at that time? A Yes sir, of the citizenship court; that's my understanding.
Q What was done about the case at that time, if you remember? A I went back home and left my brother down there at that time, that trip.
Q Where did you then live? A I lived at Berryville, Arkansas.
Q When did you next come to the Cherokee Nation? A I believe I came back the next January, that was in September.
Q Was your brother back here then? A I don't think he was, I don't remember.
Q Well had he at any term of the Court or session of the Commission at any time after you first came here and filed the application until after it was decided? A No sir, I never met him any more until that case was decided.
Q You conducted the business then after that did you not? A Yes sir.
Q The case was finally determined in January 1883? A '83, yes sir, the 11th day as I remember.
Q Were you present at that session? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any decision of that case other than the one of record here? A I never heard of it if there was.
Q Was the judgment rendered in that case as recorded in the record Book of that Commission now in the custody of the Dawes Commission the only judgment that was rendered in that case so far as you know?
A Yes sir, so far as I know, if there was any I never heard of it in that case.
Q You then know of no decision against you in the case? A No sir.
Q Who was your attorney employed at the beginning? A I employed A. H. Norwood.
Q Was he a Cherokee Citizen? A Yes sir, I think so.
Q Where did he live? A At Claremore, my understanding.
Q Was he present at any time before the Commission? A I never saw him, he never met me there before the Commission.
Q Did you pay him any money? A Yes sir.
Q How much? A Fifty dollars.
Q Did he ever render any services? A If he ever did I never knew it.
Q Well then who did you employ? A My brother employed Joel Bryant.
Q Was he a Cherokee citizen?
A That is my understanding.
Q Was he not a prominent Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
Q What service did he render? A Well sir, I don't know whether he rendered any or not, only he met me a time or two at Tahlequah, and he was before the Commission; whether he rendered any services or not I don't know; he was generally always at Washington City during the Term down there.

Q Well what did he do about it? A I don't know, I couldn't say whether he done anything about it. That is Mr. Bryant, he was always gone.
Q What next was done about the employment of an attorney? A Why I got a letter from Joel Bryant that he was going to Washington City and for me to come down in January Term and Campbell Taylor would see to my claim before the court.
Q Did he say that he had engaged the services of Campbell Taylor the attorney, to attend to it in his absence? A Yes sir, in his absence.
Q Have you got that letter? A I don't think I got the letter.
Q Well what did you do then? A Why when the time came I come down on the Katy to Muskogee here and I goes over from here to Fort Gibson and I goes down to see Uncle Houston Benge and stays all night with him; it was very cold weather, and I got him to go over and submit my case to the court; I went over one day and the next day Uncle Houston Benge come over and the next morning after he come over the case was submitted.
Q Did he submit the case? A Yes sir, he told me so.
Q For you? A Yes sir.
Q Were you present? A I was present until they went to take the vote on the case and then we was drove out of their room and they had a secret session, acting on the case.
Q Was Houston Benge present with you? A Yes sir.
Q Were you in the court when he submitted it to them? A Yes sir, when he made his argument.
Q He made an argument before the Corrission? A Yes sir.
Q Was the decision rendered on that day? A Yes sir.
Q How long after he made his argument and submitted the case? A Was not but a little bit; when we were drove out of the house the first time before they went into secret session they wanted me to set up the cigars to the court and the crowd in the house; after the decision was rendered then I was to set up the cigars, and everybody come to me and told me to go and get the cigars and I done so.
Q And you took the cigars there and all? A Yes sir, everybody, the attorneys and all that was in the house, all had a cigar a piece.
Q Did they then announce their finding in the case? A Yes sir, they told me that I was granted my citizenship right and by the Corrission.
Q What did you do about it then? A Why the Clerk wrote me out my certificate.
Q That same day? A That same day.
Q What arrangements did you make with Mr. Benge about his fee, and what was the amount of his fee? A There was no arrangement made until we got up there and he submitted our case; then he wanted me to pay him fifty dollars, that was his fee.
Q What was the agreement about the matter, the manner in which that fee should be paid? A My brother in Texas was to pay it.
Q Were you to write or was he to write? A He was to write for it.
Q Did your brother in Texas ever pay his fee of fifty dollars A Yes sir.
Q Was that all that was to be paid? A All as I was to have; all he charged me.
Q You heard his state out when he gave his deposition at Fort Gibson the other day did you not? A Yes sir.

Q He there stated that you paid him fifty dollars before you went over to Tahlequah, did you do that? A No sir.
Q He said that you paid him fifty dollars after he got over to Tahlequah, did you do that? A I never paid him a cent in my life.
Q After the judgment was rendred where did you go to? A I went back home to Arkansas.
Q By what route? A I went by Siloam Springs and on by Spring Dale and then on to Rogers, took the railroad there and went on by Saliqua and by Eureka Springs home.
Q You then did not return to Fort Gibson with Houston Benge, as he stated? A No sir, I did not.
Q Why did you not return by way of Fort Gibson? A Well I thought anyhow the others was the cheap st road and struck a hack going out by Sam Shables when I was boarding at, I could go to Siloam Springs and I went by that route and then there was a hack going by Spring Dale, that was the most direct route.
Q That was the most direct route from your home was it not? A Yes sir.
Q And the cheapest? A And the cheapest route.
Q Had you been coming back to Fort Gibson you would have been going directly away from home would you not? A Yes sir.
Q Your home was nearly east, due east of Tahlequah was it not? A Yes sir, little north of east, pretty near due east.
Q While Fort Gibson is almost due west is it not? A South west.
Q You heard his statement that you went to Fort Gibson with him, and he was only stated to him that the way to reach that court was through Duncan and you reached there through Duncan with five hundred dollars, did you make that statement? A I never did, I didn't have the five hundred dollars to reach him.
Q Did he while at Tahlequah inthe court room on the evening before this judgment was rendered in your favor, tell you that the court had rendered a judgment against you? A No sir.
Q And did you then say to him, you can't fix that? A I had no such conversation with him.
Q Did you pay to D. W. C. Duncan, Who was the Clerk of the Court any sum of money, or agree to pay him any sum of money, directly or through any other person for any services he might render you by way of influencing the court to decide in your favor? A No sir.
Q Or for any other purpose? A No sir.
Q Did you pay him any money after that through Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q What amount? A 20 or 25 Dollars, I don't know which it was.
Q State what that money was paid for? A For a claim.
Q What do you mean by a claim? A Claim on the public domain: he had a claim up there close to me; paid him 20 or 25 dollars for his claim. He had no claim by me, on the Cherokee Public Domain.
Q What did Campbell Taylor have to do with your case?
A He had nothing to do with it.
Q Did you agree to pay him any money for his services as an attorney? A No sir.
Q Did he perform any services in that case foryou as a representative of Mr. Bryant? A No sir.
Q Did you pay him any money? A Yes sir.
Q On what account? A He came to me and said he had the claim against Mr for Joel Bryant and wanted me to pay him the money and I came on.
Q What amount? A Fourteen hundred dollars.

Q For a while, you [illegible] it, I mean it,
[illegible] Joel Bryant, he was entitled to that or not.
Q Did he pay it's money to Joel Bryant, do you know of? A Joel
Bryant claimed he didn't, and I came to find out, paid Joel
Bryant two hundred dollars on account of my fee; I, Dyson, paid
Joel Bryant another One; we have a bill got to my from Campbell Taylor, and I owe twenty dollars or twenty-five dollars; that is all we ever got out of him.
Q How did you get that 20 dollars out of it for Duncan? A I kept after him and telling him to pay that money back to me, he rendered no services to me, all and the money was to go to Joel Bryant, and I finally worked out the twenty or twenty-five dollars, that is all I ever did get back.
Q The amount that he paid to Duncan? A Yes sir.
Q Was this money paid to him, this one hundred dollars, while you were there at the time the judgment was rendered, or was it sent to him afterwards? A I think it was paid then, as well as I remember about it.
Q You think it was paid then? A Yes sir, that's my recollection now.
Q Did you send him one hundred dollars after you went away from there, subsequent to the rendering of that judgment, after it was rendered I mean, direct him to pay fifty dollars of that on any account due to D. W. C. Duncan? A No sir.
Q Did you send him a second one hundred dollars with a direction?
A No sir.
Q Mr. Dyson, do you know about how much it cost your family in all to obtain their allowance in the Cherokee Nation under this judgment? A Pretty near, I do.
Q Well about what sum? A About five hundred dollars, pretty near 500 dollars. That is what I considered, I was bent out of some of my money, what I was bent out of and expenses.
Q Now take a statement of what that money was paid for and how, so far as you remember, itemize that now? Well the first fifty dollars Norwood got; the next fifty dollars Ross got; that was the attorneys fees; I speak of the attorneys fees now; the next money was the hundred that Campbell Taylor got; the next attorney fees was Bryant's one hundred dollars.
Q Was that all the attorney's fees? A I think it was, no, wait,
I paid Ross 15 dollars for taking Baker's deposition.

Q Which Ross was that? A The old Chief, Will Ross I think was his name, William P. Ross.
Q He then, this Chief William P. Ross for taking the deposition of Dr. Baker charged you fifteen dollars? A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember that that he acted as your attorney and examined him? A Yes sir.
He examined him before the Commission, I at his statement.
Q What other attorneys were there present? A None of them was present.
Q Well now, go on? A The expenses of taking Dr. Baker and he was a doctor, as well as I remember he charged me 5 dollars a day and I were nine and his expenses down there; we came through in a hack from Perryville, Arkansas, to Tahlequah, and our board and expenses amounted I think was about 75 dollars that way; something near it. Maybe a little over that.
Q Did you pay him a per diem? A I paid him five dollars a day for his time and then his expenses.

Q Well? A Well I made several trips out here at different times, to Tahlequah before the Commission, and back, three or four trips as well as I remember now, cost me 20 or 25 dollars each trip, as I remember about it.
Q Do you remember how many trips aside from the one in which you brought Dr. Baker? A No, I think there was probably three trips I think it was, maybe more, and then I made one trip to Clarendore to see A. H. Norwood.
Q What did that trip cost you? A I don't remember what it cost; I went in a wagon down there.
Q You went through and employed Benge, went by railroad; what did that trip cost you? A I don't remember what it was, whether it was 21 dollars or 31 dollars, one or the other, I don't remember which it was; Joe Dawson, my brother, give me the money, it was either 31 or 31 dollars.
Q Now then is there any other expense that you know of that was paid by you or your family, any members of your family, other than that you have mentioned? A I don't remember any other now; I can't call to my memory right now.
Q What was the condition of the members of your family generally now, financially, at that time? A Well we were considered poor people; I don't know, we didn't have much money, scarcely any.
Q Was there any one of them that was better off than the others, and if so, which one? A I suppose Elbert Dawson was better off than the others, Buck Dawson.
Q Do you know how much Buck Dawson paid of these expenses? A I don't think he paid, he paid the Benge debt and the Bryant debt, I think it was.
Q That is one hundred and fifty dollars? A Yes sir, then he came up on one trip and taken more evidence with Joel Bryant when Joel Bryant was Clerk of the Court before this Tehee Court, I don't know what that cost him.
Q Came up here and took some testimony? A Yes, came up and went back to Texas. Filed his claim and took some testimony and went back to Texas and I didn't see him.
Q Did that testimony include Dr. Baker's testimony? A No sir.
Q You know how many witnesses were examined then? A I only know what he told me.
Q How many? A Four witnesses.
Q You know whether they were residence of the Cherokee Nation or not? A He told me they was.
Q Were you present on that trip in which he came there and took that testimony? A No, I met him there and then I went back home and left him at Tahlequah.
Q He had taken the testimony before you left him or afterwards? A He taken it afterwards; that was my understanding.
Q Did Buck furnish only the one hundred fifty dollars that you now remember? A I think it was.
Q And the expense of taking these witness up there? A Yes sir.
Q You also furnished money now of the members of your family? A My brothers and myself lived down in Berryville, me and my brother-in-law, Bateman Lee, we all chipped in together a few dollars from each family.
Q You heard the statement of C. C. Brought that in June 1902 you told him that it had cost you 700 dollars, did you have any such statement to him? A I never did.
Q And that you paid one witness 300 dollars? A I never made any such statement.

Q Did you pay any witness any such sum? A No sir, I paid Mr. Baker for his time; he said his time was worth 5 dollars a day, for his, and I paid it.
Q Did you pay any other witness any more than that? A No sir, he was the only witness I had down there in my case.
Q Well the Robert Dawson case? A Yes sir.
Q He says that you told him this in your house there on your place, did you have any house there in June 1883? A I was not living on my farm at that time.
Q Did you have any farm? A Didn't have any.
Q When did you build a house there? A I built a house on the farm I live in now by Mr. Brought, I moved on the farm the last of July, 1883, and I carried in my wagon.
Q What did you do? A I went to the timber and cut poles and hauled them out and made me a log cabin on the place by a spring near Mr. Brought.
Q About what time did you finish that house? A It was in September.
Q How long after you finished that house until you brought your family out? A I finished it up and got it covered and the floor in it and I went back to Eureka Springs after my wife.
Q What family did you have then? A I had my wife and she had one child; but my oldest children, by my first wife were with me in the Territory, camping with me; three little boys and one girl were with me, and one girl back in Arkansas.
Q Are you and C. G. Brought on good terms? A No sir.
Q What has been the character of the trouble between you? A Trouble over our places first started it.
Q When did it begin? A As soon as I got back from Arkansas he commenced kinder crowding me out to get my farm and my fruit, and we have been in a racket ever since.
Q Then his statement that you were on friendly terms, is it correct or not? A No sir, it aint correct.
Q He and you have never been friendly as neighbors then since you first came back from Arkansas and settled in the Territory? A I don't remember ever being in his house; I never was in his house.
Q Have you had law suits with each other? A Yes sir.
Q How many? A I don't know that we had any particular law suits, but I have had law suits and he has been a witness against me.
Q What was your last trouble with him, when I mean? A Along last fall.
Q That was when your boys had a little racket and he had your boy arrested? A Yes sir.
Q What was the age of those boys? A Eleven years old.
Q He had him arrested down at Vinita? A Yes sir, had him arrested and carried before the Commissioner at Vinita.
Q He was discharged on account of his age? A Yes sir.
Q Enoch Dawson is dead is he? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A Three years, little over three years.
Q And Jarea Dawson is dead? A Yes sir.
Q Is your father, Robert Dawson living? A No sir.
Q When did Jarea Dawson die? A I don't remember, been dead several years, I don't remember how long, 6 or 7 years, I couldn't state.
Q When did your father, Robert Dawson die? A I believe it was in 87 as I remember now, I won't be positive.
Q Had all those moved to the Cherokee Nation before their death?
A No sir, Father died in Arkansas.

Q Those that lived here in the Nation they lived here in the Nation but went back to Arkansas and died there? A Fell the rest of my folks all lived here. That was James Dawson and Buck Dawson.
Q Robert Dawson, your father, never did move to the Territory, did he? A No.
Q Did you hear the statement of the witness Beavert this morning, that about the time of hearing of the James Dawson case, at a negro church at night James Dawson came down there with someone else was introduced to him, and he loaned him ten dollars; did you hear that statement this morning? A I heard the statement, yes sir, I heard it.
Q He says that then James Dawson was 35 or 40 years old; was there any James Dawson living belonging to your family at that time of any such age? A No sir.
Q How many James Dawson's were there belonging to your family? A There was my Uncle James Dawson and a brother James Dawson, the Doctor here.
Q How old was your brother James Dawson then? A He was a tolerable old man, I don't know his age.
Q About what age? A Must have been 60.
Q Between 60 and 70? A Yes sir.
Q That was the age of your brother James? A At that time?
Q Yes sir, in '84? A In '84 I suppose he was about 18, something like that.
Q Had he anything to do with the James Dawson case? A No sir.
Q Was he present at the time that the James Dawson case was under consideration? A No sir.
Q Was James Dawson, your uncle, James Dawson, present at any time during the consideration of his case? A No sir.
Q He never was present? A No sir, if Uncle Jim Dawson was ever in Tahlequah I never knew it.
Q Who conducted the prosecution of the James Dawson case before the Cherokee Citizenship Commission, who conducted it? A The James Dawson case?
Q Yes sir? A I think James Low and Bill Jackson and Campbell Taylor.
Q Were you acting with them? A Yes sir.
Q They employed Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q Then there was no James Dawson present during that session of the Commission? A No sir.
Q What was the condition of James Dawson's health at that time?
A It was pretty poorly; was not good.
Q Was he at that time able to get about and attend to business?
A I don't think he was.
Q Was he not a very feeble minded old man at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Regarded as rather a silly man was he not? A Yes sir.
Q Did he attend to any kind of business of the family at that time?
A No sir, didn't.
Q What was his financial condition? A Pretty bad.
Q Did he have any money? A No sir.
Q Did he have any property? A None hardly at all; horse probably, or a cow or two, something that way.
Q Was that about all the property he had? A Yes sir.
Q How about the other members of his family that were admitted at that time; what was their financial condition? A They were in poor circumstances.
Q Now then after these judgments were rendered what members of your family removed to the Territory, Cherokee Nation, I will say?
A Robert Dawson and family and James Dawson and family, that is, them and their children.

Q Robert Dawson didn't remove here? A No, I said except Robert Dawson.
Q Did all the members of Robert Dawson family move here? A Yes sir.
Q Except himself? A Yes sir.
Q And all the members of James Dawson family? A No, not all the members, Melvina Low I don't think ever lived here.
Q She has never moved here? A No sir.
Q Well all the members of your family, your father's family included in that judgment of the Committee, rendered January 11th, 1883? A All but one.
Q What was the name of that one? A Edna.
Q A daughter? A Daughter of Robert Dawson.
Q Your sister? A Yes sir.
Q Was she then of age or was she a minor? A I think she was a minor, as well as I can remember.
Q Was she afterwards admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A She was.
Q By a Commission or by the Cherokee Council? A She was first admitted by the Spears Court, her and two of my neices.
Q What are their names? A Katie Vernon and Verna Fishback.
Q What became of that? A The certificate papers they got was lost, and they went before the Council in 1894 andthey was readmitted back by the act of Council.
Q That was in 1894, the Cherokee Council admitted, re-admitted as they called it, the three above named? A Yes sir. Mary and Verna Fishback and Katie Vernor, they have now the same names now except Vernor, it is not, Tob Robinson married the widow, a neice of mine.
Q Now then was there any other consideration of the Dawson case by the Cherokee authorities at any time aside from these two judgments in '83 and '84 admitting the two families of Robert and James Dawson, and the act of Council of '94 admitting these three whom you have just named? A Yes sir.
Q When? A My two of my sons was placed on the roll by the act of Council in 1892 I think it was; left off of the rolls in per capita payment and they was placed on the rolls I think, and Sam Hitchugh member of Council, got their draft or checks for the money.
Q Have you got that copy of the act of Council admitting them? A Yes sir.
Q Where is it? A (Produces papers.)

BY MR. McDERMON: We offer in evidence an act of the Cherokee National Council making an appropriation of 20,000 dollars belonging to the general fund for the payment of certain persons therein named a per capita payment, as per amount set opposite their respective names, provided that the Principal Chief shall draw warrants for such amounts, and further provided "That the names of the persons appearing on the per capita rolls in this act shall be placed (on) the authenticated roll of 1880 by the Principal Chief."
This act was approved December 31, 1891.
Approval signed by Stephen Foreman, Assistant Acting Principal-
In this list appears the names of William R. Dawson for payment of $13.70, and of Marion Dawson, for a like sum. Are these not the names of two of your sons? A Yes sir.

(This paper above introduced, is filed and made a part of the records in this case.
Q Was there any other action of the Cherokee authorities relating to members of your family? A Yes sir.

Q When? A In 1894.
Q What was that? A Allowing them their Strip Money.
Q Have you a copy of that? A I think I have. (Produces papers.)
BY MR. McKENNON: We offer in evidence a duly certified copy of an act of the Cherokee National Council approved November 24, 1894, signed C. J. Harris, Principal Chief. Senate Bill No. 19, appropriating a sufficient amount of money to make payment per capita of what is known as the strip money to certain persons named therein. Among them are members of the Blessingame family, as follows: Jane, Elbert, Henry, James Ross, Lerrie, Pearl, Amos, Myrtle, Winnie and Clifford; this act mentions these persons as Cherokees by blood, and whose names had been left off the pay roll approved May 3, 1894, providing a payment to each one of these a sum of $865.70.
Q Were these members of the Robert Dawson family? A Yes sir.
Q Which one of the members of the family? A Jane.
Q This is Jane who was admitted by the judgment admitting the Robert Dawson family? A Yes sir.
Q And her children? A Her children, was not admitted, she was admitted.
Q I mean this mentions her children here? A Yes, that mentions her children.
(The paper last above introduced is filed and made a part of the record in this case.)
Q Do you know whether the payment of the Cherokee Strip money was to Cherokee citizens by blood only or not? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any other act of the Cherokee authorities passing upon the citizenship of members of your family? A Why the Douthett children, my brother's grand-children. Two grand-children of E. Dawson.
Q When was that? A That, I think it was in '84.
Q Have you got a copy of that act? A No, the record is here.
Q Was that by the Spears Court? A Yes sir, by the Spears Court.
BY MR. McKENNON: We now offere in evidence a judgment of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, 1880 and 1884, found on page 190, case No. 181, dated September 9th, 1884, signed by Eli Spears, President, John Lee and Andrew Young, Commissioners, admitting to citizenship Lula Douthett and Dallas Douthett as Cherokees by blood.
Q These now are the Douthetts to which you refer, are they? Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON: Attention is called to the fact that the names of the Commissioners are all signed in the same handwriting as the record of the judgment.

The said judgment record above introduced, and found on page 190, No. 181, record of 1880 to 1884, is as follows:

"Office of Commission on Citizenship,
Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation, September 14th, 1883.

E. Dawson, for his grand-children, No. 181.
Lula Douthitt,
Dallas Douthitt,
vs
The Cherokee Nation.

C. H. Taylor, Atty. for Claim.

Petition filed September 14th, 1883.

Case submitted by claimants Sept 14th, 1883.
Case submitted by Solicitor, Sept. 19th, 1883.
Continued by Petitioner Jan 22 1884 to September Court 1884.
Re-submitted September 2nd 1884, by Attys Taylor and Benvert

Submitted by defence Sept 9 1884.

And now on this the 13th day of September 1884 comes this case for final hearing and all the evidence in the case having been carefully read, and considered by the Commission on Citizenship it has been decided by the Commission that the above named Lula Dautheit and Dallas Dautheit are Cherokee by blood, and that they are entitled to all the rights and privileges of Cherokee citizenship in the Cherokee Nation and that they should be, and are hereby admitted to the full and complete enjoyment of the same in all respects, as native born Cherokees.

Wilson Spears, Pres.
John Lee,
John L. Adair, Andrew Young.
Clk Com'n. Commission on Citizenship."

Q Now were there any other actions of the Cherokee authorities of like character relating to the members of your family?
A I don't remember of any others.
Q I will ask you if when the Cherokee authorities were making the roll of 1896, in compliance with the request of the Dawes Commission for a roll to be prepared by them for the use of the said Commission, the question of the citizenship of the members of your family was not then raised and an investigation had in regard to it? A Before the Dawes Commission?
Q No, before the Cherokee Commission making the roll of 1896, of which John T. Gunter was a member? A Yes sir, yes. I had forgot it, but since you have named it there was some investigation of that at that time; this is what I understood.
Q That roll shows that the members of your family were duly enrolled by the Commission? A Yes.

Q Have you and the other members of your family since your removal to the Territory in 1883 and immediately following been recognized as Cherokee citizens by blood? A Yes sir.

Q Have you been exercising and enjoying all the rights of Cherokee citizens by blood since that time? A Yes sir.
Q You and all the members of your family are living in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q You have all drawn Cherokee moneys whenever payments were made? A Yes sir.
Q And have you all male members been voting at the Cherokee elections or in the Cherokee elections? A Yes sir, I was one of the judges of the elections that was held voting on the treaty.
Q What treaty? A The treaty bill that was sent back here for the Cherokees to vote on; I was one of the judges at Afton.
Q In what year was that? A I believe it was last spring some time, last April.

Q Have any of you held any offices in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What offices have the members of your family held? A I was Deputy Clerk, under Pete Hastings, when he was clerk of Delaware District, I was a candidate once for Council in the Downing party.

Q Can any office of deputy clerk be held by any one else except a recognized citizen? A Only by a citizen, yes sir.
Q Is that all? A (No reply).
Q Have the children of members of your family attended the Cherokee schools, and been educated in those schools? A Yes, sir.
Q Have the members of your family been all the while subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Have they been tried for any offenses against the laws? Yes sir.
Q And have they instituted their civil suits in the courts of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And had suits instituted against them in such courts? A Yes sir.
Q Some of these cases have gone to the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And were passed upon by that tribunal? A Yes sir.
Q Is there anything else? A Nothing now; I am sick this evening; I have got the head-ache so bad I can't hardly see.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How old was your father Robert Dawson when he died? A I don't know, I couldn't answer that.
Q He was a very old man? A Yes sir, he was getting tolerably old.
Q Could you tell how much older he was than you? A No I don't know.
Q Mr. James Dawson in 1834 must have been a very old man, wasn't he? A Well he was old and he was feeble.
Q Well you stated that he had lived recklessly: was he naturally that way? A He used to live in Texas; I didn't know him until after he came to the Territory.
Q I say he had gotten so old, what was the occasion of that? A I suppose so, the oldest one of these children was Mrs. Betty Petty, that's my understanding.
Q And the oldest boy was John Dawson? A We always called him Jack.
Q Jack Dawson he was the oldest? A Yes sir.
Q But was the youngest? A Sar Riley.
Q He was the youngest one of the crowd? A Yes sir.
Q Your father lived four or five years after he and you were admitted to citizenship? Yes sir, something about that, it was in 1883, I think he died in 1887, I wont be positive; that is as near as I remember now. I have got a headache so bad that I can't remember anything.
Q He nor none of the older members of the family were ever present at any of these trials of citizenship? A No sir, not a one of them was.
Q Not a one of them was ever called upon to testify as to the blood of their father, who he was or anything about it? A I don't think they was.
Q Your claim of kinship was through Captain John Rogers and that your grandmother was the half sister of Sir Joe Vann, wasn't it? A I don't know, I couldn't answer the question.
Q You were there when they took the testimony? A I was there when Dr. Baker's testimony was taken, that was about 18 years ago.
Q And nobody kin to the Rogers nor Vanns was ever called to testify in the case? A Not as I know of.
Q They were very well known Cherokee families in the country? A I suppose so, I don't know.
Q And yet nobody on any side of the family connected with it was ever called to testify A Not that I know of, I don't know what my brother done, he taken some of the evidence in Washington when I was not there; he first filed his claim.

Q You he[illegible] to [illegible] testifying before you brought your [illegible] sir.
Q What have been [illegible]? A It was a short time afterwards. I went [illegible] too late and I fetched him the next time.
Q You had talked to [illegible] you would prove by Dr.
Baker? A I told him I [illegible] I thought he knew about our folks.
Q You had told him [illegible] to use Mr. Baker as a witness? A Yes sir.
Q You went off, [illegible] after you told him that [illegible] sir.
Q You didn't see your [illegible] admitted? A No sir.
Q You and he [illegible] here at different times [illegible] A No. I never [illegible] there until after [illegible]
Q But you were [illegible] more admitted? A I [illegible] sir.
Q How the way [illegible] mendation of old [illegible]
Q The way he [illegible]
Q He did more [illegible] anything.
Q What did Bryant do? [illegible] brother employed him.
Q How did you [illegible]
A I never sent him [illegible]
Q Then when he, Mr. Duncan, [illegible] ney as Campbell said he did, [illegible] wrong? A Oh no, you are listed en, Mr. Duncan got [illegible] dollars, which he stated, [illegible] Campbell Taylor, [illegible]
Q How did you [illegible] Campbell? A I give the money to Campbell to give to [illegible] wouldn't do it, and I tried to get the money back from him. So I finally owned the 20 or 25 dollars he gave [illegible]
Q Then you didn't tell [illegible] testified that you sent 20 or 25 dollars by Campbell [illegible] Campbell Taylor agreed to pay Duncan 20 or 25 dollars [illegible] money I give him to give to Joel Bryant.
Q The family kept Campbell [illegible] though as their attorney after that? A In the [illegible] I think so.
Q E. Dawson, you remember, [illegible] grand-children? A That is my understanding.
Q And your uncle James [illegible] in the case of his children? A Uncle James had nothing to do with it; James Low and Will Jackson got him; that was my understanding of who employed him.
Q The record here shows that the case was originally instituted by C. K. Taylor and was [illegible] written by him September 2nd, 1924, in the James E wson case? A I won't deny his being in that case.
Q You say he was employed [illegible] Dawson case? A I don't know who was in the Bennett children's case.
Q The record shows that Campbell Taylor instituted the case, and it was finally submitted by him, and Mr. Bernert, who testified a while ago? A That was in the James Dawson case, wasn't it?
Q That was in the E. Dawson grand-children? A Ehrert?
Q No, in the Bennett children's case? A Oh yes.

Q He was likewise attorney in the Mary Dawson case was he, and before the Adair court, the 4th of October, 1907, in the case of James K. P. Dawson? A I don't know anything about that.
Q And the case litigated of Riley Dawson? A I don't know anything about those.
Q They are relations of yours? A Well I wouldn't say.
Q James K. P. Dawson proves to be a son of Riley D's wife? A Well if he is he is by connection then. There are so many Dawsons I don't know them all.
Q You know Andrew J. Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q The Dawsons have so many children their brothers didn't hardly know them did they? A That's it, I don't know them.
Q Well then you don't know who Andrew J. Dawson is? A No sir, I don't know.
Q He refers in his application as being a cousin of R. D. Dawson, and yourself, who were admitted to citizenship by the Tenn. Court? A He may be, I don't know nothing about it.
Q He resided I believe, at that time at Nevada, Missouri? A I don't know anything about the people.
Q Old Dan Baker was an old and paralyzed man at the time he testified wasn't he? A Getting old, he was not paralyzed.
Q Then the statement made that the reason he couldn't write his name and had to make his mark, because he was paralyzed, in the testimony isn't that true? A He didn't have good use of his fingers.
Q Then he was not paralyzed? A No, I brought him over there in a hack from Berryville, Arkansas.
Q Well I say he was a very old man? A Yes, getting old.
Q How didn't you come to this place with them joining brought it's and work on it some time before you brought your family? A No, I brought my family with me, except my wife.
Q And you subsequently built a log house on it? A Yes sir.
Q And went back and got your wife and moved them to the log house? A Yes sir, went to Eureka and got my wife.
Q You never saw your grandfather at all? A Saw Dawson, yes sir, I saw him.
Q You remember do you of being with him much of any at all? A I was in Texas in time of the war, with my uncle Riley Dawson, and he was there.
Q In '60 sometime? A '60, I reckon, or '6-. Somewhere along there, it was in time of the war.
Q How old a man was he at that time? A Pretty old man.
Q You never saw your grandmother, she died before she came?
A Yes sir, I never saw her at all.
Q Who first started the citizenship matter, your brother in Texas or you? A Why it was me, and my brother together.
Q I mean who first conceived the idea? A I first commenced talking about it.
Q And went down for him? A I was in Texas with him and then in Arkansas; I went backwards and forwards a time or two after the war.
Q About that time nearly everybody in Arkansas were trying to get some claim of kinship to Cherokees? A No sir, not at that time.
Q They were getting pretty thick in there in 1907 I mean 08 and '4 and '5 I think.
Q Been very excitement over there to get yourselves on the rolls? A Just got to be everybody; but it wasn't at the time we admitted there was not much stir about the rights here.
Q Well the Watts had been admitted before that? A I suppose they had; there was not much excitement over the Watts claim at that time.

BY MR. MASTERS:

Q You did locate Mr. Henry Smith Shadlow when you first came to Tahlequah in '94? A I think I did.

Q Your brother Buck Dawson stayed there also? A Yes sir.

Q Sam Shadlow lived in the north end of town, old German? A Yes sir, old German, lived in the lower part of town.

Q Did you ever hear the names of any other witnesses which you stated perhaps testified in your case? A I have heard what it I have forgot them.

Q You don't recollect any name now? A I dont remember them now sir.

Q In the Irene House case and Joanna Barber case, in which you testified before the Commission, when you were making search for this testimony you couldn't find any other testimony from that of record except the Dr. Baker testimony, could you? A That's all we could find; no we didn't find the testimony, we got a copy.

Q Well it must have been a copy of the original, the certificate shows that? A I don't know; House got a copy of what claimed to be the affidavit of Baker and he told me to give it to him: that is all I know about it.

Q Well the certificate there does not bear my certificate does it? A I don't know about that, I am no scholar.

Q Well you didn't get the testimony of any other witness except that of Dr. Baker; you couldn't find any other over there of record? A I didn't hunt for any: House hunted for them.

Q None of you have ever been able to dfind any other? A No. Not even find our petition.

Q Samuel R. Dawson applied to what is known as the Adair Court, didn't he? A I don't remember now.

Q He was an uncle of yours wasn't he? A Yes sir, claimed to be.

Q The father of these two parties who testified here this morning? A Well I don't know, they claimed to be, I never met them to know them.

Q He was rejected by the Adair Court, or Mayes Court? A I don't know whether he filed his petition.

Q Did you testify in his case? A I don't remember: I might have dont it.

Q Didn't you testify in the Andrew J. Dawson case before what is known as the Mayes Court? A I don't recollect, if I did I don't remember.

Q Did you testify in the Riley Dawson case? A No sir, not that I remember.

Q Didn't you know of his being rejected by that court? A I don't remember, sir.

Q You know that the Cherokee Council never authenticated that roll of 1896, don't you? A No sir, I don't know it; I didn't know this was done until I went to Tahlequah after some papers and came back and they told me about it.

Q You never found out that C. H. Taylor was a big rascal up until the present time have you? A (No response)

Q The records here show that he has been in the constant employment of your family from that date up to this time? A Why it shows here from the record: I could neither be excused for my part of it.

Q You were the man that had most to do with it? A I never employed him, I can say that.

Q You are the man that had most to do with the records? A In my case and in my father's case.

Q Didn't you testify for your uncle Jim Dawson? A Yes sir.

Q Wasn't he attorney for him? A Yes sir.

Q Wasn't he employed by Jim Dawson after you got your citizenship?
A Why not but the grandchildren.
Q Jim Dawson's petition was filed in September 1883, after yours?
A Yes sir.
Q C. H. Taylor, attorney of record, filed his petition? A He might have filed it for all I know.
Q Well you hadn't at that time fallen out with C. H. Taylor had you? A Why no, we never did have any trouble, only over this money, he never would give it back to me or give it to Bryant.
Q You never discovered that he was such a bad man until after your judgment was rendered? A I know he was not of good character.
Q Are you and Brought, this man who testified for the Cherokee Nation, on speaking terms? A Hardly speak.
Q Does he refuse to speak to you? A So often as he does.
Q Do you refuse to speak to him? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been speaking to him for the last two or three months? A I have not spoke to him until I met him here at the hotel the other day.
Q First time you spoke to him since he had the boy arrested? A Yes sir.
Q When did he have the boy arrested? A Along in September or October, September I think.
Q When did Dr. Baker die? A I don't remember.
Q You don't remember how much older your father was than you?
A No, I don't know.
Q What is your age? A I will be 66 in May.
Q Then you were born in '42? A Yes sir, '42 according to the record.
Q Was your father as much as 20 years old when you were born?
A I couldn't say.
Q What was your best judgment? A I suppose he was 20 or 25 years old. My understanding he married young.
Q Can't you give any better idea than 4 or 5 years of your father's age? A I say 25.
Q Your father was born say, 25 from 42 would have made him be born in 1817; now had your father any older brothers or sisters? A I think Jack Dawson was the oldest of the family, No, Betty, the girl, was the oldest and Jack next, and then my father as well as I remember about it.
Q There were two girls older? A No, one of the girls I never saw.
Q Then you think there are only 2 older than your father? A Yes, that's my understanding of the family.
Q Dr. Baker gives his age 77 in '82, which would make him be born in '89, now he states that when he was 15 or 17 years old, which added to 1809, will make 1824, that your grandmother Anna Proett, was a school girl, whereas from your testimony and that of the family history introduced here shows that your grandmother Anna Proti was the mother of seven children, the youngest being born in 1823, how do you reconcile that? A I don't remember about the statement of Dr. Baker; I don't know that he made such statement as that, I don't remember about it.
Q And if he did you don't know how to reconcile it ? A (No response.)

Q Did you talk to any of the members of the Court that admitted you? A No sir, I was not acquainted with them.
Q You know whether they were old or young men? A They were old men-like; Steve Tehee, I got acquainted with him afterwards, and Tom Thompson, at the Council you know I was there a good deal.

Q That was the fellow that was on the Court? A Yes sir.
Q He was afterwards Assistant Chief of the Cherokee Nation?
A I think so.
Q Steven Tehee, that's the man you had reference to? A Yes sir, I think it was, I just knew the man; I had no acquaintance with him at all.
Q D. W. C. Duncan boarded when you were down there at the National Hotel? A I think he did, as well as I remember now when we were admitted.
Q Don't you know he did? A I think he did, as well as I remember.
Q Were not you over there to his room? A I think I was.
Q You remember when it was that you brought Dr. Baker down there to make a statement before the Court? A It was in January, Term, was in January Term of 1887 I believe, it was, as well as I remember about it.
Q Well you didn't take any more testimony after Dr. Baker testified?
A No sir, I didn't.
Q But your case was not submitted or passed upon for a year?
A I think it was, yes sir, as well as I remember.
Q I would like to ask you when the Blassingame family came to the Cherokee Nation? A Alex Balsaingame came with us when we moved here, and went back and got his family and moved that fall.
Q Did he move his family here that same fall? A Yes sir.
Q What year was that? A In the fall of 1883 I believe it was, as well as I remember now.
Q When did the Bulaska family come? A I think the girl and the old lady come in the next spring.
Q How long did they remain that time? A The old lady stayed here, but the girl went back and in a short time her and her husband come back.
Q Did she come back until after her marriage? A No, she was married when she come first.
Q The last time? A She was married I think, she was married when she come out.
Q How long has August Bulaska been a permanent and continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation? A I think he come there in the fall of 1884 or 1885, I wont say which.
Q How long has Robert Pierce been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since he was admitted.
Q When was that? A '83.
Q How long has Martin L. Patterson? A Ever since he married his wife, and he was living here before he married his wife.
Q Who is Arizona Alrey? A That is my daughter.
Q Did you bring her with you? A No not when I moved.
Q When did she come? A She come out in a year or two after I moved here.
Q Was she married when you moved here? A No sir, she was not married.
Q She was not married when you were admitted? A No sir, she was a child.
Q When did Jim Lowe come to this country? A With his grandfather, James Dawson.
Q What was his mother's name? A Melvina Dawson.
Q You know Jim Lowe's age? A No sir.
Q Don't know how old he was in '83? A No sir.
Q Was he grown? A I think he was.
Q Married? A No no.
Q Married in this country? A Yes sir
Q Who is James M. Harmon? A Married one of the Jackson girls.

Q When did they come to this Country? A Right away after they was admitted.
Q In what year? A I think the winter of '94, I think it was, spring or winter of '94.
Q You know Gideon Graham? A Yes sir.
Q Who is his mother? A Missouri Ann Graham, formerly Missouri Ann Dawson.
Q Did he come from Texas to Arkansas? A Come from Texas.
Q Did you know them in Texas? A I knew the girl.
Q You never knew them until they come to this country? A I never knew did.
Q When did you see him here? A I think they come here in the fall or winter of 1884 or '5.
Q He was a married then? A I think he was.
Q Brought his wife? A I think he was, I don't know.
Q Did he have any children when you first saw him? A He come to my house and I never saw his family for--I don't know, for several years.
Q You understood he had a family? A Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Did you mean to say '84 or '94? A '84.
Q Did you see Gid Graham in '84? A '84, let me study, no, '85.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Did you see him in '85, are you positive on that proposition? A I think so.
Q Will you swear it? A No sir, I won't positive swear it, but I think it was, as I remember now it was; I couldn't say positive.
Q All the people Mr. Dawson that have been admitted to citizenship by courts of competent jurisdiction unless they were de-citizenized by courts of acquired jurisdiction, enjoyed the same privileges that you have mentioned here about going to school and being tried in the courts? A Yes sir.

Q All that sort of thing that you have been telling here in your direct examination? A Ask the question again.
Q I say all people who were admitted here by courts of competent jurisdiction, until they were de-citizenized by courts of like jurisdiction, enjoyed the same privileges that you did? A So far as I know they was.
Q They all drawed money and all tried in the courts as long as we had tribunal courts, were they not? A Yes sir, so far as I know.
Q There was no special privilege granted to you in preference to anybody else? A None but recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation.
Q Well you had been recognized since you were admitted? A Yes sir, I enjoyed the same privileges of native born Cherokees.
Q Well I say there is nothing special about it? A No, I don't know as there is.
Q You got acquainted with Mr. Duncan while you were up there during the hearing? A Yes sir, I was acquainted with him, knew him, when I saw him.
Q Mr. Bill Rose did the examination of Dr. Baker? A Yes sir.
Q Did you file any other paper before the Court other than your petition and then Dr. Baker's statement? A I never filed any petition there at all.
Q None whatever? A I don't remember any.
Q Will you never had occasion to file any papers before Mr. Duncan? A I got him to do some writing for me.
Q What? A Letters to my brother in Texas.
Q Buck Dawson? A Yes sir, S. Dawson.

Q That? A Yes sir, Buck Dawson.
Q Well is that all he did for you? A I don't remember now about it.
Q Why didn't you get your attorney to do that letter writing? A There was not any there.
Q Taylor nor Benge was not there then? A No sir.
Q That is what you paid the 20 or 25 dollars for, was writing this letter back to your brother? A I paid him for that claim.
Q When did you pay that? A I think I paid it, I don't exactly when, Camp Taylor paid it a year or two after I moved out here and settled where I did; right have been 2 years. I don't remember.
Q Where was Duncan living then? A I couldn't say where.
Q Was he still clerk of this Court? A No sir, not when that money was paid; that is, when Camp Taylor said he paid it.
Q You did send Camp Taylor some money? A I sent some money to him for Joel Bryant.
Q You knew Joel Bryant's address didn't you? A No, I don't know that I did, No I didn't send Camp Taylor any money, I gave it to him.
Q How much did you give him? A One hundred dollars.
Q When? A Right at that time; he claimed it from me as soon as we got our papers; he come onto me and demanded it for Bryant.
Q You never sent him any then after that? A No sir.
Q Did you ever see Bryant after that? A Yes sir
Q How long after that? A I don't know, a year or two afterwards. a year I believe, my brother wrote, I wrote to my brother about paying Camp Taylor money and he went onto my brother about it and he never paid him until we moved out to this country.
Q After all that you got him to attend to your uncle Jim Dawson's and the other relatives cases? A The other parties did.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Applicants object to all that part of the witness' evidence in response to interrogatories by representatives of the Cherokee Nation which relates to the character of the evidence upon which the judgments admitting members of the James and Robert Dawson families were admitted, and to the history of the members of the Dawson family, because the same is immaterial, incompetent and irrelevant.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q One question I omitted to ask you Mr. Dawson, as to the Court at the time the judgment admitting Robert Dawson's family was rendered, who of the judges were present on that day? A They was all three of them, Wolfe, Tehee and Thompson.
Q Are you positive of that fact? A Yes sir.
Q You do not know this Andrew Dawson family who applied to the Dawes Commission for Cherokee citizenship, and who stated that they are cousins of some members of your family? A Andrew?
Q Andrew J. Dawson, who claims to be from Missouri? A How was the question?
Q You do not know them do you? A I don't know that they are any kin to us.
Q You don't know that they are related to you at all? A No sir.
Q This Mary Dawson case, do you know the members of that family? A No sir, I don't.
Q Don't know who they are? A No sir.
Q The Rebecca Dawson case? A I don't know her either.
Q You don't know whether they are related to you or not? A No sir.
Q If any of these persons are related to you or your family did you have any knowledge of it? A Not as I know of.

Q Jonina Barber, do you know anything about them? A They claim to be kin to us.
Q Where are they from? A They are from Texas.
Q Do you know they are related to you? A They claim to be kin.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Tell you swore for them before the Commission? A Yes, they claim to be kinfolks of mine.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Irene J. House, who is that? A That is a cousin of mine: claims to be.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You testified for her didn't you before the Commission? A I think I did as well as I remember.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Before the Court that admitted James Dawson and family, who were the witnesses there? A Oliver Miller, from Berryville, Arkansas.
Q Who were the others? A Myself and J. Dawson and there was two other witnesses, I don't remember who they are.
Q Were they Cherokee citizens and residents of th Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You don't remember their names? A Which?
Q Of these other people who claimed to be citizens of the Cherokee Nation and who were witnesses? A I said about me and J. Dawson was citizens of the Cherokee Nation.
Q You only proved that Jim Dawson was a brother of Robert Dawson before the Court? A Yes sir.
Q And then referred back to the decision in the Court before? A We proved that they were citizens, and he knew by folks before we ever came here.
Q Was he older than Dr. Baker? A About the same age.
Q Why didn't you get Oliver Miller's testimony in the Hodge case?
Q He was dead.
Q You and no member of your family in the Irene House case or the Jonina Barber case or any of those cases that were tried before the Dawes Commission in your affidavits ever made reference to the fact that Oliver Miller testified in Jim Dawson's case in '84 did you?
A I don't remember about that.
Q You did take reference to the fact that Dr. Baker testified there in '83, didn't you? A I don't remember about that now.
Q You never made reference to any other witness having testified other than Dr. Baker didyou? A I don't remember about it now.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Now just one other question: All of these papers in the original application and everything, so far as you know, in the James Dawson case, were filed before the Commission which admitted the James Dawson family, are lost or mislaid are they not? A I suppose they are, I don't know, I never saw them.
Q Have you tried to get copies of them? A Yes sir, I tried to get the original papers.

BY COMMISSION:- This case is continued until 8:30 a.m., tomorrow morning, March 20th, 1902, it now being the hour for adjournment.

MARCH 20, 1902,- 8:30 a. m.- F. M. DAWSON again on the stand, testifies as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Where was your brother Rich Dawson raised? A In Arkansas.

Q What County? A Carroll.
Q Near what town? A Berryville.
Q Did Dr. Baker live at Berryville? A Yes sir.
Q Was your brother intimately acquainted with him for many years?
A Yes sir.
Q Did he know him sufficiently to be acquainted with his character and habits of life? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Josephine Pierce? A Yes sir.
Q Whose daughter was she? A Robert Dawson's.
Q Is she the same identical person who is called Josie Pierce, now Josie Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Is there any other Josie Pierce or Josie Dawson or Josephine Pierce or Josephine Dawson? A I don't know but the one.
Q She was also called Josephine or Josie Kelly? A Yes, after she married; her first husband was Pierce.
Q And her second husband A Was Kelly.
Q There was another Josephine Dawson wasn't there, Bulaska's wife?
A Why they called her Joe, I suppose that's her name, I could not be positive; that was Rile Dawson's daughter, August Bulaska's wife.
Q She is much younger than your sister, Josephine, above referred to? A Yes sir, oh yes.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Where were you born, Mr. Dawson? A Carroll County, Arkansas.
Q You know how old you are? A 42.
Q 42? A I think so.
Q How many older children were there of your father and mother than yourself? A Three.
Q Which were they? A E. Dawson, Riley Dawson and Jasper Dawson.
Q You are the fourth child and the fourth boy? A Yes sir, fourth boy.
Q Where were your father and mother married, do you know, from family history? A I think it was in Arkansas, I couldn't be positive, I think they was.
Q Do you know how long your grandfather lived in Arkansas? A No sir I don't.
Q Don't know what year he came to Arkansas? A Only from statement.
Q Well what did they say about it? A I think they come there some time in '30.
Q You know whether your father was born in Arkansas? No many of your grandfather's children were born there? A There was none of them born in Arkansas according to history and according to what he always told me, they were born in Tennessee.
Q He came there in '30, and all the other children were born on the Kinnesa River in Tennessee, befor he ever came? A That is what I think, yes sir. Now I am not positive about that. They were from Tennessee, but either Dr. Baker lived there or my folks come from there; I don't know as I remember that I ever heard my father say where he was born at.
Q In Tennessee somewhere; he said he was a good big boy when he came to Arkansas? A I don't know as I ever heard him say.
Q Do you know the difference in the ages of yourself and your three older brothers? A No I don't.
Q Don't know the time that comes in between you? A No I don't know what; I think it is about two years though.
Q That would make E. Dawson about eight years older than you, probably? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Did Josephine Pierce have a daughter who married Mr. Bogle?
A Yes sir.
Q What was her name? A I always knowed her by Dade Pierce; I don't know whether that is her right name or not.
Q That is Bogle's name? A John Bogle.
Q She is the child of Josephine Pierce who married John Bogle?
A Yes sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Where did she marry John Bogle? A Near Afton.
Q When? A I couldn't state.
Q About when? A You have got a copy of the marriage license.
Q When did Josephine Pierce come to the Cherokee Nation? A '83.
Q Has she lived here continuously since that time? A Up until her death; she is dead.
Q Any of her children come with her at that time? A Yes sir.
Q And have they lived here continuously since that time? A Yes sir, except Bill Pierce, he went to Colorado and died.

J. C. STARR, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Your name is J. C. Starr is it? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Starr, was that instrument taken by you, or before you? (Showing witness document.)
A Yes sir.
Q Where? A At the residence of C. H. Benge near Fort Gibson.
Q When? A On the 15th day of this month.
Q What day of the week was that? A On Saturday.
Q Is that the day it was taken? A Yes sir.
Q Did you go there on Saturday to take this? A Yes sir.
Q Then when Judge Benge stated on Tuesday that it was taken "yesterday" meaning Monday, the 17th, he was mistaken, was he?
A It was taken Saturday, the 15th.
Q Was he mistaken or not? A It was not taken then.
Q Then his statement made on Tuesday the 18th that it was taken on "yesterday", meaning Monday, the 17th, was not correct, was it?
A I think not, because I was there, and it was taken on the 15th.
Q And it was taken on the 15th, you are positive it was taken on the 15th? A Yes sir.

Q Then of course his statement could not be correct? A I guess not.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q He was just mistaken about the date, wasn't he? A Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Did you tell Charles T. Moore who is now present, on last Tuesday that they sent you out there on Monday to take that? A No sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q I sent you there that Saturday? A Yes sir.
Q And you went there at my direction, didn't you? A Yes sir, and come back Saturday night.

ROBERT L. DAWSON, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A My name is Robert L. Dawson.
Q What is your age? A My age is something close to 30 years old, I guess 29 past.

Q Are you a son of E. Dawson, commonly known as Buck Dawson?
A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if you will examine this letter sent with the enclosure and state whether or not you found that among the papers of your father after his death? A (Hands letter to witness who examines it) A Yes sir, I found this amongst the papers of my father. He always kept all his own papers, and me looking over them I saw this letter.
Q Has that been in your custody ever since you found it? A Yes sir, if that's the letter that was in the envelope.
Q Well that's what it is, you can tell whether it is or not. (Witness further examines letter) Q That purports to be a letter from Samuel H. Benge, does it not, to your father? A Yes sir. (Here applicants' attorney hands letter and envelope referred to to attorneys for Cherokee Nation.)

BY MR. McKENNON: I want to offer this letter in evidence in this case; it is a letter signed by S. H. Benge, attorney at law, dated Fort Gibson, C. N., Jan. 13, 1883. Addressed to Mr. E. Dawson, Esq., together with the envelope, in which it was enclosed, with the card of C. H. Taylor upon it, attorney at law, Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and postmarked Tahlequah, Ind. T., January 13.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS: The Nation objects to the introduction of this letter for the reason that S. H. Benge is living and has testified in this case, and his handwriting should be either proven or denied by himself.

G. W. BENGE, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A G. W. Benge.
Q Are you a son of Samuel H. Benge? A Yes sir.
Q Do youknow his handwriting? A I believe so.
Q Is that his handwriting? (Shows witness letter before referred to.) A Yes sir, it is either his or a resemblance of his.
Q To the best of your knowledge and belief is that his letter?
A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: Now we offer it in evidence.

BY COMMISSION: (Reading letter)

"Fort Gibson, C. N.,
Jan 13th, 1883.

Mr. E. Dawson, Esq.,

Dear Sir:- I write this note to inform you that your case came off before the Court on Citizenship on the 11th inst, and was decided in your favor, so you all are citizens of this Nation. F. M. Dawson was furnished with a copy of the decision at the court. He will write to you also. You will please send me fifty dollars as my fee in your case according to contract. Send it to Fort Gibson, Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully yours,
S. H. Benge,

ROBERT L. DAWSON, -re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Now examine that and see if that is also a paper which you found among your father's papers after his death? (Hands papers to witness) A That is the same letter that I found.

Q Among the same that you found the Benge letter? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: This is a letter purporting to have been written by J. M. Bryan, to E. Dawson, dated at Chouteau Station, Cherokee Nation, and not dated, which we offer in evidence. (Applicants' attorney hands said paper to Nation's attorneys.)

Q Mr. Bryan is dead is he not? A I think so.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS: We have no objection.

BY COMMISSION: (reads letter)

"Chouteau Station, Cherokee Nation.
I. T., M. K. & T. R. R.

MR. Dawson:

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your favor of the 30th inst in regard to our contract.

After I had got the claim so there would be little more to do I employed Campbell Taylor to answer for me when the case came up, for which I was to pay him $20 out of my fee.

This all the action I had in the matter with Taylor.

I saw Taylor in Washington last month, and he told me that your brother had made another contract with him, and paid him, or that you was to pay him $100- and that you had offered him a check on some bank in Texas.

That $100- matter with Taylor, I have nothing to do with, nor couldn't have if I wanted to.

I hope Mr. Dawson this letter will explain the matter fully.

And I am satisfied that you are apprised of the earnest work I done for you, Please write to me.

Very respectfully,
Very truly,
J. M. Bryan."

Q I will ask you if you know of your father having paid Bryan that money? A Yes sir, paid him a horse and some other money.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How old was your father when he died? A No, I don't know whether I know his age or not.

Q If you don't know you can't say? A I wouldn't have no reason to know his age; never asked him his age; of course I guess my mother knows.

Q Never had occasion to talk about his age at all? A Oh I have heard him speaking of his age at different times, but then I never paid enough attention to it.

Cid Graham, being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q What is your name? A Cid Graham.

Q How old are you? A Mr. Graham? A I am 38 years old.
Q How long have you been living in the Territory? A I came out here in 1887 or '88.
Q To the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation, what year was that '87 or '8? A Yes sir.
Q Have you resided here continuously from that time ever since in the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you live in the Cherokee Nation? A About 6 years.
Q Where did you go then? A Wagoner.
Q In the Creek Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And been residing there ever since? A Yes sir.
Q In business? A Yes sir.
Q Have you all the while been recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Graham, do you know Judge Samuel H. Benge? A Yes sir.
Q Did you have a conversation with him in Fort Gibson about September of 1900? A Well as to the exact time I couldn't say, it was sometime about the time that the Dawes Commission were at Sallisaw, or possibly a little later, somewhere about there.
Q Taking the census of the Cherokees? A Yes sir.
Q At that time had the question of the validity of the judgment of the Cherokee citizenship commission admitting Robert Dawson and family been called in question? A Yes sir.
Q Did you talk to him about the facts concerning the obtaining of that judgment? A I did.
Q What did he tell you about it; well I will just ask you, did he then and there tell you that that judgment was regular and all right nothing wrong with it? A He did.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q You were looking around for testimony at that time, Mr. Graham, were you? A How was that?
Q You were looking around for testimony at that time, expecting this case to be questioned? A Since the validity of that judgment had been attacked by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, I thought it was well to look into the matter.
Q And he told you the judgment was all right? A Having known that Mr. Benge was connected with the case, I saw him in Fort Gibson, subsequent to that time and asked him about it, if there was anything wrong about the matter, and also that I might want his affidavit concerning the matter, and I also I think maybe wrote to him; Possibly prior to that, I am not sure as to the writing, but I think possibly I did.
Q Did he tell you he would make an affidavit? A I don't think at that time that I asked him for an affidavit. I thought as he lived right near here I would use him in person; he assured me that everything was all right.
Q Your mother was Missouri Dawson was not she? A Yes sir.
Q Her name was Missouri Graham when she was re-admitted to citizenship? A Yes sir
Q And was not Missouri Dawson as named in that judgment? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether the other children named in there had married and changed their names also at the time they were admitted?
A There were not any of them married.
Q Ella Dawson was your aunt? A Yes sir.
Q Was she married at that time? In 1883? A Yes sir.
Q Melvina Dawson, was she married at that time? A Yes sir.
Q And the fourth one you have mentioned, Missouri Dawson, was your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Can you give us the exact date of your birth? A Yes sir.
Q Do so, please? A January 21, 1867.
Q And you came to the Territory when? A In 1887 or 1888.
Q You can't fix that any more definite? A Well sir, it has been a good while ago, and I didn't have anything to cause me to.
Q Well I just want to know whether you did have or not? A No sir.
Q When were you married? A 1886.
Q You were married prior to coming here? A Yes sir.
Q Your first child born away from here? A Yes sir.
Q What is its name? A John W.
Q '86 you were married, and he was born about the spring of '87?
A Somewhere in 1887, I don't remember.
Q Prior to your coming here? A Yes sir.
Q That is the only child you had that was born away from here?
A No sir, Julius.
Q Julius was not born in the Territory? A No sir.
Q And prior to the time of your removing to the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q These are the only children born out? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if about February 1901, he came to Wagoner, and sent his son to have you come to the hotel at night where he was, and if he then and there said to you "You people are on the doubtful list, and if you will give me five hundred dollars I will make it all right and see that you are enrolled, and if you don't I will see that you don't get on"? A Well now as to the first part of that question, where you say he sent his son; that is an error; I don't know whether he came to my house or sent some one; when I returned home that evening my wife told me there was some one there to see me, and was at the city hotel at Wagoner, and said come down and see him; I went down there; I never had met Taylor; he introduced himself to me and stated what his business was; asked me if I was on the doubtful list, etc., to which I replied that we were; he asked me if I didn't want to employ him, stating that if we would give him, our family would give him five hundred dollars he would see that we were placed on the rolls all right, but if we refused to give him five hundred dollars that he would use his influence against us and see that we were rejected.
Q You never had met him before, or had any communication with him?
A I never met him before. as to the communication, I may have written him something about his affidavit as to the validity of that judgment, I can't say as to that. He said in his testimony that I did; I don't know whether I did or not now.

BY MR. HUTCHINES:

Q You knew he was the attorney in the case, originally? A After looking at the records I did.
Q I mean you knew it at the time you wrote to him about the affidavit; that was the reason why you thought he would know something? A Certainly.
Q He never told you he was going to swear against you or threatened to tell anything that was not true? A He just simply said unless we gave him that five hundred dollars he would see we were all put off the rolls.
Q Said he would use his influence against you, that is what he said? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You don't deny writing to him then for the affidavit? A I don't say I did or I did not: I neither affirm it or deny the question.
Q You went to Captain Benge and also wrote him with reference to what he knew about the case? A I don't kno whether I wrote him or not, I said I was under the impression I wrote his son.
Q You went to see Aaron Butler, who was interpreter before that court that admitted you? A Yes sir.
Q And you went with Aaron Butler to see Jim Smith, attorney before that court? A Yes sir.
Q And you either wrote or went to see everybody you knew of that was before that court then? A Yes sir.
Q That shows you used considerable activity? A Yes sir, I used such activity as was to my interest.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q That was all after the representatives of the Cherokee Nation objected to the enrollment of the Dawson family and by reason thereof such as had appeared before the Commission had been placed upon a doubtful card? A Yes sir.
Q Then you began to look up the evidence and see what there was in it? A Yes sir.
Q As Mr. Hastings has stated? A That's right.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q You are a grandson of James Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q The old gentleman? A Yes sir.
Q About what was his age when he was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, in 1884, wasn't it? A Yes sir, well I can't be exact as to that.
Q Well as nearly as you can? A He was somewhere about 70 or 72, years of age.
Q Well what other James Dawson did you know belonging to the families, either one of these families, Robert Dawson family or the James Dawson family? A I never knew of but two James Dawsons.
Q Who were the others? A Dr. James R. Dawson, who is present and standing right here; my grandfather, James Dawson.
Q Was there in '84 any James R. Dawson 35 or 40 or 45 years old, that you know of, belonging to either one of these families? A No sir.
Q Do you know how old Dr. James R. Dawson was that that time? A James Dawson? Q No I am speaking of Dr. James R. Dawson? A Oh; how old he was, no sir, I do not.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q Do you know who was here attending to your mother's citizenship case at that time, at the time they were admitted? A Yes sir, James Low and Bill Jackson, son of Ellen Jackson.
Q Who was W. A. Dawson? A That is Wilburn, my uncle.
Q Was he here? A I don't know sir.
Q You were not here any of the time? A No sir.
Q You knew your grandfather then, you had lived in the same neighborhood with him? A Yes sir, I knew him well.
Q He didn't die for a year or two after that did he? A After when, Mr. Hutchings?
Q After his admission to citizenship? A No sir, he didn't die I think until '91 or '90, several years after.
Q Very old man when he died? A Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q About what age? A He was approximately 90 years old.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q When he died? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q That about 1881? A I think so, yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Applicants object to the testimony of the witness elicited by interrogatories of Counsel for the Cherokee Nation relating to his family, their history, etc, as being immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

James R. Dawson, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Your name is James R. Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Where do you live? A Afton, Indian Territory.
Q What is your age? A 45.
Q You are a physician are you not? A Yes sir.
Q Was James Dawson, whose family was admitted in 1884, an uncle of yours? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know what his age was at that time? A No sir, I do not, only approximately.
Q State as nearly as you can? A At the time of theadmission?
Q Yes sir? A About 70, I don't know exactly.
Q How old was he when he died? A I would suppose he was about 78.
Q What was your age in 1884? A I am 45.
Q What year were you born, Doctor? A I was born in '56.
Q Must have been '58? A Yes sir, that's right.
Q What was your age then? A In '84?
Q Yes sir? A About 28.
Q Were you present at the time that James Dawson family was admitted, or at any time while their case was pending before the Cherokee citizenship commission? A Not while the James Dawson case was, no sir.
Q You were present during your father's case? A I was there at the time.
Q When was that? A The dates I disremember; when the case first come up, I disremember the exact date.
Q How long were you there? A I was there about a week.
Q Was that when it first came up you say? A Yes sir.
Q Nothing was done? A No sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS?
Q You never saw Dr. Baker? A Yes sir.
Q Did he and your uncle Jimmie use d to talk about how they played together when they were boys? A My uncle Jim and Dr. Baker talk?
Q Yes? A I never saw them together.
Q They were about the same age? A Yes sir, I believe Dr. Baker was 15 years older probably.
Q Dr. Baker must have been mistaken about his own age? A Guessing, that's all I know about his age.
Q The Doctor had been paralyzed, rather a decrepit looking man at the time he was over here at this citizenship business? A No sir, not as I know anything about.
Q He was near about 70 then? A I couldn't tell you, he was an old looking man.
Q Your uncle Jimmie was about 70? A Yes sir.

TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF THE CHEROKEE NATION.

W. W. HASTINGS, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A W. W. Hastings.
Q Residence? A Tahlequah, age 35.
Q You are attorney for the Cherokee Nation in the general preparation of these cases? A Yes sir.
Q Just state how it happened that you summoned Mr. Campbell Taylor, and what occurred between you with reference to his testimony?
A Well there had been some talk, as the testimony here indicates, that there was perhaps fraud in the admission of this family, and by agreement with counsel on the other side, and the Commission, this case was set for the 17th day of March, and some short time prior to that, as the attorney for the Nation I began to make some preparation or inquiry into the case, and I wrote a great many letters around to different people and among them I wrote C. H. Taylor to come down here. I don't think in that letter that I told him what I wanted with him. I don't think I told him the case that I wanted him to testify in; that is my recollection now. Mr. Taylor prior to that time, neither directly nor indirectly, so far as I know, ever gave me any information voluntarily against this family, or ever said anything that would lead me to believe that he knew anything of a fraudulent character connected with it. But I summonsed him; perhaps the fact that I knew he had been connected with them in some way and that I perhaps also would get some information from him. Well he came in response to a letter that I wrote, and I took him up to my office. I talked to him quite a long while. He was exceedingly reluctant about giving any testimony whatever, he told me first and last that he didn't intend to testify before the Commission. He told me he had been attorney for these people, and he didn't believe he could be compelled to testify, and that is he was put upon the stand he would claim that privilege, and he didn't believe I could force him to testify. I talked to him at some considerable length; I asked him what he knew about it; of course he for a long time declined to tell me; and what information I did get from him was by piecemeal. He was exceedingly reluctant all through the interview to give any information. I asked him finally though that if the Court compelled him to testify when he got before the Commission, if he would tell the facts about it, and he said that he would. I told him then that I would subpoena him.

Well we talked quite a good while and finally after always telling me that he intended to claim that privilege, and never wanting to testify, he detailed to me the facts just as he told them on the stand; I don't believe there is the slightest variation, except that he perhaps was not so full at that time and it was told by piecemeal, but I got all those facts out of him, or very nearly all those facts out of him. He may have elaborated a little more here by examination; but he never voluntarily gave me any information at all, either directly or so far as I know indirectly. I don't think he sent any one to me. I got his name because I heard he was connected with the case, and perhaps knew something about it, like I did a great many other people some of whom I didn't bring, because they didn't know what I supposed they did know about the case.

With reference to S. H. Benge, I want to state that he never voluntarily gave me any information at all about this case, nor did I know that he knew anything in connection with this case until I sent J. C. Starr over to S. H. Benge's place to take his affidavit on Saturday, March 15, in the W. H. and J. W. Shoemake case, and their descendants. I had heard that Mr. Benge knew some important facts in connection with the Shoemake case and I sent him over there then to take that affidavit; and when Mr Starr came back he told me that he knew some facts also in connection with these other cases, and I was surprised to find he had instead of one affidavit, in the Shoemake case, that he also had another affidavit in the Dawson case. That is the first information I had that Mr. Benge knew anything whatever in connection with the Dawson case, and therefore he never voluntarily, either directly or indirectly gave any information prior to that time to me.

I impressed upon Mr. Taylor that the Nation only wanted the absolute truth in this matter; that it was not seeking anything else but the truth, and didn't want him to tell anything else but the truth.

I want to say again that after he was on the stand and left that evening, and after Captain McKennon, or counsel for the family, had indicated his willingness for Mr. Taylor to testify, that he went over all of these facts that he testified to on the stand subsequent to that time in the presence of J. C. Starr in my office. I simply wanted to go on the stand for the purpose of showing that Mr. Taylor hadn't voluntarily given me any information, and I make this statement for that purpose.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q You had no power to compel him to give you any information at that time at all did you? A No sir, none other than the persuation that I brought to use.
Q He therefore did it simply upon your persuation? A Yes sir.
Q You knew he had been acting as attorney for these parties?
A Yes sir, I had seen from the record that he did too.
Q And he told you so? A Yes sir.

BY COMMISSION: The attorneys for the applicant and the representatives of the Cherokee Nation will be granted thirty days from the receipt of the transcript in this case in which to file a brief in this case with the Commission.

I, M. D. Green, do hereby certify that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes I correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) M. D. Green.

I, Arthur G. Evans, being duly sworn, state that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes I copied the foregoing, and that the same is a true and complete copy of the original.

Martin, a Notary Public on October 4, 1900, and further proceedings were had therein before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory on March 17, 1902. All of these proceedings have been made a part of the record herein.

The evidence, and an examination of the records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission show that on January 11, 1883, one Robert Dawson and his adult children, F. M. Dawsin, Elbert Dawson, Jasper Dawson, Mollie Dawson, Wilborn Dawson, James Dawson, Rial Dawson, Josephine Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson and John Dawson were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, commonly known as the "Teehee Court", and that on September 9, 1884, one James Dawson, a brother of the Robert Dawson aforesaid, together with his adult children, Ella Dawson, W. A. Dawson, Malvina Dawson and Missouri Dawson were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship commonly known as the "Spears Court." In addition to their tribal enrollment as shown by the evidence herein, it also appears from an examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, in the possession of this Commission, that F. M. Dawson is identified on the Cherokee pay rolls of 1883 and 1894, Elbert Dawson on the Cherokee pay roll of 1886, Mollie Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, Wilborn Dawson on the pay rolls of 1886 and 1894, James Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883 and 1894, Rial Dawson on the pay rolls of 1886 and 1894, Josephine Dawson on the pay roll of 1886, Jane Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, Joseph Dawson and John Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883, 1886 and 1894, Ella Dawson and W.A.

Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, and Missouri Dawson on the pay roll of 1894.

A majority of the above named persons, together with the descendants of the persons admitted as aforesaid and such white persons as may have intermarried with the said Dawsons or their descendants are the applicants herein.

For convenience, the applications are divided into groups:

Group 1, includes the applications of Francis M. Dawson and those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 324, D 580, D 581, D 584, D 588 and D 835.

The evidence shows that Francis M. Dawson is the same person admitted to citizenship as hereinbefore stated under the name of F.M. Dawson. Katie Dawson, his wife, was married to him on November 21, 1880. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since they were married, and the six children included in the application of said Francis M. Dawson, and hereinbefore named are the issue of the marriage aforesaid. All the applicants herein are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

John Dawson, William R. Dawson, Lizzie Atkins, formerly Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, Jr., and Arizona Allred are the children of said Francis M. Dawson by a former wife, Julia Ann. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship. John Dawson, Lizzie Atkins and Francis M. Dawson, Jr., are identified on the Strip Payment roll of 1894, and William R. Dawson and Arizona Allred are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Andrew C. Atkins was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on March 29, 1891, to the above named Lizzie Dawson. He has resided in the Cherokee Nation with his said wife since they were married, and the four children included in his application, and hereinbefore named are the issue of that marriage. The oldest child, Arthur, is identified on the Cherokee pay roll of 1894, and the three younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Arizona Allred, nee Dawson, came from Arkansas to the Cherokee Nation for the first time in 1894, remained there about two years and then returned to Arkansas, where she was married to Lee Allred. Such marriage was not in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. Arizona Allred and her husband came to the Cherokee Nation in 1896, stayed there a month and returned to Arkansas where they remained until September, 1898, at which time they came to the Cherokee Nation, remained there about a year and returned to Arkansas in 1899, where they were living at the date of this application. William C. Allred is the child of said Arizona Allred and possesses no rights not acquired by his mother. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Paragraph 9, Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) provides:

> "No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the Nation in which he claims citizenship."

The evidence further shows that Francis M. Dawson, his wife, Katie and William R. Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, Jr., and Lizzie Atkins have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883, and Andrew C. Atkins, the husband of said Lizzie Atkins, since 1891, and that John Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation for at least fourteen years prior to the date of his application. The residence of the minor children of the above named persons is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group II, includes the applications of Samuel R. Dawson, together with those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 350, D 352, D 358, D 365, D 482 and D 402.

The evidence shows that Samuel R. Dawson is identified as the Rial Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. His wife, Catherine, a white woman, was married to him on July 11, 1868. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since their marriage, and August and Mate Dawson are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. Samuel R. Dawson, his wife and children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Robert Dawson, Albert H. Dawson, Josephine Bulawsky, formerly Josephine Dawson, John W. Dawson, and Katie Newman, formerly Katie Dawson are the children of said Samuel R. Dawson. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Sarah F. Dawson, nee Abbott, was married to the said Albert H. Dawson in October, 1894. She has lived with her said husband, since they were married. Ralph H., Alford and Cecil Dawson are the issue of that marriage. Sarah F. Dawson and her child Ralph H. are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. Alford is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission. The evidence further shows that the youngest child, Cecil Dawson, is dead.

August Bulawsky, was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on May 25, 1893, to the said Josephine Dawson. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. The four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and the Strip payment roll of 1894. May Bulawsky is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and Oscar Bulawsky is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Nannie Dawson, nee Baugher, was married to the said John W. Dawson on September 2, 1894, and she has lived with her said husband since they were married.

The evidence further shows that Samuel R. Dawson, his wife, Catherine, and Robert Dawson, Albert H. Dawson, John W. Dawson, and Katie Newman have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1836, August Bulawsky and his wife Josephine, since 1898, and Sarah F. and Nannie Dawson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group III, includes the application of John Dawson, and those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 578, D 360 and D 530. The evidence shows that John Dawson is the same person admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated, Sarah J. Dawson, nee Wood, his wife, a white woman, was married to him on October 4, 1871. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since they were married and the nine children included in the application of said John Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. John Dawson, his wife, and his seven older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Thomas P. Dawson and Orle H. Dawson are the children of said John Dawson. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship, and they are both identified on the Cherokee

Census roll of 1896.

Thomas P. Dawson was married on April 24, 1898, to Allen A. Allison, and Marion J. Dawson is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Orle M. Dawson was married on December 28, 1899, to Willis York, and Burr M. and James F. Dawson are the issue of that marriage. The said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said John Dawson and his wife, Sarah J., have resided together in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that said Orle M. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883, and that Thomas P. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888. The residence of the minor children herein is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XV, includes the applications of those claiming through the said Josephine Dawson, now deceased. At the time of her admission she was the wife of one Thomas Pierce, but was admitted to citizenship under maiden name of Dawson. The group embraces cases numbered D 408, D 409, D 431, D 471, D 472 and D 479.

The evidence shows that Robert Pierce, William Pierce, Charles M. Pierce, Ona Gray, formerly Ona Pierce, Effie Pierce (now Effie Akin) and Nancy J. Bogle, formerly Nancy J. Pierce are the children of said Josephine Dawson. They were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Nellie Pierce, a white woman, was married to said Robert Pierce on July 15, 1894. She has lived with her said husband since they were married, and Lyrtle and Arthur Pierce are the issue of that marriage. Nellie Pierce is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and her two children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Oma Gray was married to John B. Gray on April 7, 1898, and [illegible] and Walton Gray are the issue of that marriage. Oma Gray is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894 and her children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

John S. Bogle was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 8, 1894, to the above named Nancy J. Pierce. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. John S. Bogle and his two older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his four younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said William Pierce died in January, 1902.

It further appears that Robert Pierce, Charles E. Pierce, Nancy J. Bogle and Oma Gray have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; that John S. Bogle, husband of Nancy J. Bogle, and Nellie Pierce, wife of Robert Pierce, have resided in said Nation ever since they were married, and the residence of the minor children herein is considered to be that of their parents with whom they are living. It appears that Eddie Aking was seventeen years old at the date of the application for her enrollment, and it further appears that she resided in the Cherokee Nation from about 1886 up to December, 1900, when she went to Colorado, was married there to Will Aking, and is now living in that state with her said husband.

Group V, includes the application of the said Joseph Dawson, Wilborn Dawson and James Dawson, and embraces cases numbered D 364, D 475 and D 526.

Joseph R. Dawson is identified as the Joseph Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. He was married to Florence Jackson on May 16, 1886, and they have lived together since the date of their marriage. The said Florence Jackson is the daughter of Ella Dawson, but she was of age at the date of her mother's admission to citizenship. The six children included in the application of said Joseph R. Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the marriage between the said Joseph R. Dawson and Florence Jackson. The applicant, his said wife and his four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Wilborn Dawson is identified as the person of that name admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

James R. Dawson is identified as the James Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as heretofore stated. His wife, Martha A. Dawson was married to him on February 20, 1890. She has lived with her said husband since the date of their marriage, and the four children included in the application of said James R. Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. The applicant, his said wife and his three older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The youngest child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that Joseph R. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that Florence Dawson and Wilborn Dawson have resided in said Nation since 1886, and that James R. Dawson has resided in said Nation since 1883, excepting a temporary absence from 1889 to 1891. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group VI, includes the application of Mollie Dawson and those claiming through her and embraces case numbered D 518.

The evidence shows that Mollie Moore, formerly Dawson, is identified as the Mollie Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. Her husband, Charles T. Moore, was married to her under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on January 17, 1897. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. Charles T. Moore, his wife Mollie, and his four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896; the two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that said Charles T. Moore, his wife Mollie and his oldest child have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; the younger children have resided in said nation all their lives.

Group VII, includes the applications of those claiming through the above named Jane Dawson, who, at the time of her admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, as hereinbefore stated, was the wife of one Alexander Blasingame, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson. Jane Dawson is a resident of Arkansas, and is not an applicant for enrollment. This group embraces cases numbered D 832, D 833 and D 834.

The evidence shows that Henry A. Blasingame, Elbert L. Blasingame, and James R. Blasingame are the children of said Jane Dawson. They were minors at the time of their mother's admission to citizenship and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Henry A. Blasingame was married to his wife Birdie J., on December 6, 1896, and Vinnie C. Blasingame is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Ida Blasingame, a white woman, was married to the said Elbert L. Blasingame on September 5, 1894. She has lived with her said husband ever since they were married and the four minor children included in the application of said Elbert L. Blasingame are the issue of that marriage. The said Ida Blasingame and her two older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Mary A. Blasingame was married to the said James R. Blasingame on August 11, 1895. She has lived with her said husband since they were married and the three minor children included in the application of said James R. Blasingame, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. Mary A. Blasingame and her oldest child are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said Henry A. Blasingame, Elbert L. Blasingame and James R. Blasingame removed to the Cherokee Nation in 1897 and have resided therein with their said wives ever since. The residence of the minor children included in this Group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group VIII, includes the applications of those claiming through the said Elbert Dawson, and embraces cases numbered D 435, D 604, D 608, D 605, D 609, D 617, D 626 and D 627.

The evidence shows that Zona Patterson, formerly Dawson, William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Richard W. Dawson, Ella L. Spickerman, formerly Dawson, and Francis M. Dawson are the children of the said Elbert Dawson. All of them, excepting the said Francis M. Dawson, were minors at the time of their father's admission to citizenship. Zona Patterson is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson are identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894. An examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, in the possession of this Commission, shows that the said Ella L. Spickerman is also identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894.

Martin L. Patterson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on July 13, 1890, to the said Zona Dawson. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. Martin L. Patterson and his three older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his three younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Alice Dawson, nee Alexander, was married to the said William G. Dawson on November 18, 1886. She has lived with her said husband ever since they were married.

Elbert B. Dawson was married on February 16, 1898, to Cora Bright, a non-citizen, and his child Ralph E. Dawson is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Sarah J. Dawson, nee Jones, was married to the above named Elbert Dawson about 1854, and lived with him as his wife until his death in February, 1899, and has not re-married since his death. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. F. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship.

Richard W. Dawson was married to Luella Mason, a white woman, on January 24, 1898. His child Ina E. Dawson is the issue of that marriage, and she is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Ella L. Spickerman was married to John J. Spickerman, a white man on September 7, 1897. Her children Hellen J. and William Glenn are the issue of that marriage. They are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

It further appears from the evidence that Francis M. Dawson, son of Elbert Dawson, at the time of his father's admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation was twenty-two or twenty-three years old. There is no evidence that the said Francis M. Dawson has been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides for the enrollment of,

> "all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents, by reason of their Cherokee blood have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, and who were minors when their parents were so admitted."

The evidence further shows that Zona Patterson, William C. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson, and Ella L. Spickerman since 1883; Alice Dawson since 1886, and Martin L. Patterson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IX, includes the applications of the said Missouri Dawson, and those claiming through her. The said Missouri Dawson at the time of her admission to citizenship was the wife of one John W. Graham, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson, This group embraces cases numbered D 23, D 35, D 836, D 1124, D 1125, D 1126, D 1127 and D 1128.

The evidence shows that John W. Graham was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on February 12, 1888, to the said Missouri Dawson. He had been formerly married to her in the state of Texas in 1866, and has lived with her since that time. Tempa V. and Robert S. Graham are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. John W. Graham, his wife and two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

ship in the Cherokee Nation was twenty-two or twenty-three years old. There is no evidence that the said Francis M. Dawson has been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides for the enrollment of,

> "all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents, by reason of their Cherokee blood have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, and who were minors when their parents were so admitted."

The evidence further shows that Zona Patterson, William C. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1894; Robert L. Dawson, Wilbert B. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson, and Ella L. Spicherman since 1883; Alice Dawson since 1886, and Martin L. Patterson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IX, includes the applications of the said Missouri Dawson, and those claiming through her. The said Missouri Dawson at the time of her admission to citizenship was the wife of one John W. Graham, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson. This group embraces cases numbered, D 23, D 35, D 836, D 1124, D 1125, D 1126, D 1127 and D 1128.

The evidence shows that John W. Graham was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on February 12, 1888, to the said Missouri Dawson. He had been formerly married to her in the State of Texas in 1886, and has lived with her since that time. Tempe V. and Robert S. Graham are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. John W. Graham, his wife and two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Joe E. Graham was married to Mary Bradshaw, a non-citizen on January 6, 1898. William C. Graham is the issue of that marriage, and he is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

John F. Graham was married on February 11, 1900, to Mattie Lawson, a non-citizen, and Edna M. and Robert Lee are the issue of that marriage. Said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Bessie Graham was married on November 2, 1892, to the said James M. Graham. She has lived with him since the date of their marriage, and the six children included in the application of said James M. Graham, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the said marriage. The oldest child Marion is identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894, and the five younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said John W. Graham, his wife Missouri Graham, Gideon Graham, Mathew A. Painter, and his wife Laverna A. Painter, Florence P. Bradshaw, John F. Graham and Joe Willie Neal have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888, and that Joe E. Graham and James M. Graham have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group X, includes the application of the said Ella Dawson and those claiming through her. The said Ella Dawson, at the time of her admission to citizenship, was the wife of Green W. Jackson, but she was admitted to citizenship under her maiden name of Dawson. This group embraces cases numbered D 395, D 476, D 808, D 830 and D 847.

The evidence shows that Green W. Jackson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on March 24, 1887 to the said Ella Dawson. He had been previously married to her in Texas prior to her admission to citizenship. From an affidavit made a part of this record it appears that Green W. Jackson died subsequent to the date of this application, and prior to September 1, 1902.

The evidence further shows that Flora Harmon, formerly Jackson, Tashio A. Jackson, William Jackson and Fannie Lenox, formerly Jackson are the children of said Ella Dawson, now Ella Jackson. Flora Harmon, Tashio A. Jackson and Fannie Lenox were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

James H. Harmon was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 24, 1887, to the said Flora Jackson. He has lived with his wife since the date of their marriage, and the four minor children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the said marriage. James H. Harmon and his three older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The youngest child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

William C. Lenox was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 1, 1888, to the said Fannie Jackson. He has lived with his wife since the date of their marriage, and the two children Birtie B. and Myrtle Lenox, included in his application, are the issue of the said marriage. William C. Lenox and his two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Lizzie Jackson claims to have been married in 1888 to the said William Jackson, who is now deceased. It appears that William Jackson at the date of his mother's admission to citizenship, was over twenty-one years old. There is no evidence that the said William Jackson was ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). Lizzie Jackson and the five minor children included in her application, and hereinbefore named, are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and they take only such rights as may have been possessed by the said William Jackson. The authority of the Commission herein is defined in Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), heretofore quoted.

The evidence further shows that the said Ella Jackson, the said Flora Harmon and the said Toshie A. Jackson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884, and that William C. Lenox, and his wife Fannie Lenox have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XI, includes the applications of those claiming through Malvina Dawson and embraces case numbered D 839.

The evidence shows that James Lowe is the son of the said Malvina Dawson, and that at the time of her admission to citizenship the said James Lowe was over 21 years old. There is no evidence that the said James Lowe was ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). It further appears that the said James Lowe was married on June 12, 1887, to Mollie Knight, a white woman, and the four minor children included in his application and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. James Lowe and his said children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896 and said children take only the rights which may have been acquired by their father.

The authority of the Commission herein is derived in Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), heretofore quoted.

Group XII, includes the applications of those claiming through the said W. A. Dawson and embraces cases numbered D 405, D 406, D 715, R 12 and R 13.

The evidence shows that Millie T. Dawson was married to the said W. A. Dawson in 1892 and lived with him as his wife in the Cherokee Nation until his death in 1899, and that she has not re-married since his death. Texanna Woolley is the daughter of said W. A. Dawson and his former wife Melissa A. Dawson. Texanna Woolley was a minor at the date of her father's admission to citizenship, and she is identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894. She was married on March 27, 1898, to James Woolley, and her children Irene V. and Wilburn R. are the issue of that marriage. They are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Henry T. Richardson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on July 11, 1886, to one Sellar Dawson, who was the daughter of the said W. A. Dawson by his first wife Melissa A. Sellar Dawson was a minor at the date of her father's admission to citizenship. Henry T. Richardson lived in the Cherokee Nation with his said wife Sellar from the date of their marriage until her death in 1892. On September 22, 1898, Henry T. Richardson married one Kitty Flournoy nee Dawson. The said Kitty Flournoy was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. Of the children herein applied for, Delia F. Richardson is the child of the applicant by his first wife, Sellar. Finis T. Richardson and Jasper C. Richardson are children by his wife Kitty. Edgar, Walter, Alice, Laura, Oscar, Claude and Edna Flournoy are the children of his said wife Kitty by a former husband.

The six older children were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on December 1, 1894, with their mother as the members of her family. The youngest child Edna Flournoy was born in 1896 and was living at the date of this application. Delia F. Richardson is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and Finis T. and Jasper C. Richardson are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Etta Brauer is the daughter of said W. A. Dawson, and was a minor at the date of her father's admission. She was married in 1902 to a non-citizen but such marriage was not in accordance with Cherokee laws. She is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Melissa A. Dawson was married to the said W. A. Dawson in the State of Texas on September 28, 1873. The Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in the case of Melissa A. Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson, decided that Melissa A. Dawson, the applicant herein was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of intermarriage with her said husband, W. A. Dawson. She is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and she has not re-married since her divorce from said W. A. Dawson.

The evidence shows that Texanna Woolley has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; that Etta Brauer and Melissa A. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation, with the exception of temporary absences, since 1884; that Millie T. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1892; that Henry T. Richardson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1886, and that Kitty Richardson, his wife, has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XIII, includes the following applications: Hiram F. Waddle, et al D 821; William D. Douthitt, D 822; Alonzo M. Pinkham, D 843; Florence Morgan, et al D 939; John E. Pinkham, D 940 and George A. Mabry, et al D 970. The persons enrolled in these applic-

cations are related to the above named Dawsons. They are not claiming the right to enrollment by virtue of such relationship, but rely upon a separate adjudication of their rights.

The evidence shows that Hiram F. Weddle was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on September 13, 1884, to Lula P. Douthitt, who was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the said "Spears Court" on September 13, 1884. Curtis, Morris O. and Roy Weddle are the issue of the said marriage. Hiram F. Weddle and his said wife are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and their three children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

William D. Douthitt is the brother of said Lula P. Weddle, and was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation with his said sister on September 13, 1884. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Alonzo M. Fishback was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on May 17, 1891, to Lavyrna A. Dawson. He had been previously married to the same wife in Texas in 1877, and has lived with her ever since. It appears that Lavyrna Fishback was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. William A. and Annie B. Fishback are the issue of the said marriage. Alonzo M. Fishback and his said wife and children are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his wife is also identified on the Cherokee pay roll of 1880.

Florence Morgan, the wife of Elbert L. Morgan, is the daughter of the Kitty Richardson heretofore mentioned and was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on December 1, 1894 with the said Kitty Richardson as a member of her family. Clide and Alice A. Morgan are her children by her said husband. The said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

John E. Fishback is the son of Laverna Fishback, who was re-admitted to citizenship on December 1, 1894, as heretofore stated. He was a minor at the date of his mother's admission to citizenship and he is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

George A. Mabry was married to one Edna Dawson in the State of Arkansas in 1884. He claims to have been married under a Cherokee marriage license to his said wife in 1889, but he presents no satisfactory proof of such marriage. Edna Dawson was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. Roby and Charley Mabry are her children by her said husband, George A. Mabry. Edna Mabry is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894, and the two children were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship.

The evidence further shows that Alonzo H. Fishback and his wife Laverna A. Fishback have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that Lula P. Weddle, William D. Douthitt, and John E. Fishback have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884, and that Florence Morgan and Edna Mabry have resided in said Nation since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

All birth affidavits for the minor children embraced in this decision, and hereinbefore noted, are made a part of this record.

It is contended by the Cherokee Nation that the applicants herein are not entitled to be enrolled by this Commission because they have never been lawfully admitted or enrolled by the Cherokee authorities, and that the judgment of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship admitting Robert Dawson and his family was obtained by fraud on the part of said Dawson.

In considering the question at issue, it is the opinion of this Commission that it has no power, and that it is not the purpose of this proceeding, to review or to set aside the judgment in the Dawson case, or to determine such questions as were necessarily involved in the issues before the Cherokee Commission, and were passed upon by that Commission. In United States vs. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. Page 61, it is stated, "the doctrine is well settled that the Court will not set aside a judgment because it was founded on perjured testimony or for any matter which was actually presented and considered in the judgment assailed." Only such facts therefore, are considered by this Commission, as were not part of the record in the Robert Dawson case before the Teehee Commission, and which tend to show whether the judgment admitting the Dawsons was a bona fide judgment of the Teehee Commission, or whether such judgment is void because of fraud, and upon this proposition the burden of proof is upon those attacking the judgment.

Briefly stated, the circumstances attending the admission of the Dawsons appear to be as follows:

On September 24, 1881, an application was made to the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship known as the "Teehee Court" for admission to Cherokee citizenship of Robert Dawson and the members of his family above mentioned. The members of that Commission were Thomas Teehee, Alex Wolfe and T. F. Thompson. The first two were full blood Cherokee Indians; they could understand, but could not talk English. One D. W. C. Duncan was the Clerk of the Commission. The Dawson case was continued several times before final decision. J. M. Bryan appears to have been an attorney in the case, and after some delay he notified Francis M. Dawson that the case would be taken up by the Commission at its session in January, 1883, and also informed him that C.N.Taylor would look after Dawson's interests as he, Bryan, would be in Washington. On receipt of this notice Francis M. Dawson went to Fort Gibson, Cherokee Nation, and made arrangements with his uncle Samuel H. Benge to go to Tahlequah and conduct the case.. Benge who is a witness herein testifies that he was connected with the Dawson case when it was commenced in 1881; that it was continued several times for want of evidence, and that in January, 1885, in company with F. M. Dawson he went to Tahlequah and while there secured the testimony of Tosh Rogers, a negro, who knew the Dawson's ancestors, and that after getting his evidence the case was submitted to the Commission. He further testifies that the Commission rendered a decision against the Dawsons and that next morning the Commission reopened the case, but not upon motion of the witness, and rendered a judgment admitting the Dawsons to citizenship. He further states that on his way home to Fort Gibson with Dawson he remarked to the latter, "it was a pretty hard blow when they rendered a decision against us," to which Dawson is alleged to have replied, "yes, but Duncan was the man to reach and he reached him with five hundred dollars."

Dawson denies ever having had such a conversation and says that he did not return to Fort Gibson with Benge but went home to Arkansas by a different route.

C. N. Taylor testifies that he was an attorney in the case and was present when the case was decided. He says there were only two Commissioners present, Teehee and Wolfe. He further testifies that D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of the Court asked the witness to let him know when any large citizenship cases came up; that he introduced F. M. Dawson to Duncan on the evening of January 10th, heard part of a conversation between them in which Duncan addressing Dawson said, "there is a hitch in your evidence, if that was straightened out it will be all right." Next morning witness says Dawson told him to call up the case, which he did. That there was no additional evidence introduced and no argument made, and that the case was then decided in favor of the Dawsons. Witness further testifies that Dawson gave him twenty dollars and said he would send him the balance in a short time, that in the course of ten days he sent him one hundred dollars with directions to pay over half of it to Duncan; that Dawson soon afterwards sent him another hundred dollars with the same instruction to give Duncan half of it.

Dawson denied the matters testified to by Taylor excepting in the matter of paying Taylor money, which he admits in part, but says that the twenty dollars mentioned was sent to Taylor about a year after the decision, and that he instructed Taylor to pay it over to Duncan to pay him for a land claim, and that the other money was in payment of F. M. Boyle's attorney fees which Taylor represented to Dawson he had for collection against him. Taylor's reputation for truth and veracity has been impeached by various disinterested witnesses.

The evidence which may be considered as tending to support the charge of fraud is the testimony of S. M. Donge, C. H. Taylor, Thomas . Babcart, J. E. Blickenbeard, James W. Lewis, C. G. Draught and David Meredith.

F. M. Donge testifies that a judgment adverse to the Dawsons was rendered by the Commission on the evening of one day and without any additional proceedings in the case that judgment was reversed on the morning of the next day.

Even if this were a material fact, there is no other proof that two judgments in the case were ever rendered. The record of the proceedings and judgment in the Commission's docket is all on one page, the entry of the application in 1891 and the first continuance being entered under authority of a former Commission and by a different clerk, and there is no evidence of erasure on that page. It is not an unusual thing for a Court to change its judgment, and this fact, if it is a fact, is not in itself any evidence of fraud.

Thomas B. Babeart testifies that one James Dawson, a man of forty or fifty years of age, in company with Butler, the Commission's interpreter and Jim Smith, solicitor for the Nation, came to the witness in Tahlequah the evening of January 10, 1883, to borrow some money; that Dawson was vouched for by Butler as a responsible party and that Dawson told the witness that he had to have money that night, that his case was to be submitted the next day if he could get some money, that Smith had agreed to submit the case without evidence, and that witness thereupon let Dawson have ten dollars.

Admitting all this to be true and that the influence of these officials was purchased for the sum of ten dollars, the Commission fails to see how these alleged facts show that the Court was imposed upon or misled. Bribery of officials to use their influence with the Commission would not necessarily vitiate the judgment, but it must appear that the fraud, or corruption reached the members of the Commission and tainted the judgment itself. The case was not submitted without evidence as appears from the record, and it is shown that such evidence was carefully considered by that Commission. Furthermore, the evidence shows that there was no such person then in Tahlequah as the James Dawson described by witness.

Clinkenbeard testifies that he had a talk with Elbert Dawson about 1881; that Dawson told him he had only one witness, Dr. Baker of Arkansas, "an old man 85 or 90 years old who did not know straight up" and that he could give Dr. Baker four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would swear black was white. Witness further testifies that Dawson told him that money was what made the mare go in Texas, and that he had found out that it goes here too.

Assuming that this Commission can go into thequestion of perjury in connection with evidence in that case, the testimony of Clinkenbeard establishes, if anything, only the facts stated, and does not prove that Dr. Baker committed perjury in giving his testimony before the Commission. Further, it is not clear that Dr. Baker was the only witness in the case. Benge stated that Noah Rogers was a witness, Duncan is under that impression also, and T. F. Thompson, one of the Commissioners, states that he thinks there were three witnesses. The testimony of Dr. Baker, seems, however, to be the only testimony preserved of record. As to whether Doctor Baker offered perjured testimony by Dawson's procurement, it is proper to state that the evidence of W. H. Curtis and A. S. McClennon, witnesses for applicants, show that Doctor Baker was a man of integrity and was not addicted to drinking.

The testimony of James W. Lewis is to the effect that he had a conversation with F. M. Dawson about 1883, in which Dawson had told the witness that it had cost him seven hundred dollars to get his rights. Draught also testifies that he was an applicant for citizenship about 1881 or 1882, and that while his case was pending he had a talk with F. M. Dawson who told him that if he (the witness) ever got in, it would cost him seven hundred dollars, and that Dawson told him he had paid one witness three hundred dollars, and made arrangements with the Court to get the Dawsons in at one hundred dollars a family. David Meredith testifies that he had a talk with old James Dawson in 1888, and that the latter told the witness it cost him twelve hundred dollars to get his case through.

It can hardly be urged that such evidence is sufficient to show that the members of the Teehee Commission were corrupted by the fraudulent use of money. So far as these witnesses have been able to testify the money spent by the Dawsons might have been for proper and legitimate purposes. F. M. Dawson gives a detailed statement of what the case cost him and his brother in a legitimate way. The presumption can not be indulged that such moneys were used for fraudulent purposes and the proof to the contrary must be very clear before this Commission will deny applicants the right to be enrolled upon that ground.

Admitting the truth of all the testimony in this case as to the actual transfer of money by the Dawsons, it appears that Duncan, Butler and Smith were the only beneficiaries of that money. There is no evidence that the members of the Commission received or were offered any of it.

The judgment entered in the Commission's docket shows the signature of the three members of the Commission appended thereto. There is some conflict as to whether Duncan signed Thompson's name, or whether Thompson affixed his own signature. Duncan testified that all three signatures were made by him as Clerk under authority of the Commissioners present, the two full bloods being unable to sign their names. T. F. Thompson testifies that he signed the original transcript of the judgment, which was made on the day of its rendition. The question, however, is not considered to be very material. The signing of judgments by each Commissioner appears to have been a matter of custom only. T. F. Thompson testifies that he remembers the Dawson case and recognizes the judgment therein as the final judgment of the Commission, and that there was no fraud or corruption in the procurement of that judgment by the Dawsons or by any one else so far as he knew.

Much evidence has been introduced by the Cherokee Nation for the purpose of showing that the ancestor, through whom the Dawsons claim, was not a Cherokee, and that other members of the Dawson family, claiming from the same source, have been denied Cherokee citizenship by subsequent Cherokee tribunals, and also by this Commission and by the United States Court. Such evidence, in the opinion of this Commission, is not competent for any purpose in this proceeding. The only question before this Commission is whether there was fraud in the procurement of the Robert Dawson judgment, and not whether the applicants are Cherokee Indians, or whether they ought to have been admitted to citizenship upon the proof submitted. These were questions presented, considered and passed upon by the Tehee Commission. If their decision is a valid and regular judgment, it is binding on this Commission. If, on the contrary, the applicants have never been lawfully admitted to citizenship, because the judgment under which they claim is void, for fraud, then the question as to whether they are Cherokees by blood is not material, as this Commission has now no authority to admit them to citizenship.

While it is true, that since 1883, a number of applicants, members of the Dawson family, have been denied admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, no argument derived therefrom is of any force, for it is also true that other members of the same family have been admitted to citizenship, and the action of the Cherokee authorities in admitting them has never been questioned by the Cherokee Nation. Whatever inference, therefore, may be drawn from these facts applies with equal force both for and against the validity of the judgment in question.

The Dawsons have lived in the Cherokee Nation, most of them since 1883; they have exercised the rights of Cherokee citizenship for many years, some of them occupying official positions in the Nation, and no protest seems to have been made against their citizenship until within the last few years. The records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission, show, that since 1883, there have been Commissions on citizenship charged with authority to investigate the judgments of former tribunals alleged to have been secured by fraud, and the Cherokee Legislature had power to order an investigation, and to create a tribunal with authority to set aside a judgment so obtained. No such action appears to have been taken by the Cherokee authorities with reference to the judgment of the Teehee Commission in the Robert Dawson case.

After a careful consideration of all the facts in this case this Commission is of the opinion that the evidence fails to establish that the Dawsons secured their admission to citizenship by fraud or that the judgment of the Teehee Commission as rendered January 11, 1883, was fraudulent as the result of corruption, bribery, or deception upon the part of the Dawsons, or their agents, and that such judgment, and also the judgment of the Spears Commission in 1884, and the Act of the Cherokee National Council of December 1, 1894, which have not been attacked by the Cherokee Nation, being regular on their face, must therefore be accepted by this Commission as the valid judgments of the duly constituted Cherokee authorities.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that,

(Group XIII) Hiram F. Weddle and Alonzo M. Fishback, should be enrolled as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the provisions of said Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress, and it is so ordered.

It is further the opinion of this Commission that, for the reasons heretofore stated, the applications for the enrollment of Arizona Allred and William C. Allred, (embraced in D 885); Francis M. Dawson, son of Elbert Dawson, (embraced in D 627); Osie Jackson, Lizzie Jackson, Jessie Jackson, Ray Jackson, and Clyde Jackson, the children of William and Lizzie Jackson, (embraced in D 830); James Lowe, May Lowe, Zelma Lowe, Roberta Lowe and Rosa Lowe, (embraced in D 839), as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that the applications of Lizzie Jackson, widow of William Jackson, (embraced in D 830), and George A. Mabry (embraced in D 979), as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, in accordance with the provisions of the law heretofore quoted, and it is so ordered.

As hereinbefore stated William Pierce (D 409) and Cecil Dawson (D 358) and Green W. Jackson (D 395), died prior to September 1, 1902. It further appears from affidavits, made a part of this record that Liddie and Margaret Graham (D 1128) have died since the date of the application for their enrollment and prior to September 1, 1902.

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of said William Pierce, Cecil Dawson, Green W. Jackson, Liddie Graham and Margaret Graham be, and the same are hereby dismissed.

Robert L. Dawson applies for enrollment as a citizen by blood.

R.#25, Group VIII, page 12.

Hibert E. Dawson applied for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ralph E. Dawson, as citizens by blood. The child was born subsequent to the date of his original application, and is identified by birth affidavit.

R.#26, Group VIII, page 13.

Sarah J. Dawson applies for the enrollment of herself as an intermarried citizen.

R.#27, Group VIII, page 14.

Richard W. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ina M. Dawson, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Luella Dawson, as a citizen by intermarriage. The Commission states that Luella Dawson is differently classed and is not embraced in its decision.

R.#28, Group VIII, page 15.

Mila L. Spickerman applied for the enrollment of herself and her minor child, Helen J. Spickerman, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband, John J. Spickerman, as a citizen by intermarriage. She also applies for the enrollment as a citizen by blood of her child, William G. Spickerman, who was born after her original application. This child is identified by a birth affidavit. The Commission states that John J. Spickerman has been differently classed and is not embraced in its decision.

R.#29, Group VIII, page 16.

Francis M. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood.

The record in this case shows that Martin L. Patterson, (Group VIII, page 1), was married July 13, 1890, to Rena Patterson nee Dawson, daughter of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted by the Tahlee Court, January 11, 1883. The marriage was performed in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. Rena Patterson nee Dawson was a minor when her father was admitted. Rena Patterson's name appears on the 1896 census roll, as does the names of Martin L. Patterson, Sarah A., Martha and Claude (A.) Patterson. Edgar D., Thomas M. and Virgil V. Patterson are identified by birth affidavits.

William G. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 11), is a son of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was a minor when his father was admitted. He was married to Alice Dawson, November 14, 1894. He is identified by the 1894 and 1896 rolls of the Cherokee Nation. From the record it does not seem that the name of his wife is found on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation.

Robert L. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 15), is a son of Hibert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was a minor when his father was admitted.

Hibert B. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 16), is the son of Hibert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was a minor when his father was admitted. February 14, 1898, he was married to Sora Wright, a non-citizen. His name appears on the 1894 roll, but is not on the 1896 roll.

Sarah J. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 19), is the widow of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1883. The applicant's husband is identified by the 1894 pay-roll of the Chero kee Nation. It does not appear from the record that her name is on any roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Richard W. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 32), is the son of Elbert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1894. He was a minor when his father was admitted to citizenship. He was married to Lucile Mason, a white woman, January 24, 1906.

Ella L. Spickerman, (Group VIII, page 37), is the daughter of Elbert Dawson, who was admitted in 1894. She was a minor when her father was admitted to citizenship. Sept. 7, 1897, she was married to John J. Spickerman, a white man. She is identified by the 1896 roll.

Francis M. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 31), is a son of Elbert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1894. He was of age when his father was admitted, and it does not appear that he was admitted to citizenship. From the evidence it does not seem that Francis M. Dawson's name is found on any roll of the Cherokee Nation. He claims to have lived in the Cherokee nation since 1895. It appears that he and the members of his family were refused enrollment by the Cherokee tribal authorities in 1896.

It is known that Nona Patterson, William C. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson, have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1896. Robert L. Dawson, Elbert R. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson and Ella L. Spickerman, have resided there since 1895. Alice Dawson has resided in the Nation since 1896 and Martin L. Patterson since 1894.

The Commission in its decision of December 23, 1902, held that all of the parties in this group, except Lucile Dawson and J. J. Spickerman, who are differently classed, and Francis M. Dawson (Group VIII, page 31), were entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation--Martin L. Patterson, Alice Dawson and Sarah J. Dawson, as citizens by intermarriage and the others as citizens by blood.

For the reasons set forth in office report of even date, transmitting Group I of this consolidated case, the approval of the Commission's decision is recommended, except in so far as it relates to Martin L. Patterson, Alice Dawson and Sarah J. Dawson, who apply for enrollment as intermarried citizens. The question submitted to the Court of Claims not having been passed upon by the Court, their applications should not be considered at this time. The right of Francis M. Dawson to enrollment as a citizen by blood will be discussed herein.

August 21, 1906, Perry W. Kimball and W. M. White, attorneys for this city, filed a brief on behalf of applicant Francis M. Dawson, for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. In their letter it is said that a copy of this brief has been forwarded to the attorney for the Cherokee Nation, W. W. Hastings, Esq. Kimball & White in their brief state that Francis M. Dawson is the son of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, January 11, 1883, and that he was at that time about 22 years of age. They claim that his father applied for readmission February 24, 1880, and that Francis M. Dawson was at the date of this application less than 21 years of age that he has resided in the Cherokee Nation from the time of his father's admission, and they take the position that the only reason the Commission gives for refusing his enrollment is that he was more than 21 years of age at the time of his father's admission. The statement is made by them "his name appears upon every roll since his father's admission. He drew his share of the Strip money and has resided nowhere except in said Nation." They claim that under Section 5, of the Amendments to Article 3, of the Constitution, and the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General in the James W. Shirley case of June 11, 1906, Francis M. Dawson is entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

From the record it does not appear that the name of Francis M. Dawson is found on any rolls of the Cherokee Nation. The Commission, in what is understood to be its field decision or field note, says: "He is not identified on any roll since that time," meaning the date of his father's admission. In this decision or note it is also said: "The application for admission is shown by the document cited to be dated January 4, 1841, and giving the applicant the benefit of the opinion that the fact of admission would date from the application, he was a minor at that time.

In the brief of Kimball & White it is alleged that Elbert Dawson applied "for admission February 24, 1840." There seems to be considerable doubt as to the exact date Elbert Dawson made application for admission for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, but from the records it appears the true date is September 24, 1841. By the supplemental testimony it is shown that the application of Elbert Dawson et al., for admission to citizenship was "filed September 24, 1841."

Francis M. Dawson, October 17, 1900, (Group VIII, page 21), testified among other things that he was 59 years of age "on the last day of December last," meaning December 31, 1899. If this be true, and if the correct date of the application of his father, Elbert Dawson, is September 24, 1841, Francis M. Dawson was 20 years 9 months and 24 days old at the date of his father's application. The office believes that the date of admission should be held to relate back to the date of the application. There is nothing in the record which shows that Elbert Dawson, or any of the other applicants of 1841, were asked in 1868 whether any of their children had arrived at the age of majority.

In view of the foregoing, it is respectfully recommended that the decision of the Commission as to Francis M. Dawson be not approved, and that the Commission be directed to enroll him as a citizen of the Cherokee nation by blood, unless there be some reason which does not appear in the record why the same should not be done. There seems to be no question but that he is of Cherokee blood.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,
Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

March 31, 1904.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

February 25, 1903, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application of Francis M. Dawson et al., for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

In your decision of December 22, 1902, you disposed of the applications in the Dawson case by groups. Group VIII, as disposed of by you, includes the applications of those persons who claim enrollment by virtue of their descent from Elbert Dawson, who was admitted to Cherokee citizenship by decree of the Tahee Court dated January 11, 1883. These applications are designated by you as D.435, D.604, D.605, D.606, D.609, D.617, D.624, and D.647.

It appears that the principal applicants in this group, claiming enrollment by blood, viz: Rona Patterson, formerly Dawson, William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert M. Dawson, Richard W. Dawson, Ella L. Spiegelman, formerly Dawson, and Francis M. Dawson, are the children of the said Elbert Dawson. All of them except the said Francis M. Dawson were minors at the time of their father's admission to citizenship.

The application of Martha L. Patterson, D.435, was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife, Rona Patterson, and his six minor children, Sarah A., Martha A., Claude A., Edgar D., Thomas M., and Virgil V. Patterson, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The said Martin L. Patterson was married July 13, 1900, in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, to the said Rona Patterson, nee Dawson. He has resided in the nation since his marriage, and the six children named above are the issue of said marriage. His name, and the names of his three older children, are on the Cherokee census roll of 1896. The three younger children are identified by birth affidavits. Rena Patterson, nee Dawson, is also identified on said roll, and he resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1894.

William C. Dawson, D.604, applied for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Alice Dawson, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. He is identified upon the strip payment roll of 1894, and has resided in the nation since 1884. He was married November 15, 1886, to the said Alice Dawson, nee Alexander. She has resided with him since their marriage.

The application of Robert L. Dawson, D.605, was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. He is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894, and has resided in the nation since 1885.

The application of Elbert B. Dawson, D.606, was for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ralph B. Dawson, as Cherokees by blood. Said Elbert B. Dawson is identified upon the strip payment roll of 1894. His son is identified by a birth affidavit. The father has resided in the nation since 1888. On February 16, 1898, he married Cora Wright, a non-citizen, who is the mother of said child. It appears, however, that no application was made for her enrollment under this title.

The application of Sarah J. Dawson, D.609, was for the enrollment of herself as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation. In 1894 she married the said Elbert Dawson, and lived with him as his wife until his death in February, 1898. Since then she has not married. She has resided in the nation since 1888.

The application of Richard W. Dawson, D.617, was for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ina E. Dawson, as citizens by blood and for the enrollment of his wife, Luella Dawson, as a citizen of said nation by intermarriage. The latter is differently classified and is not embraced in this decision. Said Richard W. Dawson is identified upon the 1894 strip payment roll, and has resided in the nation since 1884. January 24, 1898, he married Luella Vason. Ina E. Dawson, who is identified by a birth affidavit, is the issue of that marriage.

The application of Ella L. Spiekerman, D.636, was for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Helen J. and William C. Spiekerman, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband John J. Spiekerman, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. His application is differently classified and will not be considered herein. The said Ella L. Spiekerman, nee Dawson, is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894, and has resided in the nation since 1883. Said children are identified by birth affidavits.

The application of Francis M. Dawson, D.637, was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. His case is distinguished from that of the other principal applicants who claim by blood, in that he was not a minor at the date of his father's admission to citizenship. It appears, however, that the petition for the enrollment of his father, Albert Dawson et al., was filed when he was a minor. The exact date when said petition was filed is uncertain. The Indian Office finds that the date of the petition was September 24, 1901. You find that the petition bears a still earlier date. It is claimed by this applicant and by his attorneys that his name is borne upon various tribal rolls. It does not appear from the record, however, that such is the fact. He states that he has resided in the nation ever since 1883, and that he drew strip money [illegible]

In his report of October 14, 1903, relative to this group, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs calls attention to that portion of the evidence which shows that the applicant was a minor when the petition for the enrollment of his father was filed, and expresses the opinion that the admission of his father (construed as including his minor children living with him) should be considered as taking effect from the date the petition was filed.

In your decision of December 22, 1903, in which you refused to enroll this applicant, you make no reference to this aspect of the case. It is observed, however, from the field notes as they appear in connection with the record in this case, that the examiner was then of the opinion that the date of the father's petition might possibly affect the rights of the applicant.

The attorney for this applicant and for the Nation have filed briefs. The attorneys for neither, however, have discussed the rights of the applicant from this standpoint.

It is considered that both parties should be furnished with a copy of the Commissioner's letter relating to this group, and be allowed to be heard in reference to the matter.

From a letter addressed to the Assistant Attorney General for this Department, from Kimball & White, attorneys for Francis M. Dawson, Jr., dated February 22, 1904, it appears that under date of January 14, 1904, you wrote said attorneys as follows:

> "You are advised that the 1894 pay roll does not contain the name of such a person as Francis M. Dawson. There does appear upon that roll, however, the name of one Marion Dawson, and it is possible this is the same person."

Although not addressed to the Department, it was considered that your letter should be received as authentic evidence of the matters stated therein. It is believed, in view of the statement contained in said letter and from the testimony of Francis Marion Benson, referred to above, that an adjudication of his case upon the record as it now stands would be untimely and inadvisable.

In your decision of December 21, 1904, you held that all of the applicants are entitled to enrollment except Francis M. Benson. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs concurred in your recommendation respecting these applicants claiming by blood, except as to him, and also recommended his enrollment. As to those applicants claiming by intermarriage the Commissioner recommended that no action be taken at present.

The Department concurs in the recommendation of the Commissioner as to all of the applicants, except Francis M. Benson. The record in his case is herewith returned for further investigation in accordance with the suggestions herein contained.

The attorney for the Cherokee Nation protests against the enrollment of these applicants, claiming that their enrollment was obtained through fraud. In this connection see opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of February 14, 1904, relating to the Benson case, a copy of which was sent you February 24, 1904.

A copy of Indian Office letter of October 14, 1903, relating to this group, is also inclosed.

Respectfully,

(signed) Thos Ryan
Acting Secretary.

Q Live here now in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
1896 roll, page 221, #3476, John Martin, Cooweescoowee.
Commissioner-

The name of John M. Martin appears upon the census roll of 1896 and he presents satisfactory proof of his readmission to Cherokee citizenship in the year 1890, the certificate of admission being more particularly described in the testimony. He also makes satisfactory proof as to his residence; consequently, the said John M. Martin will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood. He applies for enrollment of Clara F. Martin who he avers to be his child by one Sophia Rinehardt, a white person, but avers that no marriage ceremony was ever performed; consequently, the application for the enrollment of Clara F. Martin will be rejected.

In the matter of the application of John M. Martin for the enrollment of his daughter, Clara F. Martin, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

STATEMENT OF FACTS.

On the 19th day of October, 1900, John M. Martin appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of his alleged daughter, Clara F. Martin, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

It appears from the evidence in this case that Clara F. Martin is the alleged child of John M. Martin , a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and Sophia Rinehardt, a white woman, not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that the said John M. Martin and Sophia Rinehardt were not legally and lawfully married. It further appears from the evidence in the case that John M. Martin was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on the 4th day of December, 1890, by an Act of the Cherokee National Council, and that his name appears upon the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

The tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation have been examined and the name of Sophia Rinehardt does not appear of record thereon.

DECISION.

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence in this case fails to establish that the child Clara F. Martin is the legitimate child of John M. Martin a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and entitled to enrollment as his descendant; that she is not now and never has been recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that the application of John M. Martin for the enrollment of his daughter Clara F. Martin as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, and it is so ordered.

ORDER OF TRANSFER.

The evidence in this case shows that Clara F. Martin is supposed to be the child of John M. Martin, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and Sophia Rinehardt, a white woman and non citizen, and that the said John M. Martin and Sophia Rinehardt, were never married. The Cherokee census roll of 1896 has been examined and the name of Clara F. Martin cannot be found thereon.

The case, therefore, comes within the Act of Congress approved May 31, 1900, which provides: That this Commission "shall not receive, consider, or make any record of any application of any person for enrollment as a member of any tribe in Indian Territory who has not been a recognized citizen thereof, and duly and lawfully enrolled or admitted as such".

This case is therefore ordered transferred to a memorandum card, and the card and jacket herein are hereby cancelled.

It is ordered that copies of this statement be filed with the testimony in the above case.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 8th, 1902.

In the matter of the application of John M. Martin for the enrollment of his daughter, Clara F. Martin, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Supplemental to Cherokee Memorandum No. 456.

It appears from the records in this case that on October 19th, 1900, John M. Martin appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Nowata, Indian Territory, and made personal application for the enrollment of his child Clara F. Martin as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

That on April 9th, 1902, the Commission rendered a decision in which it held that the said Clara F. Martin was not entitled to enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation and denied her application, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved May 31st, 1900. (31 Stats., 221.)

On the same day the case was forwarded to the Department and John M. Martin and the attorney for the Cherokee Nation notified of the action of the Commission.

Under date of May 15th, 1902, the Department affirmed the decision of the Commission denying the enrollment of Clara F. Martin and the said John M. Martin and the attorney for the Cherokee Nation were so notified.

Under date of September 23rd, 1902, there was received and filed with the Commission, a motion made by W. A. Chase, attorney for John M. Martin, requesting that this case be reopened and set down for the introduction of further testimony.

Under date of September 29th, 1902, the Commission recommended to the Department that the record in this case be remanded and that additional testimony be taken, if necessary.

Under date of October 11th, 1902, the case was remanded by the Department and its decision of May 15th, 1902, rescinded.

The applicant this day appears by his attorney, W. A. Chase.

No appearance on the part of the Cherokee Nation.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Clara F. Martin as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The evidence in this case shows that on October 14, 1900, John M. Martin appeared before the Commission at Nowata, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself and his child, Clara F. Martin, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. John M. Martin is differently classified and is not embraced in this decision. On April 8, 1902, the Commission rendered a decision holding that the said Clara F. Martin was not entitled to enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved May 31, 1900 (31 Stats., 221), and on the same day its decision was transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval. On May 15, 1902, the Secretary of the Interior affirmed the decision of the Commission and on September 23, 1902, the said John M. Martin filed a motion that this case be re-opened and set down for the introduction of further testimony. On October 11, 1902, the case was remanded by the Secretary of the Interior and its action of May 15, 1902, affirming the decision of the Commission herein, was rescinded. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on November 3, 1902.

The evidence herein shows that Clara F. Martin is a child of John M. Martin, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and one Sophiah Rinehardt, a white woman. Said Clara F. Martin was born on February 6, 1897, and its parents, the said John M. Martin and Sophiah Rinehardt, were lawfully married on July 5, 1902, and it appears that the said John M. Martin has recognized the said Clara F. Martin as his child.

Section 698 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation (1892), provides:

"That when a man, having by a woman one or more children, shall afterwards intermarry with such woman, such child or children, if recognized by him or proven to be his, shall thereby be legitimate."

The evidence further shows that the said Clara F. Martin has resided in the Cherokee Nation all her life.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Clara F. Martin should be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so entered.

Mr. John M. Martin,

Nowata, Indian Territory,

Sir:

On the 19 day of October, 1900, you appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of your minor child, Clara F. Martin, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

It appears from the evidence offered in support of said application, that the applicant above named has never been enrolled by the tribal authorities of the Cherokee Nation, that her name does not appear upon the tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation now in the possession of this Commission; that she has not been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the legally constituted authorities of the Cherokee Nation, or by the United States Court in Indian Territory on appeal, in accordance with the provisions of the act of June 10, 1896, (29 Stats. 321); nor does it appear that this applicant is the lawful descendant of any one so enrolled or admitted.

The act of May 31, 1900, (31 Stats. 221), provides:

"That said Commission shall continue to exercise all authority heretofore conferred on it by law, but it shall not receive, consider, or make any record of any application of any person for enrollment as a member of any tribe in Indian Territory, who has not been a recognized citizen thereof, and duly and lawfully enrolled or admitted as such, and its refusal of such applications shall be final when approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

The Commission has, therefore, on this day decided that your minor child above named, is not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation and duly and lawfully enrolled or admitted as such, and that, pursuant to the provision of law above quoted, the Commission is without authority to receive, consider, or make any record of the application for the enrollment of your minor child as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

A copy of the record of the proceedings in this case is herewith enclosed. You are informed that the Commission has on this day forwarded a memorandum of its action to the Secretary of the Interior, with a copy of the proceedings, for his consideration and final decision.

The Secretary's final action will be duly communicated to you when the same is made known to this Commission.

There is transmitted, herewith, memorandum of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the application of John M. Martin for the enrollment of his minor child Clara F. Martin as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

From the testimony and record it appears that Clara F. Martin is the alleged child of John M. Martin a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and Sophia Rinehardt, a white woman and non-citizen, and that said Martin and Sophia Rinehardt were never married.

It further appears that the said applicant has never been enrolled, admitted or recognized as a Cherokee citizen, and therefore the Commission had no authority to enroll said applicant.

I respectfully recommend that the decision of the Commission on this application be approved.

Gentlemen:

The Department has considered the case involving the application of John M. Martin, for the enrollment of his minor child, Clara F. Martin, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation (No. 456), forwarded with your communication dated April 9, 1902, and rejected under the provisions of the Act of May 31, 1900 (31 Stats., 221).

From the evidence submitted said minor child is supposed to be the child of John M. Martin, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and Sophia Rinehardt, a white woman and non-citizen; that said alleged parents were never married; that her name does not appear upon the census roll of 1896 and that she has never been enrolled by the tribal authorities of said Nation; that she has not been admitted to citizenship therein by your Commission, by the legally constituted authorities of the Nation, or by the United States Court on appeal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), nor does it appear that she is the lawful descendant of any one so enrolled or admitted.

The Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs forwarded your communication under date of May 13, 1902, recommending that your decision rejecting the applicant be affirmed inasmuch as you were without authority to enroll her under said Act of May 31, 1900.

The record in this case has b en examined and your decision appearing to be in accordance with said Act above referred to, the same is accordingly affirmded.

A copy of the Acting Commissioner's report is inclosed herewith.

You are hereby advised that the Commission's decision of April 9, 1903, rejecting the application of John M. Martin for the enrollment of his child, Clara F. Martin, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior on the 15th day of May, 1903.

Very respectfully,

CHCHCM. Tams Bixby,
Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 29, 1902.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

April 9, 1902, the Commission denied the application of John M. Martin, for the enrollment of his child, Clara F. Martin, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved May 3, 1900 (31 Stats., 221), which decision was approved by the Department, May 15, 1902. (Cherokee Memorandum Case, No. 456.).

It appears from the record in this case that on October 19, 1900, at Nowata, Indian Territory, John M. Martin who is identified on the tribal rolls of the Nation as a native Cherokee, made personal application for the enrollment of Clara F. Martin, alleging that she was his daughter by Sophie Reinhardt, a white woman. It further appears that he and the said Sophie Reinhardt were not married when this application was made.

The said Clara F. Martin is not identified upon any of the tribal rolls of the Nation in possession of the Commission, having been born since the last roll was compiled.

On the 23rd day of September, 1902, John M. Martin by his attorney, filed a motion to re-open the cause, alleging that since application had been made for the enrollment of Clara F. Martin, he and Sophie Reinhardt were duly united in marriage, and that in accordance with Section 692 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation (Edition of 1892) which provides:

> "All marriages which are herein prohibited on account of consanguinity between the parties, or on account of either of them having a former husband or wife then living, shall be absolutely void in this Nation, without any judgment of divorce or other legal proceedings provided, that the issue from such unlawful marriage shall nevertheless be legitimate; provided, also, that when a man, having by a woman one or more children, shall afterwards intermarry with such woman, such child or children, if recognized by him, or proven to be his, shall thereby be legitimate";-

the said Clara F. Martin is entitled to enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

In view of the fact that the parents of the said Clara F. Martin are now lawfully married, I respectfully recommend that the record in this case be remanded, in order that a decision may be prepared in accordance with the facts as they now exist, and for the purpose of taking additional testimony if necessary.

Gentlemen:

May 15, 1902, the Department affirmed your decision rejecting the application of John M. Martin for enrollment of his child, Clara F. Martin, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

The Department is in receipt of your letter of September 29, 1902, stating that on September 23, 1902, Martin filed a motion to reopen the case, alleging that since application had been made for the enrollment of his child he and Sophie Reinhardt, the mother of said Clara F. Martin, were duly united in marriage, and that in accordance with section 692 of the compiled laws of the Cherokee Nation said Clara F. Martin is entitled to enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. In view of the fact that the parents are now lawfully married, you recommend that the record in the case be returned to you in order that a decision may be rendered in accordance with the facts, and for the purpose of taking additional testimony, if necessary.

Reporting in the matter October 9, 1902, the Acting

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

In Cherokee Memorandum 456, Clara F. Martin, on April 9, 1902, the Commission rendered a decision rejecting the applicant and on the same date transmitted said decision to the Department for approval. This decision was affirmed by the Department on May 15, 1902. On motion of the applicant accompanied by the Commission's favorable recommendation, the Department, in its letter of October 11, 1902 (I.T.D. 6175-1902), rescinded its former decision and returned the record in this case for further proceedings.

There is now transmitted the record of proceedings, including the Commission's decision dated July 10, 1903, granting said application.

Respectfully,

T. B. Needles

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith the report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated August 24, 1902, transmitting the record relative to the application of Clara F. Martin for enrollment as a Cherokee. John M. Martin is also a party to the case, but as he is differently classed, the Commission did not pass upon his right.

May 15, 1902, the Department approved the decision of the Commission adverse to the contentions of the applicant. October 11, 1902, the Department allowed the motion of John M. Martin that the case be reopened.

The record in this case shows that Clara F. Martin is a child of John M. Martin, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation and Sophia Rinehardt, a white woman. Clara F. Martin was born February 9, 1897, and her parents were lawfully married, the record shows, July 3, 1902.

Section 692 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nations reads "That when a man having by a woman one or more children, shall afterwards intermarry with such woman, such child or children if recognized by him or proven to be his, shall thereby be legitimatized." John M. Martin recognizes Clara Martin as his child and in as much as by his marriage with the mother of Clara Martin, the provisions of Section 692 have been complied with, the approval of the Commission's decision of July 10, 1903, favorable to the applicant is recommended.

Very respectfully,

A. C. Tonner,

Acting Commissioner.

Gentlemen:

On August 24, 1903, you resubmitted the record in the matter of the application of John M. Martin, for the enrollment of himself and child, Clara F. Martin, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, including your decision of July 10, 1903, holding that the said Clara F. Martin is entitled to enrollment, and stating that the said John M. Martin is differently classified and not embraced therein.

Concurring in the recommendation of the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs, in his letter of March 17, 1904, the Department approves your decision. A copy of the Acting Commissioner's letter in enclosed.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Trans. from D580

Cher 10729

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I.T., October 15, 1900.

In the matter of the application of John Dawson for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, he testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A John Dawson.
Q What is your age? A 27.
Q What is your post office address? A Talala.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q By blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Your name appear upon the rolls of 1880? A On the 1896 roll.
Q What evidence have you got of your citizenship? A My father has a certificate.

(Applicant presents a certificate of admission issued from the office of the Commission on Citizenship, on the 11th of January, 1883, signed by Thomas Teehee, President of the Commission, Alex Wolf and T. F. Thompson, Commissioners, attested by D. W. C. Duncan, Clerk of the Commission, and by John L. Adair, Assistant Executive Secretary of the Cherokee Nation, under the great seal of the Nation, certifying that F. M. Dawson was admitted to Cherokee citizenship on the 11th of January, 1883.)

Q What is your father's name? A F. M. Dawson.
Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your mother's name? A My mother is dead, Julia Ann.
Q When were you born, Mr. Dawson? A In 1871.
Q For whom do you act to apply for enrollment? A Just myself.
Q Are you the son of F. M. Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Are there two John Dawsons besides yourself? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you draw strip money? A Yes, sir.

(On 1894 roll, page 175, no. 1317, John Dawson, Coowescoowee district.)

The name of John Dawson appears upon the census roll of 1894. His name does not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880, neither upon the census roll of 1896. He avers and makes satisfactory proof that he is the son of F. M. Dawson, whose name appears in the certificate of admission to citizenship as described in the testimony. Satisfactory proof has been made as to his residence, and he is fully identified as the son of the said F. M. Dawson. Because of the protest of the Cherokee Nation as to the enrollment of all persons admitted by the name of Dawson on said date, January 11, 1883, final decision as to the enrollment of said John Dawson will be suspended and his name will be placed upon a doubtful card.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I. T., SEPTEMBER 27th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Francis Marion Dawson, wife and children for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q What is your full name? A Francis Marion Dawson.
Q What is your age? A I am fifty eight years old.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Oseoma.
Q What District do you live in? A Delaware.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Myself and family.
Q Your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q How many children? A Six.
Q Do you apply for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir: she is a white woman.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Since 1883.
Q Were you admitted by the Cherokee Commission? A Yes, sir.

The applicant presents a duly authenticated certificate of admission to citizenship, showing that on the 11th day of January, 1883, certain persons were admitted by the Commission on citizenship, and among them appears the name of F. M. Dawson.

Q That is your name is it? A Yes, sir.

This is recognized as satisfactory evidence of the facts stated.

Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since your admission? A Yes, sir; in Delaware District ever since.
Q Give me the name of your wife? A Katie Dawson.
Q How old is she now? A Forty five.
Q Was she admitted with you? A No, sir.
Q Have you married her according to Cherokee law since your admission? A No, sir.
Q You have not remarried since your admission? A No, sir; it was not necessary.

The applicant presents a duly authenticated marriage license and certificate, showing that he was married to his wife, as stated by him, in 1882, by the [illegible], in [illegible] County, Arkansas, the license being issued by the Clerk of that County.

Those papers are filed herewith.

Q Your wife was not admitted by the Cherokee Commission, when you were? A No, sir.
Q Or at any other time? A No, sir.
Q By act of the Commission or Council? A No, sir: she was placed on the rolls.
Q On the census rolls? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the names of your children. Eldest? A Lula.

Q Is this Lula or Luly? A Luly.
The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, wife and six children:
Q Were these children all born since you were admitted into the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

The applicant is shown by the certificate of admission, cited in the testimony, to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship, by the Commission on Citizenship, January 11th, 1883; he is identified on the roll of 1896, but the representative of the Cherokee Nation desires to make inquiry into the methods of that time, and for that reason, the application of the applicant will at present be placed on a "Doubtful Card." He has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since his admission to citizenship. His wife was married to him under United States law, and was married prior to his admission: she has never been remarried according to Cherokee law: She has lived with him ever since his admission to citizenship, and she is identified on the roll of 1896. The application for her enrollment will be placed on a "Doubtful Card".

Their six children, as enumerated in the testimony are identified on the roll of 1896: They are living at this time, all having been born since his admission (Applicant's). These children will be placed with him on a "Doubtful Card". The applicant's marriage to the mother of these children is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith. If any additional papers, adverse are developed in this case, he will be given timely notice thereof.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

BEFORE THE HONORABLE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the enrollment :
of F. M. Dawson and others as :
Cherokee citizens. :

Depositions of sundry persons in behalf of the applicants for enrollment mentioned in the title, taken before me, Lewis T. Martin, a Notary Public in and for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, duly appointed, qualified and acting as such, at the office of G. B. Denison in the Gray-Halsell building in the town of Vinita, Indian Territory, on Thursday the fourth day of October 1900, between the hours of one and a half o'clock and six o'clock in the afternoon of said day, in accordance with the agreement to take testimony, entered into between the applicants and the Cherokee Nation, by their respective attorneys, which agreement is hereto attached.

T. F. Thompson, being produced by the applicants, being first duly sworn to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY G. B. DENISON:

Q State your name, age, residence and occupation?
A T. F. Thompson, 53 years old, I live near Vinita, Cherokee Nation, I. T. I am a farmer.
Q How long have resided in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation as now constituted?
A Yes, sir.
Q Upon what is that citizenship based, blood or otherwise?
A Blood.
Q What, if any official position have you held in the Cherokee Nation, and at what time?
A I was elected to the Cherokee Council in 1870 some odd, I don't remember the exact year, I was also on the Commission Court.
Q Do you remember when that was? A Some tim in 1869 or 1871, I think, it may have been earlier.
Q Did that Commission or Court have anything to do with admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q State, if you remember, how many members of that Commission or Court, there were, and who they were besides yourself?
A There were three, Tehee, Wolf and myself, Tehee was President of the Court.
Q Where were the sessions of that body held? A Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation.
Q Did you have a Clerk? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember who that was? A D. W. C. Duncan.
Q Do you know whether the members of that Commission beside yourself, are living or dead? A Yes, sir, they are both dead.
Q Can you recollect now what period of time that Commission lasted?
A About two years I think, two sessions, and there was one session each year.
Q Were the sessions of that body held in Tahlequah, open to the public at all times when it was in session?
A Yes, sir.
Q Were the cases coming before that body heard in open session?
A Yes.
Q Witnesses examined orally? A Yes, sir.

Q Judgments of the Court or Commission pronounced in open session?
A In case of decisions I think they sometimes had secret sessions, yes, the judgments of the Commission were pronounced openly.
Q What you intended to convey by you answer to the former question was that after hearing the proof the Commission or Court deliberated in secret session upon the testimony taken before reaching a decision or announcing it? A After hearing all the testimony we went into secret session.
Q I will present you with a paper which the Notary will mark exhibit "A" and a copy of which he will attach to your deposition, and will ask you if with the exception of the certificate of record by H. L. Dragdon, Clerk, and John L. Adair Asst. Ex. Secretary, you recognize it as a paper you have ever seen before?
A I recognize the signature to it, but don't remember the instrument.
Q Which signature on that paper do you recognize? A My own.
Q That signature is in your own handwriting? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether Th mas Tehee, president of the Commission could write in English or not? A No, I don't think he could.
Q How as to Alexander Wolfe, a member of the Commission?
A I don't think he could write either, I don't think either of them ever wrote except by touching the pen.
Q Were you, and are you familiar with the handwriting of D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of that Commission?
A Tolerably well, but it has been a long time since I saw any of it.
Q Will you look at the paper again and say whether you recognize his signature attached thereto?
A Yes, that is his signature to the best of my knowledge.
Q Do you preserve any personal recollection of the application before that Commission of F. H. Dawson and other members of the Dawson family, to be admitted as citizens of the Cherokee Nation by that Commission?
A I remember F. H. Dawson and his brother, that is about the only ones I remember.
Q The question was not as to the personal recollection of the witness, but as to the claim being presented by the Dawsons for admission?
A Yes, there was such a claim before the Commission.
Q Can you state as to the citizenship of Thomas Tehee, whether he was a citizen of the Nation by blood or not?
A Yes, sir, he was always recognized as such, full blood besides.
Q What is your knowledge of Alexander Wolfe?
A About the same, he was also a full blood and recognized as a Cherokee.
Q Judge Thompson, if you possessed or had, or have now any knowledge of any corruption or bribery of the court or commission, or have ever heard it by F. H. Dawson or any of the Dawson family or anybody connected with the presentation of their claim for citizenship, state it fully?
A None whatever as far as I was concerned, and I don't think there was on the balance of the Court.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY W. T. HUTCHINGS:

Q Do you mean to say Mr. Thompson that your name attached to the certificate shown you is in your handwriting?
A Yes, Sir.
Q The D. W. Duncan certified that this is a transcript of the decision in the case, he is mistaken, that is the original?
A No, I don't know, that may be the original, if that is not the original I have not sign it, if it is the original I signed it.
Q You state that the witnesses were examined orally before the Court, don't you know that in almost every case you took ex parte affidavits of witnesses when those witnesses were not present?

A I think we ruled exparte evidence out, as well as I remember.
Q Did you have any stenographer or anybody to copy the evidence?
Mr. Duncan did all of the copying.
Q Was the evidence copied and preserved?
A Yes, sir, I think it was.
Q What was done with that evidence, where was any of it ever put?
A I suppose it is at Tahlequah in the office of the Treasurer or Secretary.
Q When you went into secret session did you have Mr. Duncan read that evidence to you?
A Yes, sir, we went over the evidence thoroughly.
Q Did you allow the applicants or their attorneys admission to any of your secret sessions?
No, sir.
Q When you got ready to render your decisions did you then send for the applicants or their attorneys?
A No, sir.
Q And you rendered them in secret also, did you? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any recollection who testified in the Dawson case, as to their claim? A No, sir, I have not.
Q Have you any recollection as to who they claimed their Cherokee ancestors were? A Yes, sir, they claimed the Rogers.
Q Did they claim relationship with any of the present families of Rogers residing in the Cherokee Nation?

The applicant objects to this question as tending to elicit testimony wholly incompetent and irrelevant to the issue, and not cross-examination of this witness.

A I don't know that they did, particularly.
Q How could your court determine when they claimed descent through some Rogers family, that that family was of Cherokee blood?

The applicant objects to the question upon the same grounds as their objection to the previous question.

A By the evidence they produced.
Q Didn't you make them prove that that family was well known at one time to be connected with the Cherokee Nation, and were citizens thereof? A Yes.
Q Who was the attorney for the Dawsons? A Old man Houston Benge.
Q Could either Tehee or Wolfe speak English? A They could understand, but they never spoke English, they had an interpretor.
Q Did you ever talk to either of them as to whether they got anything for decidingthis case? A No, sir.
Q How long were you considering the case altogether?
A I could not say as to that, I think we were on it two or three weeks anyhow, I could not say positively now, they were a long time getting in testimony.
Q There were only two or three witnesses examined all told, were there not?
A I think so, three I think, they had quite a lot of affidavits, but we did not consider them.
Q Well the Court was a good while arriving at its conclusion after the evidence was closed?
A Yes, quite a good while, I don't remember the exact time.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION:

Q Do you remember who the interpreter the Commission had during the hearing of the Dawson case.
A His name was Reese, I forget his given name.

Q Do you know whether he is living or dead?
A I don't know, he seemed to be in bad health at the time we had the case up, I think they are all dead but me and Mr. Duncan.
Q What was he, a Cherokee by blood?
A He was considered a Cherokee by blood.
Q Do you know where he lived at that time?
A No, sir, he lived in the South part of the Nation though, I think in Sequoyah.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY C. B. DENISON:

Q Please state your name, age, residence and occupation?
A My name is D. W. C. Duncan, my age is 70 years, my residence is Vinita, Indian Territory, my occupation is a farmer.
Q How long has that been your place of residence? A Since 1874.
Q Are you a member of the Cherokee Nation as it is now constituted?
A Yes, sir.
Q Upon what is your citizenship based, a Cherokee by blood?
A Yes, a Cherokee by blood.
Q In January 1883, did you hold any official position in the Cherokee Nation, if so, what was it?
A About that time I held the position of Clerk of the Citizenship Court or Commission.
Q If you remember the names of themembers of that Commission or Court, please give them?
A The President of the Commission was Tehee I believe, and a member by the name of Wolfe whose first name I do not recollect, and Mr. Thompson here.
Q T. F. Thompson?
A Yes.
Q Do you know whether these three members of that Commission were recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and whether their citizenship was based upon blood or not?
A They were supposed to be citizens of the Cherokee Nation and their citizenship was based upon their blood.
Q Will you please look at the paper now handed you which the Notary has marked exhibit "A" to the deposition of Mr. T. F. Thompson, and a copy of which he will attach to Mr. Thompson's depositions, and state whether with the exception of the certificate of H. L. Dragdon, Clerk, and of John L. Adair Asst. Ex. Secretary, you recognize the paper as one you have ever seen before?
A Yes, I think I have seen this before.
Q When, and where, if you remember, did you first see that paper?
A This is a paper I drew up at the time I was acting as clerk of the said Citizenship Court.
Q Looking at its date, was it drawn at you at the time it bears date?
A To the best of my recollection it was drawn at the date specified.
Q Do you recognize the signature to the certificate attached to that paper?
A Yes, that is my signature.
Q State if you know, in whose handwriting the body of the paper is?
A It is in my handwriting.
Q And at that time you were Clerk of that Commission? A Yes.
Q Will you please look at the signatures of the members of the Commission as they appear on that paper, and state if you can, by whom they were written?
A I think the first two is my handwriting, the last I recognize that as T. F. Thompson's.
Q Explain please, how you came to write the signatures of Thomas Tehee and Alex Wolfe to that paper?
A Thomas Tehee and Alex Wolfe were full bloods and could not write, and in their presence, and at their request I wrote their signatures.

Q Was that the usual manner of certifying to the action of the Commission to applicants as to the decision of their application for citizenship, where admitted?
A In all instances where it was necessary for the Court to sign a paper of any kind it was adopted by that Court for the Clerk to sign Tehee's and Wolf's names and T. F. Thompson to sign his own name.
Q You didn't catch exactly my idea, but perhaps that answered it, what I intended to call you attention to, was whether when applicants had been admitted to citizenship a paper of this kind was shown you, signed by the judges as you have explained, and certified by you as a transcript of the proceedings was issued?
A My recollection is that a transcript of the judgment was issued to the applicant when they were admitted at their request, the judgment was entered upon the record when they were admitted and signed by the judges, and whenever the transcript was delivered to the applicants I think it was signed by the judges.
Q If you had any knowledge at the time the application of the Dawson family, F. M. and others whose names are mentioned in that paper, was pending before that Commission, or before or after, of any corruption or bribery, or attempted corruption or bribery of the Court or any of its officers, by F. M. Dawson, or any person connected in any manner with the clair of the Dawsons to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, state it fully?
A I never heard a thing of the kind, I know nothing of the kind, all that I have ever heard about a question of that kind is what has originated recently, since the enrollment business has been inaugurated.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY W. T. HUTCHINGS:

Q If as you certify, this paper was a transcript of the record, why did you have the judges sign it?
A I know no reason further than that was the practice at that time, the members of the Court being present I presume it was thought it would be as good or better than the signature of the Clerk.
Q Examine that signature of Mr. Thompson, examine the first T in his name and the T in Tehee's name and see if it is not all your own handwriting?
A No, I would not call that mine, there is a resemblance between the letters but I am satisfied it is a mere fortuity, accident.
Q How was the evidence taken in those cases?
A It was taken by the witness being present and detailing his knowledge of the case, I wrote it down sentence by sentence as it was delivered.

Q Do you know whether that evidence is in existance or not?
A I do not, the last I saw of it was when I turned the records over to the Executive office at Tahlequah, and I have not seen it since.
Q You say you never heard any talk about this being an improper case until very recently?
A Well that would depend upon what you mean by recently, I don't think I ever heard of it prior to three years ago, I can safely say that I have not.

Q Do you remember through what ancestor they claimed their right to citizenship here?

Objected to by applicants because the question tends to elicit testimony which is wholly immaterial and irrelevant, and because it is not proper cross-examination.

A They claimed their right of citizenship through a man by the name of Rogers, I don't recal[illegible] his first name.
Q Do you know how many Rogers families there are who have citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?
A I do.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., March 17, 1902.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of FRANCIS M. DAWSON, ET AL., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

The case having been set for final hearing March 17, 1902, the following proceedings are had:

APPEARANCES:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of counsel for applicants;
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Hutchings: Comes now the Nation on the calling of this case and announces that it is ready for trial, provided permission is given to hereafter examine before the Commission, either at this place or Fort Gibson, the witness S. M. Benge, who has been regularly summoned to attend at this day and time but who is too sick to travel at this time and probably will be for some time to come. As evidence of a good faith of the Nation we hereby present an affidavit of the facts sought to be proven by the said Benge. If the applicant's counsel are willing to concede that the witness if present would testify to the facts herein set forth, the Nation is ready to proceed to trial without reservation of any kind. If they are not it desires to reserve this privilege of hereafter, either tomorrow or otherwise, this case being set for to-day and tomorrow, of examining before the Commission, or its authorized officer, this witness as above set forth.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the introduction of the paper presented and do not admit that the witness, Samuel H. Benge if present would testify to the facts therein stated. They consent and desire that the testimony of said Benge be taken before the Commission at its office in Muskogee but not elsewhere, and protest against it being taken at any other place, with the understanding, however, that when taken we have opportunity to introduce any evidence we may desire in rebuttal.

Mr. [illegible]:
The Nation will pay all the expenses of the opposing counsel, their client and Commission officers in taking the deposition at Fort Gibson.

Commissioner Breckinridge: The allegations of this witness are material in their character and are quite tangent. The Commission of its own volition would acquire information of that character if it knew of its existence anywhere. While the functions of the Commission, as well known are in many respects judicial, yet it is vested with numerous complex powers, such as Congress creates from time to time to do business of certain character, and it is ordered to make a correct roll, which is a duty largely independent of hearing simply what is brought before them: it must be the architect and commissioner of that roll and if evidence is not brought before before the Commission it must go out and get it, to be uniform on that consummation of the law. The Commission, therefore, declines this information independent of any counsel on either side both with respect to the applicant and to the Nation, and if this witness is [illegible] not able to come one of the Commissioners will go to Fort Gibson and to his bed-side, or send a Master official, if necessary to take his testimony. The only matter to consider, therefore, is one of convenience with respect to getting this testimony. Now, I understand that this witness is an extreme sufferer from Bright Disease he is an old man and he may never be able to get out of the house, and it may be an injustice to him to subject him to a trip here, and therefore it seems to me better that counsel for [illegible] submit to some form of taking a deposition or else accompany an official of this Commission over to Fort Gibson and let the testimony be taken there.

After consultation with the attorneys upon the two sides, it is found to be agreeable that the parties meet at Fort Gibson tomorrow morning at half past eight o'clock, and it is agreed that [illegible] with an official of the Commission with a stenographer leave from the office of the Commission for Fort Gibson at eight o'clock to-morrow morning.

FRANCIS M. DAWSON, the applicant, re-called for additional cross-examination on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q What is your name? A Francis M. Dawson.
Q Where do you reside? A In Afton.
Q You have been examined in this case heretofore, have you?
A I don't know which case it is.
Q In your own case? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you the one that is commonly called Bud Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q You made the original application for Dawson for his admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, didn't you?
A [illegible] brother.
Q What was his name? A A. D. Dawson.
Q And Robert Dawson and Elbert Dawson and others [illegible] on March 24, '81, about that time? A Yes, sir.
Q And you were admitted about the 11th of January '83? A Yes, sir.
Q There were other members of your family that applied and were admitted after that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you or not remember the evidence offered in order to accomplish this purpose, the relationship between yourself and Dawson and others and the evidence of your admission by the Dawes Court. In all the subsequent admissions I mean the only evidence of [illegible] was the fact that you and your brothers had been admitted before and that they were kin to you; that was the only evidence of [illegible] any subsequent cases, wasn't it; so far as you [illegible] of?
A What is afterwards?
Q Yes, afterwards? A I think there was some other evidence introduced.
Q Don't you know that there was never any evidence of [illegible] in any other case except evidence of Dr. Miller of Atoka? [illegible], sir.
Q Who else? A Oliver Miller.
Q Who [illegible] Oliver Miller; the people in this case have been examined [illegible] A [illegible] Miller and Dawson.
Q [illegible] Yes, and that is [illegible].
Q Well, that petition in this [illegible]?
A Yes, sir, [illegible].
Q There you present [illegible] Yes, sir.
Q [illegible] present when Mr. [illegible] A Yes, sir.

Q Have you a fair recollection of the testimony of those two men?
A No, not at all.
Q You don't read do you, Mr. Dawson? A No, sir, I dont read nor write; I can barely write my name.
Q Do you think you would remember the testimony of Dr. Baker if your mind was refreshed on it? A Part of it I think.
Q Were you present when you were admitted? A I was not in the room.
Q You were in Tahlequah at the time? A I was in the town of Tahlequah at the time.
Q I will read this paer to you and desire for you ro say whether or not it was the testimony of Dr. Baker in your case:
(Affidavit of Dr. Arthur Baker read to witness, and asked to be copied in the record later.)
Q Is that the correct transcript of the testimony? A It has been so long ago, I could not say; a part of it is, I could not remember it all.
Q Does that state the facts as to the family history correctly so far as you know about it? A So far as I know.
Q Now, you were a son of what Dawson? A Robert Dawson.
Q How many children did Robert Dawson have, and give me their names? A Elbert Dawson, the oldest; Lila, Jesper, Francis Marion-
Q That is yourself? A Yes, sir: Elizabeth Dawson, Josephine Dawson, John Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson, James Dawson, Edna Dawson, Mollie Dawson, Wilburn Dawson.
Q Thirteen? (No response.)
Q Now, Rober Dawson's father was whom? A Sam Dawson.
Q Who was Sam Dawson's wife, your grandmother? A I have been told.
Q By family history is all you know? A She was called Polly Dawson.
Q Who was Anna Pruitt? A I don't know.
Q Never heard of anybody in the family by the name of Anna Pruitt? A No, sir, that was away back in the old country; I have heard talk about it, old Dr. Baker talked about it.
Q Your grand-mother's name was Polly Dawson? A Yes, sir; I don't remember seeing her but once, she died when I was small, died in Texas.
Q Pollie Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q And she was known to be Pollie Rogers, her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q Daughter of Captain John Rogers? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, she died in Texas what time? A I don't remember.
Q Can't you guess at it? A Oh, I could guess.
Q Give your best recollection? A About '58 or '59, or no, '48 or '49; I don't say positive, just guessing at it.
Q How old a boy were you then? A I was born in '42.
Q Have you any distinct recollection of her? A No, sir.
Q Have you any recollection of all the children of Sam and Pollie Dawson; that is, your father, uncles and Aunts? I didn't see all of them.
Q Do you know by family history the names of all of them? A Yes, sir.
Q Will you give them to me?
A Betsy Ann Dawson, I believe her name was.
Q Did she marry a Petty? A Yes, sir; the next is Robert Dawson.
Q Your father? A Yes, sir.
Q Next one? A I think the next was James Dawson, and I think the next one was a girl, Edna Dawson.
Q Did he have two daughters? A Yes, sir.
Q Well sir? A The next one was Joe Dawson: I never saw him; Riley Dawson.

Q That is Samuel P. Dawson, Riley Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Any other one? A That is all I know anything about.
Q Did he have any child by the name of John? A Yes, Jack.
Q Didn't you get Jack misplaced with Joe? A No, it was Joe; I have heard my father speak of him.
Q Then they have seven children? A I never saw them all.
Q How many of them did you ever see? A I saw Uncle Riley Dawson and James Dawson and Jack Dawson and Betsy Ann Petty; I don't think I saw but one of Pa's sisters and brother, they went to Mississippi I think.
Q Do you know that your family history says that the mother of your grandmother, Pollie Rogers' name was? A We have no history.
Q Well, as it was brought down to you; did you ever hear anybody say what your great grandmother's name was? A No, I don't remember.
Q What is the other man, Oliver Millerthat testified in your case? A He testified in James Dawson's case; he never testified in my father's case.
Q Well, didn't anybody testify in your case but Dr. Baker? A Yes, sir, several other witnesses
Q Who were they? A I don't remember; my mother got them witnesses around Tahlequah, old people.
Q Were you present? A No, sir.
Q You were only present when Mr. Baker testified? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, do you find any mistakes in Mr. Baker's statement there? A I could not say all of that was correct or not, part of it is correct.
Q What part is correct? A Why about knowing the family over there.
Q Who is Buck Dawson? A My brother.
Q What is his name? A We always called him Buck, it is Elbert, E. Dawson.
Q Who went with you the first time you went up to make application for citizenship do you remember? A With my brother.
Q The first time? A I met my brother in Texas.
Q Which one? A E. Dawson.
Q That is Elbert or Buck? A Yes, sir.
Q You were living in Arkansas? A Yes, sir.
Q And he was living in Texas? A Yes, sir, and another one of little brothers, Dr. Dawson now:
Q Dr. Dawson now? A Yes, sir.
Q What is his name? A James.
Q And you three went there? A Yes, sir.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants by their counsel object to all the statement of this witness relating to the testimony introduced before the Cherokee Citizenship Commission, and the history of the family as detailed by him, because the same is incompetent and irrelevant, and cannot be used for the purpose of impeaching the integrity of the judgment of said Commission, or either of the Commissioners in admitting members of the Dawson family.

Commission: The objection of the Attorney for the applicants to the testimony above will be noted. The same will be filed and noted for what it is worth.

(Attorney for applicants waives examination.)

C. H. TAYLOR, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A C. R. Taylor.
Q Where do you reside, Mr. Taylor? A Near Coffeeville.
Q Were you an attorney before various citizenship Courts along in '01 to '8? in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you attorney for F. M. Dawson commonly known as Bud Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you present at the taking of testimony in that case? A No, sir; I wasn't present.
Q Do you know who composed the court that decided the case at that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Who were they? A Tom Tehee and Alex Wolfe and Perry Thompson.
Q Do you know whether or not they were all there when the case was decided? A No, sir, there were only two of them present.
Q Which two? A Tehee and Wolfe.
Q Who was the Clerk of the Court at that time? A Mr. Duncan, D. W. C. Duncan.
Q Do you know what witnesses were used in the case of Bud Dawson? A No, sir; now I was the attorney in the case and the evidence had already been filed before the Court.
Q What were you made attorney? A I was only called in as an attorney at the-- Well, Mr. Duncan came down there, and Mr. Bryant had the case and several other attorneys had the case and he employed me.
Q Did you read the evidence in this case? A No, sir.
Q Did you deliver any money? A Now, I was the attorney in the case and I don't think it would be right for me to make any statement.
Q Now, you have claimed your privilege, I ask that you answer the question? Did Dawson ever hand you any money with the direction to pay it to either member of the Court or the Clerk of the Court, D. W. C. Duncan, and if so state the amount? A I had a heap of trouble over this matter.-

Commission: Just answer the question, Mr. Taylor.
A Being the attorney I don't believe it is right for me to answer that question.

Commission: Do you refuse to answer? A Yes, sir.
Q Did the matter to which you object to testifying occur prior to the rendition of the decision admitting to citizenship or afterwards? (No response)

COMMISSIONER BRECKINRIDGE:
Q Do you desire to reply to the last question? A I don't think it is right; I was attorney in the case.
Q Mr. Taylor, do you object to answering that question? A Yes, sir.
Q You refuse to answer that question, do you? A I had rather not answer it.

Q Either answer it or say you won't answer it? A I had rather not answer it.
Q Mr. Taylor, you have answered a number of questions down to this point, but it is at this point that you prefer to plead your privileges, as an attorney, do you? A Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The power in regard to these matters is lodged in the United States. The Court is clothed with special power with reference to matters that arise through this Commission. Of course the Commission desires and the Government needs for the making of a correct roll the fullest information possible, but it is subject to the limitation of law, and it is not for this Commission to decide of the law in a matter of this character with any authority as I understand it at this time, but to report the matter to the United States Court and let the Court pass judgment.

Under Section 21 of the Curtis law as it is commonly called Act of June 28, 1898, the members of the Commission shall in performing all duties required of them by law, have authority to administer oaths, examine witnesses and send for papers and persons, and the court is clothed with authority to enforce obedience. The law having enumerated certain powers goes on to say so far as all others are concerned to enable said Commission to make rolls as herein required, and to punish anyone who may in any manner or by any means obstruct said work. Now, the Commission will report the facts to the United States Court and let the Court decide whether or not you are within your lawful privilege. It seems that you refuse to answer questions, or at least one question, which tends to establish as to whether or not you are claiming what what is commonly considered a matter of privilege--according to an authority referred to by an attorney, but the enforcement of an answer seems clearly to be a matter for the Court to deal with.

Q Now, Mr. Taylor, in regard to the last question asked you by Mr. Hutchings, one of the Counsel for the Cherokee Nation, I direct that you make answer, and if you refuse I shall report the matter to the United States Court. Do you refuse? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, you have read to you, Mr. Taylor, the first of the two questions propounded to you by Mr. Hutchings, and which you declined at the time to make answer; viz; as to whether Mr. Dawson sent you money to pay to the Court or to any officials of the Court, it seems to come to the question as to whether there was any collusion between you and Mr. Dawson and any member of the Court; now, I understand that you refuse to answer that question upon the grounds that you were Mr. Dawson's attorney? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, I require that you ans or that question, do you refuse?
A Yes, sir.
Q I shall also report that refusal to the United States Court as it seems to come under the provision of law, relating to conspiracy between you and Mr. Dawson which apparently considered a privilege matter, and you base your refusal now, not upon the ground that you are incriminating yourself, but that you were counsel for Mr. Dawson. I will report the matter to the Court and you will be informed at the time of any proceedings in the matter I caution you not to talk with Mr. Dawson or any of the applicants in this case.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants do not object and have not objected to the witness answering on account of his privilege as an attorney or for any other cause whatever, they only want to object to the incompetence and irrelevancy of the testimony, with the privilege of cross-examining upon any testimony given by the witness.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE:
Q You still refuse having the consent of the attorneys in the case to make answer? A I will just ask your Honor to let the matter go over until morning.

Commissioner Breckinridge: It will rest until in the morning at its present status; if it is after business hours now.

As for the objection made by Captain McKennon, Counsel for the applicant, it will be taken into consideration, but will not be granted at the present.
(The Commission adjourns until 1:00 P. M. to-morrow afternoon, March 13, 1900.)

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of FRANCIS H. DAWSON ET AL., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of Counsel for applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

SAMUEL H. BENGE, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Samuel H. Benge.
Q Where do you reside? A Fort Gibson.
Q How old are you? A I am 70 years old, going in 71.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; Cherokee by blood.
Q State what official position you have held in the Cherokee Nation and what your general connection with the Nation officially in the last 40 years? A Well, I have several; I have been Sheriff, Councilman, Senator, Delegate to Washington; had a hand in making the treaty of 1866, I am the only one living that signed that treaty; President of the National Council of different tribes of Indians.
Q Were you acquainted with F. H. Dawson, commonly called Ned Dawson? A Yes, sir; I knew him.
Q State you connection with and what you know about his citizenship case before what is known as the Thomas Tehee Citizenship Court? A Mr. Dawson came down, I was living down below here, he come and employed me to tend to his case and we went to Tahlequah, I believe if I ain't mistaken in holding and filed his case there; we went several times and continued his case on for the want of evidence, and finally while we was up there we run across one old darkey by the name of Tosh Rogers; we got his testimony and after we got that testimony we concluded that it was sufficient to go into the trial with. Tosh lived here at Fort Gibson, he was a horse trainer down here and stayed here; he claimed that he knew the Rogers and belonged to one of them and after that we thought we had sufficient evidence we submitted our case to the Court for trial, and the Court went to work and rendered a decision against Mr. Dawson.
I told Mr. Dawson right there that "our cake is dough", just made that remark, and he just made the remark "never mind", and next morning they taken up his case again and they rendered a decision in his favor. I filed no motion nor any evidence at all whatever; I give the case up right there and the decision was then given in his favor, and on our way back from Tahlequah, why we got to talking about the case and I told him: "it was a pretty hard blow when they rendered that decision against us." He said: "yes, but Duncan was the man to reach", but he reached him with five hundred dollars.
Q What position did Duncan occupy? A He was Clerk of the Court.
Q Duncan an educated man or—? Yes, sir; he was an educated man.
Q Who were the members of the Court? A Tom Tehee, Alex Wolfe and Tom Thompson.
Q How many of these could speak English at all? A One.
Q Which one? A Thompson.
Q Who was the Attorney that represented the Nation in those cases? A Ezekiel Sanders.

Q What was his given name? A Wilson Saunders; was it Wilson Sanders?
A Wilson Sanders.
Q Was he an educated man, or could speak English well? A No, sir.
Q [illegible] anything about the matters having cost him a good [illegible] money? A He said it had cost him a right smart.
Q [illegible] remark made on the way back about the opening up of the case [illegible] what? A He asked me if I thought the case was ever [illegible] eventually and I told him I didn't know.

Q [illegible] witness in the Dawson case, Judge, in any of the [illegible] negotiations in I have been made since that time? A I don't [illegible] that you might call it a witness; that young man came to me [illegible] woman, and asked me to help him up there that the [illegible] going against him, him and his mother and all was about [illegible] and I interceded and done what I could there before the Committee. I was not a witness but that is at I don't for him.
Q That was Mr. Graham, wasn't it? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you had conversations with Mr. Graham since that time about it? A Why, I might, I don't recollect, I might have had conversations with him.
Q Well, after the Dawes Commission began taking a census of the Cherokees and when they were about Sallisaw down here, did you have a conversation with him here in Fort Gibson about the matter?
A Now, I just can't tell you; I have seen him on several occasions, but the conversations we might have had I can't state.
Q To refresh your memory I will ask you if he did not tell you that they were making a fight on the Dawson family and he wanted to know of you whether that judgment in favor of Robert Dawson's family was fairly rendered, and did you not then tell him that it was all right, that it was fairly obtained? A Not as I recollect of; all he said that is as I have stated he talked to me in regard to his mother, himself and probably his brothers and sisters, I don't recollect how many there were, but he told me they were rejected, that is just the words he used.
Q [illegible] A [illegible] has been heretofore gone.
Q [illegible] Fort Gibson? A Well, that is I saw him here in Fort [illegible] I saw him in Tahlequah.
Q [illegible] here in Fort Gibson ask you particularly about the [illegible] as to whether it was fairly obtained or not?
A [illegible] claiming a claim on the Dawson case, that is the [illegible]
Q [illegible] is the principal Dawson family? A Yes.
Q [illegible] was this other written statement here made, when was this [illegible] (referring to affidavit heretofore referred to.)
A Monday I reckon.
Q Who came to take this? A Mr. Starr.
Q Was anyone present when this was taken? A No, sir.
Q From had you told about this matter, Judge? A No one as I know of.
Q Do you know how it was that they knew that you knew this?
A No, sir.
Q You never made any statement? A Never made any statement that I recollect of except I might have talked with Scales, he and him talked about these cases a good many times; if I ever made a statement it was to Joe Ab Scales.
Q How did Mr. Starr know? A I could not tell you how Mr. Starr knew.

Q He came alone here as a Notary Public? A He came alone here as a Notary Public. All he said when he come, he says "we understand that you know something in regard to these cases", I said " what case," and he went to work and named Shoemake case and Dawson case.
Q And thereupon you made this tatement? A He said he wanted to qualify me.
Q Are you certain Judge that after the rendition of tat judgment Mr. Dawson came back here to Fort Gibson with you?
A Yes, sir; we was together.
Q Let me ask you if it was not a very cold day when he came here and he went over ahead of you and you went over to Tahlequah the next day or two after he left? A My recollection was he and I went together.
Q And returned here together? A Yes, sir.
Q And he not leave you there and go back direct to Arkansas?
A No, sir; he came here together. If my memory serves me right, I might be mistaken but then I don't believe I am, he came from Tahlequah calls up here to my house, that is according to his statement.
Q What amount of fee did they pay you? A I don't know as that is in connection with the case whatever the money they paid me.
Q How did they pay you? A Paid me the money.
Q Who paid it to you? A Dawson there and that fellow, young fellow paid me some.
Q Mr. Graham? A Yes.
Q At the same time? A Oh, no, he wanted me to intercede for him at Tahlequah and paid me to do something for him which I did.
Q I will ask you if Mr. F. M. Dawson here did not obtain two copies of the judgment one of which you sent in a letter in which you wrote to his brother living in Texas and that brother in Texas, the one they called Buck, didn't send you $50 that they paid you? A No, if I ever got a letter of Buck whatever you might call him, I don't recollect it and if I ever got a nickel from him I don't recollect it. Old man paid me what money I got from it. I don't know nothing about his brothers; he told me he had an uncle living over in Arkansas, but not living down in Texas, I don't know about it.
Q Where did he pay you the money? A Paid it here at home.
Q Before you went out? A He paid me fifty dollars before we went up and when we went up yonder he paid me fifty dollars more; if you want to know what I got, I got one hundredn dollars.
Q You were acting as his attorney in the case? A Yes, sir.
Q How many judges were there present when the judgment was rendered? A In his case?
Q Yes, sir. A Well, according to my recollect there was all there, but if they were not all there, Tom Thompson was sick. Tehee and Wolfe.
Q Don't you remember that they were all present? A No, I think they were present though.
Q Who else was present at the ime? A Oh, I could not tell you, there were several people in the house; could not tell you at all.
Q Were there several in the house the evening before the judgment was rendered against them as you say? A Yes, there were several in the house.
Q And several in the house when the judgment was rendered the next day? A I don't know how many there was.
Q Do you remember the names of any of them? A Why not exactly, mostly full bloods.
Q How long didyou remain out at Tahlequah on that trip?
A I guess I was there about three days.

Q Tending to this case alone, or did you have other cases? A no, sir.
Q Do you know of your own knowledge that the judges received any money (this question asked at the instance of Mr. Graham present) A I don't know whether the judges received nay or not.

---oooOOOooo---

I, J. O. Rosson, do hereby certify upon my official oath as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that I correctly recorded the testimony had this day in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) J. O. Rosson.

March 18, 1902. Commission convened pursuant to adjournment.

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of counsel for applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

C. H. TAYLOR takes the stand and continues his testimony.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Mr. Taylor, you said you would consider the matter yesterday and let us know whether you would answer those questions today; have you decided what you would do about the matter? A Well, it is like this, of course I don't want to be held as in contempt of the Court.
Q You would be held in contempt and the other Court would make you answer? A That being the case of course I would make a statement.
Q Are you acquainted with D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of what is known as the Tehee Citizenship Commission Court? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you ever have any conversation with him about letting him know of the different character of cases that would come up before the Court that you knew of, whether they were good ones or bad ones? A No, the only thi g that ever come up in that respect; he asked me if whatever large cases that would come up before the Court to let him know.
Q Did you have any talk with him about the Dawson case during the progress of its trial or before and ever introduced Mr. F. M. Dawson to him, or carry him to him? A I spoke to him when Mr. Dawson came to Tahlequah to see about his case, and he said that he would take the papers over to his room, the Dawson papers.
Q Did you see him again that night? A Yes, sir; after supper I went down to his room.
Q Did he ask you about the Dawsons or Dawson case? A He asked me where Dawson was.
Q Which Dawson are you referring to now, F. M. Dawson, known as Bud Dawson? A Bud Dawson.
Q Well, what didyou reply to him? A I told him that I thought he had gone to church.
Q Did you find Dawson after church? A Yes, sir, he told me to come and bring Dawson down and I did so; Dawson was in church.
Q You carried Dawson to him? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you remain during the conversation? A Only a minute.
Q What was said if anything while you were present? A Mr. Duncan spoke to Mr. Dawson and says "there is a hitch in your evidence."
Q Go ahead and state what else he said? A He said "if that was straightened out it would be all right," and I turned and went away, I says, "gentlemen, I will go home."
Q Did you know of the[illegible] having any other conversation or communication after that? A No, sir.
Q You left them there together yourself? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Mr. Dawson give you any directions the next morning about [illegible] the case? A Yes, sir, he asked me to call it up the case.
Q The next morning? A Yes, sir.
Q Had there been any additional evidence offered? A No, sir; there was not additional testimony offered.
Q He [illegible] the next morning to call up the case? A Yes, sir.
Q And it was heard and submitted the next morning? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, how many of the members of the Court were there present that [illegible]? A There were only two, two full-blood Indians.
Q [illegible] speak English at all? A Tehee could talk a little, [illegible]
Q [illegible] executive sessions all the time or what is called [illegible] sometimes? A Well, I don't remember about [illegible] generally when the case was submitted the attorneys would [illegible] and the Judges would go out and they would determine the case.
Q Well, did they go out into that sort of executive session the next morning on the Dawson case? A Well, we went out when the case was submitted.
Q And was the decision rendered that morning in their favor?
A Yes, sir.
Q Who notified you of the decision of the Court? A Why, Mr. Dawson.
Q Do you remember whether he went out with you or was in there during the consideration of the case? A I think he went out with me.
Q Did you at any time thereafter receive any money, checks or other evidence money from Mr. Dawson with direction to turn it in part over to D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of that Court? A Mr. Dawson gave me 50 dollars and said he would send the balance in a short time, said he would send some more money in a short time.
Q Well, did he send any money afterwards? A Yes, sir, in the course of ten days or two weeks he send a hundred dollar check, draft.
Q What did he direct you to do with it? A He directed me to give D. W. C. Duncan half of it.
Q Did you give him half of it? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he send you any at any other time after that? A Well, in the course of a couple of weeks he sent me a hundred dollars more.
Q Did he direct you to turn any of that and if so how much, to D. W. C. Duncan? A He told me to give him half of it.
Q Did you give him half of it? A I did, sir.
Q Do you remember whether on Dr. Arthur Baker was the principal witness in behalf of the Dawson case? A No, sir, I don't because I never had any connection with the case, but I heard that he was a witness in the case.
Q No argument was made when you submitted the case? A No, sir.
Q Just submitted it on the testimony? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you born and reared in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir; I was born in the old Nation.

Q When did you come to the Cherokee Nation? A Come here in 1887.
Q How long have you been practicing law in the Cherokee Nation?
A I think since '88.
Q You have done a great deal of citizenship business haven't you?
A Yes, sir.
Q You were in the United States Court at Fort Smith on charges in regard to the citizenship business? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you convicted there? A Yes, sir; I was convicted there on this very case
Q And served a term of what length? A I was sent to the jail hospital for sixty days and I stayed in about 37 or 39 days, and I was released.
Q When was that? A I don't remember how long ago it has been.
Q You say it was in regard to this case? A Yes, sir; this case was the bone of contention; Clem Rogers and the Chief, they are the ones that had me arrested, carried to Fort Smith.
Q Well, now, were you charged with an offense against the law in this case, or was it in regard to some other case? A Well, it was in regard to using the mail for fraudulent purposes.
Q Sending out propositions and obtaining case for citizenship for people [illegible] Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, it was for answering correspondence.
Q Not relating to this case at all? A Well, this was the main charge. Clem Rogers went before the Court there and stated that I had got in at least three hundred Dawsons, that they were white people and not entitled to citizenship and that was the main trouble.
Q Well, now, was the charge based upon that or was it based upon your letters you sent out to other people? A That was the charge for using the mail for fraudulent purposes.
Q The use of the mails for fraudulent purposes not in connection of this case was it? A Not particular of this case.
Q Then the trouble you had was the prejudice of Clem Rogers and others caused by your connection with the Dawson case; that is what you mean to say? A Yes, sir.
Q Why did you say because you were charged with an offense based upon this case? A Well, the prejudice grew out of this case.
Q Now, then, you had full conversation with the representatives of the Cherokee Nation as to your testimony in this case, did you not before you came on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q You had told them of these particulars before you came on the witness stand did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q Yet when you came on the stand you assumed to have conscientious scruples as to answering as to matters which occured between you and your client, Bud Dawson, in relation to this matter and declined to answer claiming your privilege as an attorney did you not? A Yes, sir; I didn't want to make a statement at all in the matter.
Q You had voluntarily made a statement to the representatives of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; I had stated to Mr. Hastings; he summoned me and I come down here and I didn't want to make a statement to him but he insisted.
Q He had no power to compel you to make a statement? A No, sir.
Q You could then make it very freely and your conscience did not hurt you, but when you came on the stand you were very conscientious about it? A I didn't want to make a statement at all unless I would be put in jail here if I didn't.
Q But you had armed them with information by which they could ask you these questions when you came on the stand? A I had told Mr. Hastings.

Q You knew when you gave him that information that you would be brought on the stand as a witness, did you not, by reason of that?
A No, I didn't know that I would be compelled to make a statement in the matter, a sworn statement.
Q You thought you would not be compelled to answer?
A I didn't think the law would compel me to make a statement.
Q Why then did you make a statement to him about it? A Oh, he was asking me about it, and I told him that I didn't want to make a statement, and I didn't for quite a while after I came down here.
Q When the enrollment division of the Dawes Commission was in Tahlequah, in the winter of 1900, did you not there meet F. M. Dawson and did you not then and there say to him "I told Shoemake I would be for him if he would employ me in his case and if he didn't I would be against him, and the same to you?" A No, sir; I said to him this; I says that if there is not something done that I will likely be summoned against you and Mr. Shoemake both.
Q What did you mean by that? A Well, I just meant this, I just left the matter with him to say what he wanted to do in the matter; I only spoke a word or two about it. I was going out of town just as he came in.
Q When you told him if something was not done you would be summoned as a witness against him; what did you mean by that? A Well, I just meant that the chances were that the Nation would summon me against him.
Q What did you mean by the expression "if there was not something done" that you would be summoned as a witness?
A Well, I meant this, if I was re-employed in the matter if he was to have a case and I was re-employed I would not be required.

Q You could be required to make a statement as to declarations made to you by your client to you in one instance, but if a little more money was put up you could not be required to make a statement; is that what you mean? A I didn't think I could be forced to make a statement at all in the matter.
Q Why didyou make that expression to him "if something wasn't done you might be summoned as a witness" if you believed you could not be made to make a statement? A I meant if I was employed in the case.
Q If he would put up you would not testify? A That they could not force me to testify.
Q About the month of February, 1901, in the town of Vagoner, Indian Territory, did you not send your son to get Graham to come to the hotel at night, and did you not then and there say to Sid Graham; "you people are on the doubtful list and if you will give me $500. I will make it all right and see that you are enrolled and if you don't I will se that you don't get on"? A No, sir; I got a letter from Sid Graham in which he asked me to certify that the case was all right and after I met him I told him that I could not do it, that the case was crooked, he then said to me, he says, "I will give you a hundred dollars", he says "will you take a hundred dollars," I said "no, sir." I didn't make any bid, that is I dddn't set no price with him.
Q You did not say to him then what I have embraced in that question there? A No, sir.
Q You did have a conversation with him about that time and at that place, did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q You say you didn't make any bid or set any price? A No, sir; he offered me a hundred dollars.
Q Why did you send for him to come to the hotel? A In answer to his letter.

A Did you not on yesterday morning on the street in Muskogee, Indian Territory, in a conversation with W. M. Shoemake say to him: "You have made a great mistake in not keeping in your employment and so have the Dawsons and it will go hard with you and you will see it"? No, sir; I says to Mr. Shoemake, I says: "Who have you employed in your case," and he says "Judge Thomas and Mr. Owen." I said "It might have been a advantage to you if you had retained me in your matter;" Well, he says "there was nothing wrong in my case" and I says "no, there is nothing wrong on earth in your case that I know of." He said all he wanted was justice and I said "I don't know a thing on earth against you," and I says "there is not a thing on earth wrong in your case as I know it came up fairly and squarely and decided in your favor."

Q You said nothing to him about the Dawson case? A Yes, I said to him "it might have been well if the Dawsons had retained me in their case." I said "I am summoned on the part of the Nation and I don't want to make a statement and I won't if I can possible avoid it."

Q Was that before or after you talked with Mr. Hastings, the representative of the Nation? A It was afterwards.

Q You meant by that if you had not been called to answer you would have gone to jail? A No, sir; if they had employed me before, and I meant not now.

Q You mean that if they had employed you before hand you would not have given this information to Mr. Hastings? A I would not be required, being the attorney.

Q Were you required to give him the information; did you tell him that you had to give him any information? A Who do you mean.

Q Mr. Hastings. A I did refuse him and he insisted.

Q Well, he no authority to compel you to do it? A No, sir; I don't know whether he did or not.

Q As a lawyer you knew that he did not have authority to compel you to make a statement to him? A I told him that I was an attorney in the case and I didn't want to make any statement at all.

Q Why did you do it? A Well, he intimated to me it would go any further. He said to me "I will not make this matter — I will not use it;" that is, what I stated to him was part in confidence.

Q And he pledged you his word that it would not be used? A Well, told him I could make a statement in confidence, and that I didn't want to make a statement before the Court.

Q Well, what did he reply, as you said just now? A Oh, he says make the statement and then I told him--I regretted very much to do it, and I regret very much to make a statement here. I tried to avoid it yesterday.

Q You stated just now that he said it would not be used; did he say that or not? A Well, something to that amount; oh, he says it won't make any difference or something to that effect.

Q Now, don't you know that Mr. Hastings did not intimate to you that the statement he was asking you to make would not be used? A Well, I didn't think that I could be forced to make a qualified statement before the Court here, because I thought my license would protect me in that matter.

Q Yet it did not protect you or prevent you from making a statement to the attorneys for the Nation? A No, sir.

Q Now, in this conversation with Shoemake to which I before referred did you not ask him to again employ you and tell him if he would you would make it all right for him? A No, sir; I didn't say that; no, I said if he had employed me in the matter "maybe it would have been better for you." Now, he offered me when I was down here last week, he offered me five dollars to go down and talk with his lawyers on the matter, I didn't do it, I refused it.

Q That was not your price? A No, no, I had nothing to say in his case that would be to his advantage; I knew nothing against him.
Q Now, then, you say that your were present on the morning that the judgment was rendered in favor of the Dawsons? A I was not in the Court house.
Q You were present in Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q How long had you been at Tahlequah? A I was living there at that time.
Q When were you first employed by them? A By Dawsons?
Q Yes, sir. A The evening before the case was tried.
Q You say that after he judgment was rendered Dawson handed you $20? A Yes, sir.
Q And told you to hand to Duncan? A No, sir.
Q What was your statement? A That he paid me $20 and says "I will send you some more in a short time, week or so.
Q And then he sent you $100? A Yes, sir.
Q And wrote you to give D. W. C. Duncan $50 of it? A Yes, sir.
Q And then sent you another $100 and told you to give him half of it? A Yes, sir.
Q How much did they pay you? A Well, that was the agreement, was that he would pay me $50 a family.
Q How much did he pay you? A I think there was $250; now I am not sure about the $50, but it appears to me like there was a $50 sent, and Mr. Duncan asked me, as well as I remember, says "have you got a letter from Dawson," I told him "yes, sir." It was either that or the $100, and he says "I would like to have some money", and I went to Stapler's and got it changed-- I won't be sure about it being $50 or $100--I went to Stapler's and got him to cash the check and give him his part of it.
Q How much did they pay you for your services? A That is all I got.
Q How much? A I think it was $100, $120.
Q What did you do for them? A Didn't do a thing only called up the case and submitted it; never read the evidence.
Q Submitted it without remarks? A Yes, sir.
Q And for that you say they paid you $120? A Yes, sir; $120.
Q Was Houston Benge present when that was done? A No, sir; I don't think he was.
Q Did you see him then at that time in Tahlequah? A I don't remember.
Q Were you associated with him in any manner in connection with the case? A No, sir.
Q You had a great deal of business of that character, have you before the Courts? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you paid like fees in other cases for like services? A Yes, sir.
Q In many of them? A Yes, sir, good many.
Q All like cases? A Oh, citizenship cases.
Q When was it you were in jail at Fort Smith? A I don't remember; Mr. Mellette can remember, he was there, he was my attorney.
Q Was it about 1883? A It was somewhere along there, along in 1890 somewhere.
Q That has been your principal business as a lawyer, has it not? A Yes, sir.
Q You have never practiced much in any other way have you? A Very little.
Q Were you in the habit of working your cases through in the same manner in which you state you worked this through? A No, sir.

Q This was an exception was it? A I never worked this case through. I simply called the case up by request of Mr. Dawson. I read the evidence; don't know what proof there was in it; he just asked me to call the case up.
Q And he agreed to pay you $50 a family for doing that? A Yes, sir.
Q Was that what you required of him? A That is what he agreed to pay. I says "What will you give?" He says "I will give you $50 a family.

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q At the same time that the attorney for the Nation was talking to you about the Dawson case he also made inquiries about the Shoemake case didn't he? A Yes, sir.
Q And you told him at that time before you knew anything about whether you would be made or compelled to testify that so far as you knew there was nothing you knew detrimental to the Shoemake case? A Yes, sir; that is what I said.
Q You told him at the same time that you not only expected to claim you privilege as an attorney in the case, but that you told him, Mr. Hastings, with the full belief that the Court would sustain your position? A Yes, sir.

Mr. McKennon: That is very leading.

Q Now, did you think that the re-employment, being the attorney in the pending case would strenthen your position or weaken it, when you spoke to Mr. Dawson? A What I thought in the matter was before ever I would be summoned in the matter, a long time ago, that if I had been employed in the matter of course my position would have been such that I would not have been required or could not have been forced.
Q Did you think under these circumstances that Mr. Hastings would approach you about the subject? A No, sir; I don't think I would be forced to, having license to practice law.
Q Did Mr. Hastings tell you at the time that he was going to put you on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q And let the Court decide? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Now, have you a license to practice in the United States Courts? A Yes, sir.
Q In the Territory? A Yes, sir.
Q And also in the Indian Courts? A Yes, sir; do you want to see them?

JAMES W. LEWIS, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your anem please? A J. W. Lewis.
Q James W. Lewis? A Yes, sir.
Q Where is your postoffice, Mr. Lewis? A Afton.
Q How old are you? A 73 years old.
Q What is your business ? A I work at the tin business and gun work.
Q Do you know one James Dawson, the brother of F. M. Dawson and the other Dawsons? A I know old man James Dawson.
Q That is the one, I mean old man James Dawson? A Yes, sir; I know him.
Q How long have you known him? A Well, some four or five years, I guess.
Q How long? A Four or five years I think.

Q When did you come to the country? A I have been in the country 30 odd years.
Q Well, when did he come to the country, do you know? A Along about somewheres in eighty if I recollect right, might have been later than that.
Q How did you happen to get acquainted with? A He lived right close by me and I built a house for him.
Q Did you have any conversation with him at the time you built that house? A Yes, several different times.
Q About how he became a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, about the circumstances? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he make any statement to you about the use of money in getting his citizenship, and if so, state what he said?
A Well, he told me that it cost him $700 to get his rights.
Q Didn't tell you to whom he paid it? A No, he didn't and I didn't ask any questions.

LR. McKENNON:

Q How old was he at that time, do you know? A I do not know exactly, must have been somewheres near about 70 years old, he might have been older than that, I don't know.
Q He was a very old and feeble man? A Yes, he was old and feeble.
Q He seldom ever got out away from his house? A No, sir, only short distance.
Q When you first knew him he was that kind of man? A Yes, sir.

J. L. CLINKENBEARD, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

LR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A J. L. Clinkenbeard.
Q What is your post office address? A Vinita.
Q How old are you? A 58.
Q Were you ever an applicant for citizenship before the Tehee citizenship Court in Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q About what time was that? A September '81, I think.
Q Did you meet there about that time, one Elbert or Buck Dawson?
A Yes, sir.
Q How did you happen to meet him? A He and I stopped at the same place, man's by the name of Sherbow.
Q You and he stopped there, did you, board there? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, did you have any talk about citizenship cases, yours and his? A
A Yes, sir.
Q There did he state that he was from? A Texas.
Q Well, state what you can remember of the conversation between you from time to time about citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?
A Well, we were there on the same business and we talked about it at different times, and in talking about the evidence we had there I, of course, told him how many witnesses I had and what I could prove and so on, and he said that he didn't have but one witness, Dr. Baker from Arkansas, a man that was 85 or 90 years old, he said, and he hadn't come and said he was to have met him there, but he hadn't come.
Q Well, what did he say about the doctor's knowing anything?
A Well, he said he was 85 or 90 years old and didn't know straight up.
Q Well, did he say anything about giving him whisky?
A Well, he said he could give him four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would swear that black was white.

Q Did he say anything about what money would do in Texas or Indian Territory? A Well, in talking about the evidence, he said that money was what made the wars go down in Texas and he said "I come to get the law of the land" and he says "I found out it goes here," or words to that effect.
Q Did he say what he had to spend on the question? A Well, he said that he could stand a thousand dollars on it and not be hurt very much; finally he said he could stand more than that.
Q What did he tell you what he thought about the necessity of witnesses anyhow? A Well, I don't know as he said as to that, but I understood from what he said that he thought money would beat witnesses.
Q Well, where did he go from there? A He and I left there together; he came to Muskogee by way of Fort Gibson and there we parted.
Q Did you ever see him after that? A I saw him about two years or something like that afterwards.
Q Where? A Vinita.
Q Did you refer to the citizenship matter? A I asked him how he come out and he said all right.
Q Was he deformed in any way this man? A He had a crippled hand or stiff finger; I don't remember just what it was now.

J.R. McKENNON:

Q Your first conversation with him was in '01 was it? A Yes, sir.
Q What time in '01? A September.
Q You were then an applicant for citizenship? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you admitted? A No, sir.
Q You are still an applicant? A No, sir.
Q You are still working to get in as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir; haven't quit it entirely.
Q What business are you in now? A I am running a dairy in Vinita.
Q When did you make these statements now to the representative of the Cherokee Nation? A Well, sir, I haven't; I saw Mr. Hastings I believe here last Saturday the first time.
Q How did they ever know that you had had these conversations with Mr. Dawson? A I don't know.
Q You don't know how they found that out? A No, sir.
Q You say you saw Mr. Hastings here last Saturday? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, did you approach him or did he approach you? A He approached me.
Q You know why? A No, sir; I suppose somebody I have told something at some time about this. I don't know how of one. I don't remember of having talked to anyone about it. I have seen Mr. Hastings for years.
Q Now, you say—how was that expression about him giving Dr. Baker three or four drinks of liquor? A He said the old man; he said that Dr. Baker, he was expecting him there and he didn't come, and he said he didn't care where he didor not; he said he was 85 or 90 years old; he said he didn't know straight up; said he could give him three or four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would not know black or white.
Q Now, he said that did he? A Yes, sir.
Q You are just as positive of that as you are of any other statement he made are you? A Yes, sir.
Q You say you next saw Dawson at Vinita? A Yes, sir.
Q How long afterwards was that? A About two years, I think something like that.
Q Did he move to the Territory? A Yes, sir; he lived at Vinita at one time.

Q You speak about having a dairy business there at Vinita, to what extent? A I am only milking about four cows now, I sent the others to the country.
Q Do you run a dairy wagon there? A No, sir.
Q You serve on the jury a good deal? A I have been serving on the Petit jury there this winter.
Q Generally? No, sir.
Q Are you a kind of a professional juror? A No, sir; I was on the regular petit jury, I was on the regular panel and served.

C. G. BRAUGHT, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

A Been living there 19 years.
Q Do you know one Bud Dawson or F. M. Dawson as his name is?
A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A About 18 years.
Q How close do you live from him? A Half a mile of him.
Q Does he still own that place? A I think he does.
Q Were you an applicant for citizenship along about '81 or '2 at Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you have at any time a conversation with Bud Dawson about his and your citizenship cases? A Yes, sir.
Q State what he stated to you of citizenship cases in general and about his own in particular, you can state the time that you had these conversations as near as you can? A Well, I think it was in '83, he told me if I ever got in I would have to put up; he said it cost him $700 to get in; he said he paid one witness three hundred dollars.
Q Did he state the name of that witness? A No, he did not.
Q Whom did he say he made arrangements with? A He said he made arrangements with the Court; that is, heads of families to get them in at one hundred dollars apiece.
Q Do you know what time of the year tht was, whether it was in the summer or not? A I think it was in June.
Q Did he make any other statements to you at any other time?
A No, sir, I don't think he has in regards to that matter.
Q You have been living neighbors with him? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q You say this was about June of '83? A I think it was in June, 1883, I won't be positive whether it was June or not.
Q You were an applicant; were you admitted? A No, sir.
Q Have you been admitted? A No, sir.
Q You are still an applicant? A Yes, sir.
Q Still trying to get in? A Yes, sir.
Q Where was this conversation had? A Had at Bud Dawson's house.
Q What part of the premises? that is, in his residence?
A Yes, sir.
Q In the house? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was present? A There wasn't anybody present; he just built the house and there wasn't anybody there.
Q Was there more than one room? A I won't be positive but I don't think there was but one room, log house.
Q Just one room? A Yes, sir.

Q And in that room he made this statement to you? A Yes, sir.
Q He and you are enemies are you not? A No, I don't think we are enemies.
Q You are not friendly at all? A Friendly part of the time, and part of the time we ain't.
Q Haven't you had considerable trouble about he lands between your farms? A No, sir; we ain't had any trouble.
Q Didn't you have his little boy arrested recently for a difficulty? A Yes, sir.
Q And you say that you are not on bad terms with him? A Why we speak, have conversation, have right right along all the time.
Q Is it not a fact now that you and he have been all the while at outs? A No, sir.
Q You don't have any unkind feeling towards him? A No, sir.
Q What were your other remarks? A I said no, sir, I didn't have any unkind feeling towards him.

(It being 5 o'clock, the Commission adjourns until 8:30 o'clock to-morrow morning.)

March 19, 1902.
Commission convened pursuant to adjournment.

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of Counsel for Applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

C. C. BRAUGH, re-called, further testified:

MR. McKENNON:

Q Mr. Braught, you were a claimant under the Watts family are you not? A Yes, sir.
(witness excused.)

CHARLES D. KENNEY, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Charles D. Kenney.
Q What is your post-office? A Braymow.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; supposed to be.
Q Recognized as such are you? A Yes, sir.
Q How old are you? A There is no family record, my parents died when I was young, I just guess at my age, I am somewheres between 44 and 45 years old.
Q Were you personally acquainted with one Elbert or Buck Dawson? A I knew Buck Dawson when I saw him.
Q Did you know him in the state of Texas, if so state what time? A I knew Buck Dawson, knew him and saw him at different dates in Texas.
Q Well, in the year '81 in Clay County, Texas, did you ever see him? A It was in '81 or 82, I think I know him in both years.
Q Did you ever have any conversation with him in the presence of Bill Smith, Miles Flippin and Joe Preston about his application for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Mr. Dawson and Flippin were talking in regard to grass down there before we got there it was mentioned, I was going up on the strip and Buck Dawson says "he and Indian" and Jiles said "yes, he is an Indian", and "by God," I believe is the way he spoke, "if I was an Indian I would not be punching cattle, I would have stock eating my grass."

Q What did he say about making application? A He said he was going to the Chickasaw Nation and prove up and get him some grass.
Q Who was that? A Buck Dawson.
Q Well, di anybody suggest about his going to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, I told him, I says "why don't you go to the Cherokee Nation, why don't you go up home" I believe is the way he spoke it, "up amongst Gods people;" and he says "are they all white like you?" and Jiles spoke up and says "majority of them."
Q Well, what did he say to Jiles then? A He says "let's go up Jiles", just in a whole crowd of cow punchers, and Mr. Flippin says "Hell, I am going; brother John is getting ready to go now."
Q Well, then what did he say to you? A He says "Who are your best lawyers up there, Kenney," and I told him "Hooley Bell was counted the brainiest man in our country."
Q Well, do you know whether he claimed to have any Indian blood or what he was claiming in that country, whether white man or Indian? A No, sir, I could not say what he was; he was generally known down there as Buck Dawson, a citizen of the State of Texas, that is all I know of him.

Mr. McKennon: The applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

Mr. McKennon:
Q Were you born and reared in the Cherokee Nation? A I can't tell you where I was born; I was raised here part of the time and in Ruse County, Texas, B. W. Alberty was my guardian.
Q Were you admitted to citizenship by the Council or Court? A I think both of them passed on me; I can't tell you the date.
Q About what time? A It was sometime in '80 though.
Q What tribunal first? A I don't know; I don't know either when I was admitted, I was re-instated at Council.
Q When? A I think it was in '87 or 88.
Q Haven't you been arrested for crime and charged with crime? A Well, I don't know that I was on trial; I have been arrested a hundred time, I guess from here to the Rio Grande.
Q For what offense? A For gambling, stealing; if I am on trial I have had lots of them, I have been on the road.
MR. HASTINGS: of Counsel for Cherokee Nation,
Q Were you ever convicted? A No, sir.
MR. McKENNON: Applicant makes further objection to the testimony of this witness on account of his original character stated by him.

THOMAS B. BABEART, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. [illegible]:

Q State your name, please? A Thomas B. Babeart.
Q What is your post office? A Melvin.

Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know one James Dawson? A Well, yes; I did; I have seen him time or two.
Q Were you in Tahlequah about the time he had an application before the Spears or Snake Puppy Citizenship Court? A Yes, sir; I was there about the time the case was settled.
Q Did you know Aaron Butler? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was he? A He was a Cherokee Interpreter for the Court.
Q Do you know James Smith? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was he? A He was the Nation's attorney before the Court.
Q Were you about that time have a conversation with either Aaron Butler or Jim Smith in company with Mr. James Dawson? A Yes.
Q State the full particulars of it? A About that time this man Dawson and Butler come to me while they were all together, all three of them, and Butler come and called me off to one side, that was down at a colored church, it was after dark, and they called me off there and this man Dawson borrowed some money from me, he said he had to have it that night, his case was going to be submitted the next morning.
Q Well, did he say anything about whether he could get his case submitted if he had some more? A Well, from the language to me and Butler, he wanted this money: Smith had agreed to submit the case without further evidence in the matter.
Q Well, did you let him have the ten dollars? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did they go then? A They walked off up towards town.
Q Did they go together, those three? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Was that James Dawson, the leading applicant in that case?
A Yes, best of my recollection that was.
Q How old a man was he? A I don't know; I could not tell you; he looked, I don't know, he might have been—could not tell you just about how old he was.
Q Well, about how old was he, 25, 30 or 40? A Yes, he was older than that, from my judgment I guess he must have been 45 or 50 years old.
Q Is he living or dead? A I don't know.
Q Where have you been living? A I have been living down here near Tahlequah.
Q What was the man's name, Dawson's name? A Jim Dawson I think.
Q You are certain of that? A Yes, sir; I am pretty certain.
Q They came to you with Smith, the Prosecuting Attorney, and Butler, the Interpreter? A Yes, sir.
Q Dawson took you off to one side? A Butler took me to where Dawson was and introduced me to Dawson and vouched for Dawson being all right for the money.
Q When did you first make a statement of this matter to anybody?
A I guess—I don't remember when.
Q How long have you been in Muskogee this time?
A I have been here since, I was summoned here last Friday.
Q Did you ever make any statement to anybody about this before that time? A Yes, I talked to Butler about it.
Q When? A Oh, about, first I remember it has been about two years ago, and Butler was talking to me about it; it was at my house.
Q Were you born a citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q You weren't admitted to citizenship by the Courts or Council?
A No, sir.
Q You have been living in the Cherokee Nation all your life?
A Well, I was born and raised here; I haven't been here all the time; I have been out and in.

Q You have never seen that man Dawson since? A If I have I have never known it, but I seen him the next day.
Q You saw him and took a good look at him, and know about what kind of man he was? I saw him around there about several times.
Q You think he was about 35 or 40 years old? A That would be my guess at it, my recollection.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness, all of it, because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

DELIA A. BREWER, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q What was your father's name? A His name was Joseph Vann.
Q Was he called by any nicknames and if so how many, and what?
A None but the Cherokees, the Full-bloods called him Joe Aney.
Q What does that name mean when you talk English? A Rich Joe.
Q Did any of them call him Big Joe Vann? A I don't know; he was a large man; larger than the other Joe Vann.
Q There was another Joe Vann? A Yes, sir.
Q Did your father have any sisters and brothers? A He had quite a number of sisters.
Q Did he have a half sister? A Had two half brothers.
Q Did he have a half sister? A Had several half sisters.
Q Who did they marry? A Different persons; I knew the names of all of them but I have a bad memory, but I know that there was one, a Mrs. Ibbie Wolfe, and Mrs. Lamar, she was first a Mrs. Nicholson and she became a Mrs. Lamar and lived in Alabama and never come to this country, but she has grandchildren in this country.
Q Well, did any of your father's sisters or half sisters ever marry a Rogers? A No, sir.
Q Never had any Rogers kin-folks? A No, sir, I certainly would have heard of them through my family, there was a great many of the kin-folks I never saw, but I heard of them.
Q The Dawson case was talked of here for many years, they claiming kin?
A I never knew until I understood they claimed to be kin to the Vanns, and I flatter myself that my family was prominent enough that they never claimed kin.
Q They never claimed kin at all? A No, sir.
Q Did your father ever had a sister or half sister by the name of Annie, Anna or Alsey? A No, sir.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to all the testimony of this witness because it is incompetent and irrelevant.

Q Who was your father? A Samuel Riley Dawson.
Q What did you say your father's name was? A Riley Dawson.
Q Do you know what his full name was? A Samuel Riley Dawson.
Q What children had your father? A Why, he has got, you mean his first children or his whole family?
Q I want all of his children? A I don't know, I will have to count a while on them, there was nine or ten of them.
Q Just one or two of them I care for; is Mrs. Lewis your sister?
A Yes, sir.
Q Your full sister? A Yes, sir.
Q Was she a daughter of S. R. Dawson, Jr.? A Yes, sir.
Q Now who were the parents of your father, , Samuel Dawson?
A Why Sam Dawson was his father.
Q Sam Dawson was his father? A Yes, sir.
Q What was Sam Dawson's wife, if you know their family history, what your father said or what your grandfather said? A I have heard that she was a Pruitt, my father said; of course I don't know.
Q What was her given name? A Annie.
Q Did you ever see your grandfather, Samuel Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Saw him? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know about how old he was when he died? A He was somewhere up about 90.
Q About how old were you when your grandfather died? A I don't remember exactly how old I was, I must have been somewhere near 13 years old when my grandfather died.
Q Was your father his youngest child? A Yes, sir.
Q D you know about when your father was born? A Well, no, I don't, he died in '90 and he was 67 years old.
Q He died in about '90 and was about 67 years old when he died?
A Yes, sir.
Q And he was the youngest child? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, do you know how many children your grandfather had , that is brothers and sisters of your father? A I heard him say seven.
Q Well, did you ever hear your father or grandfather speak of whether or not your grandmother was a white woman or an Indian?
A Well, I heard my father speak about it, I don't know that I ever heard my grandmother say anything about it.
Q Well, what did he say about it? A I have heard him say his mother was not an Indian.
Q Did you fathercome here and apply once for citizenship?
A Yes, sir.
Q Was he admitted? A I think not.
Q Did you hear him make any statements about he ground he expected to get in? A He said his brothers had proved their rights here and if his brothers had any rights he did, but I don't know.
Q Well, in that connection did he say whether his mother was an Indian or white woman? A Never heard him say that his mother was a white woman in speaking about that, I don't know whether he said anything about that or not; I have heard him say his mother wasn't no Indian.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness because it is wholly irrelevant and incompetent.

Q About how old were you you suppose when your grandfather died? A About 6.
Q Was your father's birth recorded in the family Bible? A Yes, sir.
Q You know whether your grandfather's record of marriages and deaths were recorded in any Bible or not? A I was, but we haven't it.
Q What became of it? A Got burned.
Q Well, about what year do you remember that your father, Samuel Dawson was born? A I believe it was '23.
Q In 1823? A Yes, sir.
Q And how old was he when he died, if you recollect? A He was between 64 and '7.
Q Did you ever hear your father speak of his relations, his father and brother, as to whether they were white people or Indians? A Yes, sir, they were white people.

Q. You know whether in the family you grandmother was spoken of by the name of Annie, always? A Yes, sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness because it is wholly irrelevant and incompetent.

ALEX S. LEWIS, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Alex S. Lewis.
Q What is your post-office? A Dawson, Indian Territory.
Q How old are? A 59 years.
Q What was your wife's maiden name? A Elizabeth Paralee Dawson.
Q Who was your wife's father and mother? A Her father was Samuel R. Dawson and her mother was the wife of Samuel R. Dawson, did you want her maiden name?
Q Well, if you know the maiden name of your wife's mother, state how you know it? A Well she was called Margarett, Margarett Queen was her maiden name.
Q The maiden name now of your wife's father's mother? A Why the maiden name of my wife's father's mother?
Q Yes, sir? A From what her husband and my father-in-law told me it was Annie Pruett.
Q What was the name of your wife's father's father? A My wife's grandfather on her father's side, Samuel Dawson.
Q And his wife's maiden name was Annie Pruett? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you know the old gentleman, Samuel Dawson, you wife's grandfather? A Yes, sir.
Q Personally? A Yes, sir.
Q What opportunities had you to get acquainted with him? A He lived with his youngest son, my father-in-law, and visited us, my wife and I, after we were married, stayed with us quite a while; I lived near my father-in-law and we visited very often.
Q When did he die? A '74.
Q Have you any particular method of recalling that date? A Well, I was away from the house when he was taken sick, and they sent for my wife and myself, and so when I got home my wife had gone to her father's to see her grandfather, he was sick, and I remember my first wife was a baby at that time.
Q And when was your first child born? A He was born December, '73.
Q You know how old your wife's father was when he died? A Why he was up in 60, but I don't remember his age.
Q Did the old original Samuel Dawson ever tell you his age? A Yes, sir, several times.
Q How old was he at the time of his death? A He was passed 94.
Q Did he ever tell you whether or not his wife Annie Pruett had any sister or brother? A Told me she only had one brother named Bob Pruett.
Q Have any of the members of the family named their children after him? A Make it a little plain, it is a little long; my wife's oldest brother was a particular favorite of his grandfather, and he always took this boy with him everywhere, and he has named one of his,- oldest child for this brother-in-law who was a particular favorite of his grandfather; named it for him I understood.
Q Now, what is him name? A Of course I don't know why he named it, but he gave him the name of Robert Pruett, and I understand it was on account of his grandfather thinking so much of Robert Pruett.
Q Did you ever hear the old Samuel Dawson speak of his brother-in-law? A Yes, sir; I have heard him say that he wished he knew what had become of Bob Pruett, he never had heard of him for a long time; didn't know where he was, or whether he was alive or not.

Q Now, I want the children of Samuel Dawson and Annie Pruett, how many of them did you know, first? A How many did I know personally?
Q Yes, sir? A John James, and Samuel R. Those were the only ones of his children that I remember personally.
Q Well, remember what you know of the family, what other children did he have? A Well he had two girls, as I understand the family history, he had two girls, first, and John Dawson was the third child, and the oldest boy was John Dawson.
Q Was John Dawson the oldest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q Which was the oldest girl? What is she known by now? A I think it was Mrs. Petty, nee Bettie Dawson.
Q And John Dawson was the oldest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q And Samuel R. Dawson was the youngest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q You know anything about the time John Dawson was born, have you any way of coming at it, the oldest boy? A Yes, sir, I know what the oldest son and his wife told me.
Q What was that? A They said he was born in 1811.
Q Who was his oldest son? A Toliver H. Dawson; told me his father was born in 1811.
Q Do you remember now whether the old man had occasion to say whether his wife, Annie Pruett was an Indian or White woman, or ever said anything about it? A I know what the old man said that she was, I don't know that I ever heard the question approached in that way, I have heard him speak as to her blood, but it was in a different way that he reached it.
Q What blood did he say she was? A Well he said that she was the daughter of Mrs. Pruett, a white woman; and that her father was Captain John Rogers, a white man who lived with the Cherokee Indians, and traded with them.
Q Did he say who Captain John Rogers afterwards married? A Said he had a wife in the Cherokee Nation.
Q But that Annie Pruett was not her child? A No, sir, she was the child of Mrs. Pruett.
Q A white woman? A Yes, sir, that was the half sister of Bob Pruett.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness, because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

Q Did ever you apply for citizenship here? A Yes, sir; for my wife.
Q When? A My father-in-law made the application, I don't know exactly when it was, I think probably about '86, I couldn't say as to the date.
Q Before the Cherokee authorities? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he file an application before the Dawes Commission in 1896 also? A Him.
Q Yes, sir? A I don't think he did, no sir.
Q Did you? A I did.
Q On account of your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you make affidavit to that application? A No, sir.
Q Who did? A I don't know, don't remember now.
Q You applied for your wife as an Indian by blood didyou not?
A Yes, sir.
Q Are you still an applicant? A No, sir.
Q Is she? A No, sir.
Q She was denied was she? A Yes, sir.
Q Was there an appeal taken from that? A Application was filed if I remember, before the Dawes Commission, and they rejected the same, and then I appealed it to the District Court, and it was rejected there and then I stopped.

Q Have you ever been arrested for any crime? A Yes, sir.
Q What? A Charge of murder.
Q Anything else? A No, sir.
Q Committed on the train? A Yes, sir.
Q In a train robbery? A Yes, sir, in a train robbery.
Q How long did you remain in jail? A Appealed the case to the Supreme Court, and it was reversed and sent back, and I was acquitted on that charge.
Q That all the crime you were ever charged with? A Yes, sir.
Q Haven't you been having some trouble with the Dawson family?
A Well me personally I have no trouble with any of them, there is one of my boys and one of W. A. Dawson's sons-in-law had some trouble.
Q You are not friendly with the Dawson family? A That son-in-law Mr. Wooley, and myself, don't speak, and I don't think his wife speaks to me either.
Q Well you are claiming some sort of lease on the Wooley farm, aren't you? A No, sir, I don't claim any lease on the Wooley farm.

B. W. ALBERTY, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q State your name? A B. W. Alberty.
Q What is your post-office? A Tahlequah.
Q What is your present official position in the Cherokee Nation?
A Assistant Executive Secretary of the Cherokee Nation.
Q As such have you charge of the citizenship records and books etc. of the Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you made search recently for the original records in the various cases of the Dawson family before citizenship courts in Council? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you got what records you found with you? A I find what's supposed to be the original papers in the case, all that I could find. (Produces papers and hands to Nation's attorney.)
Q Where did you find these papers? A I found them in the desk in which papers of that character are filed away in the Executive Office at Tahlequah. (Applicant's attorneys examine papers produced by witness.)

No. 102 Robert Dawson, et al.
vs.
Cherokee Nation,

Testimony for Claimants.

Witness:

Dr. Baker sworn testified as follows. My name is Arthur Baker I reside at Berrivill, Arkansas, Carroll County, my age is 73 years, I am not a Cherokee, I lived in the Cherokee Nation about three years when I first came to Arkansas I have been acquainted with him since he became a citizen of Carroll County some thirty five years (line drawn through the last three words.) 35 years at my mother's house near Calhoun I became acquainted with the claimants Robt Dawsons grandmother on mother's side, she was frequently at my mother's house; though she Anna Pruit lived in the Nation side. She claimed to be a half sister to Big Joe Vann, also claimed to be half Cherokee; the first time she brought the claimant's mother to my mother's house she the claimant's mother was about grown, when I was a lit le boy she called her daughter Polly Rogers child Capt. John Rogers who ran a boat up the river was the father of the child; I saw the girl frequently there at my mother's and there at Louis Rogers Store I saw her occasionally until I was 15 or 16 years old and I think then Old Capt John Rogers took her off to school. I saw her no more from the time Old Capt. John Rogers took her off till I saw her here in Arkansas the wife of Old Samuel Dawson. I stayed all night there and saw and I had a talk over our old matters, and I asked her when she became acquainted with Dawson and she said at the time she was going to school. And she said after she left school that Dawson followed her home to the Nation and they were there married. I have told that precisely in the words she used.

Capt John Rogers claimed to be one fourth Cherokee, the claimant is the son of Polly Rogers and I know Polly Rogers to be the daughter of Anna Pruet, and I know the claimant to be the son of Polly Dawson Capt Rogers then resided in the Cherokee Country about twelve miles from Calhoun on the Hiwassee River.

Anna Pruet resided in the Cherokee Nation as long as I knew the Dawsons when I got acquainted with them Arkansas were recognized where they were as Cherokees, Robt Dawsons children is Buck, John, Marion, and two girls; the children named in the petition I recognize as being the claimants.

Question by Solicitor:
Ques. 1 How many children did Polly Rogers have?
Ans. 1 Five, I think that's all.
Ques. 2 Did you say something about someone being married twice?
Ans. 2 The claimant was married twice.
Ques. 3 Could Anna Pruet speak Cherokee?
Ans. 3 Yes she could speak it well
Ques. 4 Did Polly Rogers speak Cherokee?
Ans. 4 She could when she was young.
Ques. 5 How far did you live from Anna Pruet?
Ans. 5 Just across the river about 3/4 of a mile.
Ques. 6 Was Calhoun in the Cherokee Nation?
Ans. 6 It was on both sides of the river, part in the Nation and part out in the State.

Ques. 7 Which Marriage was it went to Texas?
Ans. 7 George went first then John went they were the sons of old man Marriage that lived up here near the line.
Ques. 8 Did the claimant go to Texas?
Ans.8 No the claimant didn't go to Texas.
Ques. 9 What connection was claimant and Polly Rogers?
Ans. 9 The claimant is the son of Polly Rogers Marion here is the grandson of Polly Rogers.
Ques. 10 Where does claimant now live?
Ans. 10 He lives in Carroll County, Arkansas.
Ques. 11 Do you know what relation old Captain John Rogers was to Charlotte Rogers here in Coowescoowee?
Ans. 11 They claimed kin but what kin I dont know there were two Capt. John Rogers' in the Nation I am speaking of the time when I first came to this 1830 Country about the year 1830.
Ques. 12 Was Anna Pruet the maiden name of Claimant's grandmother
Ans. 12 Yes that was her maiden name the Indians called her Since.

"Now this day comes the above case for final hearing, Samuel R. Dawson, bases his application for readmission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the ground that he is the son of Samuel Dawson a white man, Polly Rogers the alleged daughter of Captain John Rogers and Chilsey Pruitt, said to be a half sister of Joseph Vann, commonly known as Rich and who was of Cherokee blood. It is admitted that John Rogers and Chilsey Pruitt died before the roll upon which their names would appear if living at the time and specified in the 7th section of the Act of Dec. 8th, 1893, creating the Commission on Citizenship, were made but in support of the application it is urged that certain members of the Dawson family and full brothers of the applicant were re-admitted to citizenship by the Commission on Citizenship certainly known as

"The Tehee Court", and the "Spears Court", and are now residing as citizens in the Cherokee Nation. In the opinion of this Commission the sufficiency of the considerations which determined the decision of those Commissions of the testimony now introduced to authorize the admission of the present applicant is not relivent to the issue now pending. The 7th section of the Act of December 8th, 1886, before named provides, that "The Commission shall give a hearing to any paerson applying for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the ground of Cherokee blood or descent, but such applicant must be a person, or the lineal descendant of a person whose name appears upon the census rolls of Cherokees taken by the United States," As are hereafter enumerated. Neither the name of the applicant nor that of the person of whom he claims to be a lineal descendant appearing upon eitherof said rolls the Commission adjudge and decree that Samuel R. Dawson and family are not entitled to re-admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as Cherokees by blood. This opinion includes the cases of Andrew J. Dawson, James K. P. Dawson, Jounnah Barber nee Jounnah Dawson and Jane Queen, nee Jane Dawson, and their families, as enumerated in their respective applications.

Commission's No.....
for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

Your respondent, S. H. Mayes, Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, comes now and demurs the said application, and for the grounds thereof says:

1st. That this Commission has not jurisdiction over the parties or subject matter of this controversy.

2nd. That the application does not state facts sufficient if true, to show that the applicant . . . entitled to citizenship.

Respondent not waiving his aforesaid demurrer, but insisting upon the same for answer to said application, says that John Rogers through whom the petitioner claims to derive right to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, is not now, - . . and has not been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, since the removal of said Nation, west to the Indian Territory, as at present located and defined; that his name does not appear on any of the authenticated rolls of said nation; that neither any of his ancestors now remain, or ever have resided in the Cherokee Nation and Indian Territory, as citizens thereof.

See case Nation's No. 1573.

Having fully answered, your respondent asks to be hence dismissed.

It is admitted that John Rogers was Chilsey Pruett died before they could be made. That their names would appear if living at the time, as specified in the 7th Section of the Act of December 8th, 1898, creating the Commission on Citizenship were made, but in support of the application it is urged that certain members of the Dawson family the full brothers of the applicant were admitted to citizenship by the Commission on Citizenship commonly known as the "Tehee Court" and "Spears Court" and are now residing as citizens in the Cherokee Nation. In the opinion of this Commission the sufficiency of the commission which determined the decisions of such Commissions or the testimony now introduced to authorize the admission of the present applicant is not relevant in the issue now pending. The 7th Section of the Act of December 8th, 1898, does not provide that the Commission examine into any person applying for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the grounds of Cherokee blood or descent, but such applicant must be a person, or the lineal descendant of a person whose name appears upon the census rolls of Cherokees taken by the United States, hereinafter mentioned, neither the name of the applicant nor that of the person of whom he claims to be a lineal descendant appearing upon either of said rolls, the Commission adjudge and decree that Samuel P. Dawson and family are not entitled to re-admission of citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as Cherokees by blood. This opinion includes the cases of Andrew J. Dawson, James M. P. Dawson, Jonathan Barber, nee Jonathan Dawson, and Jane Queen, nee Jane Dawson and their families as enumerated in their respective applications.

VS

[illegible] NATION, APPELLEE.

PETITION FOR APPEAL FROM THE DECISION OF THE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

- - - - - - - - - - - - - -

Come the appellants in the above entitled cause and petition the Court to grant an appeal in said cause from the decision of the Commission, known as the Dawes Commission, created and empowered to treat with the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians, to-wit: the Cherokee, Creek, Choctaw, Chickasaw, and Seminole Indians, and to make up and decide applications for citizenship in the said Five Civilized Tribes, which decision by said Commission was rendered by authority of, but not in accordance with, an Act of Congress passed and approved June 10th, 1896, and by which decision on the 29 day of October, 1896 the aforesaid appellants were denied their rights to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory.

The facts relied upon by the appellants to establish their rights to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, as aforesaid are as follows: to-wit: The affidavits of E. Dawson, S. F. Dawson [illegible]. A. Dawson, F. M. Dawson.

Said affidavits fully and conclusively establishing the fact that said applicants are Cherokee Indians, by blood and descent, and entitled to rights of citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

Said affidavits, together with the application, of said appellants, were, prior to September the 10th, 1896, filed with and submitted to said Commission for its investigation, consideration and decision.

That a certified copy of said application, together with the accompanying affidavits, was served upon the Chief, or Attorney General, of said Nation, prior to September the 10th, 1896.

The errors of the Commission in rejecting the claims for citizenship of said appellants are the grounds for appeal to the Court, to-wit:

FIRST. The Commission erred in rejecting the testimony on said claims adversely to the appellants and against the proof submitted by said appellants.

SECOND. The Commission erred in sustaining the claims of appellants and denying the same by the vote of a majority of the members of the Commission.

THIRD. The Commission erred in rejecting the said claims the right and privilege of examining the proof submitted by appellee in support of the claims filed by appellants and of cross-examining the witnesses testifying in behalf of said appellee and of giving the appellants the right of filing objections to appellee's answer or proof in support thereof, at a trial of said cause.

FOURTH. The Commission erred in denying the claimants the right of a trial of said claims by a competent jury, as provided for by the laws controlling the Commission in the matter.

FIFTH. The Commission erred in refusing to allow the claimants to be present in person, or by attorney, upon the trial and determination of their claims by said Commission.

SIXTH. The Commission erred in refusing to issue process for witnesses and [illegible] requested by the appellants to be sworn in the cause.

SEVENTH. The Commission erred in deciding against the right of these appellants to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

EIGHTH. The Commission erred in deciding against the claimants, [illegible] basis for the establishment of citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

NINTH. The Commission erred in deciding against the claimants upon the ground, [illegible] that by reason of the fact of citizenship in the Creek Nation they were not entitled to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

TENTH. The Commission erred in not entering upon their docket or record the [illegible] claims of appellants were denied [illegible] upon the grounds of denial or rejection.

ELEVENTH. The Commission erred in examining the claims, proof of appellants and denying the same while the Commission was not clothed with any legal authority, nor had jurisdiction, to render decision on said claims and deny the same.

TWELFTH. That the Act of Congress of June 10th 1896, was unconstitutional and void in so far as it attempted to confer jurisdiction on said Commission to determine the rights to citizenship of said appellants, and said Commission erred in determining the rights of appellants to said appellants.

THIRTEENTH. That Congress had no power by any act or treaty, agreement or compact to authorize, or empower a judiciary, or said Commission, to deny the claims of said appellants without due legal authority to do so.

Wherefore, the appellants pray that an appeal be granted to this court from said decision, and that said claims be certified [illegible] to the Secretary of the Interior, and that said decision be reversed, and that said claims be allowed, and for [illegible] proper in the premises.

at this Court ... plead and defend against the ... appeal ... may the appellants should not by the rules, orders and decisions of this Court be adjudged entitled to citizenship in the said Cherokee Nation, and the appellants will ever pray.

BY MR. WOOLLEY:

We now introduce the original report of the citizenship [illegible] Irene J. Rouse, et al., before the Commission in 1896, the court number of [illegible], said case being finally decided by the Commission; appealed to the United States Court, and the decision of the Commission affirmed.

In this case I desire to call especial attention to the certified copy filed therein of the testimony of Arthur Miller, the certified copy having been made in 1894, being the testimony of Mr. Miller in the case of Robert Lawson against the Nation, [illegible], the citizenship of which Lawson, and which was made January 1, 1882.

BY MR. MAYES: We all objection the applicants object, because the same is immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

The papers in Case No. 288, just introduced above, are as follows:

"Office of Commission on Citizenship,
Cherokee Nation, Tahlequah, January 19, 1882.

No. 108.
Robert Dawson et al) Docket C.
vs)
Cherokee Nation.)

Testimony for Claimants.

Witness, Mr. Arthur Fuller sworn examined as follows:
My name is Arthur A. Fuller I live at Berryville Arkansas Carroll County I am a citizen of the U.S. I am not a Cherokee. I lived in the Cherokee Nation about three years then I first came to Arkansas I have been acquainted with Mr since he became a citizen of Carrolls former more 20 years - at my Fathers house near Calhoun I became acquainted with the claimants Robt Dawson grandfather on mother's side she was frequently at my Fathers house the time she Anna Pruett lived in the Nation side; She claimed to be a half sister to Bi; Joe Vann, also claimed to be half Cherokee, the first time she brought the claimants mother to my fathers house she the mothers mother was about grown when I was a little boy. She called her daughter Polly Rogers, Said Captain John Rogers who ran a boat up the River was the father of the child; I saw the girl frequently there at my fathers and there at Louis Ramses Store.

I saw her occasionally until I was 15 or 16 years of old and I think then Old Capt. John Rogers took her off to school, I saw her no more from the time Old Capt. John Rogers took her off till I saw her here in Arkansas the wife of old Samuel Dawson, I stayed all night there and I had a talk over our old fathers and I asked her where she became acquainted with Dawson and she said at the time she was going to school and she said after she left school that Dawson followed her home, to the Nation and they were there married. I have told that precisely in the words that were used, Capt John Rogers claimed to be one fourth Cherokee. The claimant is the son of Polly Rogers, and I know Polly Rogers to be the daughter of Anna Pruett and I know the old man to be the son of Polly Dawson.

Capt. Rogers took position in the Cherokee Country about twenty (Word "twenty" scratched out) twelve miles below Calhoun on the Hiwassee River. Anna Pruett resided in the Cherokee Nation as long as I stayed there then I left the Nation when I got acquainted with her Arkansas her residence there they were as Cherokees. Robert Dawson's children is Nick, John, Marian and the girls, the ones named in the petition I recognized as being the children.

Question by Solicitor:

No. 1 How many children did Polly Rogers have?
Ans. 1 Five I think that's all.
No. 2 Did you ever see that man Dawson who is claimed to be a Cherokee twice?
Ans. 2 The claimant was there at twice.
No. 3 Could Anna Pruett speak English?
Ans. 3 Yes, she could speak it well.

Ques 4 Did Polly Rogers speak Cherokee?
Ans. 4 She did when I was young.
Ques 5 How far did you live from Ft Gibson?
Ans. 5 Just across the river about 3/4 of a mile.
Ques 6 Was Calhoun in the Cherokee Nation?
Ans. 6 It was on both sides of the river part in the Nation and part out in the state.
Ques 7 Which Harnage was it went to Texas?
7 George went first, then John went, they were the sons of old man Harnage, that lived up near the line.
Ques 8 Did the Claimant go to Texas?

I, [illegible] personally appeared before me, a notary public according to law [illegible] and say:

My name is F. M. Dawson; I am 54 years of age; my post-office address is Afton Indian Territory I am a farmer by occupation and reside in the Cherokee Nation.

I am a recognized Cherokee citizen by blood. I am born in Carroll County Arkansas near Berryville. I derived my Cherokee Indian blood from my grandmother whose maiden name was Polly Rogers through my father Robert Dawson, My grandmother Polly Rogers was a Cherokee Indian and was married to Samuel Dawson by grand father in the old Cherokee Nation in Tennessee. My grand parents Samuel Dawson and his wife Polly came west over the Old Cherokee Country in about 1[illegible] and settled in Western Arkansas and later came on to the Indian Territory and the father of this affiant Robert Dawson and family settled in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, Robert Dawson, the father of the affiant was also a recognized citizen of the present Cherokee Nation by reason of his more Indian blood.

The said Robert Dawson father of this affiant and Elizabeth Dawson who married John Petty were full brother and sister by blood, both being children of said Samuel Dawson and his wife Polly Dawson whose maiden name was Polly Rogers The said Elizabeth Petty was the mother of Joanna Barber who is a full cousin by blood of this affiant in the Indian side. The said Joanna Barber is the mother of Irene J. House nee Barber who is a second cousin of this affiant in the Indian side.

This affiant further states that he has seventy five to a hundred blood relatives who reside in the Cherokee Nation and are recognized Cherokee Indians by blood and draw their per capita money all the last payment; said citizens and relatives derived their Indian blood from the same source that the above named Irene J. House, derives her Indian blood and right.

This statement I have made to John H. Koehler, a Notary Public in Muskogee Indian Territory and it has been written down by him at my dictation. Such part of this testimony which refers to matters occuring previous to my recollection I know by means of family history and traditions which facts I have always been taught and told of by my parents and grand parents from childhood up, the facts stated as occuring since my childhood I know of my personal knowledge. Affiant further states that he is not personally interested in the prosecution of the application of said Irene J. House for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

E. Dawson, being duly sworn according to law on oath states: My name is E. Dawson; I am 61 years old; my post office address is Talala, Ind. Ter. I am a farmer by occupation, and reside in Coo-cooscoo-e District- Cherokee Nation. I am a recognized Cherokee Indian by blood, and exercise all the rights and immunities of a Cherokee citizen now living in the present Cherokee Nation. I was born in Carrol County Arkansas near Berryville. I derive my Cherokee Indian blood from my grandmother Polly Rogers through my father, Robert Dawson. My grandmother Polly Rogers was a Cherokee Indian, and she married to my grandfather Samuel Dawson in the old Cherokee Nation in Tennessee. My Grand Parents, Samuel Dawson and his wife Polly Dawson (nee Polly Rogers) left the old Cherokee Country in about the year 1828, and settled in Western Arkansas, and later on moved to the Cherokee Nation. My father Robert Dawson was a recognized member of the Cherokee Nation when he died, by reason of his Cherokee Indian blood.

The said Robert Dawson, the father of this affiant, and Elizabeth Dawson who married John Petty were full brother and sister by blood, both being children of the said Samuel Dawson and Polly Dawson his wife she being the same Polly Rogers as aforesaid. The said Elizabeth Petty was the mother of Joanah Barber who is a full cousin by blood of this affiant on the Indian side, the said Joanah Barber is the mother of Irene J. House, whose maiden name was Irene J. Barber and a second cousin of this affiant on the Cherokee Indian side. This affiant further states that he has seventy five to a hundred blood relatives who reside in the Cherokee Nation and are recognized Cherokee Indians of the present Cherokee Nation and exercise all the rights and privileges of such Cherokee citizens, they having drawn their shares of the strip money at the last per capita payment made by the Cherokee Nation.

Said citizens and relatives derived their Cherokee Indian blood from the same source, as did the above named Irene J. House.

I have made this statement before J. Berrickler, Notary Public at Talala, Ind. Ter, and affiant further states that he has no personal interest in the prosecution of the claim for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation of the said Irene J. House.

That the above facts given are within the personal knowledge of the affiant or within his years of discretion he knew personally, and that the facts were secured before the recollection of affiant he testifies to the facts that he knows to be true of his family history and blood.

That the relationship existing between his people in the Cherokee Nation he knows from his personal knowledge and that they are related to the Cherokee Indian side.

Mr. W. A. Gibson, Special Master to whom this case was referred, submits the following report: (Insert report)

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT IN THE INDIAN TERRITORY.

NORTHERN DISTRICT AT MUSCOGEE.

IRENE J. HOUSE ET AL

VS

THE CHEROKEE NATION.

) 33% REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER.

----------o0o----------

I, M. A. Gibson, Special Master herein, sho[illegible] the Court [illegible] under the general order herein, I have examined the proof and pleadings on file in this case which are [illegible] part of this report, [illegible] I find as follows:-

I

That this case is in reality a branch of Case No. 86, Joanna Barber vs Cherokee Nation, the principal claimant herein being Irene J. House a daughter of Joanna Barber.

That this case was instituted on September [illegible], 1896 at which time application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for citizenship by blood in the Cherokee Nation.

That this case was tried by the said Commission on November 24, 1896 and the applicants denied, no reasons being given for the decision, and that on January 26, 1897, the parties appealed from said decision to this Court.

That this application was made by Irene J. House, her husband, T. J. House, and their children Thos., S. Stanton T., and Henry V. House. That they filed in support of the application the affidavits of Joanna Barber, [illegible] Duncan, Arthur A. Baker, E. Dawson, and W. A. Dawson. That these Dawson witnesses are citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and state that they are related by blood to the claimants herein on the Cherokee side. The claimants base their contention of a right to Cherokee citizenship upon the fact that the claimant Irene J. House is the daughter of Joanna Barber, who is the daughter of Elizabeth Petty, who was the daughter of Polly Rogers, and that Polly Rogers was the daughter of Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann, who were recognized Cherokee citizens by blood. That the testimony shows that this Dawson family are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that the claimants herein are cousins by blood upon the Indian side, and that they all claim through a common ancestor, Polly Rogers a d Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann, who were all recognized Cherokee Indians.

II

The appellee introduces in defense the record of the application of these claimants to the Cherokee Commission on citizenship in the year 1897, and the record of the rejection of the claimants, and the affidavits of T. J. Rogers, and Mrs. Sarah Carter, a granddaughter both of whom state that they never heard of any daughter of Captain John Rogers by the name of Polly Rogers, and that he had only one daughter, whose name was Cynthia.

III

The Claimants contend that they are recognized members of the Cherokee Nation and are relatives of the Rogers, who are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood, are entitled to be admitted to the Cherokee Nation as citizens by blood, while the appellee contends that John Rogers, through whom the petitioners claim, is not now and has not been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation since the removal west. That his name does not appear on the rolls of the Nation, and that neither he nor his ancestors ever resided in the Cherokee Nation after their removal.

IV

[illegible] ordered, I find that the claimants are [illegible] Captain John Rogers, and that it was [illegible] that in the condition of arrairs at that [illegible] Cherokee Nation, especially owing to the [illegible] of law and of records pertaining to marriage, [illegible] would be the descendants of Captain [illegible] daughter, Polly Rogers, of whom the affiants [illegible] may never have heard.

[illegible] claimants are residents of the Cherokee [illegible] Territory, where they have resided since 1887, [illegible] they are Cherokee Indians by blood.

[illegible] ON BEHALF OF THE APPLICANTS:

D. [illegible], being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

By [illegible]:

Q Please state your name, age and residence? A My name is D. F. [illegible]. I am [illegible] years, my residence, Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q Are you [illegible] enrolled citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood?
Q You [illegible] this case once before did you not, before the Dawes Commission? A I did.
Q Before this Commission I will say, this Commission? A The Dawes Commission? A Why I don't recollect who the Commissioner was, that was taken at Vinita, ex parte.
Q Were you in any way connected with the Cherokee Citizenship Commission of 1893 known as the "Tehee Commission"? A I was Clerk of that Commission.

Q [illegible] length of time? A I don't recollect the exact length of time, I think it was about thirty days, during the continuance of the Commission.
Q [illegible] during its existance were you?
A [illegible]
Q [illegible] Commission when it rendered a decision [illegible] Herbert Dawson et [illegible], as found on page 114, of its [illegible] (witness examines record referred to.) now [illegible] this Commission? A I was.
[illegible] of that Commission were the same as shown by the [illegible] this judgment were they? A The same, yes, sir.
[illegible] of the Commission, Alex Wolfe and F. [illegible] r., that is correct, is it? A That's correct.
[illegible] this case for consideration by that [illegible] before that time had went in the case? A I was.
[illegible] associated with F. M. Dawson, co[illegible] only [illegible] Taylor and Samuel H. Runyon, who were [illegible] attorneys at that time? A I might [illegible] know them. Mr. Runyon; all I know of him was I saw him [illegible] with the suit. I think Mr. Taylor and Mr. Runyon [illegible], I have known them a number of years.
[illegible] Oklahoma citizens were they? A They were.
[illegible] not known generally as a citizenship Attorney?
A I think he was.
Q Do you recollect of Mr. Taylor and Runyon present at the time this [illegible] consideration by the Court? A Why I do not recollect [illegible] Mr. Runyon, I cannot recollect, but I can recollect of seeing Mr. Taylor about the Court room now and then.
Q [illegible] who originally brought the case to the Court for the [illegible] A Let me understand the meaning of that; who brought the case?
Q Who filed up the case? A No, I don't recollect.
Q [illegible] whether that Commission rendered any other decision [illegible] upon this record in that case? A I never had any [illegible] decision.
Q [illegible] or against the applicants? A It was in [illegible] way this: that if there was another decision [illegible] records of the docket now before you, I [illegible] it.
Q [illegible] any journal entry of same ordered by you [illegible] I have [illegible] that it was? A That is the only one that
Q [illegible] you may have in connection with what case?
[illegible] may you may have for your information [illegible]
[illegible] or through any other [illegible]
Q [illegible] said to the Court [illegible] the purpose of the [illegible] however.
[illegible] conduct during [illegible] that I had was [illegible]
[illegible] in the docket toward that Court which [illegible] in securing that judgment? A I never observed anything of the kind; nothing that awakened a suspicion in my mind that he was engaged in that kind of practice.

Q Did Campbell Taylor at any time after the rendition of that judgment pay to you any money as coming through him from Mr. Dawson for any services which you had rendered to him in that case?

A Yes, he paid me some.

Q What amount? A My recollection is that, I think it was a twenty dollar bill. I don't know but I had better go and state the transaction, all about it.

Q Yes, sir. A Mr. Dawson, Wad Dawson, during the trend of the case occasionally applied to me at my desk for writing papers, issuance of a subpoena or transcript, something of that kind. I always treated him with courtesy and proper official consideration. He seemed to appreciate it, and whenever I did anything of that kind for him, says he, I have no money, Mr. Dawson, but I will or I ought to pay you. I told him I made no charge for anything of that kind. And in passing I might state that I never received a cent for any kind of that work which I had been in the habit of doing for various parties before the Court.

After his trial was concluded, in the afternoon a little while before supper time I went to my hotel, The Tahlequah Brick Hotel in Tahlequah; went to my room, felt a little tired, laid down upon the bed to rest. I recollect Mr. Dawson stepped into the room, drew a chair up to the bedside and sat down and expressed himself to his gratification at the outcome of his case, dwelling mostly upon the testimony in the case being so satisfactorily, establishing his Cherokee blood, and that he thought that he was entitled and that he had received justice by the court. I listened to him, and we talked there I guess not ten or fifteen minutes; after a little he says, I must go to-morrow, I think he says to-morrow, I must go home, - he then lived down in Arkansas somewhere. Says he, Mr. Dawson, I believe I owe you something, ought to pay you something. Alluding, as I understood, to these little courtesies that I extended to him at my desk. Says I, I make no charges, Mr. Dawson, for services, if I have done you any good you are welcome. Well, says he, I feel [illegible] to you, I want to pay you. I says, it makes no difference, I will leave that to you. Says he, [illegible] to me, you back home. He shook my hand, [illegible] that I would not have reference to my services at the bank. That [illegible] Mr. Dawson, oh it must have been a year [illegible] a little while on the public domain up [illegible] stayed off that I intended to be a farmer, [illegible] make any other improvements, ever [illegible] in that part of the country to look [illegible] across Mr. Dawson, he had come [illegible] built him a little shanty and [illegible] he was very glad to see me; I [illegible] he said he had moved into the country, [illegible] you are encroaching upon me here [illegible] part of mine, mine had been [illegible] Cherokee law. Well, says Mr. Dawson, I don't [illegible] any wrong, I will pay you [illegible] matter in that way, that [illegible] together that we would [illegible] point. It ran on then for [illegible] think I met him in Vinita, [illegible] money that I owed to you? I [illegible] Taylor.

Well, says he, I gave him some money and told him to hand it to you for me, and, says he, you ask him and he will hand it over to you I guess. Well we parted then. Well, went on for some time, some months; I happened to meet Mr. Taylor in Tahlequah; I met him on the street I think, jocularly I slapped my hand on his shoulder, says I, look here, did Mr. Dawson any money to me by you? He says, yes, and he pulled out what I recollect to be a twenty dollar bill, and handed it to me; I received it, and I received it with the idea that he was compensating me for taking care of him, or something for having his those little services in the court. That is the sum and substance of the whole thing.

Q Was not that twenty-five dollars, Mr. Duncan? A It might possibly have been, my recollection does not serve me exactly, it might have been 25 dollars.

Q Did Campbell Taylor pay you any other money in addition from Mr. Dawson? A Never a cent.

Q Did he on one time pay you fifty dollars out of a hundred dollars which he had received from Mr. Dawson? A Never.

Q Did he on a second occasion pay you fifty dollars out of one hundred dollars which he claimed to have received from Mr. Dawson? A None at all.

Q He paid you no other money than that you have already stated, from Mr. Dawson? A Not a cent.

BY MR. McKENNON: We offer in evidence the judgment of the Cherokee Citizenship Commission before referred to, and ask that it be filed in evidence in the case of every application made by the heirs of Robert Dawson, deceased, or through Robert Dawson, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, said judgment being found on page 114, Records of the Tahlequah Court, 1890 to 1894, cause number 108, judgment dated January 11th, 1893, signed by T. M. Buffington, President, Alex Wolfe, T. F. Thompson, Willis Adams, [illegible] Duncan, Clerk Commission.

The said judgment is recorded in the following words:

Marginal Notes: "Case submitted by claimant January 11th 1883. Case submitted by Solicitor January 11th, 1883."

Q Do you remember how many members of the Court were present when this judgment was rendered, or were all of them? A My recollection upon that point is not positive, but it is my duty to testify upon that I know to be the practice of the Court at the time, seeing the names of all these Commissioners there, I can say with a great deal of positiveness that they were all present, because I never signed the name of one of the Commissioners unless he was present, assenting to it or directing it.

Q The rendition of that judgment was concurred in by all of the three judges? A It was.

Q Mr. Duncan, if there had been a decision rendered the day before in this case while the Court was in session, adverse to these claimants, would you have known it? A I certainly should have known it.

Q Was there any such decision of the Court? A None to my recollection. I can say positively there was not.

Q How many of those judges are now living? A Only one.

Q Who? A Mr. Thompson.

Q Tehee and Wolfe are dead? A Tehee and Wolfe are dead.

Q How long have they been dead, do you know? A I do not know, quite a number of years, I haven't lived where I could know when their death occured, and their death occured perhaps a few days before I got knowledge of it. It is generally understood that they are dead.

Q Do you remember to have seen any other suit of the Duncan family about the Court at that time than this present? A I have been thinking, and I can't call to mind that I ever saw any other Duncan except you, until after there was talk of the case coming up to the rendition of the judgment.

(At this point a party who has been sitting in the room in which the examination is being held, is called forward, sworn on behalf of applicants, and asked to retire until called.)

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Mr. Duncan, when did you become clerk of the Texas Commission Court? A It must have been somewhere in December, 1884, at the time the Commission was organized immediately at the close of the Council in which they were appointed.

Q December 1884? A I think so.

Q Were you doing rendering judgments here in your handwriting in 1883? A The Commission held its Court after they were elected sometime.

Q The Court was elected in 1881 wasn't it? A Well, I say, at the time, I don't pretend to say when the Court was elected, I would have said at the time I was chosen clerk. I was chosen clerk just at the close of the session of the National Council of that year.

Q '84? A I think it was '84.

Q You entered up this judgment rendered January, 1883? A Yes, that was the session of the Commission.

Q That was before you were clerk of it? A Well I held the relationship for some time you know continuously.

Q Well but then you were not the man that you were clerk when the law on these was passed on? A No, I don't mean to say that.

Q How could you be clerk when the law on these was passed on in 1883 when you were not elected until 1884? A I am mistaken in that, '84 came after '83,- it was the year preceding 1883, it must have been '82.

Q Your first entry in the Duncan case is January 16, 1883, isn't it?

Q I don't recollect what my first entry was. (Attorneys show the record to witness) Yes, that is the entry there on the 16th.

Q And that was shortly after you became clerk wasn't it? A Yes, shortly after I became clerk.

Q The case had been entered upon the docket before you became clerk? A I think so, yes; It was entered at the previous term of the session of the Commission.

Q In whose handwriting was the names of the three Commissioners signed to that judgment? A Duncan Judgment?

(Attorney shows record to witness) A That is my handwriting.

Q All three names? A All three names.

Q The record there shows that you immediately gave them that day a transcript of the judgment, do you know who signed that? A Signed the transcript?

Q Yes, sir. A I do not recollect now, this is, did I write?

Q Signed the names to it? A Yes, that's it.

Q You always signed the names of Texas and Waite didn't you?

A I think I did pretty generally; I don't know of their undertaking to write their own names.

Q When Mr. Thurman was there didn't he sign his own name? A Sometimes he did, sometimes he simply authorized me to do it.

Q Have you any recollection of his authorizing you to do it except from the fact ... A you have done it on that score frequently?

A I can't recall the particular instance of authorization, but I can say positively that, consulting the record, I was authorized to put his name there.

Q Will you look at the [illegible] Harvey shows you and referred to [illegible] the names of the Commissioners there? [illegible] these) A I signed that there.

Q You recognize that as your handwriting? A I do.

Q What made you [illegible] you [illegible] Mr. Martin, on looking at the [illegible], and being cross-examined by me, say that it was not your signature and that the signature thereto attached was a forgery of Mr. Thompson? A Occurred in this way: I had no [illegible] it occurs in the case for about nine years. The matter is mentioned in the court [illegible] and quite [illegible] recollected at that time, however, when I gave it [illegible] before the Commissioner, Martin, that that was a correct statement at the time I served by which I signed the names of the [illegible] members of the Commission, [illegible]. The reason either myself or occasionally signed his own name. I based my statement [illegible] upon my knowledge of the rule or practice in [illegible] without comparing the [illegible] and remarks; in answer [illegible] incorrect statement when I said that that was not [illegible] convinced now that it is [illegible] the way it was done.

[illegible] Thompson [illegible] and it himself, but [illegible] handwriting?

A No, I didn't so [illegible] without advisement when I gave in that testimony I subsequently have a better informed and said that it was [illegible] and not entered by Mr. Thompson in the rule, and that [illegible] sees it [illegible] authorized me to [illegible] myself, and I did it.

Q Then you have [illegible] you testified [illegible] you think you have a better [illegible] the signature [illegible] down you did then, and not from [illegible] of your handwriting at present? A I still correct my testimony in reference to my statement in regard to this [illegible], this case.

Q And you would not know [illegible] examine you whether or not that is your handwriting, it was not refreshed by what you consider to be [illegible] I should know it by examining and thinking over the [illegible], I think I should recognize your handwriting, it [illegible] I should be propounded instantaneously without any advisement or reconsideration I might have a mistake.

Q You did recognize the names of Thomas Tyler and Alexander Wolfe as being in your handwriting, is that it? A I was very clear and positive, and so stated, that the rest of those Commissioners were in my handwriting, and I was not certain by reflecting on the rule that they [illegible] given with their own hand, it always attempted me to do it. Hence there is no question in my mind in me and to be handwriting in their signatures.

Q And then the third name, right under it, as compared with your admitted handwriting, you had to wait and learn the facts afterwards to determine whether that is your signature or not? A No, I don't think that [illegible] the circumstances, I know [illegible] and I [illegible] that that [illegible] I [illegible] that [illegible] I [illegible] signing his own name, and I will [illegible] do not [illegible] much deceive [illegible] it [illegible] to [illegible] that [illegible] on that [illegible].

Q You were under an impression at the time you testified in the [illegible] case that you were [illegible] and not yours, didn't you? A Mr. [illegible] I stated that I was very embarrassed at the time I was testifying in regard to the matter I was not certain or not, and after reading it I could see that I was.

Q As he stated, and you too didn't you, that he always [illegible] the original himself when he was present? A I do not recollect what I stated, that I used the word "always", at that time, but at the time I was examined that the deposition was taken by me or not that he did, but when I was called to examine it I was convinced that I was wrong, and personally I am sorry for it.

Q Then you never found out that your testimony [illegible] like a year and a half ago was wrong; until you examined the [illegible] only before yesterday, and even now you're not sure of matters? A I don't know that I have thought of it since that time until yesterday or day before the exhibit.

Q So the only recollection that you have got and the only aid to your recollection that Thompson was present when the judgment was rendered was the fact that you see the name signed to it, in your handwriting, is it? A As a fact,-

Q You can answer that yes or no? A That recalls the matter to my recollection and I recollect now that the court is [illegible] all present at the time that I signed it, I didn't [illegible] their names out of court at all.

Q Was it in the forenoon now or in the afternoon? A I don't recollect whether it was in the forenoon or afternoon.

Q In recollecting that they were all present when the record was signed, do you mean to say that they were all present when the judgment was rendered? A Yes, that is, you mean when the question of admission or rejection was voted upon?

A Yes. A They were present.

Q Did you make up the record at the time that they rendered the judgment, or make a memorandum of it, and then write up the judgment some days afterward? A The record was not written up immediately upon the decision of any case, but I wrote up the record after adjournment, generally in the evening, and presented it next day or when the next session was had, for signature that was the practice.

Q But in this Dawson case you wrote it on the very day that it was rendered didn't you? A I didn't recollect as to that.

Q And gave them a transcript the very day it was rendered? A I don't recollect as to that.

Q And indicated the giving of the transcript on the bottom of the judgment the day it was rendered? A I should say it was given at the date of the transcript.

Q That was a very unusual thing, for you to do in entering up judgments? A To do what?

Q To notice the bottom that you had given a transcript the same day the judgment was rendered? A No, I don't know that there is anything unusual about that.

Q Any other places in that record or more than one in any event that you have ever done that? A I don't recollect, and as I don't recollect of giving anybody else a transcript.

Q That is what I am getting at, you have them a transcript and wrote up your judgment and everything right away? A Pretty promptly after the decision; whether it was the same day or the evening, and [illegible] next day, I don't recollect.

IT NOW BEING THE HOUR OF NOON, IT IS, THE COMMISSION
ADJOURNS UNTIL HALF PAST ONE P. M.

AFTERNOON, THIRTY-1:45, P. M.,-APPEARANCE,-and as in forenoon: D. F. C. BROOM again on the stand.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Do you remember what witnesses were before the Court? A I don't recollect now distinctly except Dr. Baker, I remember him mainly because of the length of his testimony all the time it took to take it.
Q The Doctor was about the only distinct witness there was? A He is the only one now that I can call to mind.
Q There was probably another old darkey that testified was not there? A I have no recollection to that effect.
Q The case was just decided really on Doctor Baker's testimony, he is about the only man that knew anything about the case? A I am not certain that Dr. Baker was the only witness; might have been others that has now escaped my recollection.
Q Doctor Baker's testimony was taken down in writing? A Yes.
Q There was not anybody else taken down in writing was there? A All the testimony that was accepted in the case was taken down in writing.
Q Did you ever see anybody's else testimony in writing except Dr. Baker in that case? A That is not as I recollect, I don't recollect any other but Dr. Baker's.
Q You know whether that was taken immediately before the trial or at the trial or how was it? A It was taken in the presence of the three Commissioners during the session of the Court.
Q You mean the day that the case was decided or how? A I do not recollect whether the case was on trial more than one day, but my impression is that it was.
Q Do you know whether it was the same term of the Court or not? A I think it was the same term of the Court.
Q How many terms a year did that Court have, when and how did they last? A I don't recollect of but serving but one term.
Q Don't recollect the carrying out of terms? A Myself, it seems to me so.
Q You didn't go in until January of 1883 did you; your first record is a record of about the 17th of January 1883, as shown in the book, isn't it? A I don't recollect in that regard.
Q How would they take testimony in the case, then continue it, as how would they generally do about that? A I think they decided on the case at the term in which they took testimony.
Q Can you say whether or not this testimony was taken in this case at the time it was decided or at the next term it was decided, or within a week or two of the time it was decided? A My own recollection is that it was taken at the term in which it was decided; case was taken up, testimony heard that the decision was made at the conclusion of the testimony.
Q Well now, I see on October 4th, 1882, on your docket, the following entry reads: "It is agreed by the parties this case shall finally be disposed of at the next January Term," That would be January, 1883, "If the said suit is present during in same, it will, the case shall be continued to the September Term, 1883; or this case out the decision continues the case till the next January term, 1884." So that I should think if you had a January and a September ter ; and this decision was rendered at the January, 1933 ter. Was Baker's testimony taken during the January, 1933, ter, at the time this decision was rendered? A I find it impossible for me to recollect those facts that are recorded there; although I can say about that, that the record there the correct statement of the facts; but I can't recall those facts.

Q Well there is a record here that this case was continued on the 13th day of January, 1932, when agreed that it should be taken from the 4th day of October, 1932; your record shows that there was nothing done in the case from January 13th, 1932 until October 4th, 1932; would you say that was correct? A I should say it was correct if it so stands on the book; it is designed to be a correct entry of the facts.
Q I will let you see the book for yourself; I don't want to misrepresent your act of it at all. (Shows entry in book to witness.)
A I can't recall those facts in regard to the matter.
Q Who took down the testimony of the witnesses in court? A I took it down.
Q You took down the testimony of Dr. Baker? A Yes.
Q He was cross examined by counsel for the Union? A As to that I don't recollect. He was present, he was always present; I think likely he was cross examined.
Q And that testimony was taken at the time when the decision was rendered in January, 1933? A I think it was, my impression is to that effect.
Q Well the court seems to have had no session as to this case from January 13, 1932 until October 4th, 1932, according to the record? A (No response.)
Q You don't recall taking any other testimony in the case? A No sir, I don't.
Q And the probability is that he was the only witness examined isn't he? A It might have been so. My recollection is that he was regarded as the main witness of the case.
Q He was quite an old man, about 77 at that time? A Yes, he was quite old.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q The testimony of Dr. Arthur Baker, from this record, appears to have been taken January 13th, 1933; is that correct as far as you know, or are able to state? A Is that Dr. Baker's testimony? (Attorney here shows witness papers.) A It appears to me, yes; I don't think that was the testimony that the case was decided upon, because his testimony was taken orally before the Commission, and I wrote it down; where let me see it (Attorney hands said papers to witness.)
A Well, all I know about this is as I stated before me, I can't recall those facts, but whatever the record says why I say that the record was made correct, as applies to the fact. (Witness and counsel confer as to whose testimony.) I don't pretend in reading over very closely to say now recollect, but I gather from the subject matter in that testimony that it is in accord with Doctor Baker's statement; as exactly word for word I am not able to say, but that is the tenor of the testimony.

BY MR. HUTCHINS:

Q In taking the testimony you endeavored to get from all the material facts that you could in behalf of the Union? A Yes, substantially word for word, as I took it down, there was a little variation made necessary by the nature of the witness' statement.

BY MR. McKENNON: Applicants object to all of the witness' testimony relating to the method of taking the testimony of witnesses at the trial, the character and effect of that testimony, and the number of witnesses, except so far as the same may be used for the purpose of testing the memory of the witness, because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

Q What is your business? A Real estate and insurance agent.
Q Do you know T. W. C. Dunbar? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I have known him twenty years.
Q Do you know his general reputation for honesty and uprightness of character where he lives? A Why yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A It is good, so far as I know.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known him? A Well I have known him 18 or 20 years, I guess.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and honesty? A Well yes.
Q Is that good or bad? A Well, it is bad, I think.

ATTORNEYS FOR CHEROKEE NATION waive cross examination.

T. M. CURTIS, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q What is your name? A T. M. Curtis.
Q How old are you, Mr. Curtis? A 56.
Q Where do you reside? A Marlow, Indian Territory.
Q How long have you lived in the Indian Territory? A 20 years.
Q What is your business? A Lumber business.
Q Do you know T. W. C. Dunbar? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A About 20 years.
Q You know his general reputation for honesty and uprightness of character in the community where he lives? A I do.
Q Is that good or bad? A As good as any man's.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A Some 20 years, I suppose.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and integrity and honesty? A Yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A Good.
Q Is it extraordinarily good? A Yes.
Q Did you ever know Dr. Baker, Dr. A. R. Baker, of Perryville, Oklahoma? A Yes sir. I knew him in '98 and '99.
Q Where? A Lived at Perryville. I run a mill in that country at Perryville.
Q Did he enjoy a good reputation as for honesty and uprightness of character and truthfulness? A Yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A Good sir. Good as any man's; he is a good citizen I think.
Q Did you know it well enough to know his habits of life? A Yes sir.
Q Was he in the habit of taking liquor, drinking liquor? A Not that I know, sir. I never saw him take a drink in my life.

Q Was his character such as to preclude any such charge against him? A It was, yes sir.

BY MR. WHITTINGS:

Q How long did you know Dr. Baker? A Two years.

Q What does he do there? A He was an old gentleman then, he lived right in the edge of Perryville, Dr. Baker.

Q How old do you think he was then? A I think he must have been 65 or 70 years old; an old gentleman.

Q That was in 18 what, 68? A No sir, it was in '68 and '69, the two years that I lived over there.

Q He had retired from business? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he have any family? A Yes, sir.

Q What family did he have? A I don't know how much family he had, I was well acquainted with the old gentleman.

Q He wasn't doing any business with anybody? A No sir.

Q And his character was never called in question one way or the other was it? A No sir, no sir.

Q Campbell Taylor was a notorious rascal pretty much ever since you ever knew him wasn't he? A Yes sir, I never knew much good of him.

Q And whenever a man got a bad citizenship case he got Campbell to work it, because he was notoriously a rascal; that's it right in. A Well a great many of them got him.

Q It was a notorious thing that they had a bad case they would get him, it would sort of give a case a bad odor to have Campbell around it? A Yes, that would be right.

Q You never knew anything about Mr. Berman's connection with citizenship matters? A No sir, never did.

Q You never heard about his changing some of the records of citizenship cases? A No sir, never did.

Q You have heard lots of talk about this Dawson order? A Yes sir.

Q Rumor had it all around that somebody was doing something wrong? A Yes sir.

Q You never accused him of it you think? A I never heard him accused of it, no sir.

Q That matter got out from the first day they were exhibited right up to the present? A Well I don't know not from the first day, I have heard it for a good while though.

Q But you never knew who they fixed it on? A No sir.

Q They have been a pretty strong family up there in that country haven't they, pretty large family? A Yes sir.

Q Cast a good many votes up there? A Yes sir.

Q Did you ever know of the Doctor's testifying any in court, Mr. Baker? A No sir, I never did.

Q What would you think of a man who would testify that he knew a girl that was single in 1822 when the youngest of her seven children was born in 1822: What would you think, would you think that was a statement to be made by a man who was truthful? A -

BY MR. McKINNON: Applicants object to the question because it is wholly incompetent, and no basis upon any proof or admitted facts in the case, and it is wholly immaterial and incompetent.

Do you think that was a statement that would be made by a truthful man? A (No response.)

Q You knew him in '68? A Yes sir.

Q He was quite an old, decrepit man? A Yes sir, quite so, in '68 and '69.

Q 14 years from that time he was liable to be in his dotage?
A I don't know, he was an old man when I knew him.
Q He was too old to work, and retired from business then? A Well he did work a good deal, but wasn't doing any business particular that I knew of.
Q He would have been pretty old 14 years from that time? A Yes, he would be getting old.

D. M. HARRIS, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A D. M. Harris.
Q What is your age, Mr. Harris? A I am 46.
Q What is your business? A I am publishing a newspaper.
Q What paper? A "The Indian Chieftain."
Q Are you Editor of that paper? A Yes sir.
Q You live at Vinita, then? A Yes sir.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q By blood or intermarriage? A Intermarriage.
Q Do you know D. W. C. Duncan? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A 18 or 19 years.
Q Do you know his general reputation in the community where he lives for honesty and uprightness of character? A Yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A Good.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A Why 15 years or longer.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and honesty in the community? A His general reputation, yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Well it is not good.
Q Is it bad? A Well I suppose it must be bad then.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q How long has Campbell's reputation been bad, Mr. Harris, quite a good while, hasn't it? A Why I think so, yes sir.
Q And it kind of began mostly with this citizenship business? A Yes, so far as I know it did, yes sir.
Q Campbell got so many bad citizenship cases and through the mails, and they finally had him up about it, had a good deal of stir about it? A Yes sir.
Q And some of that stir was sort of occasioned by his helping the Dawsons in wasn't it? A I don't know, I don't know whether he helped the Dawsons.
Q Was not that one of the principal cases that brought him into notoriety? A I don't know whether he had that case or not, I know he had a great many cases.
Q That was the principal thing that convinced the Grand Campbell out, was citizenship cases here? A I think that is what got him into the most trouble.
Q I say before that time nobody had talked much about Campbell one way or another, and it became a matter of general that Campbell was handling shoddy citizenship cases, and he got a bad reputation from that? A Yes sir, I think that was the impression generally.
Q Now Mr. Duncan's connection with the Dawson case sort of been kept back; people never talked much about it? A I never heard anything about it, as I know of.
Q You have heard that there has been something, some, and in the Dawson case, that has been a notorious thing? A Oh it has been a notorious case, yes sir.
Q Well the fact of Mr. Duncan's reputation for truthfulness has been somewhat given by himself, he confessed it. Now, how is that?

Q His reputation for truthfulness is somewhat given by himself; he takes occasion to confess that very often his word doesn't go?
A I don't know whether I am qualified to answer that.
Q Speaking of his own honesty, he does that very frequently?
A. No sir, not that I know of.
Q Doesn't he write a good deal about that sort of thing? A About his reputation?
Q Why in speaking of his own integrity? A I don't remember that he does.
Q You were not about the citizenship courts along in 1881 '82 and '3 were you? A No sir.
Q Don't remember about the talk that was going on around the Capitol over there about the citizenship cases? A Why now, don't remember anything special as I know of. I remember the citizenship court going on at different times.
Q How far were you living from Tahlequah in '87? A Well, I lived close to Vinita, I guess it is sixty miles probably.
Q Have you lived any nearer Tahlequah since that time? A No sir, never have.

W. L. BUTLER, being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A W. L. Butler.
Q You are a minister of the Gospel? A Yes sir.
Q M. E. Church, South? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been in the ministry? A I have been in the ministry 22 years, sir.
Q Did you ever live at Vinita? A Yes sir.
Q How long? A I was there four years, sir.
Q Do you know D. W. C. Duncan? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A I have known Mr. Duncan 21 years.
Q Do you know his general reputation for honesty and truthfulness of character? A I do.
Q Is that good or bad? A Good, so far as I know.
Q You have had opportunity of knowing? A Yes sir.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q Mr. Duncan was a member of your church? A Yes sir.
Q That is the principal way you had of coming in contact with him? A Yes sir, he was a member of my official board.
Q His connection with citizenship cases that were decided by the court of which he was clerk was never brought to your attention anywhere? A No sir.
Q Or never discussed? A No sir, I know nothing about his connection with it.
Q You didn't live about or near Tahlequah in '87? A Yes sir, I was Pastor of the Methodist Church in fact at Tahlequah.
Q Did you hear about the Dawson case, and other cases that were tried over there by the Citizenship Court? A No sir, I know nothing about the cases; I remember when the Commission was in session, and I remember that he was clerk of the Commission, but knew nothing about the cases that were decided at all.
Q Never heard anybody discuss the cases that were decided? A No sir.

THOMAS A. CHANDLER, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q What is your name? A Thomas A. Chandler.
Q What is your age, Mr. Chandler? A I am 30.
Q What is your business? A Deputy Clerk of the United States Court at Vinita.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Do you know E. T. C. Duncan? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A Let me see, I have known him about nine or ten years.
Q You know his general reputation for honesty or uprightness of character in the community where he lives? A Yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Good so far as I know.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I think about 15 years.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and honesty? A Yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Bad so far as I know.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How did Campbell Taylor get a bad reputation? A Well sir, I don't know how he did.
Q You never knew him until 1885? A Well I never knew him personally, I heard of him before that.
Q He had a bad reputation before '85? A Yes sir.
Q Bad reputation way back yonder? A First I remember I ever heard of him I heard people speaking, but of him, what I was told.
Q And everybody that came around the Nation and knew anything at all knew Campbell had a bad reputation? A Yes sir, ever so far back as '79 or '80, that is as far back as I can remember; I think I heard it spoken of in '80, I think that's about the time.
Q And Campbell got a very bad reputation in '80 and '81 when he began to have these citizenship cases? A Yes sir.
Q You heard him spoken of in connection and using his title for those business? A Yes sir, I heard of him being in the Fort Smith Jail on that account.
Q Citizens of the Nation talked a good deal about Campbell's being in those bad citizenship cases? A Yes sir.
And I also heard he had a bad reputation for paying his debts, also, about the same time.
Q You don't know whether he had the money, he might not have had the money to pay his debts? A No sir.
Q He could have kept out of bad citizenship cases? A Yes sir, I suppose he could.
Q You never heard Mr. Duncan's name mentioned before in connection with the Dawson case, citizenship cases? A No sir, I don't think I have, I may have, but I don't remember hearing it.
Q General impression that somebody had done something wrong with that matter, citizenship cases? A I heard there was no doubt wrong in connection with the Dawson citizenship case.
Q That has always been in notoriety ever since they were settled? A Yes sir, I have heard it rumored around over the country what was the case.

Q They had a pretty large voting capacity up there and it never was never investigated? A I don't know about that, I don't know if it was ever investigated, I never heard of it.

Q So they never made any endeavor to find out who the man was?
A No sir.
Q Where did you live in '87? A In '87 I lived out on Dick Creek about 12 miles south-east of Vinita.
Q How far from Tahlequah was that? A About 65 or 70 miles, I suppose.
Q You never were around before the citizenship courts any during that time? A No sir.
Q You don't know whether or not Campbell had lost all the land cases or not down there? A No sir, I do not, at that time.

BY MR. McKENNON: Applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness as to what is heard by way of rumor, about the character of the Dawson case, because the same is hearsay, immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

A. S. McKENNON, of Counsel for Applicants, being first duly sworn, makes the following statement:

I became a resident of Carroll County, Arkansas, early in 1880. I was intimately acquainted with Doctor Arthur Baker, for many years. Knew him as well as I did anyone else. He was a gentleman of the highest Christian character, as recognized by everybody who knew him. He was a sober man, and never drunk liquor. I make this statement more in vindication of that good man's memory than for any other reason, because any imputation against his character is false.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long did you know him? A I resided in Carroll County until 1887 when I removed to Johnson County, Arkansas; during the time I was away from here, but I knew him intimately every year that I resided in Carroll County.
Q Did you know him since '87? A Yes sir, I have seen him several times. I have relatives living in the town in which he lived; my relations to him were such as to cause me always to inquire about Doctor Baker; I knew his reputation I think as well after I left there as I did when I lived there.
Q Did you know those facts in 1896 when you were a member of this Commission? A Yes sir, I have known them all my life as I know them now.
Q Did you know them when you as a member of this Commission passed on the Irene J. House case? A I knew it every day of my life, in 1896 as well as now.
Q Suppose that Doctor Arthur Baker's statement would appear that he was born in the year 1809, and suppose he said when he was 15 or 16 years of age that Anna Priett the wife of Samuel Dawson, was a grown up girl going to school, then the other undisputed evidence shows that she had married Sam Dawson prior to that time and had seven children, the youngest of whom was born in '45, how would you harmonize that with a man who was an honest man and knew the facts in the case? A Whatever Dr. Baker stated he honestly believed, whether it was right or wrong; whether it was error or truth, he honestly believed it, and stated it as he believed it.
Q He was capable of being in error? A Every man is.
Q I say he was? A Yes sir, just as you and I and every man, he was; I merely stated as to his high character, which can be proven, by every man who knows it I think, I know it.
Q The Commission rejected Irene J. House in 1896, of which you were a member? A I don't remember anything about that personally.

TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF CHEROKEE NATION.

DAVID MEREDITH, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A David Meredith.
Q Where do you reside? A Vinita.
Q How old are you? A 70 years old.
Q Did you ever know Jesse Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I knew him probably 2 years.
Q Did you ever have any talk with him about his citizenship case.
A Very little.
Q You were at one time an applicant before the Dawes Commission for citizenship were you not? A Yes sir.
Q Well what did Mr. Dawson tell you with reference to his citizenship, as to the cost of his getting it, if anything? A Well he told me it cost him eleven or twelve hundred dollars to get his case through.
Q Where did that conversation take place? A At Afton.
Q At what time? A It was in '98, spring of '98.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Where were you when he told you that? A I was working on a house in Afton, building the house.
Q Whose house? A S. S. Haines.
Q Who else was present? A Haines was present.
Q There is not A At Afton.
Q What age man was Mr. Dawson at that time? A I don't know, he was very old, probably 75 years old.
Q Was he not a very feeble man? A Yes sir.
Q Hardly able to get around? A No sir.
Q Was he not then regarded as feeble minded old man? A I don't know whether he was so regarded or not.
Q You don't know what he had to do with the case, in fact, himself, do you? A No, I judged it was himself and family that cost that much to get through attorney's fees, etc. That is the way I took it anyway.
Q You were an applicant yourself were you not? A Yes sir.
Q When? A At that time.
Q Before the Cherokee authorities? A Yes sir.
Q They rejected you? A Yes sir.
Q You were an applicant then before the Dawes Commission were you?
A Yes sir, been rejected ever since.
Q Are you still an applicant? A Yes sir.
Q Still trying to get in? A Yes sir.
Q Claiming by blood? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation? A 18 years.
Q Where did you come from? A Indiana.
Q Claiming to be a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
Q Indian? A Yes sir.
Q Jesse Dawson is dead is he? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A I think he died probably within two years after that.

TESTIMONY TAKEN ON BEHALF OF THE APPLICANTS.

P. [illegible], being re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. [illegible]:

P. H. Dawson? A Yes sir.

Q Mr. Dawson, what number of your family came to the Cherokee Nation to file and prosecute the claim of your father, Robert Dawson, and the members of his family, to Cherokee citizenship?
A My brother from Texas got me at Tahlequah.
Q Tell his name? A Elbert Dawson, they all know him by Buck.
Q When was that? A In '81 as well as I remember, or '82, I don't know which, it was in '81 or '82.
Q Did you file your claim at that time? A My brother was, yes, the application,-my brother had Joel Mayes to make it out and file it. That is my understanding.
Q Joel Mayes, who afterwards was Chief of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Before what court was that filed? A My understanding was he was clerk of the court; Hastings can tell me what court he was clerk of.
Q He was clerk of the Court at that time? A Yes sir, of the citizenship court; that's my understanding.
Q What was done about the case at that time, if you remember? A I went back home and left my brother down there at that time, that trip.
Q Where did you then live? A I lived at Perryville, Ark ansas.
Q When did you next come to the Cherokee Nation? A I believe I come back the next January, that was in September.
Q Was your brother Buck here then? A I don't think he was, I don't remember.
Q Well had he at any term of the Court or session of the Commission at any time after you first came here and filed the application until after it was decided? A No sir, I never met him any more until that case was decided.
Q You conducted the business then after it all did you not? A Yes sir.
Q The case was finally determined in January 1893? A '93, yes sir, the 11th day as I remember.
Q Were you present at that session? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any decision of that case other than the one of record here? A I never heard of it if there was.
Q Was the judgment rendered in that case as recorded in the Record Book of that Commission now in the custody of the Dawes Commission the only judgment that was rendered in that case so far as you know?
A Yes sir, so far as I know, if there was any I never heard of it in that case.
Q You then know of no decision against you in the case? A No sir.
Q Who was your attorney employed at the beginning? A I employed A. H. Norwood.
Q Was he a Cherokee Citizen? A Yes sir, I think so.
Q Where did he live? A At Claremore, my understanding.
Q Was he present at any time before the Commission? A I never saw him, he never met me there befop the Commission.
Q Did you pay him any money? A Yes sir.
Q How much? A Fifty dollars.
Q Did he ever render any services? A If he ever did I never knew it.
Q Well then who did you employ? A My brother employed Joel Bryant.
Q Was he a Cherokee citizen?
A That is my understanding.
Q Was he not a prominent Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
Q What service did he render? A Well sir, I don't know whether he rendered any or not, only he met me a time or two at Tahlequah, and he was before the Commission; whether he rendered any services or not I don't know; he was generally always at Washington City during the Term down there.

Q Well what did he do about it? A I don't know, I couldn't say whether he done anything about it. That is Mr. Bryant, he was always gone.
Q What next was done about this employment of an attorney? A Why I got a letter from Joel Bryant that he was going to Washington City and for me to come down in January Term and Campbell Taylor would see to my claim before the court.
Q Did he say that he had engaged the services of Campbell Taylor the attorney, to attend to it in his absence? A Yes sir, in his absence..
Q Have you got that letter? A I don't think I got the letter.
Q Well what did you do then? A Why when the time come I come down on the 1st to Muskogee here and I goes over from here to Fort Gibson and I goes down to see Uncle Houston Benge and stays all night with him; it was very cold weather, and I got him to go over and submit my case to the court; I went over one day and the next day Uncle Houston Benge come over and the next morning after he come over the case was submitted.
Q Did he submit the case? A Yes sir, he told me so.
Q For you? A Yes sir.
Q Were you present? A I was present until they went to take the vote on the case and then he was drove out of their room and they had a secret session, acting on the case.
Q Was Houston Benge present with you? A Yes sir.
Q Were you in the court when he submitted it to them? A Yes sir, when he made his argument.
Q He made an argument before the Commission? A Yes sir.
Q Was the decision rendered on that day? A Yes sir.
Q How long after he had his argument and submitted the case? A Was not but a little bit; when we were drove out of the house the first time before they went into secret session they wanted me to get up the cigars to the court and the crowd in the house; after the decision was rendered then I was to get up the cigars, and everybody come to me and told me to go and get the cigars and I done so.
Q And you took the cigars there and all? A Yes sir, everybody, the attorneys and all that was in the house, all had a big smoke.
Q Did they then announce their finding in the case? A Yes sir, they told me that I was granted my citizenship right and by the Commission.
Q What did you do about it then? A The the Clerk wrote me out my certificate.
Q That same day? A That same day.
Q What arrangements did you make with Mr. Benge about his fee, and what was the amount of his fee? A There was no arrangement made until we got up there and he submitted our case; then he wanted me to pay him, he charged me fifty dollars, that was his fee.
Q What was the agreement about the matter, the manner in which that fee should be paid? A My brother in Texas was to pay it.
Q Were you to write or was he to write? A He was to write for it.
Q Did your brother in Texas ever pay his fee of fifty dollars?
A Yes sir.
Q Was that all that was to be paid? A All I was to have to pay he charged me.
Q You heard his statement when he gave his deposition at Fort Gibson the other day did you not? A Yes sir

Q He there stated that you paid him fifty dollars before he went over to Tahlequah, did you do that? A No sir.
Q He said that you paid him fifty dollars after he got over to Tahlequah, did you do that? A I never paid him a cent in my life.
Q After that judgment was rendred where did you go to? A I went back home to Arkansas.
Q By what route? A I went by Siloam Springs and on by Spring Dale and then on to Rogers, took the railroad there and went on by Springdale and by Eureka Springs home.
Q You then did not return to Fort Gibson with Mounce Bonge, as he stated? A No sir, I did not.
Q Why did you not return by way of Fort Gibson? A Well I thought maybe the others was the cheap at road and struck a hack going out by Sam Stables where I was boarding at, I could go to Siloam Springs and I went by that route and then there was a hack going by Spring Dale, that was the most direct route.
Q That was the most direct route from your home was it not? A Yes sir.
Q And the cheaper? A And the cheapest route.
Q Had you been coming back to Fort Gibson you would have been going directly away from home would you not? A Yes sir.
Q Your home was nearly east, due east of Tahlequah was it not?
A Yes sir, little north of east, pretty near due east.
Q While Fort Gibson is almost due west is it not? A South west.
Q You heard his statement that you went to Fort Gibson with him, and he says you stated to him that the way to reach the court was through Belton and you reached this through Bunce with five hundred dollars, did you make this statement? A I never did, I didn't have the five hundred dollars to reach him.
Q Did he while at Tahlequah inthe court room on the evening before this judgment was rendered in your favor, tell you that the court had rendered a judgment against you? A No sir.
Q And did you then say to him, you would fix that? A I had no such conversation with him.
Q Did you pay to D. W. C. Duncan, who was the Clerk of the Court any sum of money, or agree to pay him any sum of money, directly or through any other person for any services he might render you by way of influencing the court to decide in your favor? A No sir.
Q Or for any other purpose? A No sir.
Q Did you pay him any money after that through Campbell Taylor?
A Yes sir.
Q What amount? A 20 or 25 Dollars, I don't know which it was.
Q State what that money was paid for? A For a claim.
Q What do you mean by a claim? A Claim on the public domain; he had a claim up there close to me; paid him 20 or 25 dollar for his claim. He had no claim by me, on the Cherokee Public Domain.
Q What did Campbell Taylor have to do with your case?
A He had nothing to do with it.
Q Did you agree to pay him any money for his services as an attorney? A No sir.
Q Did he perform any services in that case foryou as a representative of Mr. Bryant? A No sir.
Q Did you pay him any money? A Yes sir.
Q On that account? A He come to me and said he had the claim against me for Joel Bryant and wanted me to pay him the money and I done so.
Q What amount? A Fourteen Dollars.

Q [illegible] A [illegible]
Q Did he pay it to Joel Bryant, do you know of? A Joel Bryant claimed he didn't, and I had to pay it again, paid Joel Bryant the hundred dollars we owed [illegible]; E. Lucas paid Joel Bryant; after that we never could get a penny from Campbell Taylor, only this twenty dollars or twenty-five dollars; that is all we ever got back from him.
Q How did you get that 25 dollars out of him, you mean? A I kept after him and telling him to pay that money back to me, he rendered no services to me at all and the money was to go to Joel Bryant, and I finally worked out the twenty or twenty-five dollars, that is all I ever did get back.
Q The amount that he paid to Duncan? A Yes sir.
Q Was this money paid to him, this one hundred dollars, while you were there at the time the [illegible] rendered, or was it sent to him afterwards? A I think it was paid then, as well as I remember about it.
Q You think it was paid then? A Yes sir, that's my recollection now.
Q Did you send him [illegible] dollars after you left Ivy Creek there, subsequent to [illegible] of that suit, after it was rendered I learn, direct [illegible] any other sum to D. W. C. Duncan? A No sir.
Q Did you send him a second one hundred dollars with such direction?
A No sir.
Q Mr. Dawson, [illegible] it cost you personally [illegible] to obtain this citizenship in the Cherokee Nation under this judgment? A Pretty near it I do.
Q Well about what sum? A About five hundred dollars, pretty near 500 dollars. That is what I considered, I was beat out of some of my money, what I was beat out of and expenses.
Q Now take a statement of what that money was paid for and now, so far as you remember, itemize it now? Well the first fifty dollars Norwood got; the next fifty dollars Bolze got; that was the attorneys fees; I speak of the attorneys fees now: the next money was the hundred that Campbell Taylor got; the next attorney fees was Bryant's one hundred dollars.
Q Was that all the attorney's fees? A I think it was, no, wait, I paid Ross 15 dollars for taking Baker's deposition.

Q Which Ross was that? A The old Chief, Will Ross I think is his name, William P. Ross.
Q He then, this Chief William P. Ross for taking the deposition of Dr. Baker charged you fifteen dollars? A Yes sir.
Q Do you mean by that that he acted as your attorney and examined him? A Yes sir.
He examined him before the Commission, took his statements.
Q What other attorneys were there present? A None of them was present.
Q Well now, go on? A Why the expenses of taking Dr. Baker and he was a Doctor, as well as I remember he charged me 5 dollars a day and I gave him and his expenses down there; we come through on a boat from Fayetteville, Arkansas, to Oklahoma, and our board and expenses and all I think was about 75 dollars that trip: as everything near it. Maybe a little over that.
Q Did you pay his per diem? A I paid him five dollars a day for his time and then his expenses.

Q Well? A Well I made several trips out here at different times, to Tahlequah before the Commission, and back, three or four times as well as I remember now, cost me 30 or 35 dollars each trip, as I remember about it.
Q Do you remember how many trips aside from the one in which you brought Dr. Baker? A No, I think there was probably three trips I think it was, maybe more, and then I made one trip to Claremore to see A. H. Norwood.
Q What did that trip cost you? A I don't remember what it cost; I went in a wagon down there.
Q You went through and employed Benge, went by railroad; what did that trip cost you? A I don't remember what it was, whether it was 21 dollars or 31 dollars, one or the other, I don't remember which it was; Joe Dawson, my brother gave me the money, it was either 21 or 31 dollars.
Q Now then is there any other expense that you know of that was paid by you or your family, any members of your family, other than that you have mentioned? A I don't remember any other now; I can't call to my memory right now.
Q What was the condition of the members of your family generally now, financially, at that time? A Well we were considered poor people; I don't know, we didn't have much money, scarcely any.
Q Was there any one of them that was better off than the others, and if so, which one? A I suppose Elbert Dawson was better off than the others, Buck Dawson.
Q Do you know how much Buck Dawson paid of these expenses? A I don't think he paid, he paid the Benge debt and the Bryant debt, I think it was.
Q That is one hundred and fifty dollars? A Yes sir, that he came up on one trip and taken some evidence with Joel Bryant when Joel Bryant was Clerk of the Court before this Tehee Court, I don't know what that cost him.
Q Came up he and took some testimony? A Yes, came up and went back to Texas. Filed his claim and took some testimony and went back to Texas and I didn't see him.
Q Did that testimony include Dr. Baker's testimony? A No sir.
Q You know how many witnesses were examined then? A I only know what he told me.
Q How many? A Four witnesses.
Q You know whether they were residence of the Cherokee Nation or not? A He told me they was.
Q Were you present on that trip in which he came there and took that testimony? A No, I met him there and then I went back home and left him at Tahlequah.
Q He had taken the testimony before you left him or afterwards?
A He taken it afterwards; that was my understanding.
Q Did Buck furnish only the one hundred fifty dollars that you now remember? A I think it was.
Q And the expense of taking these witness up there A Yes sir.
Q Who also furnished money now of the members of your family?
A My brothers and father lived down in Perryville, me and my brother-in-law, Blassingame, we all chipped in together a few dollars from each family.
Q You heard the statement of C. C. Brought that in June 1902 you told him that it had cost you 700 dollars, did you make any such statement to him? A I never did.
Q And that you paid one witness 300 dollars? A I never made any such statement.

Q Did you pay any witness any more? A No sir, I paid Dr. Baker for his time; he said his time was worth 5 dollars a day, for his, and I paid it.
Q Did you pay any other witness any more than that? A No sir, he was the only witness I had down there in my case.
Q Well the Robert Dawson case? A Yes sir.
Q He says that you told him this in your house there on your place, did you have any house there in June 1883? A I was not living on my farm at that time.
Q Did you have any farm? A Didn't have any.
Q When did you build a house there? A I built a house on the farm I live in now by Mr. Brought, I moved on the farm the last of July, 1883, and I camped in my wagon.
Q What did you do? A I went to the timber and cut poles and hauled them out and made me a log cabin on the place by a spring near Mr. Brought.
Q About what time did you finish that house? A I think it was in September.
Q How long after you finished that house until you brought your family out? A I finished it up and got it covered and the floor in it and I went back to Eureka Springs after my wife.
Q What family did you have then? A I had my wife and one child; but my oldest children, by my first wife were with me in the Territory, camping with me; three little boys and one girl were with me, and one girl back in Arkansas.
Q Are you and C. G. Brought on good terms? A No sir.
Q What has been the character of the trouble between you? A Trouble over our places first started it.
Q When did it begin? A As soon as I got back from Arkansas he commenced hinder crowding me out to take my farm away from me, and we have been in a racket ever since.
Q Then his statement that you were on friendly terms, is it correct or not? A No sir, it aint correct.
Q He and you have never been friendly as neighbors then since you first came back from Arkansas and settled in the Territory? A I don't remember ever being in his house; I never was in his house.
Q Have you had law suits with each other? A Yes sir.
Q How many? A I don't know that we had any particular law suits, but I have had law suits and he has been a witness against me.
Q What was your last trouble with him, when I mean? A Along last fall.
Q That was when your boys had a little racket and he had your boy arrested? A Yes sir.
Q What was the age of those boys? A Eleven years old.
Q He had him arrested down at Vinita? A Yes sir, had him arrested and carried before the Commissioner at Vinita.
Q He was discharged on account of his age? A Yes sir.
Q Buck Dawson is dead is he? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A Three years, little over three years.
Q And James Dawson is dead? A Yes sir.
Q Is your father, Robert Dawson living? A No sir.
Q When did James Dawson die? A I don't remember, been dead several years, I don't remember how long, 6 or 7 years, I couldn't state.
Q When did your father, Robert Dawson die? A I believe it was in '87 as I remember now, I wont be positive.
Q Had all these boys in the Cherokee Nation before their death?
A No sir, father died in Arkansas.

Q There that lived here in the Nation they lived here in the Nation but went back to Arkansas and died there? A Well the rest of my folks all lived here. That was James Dawson and Buck Dawson.
Q Robert Dawson, your father, never did move to the Territory, did he? A No.
Q Did you hear the statement of the witness Beavett this morning, that about the time of hearing of the James Dawson case, at a negro church at night James Dawson came down there with someone else was introduced to him, and he loaned him ten dollars; did you hear that statement this morning? A I heard the statement, yes sir, I heard it.
Q He says that Jim James Dawson was 35 or 40 years old; was there any James Dawson living belonging to your family at that time of any such age? A No sir.
Q How many James Dawson's were there belonging to your family? A There was my uncle James Dawson and a brother James Dawson, the Doctor here.
Q How old was your brother James Dawson then? A He was a tolerable old man, I don't know his age.
Q About what age? A Must have been 60.
Q Between 60 and 70? A Yes sir.
Q That was the age of your brother James? A At that time?
Q Yes sir, in '84? A In '84 I suppose he was about 18, somewhere like that.
Q Had he anything to do with the James Dawson case? A No sir.
Q Was he present at the time that the James Dawson case was under consideration? A No sir.
Q Was James Dawson, your uncle James Dawson, present at any time during the consideration of his case? A No sir.
Q He never was present? A No sir, if Uncle Jim Dawson was ever in Tahlequah I never knew it.
Q Who conducted the prosecution of the James Dawson case before the Cherokee Citizenship Commission, who conducted it? A The James Dawson case?
Q Yes sir? A I think James Low and Bill Jackson and Campbell Taylor.
Q Were you acting with them? A Yes sir.
Q They employed Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q Then there was no James Dawson present during that session of the Commission? A No sir.
Q What was the condition of James Dawson's health at that time?
A It was pretty poorly; was not good.
Q Was he at that time able to get about and attend to business?
A I don't think he was.
Q Was he not a very feeble minded old man at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Regarded as rather a silly man was he not? A Yes sir.
Q Did he attend to any kind of business of the family at that time?
A No sir, didn't.
Q What was his financial condition? A Pretty bad.
Q Did he have any money? A No sir.
Q Did he have any property? A None hardly at all; horse probably, or a cow or two, something that way.
Q Was that about all the property he had? A Yes sir.
Q Now about the other members of his family that were admitted at that time; what was their financial condition? A They were in poor circumstances.
Q Now that after those judgments were rendered that members of your family removed to the Territory, Cherokee Nation, I will say?
A Robert Dawson and family and James Lawson and family, that is, them and their children.

Q Robert Dawson didn't remove here? A No, I said except Robert Dawson.
Q Did all the members of Robert Dawson family move here? A Yes sir.
Q Except himself? A Yes sir.
Q And all the members of Jules Dawson family? A No, not all the members, Melvina Low I don't think ever lived here.
Q She has never moved here? A No sir.
Q Were all the members of your family, your father's family included in that judgment of the Committee, rendered January 11th, 1897? A All but one.
Q What was the name of that one? A Edna.
Q A daughter? A Daughter of Robert Dawson.
Q Your sister? A Yes sir.
Q Was she then of age or was she a minor? A I think she was a minor, as well as I can remember.
Q Was she afterwards admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A She was.
Q By resolution of the Cherokee Council? A She was first admitted by the Emmons Court, her and two of my neices.
Q What be their names? A Katie Vernon and Verna Fishback.
Q What became of that? A The certificate papers they got was lost, and they went before the Council in 1894 and they was readmitted back by the act of Council.
Q That was in 1894, the Cherokee Council admitted, re-admitted as it was called it, the three above named? A Yes sir. Mary and Verna Fishback and Katie Vernon, they have now the same names except Vernon, I do not. Tob Robinson married the widow, a niece of mine.
Q Now then, by virtue of the readmission of the Dawson case the Cherokee authorities struck their name from these two judgments in '87 and '94 admitting the two families of Robert and Jules Dawson, and the act of Council of '94 admitting these three, you have that name? A Yes sir.
Q When? A My two of my sons was placed on the roll by the act of Council in 1896 I think it was; left off of the rolls in per capita payment and they was placed on the rolls I think, and Sam brought receipt of Council, got their draft or checks for the money.
Q Have you got that copy of the act of Council admitting them? A Yes sir.
Q Where is it? A (Produces papers.)

MR. LEECH: We offer in evidence an act of the Cherokee National Council making an appropriation of $1,000 dollars belonging to the general fund for the payment of certain persons therein named a per capita payment, as per amount set opposite their respective names, provided that the Principal Chief shall draw warrants for such amounts, and further provided "That the names of the persons appearing on the per capita rolls in this act shall be placed (on) the authenticated roll of 1880 by the Principal Chief."
This act was approved December 21, 1891.
Approval signed by Stephen Tenee, Assistant Acting Principal-
In this list appear the names of William H. Dawson for payment of $13.70, and of Marion Dawson, for a like sum. Are these two the names of two of your sons? A Yes sir.

(The paper above introduced, is filed and made a part of the record in this case.

Q Was there any other action of the Cherokee authorities relating to members of your family? A Yes sir.

Q Then? A In 1894.
Q That was that? A Allowing them their Strip Money.
Q Have you a copy of that? A I think I have. (Produces papers.)

BY MR. McKENNON: We offer in evidence a duly certified copy of an act of the Cherokee National Council approved November 24, 1894, signed C. J. Harris, Principal Chief. Senate Bill No. 19, appropriating a sufficient amount of money to make payment per capita of what is known as the Strip Money to certain persons named therein. Among them are members of the Dawson family, as follows: Jane, Elbert, Henry, James Ross Lillie, Pearl, Alvin, Lyrida, Willie and Clifford: this act mentions these persons as Cherokees by blood, and whose names had been left off the pay roll approved May 3, 1894, providing payment to each one of these a sum of $265.70.

Q Were these members of the Robert Dawson family? A Yes sir.
Q Which one of the members of the family? A Jane.
Q This is Jane who was admitted by the judgment admitting the Robert Dawson family? A Yes sir.
Q And her children? A Her children, was not admitted, she was admitted.
Q I mean this mentions her children here? A Yes, that mentions her children.

(The paper last above introduced is filed and made a part of the record in this case.)

Q Do you know whether the payment of the Cherokee Strip money was to Cherokee citizens by blood only or not? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any other act of the Cherokee authorities passing upon the citizenship of members of your family? A Why the Douthett children, my brother's grand-children. Two grand-children of R. Dawson.
Q What was that? A That, I think it was in '84.
Q Have you got a copy of that act? A No, the record is here.
Q Was that by the Spears Court? A Yes sir, by the Spears Court.

BY MR. McKENNON: We now offere in evidence a judgment of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, 1880 and 1884, found on page 190, case No. 181, dated September 9th, 1884, signed by Eli Spears, President, John Lee and Andrew Young, Commissioners, admitting to citizenship Lula Douthett and Dallas Douthett as Cherokees by blood.

Q Those two are the Douthetts to which you refer, are they? Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: Attention is called to the fact that the names of the Commissioners are all signed in the same hand-writing as the record of the judgment.

The said judgment record above introduced, and found on page 190, No. 181, record of 1880 to 1884, is as follows:

"Office of Commission on Citizenship,

John L. Adair, Andrew Young,
Clk Com'n. Co.mission o. Citizenship."

Q Now were there any other actions of the Cherokee authorities of like character relating to the .embers of your family?
A I don't remember of any others.
Q I will ask you if when the Cherokee authorities were .ade the roll of 1896, in compliance with the request of the Dawes Co.mission for a roll to be prepare' by them for the use of the said Co.mission, the question of the citizenship of the .embers of your family was not then raise' and an investigation had in .egard to it? A Before the Dawes Co.mission?
Q No, before the Cherokee Co.mission making the roll of 1896, of which John T. Gunter was a .ember? A Yes sir, yes. I had forgot it, but since you have named it there was so.e investigation of that at that time; this is what I understood.
Q That roll shows that the .embers of your family were duly enrolled by the Co.mission? A Yes.

Q Have you and the other .embers of your family since your removal to the Territory in 1883 and i.mediately following been recognized as Cherokee citizens by blood? A Yes sir.

Q Have you been exercising and enjoying all the rights of Cherokee citizens by blood since that time? A Yes sir.
Q You and all the .embers of your family are living in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q You have all drawn Cherokee moneys whenever payments were .ade?
A Yes sir.
Q And have you all .ale .embers been voting at the Cherokee elections or in the Cherokee elections? A Yes sir, I was one of the judges of the election that was held voting on the treaty.
Q What treaty? A The treaty bill that was sent back here for the Cherokees to vote on: I was one of the judges at Afton.
Q I. what year was that? A I believe it was last spring some time, in April.

Q Have any of you held any offices in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What offices have the .embers of your family filled? A Deputy Clerk, under Pete Hastings, when he was clerk of Delaware District, I was a candidate once for Council in the Downing Party.

Q Can any office of deputy clerk be held by any one else except a recognized citizen? A Only by a citizen, yes sir.
Q Is that all? A (No reply).
Q Have the children of members of your family attended the Cherokee schools, and been educated in Cherokee schools? A Yes, sir.
Q Have the members of your family been all the while subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Have they been tried for any offenses against the laws? Yes sir.
Q And have they instituted their civil suits in the courts of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And had suits instituted against them in such courts? A Yes sir.
Q Some of these cases have gone to the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And were passed upon by it at rimes? A Yes sir.
Q Is there anything else? A Nothing now; I am sick this morning; I have got the head-ache so bad I can't hardly see.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How old was your father Robert Dawson when he died? A I don't know, I couldn't answer that.
Q He was a very old man? A Yes sir, he was getting tolerably old.
Q Could you tell how much older he was than you? A No I don't know.
Q Mr. James Dawson in 1834 must have been a very old man, can't you? A Well he was old and he was feeble.
Q Well you state that he had been sickly; was he naturally that way? A He used to live in Texas; I didn't know him until after he came to the Territory.
Q I say he had gotten so old, that was the occasion of that? A I suppose so, the oldest one of these children was Mrs. Betty Petty, that's my understanding.
Q And the oldest boy was John Dawson? A He always called him Jack.
Q Jack Dawson he was the oldest? A Yes sir.
Q Sar was the youngest? A Sar Riley.
Q He was the youngest one of the crowd? A Yes sir.
Q Your father lived four or five years after he and you were admitted to citizenship? Yes sir, something about that, it was in 1863, I think he died in 1867, I wont be positive; that is as near as I remember now. I have got a headache so bad that I can't remember anything.
Q He nor none of the older members of the family were ever present at any of these trials of citizenship? A No sir, not a one of them was.
Q No one of them was ever called upon to testify as to the blood of their mother, who she was or anything about it? A I don't think they was.
Q Your claim of kinship was through Captain John Rogers and that your grandmother was the half sister of Big Joe Vann, wasn't it? A I don't know, I couldn't answer the question.
Q You were there when they took the testimony? A I was there when Dr. Baker's testimony was taken, that was about 16 years ago.
Q And nobody kin to the Rogers and Vanns was ever called to testify in the case? A Not as I know of.
Q They were very well known Cherokee families in the coun try? A I suppose so, I don't know.
Q And yet nobody on any side of the family connected with it was ever called to testify? A Not that I know of, I don't know what my brother done, he taken some of the evidence at Tahlequah when I was not there; he first filed his claim.

Q You had spoken to Dr. Baker about the testifying before you brought your case didn't you? A No sir.
Q What have been a short time afterwards? A It was a short time afterwards. I went back after him and it was too late and I fetched him the next time.
Q You had talked to your brother about what you could prove by Dr. Baker? A I told him I thought Dr. Baker, I thought he knew about our folks.
Q You had told him in a general way you expected to use Dr. Baker as a witness? A Yes sir.
Q You went off, come to Arkana and left your brother at Tahlequah after you told him that fact? A Yes sir.
Q You didn't see your brother any more until after you were admitted? A No sir.
Q You and he however made trips back and forth to Tahlequah and here at different times, but you didn't happen to get together? A No. I never met him any more and I don't know that he was there until after we were admitted.
Q But you were there and brought Dr. Baker over? A Yes sir.
Q And took his testimoney a year or such a matter before ever you were admitted? A I think as well as I remember, yes sir.
Q Now the way you came to get Campbell Taylor was on the recommendation of old man Bryant? A I didn't get him, didn't use him.
Q The way he came into your case? A The way he claimed to come in.
Q He did more in your case than Bryant did? A Campbell didn't do anything.
Q What did Bryant do? A I think he held my brother take evidence my brother employed him.
Q How did you happen to be sending money by Campbell to Mr. Duncan? A I never sent him any money.
Q Then when he, Mr. Duncan, states that Campbell delivered the money as Campbell said he did, both were wrong? A Oh no, you are mistaken, Mr. Duncan got 20 or 25 dollars, which he stated, from Campbell Taylor, for me.
Q How did you happen to give it to Campbell? A I give the money to Campbell to give to Joel Bryant, and he wouldn't do it, and I tried to get the money back from him, and I finally worked the 20 or 25 dollars he gave to Duncan.
Q Then you didn't tell Duncan as he testified that you sent 20 or 25 dollars by Campbell Taylor? A Campbell Taylor agreed to pay Duncan 20 or 25 dollars for me of the money I give him to give to Joel Bryant.
Q The family kept Campbell Taylor employed though as their attorney after that? A In the James Dawson case I think so.
Q E. Dawson, you remember, had him for his grand-children? A That is my understanding.
Q And your uncle James Dawson had him in the case of his children? A Uncle James had nothing to do with it; Ja es Lo and Bill Jackson got him; that my understanding of who employed him.
Q The record here shows that the case was originally instituted by C. K. Taylor and was finally admitted by him September 2nd, 1884, in the James Dawson case? A I don't deny him being in that case.
Q You say he was employed in the E. Dawson case? A I don't know who was in the Southett children's case.
Q The record shows that Campbell Taylor instituted the case, and it was finally admitted by him, and Mr. Harvey, the testified a while ago? A That was in the James Dawson case, wasn't it?
Q Then was in the E. Dawson grand-children? A Elbert?
Q No, in the Southett children's case? A Oh yes.

Q He was likewise attorney in the Lary Dawson case was he, and before the Adair court, the 4th of October, 1887, in the case of James K. P. Dawson? A I don't know anything about that.
Q And the case history of Riley Dawson? A I don't know anything about those.
Q They are relations of yours? A Well I couldn't say.
Q James K. P. Dawson proves to be a son of Riley Dawson? A Well if he is he is by connection then. There are so many Dawsons I don't know them all.
Q You know Andrew J. Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q The Dawsons have so many children their brothers didn't hardly know them did they? A That's it, I don't know them.
Q Well then you don't know who Andrew J. Dawson is? A No sir, I don't know.
Q He refers in his application as being a cousin of R. Dawson, and yourself, who were admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Court? A He may be, I don't know nothing about it.
Q He resided I believe, at that time at Nevada, Missouri? A I don't know anything about the people.
Q Old man Baker was an old and paralyzed man at the time he testified wasn't he? A Getting old, he was not paralyzed.
Q Then the statement made that the reason he couldn't write his name and had to make his mark, because he was paralyzed, in the testimony isn't that true? A He didn't have good use of his fingers.
Q Then he was not paralyzed? A No, I brought him over there and back from Berryville, Arkansas.
Q Well I say he was a very old man? A Yes, getting old.
Q How didn't you come to this place and then joining Proctor's and work on it some time before you brought your family? A No, I brought my family with me, except my wife.
Q And you subsequently built a log house on it? A Yes sir.
Q And went back and got your wife and moved them to the log house? A Yes sir, went to Eureka and got my wife.
Q You never saw your grandfather at all? A Sam Dawson, yes sir, I saw him.
Q You remember do you of being with him much of any at all? A I was in Texas in time of the war, with my uncle Riley Dawson, and he was there.
Q In '60 sometime? A '62, I reckon, or '63. Somewhere along there, it was in time of the war.
Q How old a man was he at that time? A Pretty old man.
Q You never saw your grandmother, she died before she came?
A Yes sir, I never saw her at all.
Who first started the citizenship matter, your brother in Texas or you? A Why it was me, and my brother together.
Q I mean who first conceived the idea? A I first commenced talking about it.
Q And sent down for him? A I was in Texas with him and then in Arkansas; I went backwards and forwards a time or two after the war.
Q About that time nearly everybody in Arkansas were trying to get some claim of kinship to Cherokees? A No sir, not at that time.
Q They were getting pretty thick in there in 1900? A Well in 83 and '4 and '5 I think.
Q Been some excitement over there to get yourselves on the rolls?
A Just got to be everybody; but it wasn't at the time we was admitted there was not much stir about the rights here.
Q Well the Watts had been admitted before that? A I suppose they had; there was not much excitement over the Watts claim at that time.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q You did locate and board with Sam Shables when you first cam to Tahlequah in '01? A I think I did.

Q Your brother Buck Dawson stayed there also? A Yes sir.

Q Sam Shables lived in the north end of town, old German? A Yes sir, old German, lived in the lower part of town.

Q Did you ever hear the names of any other witnesses which you stated perhaps testified in your case? A I have heard that but I have forgot them.

Q You don't recollect any name now? A I dont remember them now sir.

Q In the Irene House case and Joanna Barber case, in which you testified before the Commission, when you were making search for this testimony you couldn't find any other testimony from that of record except the Dr. Baker testimony, could you? A That's all we could find; no we didn't find the testimony, we got a copy.

Q Well it must have been a copy of the original, the certificate shows that? A I don't know; House got a copy of what claimed to be the affidavit of Baker and he told me to give it to him; that is all I know about it.

Q Well the certificate there does not bear my certificate does it? A I don't know about that, I am no scholar.

Q Well you didn't get the testimony of any other witnesss except that of Dr. Baker; you couldn't find any other over there of record? A I didn't hunt for any; House hunted for them.

Q None of you have ever been able to find any other? A No. Not even find our petition.

Q Samuel R. Dawson applied to what is known as the Adair Court, didn't he? A I don't remember now.

Q He was an uncle of yours wasn't he? A Yes sir, claimed to be.

Q The father of these two parties who testified here this morning? A Well I don't know, they claimed to be, I never met them to know them.

Q He was rejected by the Adair Court, or Hayes Court? A I don't know whether he filed his petition.

Q Did you testify in his case? A I don't remember: I might have dont it.

Q Didn't you testify in the Andrew J. Dawson case before that is known as the Hayes Court? A I don't recollect, if I did I don't remember.

Q Did you testify in the Riley Dawson case? A No sir, not that I remember.

Q Didn't you know of his being rejected by that court? A I don't remember, sir.

Q You know that the Cherokee Council never authenticated the roll of 1896, don't you? A No sir, I don't know it; I didn't know this was done until I went to Tahlequah after some papers and come back and they told me about it.

Q You never found out that C. H. Taylor was a big record up until the present time have you? A (No response)

Q The records here show that he has been in the constant employment of your family from that date up to this time? A Why it shows here from the record; I would rather be excused for my part of it.

Q You were the man that had the most to do with it? A I never employed him, I own my that.

Q You are the man that had most to do with the records? A In my case and in my father's case.

Q Didn't you testify for your uncle Jim Dawson? A Yes sir.

Q Wasn't he attorney for him? A Yes sir.

Q Wasn't he employed by Jim Dawson after you got your citizenship?
A Why not but the grand-children.
Q Jim Dawson's petition was filed in September 1896, after yours?
A Yes sir.
Q C. H. Taylor, attorney of record, filed his petition? A He might have filed it for all I know.
Q Well you hadn't at that time fallen out with C. H. Taylor had you? A Why no, we never did have any trouble, only over this money, he never would give it back to me or give it to Bryant.
Q You never discovered that he was such a bad man until after your judgment was rendered? A I know he was not of good character.
Q Are you and Brought, this man who testified for the Cherokee Nation, on speaking terms? A Hardly speak.
Q Does he refuse to speak to you? A Sometimes he does.
Q Do you refuse to speak to him? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been speaking to him for the last two or three months?
A I have not spoke to him until I met him here at the hotel the other day.
Q First time you spoke to him since he had the boy arrested? A Yes sir.
Q When did he have the boy arrested? A Along in September or October, September I think.
Q When did Dr. Baker die? A I don't remember.
Q You don't remember how much older your father was than you?
A No, I don't know.
Q What is your age? A I will be 60 in May.
Q Then you were born in '42? A Yes sir, '42 according to the record.
Q Was your father as much as 25 years old when you were born?
A I couldn't say.
Q What was your best judgment? A I suppose he was 20 or 25 years old. My understanding he married young.
Q Can't you give any better idea than 4 or 5 years of your father's age? A I say 25.
Q Your father was born say, 25 from 42 would have made him be born in 1817; now had your father any older brothers or sisters? A I think Jack Dawson was the oldest of the family, no, Betty, the girl, was the oldest and Jack next, and then my father as well as I remember about it.
Q There were two girls older? A No, one of the girls I never saw.
Q Then you think there are only 2 older than your father? A Yes, that's my understanding of the family.
Q Dr. Baker gives his age 73 in '82, which would make him be born in '89, now he states that when he was 15 or 16 years old, which added to 1809, will make 1824, that your grandmother Anna Priest, was a school girl; whereas from your testimony and that of the family history introduced here shows that your grandmother Anna Priest was the mother of seven children, the youngest being born in 1820, how do you reconcile that? A I don't remember about the statement of Dr. Baker; I don't know that he made such statement as that, I don't remember about it.
Q And if he did you don't know how to reconcile it? A (No response.)

Q Did you talk to any of the others of the Court that admitted you? A No sir, I was not acquainted with them.
Q You know whether they were old or young men? A They were old men like; Steve Takes. I not acquainted with him afterwards, and Tom Thompson, at the Council you know I was there a good deal.

Q That was the fellow that was on the Court? A Yes sir.
Q He was afterwards assistant Chief of the Cherokee Nation?
A I think so.
Q Steven Tehee, that's the man you had reference to? A Yes sir, I think it was, I just knew the man; I had no acquaintance with him at all.
Q D. W. C. Duncan boarded when you were down there at the National Hotel? A I think he did, as well as I remember now when we were admitted.
Q Don't you know he did? A I think he did, as well as I remember.
Q Were not you over there to his room? A I think I was.
Q You remember when it was that you brought Dr. Baker down there to make a statement before the Court? A It was in January, Term, was in January Term of 1883 I believe, it was, as well as I remember about it.
Q Well you didn't take any more testimony after Dr. Baker testified?
A No sir, I didn't.
Q But your case was not submitted or passed upon for a year?
A I think it was, yes sir, as well as I remember.
Q I would like to ask you when the Blassingame family came to the Cherokee Nation? A Alex Balsingame came with us when we moved here, and went back and got his family and moved that fall.
Q Did he move his family here that same fall? A Yes sir.
Q What year was that? A In the fall of 1883 I believe it was, as well as I remember now.
Q When did the Bulaska family come? A I think the girl and the old lady came in the next spring.
Q How long did they remain that time? A The old lady stayed here, but the girl went back and in a short time her and her husband came back.
Q Did she come back until after her marriage? A No, she was married when she came first.
Q The last time? A She was married I think, she was married when she came out.
Q How long has August Bulaska been a permanent and continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation? A I think he came there in the fall of 1884 or 1885, I wont say which.
Q How long has Robert Pierce been A continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since he was admitted.
Q When was that? A '85.
Q How long has Martin L. Patterson? A Ever since he married his wife, and he was living here before he married his wife.
Q Who is Arizona Airey? A That is my daughter.
Q Did you bring her with you? A No not when I moved.
Q When did she come? A She came out in a year or two after I moved here.
Q Was she married when you moved here? A No sir, she was not married.
Q She was not married when you were admitted? A No sir, she was a child.
Q When did Jim Love come to this country? A With his grandfather, James Dawson.
Q What was his father's name? A Melvina Dawson.
Q You know Jim Love's age? A No sir.
Q Don't know how old he was in '83? A No sir.
Q Was he grown? A I think he was.
Q Married? A No no.
Q Married in this country? A Yes sir
Q Who is James M. Dawson? A Married one of the Jackson girls.

Q When did they come to this country? A Right away after they was admitted.
Q In what year? A I think the winter of '94, I think it was, maybe for winter of '94.
Q You know Gideon Graham? A Yes sir.
Q Who is his mother? A Missouri Ann Graham, formerly Missouri Ann Dawson.
Q Did he come from Texas to Arkansas? A Come from Texas.
Q Did you know them in Texas? A I knew the girl.
Q You never knew them until they come to this country? A I never knew Gid.
Q When did you see him here? A I think they come here in the fall or winter of 1894 or '5.
Q He was married then? A I think he was.
Q Brought his wife? A I think he was, I don't know.
Q Did he have any children when you first saw him? A He come to my house and I never saw his family for-I don't know, for several years.
Q You understood he had a family? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Did you mean to say '84 or 1894? A '84.
Q Did you see Gid Graham in '84? A '84, let me study, maybe '85.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Did you see him in '85, are you positive on that proposition?
A I think so.
Q Will you swear it? A No sir, I wont positive swear it, but I think it was, as I remember now it was: I couldn't say positive.
Q All the people Mr. Dawson that have been admitted to citizenship by courts of competent jurisdiction unless they were de-citizenised by courts of acquired jurisdiction, enjoyed the same privileges that you have narrated here about going to school and being tried in the courts? A Yes sir.

Q All that sort of thing that you have been telling here in your direct examination? A Ask me the question again.
Q I say all people who were admitted here by courts of competent jurisdiction, until they were de-citizenised by courts of like jurisdiction, enjoyed the same privileges that you did? A So far as I know they was.
Q They all drawed money and all tried in the courts as long as we had tribunal courts, were they not? A Yes sir, so far as I know.
Q There was no special privilege granted to you in preference to anybody else? A None but recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation.
Q Well you had been recognized since you were admitted? A Yes sir, I enjoyed the same privileges of native born Cherokees.
Q Well I say there is nothing special about it? A No, I don't know as there is.
Q You got acquainted with Mr. Duncan while you were up there during the hearing? A Yes sir, I was acquainted with him, knew him. Met him.
Q Mr. Phil Egan did the examination of Dr. Baker? A Yes sir.
Q Did you file any other paper before the Court other than your petition and then Mr. Roberts stated out? A I never filed any petition there at all.
Q Any motion? A I don't remember any.
Q Well you never had occasion to file any papers before Mr. Duncan? A I got him to do some writing for me.
Q What? A Letters to my brother in Texas.
Q Nick Dawson? A Yes sir, N. Dawson.

Q That? A Yes sir, Buck Dawson.
Q Now is that all he did for you? A I don't remember any about it.
Q Why didn't you get your attorney to do that letter writing? A There was not any there.
Q Taylor nor Benge was not there then? A No sir.
Q That is what you paid the 30 or 25 dollars for, was writing this letter back to your brother? A I paid him for that claim.
Q When did you pay that? A I think I paid it, I don't exactly when, Camp Taylor paid it a year or two after I moved out here and settled where I did; might have been 2 years. I don't remember.
Q Where was Duncan living then? A I couldn't say where.
Q Was he still clerk of this Court? A No sir, not when that money was paid; that is, when Camp Taylor said he paid it.
Q You did send Camp Taylor some money? A I sent some money to him for Joel Bryant.
Q You knew Joel Bryant's address didn't you? A No, I don't know that I did, No I didn't send Camp Taylor any money, I gave it to him.
Q How much did you give him? A One hundred dollars.
Q When? A Right at that time; he claimed it from me as soon as we got our papers; he come onto me and dunned me for Bryant.
Q You never sent him any then after that? A No sir.
Q Did you ever see Bryant after that? A Yes sir
Q How long after that? A I don't know, a year or two afterwards. a year I believe, my brother wrote, I wrote to my brother about paying Camp Taylor money and he went onto my brother about it and he never paid him until we moved out to this country.
Q After all that you got him to attend to your uncle Jim Lawson's and the other relatives cases? A The other parties did.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Applicants object to all that part of the witness' evidence in response to interrogatories by representatives of the Cherokee Nation which relates to the character of the evidence upon which the judgments admitting members of the James and Robert Dawson families were admitted, and to the history of the members of the Dawson family, because the same is immaterial, incompetent and irrelevant.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q One question I omitted to ask you Mr. Dawson, as to the Court at the time the judgment admitting Robert Dawson's family was rendered, who of the judges were present on that day? A They was all three of them, Wolfe, Tehee and Thompson.
Q Are you positive of that fact? A Yes sir.
Q You do not know this Andrew Dawson family who applied to the Dawes Commission for Cherokee citizenship, and who stated that they are cousins of some members of your family? A Andrew?
Q Andrew J. Dawson, who claims to be from Missouri? A How was the question?
Q You do not know them do you? A I don't know that they are any kin to us.
Q You don't know that they are related to you at all? A No sir.
Q This Mary Dawson case, do you know the members of that family? A No sir, I don't.
Q Don't know who they are? A No sir.
Q The Rebecca Dawson case? A I don't know her either.
Q You don't know whether they are related to you or not? A No sir.
Q If any of those persons are related to you or your family did you have any knowledge of it? A Not as I know of.

Q Jonnie Barber, do you know anything about them? A They claim to be kin to us.
Q Where are they from? A They are from Texas.
Q Do you know they are related to you? A They claim to be kin.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Tell you more for them before the Commission? A Yes, they claim to be kinfolks of mine.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Irene J. House, who is that? A That is a cousin of mine; claims to be.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You testified for her didn't you before the Commission? A I think I did as well as I remember.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Before the Court that admitted James Dawson and family, who were the witnesses there? A Oliver Miller, from Berryville, Arkansas.
Q Who were the others? A Myself and J. Dawson and there were two other witnesses, I don't remember who they are.
Q Were they Cherokee citizens and residents of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You don't remember their names? A Which?
Q Of these other people who claimed to be citizens of the Cherokee Nation and who were witnesses? A I said about me and J. Dawson was citizens of the Cherokee Nation.
Q You only proved that Jim Dawson was a brother of Robert Dawson before the Court? A Yes sir.
Q And then referred back to the decision in the Court before? A We proved that they were citizens, and he knew my folks before I ever come here.
Q Was he older than Dr. Baker? A About the same age.
Q Why didn't you get Oliver Miller's testimony in the House case?
Q He was dead.
Q You and no member of your family in the Irene House case or the Jonnie Barber case or any of those cases that were tried before the Dawes Commission in your affidavits ever made reference to the fact that Oliver Miller testified in Jim Dawson's case in '84 did you? A I don't remember about that.
Q You did make reference to the fact that Dr. Baker testified there in '87, didn't you? A I don't remember about that now.
Q You never made reference to any other witness having testified other than Dr. Baker did you? A I don't remember about it now.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Now just one other question: All of these papers in the original application and everything, so far as you know, in the James Dawson case, were filed before the Commission which admitted the James Dawson family, are lost or mislaid are they not? A I suppose they are, I don't know, I never saw them.
Q Have you tried to get copies of them? A Yes sir, I tried to get the original papers.

BY COMMISSION: This case is continued until 8:30 a.m., tomorrow morning, March 20th, 1902, it now being the hour for adjournment.

MARCH 20, 1902.- 8:30 a. m.- F. M. DAWSON again on the stand, testifies as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q There was your brother Rich Dawson raised? A In Arkansas.

Q What County? A Carroll.
Q Near what town? A [illegible]yville.
Q Did Dr. Baker live at [illegible]yville? A Yes sir.
Q Was your brother intimately acquainted with him many years?
A Yes sir.
Q Did he know him sufficiently to be familiar with his character and habits of life? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Josephine Pierce? A Yes sir.
Q Where daughter was she? A Dawson's.
Q Is she the same identical person who is called Josie Pierce, and Josie Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Is there any other Josie Pierce or Josie Dawson or Josephine Pierce or Josephine Dawson? A I don't know but the one.
Q She was also called Josephine or Josie Kelly? A Yes, after she married; her first husband was Pierce.
Q And her second husband A Was Kelly.
Q There was another Josephine Dawson wasn't there, Sulaski's wife?
A They called her Joe, I suppose that's her name, I could not be positive; that was Bill Dawson's daughter, August Sulaski's wife.
Q She is much younger than your sister, Josephine, above referred to? A Yes sir, oh yes.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Where were you born, Mr. Dawson? A Carroll County, Arkansas.
Q You know how old you are? A 42.
Q 42? A I think so.
Q How many older children were there of your father and mother than yourself? A Three.
Q Which were they? A E. Dawson, Peter Dawson and Jasper Dawson.
Q You are the fourth child and the fourth boy? A Yes sir, fourth boy.
Q Where were your father and mother married, do you know, from family history? A I think it was in Arkansas, I couldn't be positive, I think they was.
Q Do you know how long your grandfather lived in Arkansas? A No sir I don't.
Q Don't know what year he came to Arkansas? A Only from statement.
Q Well what did they say about it? A I think they came [illegible] some time in '30.
Q You know whether your father was born in Arkansas? No any of your grandfather's children were born there? A There was one of them born in Arkansas according to this record, according to what they always told me, they were born in Tennessee.
Q He came there in '30, and all the other children were born on the Tennessee River in Tennessee, before he ever came? A That is what I think, yes sir. No I am not positive about that. They were from Tennessee, but either Dr. Baker lived there or they came from there; I don't know as I ever heard my father say where he was born at.
Q In Tennessee so either he said he was a grown big boy when he came to Arkansas? A I don't know as I ever heard him say.
Q Do you know the difference in the ages of yourself and your three older brothers? A No I don't.
Q Don't know the time that come in between you? A No I don't know that; I think it is about two years though.
Q That would make E. Dawson about eight years older than you, probably? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Did Josephine Pierce have a daughter who married Mr. Bogle?
A Yes sir.
Q What was her name? A I always knowed her by Dade Pierce; I don't know whether that is her right name or not.
Q What is Bogle's name? A John Bogle.
Q She is the child of Josephine Pierce who married John Bogle?
A Yes sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Where did she marry John Bogle? A Near Afton.
Q When? A I douldn't state.
Q About when? A You have got a copy of the marriage license.
Q When did Josephine Pierce come to the Cherokee Nation? A '83.
Q Has she lived here continuously since that time? A Up until her death; she is dead.
Q Any of her children come with her at that time? A Yes sir.
Q And have they lived here continuously since that time? A Yes sir, except Bill Pierce, he went to Colorado and died.

J. C. STARR, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Your name is J. C. Starr is it? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Starr, was that instrument taken by you, or before you? (Showing witness document.)
A Yes sir.
Q Where? A At the residence of S. H. Benge: near Fort Gibson.
Q When? A On the 15th day of this month.
Q What day of the week was that? A On Saturday.
Q Is that the day it was taken? A Yes sir.
Q Did you go there on Saturday to take this? A Yes sir.
Q Then when Judge Benge stated on Tuesday that it was taken "yesterday" meaning Monday, the 17th, he was mistaken, was he?
A It was taken Saturday, the 15th.
Q Was he mistaken or not? A It was not taken then.
Q Then his statement made on Tuesday the 18th that it was taken on "yesterday", meaning Monday, the 17th, was not correct, was it?
A I think not, because I was there, and it was taken on the 15th.
Q And it was taken on the 15th, you are positive it was taken on the 15th? A Yes sir.

Q Then of course his statement could not be correct? A I guess not.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q He was just mistaken about the date, wasn't he? A Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Did you tell Charles T. Moore who is now present, on last Tuesday that they sent you out there on Monday to take that? A No sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q I sent you there last Saturday? A Yes sir.
Q And you went there at my direction, didn't you? A Yes sir, and come back Saturday night.

ROBERT L. DAWSON, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A My name is Robert L. Dawson.
Q What is your age? A My age is something close to 30 years old, I am 29 past.

Q Are you a son of [illegible] known as Buck Dawson?
A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if you will examine this letter sent with the enclosure and state whether or not you found that among the papers of your father after his death? A (Hands letter to witness who examines it) A Yes sir, I found this amongst the papers of my father. He always kept all his own papers, and I was looking over them I saw this letter.
Q Has that been in your custody ever since you found it? A Yes sir, if that's the letter that was in the envelope.
Q Well that is what it is, you can tell whether it is or not. (Witness further examines letter) Q That purports to be a letter from Samuel H. Benge, does it not, to your father? A Yes sir. (Here applicants' attorney hands letter and envelope referred to to attorneys for Cherokee Nation.)

BY MR. McKENNON: I want to offer this letter in evidence in this case; it is a letter signed by S. H. Benge, attorney at law, dated Fort Gibson, C. N., Jan. 13, 1883. Addressed to Mr. E. Dawson, Esq. together with the envelope, in which it was enclosed, with the card of T. M. Taylor upon it, attorney at law, Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and postmarked Tahlequah, Ind. T., January 13.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS: The Nation objects to the introduction of this letter for the reason that S. H. Benge is living and has testified in this case, and his handwriting should be either proven or denied by himself.

G. W. BENGE, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A G. W. Benge.
Q Are you a son of Samuel H. Benge? A Yes sir.
Q Do youknow his handwriting? A I believe so.
Q Is that his handwriting? (Shows witness letter before referred to.) A Yes sir, it is either his or a resemblance of his.
Q To the best of your knowledge and belief is that his letter?
A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: [illegible] offer it in evidence.

BY COMMISSION: [illegible] letter)

"Fort Gibson, C. N.,
Jan 13th, 1883.

Mr. E. Dawson, Esq..

Dear Sir: I write this [illegible] to inform you that your case came off before the Court on Citizenship on the 11th inst, and was decided in your favor, so you all are citizens of this Nation. T. M. Dawson [illegible] furnished with a copy of the decision at the court. He will write to you also. You will please send me fifty dollars as my fee in your case according to contract. Send it to Fort Gibson, Cherokee Nation.

[illegible]
S. H. Benge,
Attorney at law."

Enclosed in envelope as follows:
Card [illegible]
"Post [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible] Esq.
[illegible] Ter."

Addressed [illegible]

Henryetta,
Clay Co., Texas."

Post-marked: " Tahlequah, Jan 17 Ind T."

ROBERT L. DAWSON, -re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Now examine that and see if that is also a paper which you found among your father's papers after his death? (Hands papers to witness) A That is the same letter that I found.

Q Among the same that you found the Benge letter? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: This is a letter purporting to have been written by J. M. Bryan, to E. Dawson, dated at Chouteau Station, Cherokee Nation, and not dated, which we offer in evidence. (Applicants' attorney hands said paper to Nation's attorneys.)

Q Mr. Bryan is dead is he not? A I think so.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS: We have no objection.

BY COMMISSION: (reads letter)

"Chouteau Station, Cherokee Nation.
I. T., M. K. & T. R. R.

MR. Dawson:

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your favor of the 30th inst in regard to our contract.

After I had got the claim so there would be little more to do I employed Campbell Taylor to answer for me when the case came up, for which I was to pay him $20 out of my fee.

This all the action I had in the matter with Taylor.

I saw Taylor in Washington last month, and he told me that your brother had made another contract with him, and paid him, or that you was to pay him $100- and that you had offered him a check on some bank in Texas.

That $100- matter with Taylor, I have nothing to do with, nor couldn't have if I wanted to.

I hope Mr. Dawson this letter will explain the matter fully.

And I am satisfied that you are apprised of the earnest work I done for you, Please write to me.

Very respectfully,
Very truly,
J. M. Bryan."

Q I will ask you if you know of your father having paid Bryan what money? A Yes sir, paid him a horse and some other money.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How old was your father when he died? A Me, I don't know whether I know his age or not.

Q If you don't know you can't say? A I wouldn't have no reason to know his age; never asked him his age; of course I guess my father knows.

Q Never had occasion to talk about his age at all? A Oh I have heard him speaking of his age at different times, but then I never paid enough attention to it.

Cid Graham, being first duly sworn and be[illegible] examined testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q What is your name? A Cid Graham.

Q How old are you? A Mr. Graham? A I am 35 years old.
Q How long have you been living in the Territory? A I came out here in 1887 or '88.
Q To the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation, what year was that '87 or '8? A Yes sir.
Q Have you resided here continuously from that time ever since in the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you live in the Cherokee Nation? A About 6 years.
Q Where did you go then? A Wagoner.
Q In the Creek Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And been residing there ever since? A Yes sir.
Q In business? A Yes sir.
Q Have you all the while been recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Graham, do you know Judge Samuel H. Benge? A Yes sir.
Q Did you have a conversation with him in Fort Gibson about September of 1900? A Well as to the exact time I couldn't say, it was sometime about the time that the Dawes Commission were at Sallisaw, or possibly a little later, somewhere about there.
Q Taking the census of the Cherokees? A Yes sir.
Q At that time had the question of the validity of the judgment of the Cherokee citizenship commission admitting Robert Dawson and family been called in question? A Yes sir.
Q Did you talk to him about the facts concerning the obtaining of that judgment? A I did.
Q What did he tell you about it; well I will just ask you, did he then and there tell you that that judgment was regular and all right nothing wrong with it? A He did.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q You were looking around for testimony at that time, Mr. Graham, were you? A How was that?
Q You were looking around for testimony at that time, expecting this case to be questioned? A Since the validity of that judgment had been attacked by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, I thought it was well to look into the matter.
Q And he told you the judgment was all right? A Having known that Mr. Benge was connected with the case, I saw him in Fort Gibson, subsequent to that time and asked him about it, if there was anything wrong about the matter, and also that I might want his affidavit concerning the matter, and I also I think maybe wrote to him; possibly prior to that, I am not sure as to the writing, but I think possibly I did.
Q Did he tell you he would make an affidavit? A I don't think at that time that I asked him for an affidavit. I thought as he lived right near here I would see him in person; he assured me that everything was all right.
Q Your mother was Missouri Dawson was not she? A Yes sir.
Q Her name was Missouri Graham when she was re-admitted to citizenship? A Yes sir.
Q And was not Missouri Dawson so named in that judgment? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether the other children named in there had married and changed their name also at the time they were admitted? A There were not any of them married.
Q Ella Dawson was your aunt? A Yes sir.
Q Was she married at that time? In law? A Yes sir.
Q Melvina Dawson, was she married at that time? A Yes sir.
Q And the fourth one you have mentioned, Missouri Dawson, was your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Can you give us the exact date of your birth? A Yes sir.
Q Do so, please? A January 21, 1867.
Q And you came to the Territory when? A In 1887 or 1888.
Q You can't make that any more definite? A Well sir, it has been a good while ago, and I didn't have anything to cause me to.
Q Well I just want to know whether you did have or not? A No sir.
Q When were you married? A 1886.
Q You were married prior to coming here? A Yes sir.
Q Your first child born away from here? A Yes sir.
Q What is its name? A John W.
Q '86 you were married, and he was born about the spring of '87?
A Somewhere in 1887, I don't remember.
Q Prior to your coming here? A Yes sir.
Q That is the only child you had that was born away from here?
A No sir, Julius.
Q Julius was not born in the Territory? A No sir.
Q And prior to the time of your removing to the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q These are the only children born out? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if about February 1901, he came to Wagoner, and sent his son to have you come to the hotel at night where he was, and if he then and there said to you "You people are on the doubtful list, and if you will give me five hundred dollars I will make it all right and see that you are enrolled, and if you don't I will see that you don't get on".? A Well now as to the first part of thatquestion, where you say he sent his son; that is an error; I don't know whether he came to my house or sent some one; when I returned home that evening my wife told me there was some one there to see me, and was at the city hotel at Wagoner, and said come down and see him; I went down there; I never had met Taylor; he introduced himself to me and stated what his business was; asked me if I was on the doubtful list, etc., to which I replied that we were; he asked me if I didn't want to employ him, stating that if we would give him, our family would give him five hundred dollars he would see that we were placed on the rolls all right, but if we refused to give him five hundred dollars that he would use his influence against us and see that we were rejected.
Q You never had met him before, or had any communication with him?
A I never met him before; as to the communication, I may have written him something about his affidavit as to the validity of that judgment, I can't say as to that. He said in his testimony that I did; I don't know whether I did or not now.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q You knew he was the attorney in the case, originally? A After looking at the records I did.
Q I mean you knew it at the time you wrote to him about the affidavit; that was the reason why you thought he would know something? A Certainly.
Q He never told you he was going to swear against you or threatened to tell anything that was not true? A He just simply said unless we gave him that five hundred dollars he would see we were all put off the rolls.
Q Said he would use his influence against you, that is what he said? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You don't deny writing to him then for the affidavit? A I don't say I did or I did not; I neither affirm it or deny the question.
Q You went to Captain Benge and also wrote him with reference to what he knew about the case? A I don't know whether I wrote him or not, I said I was under the impression I wrote his son.
Q You went to see Aaron Butler, who was interpreter before that court that admitted you? A Yes sir.
Q And you went with Aaron Butler to see Jim Smith, attorney before that court? A Yes sir.
Q And you either wrote or went to see everybody you knew of that was before that court then? A Yes sir.
Q That shows you used considerable activity? A Yes sir, I used such activity as was to my interest.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q That was all after the representatives of the Cherokee Nation objected to the enrollment of the Dawson family and by reason thereof such as had appeared before the Commission had been placed upon a doubtful card? A Yes sir.
Q Then you began to look up the evidence and see what there was in it? A Yes sir.
Q As Mr. Hastings has stated? A That's right.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q You are a grandson of James Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q The old gentleman? A Yes sir.
Q About what was his age when he was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, in 1834, wasn't it? A Yes sir, well I can't be exact as to that.
Q Well as nearly as you can? A He was somewhere about 70 or 72, years of age.
Q Well what other James Dawson did you know belonging to the families, either one of these families, Robert Dawson family or the James Dawson family? A I never knew of but two James Dawsons.
Q Who were the others? A Dr. James R. Dawson, who is present and standing right here; my grandfather, James Dawson.
Q Was there in '84 any James R. Dawson 35 or 40 or 45 years old, that you know of, belonging to either one of these families? A No sir.
Q Do you know how old Dr. James R. Dawson was that that time? A James Dawson? Q No I am speaking of Dr. James R. Dawson? A Oh, how old he was, no sir, I do not.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q Do you know who was here attending to your mother's citizenship case at that time, at the time they were admitted? A Yes sir, James Low and Bill Jackson, son of Ellen Jackson.
Q Who was W. A. Dawson? A That is Wilburn, my uncle.
Q Was he here? A I don't know sir.
Q You were not here any of the time? A No sir.
Q You knew your grandfather then, you had lived in the same neighborhood with him? A Yes sir, I knew him well.
Q He didn't die for a year or two after that did he? A After when, Mr. Hutchings?
Q After his admission to citizenship? A No sir, he didn't die I think until '91 or '90, several years after.
Q Very old man when he died? A Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q About what age? A He was approximately 80 years old.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q When he died? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q That about 1891? A I think so, yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Applicants object to the testimony of the witness elicited by interrogatories of Counsel for the Cherokee Nation relating to his family, their history, etc, as being irmaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

James R. Dawson, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Your name is James R. Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Where do you live? A Afton, Indian Territory.
Q What is your age? A 45.
Q You are a physician are you not? A Yes sir.
Q Was James Dawson, whose family was admitted in 1884, an uncle of yours? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know what his age was at that time? A No sir, I do not, only approximately.
Q State as nearly as you can? A At the time of theadmission?
Q Yes sir? A About 70, I don't know exactly.
Q How old was he when he died? A I would suppose he was about 78.
Q What was your age in 1884? A I am 45.
Q What year were you born, Doctor? A I was born in '55.
Q Must have been '56? A Yes sir, that's right.
Q What was your age then? A In '84?
Q Yes sir? A About 28.
Q Were you present at the time that James Dawson family was admitted, or at any time while their case was pending before the Cherokee citizenship commission? A Not while the James Dawson case was, no sir.
Q You were present during your father's case? A I was there at the time.
Q When was that? A The dates I disremember; when the case first come up, I disremember the exact date.
Q How long were you there? A I was there about a week.
Q Was that when it first came up you say? A Yes sir.
Q Nothing was done? A No sir.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q You never saw Dr. Baker? A Yes sir.
Q Did he and your uncle Jim ie use to talk about how they played together when they were boys? A My uncle Jim and Dr. Baker talk?
Q Yes? A I never saw them together.
Q They were about the same age? A Yes sir, I believe Dr. Baker was 15 years older probably.
Q Dr. Baker must have been mistaken about his own age? A Guessing, that's all I know about his age.
Q The Doctor had been paralyzed, rather a decrepit looking man at the time he was over here at this citizenship business? A No sir, not as I know anything about.
Q He was near about 70 then? A I couldn't tell you, he was an old looking man.
Q Your uncle Jim was about 70? A Yes sir.

TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF THE CHEROKEE NATION.

W. W. HASTINGS, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A W. W. Hastings.
Q Residence? A Tahlequah, age 35.
Q You are attorney for the Cherokee Nation in the general preparation of these cases? A Yes sir.
Q Just state how it happened that you summoned Mr. Campbell Taylor, and what occurred between you with reference to his testimony?
A Well there had been some talk, as the testimony here indicates, that there was perhaps fraud in the admission of this family, and by agreement with counsel on the other side, and the Commission, this case was set for the 17th day of March, and some short time prior to that, as the attorney for the Nation I began to make some preparation or inquiry into the case, and I wrote a great many letters around to different people and among them I wrote C. H. Taylor to come down here. I don't think in that letter that I told him what I wanted with him. I don't think I told him the case that I wanted him to testify in, that is my recollection now. Mr. Taylor prior to that time, neither directly nor indirectly, so far as I know, ever gave me any information voluntarily against this family, or ever said anything that would lead me to believe that he knew anything of a fraudulent character connected with it. But I summonsed him; perhaps the fact that I knew he had been connected with them in some way and that I perhaps also would get some information from him. Well he came in response to a letter that I wrote, and I took him up to my office. I talked to him quite a long while. He was exceedingly reluctant about giving any testimony whatever, he told me first and last that he didn't intend to testify before the Commission. He told me he had been attorney for these people, and he didn't believe he could be compelled to testify, and that is he was put upon the stand he would claim that privilege, and he didn't believe I could force him to testify. I talked to him at some considerable length; I asked him what he knew about it; of course he for a long time declined to tell me; and what information I did get from him was by piecemeal. He was exceedingly reluctant all through the interview to give any information. I asked him finally though that if the Court compelled him to testify when he got before the Commission, if he would tell the facts about it, and he said that he would. I told him then that I would subpoena him.

Well we talked quite a good while and finally after always telling me that he intended to claim that privilege, and never wanting to testify, he detailed to me the facts just as he told them on the stand; I don't believe there is the slightest variation, except that he perhaps was not so full at that time and it was told by piecemeal, but I got all those facts out of him, or very nearly all those facts out of him. He may have elaborated a little more there by examination; but he never voluntarily gave me any information at all, either directly or so far as I know indirectly. I don't think he sent any one to me. I got his name because I heard he was connected with the case, and perhaps knew something about it, like I did a great many other people, some of whom I didn't bring, because they didn't know what I supposed they did know about the case.

With reference to S. H. Benge, I want to state that he never voluntarily gave me any information at all about this case, nor did I know that he knew anything in connection with this case until I sent J. C. Starr over to S. H. Benge's place to take his affidavit on Saturday, March 18, in the W. H. and J. W. Shoemake case, and their descendants. I had heard that Mr. Benge knew some important facts in connection with the Shoemake case and I sent him over there then to take that affidavit; and when Mr. Starr came back he told me that he knew some facts also in connection with these other cases, and I was surprised to find he had instead of one affidavit, in the Shoemake case, that he also had another affidavit in the Dawson case. That is the first information I had that Mr. Benge knew anything whatever in connection with the Dawson case, and therefore he never voluntarily, either directly or indirectly gave any information prior to that time to me.

I impressed upon Mr. Taylor that the Nation only wanted the absolute truth in this matter; that it was not seeking anything else but the truth, and didn't want him to tell anything else but the truth.

I want to say again that after he was on the stand and left that evening, and after Captain McKennon, or counsel for the [illegible], had indicated his willingness for Mr. Taylor to testify, that he went over all of these facts that he testified to on the stand subsequent to that time in the presence of J. C. Starr in my office. I simply wanted to go on the stand for the purpose of showing that Mr. Taylor hadn't voluntarily given me any information, and I make this statement for that purpose.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q You had no power to compel him to give you any information at that time at all did you? A No sir, none other than the persuation that I brought to use.

Q He therefore did it simply upon your persuation? A Yes sir.

Q You knew he had been acting as attorney for these parties?

A Yes sir, I had seen from the record that he did too.

Q And he told you so? A Yes sir.

BY COMMISSION: [illegible] attorneys for the applicant and the representatives of the Cherokee Nation will be granted thirty days from the [illegible] transcript in this case in which to file [illegible] the Commission.

I, M. D. Green, [illegible] as stenographer to the Commission to the five civilized tribes, do hereby certify that I correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in the case of [illegible] and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my shorthand notes thereof.

(Signed) M. D. Green.

I, Arthur C. Evans, being duly sworn, state that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes I copied the foregoing, and that the same is a true and complete copy of the original.

Martin, a Notary Public on October 4, 1900, and further proceedings were had therein before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory on March 17, 1902. All of these proceedings have been made a part of the record herein.

The evidence, and an examination of the records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission show that on January 11, 1883, one Robert Dawson and his adult children, F. M. Dawson, Elbert Dawson, Jasper Dawson, Mollie Dawson, Wilborn Dawson, James Dawson, Rial Dawson, Josephine Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson and John Dawson were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, commonly known as the "Teehee Court", and that on September 9, 1884, one James Dawson, a brother of the Robert Dawson aforesaid, together with his adult children, Ella Dawson, W. A. Dawson, Malvina Dawson and Missouri Dawson were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship commonly known as the "Sheets Court." In addition to their tribal enrollment as shown by the evidence herein, it also appears from an examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, in the possession of this Commission, that F. M. Dawson is identified on the Cherokee pay rolls of 1883 and 1894, Robert Dawson on the Cherokee pay roll of 1886, Mollie Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, Wilborn Dawson on the pay rolls of 1886 and 1894, James Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883 and 1894, Rial Dawson on the pay rolls of 1886 and 1894, Josephine Dawson on the pay roll of 1886, Jane Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, Joseph Dawson and John Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883, 1886 and 1894, Ella Dawson and W.A.

Dawson on the pay roll of 1886, and Missouri Dawson on the pay roll of 1894.

A majority of the above named persons, together with the descendants of the persons admitted as aforesaid and such white persons as may have intermarried with the said Dawsons or their descendants are the applicants herein.

For convenience, the applications are divided into groups:

Group 1, includes the applications of Francis M. Dawson and those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 734, D 583, D 581, D 584, D 588 and D 835.

The evidence shows that Francis M. Dawson is the same person admitted to citizenship as hereinbefore stated under the name of F.M. Dawson. Katie Dawson, his wife, was married to him on November 21, 1880. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since they were married, and the six children included in the application of said Francis M. Dawson, and hereinbefore named are the issue of the marriage aforesaid. All the applicants herein are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

John Dawson, William R. Dawson, Lizzie Atkins, Sorby Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, Jr., and Arizona Allred are the children of said Francis M. Dawson by a former wife, Julia Ann. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship. John Dawson, Lizzie Atkins and Francis M. Dawson, Jr., are identified on the Strip Payment roll of 1894, and William R. Dawson and Arizona Allred are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Andrew C. Atkins was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on March 23, 1891, to the above named Lizzie Dawson. He has resided in the Cherokee Nation with his said wife since they were married, and the four children included in his application, and hereinbefore named are the issue of that marriage. The oldest child, Arthur, is identified on the Cherokee pay roll of 1894, and the three younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Arizona Allred, nee Dawson, came from Arkansas to the Cherokee Nation for the first time in 1894, remained there about two years and then returned to Arkansas, where she was married to Lan Allred. Such marriage was not in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. Arizona Allred and her husband came to the Cherokee Nation in 1898, stayed there a month and returned to Arkansas where they remained until September, 1898, at which time they came to the Cherokee Nation, remained there about a year and returned to Arkansas in 1899, where they were living at the date of this application. William C. Allred is the child of said Arizona Allred and possesses no rights not acquired by his mother. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Paragraph 9, Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) provides:

> "No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the Nation in which he claims citizenship."

The evidence further shows that Francis M. Dawson, his wife, Katie and William R. Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, Jr., and Lizzie Atkins have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883, and Andrew C. Atkins, the husband of said Lizzie Atkins, since 1891, and that John Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation for at least fourteen years prior to the date of his application. The residence of the minor children of the above named persons is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group II, includes the applications of Samuel R. Dawson, together with those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 350, D 362, D 388, D 365, D 482 and D 408.

The evidence shows that Samuel R. Dawson is identified as the Rial Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. His wife, Catherine, a white woman, was married to him on July 11, 1866. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since their marriage, and August and Mate Dawson are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. Samuel R. Dawson, his wife and children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Robert Dawson, Albert H. Dawson, Josephine Bulawsky, formerly Josephine Dawson, John W. Dawson, and Katie Newman, formerly Katie Dawson are the children of said Samuel R. Dawson. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Sarah F. Dawson, nee Abbott, was married to the said Albert H. Dawson in October, 1894. She has lived with her said husband, since they were married. Ralph H., Alford and Cecil Dawson are the issue of that marriage. Sarah F. Dawson and her child Ralph H. are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. Alford is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission. The evidence further shows that the youngest child, Cecil Dawson, is dead.

August Bulawsky, was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on May 25, 1893, to the said Josephine Dawson. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. The four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and the Strip payment roll of 1894. May Bulawsky is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and Oscar Bulawsky is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Mannie Dawson, nee Baugher, was married to the said John F. Dawson on September 2, 1894, and she has lived with her said husband since they were married.

The evidence further shows that Samuel R. Dawson, his wife, Catherine, and Robert Dawson, Albert H. Dawson, John W. Dawson, and Katie Newman have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1886, August Bulawsky and his wife Josephine, since 1892, and Sarah F. and Mannie Dawson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group III, includes the application of John Dawson, and those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 578, D 366 and D 530. The evidence shows that John Dawson is the same person admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. Sarah J. Dawson, nee Wood, his wife, a white woman, was married to him on October 4, 1871. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since they were married and the nine children included in the application of said John Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. John Dawson, his wife, and his seven older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Thomas P. Dawson and Orle H. Dawson are the children of said John Dawson. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship, and they are both identified on the Cherokee

Census roll of 1896.

Thomas P. Dawson was married on April 24, 1898, to Allen A. Allison, and Marion J. Dawson is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Orle H. Dawson was married on December 28, 1899, to Effie York, and Burr R. and James W. Dawson are the issue of that marriage. The said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said John Dawson and his wife, Sarah J., have resided together in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that said Orle H. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883, and that Thomas P. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888. The residence of the minor children herein is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IV, includes the applications of those claiming through the said Josephine Dawson, now deceased. At the time of her admission she was the wife of one Thomas Pierce, but was admitted to citizenship under maiden name of Dawson. The group embraces cases numbered D 408, D 409, D 431, D 471, D 472 and D 478.

The evidence shows that Robert Pierce, William Pierce, Charles E. Pierce, Oma Gray, formerly Oma Pierce, Effie Pierce (now Effie Akins) and Nancy J. Bogle, formerly Nancy J. Pierce are the children of said Josephine Dawson. They were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Nellie Pierce, a white woman, was married to said Robert Pierce on July 15, 1894. She has lived with her said husband since they were married, and Lyrtle and Arthur Pierce are the issue of that marriage. Nellie Pierce is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and her two children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Ona Gray was married to John B. Gray on April 7, 1898, and Cecil and Velton Gray are the issue of that marriage. Ona Gray is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894 and her children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

John S. Bogle was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 5, 1894, to the above named Nancy J. Pierce. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. John S. Bogle and his two older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his four younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said William Pierce died in January, 1902.

It further appears that Robert Pierce, Charles E. Pierce, Nancy J. Bogle and Ona Gray have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; that John S. Bogle, husband of Nancy J. Bogle, and Nellie Pierce, wife of Robert Pierce, have resided in said Nation ever since they were married, and the residence of the minor children herein is considered to be that of their parents with whom they are living. It appears that Effie Akin was seventeen years old at the date of the application for her enrollment, and it further appears that she resided in the Cherokee Nation from about 1886 up to December, 1900, when she went to Colorado, was married there to Will Akin, and is now living in that state with her said husband.

Group V, includes the application of the said Joseph Dawson, Wilborn Dawson and James Dawson, and embraces cases number D 364, D 475 and D 526.

Joseph R. Dawson is identified on the Joseph Dawson roll to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. He was married to Florence Jackson on May 16, 1886, and they have lived together since the date of their marriage. The said Florence Jackson is the daughter of Ella Dawson, but she was of age at the date of her mother's admission to citizenship. The six children included in the application of said Joseph R. Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the marriage between the said Joseph R. Dawson and Florence Jackson. The applicant, his said wife and his four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Wilborn Dawson is identified as the person of that name admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

James R. Dawson is identified as the James Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as heretofore stated. His wife, Martha A. Dawson was married to him on February 20, 1890. She has lived with her said husband since the date of their marriage, and the four children included in the application of said James R. Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. The applicant, his said wife and his three older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The youngest child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that Joseph R. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that Florence Dawson and Wilborn Dawson have resided in said Nation since 1886, and that James R. Dawson has resided in said Nation since 1883, excepting a temporary absence from 1889 to 1891. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group VI, includes the application of Mollie Dawson and those claiming through her and embraces case numbered D 818.

The evidence shows that Mollie Moore, formerly Dawson, is identified as the Mollie Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. Her husband, Charles T. Moore, was married to her under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on January 17, 1887. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. Charles T. Moore, his wife Mollie, and his four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896; the two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that said Charles T. Moore, his wife Mollie and his oldest child have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1887; the younger children have resided in said nation all their lives.

Group VII, includes the applications of those claiming through the above named Jane Dawson, who, at the time of her admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, as hereinbefore stated, was the wife of one Alexander Blasingame, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson. Jane Dawson is a resident of Arkansas, and is not an applicant for enrollment. This group embraces cases numbered D 832, D 833 and D 834.

The evidence shows that Henry A. Blasingame, Elbert L. Blasingame, and James R. Blasingame are the children of said Jane Dawson. They were minors at the time of their mother's admission to citizenship and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Henry A. Blasingame was married to his wife Birdie J., on December 6, 1896, and Vinnie C. Blasingame is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Ida Blasingame, a white woman, was married to the said Elbert L. Blasingame on September 5, 1894. She has lived with her said husband ever since they were married and the four minor children included in the application of said Elbert L. Blasingame are the issue of that marriage. The said Ida Blasingame and her two older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Mary A. Blasingame was married to the said James R. Blasingame on August 11, 1895. She has lived with her said husband since they were married and the three minor children included in the application of said James R. Blasingame, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. Mary A. Blasingame and her oldest child are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said Henry A. Blasingame, Elbert L. Blasingame and James R. Blasingame removed to the Cherokee Nation in 1897 and have resided therein with their said wives ever since. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group VIII, includes the applications of those claiming through the said Elbert Dawson, and embraces cases numbered D 435, D 604, D 608, D 605, D 609, D 617, D 626 and D 627.

The evidence shows that Zona Patterson, formerly Dawson, William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Richard W. Dawson, Ella L. Spickerman, formerly Dawson, and Francis M. Dawson are the children of the said Elbert Dawson. All of them, excepting the said Francis M. Dawson, were minors at the time of their father's admission to citizenship. Zona Patterson is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson are identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894. An examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, in the possession of this Commission, shows that the said Ella L. Spickerman is also identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894.

Martin L. Patterson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on July 13, 1890, to the said Nona Dawson. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. Martin L. Patterson and his three older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his three younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Alice Dawson, nee Alexander, was married to the said William C. Dawson on November 18, 1886. She has lived with her said husband ever since they were married.

Elbert B. Dawson was married on February 16, 1898, to Cora Bright, a non-citizen, and his child Ralph E. Dawson is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Sarah J. Dawson, nee Jones, was married to the above named Elbert Dawson about 1854, and lived with him as his wife until his death in February, 1899, and has not re-married since his death. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship.

Richard W. Dawson was married to Luella Mason, a white woman, on January 24, 1898. His child Ina E. Dawson is the issue of that marriage, and she is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Ella L. Spickerman was married to John J. Spickerman, a white man on September 7, 1897. Her children Nellen J. and William Glenn are the issue of that marriage. They are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

It further appears from the evidence that Francis M. Dawson, son of Elbert Dawson, at the time of his father's admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation was twenty-two or twenty-three years old. There is no evidence that the said Francis M. Dawson has been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 10, 1898 (29 Stats., 321), Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), Provides for the enrollment of,

> "all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents, by reason of their Cherokee blood have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, and who were minors when their parents were so admitted."

The evidence further shows that Zona Patterson, William G. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson, and Ella L. Spickerman since 1883; Alice Dawson since 1886, and Martin L. Patterson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IX, includes the applications of the said Missouri Dawson, and those claiming through her. The said Missouri Dawson at the time of her admission to citizenship was the wife of one John W. Graham, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson. This group embraces cases numbered D 23, D 35, D 836, D 1124, D 1125, D 1126, D 1127 and D 1128.

The evidence shows that John W. Graham was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on February 12, 1888, to the said Missouri Dawson. He had been formerly married to her in the State of Texas in 1866, and has lived with her since that time. Tenga V. and Robert S. Graham are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. John W. Graham, his wife and two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

ship in the Cherokee Nation was twenty-two or twenty-three years old. There is no evidence that the said Francis M. Dawson has been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides for the enrollment of,

> "all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents, by reason of their Cherokee blood have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, and who were minors when their parents were so admitted."

The evidence further shows that Zona Patterson, William C. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; Robert L. Dawson, Elbert D. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson, and Ella L. Spickerman since 1883; Alice Dawson since 1886, and Martin L. Patterson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IX, includes the applications of the said Missouri Dawson, and those claiming through her. The said Missouri Dawson at the time of her admission to citizenship was the wife of one John W. Graham, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson. This group embraces cases numbered, D 23, D 35, D 836, D 1124, D 1125, D 1126, D 1127 and D 1128.

The evidence shows that John W. Graham was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on February 12, 1888, to the said Missouri Dawson. He had been formerly married to her in the State of Texas in 1886, and has lived with her since that time. Tompa V. and Robert S. Graham are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. John W. Graham, his wife and two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Joe E. Graham was married to Mary Bradshaw, a non-citizen on January 6, 1898. William C. Graham is the issue of that marriage, and he is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

John F. Graham was married on February 11, 1900, to Mattie Lawson, a non-citizen, and Edna M. and Robert Lee are the issue of that marriage. Said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Bessie Graham was married on November 2, 1892, to the said James M. Graham. She has lived with him since the date of their marriage, and the six children included in the application of said James M. Graham, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the said marriage. The oldest child Marion is identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894, and the five younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said John W. Graham, his wife Missouri Graham, Gideon Graham, Mathew A. Painter, and his wife Laverna A. Painter, Florence P. Bradshaw, John F. Graham and Joe Willie Neal have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888, and that Joe E. Graham and James M. Graham have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group X, includes the application of the said Ella Dawson and those claiming through her. The said Ella Dawson, at the time of her admission to citizenship, was the wife of Green W. Jackson, but she was admitted to citizenship under her maiden name of Dawson. This group embraces cases numbered D 395, D 476, D 508, D 830 and D 847.

The evidence shows that Green W. Jackson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on March 24, 1887 to the said Ella Dawson. He had been previously married to her in Texas prior to her admission to citizenship. From an affidavit made a part of this record it appears that Green W. Jackson died subsequent to the date of this application, and prior to September 1, 1902.

The evidence further shows that Flora Harmon, formerly Jackson, Tashie A. Jackson, William Jackson and Fannie Lenox, formerly Jackson are the children of said Ella Dawson, now Ella Jackson. Flora Harmon, Tashie A. Jackson and Fannie Lenox were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

James H. Harmon was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 24, 1887, to the said Flora Jackson. He has lived with his wife since the date of their marriage, and the four minor children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the said marriage. James H. Harmon and his three elder children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The youngest child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

William C. Lenox was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 1, 1888, to the said Fannie Jackson. He has lived with his wife since the date of their marriage, and the two children Birtie E. and Myrtle Lenox, included in his application, are the issue of the said marriage. William C. Lenox and his two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Lizzie Jackson claims to have been married in 1868 to the said William Jackson, who is now deceased. It appears that William Jackson at the date of his mother's admission to citizenship, was over twenty-one years old. There is no evidence that the said William Jackson was ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats. 321). Lizzie Jackson and the five minor children included in her application, and hereinbefore named, are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and they take only such rights as may have possessed by the said William Jackson. The authority of this Commission therein is defined in Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), heretofore quoted.

The evidence further shows that the said Nila Jackson, the said Flora Harmon and the said Tobie A. Jackson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884, and that William C. Lenox, and his wife Fannie Lenox have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XI, includes the applications of those claiming through Malvina Dawson and embraces case numbered D 839.

The evidence shows that James Lowe is the son of the said Malvina Dawson, and that at the time of her admission to citizenship the said James Lowe was over 21 years old. There is no evidence that the said James Lowe was ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). It further appears that the said James Lowe was married on June 12, 1887, to Nellie Knight, a white woman, and the four minor children included in his application and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. James Lowe and his said children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896 and said children take only the rights which may have been acquired by their father.

The authority of the Commission herein is defined in Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), heretofore quoted.

Group XII, includes the applications of those claiming through the said W. A. Dawson and embraces cases numbered D 405, D 406, D 715, R 12 and R 13.

The evidence shows that Millie T. Dawson was married to the said W. A. Dawson in 1892 and lived with him as his wife in the Cherokee Nation until his death in 1899, and that she has not re-married since his death. Texanna Woolley is the daughter of said W. A. Dawson and his former wife Melissa A. Dawson. Texanna Woolley was a minor at the date of her father's admission to citizenship, and she is identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894. She was married on March 27, 1898, to James Woolley, and her children Irene V. and Wilburn E. are the issue of that marriage. They are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Henry T. Richardson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on July 11, 1886, to one Sellar Dawson, who was the daughter of the said W. A. Dawson by his first wife Melissa A. Sellar Dawson was a minor at the date of her father's admission to citizenship. Henry T. Richardson lived in the Cherokee Nation with his said wife Sellar from the date of their marriage until her death in 1892. On September 22, 1898, Henry T. Richardson married one Kitty Flournoy nee Dawson. The said Kitty Flournoy was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. Of the children herein applied for, Delia F. Richardson is the child of the applicant by his first wife, Sellar. Finis T. Richardson and Jasper C. Richardson are children by his wife Kitty. Edgar, Walter, Alice, Laura, Oscar, Claude and Nina Flournoy are the children of his said wife Kitty by a former husband.

The six older children were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on December 1, 1894, with their mother as the members of her family. The youngest child Edna Flourney was born in 1896 and was living at the date of this application. Delia F. Richardson is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and Finis T. and Jasper C. Richardson are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Etta Brauer is the daughter of said W. A. Dawson, and was a minor at the date of her father's admission. She was married in 1892 to a non-citizen but such marriage was not in accordance with Cherokee laws. She is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Melissa A. Dawson was married to the said W. A. Dawson in the State of Texas on September 28, 1873. The Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in the case of Melissa A. Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson, decided that Melissa A. Dawson, the applicant herein was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of intermarriage with her said husband, W. A. Dawson. She is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and she has not re-married since her divorce from said W. A. Dawson.

The evidence shows that Texanna Woolley has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; that Etta Brauer and Melissa A. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation, with the exception of temporary absences, since 1884; that Millie T. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1892; that Henry T. Richardson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1886, and that Kitty Richardson, his wife, has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XIII, includes the following applications: Hiram F. Peddie, et al D 821; William D. Douthitt, D 822; Alonzo M. Fishbeck, D 843; Florence Morgan, et al D 737; John E. Fishbeck, D 845 and George A. Embry, et al D 976. The persons enrolled in these applications are related to the above named Dawsons. They are not claiming the right to enrollment by virtue of such relationship, but rely upon a separate adjudication of their rights.

The evidence shows that Hiram F. Weddle was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on September 13, 1884, to Lula P. Douthitt, who was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the said "Spears Court" on September 13, 1884. Curtis, Morris O. and Roy Weddle are the issue of the said marriage. Hiram F. Weddle and his said wife are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and their three children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

William D. Douthitt is the brother of said Lula P. Weddle, and was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation with his said sister on September 13, 1884. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Alonzo M. Fishback was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on May 17, 1881, to Lavrna A. Dawson. He had been previously married to the same wife in Texas in 1877, and has lived with her ever since. It appears that Lavrna Fishback was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. William A. and Annie B. Fishback are the issue of the said marriage. Alonzo M. Fishback and his said wife and children are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his wife is also identified on the Cherokee pay roll of 1880.

Florence Morgan, the wife of Albert L. Morgan, is the daughter of the Kitty Richardson heretofore mentioned and was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on December 1, 1894 with the said Kitty Richardson as a member of her family. Clide and Alice A. Morgan are her children by her said husband. The said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

John E. Fishback is the son of Laverna Fishback, who was re-admitted to citizenship on December 1, 1894, as heretofore stated. He was a minor at the date of his mother's admission to citizenship and he is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

George A. Mabry was married to one Edna Dawson in the State of Arkansas in 1884. He claims to have been married under a Cherokee marriage license to his said wife in 1889, but he presents no satisfactory proof of such marriage. Edna Dawson was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. Roby and Charley Mabry are her children by her said husband, George A. Mabry. Edna Mabry is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894, and the two children were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship.

The evidence further shows that Alonzo M. Fishback and his wife Laverna A. Fishback have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that Lula P. Weddle, William D. Douthitt, and John E. Fishback have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884, and that Florence Morgan and Edna Mabry have resided in said Nation since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

All birth affidavits for the minor children embraced in this decision, and hereinbefore noted, are made a part of this record.

It is contended by the Cherokee Nation that the applicants herein are not entitled to be enrolled by this Commission because they have never been lawfully admitted or enrolled by the Cherokee authorities, and that the judgment of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship admitting Robert Dawson and his family was obtained by fraud on the part of said Dawson.

In considering the question at issue, it is the opinion of this Commission that it has not power, and that it is not the purpose of this proceeding, to review or to set aside the judgment in the Dawson case, or to determine such questions as were necessarily involved in the issues before the Cherokee Commission, and were passed upon by that Commission. In United States vs. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. Page 61, it is stated, "the doctrine is well settled that the Court will not set aside a judgment because it was founded on perjured testimony or for any matter which was actually presented and considered in the judgment assailed." Only such facts therefore, are considered by this Commission, as were not part of the record in the Robert Dawson case before the Teehee Commission, and which tend to show whether the judgment admitting the Dawsons was a bona fide judgment of the Teehee Commission, or whether such judgment is void because of fraud, and upon this proposition the burden of proof is upon those attacking the judgment.

Briefly stated, the circumstances attending the admission of the Dawsons appear to be as follows:

On September 24, 1881, an application was made to the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship known as the "Teehee Court" for admission to Cherokee citizenship of Robert Dawson and the members of his family above mentioned. The members of that Commission were Thomas Teehee, Alex Wolfe and T. F. Thompson. The first two were full blood Cherokee Indians; they could understand, but could not talk English. One D. W. C. Duncan was the Clerk of the Commission. The Dawson case was continued several times before final decision. J. M. Bryan appears to have been an attorney in the case, and after some delay he notified Francis M. Dawson that the case would be taken up by the Commission at its session in January, 1883, and also informed him that C.N.Taylor would look after Dawson's interests as he, Bryan, would be in Washington. On receipt of this notice Francis M. Dawson went to Fort Gibson, Cherokee Nation, and made arrangements with his uncle Samuel H. Benge to go to Tahlequah and conduct the case. Benge who is a witness herein testifies that he was connected with the Dawson case when it was commenced in 1881; that it was continued several times for want of evidence, and that in January, 1883, in company with F. M. Dawson he went to Tahlequah and while there secured the testimony of Tosh Rogers, a negro, who knew the Dawson's ancestors, and that after getting his evidence the case was submitted to the Commission. He further testifies that the Commission rendered a decision against the Dawsons and that next morning the Commission reopened the case, but not upon motion of the witness, and rendered a judgment admitting the Dawsons to citizenship. He further states that on his way home to Fort Gibson with Dawson he remarked to the latter, "it was a pretty hard blow when they rendered a decision against us," to which Dawson is alleged to have replied, "yes, but Duncan was the man to reach and he reached him with five hundred dollars."

Dawson denies ever having had such a conversation and says that he did not return to Fort Gibson with Benge but went home to Arkansas by a different route.

C. H. Taylor testifies that he was an attorney in the case and was present when the case was decided. He says there were only two Commissioners present, Tochee and Wolfe. He further testifies that D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of the Court asked the witness to let him know when any large citizenship cases came up; that he introduced F. M. Dawson to Duncan on the evening of January 10th, heard part of a conversation between them in which Duncan addressing Dawson said, "there is a hitch in your evidence, if that was straightened out it will be all right." Next morning witness says Dawson told him to call up the case, which he did. That there was no additional evidence introduced and no argument made, and that the case was then decided in favor of the Dawsons. Witness further testifies that Dawson gave him twenty dollars and said he would send him the balance in a short time, that in the course of ten days he sent him one hundred dollars with directions to pay over half of it to Duncan; that Dawson soon afterwards sent him another hundred dollars with the same instruction to give Duncan half of it.

Dawson denied the matters testified to by Taylor excepting in the matter of paying Taylor money, which he admits in part, but says that the twenty dollars mentioned was sent to Taylor about a year after the decision, and that he instructed Taylor to pay it over to Duncan to pay him for a land claim, and that the other money was in payment of J. M. Bryan's attorney fees which Taylor represented to Dawson he had for collection against him. Taylor's reputation for truth and veracity has been impeached by various disinterested witnesses.

The evidence which may be considered as tending to support the charge of fraud is the testimony of S. H. Denge, C. M. Taylor, Thomas . Dabeart, J. L. Clinkenbeard, James T. Lewis, C. G. Draught and David Meredith.

S. H. Denge testifies that a judgment adverse to the Dawsons was rendered by the Commission on the evening of one day and without any additional proceedings in the case that judgment was reversed on the morning of the next day.

Even if this were a material fact, there is no other proof that two judgments in the case were ever rendered. The record of the proceedings and judgment in the Commission's docket is all on one page, the entry of the application in 1861 and the first continuance being entered under authority of a former Commission and by a different clerk, and there is no evidence of erasure on that page. It is not an unusual thing for a Court to change its judgment, and this fact, if it is a fact, is not in itself any evidence of fraud.

Thomas B. Dabeart testifies that one James Dawson a man of forty or fifty years of age, in company with Butler, the Commission's interpreter and Jim Smith, solicitor for the Nation, came to the witness in Tahlequah the evening of January 10, 1883, to borrow some money; that Dawson was vouched for by Butler as a responsible party and that Dawson told the witness that he had to have money that night, that his case was to be submitted the next day if he could get some money, that Smith had agreed to submit the case without evidence, and that witness thereupon let Dawson have ten dollars.

Admitting all this to be true and that the influence of these officials was purchased for the sum of ten dollars, the Commission fails to see how these alleged facts show that the Court was imposed upon or misled. Bribery of officials to use their influence with the Commission would not necessarily vitiate the judgment, but it must appear that the fraud, or corruption reached the members of the Commission and tainted the judgment itself. The case was not submitted without evidence as appears from the record, and it is shown that such evidence was carefully considered by that Commission Furthermore, the evidence shows that there was no such person then in Tahlequah as the James Dawson described by witness.

Clinkenbeard testifies that he had a talk with Elbert Dawson about 1881; that Dawson told him he had only one witness, Dr. Baker of Arkansas, "an old man 85 or 90 years old who did not know straight up" and that he could give Dr. Baker four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would swear black was white. Witness further testifies that Dawson told him that money was what made the mare go in Texas, and that he had found out that it goes here too.

Assuming that this Commission can go into the question of perjury in connection with evidence in that case, the testimony of Clinkenbeard establishes, if anything, only the facts stated and does not prove that Dr. Baker committed perjury in giving his testimony before the Commission. Further, it is not clear that Dr. Baker was the only witness in the case. Benge stated that Tosh Rogers was a witness, Duncan is under that impression also, and T. F. Thompson, one of the Commissioners, states that he thinks there were three witnesses. The testimony of Dr. Baker, seems, however, to be the only testimony preserved of record. As to whether Doctor Baker offered perjured testimony by Dawson's procurement, it is proper to state that the evidence of W. H. Curtis and A. S. McFennon, witnesses for applicants, show that Doctor Baker was a man of integrity and was not addicted to drinking.

The testimony of James W. Lewis is to the effect that he had a conversation with F. M. Dawson about 1885, in which Dawson had told the witness that it had cost him seven hundred dollars to get his rights. Draught also testifies that he was an applicant for citizenship about 1881 or 1882, and that while his case was pending he had a talk with F. M. Dawson who told him that if he (the witness) ever got in, it would cost him seven hundred dollars, and that Dawson told him he had paid one witness three hundred dollars, and made arrangements with the Court to get the Dawsons in at one hundred dollars a family. David Meredith testifies that he had a talk with old James Dawson in 1888, and that the latter told the witness it cost him twelve hundred dollars to get his case through.

It can hardly be urged that such evidence is sufficient to show that the members of the Tecmse Commission were corrupted by the fraudulent use of money. So far as these witnesses have been able to testify the money spent by the Dawsons might have been for proper and legitimate purposes. F. M. Dawson gives a detailed statement of what the case cost him and his brother in a legitimate way. The presumption can not be indulged that such moneys were used for fraudulent purposes and the proof to the contrary must be very clear before this Commission will deny applicants the right to be enrolled upon that ground.

Admitting the truth of all the testimony in this case as to the actual transfer of money by the Dawsons, it appears that Duncan, Butler and Smith were the only beneficiaries of that money. There is no evidence that the members of the Commission received or were offered any of it.

The judgment entered in the Commission's docket shows the signature of the three members of the Commission appended thereto. There is some conflict as to whether Duncan signed Thompson's name, or whether Thompson affixed his own signature. Duncan testified that all three signatures were made by him as Clerk under authority of the Commissioners present, the two full bloods being unable to sign their names. T. F. Thompson testifies that he signed the original transcript of the judgment, which was made on the day of its rendition. The question, however, is not considered to be very material. The signing of judgments by each Commissioner appears to have been a matter of custom only. T. F. Thompson testifies that he remembers the Dawson case and recognizes the judgment therein as the final judgment of the Commission, and that there was no fraud or corruption in the procurement of that judgment by the Dawsons or by any one else so far as he knew.

Much evidence has been introduced by the Cherokee Nation for the purpose of showing that the ancestor, through whom the Dawsons claim, was not a Cherokee, and that other members of the Dawson family, claiming from the same source, have been denied Cherokee citizenship by subsequent Cherokee tribunals, and also by this Commission and by the United States Court. Such evidence, in the opinion of this Commission, is not competent for any purpose in this proceeding. The only question before this Commission is whether there was fraud in the procurement of the Robert Dawson judgment, and not whether the applicants are Cherokee Indians, or whether they ought to have been admitted to citizenship upon the proof submitted. These were questions presented, considered and passed upon by the Teehee Commission. If their decision is a valid and regular judgment, it is binding on this Commission. If, on the contrary, the applicants have never been lawfully admitted to citizenship, because the judgment under which they claim is void, for fraud, then the question as to whether they are Cherokees by blood is not material, as this Commission has now no authority to admit them to citizenship.

While it is true, that since 1883, a number of applicants, members of the Dawson family, have been denied admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, no argument derived therefrom is of any force, for it is also true that other members of the same family have been admitted to citizenship, and the action of the Cherokee authorities in admitting them has never been questioned by the Cherokee Nation. Whatever inference, therefore, may be drawn from these facts, applies with equal force both for and against the validity of the judgment in question.

The Dawsons have lived in the Cherokee Nation, most of them since 1883; they have exercised the rights of Cherokee citizenship for many years, some of them occupying official positions in the Nation, and no protest seems to have been made against their citizenship until within the last few years. The records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission, show, that since 1883, there have been Commissions on citizenship charged with authority to investigate the judgments of former tribunals alleged to have been secured by fraud, and the Cherokee Legislature had power to order an investigation, and to create a tribunal with authority to set aside a judgment so obtained. No such action appears to have been taken by the Cherokee authorities with reference to the judgment of the Teehee Commission in the Robert Dawson case.

After a careful consideration of all the facts in this case this Commission is of the opinion that the evidence fails to establish that the Dawsons secured their admission to citizenship by fraud or that the judgment of the Teehee Commission as rendered January 11, 1883, was fraudulent as the result of corruption, bribery, or deception upon the part of the Dawsons, or their agents, and that such judgment, and also the judgment of the Spears Commission in 1884, and the Act of the Cherokee National Council of December 1, 1894, which have not been attacked by the Cherokee Nation, being regular on their face, must therefore be accepted by this Commission as the valid judgments of the duly constituted Cherokee authorities.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 1st, 1902

John Dawson,

Talala, Indian Territory,

Sir:-

You are hereby notified that the application of yourself

for enrollment as citizen of the Cherokee Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 17th day of March, 1902.

On said date, you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission, in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting your application.

You are further notified that the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony tending to disprove your right to enrollment, but said Representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to introduce such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

Mabry as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation; and dismissing the application for the enrollment of William Pierce, Cecil Dawson, Green W. Jackson, Liddie Graham and Margaret Graham.

You have heretofore been furnished with a copy of the record of proceedings had in this case.

You are hereby advised that the Cherokee Nation protests against the action of the Commission in this case, a copy of which protest has been furnished both yourself and the principal applicant, by the attorney for the Nation.

The decision, together with the record of proceedings had in this case will be transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his review and decision. The action of the Secretary will be made known to you as soon as the Commission is informed of same.

You are requested to forward to the Commission two copies of your printed brief in this case, in order that the same may be included in the record to be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior

CHEROKEE ENROLLMENT
Francis M. Dawson et al., Group 1.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 25, 1903, transmitting the record relative to the consolidated case of Francis M. Dawson, et al., applicants for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

December 23, 1902, the Commission found that certain of the applicants whose names will be given hereinafter were entitled to enrollment as citizens. The Nation protests against the Commission's decision and takes the position that certain of the parties to this case and some of their ancestors from whom the descendants claim the right to enrollment were enrolled by fraud. The Nation claims "that not a single drop of Cherokee blood courses through the veins of any of these applicants," and that "they illegally used money with which to secure perjured testimony and to bribe the attaches of the court and the court itself."

The Commission included all of the applicants in one decision, but for your convenience the office will treat the case by groups, mentioning the parties in each group in separate reports and give the group to which they belong and the page of the group where the testimony relating to each principal applicant begins.

D-324, Group 1, page 1.

Francis M. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself and his minor children, Lula, Ray, Jessie J., Jacob L., Hugh A., and Laura A. Dawson, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Katie Dawson, as an intermarried citizen.

D-330, Group 1, page 7.

John Dawson applied for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood.

D-331, Group 1, page 9.

William R. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself and his wife, Fannie M. Dawson, as citizens by blood. The Commission states that Fannie M. Dawson has been differently classed and is not embraced in its decision, consequently her application will not be considered herein.

D-334, Group 1, page 11.

Andrew C. Atkins applied for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage and for the enrollment of his wife, Lizzie Atkins, and his minor children, Arthur, Edna E., Edward C. and George J. F. Atkins, as citizens by blood.

D-588, Group 1, page 19.

Francis M. Dawson, Jr., applied for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood.

D-835, Group 1, page 20.

Francis M. Dawson, Sr., on November 20, 1900, applied for the enrollment of his daughter, Arizona Allred, and his grandson, William C. Allred, as citizens by blood.

Francis M. Dawson was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation January 11, 1883. He is a son of Robert Dawson who was admitted at the same time. He was admitted by what is generally known as the "Tehee Court." His wife, Katie Dawson, has not been admitted to citizenship. She is a white woman. The applicant has lived in the Cherokee Nation since 1883. Lula, Ray, Jessie E., Jacob Levi, Hugh A. and Laura A., are the issue of this marriage. These children, as well as their parents, are identified by the 1896 census roll, and the testimony shows that the minor applicants were all born since their father's admission. Francis M. Dawson's first wife was named Julia Ann Dawson, nee Howard. They were married January 8, 1864, and lived together until her death. The issue of that marriage is William R., Francis M.,Jr., John, Elizabeth and Arizona

Dawson, nee Allred.

John Dawson (group 1, page 7) is a son of Francis M. Dawson. His name appears on the 1894 strip payment roll. He was a minor when his father was admitted. His name does not appear upon the 1896 census roll.

William R. Dawson (group 1, page 9) is a son of Francis M. Dawson. He was a miner when his father was admitted to citizenship. December 25, 1895, he was married in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation to Fannie L. Foreman. He has lived in the nation continuously since his father's admission. He is identified by the 1896 roll. Fannie L. Dawson, nee Foreman, is identified by the 1880 roll as a native Cherokee.

Andrew C. Atkins (group 1, page 11) was married March 29, 1891, to Lizzie Atkins, nee Dawson, a daughter of Francis M. Dawson. The name of Lizzie Atkins and that of their eldest child, Arthur Atkins, appears on the 1894 strip payment roll. The three younger children, Edna E., Edward C. and George J. Atkins, are identified by birth affidavits. Andrew C. Atkins has resided in the Cherokee Nation since his marriage.

Francis M. Dawson, Jr. (group 1, page 19) is a son of Francis M. Dawson, Sr., and a grandson of Robert Dawson, the two latter having been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation January 11, 1883.

Arizona Allred (group 1, page 20) is a daughter of Francis M. Dawson and a granddaughter of Robert Dawson, and William G. Allred is a child of Arizona Allred by her husband Lon Allred, a white man, to whom she was married in 1895. She was born in Arkansas, settled in the Cherokee Nation in 1894, stayed there two or three years, and returned to Arkansas. She came back to the Cherokee Nation in 1896, stayed about a mont and went to Arkansas, returned in September, 1898, stayed about a year, and then returned to Arkansas. She was a minor when her father was admitted. Her nam is on the 1896 roll, as is also the name of her child, William C. Allred. The record does not show that she has any property in the Cherokee Nation, but from the record it appears that she removed to and settled in the nation in 1894.

The Tahee Court which admitted the parties from whom these applicants claim descent was composed of Thomas Tahee, president of the Commission or court, and Alex Wolfe and W. M. Thompson, members of the commission or court. D. W. C. Duncan was clerk of the Commission or court, and John L. Adair was at that time assistant executive secretary of the Cherokee Nation.

In addition to the brief hereinbefore mentioned the Cherokee Nation, by its attorneys, William T. Hutchings and William W. Hastings, filed a printed brief and argument, as did also J. S. Truitt, W. M. Mellette and A . S. McKennon, attorneys for the applicants.

The right of these applicants to enrollment depends upon whether they or their ancestors were properly admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, except in cases, if any there be, where any applicant or applicants have expatriated such citizenship, provided such applicants or their ancestors were admitted by proper authority.

There are ten groups of this case and as the same principle practically, is involved throughout the entire case, a discussion of the admission of the applicants or their ancestors will be made in this report only and in transmitting the other groups this report will be referred to.

The Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in its decision of December 23, 1902, found that all of the applicants to this group, except Arizona Allred and William C. Allred (D-635, Group 1, page 20), were entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, Katie Dawson and Andrew C. Atkins as citizens by intermarriage and the others as citizens by blood. The office does not consider that there is any question as to the right of the applicants to this group who apply for enrollment as citizens by blood, except Arizona Allred and William C. Allred, provided the applicants or their ancestors were properly admitted. It will therefore only discuss the right of the two Allreds to enrollment by reason of any circumstance other than their admission or the admission of their ancestors.

Arizona Allred was a minor when her father, Francis M. Dawson, was admitted to citizenship. She removed to and settled in the Cherokee Nation in 1894. She only stayed about two years when she returned to Arkansas. The record does not show that she retained any property in the Cherokee Nation; neither does it show that she became a citizen of any other country. Under the doctrine laid down by the Department in the William P. Casey case it is necessary to conclusively establish that a citizen not only removed from the Cherokee Nation with his effects, but that he became a citizen elsewhere. This record does not show that Arizona Allred became a citizen of any other jurisdiction; neither does it show that she removed from the Cherokee Nation intending to renounce her allegiance to and citizenship in the Cherokee Nation. It is believed by the office, therefore, that she and her minor children are entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood, provided her father, Francis M. Dawson, Sr., was legally admitted to citizenship in the nation.

The attorneys for the nation in their briefs in addition to the objections to the enrollment of these parties hereinbefore stated, ask:

1. "Were improper means used by them to obtain a favorable decision in their behalf from the citizenship court?
2. Were they Cherokee Indians?. In other words, was the proof upon which they were admitted wholly insufficient to establish that fact or was it perjured and unworthy of belief?"

From the record it does not seem that any of the parties to the Francis M. Dawson case applied to the Commission in 1896. Andrew J. Dawson et al., relatives of Francis M. Dawson, and claiming Cherokee citizenship through the same ancestor, the record shows, applied to the Commission in 1896; that they were rejected and that no appeal was taken. Joanna Barber, et al., relatives of Francis M.

Dawson, applied to the Commission in 1896; they were rejected and appealed to the court where the decision of the Commission was sustained. The Department has, however, in the Wiley Adams case (later May 21, 1903, -- I.T.D. 4398), held in substance that the decision of the Commission in 1896 adverse to the applicant, if his name appeared on a roll, was of no avail, and the office does not understand that there is any difference, under the same circumstances, between a decision of the Commission which became final by reason of no appeal having been taken and the decision of the court affirming the decision of the Commission, which decision of the court became final. The attorneys for the Cherokee Nation conclude their brief as follows:

"The testimony shows that all the members of the Dawson family, admitted since 1883, were admitted upon the strength of the admission of Robert Dawson, et al., January 11, 1883, and the proof of their relationship to him, and therefore if the fountain head was tainted with fraud the entire stream must be peluted."

The attorneys for the applicants, briefly stated, claim that the applicants or their ancestors were roperly and legally admitted and that the Department is without power to go behind that admission or to question the acts of the court or commission in admitting the applicants or their ancestors. The act of January 11, 1883, admitting F. M. Dawson and others to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation is as follows:

"OFFICE OF COMMISSION ON CITIZENSHIP,
TAHLEQUAH, CHEROKEE NATION, JANUARY 11th, 1883.

Robert Dawson, F. M. Dawson, Elbert Dawson, Jasper Dawson, John Dawson, Josephine Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson, Molly Dawson, Wilbron Dawson, James Dawson, Rial Dawson, vs.

No. 109.

The Cherokee Nation.

And now on this the 11th day of January, A. D., 1883, this case coming on for final hearing and all the evidence produced in the case being carefully read and duly considered by the Commission, it was adjudged and determined by the Commission on Citizenship, that the Claimants, Rob't Dawson, F. M. Dawson, Albert Dawson, Jasper Dawson, John Dawson, Josephine Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson, Molly Dawson, Wilbron Dawson, James Dawson, and Rial Dawson, are Cherokees by blood; and that they are entitled to all the rights and privileges of Cherokee Citizenship within the Cherokee Nation, and that they should be, and they should be, and they are hereby admitted to the full and complete enjoyment of the same in all respects as native born Cherokees.

Thomas Tehee, President of Com.
Alex Wolf,
T. F. Thompson, } Commissioners.

D.W.C.Duncan,
Clerk of Commission.

There has been considerable testimony introduced as to the circumstances under which F. M. Dawson and other Dawsons admitted in 1883, procured such admission. Briefly stated, this evidence and the circumstances attending the admission of the Dawsons are as follows:

September 24, 1881, an application was made to the Tehee Court for the admission of Robert Dawson and the members of his family to citizenship. Thomas Tehee and Alex Wolf, members of that court, full blood Cherokees, could understand English but could not talk it. D. W. C. Duncan was clerk of the court. The case was continued from time to time and finally disposed of. One J. M. Bryan seems to have been an attorney in the case and he finally notified Francis M. Dawson that the case would be disposed of at the January 1883, session of the court. He informed one C. M. Tayler to this effect who was to look after Dawson's interests for the reason that Bryan could not be present. Francis M. Dawson, upon receipt of this information, made arrangements with Samuel K. Benge to conduct the case. Benge is a witness in the case and testified that he was connected with the Dawson case when it was commenced in 1881; that it was continued several times for want of evidence; that in January, 1883, he went to Tahlequah for Francis M. Dawson and secured the testimony of Tosh Rogers who knew the Dawsons' ancestors. He further testifies that the court rendered a decision against the Dawsons, and that the next morning the case was reopened and a judgment admitting them to citizenship was rendered. He further says that on his way home he remarked to Francis M. Dawson, "It was a pretty hard blow when they rendered a decision against us;" that Dawson replied, "Yes, but Duncan was the man to reach and he reached him with five hundred dollars." Dawson denies this conversation. C. H. Tayler testified that he was an attorney in the case and was present when the decision was rendered. He says that Tahee and Wolf were the only members of the court present when the decision was rendered. He also says that Duncan, the clerk, requested him to let him (duncan) know when large cases were coming up; that he introduced F. M. Dawson to Duncan on January 10, 1883; that he heard part of the conversation between Duncan and Dawson; that Duncan said "there is a hitch in your evidence, if that was straightened out it would be all right;" That next morning Dawson told him (Tayler) to call up the case; that no additional evidence was introduced and no argument was made; and that the case was then decided favorably to the Dawsons. He also says that Dawson paid him $20 and said he would send the remainder in a short time; that in about ten days Dawson sent him $100 with direction to pay half of it to Duncan; that Dawson afterwards sent another hundred dollars with direction to give half of it to Duncan. Dawson denies the testimony of Tayler except that part relating to the payment of money. He claims that the $20 was sent Tayler about a year after the decision and that he instructed Tayler to pay it over to Duncan in payment for a land claim, and that the other money was sent Tayler in payment of J. W. Bryan's fees as attorney, which Tayler claimed he had for collection against him (Dawson). Tayler's reputation for truth and veracity from the records does not appear to be beyond reproach.

S. H. Benge testified that the decision adverse to the claim of the Dawsons was rendered one evening and reversed the next morning without the introduction of additional testimony. Thomas B. Babcart testified that James Dawson with Butler, the court's interpreter, and one Jim Smith, solicitor, for the Cherokee Nation, came to him at Tahlequah January 10, 1883, to borrow some money; that James Dawson was represented by Butler as a responsible party; that James Dawson claimed he had to have the money that night; that his case was to be submitted the next morning; that Jim Smith had agreed to submit the case without further evidence; and that he (Babcart) let Jim Dawson have $10. J. L. Clinkenbeard testified that in 1881 ? he had a talk with Kibert Dawson who told him that he had one witness only, Dr. Baker, an old man about 85 or 90 years of age "who did not know straight up;" that he could give Dr. Baker three or four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would swear "white was black." He also testified that Kibert Dawson told him that money was what made the mare go in Texas, and that he had found it would go in the Cherokee Nation. James W. Lewis testified to a conversation he had with F. M. Dawson about 1883 in which in effect Dawson said that it would cost him $700 to be admitted. C. B. Braught testified that in 1881 or 1882 he was an applicant for admission to citizenship; that while his case was pending he had a talk with Francis M. Dawson who told him that if he got admitted it would cost him $700; that Dawson said that he had paid one witness $300; and that he had made arrangements with the court to have the Dawsons admitted for $100 per family. Dave Meredith testified that he had a talk with James Dawson in 1883 who told him it had cost him $1200 to be admitted.

The Commission states in its opinion that its docket shows that all three members of the court signed its decision. There is some conflict, however, in the testimony as to whether Thompson signed his name or whether it was signed by Duncan. Duncan claims that all three signatures were made by him by direction of the members of the court who were present, to-wit: Thomas Tehee and Alex Wolf, both of whom were unable to sign their names. T. F. Thompson, the other membsef the commission testified that he did not possess or have, and had not had, any knowledge of any corruption or bribery of the court or commission, or of any member of it by F. M. Dawson, or any member of the Dawson family, or anybody else in connection with the presentation of their claim for citizenship, and that he did not think that there had been any corruption or bribery in connection with he admission of the Dawsons.

The Commission, in its decision, invites attention to the case of the United States vs. Throckmorton (98 U.S., p. 61), in which it is said:

"The doctrine is well settled that the court will not set aside a judgment because it is founded on perjured testimony or for any matter which was actually presented and considered in connection with the judgment assailed."

It appears to this office that the only question to be determined in this case is whether or not the Dawsons were legally and properly admitted by the Tehee Court. The act of admission declared that the Dawsons were of Cherokee blood, and the office does not believe that the Department has power to go behind this declaration and question their blood. It is claimed by the nation that they are not of Cherokee blood. It seems to be true that since 1884 no member of the Dawson family has been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the tribal authorities except Edna Mabry, nee Dawson, and certain other persons parties to the group, but this office does not believe that that fact is sufficient to warrant the conclusion that the Dawsons admitted in 1883 and 1884 were admitted through fraud. From the evidence it appears that D. W. C. Duncan, clerk of the court, was paid money by the Dawsons through other parties for the interest he took in their case, but there is not a scintilla of evidence which shows or has any tendency to establish that any member of the court received one cent of money or other thing of value in consideration of rendering a judgment favorable to the Dawsons.

November 2,, 1902 (I.T.D. 624,2447), in the Lydia Frazier et al., case, applicants for enrollment as Cherokees, the Department said, among other things, that it could not"assume fraud in any case, or that a party's name has been placed upon the rolls of the nation without authority of law." This office being of the opinion that the record does not show that the Dawsons procured their admission as citizens of the Cherokee Nation by fraud, or by corrupting or bribing the [illegible], recommends the approval of the Commission's decision as to the applicants in this group, except as to applicants Katie Dawson and Andrew C. Atkins, for enrollment as citizens by intermarriage, and as to applicants Arizona Allred and William C. Allred; as hereinbefore stated, it believes that Arizona Allred and William C. Allred are entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,

Commissioner.

WASHINGTON. March 31 1904.

The Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

The Department has considered the record in the matter of the applications of Francis M. Dawson, et al., for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, transmitted by you February 25, 1903.

In your decision of December 23, 1902, which was transmitted with the record, you disposed of these applications by groups, including in each group the claims of those persons depending upon the same ancestry and source of rights.

In transmitting these applications the Commissioner of Indian Affairs followed your system of grouping but forwarded each group by a separate letter. The Department will follow the course pursued by the Indian Office.

Those applicants whose claims are embraced in groups 1 to 11 inclusive, rely upon a decree of a Cherokee commission known as the "Tehee Court," which appears upon the records of said commission as follows:

OFFICK OF COMMISSION ON CITIZENSHIP,
TAHLEQUAH, CHEROKEE NATION, JANUARY 11th, 1883.

Robert Dawson, F. M. Dawson, Kibert Dawson, Jasper Dawson, John Dawson, Josephine Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson, Molly Dawson, Wilbron Dawson, James Dawson, Rial Dawson,

No 108

vs.

The Cherokee Nation.

And now on this the 11th day of January, A. D., 1883, this case coming on for final hearing and all the evidence produced in the case being carefully read and duly considered by the Commission, it was adjudged and determined by the Commission on Citizenship, that the Claimants, Rob't Dawson, F. M. Dawson, Kibert Dawson, Jasper Dawson, John Dawson, Josephine Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson, Molly Dawson, Wilbron Dawson, James Dawson, and Rial Dawson, are Cherokees by blood; and that they are entitled to all the rights and privileges of Cherokee Citizenship within the Cherokee Nation, and that they should be, and they should be, and they are hereby admitted to the full and complete enjoyment of the same in all respects as native born Cherokees.

Thomas Tehee, President of Com.
Alex Wolf
T. F. Thompson } Commissioners.

D.W.C. Duncan,
Clerk of Commission.

Group 1 as disposed of by you includes the application of Francis M. Dawson, Sr., for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood, and the applications of those who claim through him by blood and intermarriage. The names of these applicants appear below.

Francis M. Dawson, Sr., is the Francis M. Dawson whose name appears in the decree of the Tehee court quoted above. He has resided in the Cherokee Nation since his admission and is identified on the Cherokee rolls of 1883, 1894, and 1896. Lula, Ray, Jessie J., Jacob L., Hugh A. and Laura A. Dawson are his children. They were minors at the date of his application, September 17, 1900. Their residence is considered to be that of their father. All of them are identified upon the 1896 census roll.

John Dawson is the son of Francis M. Dawson, Sr. He was a minor when his father was admitted. He removed to the Cherokee Nation about the year 1883 where he has since resided. His name appears upon the 1894 strip payment roll.

William R. Dawson is also the son of Francis M. Dawson, Sr., and was a minor when the latter was admitted to Cherokee citizenship. He has resided in the Nation since 1883 and is identified upon the 1896 census roll.

Lizzie Atkins, formerly Dawson, is the daughter of Francis M. Dawson Sr., and is identified upon the 1894 payment roll. She has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883 and was a minor when her father was admitted.

Francis M. Dawson, Jr., is the son of Francis M. Dawson, Sr., and was a minor when his father was admitted. He removed to the Cherokee Nation in 1883 and is identified upon the 1894 payment roll.

Andrew C. Atkins claims enrollment by intermarriage, as the husband of Lizzie Atkins, referred to above. Arthur, Edna E., Edward C. and George J. F. Atkins, are the minor children of Andrew C. and Lizzie Atkins. Arthur is identified upon the 1894 payment roll. The other three children are identified by birth affidavits on file with your Commission.

Arizona Allred is the daughter of Francis M. Dawson, Sr. She was a minor when her father was admitted and is identified upon the 1896 census roll. She removed to the Cherokee Nation for the first time in 1894 where she remained for two years and then returned to Arkansas. She was married in that state to Lee Allred, but not in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. They came to said Nation in 1896, remained there a month, and returned to Arkansas where they resided until September, 1898. At the latter date they returned to the Cherokee Nation. After a residence of a year therein, they removed to Arkansas where they were living at the time of their application. William C. Allred is their child.

In your decision of December 23, 1902, you held that all these applicants were entitled to enrollment excepting Arizona Allred and William C. Allred, rejecting them because paragraph 9 of section 21 of the act of Congress approved Jun 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides that-

> No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the nation in which he claims citizenship.

In his report of October 16, 1903, relating to the matter, copy inclosed, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommended that you be directed to enroll all of these applicants except those who claim by intermarriage. In a subsequent letter dated September 21, 1903, you recommended that the record in the matter of the application of Arizona Allred and William C. Allred be returned to you for further investigation in view of the decision of the Assistant Attorney General of March 16, 1903, in the Yeargain case.

The attorney for the Cherokee Nation protests against the enrollment of these applicants alleging that the decree of the "Tahoe Court" was procured through fraud. This contention is considered untenable in the light of the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of February 18, 1904, (approved by the Department), relative to the matter. A copy of this opinion was sent you February 24, 1904.

You are directed to enroll all of the applicants who claim by blood except Arizona Allred and William C. Allred. The record in their case is returned herewith for furthe investigation.

Action will be suspended relative to these applicants who claim by intermarriage until the Court of Claims determines whether or not such persons are entitled to enrollment.

Respectfully,

(signed) Thos Ryan,
Acting Secretary.
